Source Note Information

A source note shows the legislative history of a C.R.S. section and is located immediately after the text of the section. The source note for each section indicates the year the section was added, each year it was amended, and the page of the Session Laws and the section of the bill where the amendment can be found. The source note includes the number of the section in prior codifications when applicable. For amendments made after 1973, information on each specific provision of the section that has been changed by a bill, the specific change to the provision (i.e. added, added with relocations, amended, amended with relocations, repealed, repealed and reenacted, or recreated and reenacted), and the effective date of the bill are shown.

The legislative history is arranged by year of passage; if the section was amended by two or more acts in the same year, the order of the information for that year is determined by the effective dates of the acts. The effective date in the source note indicates the date the act or portion of the act takes effect even if the text of the amendment indicates a different date. If the year is not included with the month and day, the provision is effective the year of passage. Additional information to assist the user in researching C.R.S. sections can be found beginning on page vii.

The following provides a further explanation of the information found in a source note:

“L.” is the symbol for “Session Laws” and will be followed by a number indicating the year when the C.R.S. section was changed by an act generally either creating new law, amending existing law, or repealing existing law; except that, in the constitution, “L.” also means constitutional measures referred by the General Assembly and voted on by the people of Colorado at a general or an odd-year election.

“Ex. Sess.” is the symbol for “Extraordinary Session”. If this symbol follows the year, the amended provision can be found in the Session Laws for an extraordinary session for that year and not in the Session Laws for the regular session of the General Assembly for that year (S, S2 in the Red Book).

“§” is the symbol for “section” and will be followed by a number indicating the section of the act where the amendment to the C.R.S. section can be found.

“IP” is the symbol for the “introductory portion” to a section, subsection, paragraph, or subparagraph.

“Added with relocations” means the provision in existing law was relocated from one title, article, part, or section to another title, article, part, or section with amendments by the act.

“Amended with relocations” means the provision in existing law was amended to reorganize an entire title, article, part, or section by the act.

“Repealed” means the provision was deleted from the existing law by the act through the use of a repeal provision (R in the Red Book).

“R&RE” is the symbol for “Repealed and Reenacted” and means the provision in existing law was repealed and reenacted by the act (RE in the Red Book).

“RC&RE” is the symbol for “Recreated and Reenacted” and means a previously repealed provision has been recreated by the act (RC in the Red Book).

“Added by revision” means a provision providing for the repeal of a statutory provision on a specified date has been added by the Revisor of Statutes as a C.R.S. provision. Adding the provision is necessary because a separate section of the act provided for the repeal of the provision with a future effective date.

“Initiated” means a provision that was amended by means of an initiated petition approved by a vote of the people of Colorado at a general or an odd-year election.

“Referred” means a provision that was amended by a measure referred by the General Assembly and voted on by the people of Colorado at a general or an odd-year election; except that, in the constitution, a referred measure is indicated by “L.” and also means constitutional measures referred by the General Assembly and voted on by the people of Colorado at a general or an odd-year election.

Starting in 2009, references to the bill number and chapter number have been included in the source note. If you are conducting a search on-line, the bill number reference within the source note links directly to the bill itself.

Colorado Statutory Research

Legislative history is not already written. It must be compiled by the researcher from many different sources and materials. The following information is a helpful starting point in identifying information you wish to research. Consult the red book table distributed with the session laws, the softbound editions of Colorado Revised Statutes beginning in 1997, the comparative tables located in the back of the C.R.S. index, C.R.S. 1963 and subsequent cumulative supplements thereto through 1971, and C.R.S. 1973 and annual cumulative supplements thereto through 1996.

Prior to 1921, enacted laws were not compiled into a comparative table, thereby making it more difficult to track the legislative history. Determining the subject matter in the statutory index is the only choice for tracking the history of a statute since a statute did not retain its original number. The General Statutes of 1883 arranged laws into numbered chapters, alphabetically entitled, collated, and arranged by sections. This became the foundation and model for compiling the statutes until the codification of C.R.S. 1973. (See Revised Statutes of Colorado 1908, An Act Providing For the Compilation, Publication, and Distribution of all the general statutes of the state.)

References in some source notes throughout the Colorado Revised Statutes to “Code 08”, “Code 21”, and “Code 35” are to the Revised Statutes of Colorado 1908, the Compiled Laws of Colorado 1921, and the Colorado Statutes Annotated 1935, respectively. Each of these volumes set forth the general statutes of the state of Colorado, including the Code of Civil Procedure and, in 1935, the Colorado Supreme Court Rules. On January 6, 1941, the Colorado Supreme Court adopted the new Rules of Civil Procedure, which became effective on April 6, 1941, resulting in the publication of a replacement volume. Thereafter, the publication of the Colorado Court Rules, although a continuing part of the Colorado Revised Statutes, contained a combination of the Federal Rules and the Colorado Code of Civil Procedure and, in addition, included some provisions that were entirely distinct from both the Federal Rules and the Colorado Code of Civil Procedure, as adopted or amended by the Supreme Court of Colorado.

To research a statute as it existed in previous years, the following is a chronological list of C.R.S. publications and the correct citation for each publication.

- 1967 hardbound supplement containing laws enacted in 1966 and 1967
- 1969 hardbound supplement containing laws enacted in 1968 and 1969
- 1971 hardbound supplement containing laws enacted in 1970 and 1971

The softbound publication of the “Official Report of the Committee on Legal Services” was not intended as an official publication of our office. Copies were distributed to the members of the General Assembly for the purpose of certifying the laws enacted in the 1972 and 1973 Sessions for inclusion in the compilation of the 1973 C.R.S., which was not available until 1974. To find the 1972 or 1973 amended language, refer to the session laws of either 1972 or 1973.

Bills Enacted Without A Safety Clause
Explanation of Effective Date

If a bill is enacted without a safety clause and an effective date is not indicated in the bill, the effective date is the day following the expiration of the ninety-day period after final adjournment of the General Assembly that is allowed for submitting a referendum petition pursuant to article V, section 1 (3) of the state Constitution unless a referendum petition is filed against the act within such time period. If a referendum petition is filed, the act, if approved by the people, will take effect on the date of the official declaration of the vote thereon by proclamation of the Governor or the date indicated in the act if it is later than the Governor’s proclamation. The source note for a provision contained in such an act will indicate the actual date following the ninety-day period or the date set out in the act. If a referendum petition is filed, the date in the source note will be adjusted accordingly in the next publication following the election where the referendum petition is considered.

Annotations

Beginning in 2012, the annotations for Colorado state appellate court decisions include both public domain and regional reporter case cites. In preparing annotations to court decisions, we endeavor to include the most recent decisions. Occasionally, this may result in the inclusion of a decision before it becomes finalized and published in an official reporter. In such instances, the case cite will contain blank spaces for the volume and page number of the reporter. The volume and page number will be substituted for the blank spaces in subsequent publications of the statutes.

EXAMINATIONS

GENERAL PROVISIONS

10-1-101. Legislative declaration. The general assembly finds and declares that the purpose of this title is to promote the public welfare by regulating insurance to the end that insurance rates shall not be excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory, to give consumers thereof the greatest choice of policies at the most reasonable cost possible, to permit and encourage open competition between insurers on a sound financial basis, and to avoid regulation of insurance rates except under circumstances specifically authorized under the provisions of this title. Such policy requires that all persons having to do with insurance services to the public be at all times actuated by good faith in everything pertaining thereto, abstain from deceptive or misleading practices, and keep, observe, and practice the principles of law and equity in all matters pertaining to such business.

Source: L. 2003: Entire article RC&RE, p. 587, § 1, effective July 1.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 10-1-101 as it existed prior to 2002.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 10-1-101 is similar to § 10-1-101 as it existed prior to the 2002 repeal of article 1 of title 10, relevant cases construing that provision have been included in the annotations to this section.

Insurance commissioner's authority is broad and necessarily includes the authority to determine whether an insurance company has acted in bad faith. Hartford Fire Ins. Co. v. Colo. Div. of Ins., 824 P.2d 76 (Colo. App. 1991).

Concept of insurance bad faith claim applies outside only the cancellation or claims settings. The nature of the relationship created by the insurance contract, rather than the activity involved, determines whether the duty of good faith and fair dealing exists. The duty, as formulated by the general assembly in this section, is a broad and wide-ranging one. Ballow v. PHICO Ins. Co., 875 P.2d 1354 (Colo. 1993).

A third-party administrator owes a duty of good faith to an insured when a special relationship exists between the third-party administrator and the insured. A special relationship is created when the administrator has primary control over benefit determinations; assumes some of the insurance risk of loss; undertakes many of the obligations and risks of an insurer; and has the power, motive, and opportunity to act unscrupulously in the investigation and servicing of the insurance claims. To establish a breach of this duty of good faith, the plaintiff must establish that the third-party administrator's conduct was unreasonable and that the administrator knew its conduct was unreasonable or acted in a reckless disregard of whether its conduct was unreasonable. Cary v. United of Omaha Life Ins. Co., 68 P.3d 462 (Colo. 2003).

Insurer did not engage in bad faith where policy informed customers that purchase of UM/UM coverage provided UM/UM coverage for all class one and class two insureds in all vehicles. An offer that includes accurate information about additional benefits provided is sufficient, and those benefits do not need to be specifically identified as additional benefits. Mullen v. Allstate Ins. Co., 232 P.3d 168 (Colo. App. 2009).

10-1-102. Definitions. As used in this title, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Actuary" means a person designated by the commissioner as a qualified actuary based on requirements set forth in rules promulgated by the commissioner.

(2) "Admitted assets" includes the investments that are admitted assets of a domestic company under parts 1 and 2 of article 3 and part 4 of article 7 of this title and, in addition thereto, includes:

(a) Those assets defined as admitted by nationally recognized insurance statutory accounting principles; and

(b) Other assets deemed by the commissioner to be available for the payment of losses and claims, at values to be determined by the commissioner.

(3) "Admitted company" or "authorized company" designates companies duly qualified and licensed to transact business in this state, under the provisions of this title. "Nonadmitted companies" or "unauthorized companies" designates companies not licensed to transact business in this state, under the provisions of this title (except article 15) and article 14 of title 24, C.R.S.

(3.5) "Bail insurance company" means an insurer engaged in the business of writing bail bonds through bonding agents and subject to regulation by the division.

(3.7) "Bail recovery" means actions taken by a person other than a peace officer to apprehend an individual or take an individual into custody because of the individual's failure to comply with bail conditions.

(4) "Charitable gift annuity" means an annuity that:

(a) Meets the definition and standards contained in section 501 (m) (5) of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", as amended;

(b) Contains on its face the following statement: "This annuity is not issued by an insurance company nor regulated by the Colorado division of insurance and is not protected by any state guaranty fund or protective association."

(c) Is issued or guaranteed by an organization that at all times during the three years preceding the date of the issuance of such annuity:

(I) Was qualified to receive contributions described in section 170 (c) of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", as amended; and

(II) If required as a condition of such qualification by provisions of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", as amended, was in receipt of notification from the federal internal revenue service that such organization was so qualified.

(5) "Commissioner" or "insurance commissioner" means the commissioner of insurance.

(6) (a) "Company", "corporation", "insurance company", or "insurance corporation" includes all corporations, associations, partnerships, or individuals engaged as insurers in the business of insurance, including the attorney-in-fact authorized by and acting for the subscribers of a reciprocal insurer or interinsurance exchange, or suretyship except fraternal or benevolent orders and societies.

(b) "Company", "corporation", "insurance company", or "insurance corporation" does not include health maintenance organizations unless the specific provision of law by its terms applies to health maintenance organizations.

(c) For the purposes of a "company", "corporation", or "insurance company", a reciprocal insurer shall be considered a single economic entity.

(7) "Division" means the division of insurance.

(8) "Domestic" designates those companies incorporated or formed in this state.

(9) "Foreign", when used without limitation, includes all those companies formed by authority of any other state or government.

(10) "Institution" means any entity including, but not limited to, a corporation, a joint-stock company, a limited liability company, an association, a bank, a trust, a partnership, a joint venture, a special district, a government, or a quasi-governmental agency.

(11) "Insurable interest in property" means every interest in property or any relation thereto, or liability in respect thereof, of such a nature that a contemplated peril might directly damnify the insured.

(12) "Insurance" means a contract whereby one, for consideration, undertakes to indemnify another or to pay a specified or ascertainable amount or benefit upon determinable risk contingencies, and includes annuities.

(13) "Insurer" means every person engaged as principal, indemnitor, surety, or contractor in the business of making contracts of insurance.

(14) "Motor vehicle rental agreement" means an agreement for the rental of a motor vehicle for transportation purposes, for a period of no more than ninety days, in return for a fee that is calculated on a daily, weekly, or monthly basis.

(15) "Motor vehicle rental company" means an entity that is in the business of renting, pursuant to motor vehicle rental agreements, motor vehicles that do not come within the definition of a commercial motor vehicle as set forth in section 42-2-402 (4), C.R.S.

(16) "Nonadmitted assets" includes, but is not limited to, those assets defined as nonadmitted by nationally recognized insurance statutory accounting principles. Nonadmitted assets shall not be taken into account in determining the financial condition of a company.

(17) (a) "Qualified United States financial institution" means an institution that is:

(I) Organized or, in the case of a United States office of a foreign banking organization, licensed under the laws of the United States or any state thereof; and

(II) Regulated, supervised, and examined by United States federal or state authorities having regulatory authority over banks, trust companies, or savings and loan associations.

(b) If any qualified United States financial institution issues letters of credit, such institution shall have been determined by either the commissioner or the securities valuation office of the national association of insurance commissioners to meet such standards of financial condition and standing as are considered necessary and appropriate to regulate the quality of financial institutions whose letters of credit will be acceptable to the commissioner.

(c) If any qualified United States financial institution operates a trust, such institution shall be eligible to operate as a fiduciary of a trust and shall have been granted authority to operate with fiduciary powers.

(19) "Transact" as applied to insurance means and includes any of the following:

(a) Solicitation and inducement;

(b) Negotiations preliminary to effectuation of a contract of insurance;

(c) Execution of a contract of insurance;

(d) Transaction of matters subsequent to effectuation of a contract of insurance and arising out of the contract obligations.

(2) Section 52 of chapter 280, Session Laws of Colorado 2012, provides that the act adding subsections (3.5) and (3.7) and amending subsection (3) applies to offenses committed and applications submitted on or after July 1, 2012.

ANNOTATION

- I. General Consideration.
- II. Company.
- III. Insurable Interest.
- IV. Insurance.
  - A. In General.
  - B. Construction.
- V. Insurer.

I. GENERAL CONSIDERATION.

Annotator's note. Cases relevant to § 10-1-102 decided prior to its earliest source, L. 13, p. 321, § 2, have been included in the annotations to this section. Since § 10-1-102 is similar to § 10-1-102 as it existed prior to the 2002 repeal of article 1 of title 10, relevant cases construing that provision also have been included in the annotations to this section.

II. COMPANY.

An interinsurance exchange is included in the definition of insurance company in subsection (4). Because § 10-13-114 applies the regulatory remedies in §§ 10-3-401 to 10-3-414 to interinsurance exchanges, the insurance commissioner has the discretion to rehabilitate an interinsurance exchange in the same manner as any other insurance company. Alias Smith & Jones v. Barnes, 695 P.2d 302 (Colo. App. 1984).

III. INSURABLE INTEREST.

One who makes a bona fide claim to equitable or legal title in property has an insurable interest, because he would suffer pecuniary damage in its destruction. Am. Ins. Co. v. Donlon, 16 Colo. App. 416, 66 P. 249 (1901).

A trustor may recover for loss. Where an insurance policy is issued to the owner covering property upon which there is a deed of trust and a loss occurs, the trustor may recover the entire loss irrespective of the encumbrance or the fact that the cestui que trust also had a policy on the property in which his interest, to the amount of the indebtedness, was insured. Farmers' Union Mut. Protective Ass'n v. San Luis State Bank, 86 Colo. 293, 281 P. 366 (1929).

Owner has some interest in the property conveyed after sale by the trustee, until such time as the trustee under the deed of trust executes his deed to the person entitled thereto. Farmers' Union Mut. Protective Ass'n v. San Luis State Bank, 86 Colo. 293, 281 P. 366 (1929).

Insurable interest is not dependent upon completeness or validity of title by which the property is held; a limited or qualified interest is enough. Webb v. M.F.A. Mut. Ins. Co., 44 Colo. App. 210, 620 P.2d 38 (1980).

Subsequent bona fide purchaser of stolen motor vehicle has insurable interest. A subsequent bona fide purchaser of a stolen motor vehicle has title and the right to possession of the vehicle against the whole world except the rightful owner, and this constitutes an insurable interest. Webb v. M.F.A. Mut. Ins. Co., 44 Colo. App. 210, 620 P.2d 38 (1980).

For cases dealing generally with the question of "insurable interest" from an academic standpoint, see Michigan Fire & Marine Ins.

Co. v. Wich, 8 Colo. App. 409, 46 P. 687 (1896); Helvetia Swiss Fire Ins. Co. v. Allis Co., 11 Colo. App. 264, 53 P. 242 (1898); Am. Cent. Ins. Co. v. Donlon, 16 Colo. #### IV. INSURANCE.

A. In General.

Fraternal benefit societies, by §§ 10-1-113 and 10-14-104, are not governed by general insurance laws. Neighbors of Woodcraft v. Westover, 99 Colo. 231, 61 P.2d 585 (1936).

Contracts of an insurance corporation purporting to be organized not for profit are insurance contracts under the definition recited in subsection (7) and the relationship between the company and its members that of insurer and insured. Int'l. Serv. Union Co. v. People ex rel. Wettengel, 101 Colo. 1, 70 P.2d 431 (1937).

B. Construction.

The terms in an insurance contract are to be given their meaning according to common usage. Reed v. United States Fid. & Guar. Co., 176 Colo. 568, 491 P.2d 1377 (1971).

In the case of ambiguity of any term, the court will look to the body of the insurance contract for enlightenment, and the insurance contract terms will be construed most strongly against the insurer. Reed v. United States Fid. & Guar. Co., 176 Colo. 568, 491 P.2d 1377 (1971).

In determining whether an intent to harm precludes coverage for injury under a homeowner's insurance policy, where the injury is child molestation, the subjective intent of the injuring party is not relevant to the determination. Rather, an intent to injure may be inferred as a matter of law due to the inherently harmful nature of child molestation. Allstate Ins. Co. v. Troelstrup, 789 P. 2d 415 (Colo. 1990).

V. INSURER.

A person in the business of selling motor vehicle service contracts is not an insurer. In re First Assured Warranty Corp., 383 B.R. 502 (Bankr. D. Colo. 2008).

10-1-103. Division of insurance - subject to termination - repeal of functions.

(1) There is established a division of insurance within the department of regulatory agencies. This division is charged with the execution of the laws relating to insurance, and has a supervising authority over the business of insurance in this state. Offices of the division of insurance shall be provided in the capitol buildings group at Denver, Colorado. Whenever any law of this state refers to the insurance department of the state of Colorado, said law shall be construed as referring to the division of insurance.

(2) The commissioner of insurance, before incurring any expense for his or her office and the maintenance thereof, exclusive of salaries and wages, shall make requisition therefor upon and receive the approval of the executive director of the department of personnel as required by law.

(3) All direct and indirect expenditures of the division are paid from the division of insurance cash fund, which is hereby created in the state treasury. All fees collected under sections 8-44-204 (7), C.R.S., 8-44-205 (6), C.R.S., 10-2-413, 10-3-108, 10-3-207, 10-3.5-104, 10-3.5-107, 10-12-106, 10-15-103, 10-16-110 (1) and (2), 10-16-111 (1), 10-23-102, 10-23-104, 24-10-115.5 (5), C.R.S., and 29-13-102 (5), C.R.S., not including fees retained under contracts entered into in accordance with section 10-2-402 (5) or 24-34-101, C.R.S., and all taxes collected under section 10-3-209 (4) designated for the division of insurance, are transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the moneys to the division of insurance cash fund. The division shall use all moneys credited to the division of insurance cash fund as provided in this section and in section 24-48.5-106, C.R.S., subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly for the purposes authorized in this title and as otherwise authorized by law. Moneys in the fund do not revert to the general fund or to any other fund. In accordance with section 24-36-114, C.R.S., all interest derived from the deposit and investment of moneys in the fund is credited to the general fund.

(4) The division of insurance shall adopt a seal with the words "commissioner of insurance of the state of Colorado" and such other design as the commissioner may prescribe engraved thereon, by which it shall authenticate its proceedings, and of which the courts of this state shall take judicial notice. All copies of papers, certified by the commissioner and sealed with the seal of the division, shall have the same force and validity as the originals thereof in any suit or proceeding in any court in this state.

(5) The office of the division of insurance is a public office. The documents, materials, and information of the office or on file in the office are public records of this state, and information shall be furnished to anyone applying for the information; except that documents, materials, and information provided by the regulatory officials of any state, federal agency, or foreign country and by the national association of insurance commissioners shall be given confidential treatment if such documents, materials, and information are treated as confidential in such other state or foreign country or by such other federal agency or the national association of insurance commissioners. Notwithstanding any provision of this subsection (5) to the contrary, the commissioner or the commissioner's designee may share otherwise confidential documents, materials, and information with regulatory officials of any state, federal agency, or foreign country and with the national association of insurance commissioners if the association or the regulatory official of the other state, federal agency, or foreign country agrees and has the legal authority to maintain the same level of confidentiality as applies to the documents, materials, and information under Colorado law.

(6) (a) The provisions of section 24-34-104, C.R.S., concerning the termination schedule for regulatory bodies of this state, unless extended as provided in that section, are applicable to the division of insurance created by this section.

(B.5) and (C) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2010, (HB 10-1220), ch. 197, p. 849, § 1, effective July 1, 2010.)

(E) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2010, (HB 10-1220), ch. 197, p. 849, § 1, effective July 1, 2010.)

(II) Prior to such repeals, the division of insurance shall be reviewed as provided for in section 24-34-104, C.R.S.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 10-1-103 is similar to § 10-1-103 as it existed prior to the 2002 repeal of article 1 of title 10, relevant cases construing that provision have been included in the annotations to this section.

Insurance department charged with execution of insurance related laws. It is provided by this section that the insurance department shall be charged with the execution of the laws relating to insurance now and which may hereafter be enacted, and shall have a supervising authority over the business of insurance in this state. Aronoff v. Pioneer Mut. Comp. Co., 134 Colo. 395, 304 P.2d 1083 (1956).

The interpretation of an insurance contract is a matter of law. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Colo., 888 P.2d 352 (Colo. App. 1994).

An insurance contract should be construed to carry out the intention of the parties, and that intention should be ascertained, if possible, from the language in the policy alone; however, if there is an ambiguity, uncertainty, or conflict as to coverage, courts should construe the policy in favor of the insured. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Colo., 888 P.2d 352 (Colo. App. 1994).

Ambiguity in insurance contract with regard to the retroactive date of the contract must be resolved by giving effect to the inten- tion of the parties, and, therefore, the date which the parties to the contract intended, based on undisputed testimony, is the date that coverage began. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Colo., 888 P.2d 352 (Colo. App. 1994).

Applied in Travelers Indem. Co. v. Barnes, 191 Colo. 278, 552 P.2d 300 (1976).

10-1-104. Commissioner of insurance - other employees. (1) The commissioner of insurance is the head of the division of insurance. The commissioner shall be appointed by, and serve at the pleasure of, the governor, subject to confirmation of the appointment by the senate pursuant to section 23 of article IV of the state constitution. The commissioner shall be a person well versed in insurance, and an elector of the state of Colorado, and shall have no pecuniary interest in any insurance company or agency directly or indirectly other than as a policyholder.

(2) The commissioner shall have such employees as may be required for the transaction of the business of the office of the commissioner. One or more shall be deputy commissioners of insurance who are authorized in all matters to act as and for the commissioner of insurance in the absence of the commissioner. Examiners shall be classified as senior and junior. A senior examiner shall have had three full years' experience in the examination of insurance companies as an employee of a state insurance department. The salary and term of office of the commissioner and the employees of the division shall be fixed pursuant to section 13 of article XII of the state constitution.

10-1-108. Duties of commissioner - reports - publications - fees - disposition of funds - adoption of rules - examinations and investigations. (1) It is the duty of the commissioner to:

(a) File in offices of the division, and safely keep, all books and papers required by law to be filed therein and to keep and preserve in permanent form a full record of the commissioner's proceedings, including a concise statement of the condition of such insurance companies reported to or examined by the commissioner;

(b) Issue certificates of authority to transact insurance business to any insurance companies that fully comply with the laws of this state;

(c) Issue such other certificates as required by law in the organization of insurance companies and the transaction of the business of insurance; and

(d) Generally, do and perform with justice and impartiality all such duties as are or may be imposed on the commissioner by the laws in relation to the business of insurance in this state.

(2) The commissioner shall require every domestic insurance company to keep its books, records, accounts, and vouchers in such a manner that the commissioner or the commissioner's authorized representatives may readily verify its annual statements and ascertain whether the company is solvent and has complied with the provisions of law. The commissioner shall annually make a tabular statement and synopsis of the several statements as accepted by the commissioner.

(3) The commissioner shall furnish to all insurance companies doing business in this state blanks for the filing of statements as required by law. The commissioner, on retiring from office, shall deliver to his or her qualified successor all furniture, papers, and property pertaining to the commissioner's office.

(4) It is the duty of the commissioner to examine all requests and applications for licenses to be issued under the authority of part 4 of article 2 of this title, and the commissioner is authorized to refuse to issue any such licenses until the commissioner is satisfied of the qualifications and general fitness of the applicant in accordance with the requirements of the insurance laws.

(5) It is the duty of the commissioner to make such investigations and examinations as are authorized by this title (except article 15) and article 14 of title 24, C.R.S., and to investigate such information as is presented to the commissioner by authority that the commissioner believes to be reliable pertaining to violation of the insurance laws of Colorado, and it is the commissioner's duty to present the result of such investigations and examinations for further investigation and prosecution to either the district attorney of the proper judicial district or the attorney general when, in the commissioner's opinion, such violations justify such action.

(6) Any publication circulated in quantity outside the executive branch shall be issued in accordance with the provisions of section 24-1-136, C.R.S.

(7) It is the duty and responsibility of the commissioner to supervise the business of insurance in this state to assure that it is conducted in accordance with the laws of this state and in such a manner as to protect policyholders and the general public.

(8) It is the duty of the commissioner to examine all requests and applications from insurers for certificates of authority to be issued pursuant to section 10-3-105. The commissioner is authorized to refuse to issue any such certificates of authority until the commissioner is reasonably satisfied as to the qualifications and general fitness of the insurer to comply with the requirements of the provisions of this title (except article 15) and article 14 of title 24, C.R.S.

(9) It is the duty of the commissioner to transmit all surcharges, costs, taxes, penalties, and fines collected by the division of insurance under any provision of this title (except article 15) and article 14 of title 24, C.R.S., to the department of the treasury. All funds so transmitted shall be credited to the general fund; except that any funds collected by the commissioner as reimbursement for out-of-state travel costs in conjunction with the examination of an insurance company or with an activity to improve regulation of insurance companies are hereby continuously appropriated to the division of insurance in addition to any other funds appropriated for its normal operation.

(10) It is the duty of the commissioner to encourage the dissemination to the public of general information concerning insurance by those engaged in the business of insurance, so as to work toward informed choices of insurance needs and options.

(11) It is the duty of the commissioner to evaluate insurance policies for long-term care to determine their compliance with the provisions of article 19 of this title and to provide insurance companies with a written statement indicating the results of such determination.

(12) It is the duty of the commissioner to oversee the operation of electronic data interchange projects for purposes of uniform billing and electronic data exchange for health benefit coverages in Colorado. In carrying out such duties, the commissioner shall coordinate with the departments of labor and employment, public health and environment, and health care policy and financing, as appropriate.

(13) (a) If determined appropriate for purposes of licensure of provider networks and individual providers as provided in section 6-18-302 (1) (b), C.R.S., the commissioner may adopt rules after consultation with providers and other appropriate persons that set forth standards or requirements specific to licensed provider networks or licensed individual providers concerning solvency and operational capacity or the performance of services consistent with the extent of risk being accepted by the licensed provider network or licensed individual provider.

(b) In determining the need for and the content of such rules, the commissioner shall take into consideration:

(I) The differences between licensed provider networks or licensed individual providers and the type, amount, and extent of risk they accept and services they provide as compared with that accepted by traditional sickness and accident insurers, nonprofit hospital, medical-surgical, and health service corporations, and health maintenance organizations;

(II) The types of information the commissioner would need to assess a provider network or individual provider's ability to accept and manage risk and monitor material changes in the financial solvency or operational capabilities of a provider network or individual provider;

(III) The need to protect consumers, monitor the financial solvency of licensed provider networks and licensed individual providers, and assure the provision of services to consumers, including reasonable access to coverage, according to contractual obligations; and

(IV) Whether such rules would give a licensed provider network or licensed individual provider an unreasonable competitive advantage or disadvantage as compared to traditional insurers, nonprofit hospital, medical-surgical, and health service corporations, and health maintenance organizations offering similar products under similar circumstances.

(c) The commissioner may also consider whether rates are excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory.

(d) The commissioner may establish a fee to cover the direct and indirect costs of the regulation of provider networks pursuant to the provisions of this subsection (13) and part 3 of article 18 of title 6, C.R.S.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 10-1-108 is similar to § 10-1-108 as it existed prior to the 2002 repeal of article 1 of title 10, relevant cases construing that provision have been included in the annotations to this section.

Title insurance companies subject to commissioner's general regulatory powers. Both domestic and foreign title insurance companies are and have been subject to the general regulatory powers vested in the state insurance commissioner. Commander Leasing Co. v. Transamerica Title Ins. Co., 477 F.2d 77 (10th Cir. 1973).

Insurance commissioner's authority is broad and necessarily includes the authority to determine whether an insurance company has acted in bad faith. Hartford Fire Ins. Co. v. Colo. Div. of Ins., 824 P.2d 76 (Colo. App. 1991).

Claims asserted against the state attorney general must be dismissed where the ground for the claim is that she is charged under Colorado law with enforcing Colorado's statutory provisions governing the business of insurance, including the enforcement of workers' compensation statutes, when in fact she is not responsible for enforcing either insurance or workers' compensation laws and may become involved in prosecuting related matters only at the request of the commissioner of insurance or the director of workers' compensation. Fuller v. Norton, 881 F. Supp. 468 (D. Colo. 1995).

The commissioner may award attorney fees under the common fund doctrine where it is necessary for the commissioner to discharge his or her responsibilities in an equitable conversion proceeding of a nonprofit corporation to a for-profit stock insurance company pursuant to §10-16-324 and if nothing prohibits such an award. However, the commissioner does not have discretion to award attorney fees for lobbying effort conducted prior to the establishment of the commissioner's authority to preside over the conversion proceeding. Hawes v. Colo. Div. of Ins., 65 P.3d 1008 (Colo. 2003).

10-1-109. Rules of commissioner. (1) The commissioner may establish, and from time to time amend, such reasonable rules as are necessary to enable the commissioner to carry out the commissioner's duties under the laws of the state of Colorado.

(2) The commissioner shall adopt rules to ensure that payments to the subsequent injury fund created in section 8-46-101, C.R.S., the workers' compensation cash fund, created in section 8-44-112 (7), C.R.S., the cost containment fund created in section 8-14.5-108, C.R.S., and the major medical insurance fund created in section 8-46-202, C.R.S., from surcharges on premiums paid for policies of workers' compensation insurance that feature deductibles in excess of the limit set forth in section 8-44-111 (1), C.R.S., reflect the value of any reduction in premium achieved through the use of such deductibles. Such rules shall apply only to claims made on policies issued or renewed after the effective date of the rules. In adopting such rules, the commissioner shall determine the most effective method of establishing the value of deductibles in excess of such limits and ensuring that payments reflect such value.

Authority to issue proper regulations. The commissioner of insurance and the director of revenue have the authority, individually or jointly, to issue proper regulations to enforce relevant statutes. Travelers Indem. Co. v. Barnes, 191 Colo. 278, 552 P.2d 300 (1976).

Deference given to construction of statute by administrative official. Construction of a statute by administrative official charged with its enforcement shall be given great deference by the courts. Travelers Indem. Co. v. Barnes, 191 Colo. 278, 552 P.2d 300 (1976).

However, administrative regulations are not absolute rules. Travelers Indem. Co. v. Barnes, 191 Colo. 278, 552 P.2d 300 (1976).

Action by administrative official in excess of authority. When an administrative official misconstrues a statute and issues a regulation beyond the scope of a statute, it is in excess of administrative authority granted, and the regulation is invalid. Travelers Indem. Co. v. Barnes, 191 Colo. 278, 552 P.2d 300 (1976).

10-1-110. Grounds and procedure for suspension or revocation of certificate or license of entities. (1) The certificate of authority of an insurance company to do business in this state may be revoked or suspended by the commissioner for any reason specified in this title and article 14 of title 24, C.R.S. Specifically, the certificate may be suspended or revoked by the commissioner for reasons that include, but are not limited to:

- (a) Insolvency or impairment, as defined in section 10-3-212;
- (b) Failure to meet the requirements of section 10-3-201;
- (c) Refusal or failure to submit an annual report, as required by section 10-3-109, or any other report required by law or by lawful order of the commissioner;
- (d) Doing an unauthorized insurance business in another state, as set forth in section 10-1-117;
- (e) Failure to comply with the provisions of its own charter or bylaws, if such failure renders its operation hazardous to the public or to its policyholders;
- (f) Failure to submit to examination or any legal obligation relative thereto;
- (g) Refusal to pay the cost of examination, as authorized by law;
- (h) Use of methods that, although not otherwise specifically proscribed by law, nevertheless render its operation hazardous, or its condition unsound, to the public or to its policyholders;

(i) Failure to otherwise comply with the law of this state, if such failure renders its operation hazardous to the public or to its policyholders;

(j) Use of practices or existence of conditions that render its financial position unsound to the public or its policyholders.

(2) If the commissioner finds upon examination, hearing, or other evidence that any foreign or domestic insurance company has committed any of the acts specified in subsection (1) of this section, or any other act specified in this title and article 14 of title 24, C.R.S., for which the penalty is suspension or revocation of the certificate of authority, the commissioner may suspend or revoke such certificate of authority, if he or she deems it in the best interest of the public and the policyholders of the company, notwithstanding any other provision of said references. Notice of any revocation shall be published in one or more daily newspapers in Denver that have a general state circulation. Before suspending or revoking any certificate of authority of an insurance company, the commissioner shall grant the company fifteen days in which to show cause why such action should not be taken. Any final decision of the commissioner to suspend or revoke a certificate of authority or license of any person or entity regulated by the division of insurance shall be subject to judicial review by the court of appeals pursuant to section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S.

(3) If the commissioner suspends the license or certificate of authority of any entity regulated by the division of insurance, such license or certificate may be revoked one year after the date of suspension if the reason for such suspension is not corrected by the entity. The suspension or revocation of a license or certificate of authority of any entity regulated by the division of insurance shall automatically result in the suspension or revocation, as appropriate, of any license of any insurance agent of any such entity.

(4) If the commissioner finds upon examination or other evidence that any foreign or domestic insurance company has committed any act specified in subsection (1) of this section, the commissioner after notice and hearing may issue an order requiring that the insurance company cease and desist committing such act. If the commissioner believes an emergency exists, the commissioner may enter a cease-and-desist order at once, and a hearing shall be held as soon as practicable. Pending such hearing and decision thereon, the emergency order shall remain in effect subject to the power of the commissioner on the commissioner's own motion or on petition to vacate such order.

10-1-118. Foreign companies - unsatisfied judgments - suspension. (1) If a judgment against a foreign insurance company is unsatisfied, and execution has issued on said judgment, and the return of the sheriff discloses that the sheriff cannot fully satisfy such judgment, the judgment creditor or judgment creditor's attorney may file with the commissioner, in triplicate, a complaint setting forth such facts. The commissioner shall mail a copy of such complaint to the home office of such insurance company, at the address shown in the records of the division of insurance, and a copy to the Colorado office or the Colorado general agent of such insurance company.

(2) If said insurance company does not, within thirty days after such mailing, pay and discharge said judgment or show good cause to the commissioner for the failure to pay such judgment, the commissioner, upon satisfactory proof of the allegations of the complaint, shall forthwith suspend the license or right of such insurance company to do business in this state. If good cause, previously shown, ceases to exist and the judgment remains unpaid, the commissioner shall suspend such license or right.

(3) The commissioner shall reinstate the license or right to do business in this state when the insurance company has fully paid such judgment.

10-1-121. Reporting of malpractice claims against physical therapists. (1) Each insurance company licensed to do business in this state and engaged in the writing of malpractice insurance for physical therapists licensed under article 41 of title 12, C.R.S., shall send to the director of the division of professions and occupations, in the department of regulatory agencies, in the form prescribed by the commissioner of insurance, information relating to each claim involving physical therapy malpractice or against any such physical therapist that is settled or in which judgment is rendered against the insured.

(2) Every insurance company licensed to do business in this state that makes payment under a policy of insurance in settlement of a claim of physical therapy malpractice, or in satisfaction of a judgment for such malpractice, shall report to the secretary of health and human services, in accordance with 42 U.S.C. secs. 11131 and 11134, the following information:

- (a) The name of any physical therapist for whose benefit the payment is made;
- (b) The amount of the payment;

- (c) The name, if known, of any hospital with which the physical therapist is affiliated or associated;
- (d) A description of the acts or omissions and injuries or illnesses upon which the action or claim was based; and
- (e) Such other information as the secretary of health and human services determines is required for appropriate interpretation of the information so reported.

10-1-128. Fraudulent insurance acts - immunity for furnishing information relating to suspected insurance fraud - legislative declaration. (1) For purposes of this title, articles 40 to 47 of title 8, C.R.S., and articles 6, 7, 29.5, 32, 33, 35, 36, 38, 40, 41, 41.5, and 43 of title 12, C.R.S., a fraudulent insurance act is committed if a person knowingly and with intent to defraud presents, causes to be presented, or prepares with knowledge or belief that it will be presented to or by an insurer, a purported insurer, or any producer thereof any written statement as part or in support of an application for the issuance or the rating of an insurance policy or a claim for payment or other benefit pursuant to an insurance policy that he or she knows to contain false information concerning any fact material thereto or if he or she knowingly and with intent to defraud or mislead conceals information concerning any fact material thereto. For purposes of this section, "written statement" includes a patient medical record as such term is defined in section 18-4-412 (2) (a), C.R.S., and any bill for medical services.

(2) (a) The general assembly finds and declares that insurance fraud is expensive; that it increases premiums and places businesses at risk; and that it reduces consumers' ability to raise their standards of living and decreases the economic vitality of this state. The general assembly further finds and declares that the state of Colorado must aggressively confront the problem of insurance fraud by facilitating the detection of and reducing the occurrence of fraud through stricter enforcement and deterrence and by encouraging greater cooperation among consumers, the insurance industry, and the state in coordinating efforts to combat insurance fraud.

(b) Colorado has addressed insurance fraud in various statutes, including but not limited to the civil and administrative provisions found in this section, part 4 of article 2 of this title, parts 1, 2, 9, and 11 of article 3 of this title, and numerous other provisions of this title. It has also been addressed in criminal provisions found in parts 1, 2, and 3 of article 2 of title 18, part 1 of article 4 of title 18, part 1 of article 5 of title 18, and section 18-5-205, C.R.S. These statutory provisions impose regulatory oversight and severe civil and criminal penalties on authorized and unauthorized insurance companies and other persons who commit insurance fraud. The purpose of this section is to further improve regulatory oversight of licensed persons who commit insurance fraud and provide additional remedies to aggrieved persons.

(3) An allegation of a fraudulent insurance act shall not excuse an insurance company from its duty to promptly investigate a claim.

(4) (a) Each insurance company licensed to do business in this state that, in a lawsuit involving a fraudulent insurance act, obtains a judgment or settlement against a person who is licensed by the state of Colorado and whose services are compensated in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, by insurance claim proceeds shall send notice of such settlement or judgment to the appropriate Colorado state licensing board, in the form prescribed by the executive director of the department of regulatory agencies. No cause of action shall arise against any insurance company or individual for providing information as provided in this subsection (4).

(b) Every person who, in a lawsuit involving a fraudulent insurance act, obtains a judgment or settlement against a person who is licensed by the state of Colorado and whose services are compensated in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, by insurance claim proceeds, may send to the appropriate Colorado state licensing board notice of such settlement or judgment. No cause of action shall arise against any person for providing information as provided in this subsection (4).

(c) Every person who obtains a judgment or settlement involving a fraudulent insurance act by an insurance company or an agent of an insurance company may send to the Colorado division of insurance within the department of regulatory agencies notice of such judgment or settlement, including any evidence of a fraudulent insurance act. No cause of action shall arise against any person for providing information as provided in this subsection (4).

(5) (a) Every licensed insurance company doing business in Colorado shall prepare, implement, and maintain an insurance anti-fraud plan; except that this subsection (5) shall not apply to entities whose principal business is the assumption of reinsurance, reinsurance agreements, or reinsurance claims transactions. Insurance companies approved by the commissioner under article 5 of this title may be required, as a condition of such approval, to maintain an insurance anti-fraud plan. Each anti-fraud plan shall outline specific procedures, appropriate to the type of insurance provided by the insurance company in Colorado, to:

(I) Prevent, detect, and investigate all forms of insurance fraud, including fraud by the insurance company's employees and agents, fraud resulting from false representations or omissions of material fact in the application for insurance, renewal documents, or rating of insurance policies, claims fraud, and security of the insurance company's data processing systems;

(II) Educate appropriate employees about fraud detection and the company's anti-fraud plan;

(III) Provide for the hiring of or contracting for one or more fraud investigators;

(IV) Report suspected or actual insurance fraud to the appropriate law enforcement and regulatory entities in the investigation and prosecution of insurance fraud.

(b) The commissioner of insurance may review a licensed insurance company's anti-fraud plan in connection with a market conduct examination to determine whether such plan complies with the requirements of paragraph (a) of this subsection (5).

(c) Every licensed insurance company doing business in this state shall include, as part of its annual report as required in section 10-3-109, a summary of its anti-fraud efforts as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (5).

(d) The anti-fraud plan of an insurance company and the summary of anti-fraud efforts prepared as required in paragraph (c) of this subsection (5) are not public records and are exempted from article 72 of title 24, C.R.S.; are proprietary and not subject to public examination; and are not discoverable or admissible under the Colorado rules of civil procedure in any civil litigation.

(e) Any insurance company or producer of an insurance company that has committed a fraudulent insurance act shall be subject to available disciplinary action by the commissioner of insurance.

(f) The responsibility of an insurance company under this section to prevent, detect, and investigate insurance fraud shall not excuse its duty to comply with section 10-3-1104 or any other applicable insurance law.

(g) (a) Each insurance company shall provide on all printed applications for insurance, or on all insurance policies, or on all claim forms provided and required by an insurance company, or required by law, whether printed or electronically transmitted, a statement, in conspicuous nature, permanently affixed to the application, insurance policy, or claim form substantially the same as the following:

It is unlawful to knowingly provide false, incomplete, or misleading facts or information to an insurance company for the purpose of defrauding or attempting to defraud the company. Penalties may include imprisonment, fines, denial of insurance, and civil damages. Any insurance company or agent of an insurance company who knowingly provides false, incomplete, or misleading facts or information to a policyholder or claimant for the purpose of defrauding or attempting to defraud the policyholder or claimant with regard to a settlement or award payable from insurance proceeds shall be reported to the Colorado division of insurance within the department of regulatory agencies.

(b) This subsection (6) shall not apply to reinsurance contracts, reinsurance agreements, or reinsurance claims transactions.

10-1-131. Duties to third parties - rules. (1) Pursuant to rules promulgated by the commissioner, an insurer shall notify any additional insured by endorsement on a general liability policy, whose interests are affected by a claim, of the results of the insurer's investigation of such claim and the status of the claim within a reasonable period of time as determined by the commissioner. Such notice shall include a statement confirming or denying coverage of the claim and, if coverage is denied, the reasons for denying coverage of the claim or any portion of the claim. In the event coverage has not been determined, a copy of the reservation of rights letter shall constitute sufficient notice.

(2) Failure to notify any additional insured by endorsement on a general liability policy pursuant to this section shall subject the insurer to the provisions of sections 10-3-1108 and 10-3-1109.

(3) The provisions of this section shall not apply to those claims under a general liability policy upon which a lawsuit has been filed.

10-1-133. Consumer insurance council - creation - advisory body - appointment of members - meetings - consumers' choice award - repeal. (1) There is hereby created in the division the consumer insurance council, also referred to in this part 1 as the "council". The council shall be an advisory body to the commissioner concerning matters of interest to the public. Nothing in this section shall divest the commissioner of his or her authority to regulate the business of insurance.

(2) The council shall consist of up to fifteen members, all of whom shall represent consumer organizations. To the greatest extent possible, the council shall reflect the geographic diversity of the state and seek representation from each congressional district. Insurance producers, insurance industry representatives, and actively practicing health care providers are not eligible for membership on the council. Members of the council shall be appointed by the commissioner and shall serve two-year terms with a maximum of three consecutive terms. Members shall serve without compensation; except that members who reside outside of the Denver metropolitan area may be reimbursed for mileage to attend meetings in Denver. The council shall act by consensus.

(3) The council shall meet no more than eight times per year. All meetings of the council shall be open to the public. General meetings of the council shall be held at the office of the division. The council may meet in other locations of the state as agreed upon by the council. Notwithstanding any provision of subsection (2) of this section to the contrary, if the council meets in a location outside of the Denver metropolitan area, members of the council may be reimbursed for mileage to attend the meeting. A council member may request a special meeting. Requests for special meetings shall be made to the chair of the council. All members of the council may request topics of discussion for the council. Members of the council may participate in meetings via telephonic communications.

(4) Three or more unexcused absences of a member of the council shall be grounds for the removal of the member. The chair of the council, in consultation with the commissioner, shall determine whether a member with three or more unexcused absences shall continue service on the council. If a member is removed, the commissioner shall appoint a new member to serve the remaining portion of the two-year term.

(5) (a) The council shall elect a chair from its membership. The chair shall serve a one-year term and may be elected to another one-year term.

(b) The council shall elect a vice-chair from its membership. The vice-chair shall serve in the absence of the chair. The vice-chair shall serve a one-year term and may be elected to another one-year term.

(5.5) The council may issue an annual consumers' choice award to a health insurance carrier that has achieved the lowest rates, highest benefits ratio, and lowest complaint ratio for each line of insurance. In choosing the carrier to receive the award, the council may also consider carrier-provided consumer education, the extent of collaboration with the community to meet the needs of the people the carrier serves, health care transparency, health care innovation, the extent of consumer choice regarding health care plans, and other relevant consumer-related choices as determined by the council.

(6) This section is repealed, effective July 1, 2018; except that, prior to its repeal, the council shall be reviewed pursuant to section 2-3-1203, C.R.S.

10-1-134. Office of insurance ombudsman - plan - report to joint budget committee. On or before September 15, 2008, the commissioner shall present a plan to the joint budget committee of the general assembly regarding the establishment of an office of insurance ombudsman. The plan shall include an assessment of the need to establish the office, a plan to implement the office, and the estimated costs associated with establishing and maintaining the office. The plan shall require the ombudsman to assist consumers with issues related to insurance availability, claims processing, coverage questions, and other matters related to insurance consumer education and assistance.

10-1-135. Reimbursement for benefits - limitations - notice - definitions - legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds and declares that:

(a) When a payer of benefits seeks repayment of the benefits provided to an injured party, the repayment reduces the amount available to the injured party to compensate him or her for injuries and damages other than the cost of medical care and medical services;

(b) Reimbursement or repayment of benefits should not be permitted when the injured party would not be fully compensated for his or her injuries and damages;

(c) It is in the best interests of the citizens of this state to ensure that each insured injured party recovers full compensation for bodily injury caused by the act or omission of a third party, and that such compensation is not diminished by repayment, reimbursement, or subrogation rights of the payer of benefits;

(d) This law regulating insurance and health benefit plans is intended to ensure that an injured party who recovers damages for bodily injuries caused by a third party and receives benefits pursuant to an insurance policy, contract, or benefit plan is fully compensated for his or her injuries and damages before the payer of benefits may seek repayment of benefits provided to the injured party;

(e) In the absence of this section, payers of benefits may seek repayment of benefits out of a recovery obtained by the injured party without paying attorney fees incurred by the injured party in obtaining the recovery, thereby benefitting from attorney services for which they did not pay;

(f) This section is intended to require a payer of benefits to pay a proportionate share of the attorney fees when the payer of benefits is a beneficiary of the attorney services paid for by the injured party.

(2) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Benefits" means payment or reimbursement of health care expenses, health care services, disability payments, lost wage payments, or any other benefits of any kind, including discounts and write-offs, provided to or on behalf of an injured party under a policy of insurance, contract, or benefit plan with an individual or group, whether or not provided through an employer.

(b) "Injured party" means a person who has sustained bodily injury as the result of the act or omission of a third party, has pursued a personal injury or similar claim against the third party or has made a claim under his or her uninsured or underinsured motorist coverage, and has received benefits as a policyholder, participant, or beneficiary from the payer of benefits. "Injured party" includes the personal representative of the estate of an injured party or the legal representative of a person under a disability as provided in article 81 of title 13, C.R.S.

(c) (I) "Payer of benefits" means any insurer, health maintenance organization, health benefit plan, preferred provider organization, employee benefit plan, other insurance policy or plan, or any other payer of benefits. "Payer of benefits" includes a fiduciary of an insurer, plan, or other payer of benefits.

(II) "Payer of benefits" does not include a program of medical assistance under the "Colorado Medical Assistance Act", articles 4 to 6 of title 25.5, C.R.S., or the children's basic health plan, as defined in article 8 of title 25.5, C.R.S.

(d) "Recovery" means recovery of a monetary award from a third party through either settlement or judgment to compensate an injured party for bodily injury sustained as a result of an act or omission of the third party. "Recovery" includes benefits paid or settlement of claims under uninsured or underinsured motorist coverage pursuant to section 10-4-609.

(3) (a) (I) Reimbursement or subrogation pursuant to a provision in an insurance policy, contract, or benefit plan is permitted only if the injured party has first been fully compensated for all damages arising out of the claim. Any provision in a policy, contract, or benefit plan allowing or requiring reimbursement or subrogation in circumstances in which the injured party has not been fully compensated is void as against public policy.

(II) This paragraph (a) does not limit the right of an insurer to seek reimbursement or subrogation to recover amounts paid for property damage or the right of an insurer providing uninsured or underinsured motorist coverage pursuant to section 10-4-609 to an injured party to pursue claims against an at-fault third party, and any amounts recovered by such insurer shall not be reduced pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subsection (3).

(b) If the injured party is fully compensated and reimbursement or subrogation of benefits is authorized, the reimbursement or subrogation amount cannot exceed the amount actually paid by the payer of benefits to cover benefits under the policy, contract, or benefit plan or, for health care services provided on a capitated basis, the amount equal to eighty percent of the usual and customary charge for the same services by health care providers that provide health care services on a noncapitated basis in the geographic region in which the services are rendered.

(c) The amount recoverable, if any, by the payer of benefits for reimbursement or subrogation shall be reduced by an amount equal to the payer of benefits' proportionate share of the attorney fees and expenses incurred by or on behalf of the injured party in making the recovery, based on the ratio of the amount of attorney fees and expenses incurred to the amount of the recovery.

(d) (I) If the injured party makes a recovery of an amount that is less than the total amount of coverage available under any third-party liability insurance policy or uninsured or underinsured motorist coverage pursuant to section 10-4-609, there is a rebuttable presumption that the injured party has been fully compensated. If the injured party makes a recovery of an amount equal to the total amount of coverage available under all third-party liability insurance policies and uninsured or underinsured motorist coverages, there is a rebuttable presumption that the injured party has not been fully compensated.

(II) If the injured party obtains a judgment, the amount of the judgment is presumed to be the amount necessary to fully compensate the injured party.

(4) (a) (I) Any disputes between the payer of benefits and the injured party regarding entitlement to reimbursement or subrogation shall be resolved in accordance with this paragraph (a), regardless of whether administrative remedies contained in the policy, contract, or benefit plan documents have been exhausted by the injured party.

(II) If the injured party obtains a recovery that is less than the sum of all damages incurred by the injured party and intends to enforce the requirements of subsection (3) of this section, the injured party shall notify the payer of benefits within sixty days of receipt of each recovery. The notice shall include the total amount and source of the recovery; the coverage limits applicable to any available insurance policy, contract, or benefit plan; and the amount of any costs charged to the injured party. If recovery was obtained through a settlement agreement that contains a confidentiality provision that affects the information required by this subparagraph (II), the confidentiality provision is unenforceable as to the disclosure of the required information.

(III) If the payer of benefits disputes that the injured party's recovery is less than the sum of all damages incurred by the injured party, the dispute shall be resolved by arbitration. The payer of benefits may request arbitration of the dispute to determine the extent to which the payer of benefits may be entitled to share in the recovery pursuant to subsection (3) of this section. The payer of benefits may request arbitration no later than sixty days after receipt of any notice under subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (a).

(IV) If the payer of benefits requests arbitration of the dispute, the injured party and the payer of benefits shall jointly choose an arbitrator to resolve the dispute. If the injured party and the payer of benefits cannot agree on an arbitrator, the dispute shall be resolved by a panel of three arbitrators selected as follows:

(A) The injured party shall select one arbitrator;

(B) The payer of benefits shall select one arbitrator; and

(C) The arbitrators chosen by the parties pursuant to sub-subparagraphs (A) and (B) of this subparagraph (IV) shall select the third arbitrator.

(b) If the arbitrator determines that the amount of the recovery does not fully compensate the injured party for his or her damages, the payer of benefits shall have no right to repayment, reimbursement, or subrogation.

(5) A payer of benefits shall not deny or refuse to provide any plan benefits otherwise available to an injured party because of the existence of a potential personal injury or similar claim or the resolution of a personal injury or similar claim.

(6) (a) (I) Except as provided in subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (a), a payer of benefits shall not bring a direct action for subrogation or reimbursement of benefits against a third party allegedly at fault for the injury to the injured party or an insurer providing uninsured motorist coverage.

(II) If an injured party has not pursued a claim against a third party allegedly at fault for the injured party's injuries by the date that is sixty days prior to the date on which the statute of limitations applicable to the claim expires, a payer of benefits may bring a direct action for subrogation or reimbursement of benefits against an at-fault third party. Nothing in this subparagraph (II) precludes an injured party from pursuing a claim against the at-fault third party after the payer of benefits brings a direct action pursuant to this subparagraph (II), and the payer of benefits' right to reimbursement or subrogation is limited by subsection (3) of this section.

(b) A third party shall not include a payer of benefits that is claiming repayment or reimbursement pursuant to subsection (3) of this section as a copayee on any check or draft in payment of a settlement with or judgment for or on behalf of the injured party.

(7) (a) A payer of benefits shall not delay, withhold, or otherwise reduce benefits:

(I) Because the obligation to pay benefits results from an act or omission for which a third party may be liable; or

(II) As a means of enforcing or attempting to enforce a claim for reimbursement or subrogation.

(b) Nothing in this subsection (7) prohibits the coordination of benefits between or among payers of benefits.

(8) When a payer of benefits obtains reimbursement of benefits paid in accordance with this section, the payer of benefits shall apply the amount of the reimbursement as a credit against any lifetime maximum benefit contained in the policy, plan, or contract under which the benefits were paid.

(9) Any language in an insurance policy, contract, or benefit plan that is contrary to this section is void and unenforceable. Although such language is unenforceable, nothing in this section requires an insurer to modify and refile with the commissioner, prior to the standard filing date, an insurance policy, contract, or benefit plan that contains language that is contrary to this section.

(10) Nothing in this section modifies:

(a) The requirement of section 13-21-111.6, C.R.S., regarding the reduction of damages based on amounts paid for the damages from a collateral source. The fact or amount of any collateral source payment or benefits shall not be admitted as evidence in any action against an alleged third-party tortfeasor or in an action to recover benefits under section 10-4-609.

(b) Lien rights of hospitals pursuant to section 38-27-101, C.R.S., or of the department of health care policy and financing pursuant to section 25.5-4-301 (5), C.R.S.; or

(c) Subrogation and lien rights granted to workers' compensation carriers or self-insured employers pursuant to section 8-41-203, C.R.S.

EXAMINATIONS

10-1-201. Legislative declaration. The general assembly finds, determines, and declares that it is necessary to establish an effective and efficient system for examining the activities, operations, financial conditions, and affairs of all persons transacting the business of insurance in this state and all persons otherwise subject to the jurisdiction of the commissioner. The provisions of this part 2 are intended to enable the commissioner to adopt a flexible system of examinations that directs resources as may be deemed appropriate and necessary for the administration of the insurance and insurance-related laws of this state.

Source: L. 2003: Entire article RC&RE, p. 605, § 1, effective July 1.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 10-1-201 as it existed prior to 2002.

10-1-202. Definitions. As used in this part 2, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Company" means any person or group of persons engaging in or proposing or attempting to engage in any transaction or kind of insurance or surety business and any person or group of persons who may otherwise be subject to any administrative, regulatory, or taxing authority of the commissioner as well as any advisory organization or rating organization as defined in section 10-4-402.

(1.5) "Complaint" means a written or documented oral communication primarily expressing a grievance or an expression of dissatisfaction.

(1.7) "Desk examination" means an examination that is conducted by an examiner at a location other than the insurer's premises. A desk examination is usually performed in the offices of the division with the insurer providing requested documents by hard copy, microfiche, discs, or other electronic media for review.

(2) "Division" means the division of insurance.

(3) "Examination" means a formal financial examination or market conduct examination, as well as informal investigations conducted by the commissioner for the purpose of determining compliance with the law. Market conduct examinations may include routine, targeted, follow-up, multistate, or desk examinations.

(4) "Examiner" means any individual or firm authorized by the commissioner to conduct an examination under this part 2.

(5) "Insurance department" means the commissioner or other government official or agency of a state other than Colorado exercising powers and duties substantially equivalent to those of the commissioner or the division.

(6) "Insurer" means any person, firm, corporation, association, or aggregation of persons doing an insurance business and subject to the insurance supervisory authority of, or to liquidation, rehabilitation, reorganization, or conservation by, the commissioner or any equivalent insurance supervisory official of another state.

(7) "Market analysis" means a process whereby market conduct surveillance personnel collect and analyze information from filed schedules, surveys, required reports, and other sources in order to develop a baseline understanding of the marketplace and to identify patterns or practices of insurers that deviate significantly from the norm or that may pose risk to the insurance consumer.

(8) "Market conduct action" means any of the full range of activities that the commissioner may initiate to assess and address the market practices of insurers licensed to conduct business in this state, from market analysis to targeted, on-site examinations. The commissioner's activities to resolve an individual consumer complaint or other report of a specific instance of misconduct are not market conduct actions for the purposes of this part 2.

(9) "Market conduct surveillance personnel" means those individuals employed by or under contract with the commissioner to collect, analyze, review, or act on information about the insurance marketplace that identifies patterns or practices of insurers.

(10) "NAIC" or "national association of insurance commissioners" means the organization of insurance regulators from the fifty states, the District of Columbia, and the four United States territories.

(11) "NAIC market analysis handbook" means the outline of the elements and objectives of market analysis developed and adopted by the NAIC and the process by which states can establish and implement market analysis programs, or its successor document.

(12) "NAIC market conduct examiner's handbook" means the set of guidelines developed and adopted by the NAIC that documents established practices to be used by market conduct surveillance personnel in developing and executing an examination, or its successor document.

(13) “NAIC market conduct uniform examination procedures” means the set of guidelines developed and adopted by the NAIC designed to be used by market conduct surveillance personnel in conducting an examination, or its successor document.

(14) “On-site examination” means an examination conducted at the insurer’s home, the insurer’s office, or the location where the records under review are stored.

(15) “Person” means any individual, aggregation of individuals, trust, association, partnership, or corporation, or any agent or affiliate thereof.

(16) “Qualified contract examiner” means a person who is under contract with the commissioner and who is qualified by education, experience, and, where applicable, professional designations, to perform market conduct actions.

(17) “Standard data request” means the set of field names and descriptions developed and adopted by the NAIC for use by market conduct surveillance personnel in an examination.

(18) “Targeted examination” means an examination, including, but not limited to, limited review and analysis conducted through a desk examination or on-site examination and in accordance with market conduct uniform examination procedures. The targeted examination shall be of a specific insurer’s conduct, practices, or risks identified through market analysis that have not been remedied by the insurer, including, but not limited to, underwriting and rating, marketing and sales, complaint-handling, operations and management, advertising materials, licensing, policyholder services, nonforfeitures, claims handling, or policy forms and filings. A targeted examination may be conducted as a desk examination or as an on-site examination.

(19) “Third-party model or product” means a model or product provided by an entity separate from and not under direct or indirect corporate control of the insurer using the model or product.

Source: L. 2003: Entire article RC&RE, p. 605, § 1, effective July 1. L. 2006: (1.5), (1.7), and (8) to (19) added and (7) amended, p. 960, § 3, effective January 1, 2007.

10-1-203. Authority, scope, and scheduling of examinations. (1) The commissioner or the commissioner’s designee may conduct an examination or investigation of any company as often as the commissioner, in the commissioner’s sole discretion, deems appropriate but shall, at a minimum, conduct a formal financial examination of every insurer licensed in this state not less frequently than once every five years; except that this does not include eligible nonadmitted insurers regulated in accordance with article 5 of this title. In scheduling financial or market conduct examinations and in determining their nature, scope, and frequency, the commissioner shall consider such matters as the results of financial statement analyses and ratios, changes in management or ownership, actuarial opinions, reports of independent certified public accountants, complaint analyses, underwriting and claims practices, pricing, product solicitation, policy form compliance, market share analyses, and other criteria as set forth in the most recent available edition of the examiners’ handbook adopted by the national association of insurance commissioners.

(2) For purposes of completing an examination of any company under this part 2, the commissioner may examine or investigate any person or the business of any person insofar as such examination or investigation is, in the sole discretion of the commissioner, necessary or material to the examination of the company.

(3) In lieu of a financial examination under this part 2 of any foreign or alien insurer licensed in this state, the commissioner may accept an examination report on the company as prepared by the insurance department for the company's state of domicile or port-of-entry state; except that such reports may only be accepted if:

(a) The insurance department was, at the time of the examination, accredited under the national association of insurance commissioners' financial regulation standards and accreditation program; or

(b) The examination is performed under the supervision of an accredited insurance department or with the participation of one or more examiners who are employed by such an accredited state insurance department and who, after a review of the examination work papers and report, state under oath that the examination was performed in a manner consistent with the standards and procedures required by the examiners' insurance department.

10-1-204. Conduct of examinations. (1) (a) In conducting the examination, the examiners shall observe those guidelines and procedures set forth in the most recent available edition of the examiners' handbook adopted by the national association of insurance commissioners and the Colorado insurance examiners handbook. The commissioner may also employ such other guidelines or procedures as the commissioner may deem appropriate.

(b) An examination under this article shall not be limited to an examination of the financial condition of a company but may, in the discretion of the commissioner, also include all other activities and affairs of the company.

(2) (a) Every company or person from whom information is sought and all officers, directors, and agents thereof shall provide to the examiners timely, convenient, and free access at reasonable hours at its offices to all books, records, accounts, papers, tapes, computer records, and other documents relating to the property, assets, business, and affairs of the company being examined. If the examination is an examination as defined in section 10-1-202 (3), such company or person shall make such books, records, and documents available for examination or inspection at the office location of the division when the commissioner determines that it is reasonably cost-effective to do so. The officers, directors, employees, and agents of the company or person shall facilitate the examination and aid in the examination so far as it is in their power to do so.

(b) (I) The refusal of any company or any of its officers, directors, employees, or agents to submit to examination or to comply with any reasonable written request of the examiners shall be grounds for suspension, revocation, denial, or nonrenewal of any license or authority held by the company and subject to the commissioner's jurisdiction.

(II) Proceedings for any suspension or revocation pursuant to this subsection (2) shall be conducted in accordance with section 10-1-110.

(3) The commissioner and all examiners shall have the power to issue subpoenas, administer oaths, and examine under oath any person as to any matter pertinent to the examination. Upon the failure or refusal of any person to obey a subpoena, the commissioner may petition a court of competent jurisdiction for an order, which shall be enforceable through contempt proceedings, compelling the person to appear and testify or produce documentary evidence. The commissioner may arrange for the services of an administrative law judge appointed pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to take evidence and to make findings and report them to the commissioner.

(4) Any person who knowingly or willfully testifies falsely in reference to any matter material to an investigation, examination, or inquiry is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than three months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(5) Any person who knowingly or willfully makes any false certificate, entry, or memorandum upon any of the books or papers of a company or upon any statement filed or offered to be filed in the division or used in the course of any examination, inquiry, or investigation, with the intent to deceive the commissioner or any person appointed by the commissioner to make such examination, inquiry, or investigation, is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than two months nor more than twelve months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(6) (a) In addition to any other powers granted to the commissioner in this section or in any other provision of law, the commissioner may require any company, entity, or new applicant to be examined by independent examiners certified by the society of financial examiners or the insurance regulatory examiners society, actuaries who are members of the American academy of actuaries, or by any other qualified and competent loss reserve specialists, independent risk managers, independent certified public accountants, auditors, other examiners of insurance companies, or combination of such persons. Any domestic company may make a request to the commissioner to be so examined.

(b) The commissioner may accept, as part of any such examination, reports made by any person qualified and competent to conduct the examination as set forth in this subsection (6). No such person nor any member of such person's immediate family shall be officers of, connected with, or financially interested in the company, entity, or applicant being examined other than as policyholders, nor shall they be financially interested in any other corporation or person affected by the examination or by any related investigation or hearing. Such persons shall keep strictly confidential all information, regardless of its source, obtained through any examination or about any examinee and shall disclose such information only to the commissioner or the examinee upon the specific request of either. The commissioner shall establish guidelines for assuring the neutrality of those persons to be authorized to supplement the examination procedures authorized in this section. The reasonable expenses and charges of persons so retained or designated shall be paid directly by the examinee to such persons. The examinee may contest the amount of fees, costs, and expenses charged to it by such persons by filing an objection with the commissioner which sets forth the charges that the examinee considers to be unreasonable and the basis for the claim that the charges are unreasonable. No amounts that are so disputed will be due to the examiner unless and until the commissioner has reviewed the objection and made a written finding that the disputed charges were reasonable in relation to the examination performed.

(7) Nothing contained in this part 2 shall be construed to limit the commissioner's authority to terminate or suspend any examination in order to pursue other legal or regulatory action pursuant to the insurance laws of this state. Findings of fact and conclusions made pursuant to any examination shall be prima facie evidence in any legal or regulatory action.

(8) Nothing contained in this part 2 shall be construed to limit the commissioner's authority to use and, if appropriate, to make public, if consistent with section 10-3-414, any final or preliminary examination report, any examiner or company work papers or other documents, or any other information discovered or developed during the course of any examination in the furtherance of any legal or regulatory action that the commissioner may, in the commissioner's sole discretion, deem appropriate.

(9) (a) The costs of financial examinations of foreign companies made outside the borders of this state and of executive or branch offices of domestic companies located outside the borders of this state shall be paid by the company examined and shall include the expenses of the commissioner and the commissioner's assistants, who shall be paid the same compensation as other examiners on such examinations.

(b) The reasonable expenses of market conduct examinations shall be paid by the company examined, but shall not include the compensation of the commissioner and the commissioner's assistants.

(c) (I) There is a presumption that a market conduct examination of a domestic company shall be conducted by the commissioner or the commissioner's assistants unless the commissioner determines that good cause exists to have the examination conducted by a contract examiner.

(II) The commissioner shall develop rules for determining when contract market conduct examiners can be used. Such rules shall include, but shall not be limited to, such factors as out-of-state travel requirements, workload needs, special expertise required for the examination, and market issues requiring an unanticipated examination.

(d) When insurance companies not authorized to do business in this state, companies adjudged insolvent, or companies for any cause withdrawing from this state neglect, fail, or refuse to pay the reasonable charges for examination as approved by the commissioner, such charges shall be paid by the state treasurer from the general fund upon the order of the commissioner, and the amount so paid shall be a first lien upon all assets and property of such company and may be recovered by suit by the attorney general on behalf of the state of Colorado and restored to the general fund.

(10) The commissioner may also examine a company upon the request of five or more of the company's policyholders representing at least one hundred thousand dollars' worth of insurance in force, who shall make affidavit of their belief, with specifications of their reasons therefor in writing, that such company is in an unsound or insolvent condition; but only the United States branches of companies incorporated in foreign countries shall be examined by the commissioner.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 10-1-204 is similar to § 10-1-204 as it existed prior to the 2002 repeal of article 1 of title 10, a relevant case construing that provision has been included in the annotations to this section.

Colo. Intergovernmental Risk Sharing Agency, 988 P.2d 184 (Colo. App. 1999), aff'd, 19 P.3d 10 (Colo. 2001).

10-1-205. Financial examination reports. (1) The provisions of this section shall apply to financial examinations and market conduct examinations but shall not apply to informal investigations of consumer complaints except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b) of subsection (8) of this section. Examination reports shall comprise only facts appearing upon the books, records, or other documents of the company, its agents, or other persons examined, or as ascertained from the testimony of its officers or agents or other persons examined concerning its affairs, and such conclusions and recommendations as the examiners find reasonably warranted based upon the facts.

(2) No later than sixty days after completion of the examination, the examiner in charge shall file with the division a verified written report of examination under oath. Upon receipt of the verified report, the division shall transmit to the company examined both the report and a notice stating that the company examined shall be afforded a reasonable period not exceeding thirty days, within which to make a written submission or rebuttal with respect to any matters contained in the examination report.

(3) Within thirty days after the end of the period allowed for the receipt of written submissions or rebuttals, the commissioner shall fully consider and review the report, any written submissions or rebuttals, and any relevant portions of the examiner's work papers and shall enter an order that does one or more of the following:

(a) Adopts the examination report as filed or with specified modifications or corrections; and if the examination report reveals that the company is operating in violation of any law, rule, or prior lawful order of the commissioner, the commissioner may order the company to take any action the commissioner considers necessary and appropriate to cure such violation; or

(b) Rejects the examination report and directs the examiners to reopen the examination for purposes of obtaining additional data, documentation, or information and to refile the report pursuant to subsection (1) of this section; or

(c) Calls for an investigatory hearing, upon no less than twenty days' notice to the company, for purposes of obtaining additional documentation, data, information, and testimony; or

(d) May impose a monetary penalty of not more than three thousand dollars for every act in violation of any law, rule, or prior lawful order of the commissioner described in the report of examination, but not to exceed an aggregate penalty of thirty thousand dollars unless the company knew or reasonably should have known that its conduct was in violation of any law, rule, or prior lawful order of the commissioner, in which case the penalty shall not be more than thirty thousand dollars for every act or violation, but not to exceed an aggregate penalty of seven hundred fifty thousand dollars annually.

(4) (a) All orders entered pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection (3) of this section shall be accompanied by findings and conclusions resulting from the commissioner's consideration and review of the examination report, relevant examiner work papers, and any written submissions or rebuttals. Any such order shall be considered a final agency decision and shall be served upon the company by certified mail together with a copy of the adopted examination report. Review of such decision may be sought in the district court in and for the city and county of Denver and shall be governed by the "State Administrative Procedure Act", article 4 of title 24, C.R.S. Within sixty days of the issuance of the adopted report, the company shall file affidavits executed by each of its directors stating under oath that they have received a copy of the adopted report and related orders.

(b) Any hearing conducted under paragraph (c) of subsection (3) of this section by the commissioner or an authorized representative shall be conducted as a nonadversarial, confidential, investigatory proceeding as necessary for the resolution of any inconsistencies, discrepancies, or disputed issues apparent upon the face of the filed examination report or raised by or as a result of the commissioner's review of relevant work papers or by the written submission or rebuttal of the company. Such hearing shall not be subject to the "State Administrative Procedure Act", article 4 of title 24, C.R.S. Within twenty days after the conclusion of any such hearing, the commissioner shall enter an order pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection (3) of this section.

(c) The commissioner shall not appoint an examiner as an authorized representative to conduct the hearing. The hearing shall proceed expeditiously with discovery by the company limited to the examiner's work papers that tend to substantiate any assertions set forth in any written submission or rebuttal. The commissioner or representative may issue subpoenas for the attendance of any witnesses or the production of any documents deemed relevant to the investigation, whether under the control of the division, the company, or other persons. The documents produced shall be included in the record. Testimony taken by the commissioner or representative shall be under oath and preserved for the record.

(d) The hearing shall proceed with the commissioner or representative posing questions to the persons subpoenaed. Thereafter, the company and the division may present testimony relevant to the investigation. The company and the division shall be permitted to make closing statements and may be represented by counsel of their choice.

(e) Any order issued by the commissioner pursuant to paragraph (d) of subsection (3) of this section may be appealed directly to the court of appeals.

(5) Upon the adoption of the examination report pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection (3) of this section, the commissioner shall continue, for at least thirty days, to hold the content of the examination report as private and confidential information except to the extent provided in subsection (2) of this section. Thereafter, the commissioner may open the report for public inspection unless a court of competent jurisdiction has stayed its publication.

(6) No provision of this title shall prevent or be construed as prohibiting the commissioner from disclosing the content of an examination report, preliminary examination report or results, or any matter relating thereto to the insurance division of this or any other state or country, or to law enforcement officials of this or any other state, or to any agency of the federal government at any time subject to the written agreement of the recipient to hold such information confidential and to treat it in a manner consistent with this part 2.

(7) In the event the commissioner determines that regulatory action is appropriate as a result of any examination, the commissioner may initiate any proceedings or actions as provided by law.

(8) Confidentiality of ancillary information. (a) All working papers, recorded information, documents, and copies thereof that are produced or obtained by or disclosed to the commissioner or any other person in the course of a financial or market conduct examination made under this part 2 shall be given confidential treatment, are not subject to subpoena, and may not be made public by the commissioner or any other person except to the extent provided in subsection (5) of this section; except that access to such materials may be granted to the national association of insurance commissioners. Disclosure of the said materials shall be made only upon the prior written agreement of the recipient to hold such information confidential as required by this section or upon the prior written consent of the company to which it pertains.

(b) When an informal investigation of a consumer complaint is conducted by the commissioner, all working papers, claim files, recorded information, and documents, and all copies thereof, that are produced or obtained by or disclosed to the commissioner or any other person in the course of an informal investigation shall be given confidential treatment until the informal investigation is concluded by the commissioner. After an informal investigation is concluded, the records shall no longer be considered confidential except as otherwise provided in article 72 of title 24, C.R.S., relating to public records.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 10-1-205 as it existed prior to 2002.

10-1-206. Conflict of interest. (1) No examiner may be appointed by the commissioner if such examiner, either directly or indirectly, has a conflict of interest or is affiliated with the management of or owns a pecuniary interest in any person subject to examination under this part 2; except that this section shall not be construed to automatically preclude an examiner from being:

- (a) A policyholder or claimant under an insurance policy;
- (b) A grantor of a mortgage or similar instrument on the examiner's residence to a regulated entity if done under customary terms and in the ordinary course of business;
- (c) An investment owner in shares of regulated diversified investment companies; or
- (d) A settlor or beneficiary of a "blind trust" into which any otherwise impermissible holdings have been placed.

(2) Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the contrary, the commissioner may retain from time to time, on an individual basis, qualified actuaries, certified public accountants, or other similar individuals who are independently practicing their professions even though such persons may from time to time be similarly employed or retained by persons subject to examination under this part 2.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 10-1-206 as it existed prior to 2002.

10-1-207. Immunity from liability - prohibited activity. (1) No cause of action shall arise, nor shall any liability be imposed, against the commissioner, the commissioner's authorized representatives, or any examiner appointed by the commissioner for any statements made or conduct performed in good faith while carrying out the provisions of this part 2.

(2) No cause of action shall arise, nor shall any liability be imposed, against any person for the act of communicating or delivering information or data to the commissioner or the commissioner's authorized representative or examiner pursuant to an examination made under this part 2, if such act of communication or delivery was performed in good faith and without fraudulent intent or the intent to deceive.

(3) This section does not abrogate or modify in any way any common-law or statutory privilege or immunity heretofore enjoyed by any person identified in subsection (1) of this section.

(4) A person identified in subsection (1) of this section shall be entitled to an award of attorney fees and costs if such person is the prevailing party in a civil action for libel, slander, or any other relevant tort arising out of activities in carrying out the provisions of this part 2 and the party bringing the action was not substantially justified in doing so. For purposes of this section, a proceeding is "substantially justified" if it had a reasonable basis in law or fact at the time that it was initiated.

(5) An insurer shall not take any retaliatory personnel action against an employee because the employee provides information to or testifies before the commissioner conducting a market conduct investigation into the practices of the insurer.

(6) (a) An employee who has been the subject of a retaliatory personnel action in violation of subsection (5) of this section may institute a civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction for relief within one year after the date of the alleged retaliatory action.

(b) A court of competent jurisdiction may order relief as follows:

(I) Reinstatement of the employee to the same position held before the retaliatory personnel action or an equivalent position;

(II) Reinstatement of full benefits and seniority rights; and

(III) Compensation for lost wages and benefits.

(c) Upon a determination that an insurer has taken a retaliatory personnel action, the court may award costs of the action together with reasonable attorney fees.

10-1-208. Informal investigations. (1) The commissioner may contract pursuant to section 24-50-504 (2) (c) and (2) (e), C.R.S., with a person, corporation, or entity having technical or subject matter expertise or skill and experience in investigative techniques to assist the division in performing informal investigations of an insurer or producer pursuant to this part 2 when the commissioner determines that the division is without sufficient technical expertise to perform such investigation. Informal investigations conducted pursuant to this section shall not include formal financial examinations or market conduct examinations. The commissioner shall, by rule, establish when contract investigators may be used for informal investigations. The rules shall include, but not be limited to, out-of-state travel requirements, special expertise required for the investigation, and a significant pattern of complaints or a well documented allegation against a carrier that warrants an informal investigation.

(2) The reasonable expenses and charges of persons so retained or designated for informal investigations of an insurer or a producer pursuant to subsection (1) of this section may be paid directly by the examinee to such persons as determined by the commissioner. The examinee may contest the amount of fees, costs, and expenses charged to it by such persons by filing an objection with the commissioner, which sets forth the charges that the examinee considers to be unreasonable and the basis for the claim that the charges are unreasonable. No amounts that are so disputed will be due to the examiner unless and until the commissioner has reviewed the objection and made a written finding that the disputed charges were reasonable in relation to the investigation performed.

10-1-210. Market analysis procedures. (1) (a) The commissioner is responsible for conducting market conduct examinations for Colorado policyholder protection, which shall be accomplished by examinations of domestic insurers and foreign insurers as deemed necessary by the commissioner. If the insurer to be examined is part of an insurance holding company system, the commissioner may also simultaneously examine any affiliate of the insurer that is authorized to write insurance in this state if the affiliated insurer writes business for Colorado policyholders.

(b) The commissioner may delegate responsibility for conducting an examination of a domestic insurer, foreign insurer, or an affiliate of an insurer, as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (1), to the insurance commissioner of another state if that insurance commissioner agrees to accept the delegated responsibility for the examination. If the commissioner elects to delegate responsibility for examining an insurer, the commissioner shall accept a market conduct examination report prepared by the insurance commissioner to whom the responsibility has been delegated if the commissioner determines that:

(I) The laws of the examining state that are applicable to the subject of the examination are substantially similar to those of this state;

(II) The examining state has a market conduct surveillance system that is comparable to the market conduct surveillance system required by this part 2 at the time the commissioner is evaluating whether to examine the insurer; and

(III) The examination from the other state’s commissioner has been conducted within the past five years.

(c) If the insurance commissioner to whom the examination responsibility was delegated pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (1) did not evaluate the specific area or issue of concern to the commissioner or a specific requirement of Colorado law, the commissioner may pursue a targeted examination or market analysis of the unexamined area pursuant to this part 2.

(d) Subject to the determination under paragraph (b) of this subsection (1) if a market conduct examination conducted by another state results in a finding that an insurer should modify a specific practice or procedure, the commissioner shall accept appropriately detailed documentation that the insurer has made a similar modification in this state in lieu of initiating a market conduct action or examination on the practice or procedure. The commissioner may require other or additional practice or procedure modifications.

(e) The commissioner shall review his or her delegations of examination responsibility made pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (1) at least annually.

(2) (a) The commissioner shall gather information from data currently available to the division, required reporting requirements, information collected by the NAIC, and information from a variety of other sources in both the public and private sectors.

(b) The commissioner shall analyze the information collected pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) in order to develop a baseline understanding of the marketplace and to identify for further review insurers or practices that deviate significantly from the norm or that may pose a potential risk to the insurance consumer. The commissioner shall use the NAIC market analysis handbook as one resource in performing this analysis.

(3) (a) If the commissioner determines, as a result of market analysis, that further inquiry into a particular insurer or practice is needed, the following continuum of market conduct actions may be considered prior to conducting a targeted, on-site market conduct examination. The market conduct action selected shall be made known to the insurer in writing if the market conduct action involves insurer participation or response. These market conduct actions may include, but are not limited to:

- (I) Desk examinations;
- (II) Correspondence with the insurer;
- (III) Insurer interviews;
- (IV) Information gathering;
- (V) Policy and procedure reviews;
- (VI) Interrogatories;
- (VII) Review of insurer self-evaluation, if the self-evaluation is not subject to a privilege of confidentiality; and

(b) The commissioner shall select a market conduct action that is cost-effective for the division and the insurer while still protecting the insurance consumer.

(c) (I) The commissioner shall take those steps reasonably necessary to eliminate requests for information that duplicate or conflict with information provided as part of an insurer's financial statement, the annual market conduct statement of the NAIC, or other required schedules, surveys, or reports that are submitted regularly to the commissioner or with data requests made by other states if that information is available to the commissioner, unless the information is state specific.

(II) To the extent practicable, the commissioner shall coordinate with market conduct actions and findings of this state and those of other states.

Cross references: For the legislative declaration contained in the 2006 act enacting this section, see section 1 of chapter 211, Session Laws of Colorado 2006.

10-1-211. Protocols for market conduct actions. (1) Each market conduct action taken as a result of a market analysis shall:

(a) Focus on the general business practices and compliance activities of insurers rather than initiating market conduct actions in response to clearly infrequent or unintentional random errors that do not cause significant consumer harm; and

(b) Not result in a market conduct examination unless it is determined that any examination is beyond the scope of the examination conducted in the insurer's state of domicile on the specific area of concern within the past five years.

(2) (a) The commissioner is authorized to determine the frequency and timing of market conduct actions taken as a result of a market analysis. The timing shall depend upon the specific market conduct action to be initiated unless extraordinary circumstances indicating a risk to consumers require immediate action.

(b) If the commissioner has information that more than one insurer is engaged in common practices that may violate statute or rule, the commissioner may schedule and coordinate simultaneous examinations.

(3) The commissioner shall provide the insurer the opportunity to resolve, to the satisfaction of the commissioner, any dispute regarding any insurer-specific information that is used or relied upon by the commissioner when identifying insurer practices for further review before the initiation of or concurrently with a market conduct action that requires the insurer to provide additional information. The commissioner shall not require an insurer to provide additional information to market conduct surveillance personnel in a manner that is inconsistent with existing law, that is outside the ordinary course of business, or that cannot be created at reasonable expense or effort.

(4) For any change made by the commissioner to an NAIC work product referenced in this part 2 that materially changes the way in which market conduct actions are conducted, the commissioner shall give notice and provide parties with an opportunity for a public hearing pursuant to article 4 of title 24, C.R.S. If a hearing is not requested, the commissioner shall use the changes as applied to the versions of the work product most recently developed and adopted by the NAIC. For purposes of this subsection (4), a “material change” is a change that would require a change to a statute or rule.

(5) Except as otherwise provided by law, every insurer or person from whom information is sought, as well as its officers, directors, and agents, shall provide the commissioner convenient and free access to all books, records, accounts, papers, documents, and computer or other recordings, relating to the property, assets, business, and affairs of the insurer during regular business hours. The officers, directors, employees, insurance producers, and agents of the insurer or person shall facilitate market conduct actions and aid in market conduct actions to the extent possible.

(6) Subject to section 16-4-108 (1) (c) and (1.5), C.R.S., a bail premium is earned in its entirety by a compensated surety upon the defendant’s release from custody.

10-1-212. Targeted, on-site market conduct examinations - rules. (1) When the commissioner determines that other market conduct actions identified in section 10-1-210 (3) (a) are not appropriate, the commissioner has the discretion to conduct targeted, on-site market conduct examinations in accordance with the NAIC market conduct uniform examination procedures and the NAIC market conduct examiner’s handbook.

(2) For a foreign insurer authorized under this title to do business in this state, the commissioner shall coordinate an examination with the insurance commissioner of the insurer’s state of domicile to the extent practicable.

(3) (a) Prior to commencement of a targeted, on-site market conduct examination, market conduct surveillance personnel shall prepare a work plan consisting of the following:

- (I) The name and address of the insurer being examined;
- (II) The name and contact information of the examiner-in-charge;
- (III) The justification for the examination;
- (IV) The scope of the examination;
- (V) The date the examination is scheduled to begin;
- (VI) Notice of any nondivision personnel who will assist in the examination;
- (VII) A time estimate for the duration of the examination;
- (VIII) A budget for the examination; and
- (IX) An identification of factors that will be included in the billing if the cost of the examination is billed to the insurer.

(b) To the extent feasible, market conduct examinations shall utilize desk examinations and data requests prior to a targeted, on-site market conduct examination.

(c) The division shall use the NAIC standard data request or a successor product adopted by rule promulgated by the commissioner that is substantially similar to the NAIC standard data request.

(4) (a) The commissioner shall send an announcement of the targeted, on-site market conduct examination to the insurer and simultaneously shall post notice that a market conduct examination has been scheduled on the NAIC’s examination tracking system or successor NAIC product, as determined by the commissioner, as soon as possible but no later than sixty days before the estimated start of the on-site examination. The time limitation specified in this subsection (4) shall not apply where the examination is conducted in response to extraordinary circumstances as described in section 10-1-211 (2) (a). The announcement sent to the insurer shall contain the examination work plan and a request for the insurer to name its examination coordinator.

(b) If a targeted, on-site market conduct examination is expanded beyond the reasons provided to the insurer in the notice of the examination required pursuant to this subsection (4):

(I) The commissioner shall provide written notice to the insurer explaining the extent of and reasons for the expansion; and

(II) The market conduct surveillance personnel shall provide a revised work plan to the insurer as soon as practicable.

(5) Except as provided in section 10-1-211 (2) (a), at least thirty days prior to the start of the targeted, on-site market conduct examination, the commissioner shall offer to conduct a pre-examination conference with the insurer's examination coordinator and key personnel to clarify expectations.

(6) Prior to the conclusion of a targeted, on-site market conduct examination, the individual among the market conduct surveillance personnel who is designated as the examiner-in-charge shall schedule an exit conference with the insurer.

(7) (a) The commissioner shall adhere to the following time line, unless a mutual agreement is reached with the insurer to modify the time line:

(I) The commissioner shall deliver the draft report to the insurer within sixty days after the completion of the targeted, on-site market conduct examination. Completion of the examination shall be defined as the date the commissioner confirms in writing that the examination is completed.

(II) The insurer shall respond with written comments within thirty days after receipt of the draft report.

(III) The division shall make a good faith effort to resolve issues informally and prepare a final report within thirty days after receipt of the insurer's written comments unless a mutual agreement is reached to extend the deadline. The commissioner may make corrections and other changes, as appropriate.

(IV) Within thirty days after receipt of the final report, the insurer shall accept the findings of the final report or request a hearing. If agreed to by the commissioner and the insurer, the insurer shall be allowed an additional thirty days to respond to the final report. A hearing request shall be made in writing and shall follow the requirements of article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

(b) The commissioner shall make the insurer's response to an examination available upon request. The insurer is not obligated to submit a response. Individuals involved in the targeted, on-site market conduct examination shall not be named in either the report or the response except to acknowledge their involvement.

(8) (a) Except as provided for in paragraph (b) of this subsection (8), upon adoption of the final report pursuant to subsection (7) of this section, the commissioner shall continue to hold the content of the report as private and confidential for a period of thirty days. After the thirty-day period expires, the commissioner shall open the report for public inspection if no court of competent jurisdiction has stayed its publication.

(b) Nothing contained in this part 2 shall prevent or be construed to prevent the commissioner from disclosing the content of an examination report, preliminary examination report, or results, or any matter relating to a report or results, to the division or to the insurance division of any other state or agency or office of the federal government at any time if the division, agency, or office receiving the report or related matters agrees and has the legal authority to hold it confidential in a manner consistent with this part 2.

(9) (a) Where the reasonable and necessary cost of a market conduct examination is to be assessed by fee against the insurer under examination, the fee shall be consistent with the NAIC market conduct examiner's handbook. The fee shall be itemized and shall include receipts for all applicable expenses, and bills shall be provided to the insurer on at least a monthly basis for review prior to submission for payment. Payment of fees shall be made at least monthly.

(b) The commissioner shall maintain active management and oversight of examination costs, including costs associated with the commissioner's own examiners and with retaining qualified contract examiners necessary to perform an on-site examination. To the extent the commissioner retains outside assistance, the commissioner shall have written protocols that:

(I) Establish and utilize a dispute resolution or arbitration mechanism to resolve conflicts with insurers regarding examination fees pursuant to section 10-1-204 (6) (b); and

(II) Require disclosure of the terms of the contracts with the outside consultants that will be used, including the fees and hourly rates that can be charged.

(c) An insurer shall not be required to reimburse any portion of examiner fees under this subsection (9) incurred by market conduct surveillance personnel or qualified contract examiners that exceed the fees prescribed in the NAIC market conduct examiner's handbook and any successor documents to that handbook, unless the commissioner demonstrates that the fees prescribed in the handbook are inadequate under the circumstances of the examination.

(d) An insurer may request an independent audit of the examination fees charged by a contract examiner at any time within twelve months after the completion of the market conduct examination. The insurer shall be responsible for the cost of the independent audit. The contract examiner shall maintain documentation supporting his or her expenses charged to the insurer for at least twelve months after the completion of the market conduct examination.

10-1-213. Confidentiality requirements. (1) (a) Except as otherwise provided by law and to the extent practicable, market conduct surveillance personnel shall have free and full access to the following documents of and persons associated with the insurer during regular business hours:

(I) Books;

(II) Records, including, but not limited to, any self-audit documents;

(III) Employees;

(IV) Officers; and

(b) Upon request of market conduct surveillance personnel, an insurer utilizing a third-party model or product for any of the activities being reviewed shall make the details of the models or products available to the personnel.

(c) All documents, including, but not limited to, working papers, self-audit documents, third-party models or products, complaint logs, and copies of any documents created, produced, obtained by, or disclosed to the commissioner or any other person in the course of a market conduct action taken pursuant to this part 2 or a market analysis conducted by the commissioner of the market conditions of an insurer or all documents obtained by the NAIC as a result of any of the provisions of this part 2 shall be given confidential treatment by the commissioner, the division, and market conduct surveillance personnel, shall not be subject to subpoena, and shall not be made public by the commissioner or any other person except as provided in section 10-1-212 (8). Self-audit documents voluntarily disclosed to the commissioner or other person by an insurer, other than in the course of a market conduct action or market analysis, shall be given confidential treatment by the commissioner, the division, and market conduct surveillance personnel, shall not be subject to subpoena, and shall not be made public by the commissioner or any other person except as provided in section 10-1-212 (8).

(2) A waiver of any applicable privilege or claim of confidentiality in the documents, materials, communications, or information shall not occur as a result of disclosure to the commissioner under this section.

(3) Market conduct surveillance personnel shall be vested with the power to issue subpoenas and examine insurance company personnel under oath when the commissioner orders such action pursuant to this part 2.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, in order to assist in the performance of the commissioner's duties, the commissioner may:

(a) Share documents, materials, communications, or other information, including the confidential and privileged documents, materials, or information subject to subsection (1) of this section, with other state, federal, and international regulatory agencies and law enforcement authorities and the NAIC, its affiliates, and subsidiaries, if the recipient agrees to and has the legal authority to maintain the confidentiality and privileged status of the document, material, communication, or other information;

(b) Receive documents, materials, communications, or information, including otherwise confidential and privileged documents, materials, or information, from the NAIC and its affiliates or subsidiaries, and from regulatory and law enforcement officials of other foreign or domestic jurisdictions, and shall maintain as confidential or privileged any document, material, communication, or information received with notice or the understanding that it is confidential or privileged under the laws of the jurisdiction that is the source of the document, material, communication, or information; and

(c) Enter into agreements governing the sharing and use of information consistent with this section.

(5) Notwithstanding the confidentiality requirements in paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of this section, when the commissioner requests an insurer to conduct a self-audit or engages in other market conduct action that does not rise to the level of an examination, the commissioner may make the final results of the self-audit or other market conduct action, in an aggregated format, available for public inspection in a manner deemed appropriate by the commissioner.

10-1-214. Market conduct surveillance personnel. (1) Market conduct surveillance personnel shall be qualified by education, experience, and, where applicable, professional designations. The commissioner may supplement the in-house market conduct surveillance staff with qualified outside professional assistance if the commissioner determines that outside assistance is necessary.

(2) Market conduct surveillance personnel have a direct or indirect conflict of interest if they are affiliated with the management of, have been employed by, or own a pecuniary interest in the insurer subject to an examination under this part 2 within the most recent five years prior to the use of the personnel. This section shall not be construed to automatically preclude an individual from being:

- (a) A policyholder or claimant under an insurance policy;
- (b) A grantee of a mortgage or similar instrument on the individual's residence from a regulated entity if done under customary terms and in the ordinary course of business;
- (c) An investment owner in shares of regulated diversified investment companies; or
- (d) A settlor or beneficiary of a blind trust into which any otherwise permissible holdings have been placed.

10-1-215. Fines and penalties. (1) Fines and penalties levied as a result of a market conduct action or other action enforcing this part 2 shall be consistent, reasonable, and justified.

(2) The commissioner:

(a) Shall take into consideration actions taken by insurers to maintain membership in, and comply with the standards of, best-practice organizations that promote high ethical standards of conduct in the marketplace and the extent to which insurers maintain regulatory compliance programs to self-assess, self-report, and remediate problems detected; and

(b) May include the considerations specified in paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) in determining the appropriate fines levied in accordance with subsection (1) of this section.

10-1-216. Participation in national market conduct databases. (1) The commissioner shall collect and report market data to the NAIC's market information systems, including the complaint database system, the examination tracking system, and the regulatory information retrieval system, or other successor NAIC products as determined by the commissioner.

(2) Complaints reported to the NAIC complaint database system, or its successor product, shall be reported in accordance with NAIC guidelines. However, before publication of insurer-specific complaint information by the division, insurance industry personnel shall be given the opportunity to review Colorado-specific complaints assigned to their company in the division's complaints database and request that corrections be made to the data. The division shall review insurer objections to assigned complaints before publishing insurer-specific complaints information and shall make corrections to the divisions' complaints database when appropriate. If the division makes corrections to its complaints database based on errors identified by an insurer, the corrected data shall be sent to the NAIC complaint database system, or its successor product. The division shall ensure that insurers have until at least January 31 to review complaints data for the immediately preceding calendar year. In order for an insurer's objections to its complaints data information to be considered, the insurer shall review and request any corrections to the prior calendar year's complaints data no later than January 31.

(3) Information collected and maintained by the division shall be compiled in a manner that meets the requirements of the NAIC.

10-1-217. Coordination with other states through NAIC. The commissioner shall share information and coordinate the division's market analysis and examination efforts with other states through the NAIC.

Cross references: For the legislative declaration contained in the 2006 act enacting this section, see section 1 of chapter 211, Session Laws of Colorado 2006.

10-1-218. Additional duties of commissioner. (1) At least once a year and more frequently if deemed necessary, the commissioner shall make available to insurers and other entities subject to this title information on new laws and rules, enforcement actions, and other information the commissioner deems pertinent to ensure compliance with market conduct requirements. The commissioner shall determine an appropriate manner in which to provide the information to insurers. The failure of the commissioner to provide any such information shall not be a defense for any insurer that fails to comply with an insurance law or rule of this state.

(2) (a) The commissioner shall designate a specific person or persons within the division whose responsibilities shall include the receipt of information from employees of insurers and licensed entities concerning violations of laws or rules by insurers. The designated person or persons shall be provided with proper training on the handling of the information, including procedures to maintain the confidentiality of the communication for purposes of this section.

(b) The information received pursuant to this subsection (2) is a confidential communication and is not public information.

PART 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

10-2-101. Short title. This article shall be known and may be cited as the “Colorado Producer Licensing Model Act”.

Source: L. 93: Entire article R&RE, p. 1348, § 1, effective January 1, 1995. L. 2001: Entire section amended, p. 1190, § 1, effective January 1, 2002.

10-2-102. Scope - applicability. This article governs the qualifications and procedures for the licensing of insurance producers. This article is intended to simplify and organize some statutory language to improve efficiency, permit the use of new technology, and reduce costs associated with issuing, continuing, and renewing insurance licenses.

Source: L. 93: Entire article R&RE, p. 1348, § 1, effective January 1, 1995. L. 2001: Entire section amended, p. 1190, § 2, effective January 1, 2002.

Editor’s note: This section is similar to former § 10-2-201 as it existed prior to 1993.

10-2-103. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

- (1) “Commissioner” means the commissioner of insurance.
- (2) “Health coverage” means accident and health or sickness and accident policies or contracts including other health coverages provided by insurers, health maintenance organizations, or nonprofit hospital and surgical plans.
- (2.5) “Home state” means the District of Columbia and any state or territory of the United States in which an insurance producer meets the following:
  - (a) Maintains the producer’s principal place of residence or principal place of business; and
  - (b) Is licensed to act as an insurance producer.
- (3) “Individual” means any private or natural person as distinguished from a partnership, corporation, association, or any foreign or domestic entity as defined in section 7-90-102, C.R.S.
- (4) “Insurance” means any of the lines of authority set forth in section 10-2-407 (1).
- (5) “Insurance agency” or “business entity” means a corporation, partnership, association, or foreign or domestic entity as defined in section 7-90-102, C.R.S., or other legal entity that transacts the business of insurance.
- (6) “Insurance producer” or “producer”, except as otherwise provided in section 10-2-105, means a person who solicits, negotiates, effects, procures, delivers, renews, continues, or binds:
  - (a) Policies of insurance for risks residing, located, or to be performed in this state;
  - (b) Membership in a prepayment plan as defined in parts 2 and 3 of article 16 of this title; or
  - (c) Membership enrollment in a health care plan as defined in part 4 of article 16 of this title.
- (6.5) “Insurer” means every person engaged as principal, indemnitor, surety, or contractor in the business of making contracts of insurance.
- (7) “License” means a document issued by the commissioner that authorizes a person to act as an insurance producer for the lines of authority, specified in such document. The license itself does not create any authority, actual, apparent, or inherent, in the holder to represent or commit an insurance carrier to a binding agreement.

(7.1) “Limited line insurance” means those lines of authority other than those defined in section 10-2-407 (1) (a) to (1) (e) or any other line of insurance that the commissioner may deem necessary to recognize for the purpose of complying with section 10-2-502.

(7.3) “Limited line producer” means a person authorized by the commissioner to sell, solicit, or negotiate limited lines of insurance.

(7.5) “Limited lines credit insurance” includes credit life, credit disability, credit property, credit unemployment, involuntary unemployment, mortgage life, mortgage guaranty, mortgage disability, guaranteed automobile protection insurance, and any other form of insurance offered in connection with an extension of credit that is limited to partially or wholly extinguishing the insured credit obligation that the commissioner determines should be designated a form of limited line credit insurance.

(7.7) “Limited lines credit insurance producer” means a person who sells, solicits, or negotiates one or more forms of limited lines credit insurance coverage to individuals through a master, corporate, group, or individual policy.

(7.9) “Negotiate” means the act of conferring directly with or offering advice directly to a purchaser or prospective purchaser of a particular contract of insurance concerning any of the substantive benefits, terms, or conditions of the contract, if the person engaged in that act either sells insurance or obtains insurance from insurers for purchasers.

(8) “Person” includes any individual or a business entity.

(9) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2001, p. 1190, § 3, effective January 1, 2002.)

(10) “Sell” means to exchange a contract of insurance by any means, for money or its equivalent, on behalf of an insurance company.

(11) “Solicit” means attempting to sell insurance or asking or urging a person to apply for a particular kind of insurance from a particular company.

(12) “Terminate” means the cancellation of the relationship between an insurance producer and the insurer or the termination of a producer’s authority to transact insurance.

(13) “Uniform business entity application” means the current version of the national association of insurance commissioners’ uniform business entity application for resident and nonresident business entities.

(14) “Uniform application” means the current version of the national association of insurance commissioners’ uniform application for resident and nonresident producer licensing.

L. 2009: (7.1), (7.3), (7.5), and (7.7) amended, (SB 09-292), ch. 369, p. 1940, § 10, effective August 5.

Editor’s note: This section is similar to former §§ 10-2-102 and 10-2-202 as they existed prior to 1993.

10-2-104. Authority of commissioner - rules. Pursuant to the provisions of article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., the commissioner may promulgate reasonable rules for the implementation and administration of the provisions of this article. The commissioner may contract with any party for the purpose of performing any ministerial duty required of the commissioner under this article. All reasonable charges and expenses of such contractors shall be paid directly to the contractors by licensees.

Editor’s note: This section is similar to former § 10-2-220 as it existed prior to 1993.

10-2-105. Insurance producer - exemption from definition. (1) Nothing in this article shall be construed to require an insurer to obtain an insurance producer license. In this section, the term “insurer” does not include an insurer’s officers, directors, employees, subsidiaries, or affiliates.

(2) Notwithstanding section 10-2-103 (6), “insurance producer” does not include the following:

(a) Any person who is a regularly salaried officer, director, or employee of an insurance company or an insurance producer and who is engaged in the performance of usual or customary executive, administrative, or clerical duties which do not include the negotiation or solicitation of insurance, so long as the officer, director, or employee does not receive any commission on policies written or sold to insure risks residing, located, or to be performed in this state;

(b) Any person who is a salaried employee in the office of an insurance producer or insurer and who devotes full time to clerical and administrative services, including the incidental taking of insurance applications and receipt of premiums in the office of such person’s employer, so long as the person does not receive any commission on such applications and the person’s compensation is not varied by the volume of applications or premiums taken or received;

(c) An officer, director, or employee whose activities are executive, administrative, managerial, clerical, or a combination of these, and are only indirectly related to the sale, solicitation, or negotiation of insurance;

(c.3) An officer, director, or employee whose function relates to underwriting, loss control, inspection, or the processing, adjusting, investigating, or settling of a claim on a contract of insurance;

(c.5) An officer, director, or employee who is acting in the capacity of a special agent or agency supervisor assisting insurance producers, where the officer’s, director’s, or employee’s activities are limited to providing technical advice and assistance to licensed insurance producers and do not include the sale, solicitation, or negotiation of insurance;

(c.7) A person who secures and furnishes information for the purpose of group life insurance, group property and casualty insurance, group annuities, or group or blanket accident and health insurance or for the purpose of enrolling individuals under plans, issuing certificates under plans, or otherwise assisting in administering plans or performs administrative services related to mass marketed property and casualty insurance, where no commission is paid to the person for the service;

(d) Employers, associations, or their officers, directors, or employees, or the trustees of any employee trust plan, to the extent that such employers, associations, officers, directors, employees, or trustees are engaged in the administration or operation of any program of employee benefits for their own employees or the employees of their subsidiaries or affiliates, which program involves the use of insurance issued by an insurer; except that such employers, associations, officers, directors, employees, or trustees shall not in any manner be compensated, directly or indirectly, by the company issuing the contracts;

(e) Employees of insurers or insurance agencies or organizations employed by insurers or insurance agencies who are engaging in the inspection, rating, or classification of risks or in the supervision of the training of insurance producers and who are not individually engaged in the solicitation or negotiation of policies or contracts for insurance;

(f) Management associations, partnerships, or corporations whose operations do not entail solicitation of insurance from the public;

(g) Officers or employees of a motor vehicle rental company that offers coverage in connection with and incidental to the rental of motor vehicles under motor vehicle rental agreements, so long as such coverage is:

(I) Offered at the point of the rental transaction or by preselection of coverage in master, corporate, group, or individual rental agreements;

(II) Limited in scope to the parties to such motor vehicle rental agreements and to other authorized drivers or occupants of the vehicles being rented;

(III) Limited in duration to coverage of damages incurred as a result of events occurring during the rental period; and

(IV) For traditionally recognized risks associated with motor vehicle operation and travel, including, without limitation, personal injury or death, personal liability and property damage, collision, damage to or loss of personal effects, roadside assistance, and emergency repairs;

(h) A person whose activities in this state are limited to advertising without the intent to solicit insurance in this state through communications in printed publications or other forms of electronic mass media whose distribution is not limited to residents of the state, so long as the person does not sell, solicit, or negotiate insurance that would insure risks residing, located, or to be performed in this state;

(i) A person who is not a resident of this state who sells, solicits, or negotiates a contract of insurance, for commercial property and casualty risks, to an insured with risks located in more than one state insured under that contract, so long as the person is otherwise licensed as an insurance producer to sell, solicit, or negotiate that insurance in the state where the insured maintains its principal place of business and the contract of insurance insures risks located in that state; or

(j) A salaried full-time employee who counsels or advises his or her employer relative to the insurance interests of the employer or of the subsidiaries or business affiliates of the employer, so long as the employee does not sell or solicit insurance or receive a commission.

PRELICENSURE EDUCATION

10-2-201. Prelicensure education - when required. (1) (a) Except as otherwise provided in section 10-2-202, in addition to other requirements for licensure as specified under this article and as a condition of initial licensure, an individual applicant for qualification in life, sickness and accident, or property and casualty lines shall be required to provide evidence to the commissioner that the individual applicant has satisfactorily completed an approved prelicensure education or training course or program as follows:

(I) An individual seeking insurance producer licensure authority for life insurance shall complete at least fifty hours of an approved course or program for certification in life insurance; and, of the said fifty hours, at least three hours shall pertain specifically to insurance industry ethics;

(II) An individual seeking insurance producer licensure authority for health coverage shall complete at least fifty hours of an approved course or program for certification in sickness and accident insurance; and, of the said fifty hours, at least three hours shall pertain specifically to insurance industry ethics;

(III) An individual seeking insurance producer licensure authority for property or casualty insurance or both shall complete at least fifty hours of an approved course or program for certification in property or casualty insurance or both; and, of the said fifty hours, at least three hours shall pertain specifically to insurance industry ethics.

(b) An individual seeking an insurance producer license to include life, sickness and accident, property, or casualty lines or any combination thereof shall not be eligible to take the written examination provided for in section 10-2-402 until the prelicensure education requirements specified in this subsection (1) pertaining to the line or lines of insurance applied for have been satisfied.

(2) The commissioner shall adopt all rules necessary to carry out the prelicensing education provisions of this section. Such rules shall set forth standards for courses and programs to qualify for approval by the commissioner and shall also prescribe a system of control and reporting.

(3) An individual seeking an insurance producer license shall pay to the commissioner, in addition to any other applicable fees or charges, a fee established by the commissioner in accordance with section 10-2-413 for operation of the preclicensing education program.

10-2-202. Exemption from preclicensure education requirements. (1) Preclicensure education as set forth in section 10-2-201 shall not be required of an individual who is:

(a) Applying to reinstate a cancelled or expired resident insurance producer license in this state when such license has been inactive for one year or less;

(b) Applying for temporary license authority under section 10-2-410;

(c) Applying for a resident insurance producer license in this state, was previously licensed in his or her former resident state, and has completed or satisfied preclicensure education as required by that state pertinent to the line or lines of insurance applied for in Colorado;

(d) Applying for a nonresident license in this state pertinent to the line or lines of authority held in the producer's home state.

ing for insurance. Life Investors Ins. Co. of Am. v. Smith, 833 P.2d 864 (Colo. App. 1992).

10-2-203. Course certification, registration, and review by commissioner.

(1) Preclicensure education courses or programs that will be provided and offered to persons applying for life, sickness and accident, property, or casualty licensing are subject to review and certification by the commissioner, except that:

(a) Any full-time program of preclicensure education operated by a qualified domestic company or a company with a qualified home office located in Colorado shall not be subject to review and certification by the commissioner; and

(b) Any applicant or licensee who has attended such a course or program shall be deemed in compliance with the provisions of section 10-2-201 upon certification by the applicant that he or she has completed all required hours of instruction through such a course or program.

(2) Course instruction, content, outline, and course instructors are subject to initial approval by the commissioner and, at the discretion of the commissioner, are also subject to periodic review for continuation. The course provider shall remit the fee as prescribed in accordance with section 10-2-413 to continue or renew such approved course or program.

(3) If, upon review, the commissioner finds that a preclicensure education course or program is not in compliance with all applicable standards, as set forth by rule, the commissioner may order the course or program to be discontinued or revoke the approval of the course provider or both.

ANNOTATION

Allocation of liabilities for wrongs. The provisions of subsections (1) and (2) do not govern or allocate liabilities for wrongs as between as principal, agent, and third party; rather, the statute only provides that insurance agents are the agents of the insurer and insurance brokers are representatives of the insured. Thus, oral representations by an agent cannot impose liability on an insurer where they contradict the terms of the insurance contract. Pete's Satire, Inc. v. Commercial Union Ins., 698 P.2d 1388 (Colo. App. 1985), aff'd sub nom. on other grounds in Bayly, Martin & Fay v. Pete's Satire, 739 P.2d 239 (Colo. 1987).

Individual was agent of insurer and his acts were imputable to insurer where automobile insurer stipulated that individual was its duly appointed insurance agent and stipulation paralleled statutory definition of that term. Northwestern Nat. Cas. Co. v. State, 682 P.2d 486 (Colo. App. 1983).

Selling agent found to be an agent of the insurance company and not the person applying for insurance. Life Investors Ins. Co. of Am. v. Smith, 833 P.2d 864 (Colo. App. 1992).

Selling agent was an agent of the insurer and not of the respondent where there was an employment contract between the selling agent and insurer that set forth the agent's duties with respect to the insurer and where the selling agent initially contacted the respondent because of a request by the respondent's employer and not the respondent himself. Life Investors Ins. Co. of Am. v. Smith, 833 P.2d 864 (Colo. App. 1992).

PART 3

CONTINUING EDUCATION

Editor's note: The provisions of the "Reinsurance Intermediary Act" previously contained in part 3 are now contained in part 9 of this article.

10-2-301. Continuing education requirement - advisory committee. (1) Producers not exempt from the requirements of this section shall satisfactorily complete up to twenty-four hours of instruction by attending such courses or programs of instruction as may be approved by the commissioner. At least three of the twenty-four hours of continuing education shall be for courses in ethics. The insurance commissioner may adopt rules concerning testing requirements as a part of the certified continuing education. The required hours of instruction shall be completed within twenty-four months after the date the producer's license is required to be renewed, beginning with renewal dates on or after January 1, 1993. A producer may accumulate no more than twelve carry-over credit hours during the one hundred twenty days before the licensing continuation date. Such carry-over credits may be applied to the next continuing education period. If a producer has more than one license to sell insurance in this state, the required hours of instruction shall be completed within twenty-four months after the date the first such license is required to be renewed. For good cause shown, the commissioner may grant an extension of time within which to comply with the requirements of this section, such extension not to exceed an additional one year. An instructor of an approved course of instruction shall qualify for the same number of hours of continuing education as a person attending and successfully completing the course or program, but no instructor shall receive credit more than once for a course or program given more than once during the twenty-four-month period described in this subsection (1).

(2) Any producer who is subject to the requirements of this section shall furnish in a form satisfactory to the commissioner written proof of compliance with the requirements of this section. The requirements of this section are mandatory for any person specified in subsection (3) (a) of this section, and if any such person holds more than one license which is described in subsection (3) of this section, such person shall be required to complete the hours of instruction required under this section only once. For purposes of this section, the term "person" shall include any holder of a license to sell insurance under the laws of this state.

(3) (a) The requirements of this section shall apply to any resident person licensed to solicit and sell the following types of insurance in this state:

- (I) Life insurance and annuity contracts, including variable life and annuity contracts;
- (II) Sickness, accident and health insurance;
- (III) Property and casualty insurance; and
- (IV) Any other type of insurance for which the state requires an examination for licensure.

(b) This section shall not apply to any person holding a limited or restricted license if such license is in good standing with the division and no complaints have been filed against the licensee.

(4) Written certification of any course of instruction completed shall be executed by or on behalf of the sponsoring organization, in a form satisfactory to the commissioner.

(5) Any person who fails to comply with the requirements of this section, or is found after a hearing before the division to have submitted a false or fraudulent certificate of compliance to the commissioner, shall have his or her license suspended until such person satisfactorily demonstrates to the commissioner that all of the requirements of this section, and any other applicable licensing requirement or other statute, have been met.

(6) (a) The commissioner shall be responsible for administering the continuing insurance education requirements under this article and approving courses of instruction that qualify for such purposes. The commissioner shall promulgate such rules as the commissioner deems necessary to administer the continuing education requirements, including the provisions and requirements of this section. The commissioner shall also promulgate rules requiring that producers be required to provide to a continuing education administrator proof of compliance with the continuing education requirements as a condition of license renewal. For persons licensed pursuant to section 10-11-116 (1) (c), compliance with the continuing legal education credits requirements of the Colorado supreme court shall be deemed to meet the requirements of this section.

(b) The position of continuing education administrator shall be established by the commissioner either within the division of insurance or through a contractual arrangement with an outside service provider. All costs of such administrator shall be paid from continuing insurance education fees paid by producers in the manner provided by this section. In no event may the commissioner delegate course approval responsibilities to the continuing education administrator.

(c) Each producer licensed under this article is responsible for paying to the continuing education administrator a reasonable biennial fee for the operation of the continuing education programs, which fee is used to administer the provisions of this section.

(6.5) (a) Continuing education course instruction, content, outline, and course providers are subject to initial approval by the commissioner and, at the discretion of the commissioner, are subject to periodic review for continuation.

(b) If, upon review, the commissioner determines that a continuing education course or program is not in compliance with all applicable standards, as set forth by rule, the commissioner may order the course or program to be discontinued or revoke approval of the course provider, or both.

PART 4

LICENSING AND APPOINTMENT OF INSURANCE PRODUCERS

Editor's note: The provisions of the "Managing General Agents Act" previously contained in part 4 are now contained in part 10 of this article.

10-2-401. License required. (1) No person shall act as or hold oneself out to be an insurance producer unless duly licensed as an insurance producer in accordance with this article. Every insurance producer who solicits or negotiates an application for insurance of any kind on behalf of an insurer shall be regarded as representing the insurer and not the insured or any beneficiary of the insured in any controversy between the insurer and such insured or beneficiary. A person shall not sell, solicit, or negotiate insurance in this state for any class or classes of insurance unless the person is licensed for that line of authority in accordance with this article.

(2) No insurance producer shall make application for, procure, negotiate for, or place for others any policies for any line or lines of insurance for which he or she is not then qualified and licensed.

(3) (a) Any representative of a fraternal benefit society who solicits and negotiates insurance contracts is an insurance producer and is subject to the same licensing requirements as those for an insurance producer; except that a license is not required of any officer, employee, or secretary of a fraternal benefit society or of a subordinate lodge or branch thereof who devotes substantially all of his or her time to activities other than the solicitation or negotiation of insurance contracts and who receives no commission or other compensation directly dependent upon the number or amount of insurance contracts solicited or negotiated.

(b) Any agent, representative, or member of a fraternal benefit society who in the preceding calendar year solicited and procured life insurance contracts on behalf of any society in a face amount of insurance not exceeding fifty thousand dollars or, in the case of any other kind of insurance that the fraternal benefit society may write, solicited and procured such insurance on behalf of not more than twenty-five individuals, who received no commissions or other compensation therefor, and who does not reasonably expect to exceed soliciting or procuring insurance on behalf of more than twenty-five individuals in the current year, shall be exempt from the licensing requirements for an insurance producer.

(4) No insurance producer license shall be granted or extended to any person if the license is being or will be used for the purpose of writing controlled business. As used in this section, "controlled business" means insurance procured or to be procured by or through such person upon:

(a) The person's own life, person, property, or risks, or those of his or her spouse; or

(b) The life, person, property, or risks of the person's employer or the person's own business.

(5) Such a license shall be deemed to have been, or intended to be, used for the purpose of writing controlled business, if during any twelve-month period the aggregate amount of premiums on controlled business would exceed the aggregate amount of premiums on all other insurance business of the applicant or licensee.

(6) A title insurance agent and a title insurance company, as defined in section 10-11-102 (9) and (10), shall disclose the names of all affiliated business arrangements to which the company or agent is a party at the time of application for a new license, on the continuation due date of an existing license, and upon a change to any identifying information, in a form and manner acceptable to the commissioner. The disclosure shall include the physical location of the affiliated businesses, identify the settlement producer with whom the company or agent is associated, and identify the underwriter of the title insurance business.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For article “Litigating the ‘Deemer’ Statute: Brokers in Insurance Litigation”, see 40 Colo. Law. 89 (August 2011).

10-2-402. License examination requirement. (1) Unless exempt pursuant to section 10-2-403, a resident individual applying for an insurance producer license shall pass a written examination. The examination shall reasonably test the individual applicant’s minimum acceptable level of competence as to the particular line or lines of authority for which the individual applicant seeks qualification, unless an individual applicant has been licensed as an insurance producer for the same line or lines of authority in another state within the twelve months immediately preceding the date of receipt of application and files with the commissioner a letter of clearance, issued by the public official having supervision of insurance in the applicant’s former state of residence, stating the individual held a license for the same line or lines of authority during such twelve-month period and that the license was in good standing.

(2) Examination for licensing shall be held at such reasonable times and places as are designated by the commissioner, and such times and places shall be made public.

(3) (a) Each individual applying for an examination shall remit a nonrefundable fee as prescribed by the commissioner in accordance with section 10-2-413.

(b) The application for examination shall request the applicant to provide the following information:

(I) The applicant’s name, age, residence address, business address, and mailing address;

(II) The name of any required prelicensing course he or she has completed or is in the process of completing;

(III) The method by which the applicant intends to qualify for the license if other than completing a prelicensing course;

(IV) The highest level of education achieved by the applicant; and

(V) The applicant’s gender, native language, and race or ethnicity; except that the application shall contain a statement that an applicant is not required to disclose his or her gender, native language, or race or ethnicity, that he or she will not be penalized for not doing so, and that the department will use this information exclusively for research and statistical purposes and to improve the quality and fairness of the examinations.

(c) No later than six months after August 5, 2008, and annually thereafter, the commissioner shall prepare and publish a report that summarizes statistical information relating to insurance producer examinations administered during the preceding calendar year. The report shall include the following information for all examinees combined and separately by race or ethnicity, gender, race or ethnicity within gender, education level, and native language:

(I) The total number of examinees;

(II) The percentage and number of examinees who passed the examination;

(III) The mean scaled scores on the examination; and

(IV) Standard deviation of scaled scores on the examination.

(d) If the commissioner arranges to have the examinations for licensure administered by an independent testing service pursuant to section 10-2-402 (5), the commissioner may provide demographic information to the testing service if the commissioner requires the independent examiner to review and analyze examination results in conjunction with the gender, native language, education level, and race or ethnicity of the examinees.

(4) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2001, p. 1195, § 9, effective January 1, 2002.)

(5) The commissioner shall give, conduct, and grade all examinations, or the commissioner may arrange to have examinations administered and graded by an independent testing service, as specified by contract, in a fair and impartial manner and without discrimination as to individuals examined. The commissioner may arrange for such testing service to recover the cost of the examination from the applicant.

(6) There shall be a separate portion of the examination required for each line of insurance which the applicant proposes to transact under the license.

(7) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2001, p. 1195, § 9, effective January 1, 2002.)

(8) An individual who fails to pass an examination shall remit the required fee and any forms required to retake the failed examination.

(9) An individual who fails to appear for a scheduled examination shall remit the required fee and any forms required to reapply to take the examination.

(10) Applicants for life, health coverages, property, or casualty examinations shall comply with prelicensure education requirements as prescribed in section 10-2-201 prior to taking the written examination.

(11) An insurance producer license issued on or before January 1, 2002, for health maintenance organizations (“HMO”) or nonprofits may be renewed or continued until the licensee fails to meet the requirements of this part 4.

Editor’s note: This section is similar to former §§ 10-2-106 and 10-2-207 as they existed prior to 1993.

10-2-403. Exemption from license examination. (1) The following applicants shall be exempt from the written examination requirements set forth in section 10-2-402:

(a) An individual who applies for an insurance producer license in this state who was previously licensed for the same lines of authority in this state or another state shall not be required to complete any prelicensing education or examination. This exemption is only available to a nonresident applicant if:

(I) (A) The person is currently licensed in his or her home state for the same line or lines of authority; or

(B) The application is received within twelve months after the cancellation of the applicant’s previous license; and

(II) (A) The prior state issues a certification that, at the time of cancellation, the applicant was in good standing in that state; or

(B) The state’s producer database records, maintained by the national association of insurance commissioners or its affiliates or subsidiaries, indicate that the producer is or was licensed in good standing for the line of authority requested.

(b) An individual applicant for a health maintenance organization or nonprofit hospital representative producer license or a travel-ticket-selling insurance producer license to solicit, procure, and deliver accident and health or travel baggage insurance policies offered by a life, casualty, or multiple-line insurer licensed in this state;

(b.5) A person licensed as an insurance producer in another state who moves to this state shall make application within ninety days after establishing legal residence to become a resident licensee pursuant to section 10-2-404. No prelicensing education or examination shall be required of that person to obtain any line of authority previously held in the prior state except where the insurance commissioner determines otherwise by regulation.

(c) An individual applicant who holds the designation of chartered life underwriter (“CLU”); except that such individual is not exempt from that portion of the examination pertaining to Colorado laws and rules pertinent to life insurance and health coverage insurance;

(d) An individual applicant who has attained the designation of chartered property and casualty underwriter (“CPCU”); except that such individual is not exempt from taking that portion of the examination pertaining to Colorado laws and rules pertaining to property, casualty, or health coverage;

(e) A nonresident individual applicant who is in compliance with section 10-2-501 (1) (a);

(f) A licensed life insurance producer applicant for a variable contracts license who is in compliance with the qualification requirement in section 10-2-407;

(g) An individual applicant who holds the designation of chartered financial consultant ("ChFC"); except that such individual is not exempt from that portion of the examination pertaining to Colorado laws and rules pertinent to life insurance and health coverage insurance;

(h) An individual applicant who holds the designation of registered health underwriter ("RHU"); except that such individual is not exempt from that portion of the examination pertaining to Colorado laws and rules pertinent to life insurance and health coverage insurance.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 10-2-211 as it existed prior to 1993.

10-2-404. Application for license. (1) An applicant for a resident insurance producer license shall make application on a form specified by the commissioner and shall declare under penalty of refusal, suspension, or revocation of the license that the statements made in the application are true, correct, and complete to the best of the individual's knowledge and belief. Before approving the application, the commissioner shall verify that:

(a) The individual is at least eighteen years of age;

(b) The individual has not committed any act which is a ground for denial, suspension, or revocation as set forth in section 10-2-801;

(c) The individual is a resident of this state or is a resident of another state and meets the requirements of section 10-2-502;

(d) If the individual applicant is a nonresident, such applicant has furnished the commissioner with a current certification of license status pursuant to section 10-2-502 (1) (e);

(e) Unless exempt, the individual has satisfied minimum prelicensure education requirements pursuant to part 2 of this article;

(f) The individual has paid the license fee prescribed by the commissioner in accordance with section 10-2-413;

(g) The individual has successfully passed the examination or has satisfied examination qualification requirements for the line or lines of authority for which the individual has applied; and

(h) The individual is competent, trustworthy, and of good moral character and good business reputation.

(2) An insurance agency or business entity acting as an insurance producer shall obtain an insurance producer license. Application shall be made on a form specified by the commissioner. Before approving the application, the commissioner shall verify that:

(a) The agency has disclosed to the insurance commissioner all officers, partners, and directors, whether or not they are licensed as insurance producers;

(b) The agency's officers, directors, or partners are trustworthy, of good moral character, and of good business reputation;

(c) The insurance agency or business entity has paid the fees prescribed by the commissioner in accordance with section 10-2-413;

(d) The insurance agency or business entity has designated a licensed producer who is an officer, partner, or director responsible for the insurance agency's or business entity's compliance with the insurance laws and rules of this state;

(e) The insurance agency or business entity has registered with the commissioner the name of each natural person who, as an officer, director, partner, owner, or member of the insurance agency or business entity, is acting as and is licensed as an insurance producer;

(f) The insurance agency or business entity has registered with the commissioner at least one individual who holds a valid insurance producer license for the line or lines of authority requested in the application;

(g) If the insurance agency's or business entity's filing status is nonresident, the insurance agency or business entity has complied with the qualification requirements of section 10-2-502.

(3) The commissioner may require the filing of any documents reasonably necessary to verify the information contained or required in the application.

(4) Each insurer that sells, solicits, or negotiates any form of limited line credit insurance shall provide to each individual whose duties will include selling, soliciting, or negotiating limited lines credit insurance, a program of instruction that may be approved by the insurance commissioner.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former §§ 10-2-103 and 10-2-207 as they existed prior to 1993.

10-2-405. Residency - individuals - agencies. (1) The commissioner may qualify an applicant as a resident of this state and shall issue an insurance producer license to any qualified resident person of this state in accordance with the following:

(a) An individual applicant may qualify as a resident only if he or she resides in this state. Any license issued pursuant to any application claiming residency for licensing purposes shall constitute an election of residency in this state and shall be void if the licensee, while holding a resident license in this state, also holds or makes application for a license in or thereafter claims to be a resident of any other state or jurisdiction, or if the licensee ceases to be a resident of this state.

(b) An insurance agency or business entity may qualify as a resident if the agency has its principal office in this state;

(c) The resident person is in compliance with the requirements of section 10-2-404.

Source: L. 93: Entire article R&RE, p. 1359, § 1, effective January 1, 1995. L. 2001: (1)(b) amended, p. 1198, § 12, effective January 1, 2002.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 10-2-207 as it existed prior to 1993.

10-2-406. Licensing of agencies. (1) For the purposes set forth in section 10-2-701, an insurance agency or business entity shall be licensed as an insurance producer.

(2) (a) The insurance agency or business entity shall register the name of every natural person who, as a member, officer, director, stockholder, owner, or employee of the agency or business entity, is acting as and is licensed as an insurance producer.

(b) A fee, prescribed by the commissioner in accordance with section 10-2-413, shall be paid for the registration of each insurance producer.

(3) The insurance agency or business entity shall, within ten days, notify the commissioner, on a form prescribed by the commissioner, of every change relative to the licensed individual insurance producers registered and authorized to act as insurance producers for the insurance agency or business entity.

(4) The insurance agency or business entity shall, within ten days, notify the commissioner, on a form prescribed by the commissioner, of any change relative to the insurance agency or business entity name, officers, directors, partners, or owners, to report a merger, or that the insurance agency or business entity has ceased doing business in this state.

(5) When an insurance agency or business entity ceases to do business in this state, the insurance agency or business entity shall return the producer license to the commissioner within ten days after ceasing to do business.

(6) When an insurance agency or business entity changes its principal address to another state, the insurance agency or business entity shall, within ten days, notify the commissioner and return the producer license for cancellation. Relicensing will be subject to the provisions of part 5 of this article.

(7) (a) The insurance agency or business entity shall comply with section 10-2-404.

(b) A nonresident insurance agency shall also comply with the qualification requirements of section 10-2-501.

10-2-407. License - definitions of lines of insurance - authority. (1) Unless a person is denied licensure pursuant to section 10-2-801, the division shall issue a person who has met the requirements of sections 10-2-401 and 10-2-404 an insurance producer license. An insurance producer may receive qualification for a single license to include one or more of the following lines of authority:

- (a) “Life”, which means insurance coverage on human lives that:
    - (I) Shall include benefits of endowment and annuities; and
    - (II) May include benefits for:
      - (A) The event of death or dismemberment by accident; and
      - (B) Disability income;
  - (b) “Accident and health”, which means insurance coverage for sickness, bodily injury, or accidental death and that may include benefits for disability income;
  - (c) “Variable life and variable annuity products”, which means insurance coverage provided under variable life insurance contracts and variable annuities;
  - (d) “Property”, which means insurance coverage for the direct or consequential loss or damage to property of every kind;
  - (e) “Casualty”, which means insurance coverage against legal liability, including that for death, injury, or disability or damage to real or personal property;
  - (f) Repealed.
  - (g) Limited lines credit insurance;
  - (h) Crop hail;
  - (i) Title;
  - (j) Surplus lines;
  - (k) Travel-ticket-selling;
  - (l) Health maintenance organizations (“HMO”); except that no person shall be issued a new license for this individual line of authority on or after January 1, 2002, pursuant to section 10-2-402;
  - (m) Nonprofits; except that no person shall be issued a new license for this individual line of authority on or after January 1, 2002, pursuant to section 10-2-402;
  - (n) “Personal lines”, which means property and casualty insurance sold to individuals and families for primarily noncommercial purposes; or
  - (o) Any other line of insurance permitted under state law or regulation.
- (2) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2001, p. 1199, § 14, effective January 1, 2002.)
- (3) An insurance producer license for surplus lines may be issued to resident persons pursuant to article 5 of this title.

(2) Section 52 of chapter 280, Session Laws of Colorado 2012, provides that the act amending the introductory portion to subsection (1) and repealing subsection (1)(f) applies to offenses committed and applications submitted on or after July 1, 2012.

10-2-408. License - contents - continuation due date. (1) The commissioner shall issue a perpetual insurance producer license to an applicant who has met the requirements of section 10-2-404.

(2) The license shall state the name, address, and personal identification number of the licensee, the date of issuance, general conditions relative to expiration or cancellation, the line or lines of insurance covered by the license, and any other information the commissioner deems proper or necessary.

(3) The license issued to an individual, as a sole proprietor, shall include the trade name under which the licensee acts in the solicitation or negotiation of insurance contracts.

(4) Subject to continuation, each insurance producer license shall remain in effect unless revoked or suspended as long as the continuation fee as prescribed by the commissioner in accordance with section 10-2-413 is paid and education requirements are met on or before the due date.

(5) The commissioner shall establish, by rule, the continuation due date and application procedures for continuation of the license and for the acceptance of a late filing fee.

(6) Any person who holds either a Colorado insurance producer license, a resident surplus lines license, or the equivalent issued by another state or territory that offers Colorado surplus lines producers' nonresident licenses on a reciprocal basis and is deemed by the commissioner to be competent and trustworthy may be licensed as a surplus line producer upon the condition that the producer shall conduct business under the license in accordance with the provisions of this article and shall promptly remit the taxes provided by section 10-5-111.

(7) A licensed insurance producer who fails to comply with license continuation or renewal procedures due to military service, long-term medical disability, or any other condition the commissioner deems appropriate, may request a waiver of those procedures. The producer may also request a waiver of any examination requirement or any other fine or sanction imposed for failure to comply with continuation or renewal procedures.

10-2-409. License - amendment - reissuance. (1) An insurance producer licensee shall promptly notify the commissioner, on a form prescribed by the commissioner, of any change that will require amending a license to reflect that change, including without limitation a legal change of the licensee's name, a change of address, or change or removal of a trade name. The commissioner may require the licensee to furnish any documents necessary to verify any change and to properly amend the license.

10-2-410. Temporary licensing. (1) The commissioner may issue a temporary license to an individual to act as an insurance producer for a period not to exceed one hundred eighty days, without requiring an examination, if the commissioner deems that such temporary license authority is necessary for the servicing of an insurance business in the following cases:

- (a) To the surviving spouse or next of kin, or to the executor or an employee, of a licensed insurance producer who becomes deceased;
- (b) To the surviving spouse or next of kin, or to an employee or the legal guardian, of a licensed insurance producer who becomes disabled;
- (c) To a member, employee, or officer of a licensed insurance agency or business entity, licensed as an insurance producer upon the death or disability of an individual designated in or registered as to the agency or business entity license;
- (d) To the designee of a licensed insurance producer upon entering active service in the armed forces of the United States;
- (e) To any person in any other circumstance where the commissioner deems that the public interest will best be served by the issuance of such license.

(2) The commissioner may, by order, limit the authority of any temporary licensee in any way deemed necessary to protect insureds and the public. The commissioner may require the temporary licensee to have a suitable sponsor who is a licensed producer or insurer and who assumes responsibility for all acts of the temporary licensee. The commissioner may impose other requirements designed to protect insureds and the public. The commissioner may, by order, revoke a temporary license if the interest of insureds or the public are endangered. A temporary license may not continue after the owner or the personal representative disposes of the business.

10-2-413. Fees. (1) The commissioner shall, by rule, set reasonable fees and penalties for the following:

- (a) Insurance producer license; and
- (b) Continuation of license.

(2) All fees payable to the commissioner pursuant to this section shall be nonrefundable. Fees shall be set at the levels necessary to ensure that revenues from such fees, together with revenues from all other fees and taxes collected by the division of insurance in any fiscal year, do not exceed the division's actual direct and indirect costs of operation for that year.

10-2-415.5. Appointment of insurance producer - continuation - renewal - exceptions. (1) No insurance producer shall claim to be a representative or authorized or appointed agent of, or use any other term implying a contractual relationship with, a particular bail insurance company or accept applications on behalf of the bail insurance company unless the insurance producer becomes through a written contract a producer appointee, appointed by that bail insurance company in accordance with this section, to act in the capacity of an agent of the bail insurance company.

(2) (a) A bail insurance company shall notify the commissioner of each insurance producer appointment. Each bail insurance company shall file with the commissioner, monthly or at such other less frequent intervals as the commissioner may prescribe, a current list of insurance producers that it has appointed to solicit business on its behalf. The list shall contain all relevant appointment information as prescribed by the commissioner, including the effective date of appointment.

(b) Subject to renewal, each insurance producer appointment shall remain in effect until:

(I) The insurance producer's license is allowed to expire, discontinued, or cancelled by the insurance producer or revoked by the commissioner; or

(II) Notice of termination of the appointment is filed with the commissioner by the insurer.

(c) (I) A bail insurance company shall not appoint an insurance producer to act as its agent to write bail bonds unless the agent is licensed as an insurance producer authorized to write bail bonds and has completed the preclicensure education required by this paragraph (c) and submitted to the bail insurance company evidence of satisfactory completion of the education. The education must be approved by the division and consist of at least:

(A) Eight clock hours regarding bail bonding, two of which concern the criminal court system, two of which concern bail bond industry ethics, and four of which concern the bail bond laws; and

(B) Sixteen clock hours of training in bail recovery practices that complies with standards established by the peace officers standards and training board under section 24-31-303 (1) (h), C.R.S.

(II) This paragraph (c) does not apply to a person who has successfully completed the required preclicensure training pursuant to section 12-7-102.5, C.R.S., as it existed prior to July 1, 2012.

(III) A bail insurance company failing to comply with this paragraph (c) is subject to discipline under section 10-1-110 or the assessment of a penalty.

(3) Each active insurance producer appointment shall be subject to renewal on October 1 of the renewal year. The division shall provide a list of active insurance producer appointees to the bail insurance company along with a renewal invoice stating the fee required for the renewal of each active insurance producer appointment.

(4) Any appointment that is not renewed on or before October 1 shall be deemed to have expired or been discontinued, effective on that date; except that the commissioner may renew an insurer's appointment upon receipt of the renewal invoice together with the renewal fees due and any applicable late fee.

Editor's note: Section 52 of chapter 280, Session Laws of Colorado 2012, provides that the act adding subsection (2)(c) and amending subsections (1) and (2)(a), the introductory portion to subsection (2)(b), and subsections (2)(b)(I) and (3) applies to offenses committed and applications submitted on or after July 1, 2012.

10-2-415.6. Bail bond reports required - repeal. (1) Each insurance producer who writes bail bonds shall submit an annual report in a format required by the commissioner covering July 1 to June 30, no later than October 1 of the following year, of the following information for bail bonds posted in Colorado by the producer during the reporting period:

- (a) The number of bail bonds posted with a court;
- (b) The number of bail bonds discharged by a court;
- (c) The number of bail bonds discharged by a court for which the defendant appeared for all scheduled court appearances for the duration of the bond;
- (d) The number of bail bonds discharged by a court for which the defendant's bond was revoked by a court at the request of the producer for any reason other than failure to appear;
- (e) The number of bail bonds discharged by a court for which the defendant's bond was revoked by a court at the request of the producer because the defendant was charged with a new criminal offense alleged to have been committed during the duration of the bond; and
- (f) The number of bail bonds posted by the producer or any other producer in the producer's agency for a defendant during the time the defendant was covered by another bond posted by the producer or the producer's agency for another criminal case.

(2) If, during the reporting period from July 1, 2012, to June 30, 2013, or any year thereafter, the insurance producer, the state judicial department, representatives of law enforcement, and representatives of county government complete the design of an instrument, system, or other method of proper verification of the actions of an insurance producer in returning the defendant to custody or to the court for further proceedings following a failure to appear on a posted bond, then the insurance producer may report the following:

- (a) The number of defendants who were returned to court through the actions of the insurance producer or the producer's agent after failure to appear;
- (b) The number of defendants who were returned to custody by action of the insurance producer or the producer's agent after failure to appear; and
- (c) The number of consents of surety filed with the court to continue the bond after failure to appear.

(3) In the annual report required by this section, the insurance producer shall sign and affirm the information submitted is true and accurate to the best of the producer's knowledge.

Editor's note: Section 52 of chapter 280, Session Laws of Colorado 2012, provides that the act adding this section applies to offenses committed and applications submitted on or after July 1, 2012.

10-2-415.7. Termination of insurance producer bail bonding agent - notice - penalty. (1) Upon the termination of the appointment of an insurance producer bail bonding agent, the insurer shall, within fifteen days, notify the commissioner and the appointee of such termination by certified mail.

(2) If the termination of an agent's appointment is for any of the causes listed in section 10-1-128 or 10-2-801, the insurer shall notify the commissioner of the reason and, if the commissioner so requests, the insurer shall provide any information, records, statements, or other data pertaining to the termination that may be used by the division in any action taken under section 10-2-801.

(3) Any information, documents, records, or statements provided pursuant to this section shall be privileged, and there shall be no liability on the part of, nor shall a cause of action of any nature arise against, the division, the insurance company, or any authorized representative for requesting or providing such information, documents, records, or statements; except that such information may be used by the division to pursue administrative or criminal prosecutions.

(4) In addition to any other penalty or liability authorized by law, the failure or refusal of any insurer to comply with the requirements of subsection (1) or (2) of this section shall be cause for the assessment against the insurer of a civil penalty of up to one thousand dollars for each such failure or refusal if, after notice to the insurer and after a hearing in accordance with section 24-4-105, C.R.S., the commissioner finds that the insurer has violated this section.

Editor's note: Section 52 of chapter 280, Session Laws of Colorado 2012, provides that the act amending subsection (2) applies to offenses committed and applications submitted on or after July 1, 2012.

10-2-416. Notification to the commissioner of termination. (1) Termination for cause. An insurer or authorized representative of the insurer that terminates employment, a contract, or other insurance business relationship with a producer shall notify the commissioner within thirty days following the effective date of the termination, using a format prescribed by the commissioner, if the reason for termination is one of the reasons set forth in this article and article 3 of this title, or the insurer has knowledge the producer was found by a court, government body, or self-regulatory organization authorized by law to have engaged in any of the activities in this article and article 3 of this title. Upon the written request of the commissioner, the insurer shall provide additional information, documents, records, or other data pertaining to the termination or activity of the producer.

(2) Ongoing notification requirement. The insurer or the authorized representative of the insurer shall promptly notify the commissioner, in a format prescribed by the commissioner, if, upon further review or investigation, the insurer discovers additional information that would have been reportable to the commissioner pursuant to subsection (1) of this section had the insurer known of its existence.

(3) Copy of notification to be provided to producer. A copy of the notification pursuant to this subsection (3) shall be provided to the producer pursuant to the following requirements:

(a) Within fifteen days after making the notification required by subsections (1) and (2) of this section, the insurer shall mail a copy of the notification to the producer at the producer's last-known address. If the producer is terminated for cause as listed in section 10-2-801, the insurer shall provide a copy of the notification to the producer at the producer's last-known address by certified mail, return receipt requested and postage prepaid, or by overnight delivery using a nationally recognized carrier.

(b) Within thirty days after the producer has received the original or additional notification, the producer may file written comments concerning the substance of the notification with the commissioner. The producer shall, by the same means, simultaneously send a copy of the comments to the reporting insurer, and the comments shall become a part of the commissioner's file and accompany every copy of a report distributed or disclosed for any reason about the producer as permitted under subsection (5) of this section.

(4) Immunities. (a) In the absence of wilful and wanton behavior, an insurer, the authorized representative of the insurer, a producer, the commissioner, or an organization of which the commissioner is a member and that compiles the information and makes it available to other commissioners or regulatory or law enforcement agencies shall not be subject to civil liability, and a civil cause of action of any nature shall not arise against these entities or their respective agents or employees, as a result of any statement or information required by or provided pursuant to this section or any information relating to any statement that may be requested in writing by the commissioner, from an insurer or producer or a statement by a terminating insurer or producer to an insurer or producer limited solely and exclusively to whether a termination for cause under this paragraph (a) was reported to the commissioner, if the propriety of any termination for cause under subsection (1) of this section is certified in writing by an officer or authorized representative of the insurer or producer terminating the relationship.

(b) Paragraph (a) of this subsection (4) shall not abrogate or modify any existing statutory or common law privileges or immunities.

(5) Confidentiality. (a) (I) Except as provided in paragraph (e) of this subsection (5), any documents, materials, or other information in the control or possession of the division of insurance that is furnished by an insurer, producer, or employee or agent thereof acting on behalf of the insurer or producer, or obtained by the commissioner in an investigation pursuant to this section, shall not be subject to article 72 of title 24, C.R.S.

(II) The commissioner is authorized to use the documents, materials, or other information in the furtherance of any regulatory or legal action brought as a part of the commissioner's duties.

(b) Neither the commissioner nor any person who received documents, materials, or other information while acting under the authority of the commissioner shall be required to testify in any private civil action concerning any confidential documents, materials, or information subject to paragraph (a) of this subsection (5).

(c) In order to assist in the performance of the commissioner's duties under this article, the commissioner, if the recipient agrees to maintain the confidentiality and privileged status of the document, material, or other information, and has the authority to do so, may:

(I) Share documents, materials, or other information, including the documents, materials, or information subject to paragraph (a) of this subsection (5), with any of the following:

(A) Other state, federal, and international regulatory agencies;

(B) The national association of insurance commissioners or its affiliates or subsidiaries; and

(C) State, federal, and international law enforcement authorities.

(II) Receive documents, materials, or information, including otherwise confidential and privileged documents, materials, or information, from the national association of insurance commissioners, its affiliates or subsidiaries, and regulatory and law enforcement officials of other foreign or domestic jurisdictions, and shall maintain as confidential or privileged any document, material, or information received with the understanding that it is confidential or privileged under the laws of the jurisdiction that is the source of the document, material, or information; and

(III) Enter into agreements governing sharing and use of information consistent with this subsection (5).

(d) No waiver of any applicable privilege or claim of confidentiality in the documents, materials, or information shall occur as a result of disclosure to the commissioner under this section or as a result of sharing as authorized in paragraph (c) of this subsection (5).

(e) Nothing in this article shall preclude the commissioner or the commissioner's designee from releasing final disciplinary actions or closed files, including those portions of the record pertaining to for cause terminations that shall be open to public inspection pursuant to article 72 of title 24, C.R.S., and to a database or other clearinghouse service maintained by the national association of insurance commissioners or its affiliates or subsidiaries.

(f) Nothing in this article shall preclude the commissioner or the commissioner's designee from disclosing any information obtained pursuant to the provisions of this article to any state, federal, or international law enforcement agency for use in any criminal or civil investigation or prosecution, nor shall any such information be considered privileged and confidential in any criminal or civil matter, investigation, or prosecution by a government agency, except as provided in part 3 of article 72 of title 24, C.R.S.

(g) Nothing in this article shall preclude the commissioner or the commissioner's designee from disclosing any information obtained or developed pursuant to the provisions of this article for use in any private civil matter, nor shall any such information be considered privileged or confidential, except as provided in part 3 of article 72 of title 24, C.R.S. Any party in interest may request the commissioner or the commissioner's designee to find that disclosure of such information in any private civil matter shall cause substantial injury to the public interest. If the commissioner finds that disclosure shall cause substantial injury to the public interest, the commissioner or the commissioner's designee may apply to the district court for an order permitting restrictions on disclosure as authorized by section 24-72-204 (6), C.R.S.

(6) Penalties for failing to report. An insurer, the authorized representative of the insurer, or producer that fails to report as required under the provisions of this section or that is found to have reported with actual malice by a court of competent jurisdiction, may, after notice and hearing, have the producer's license or insurer's certificate of authority suspended or revoked and may be fined in accordance with sections 10-2-804 (4) and 10-3-1108.

NONRESIDENT LICENSES

10-2-501. Reciprocity. (1) The commissioner shall waive any requirements for a nonresident license applicant with a valid license from the applicant's home state, except those requirements imposed by section 10-2-502, if the applicant's home state awards nonresident licenses to residents of this state on the same basis.

(2) A nonresident producer's satisfaction of a nonproducer's home state's continuing education requirements for licensed insurance producers shall constitute satisfaction of this state's continuing education requirements if the nonresident producer's home state recognizes the satisfaction of its continuing education requirements imposed upon producers from this state on the same basis.

10-2-502. Nonresident licensing - qualification. (1) The commissioner may qualify an applicant as a nonresident, unless the applicant is denied licensure pursuant to section 10-2-801, and shall issue an insurance producer license to any qualified nonresident person in accordance with the following:

- (a) The person maintains a license in good standing in the person's home state;
- (b) An insurance agency or business entity may qualify as a nonresident if the agency or business entity has its principal office located in another state;
- (c) The nonresident person holds a similar license that is awarded on the same basis in the nonresident's home state and for the same line or lines of authority applied for in this state;
- (d) The person has submitted the proper request for licensure and has paid the fees set forth by regulation;
- (e) The nonresident person has filed with the commissioner a current certification of license status for the purposes set forth in section 10-2-501;
- (f) The person has submitted or transmitted to the insurance commissioner the application for licensure that the person submitted to his or her home state, or in lieu of the application, a completed uniform application.

(2) The commissioner may verify the producer's licensing status through the producer database maintained by the national association of insurance commissioners or its affiliates or subsidiaries.

(3) A license issued to a nonresident person shall confer the same rights and privileges as those afforded a resident licensee.

(3.5) A nonresident producer who moves from one state to another state or a resident producer who moves from this state to another state shall file a change of address and provide certification from the new resident state within thirty days after the change of legal residence. No fee or license application is required.

(4) If the insurance department of the nonresident insurance producer's resident state suspends, terminates, or revokes the producer's insurance license in that state, the nonresident insurance producer shall notify the commissioner and shall return the Colorado nonresident license pursuant to section 10-2-804.

(5) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, a person licensed as a surplus lines producer in the surplus lines producer's home state shall receive a nonresident surplus lines producer license pursuant to subsection (1) of this section; except that nothing in this section otherwise amends or supercedes any provision of this part 5.

(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, a person licensed as a limited lines credit insurance or other type of limited line producer in the limited line producer's home state shall receive a nonresident limited line producer license, pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, granting the same scope of authority granted under the license issued by the producer's home state. For the purposes of this subsection (6), limited lines insurance is any authority granted by the home state which restricts the authority of the license to less than the total authority prescribed in the associated major lines pursuant to section 10-2-407.

10-2-503. Commissioner as agent for service of process. (1) By the filing of the application and issuance of a nonresident insurance producer license, a nonresident insurance producer licensee shall be deemed to have appointed the commissioner and successors in office as said nonresident's agent upon whom all lawful process in any legal proceeding against the nonresident may be served and to have agreed that any such lawful process has the same legal force and validity as personal service of process upon such nonresident.

(2) The commissioner shall, within ten working days after receiving three copies of the process served, forward a copy of such process by registered or certified mail to the person for whom the commissioner has received such process at the nonresident individual's address of record, or, if the nonresident is an insurance agency, at the agency's principal place of business. The commissioner shall keep a record of all process so served.

(3) Service of process upon any such licensee in any action or proceeding instituted by the commissioner under this section shall be made by the commissioner by mailing such process by registered mail to an individual licensee at the licensee's last known address of record or to an insurance agency licensee at its principal place of business.

PART 6

BANKS AND BANK HOLDING COMPANIES

10-2-601. Financial institutions may sell insurance - where - regulation. (1) For the purposes of this part 6:

(a) and (b) (Deleted by amendment, L. 97, p. 426, § 1, effective April 24, 1997.)

(c) "Credit insurance" has the same meaning as set forth in section 10-10-103 (2).

(d) "Credit life insurance" means insurance on the life of a debtor pursuant to or in connection with a specific loan or other credit transaction.

(e) "Financial institution" means a state bank, including an industrial bank, or a bank and trust company chartered by a state, a trust company, a savings and loan association, a credit union, or a national bank and the financial institution is located in this state.

“Financial institution” includes federally chartered savings and loan associations and credit unions located in this state.

(2) No financial institution or employee thereof shall be licensed or admitted, directly or indirectly, to sell insurance in this state; except that:

(a) A financial institution or employee thereof may engage in the activities of an insurance producer, an insurance agency, or a business entity in this state and shall be licensed pursuant to this article. Such producers, agencies, and business entities shall be subject to the provisions of this title and rules promulgated pursuant thereto.

(b) Unlicensed employees of financial institutions shall not sell insurance or annuities. Such employees may direct customers to licensed persons.

(c) A financial institution, or any subsidiary, affiliate, or employee thereof, may be licensed to sell insurance, credit insurance, and fixed and variable annuity contracts in accordance with regulations promulgated by the commissioner.

(d) Any financial institution, or any subsidiary, affiliate, or employee thereof, may be permitted to own an insurance company authorized to sell, and that insurance company’s employees may be licensed to sell, insurance to guarantee the payment of any amounts due in connection with any securities or obligations described in section 11-57-101, C.R.S.; except that no financial institution, or any subsidiary or affiliate subject to the supervision of the banking board created in section 11-102-103, C.R.S., shall own such an insurance company without the consent of the banking board, and no financial institution subject to the supervision of the financial services board created in section 11-44-101.6, C.R.S., shall own such an insurance company without the consent of the financial services board, and no financial institution shall invest more than ten percent of its capital and surplus in such an insurance company.

(e) Any financial institution, or any subsidiary or affiliate thereof, may own, directly or indirectly, a captive insurance company operating under article 6 of this title.

(f) Any trade association organized primarily to promote the common interests of financial institutions, or an affiliate or subsidiary of such association, may hold stock or other interests in an insurance company, or an affiliate or subsidiary thereof.

(3) and (4) (Deleted by amendment, L. 97, p. 426, § 1, effective April 24, 1997.)

L. 97: IP(1), (1)(a), (1)(b), and (2) to (5) amended and (1)(e) added, p. 426, § 1, effective April 24. L. 99: (1)(e) amended, p. 585, § 1, effective May 17. L. 2001: (2)(a) amended, p. 1208, § 26, effective January 1, 2002. L. 2003: (2)(d) amended, p. 1206, § 4, effective July 1.

Editor’s note: This section is similar to former § 10-2-221 as it existed prior to 1993.

10-2-602. Sale of annuities and insurance by financial institutions - certain tying arrangements prohibited. (1) In addition to the requirements of section 10-3-1105, no financial institution, or subsidiary or employee of a financial institution, shall extend credit, lease or sell property of any kind, furnish any service, or fix or vary the consideration for any such extension of credit, lease, sale, or service on the condition or requirement that the customer shall obtain an insurance contract or an annuity from such financial institution or any subsidiary or employee.

(2) No financial institution may offer a financial product or service, or fix or vary the conditions of such product or service, conditioned on a requirement that the customer obtain insurance from such financial institution or any specific person.

(3) No person shall require or imply that the purchase of an insurance product, or of an annuity from a financial institution, is a condition of the lending of money or extension of credit, maintenance of a trust account, establishment or maintenance of a checking, savings, deposit, or share account, or the provision of products or services related to such activities.

10-2-603. Bank sale of annuities - disclosure requirements. (1) Any financial institution, or any subsidiary or employee thereof, which sells a fixed or variable annuity contract shall receive written acknowledgment from the purchaser that the annuity which is being purchased may involve investment risk and is not insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation or the national credit union share insurance fund. Such written notice shall be clear and conspicuous and shall be given before or contemporaneously with the purchase of the annuity. This subsection (1) shall apply to an affiliate or subsidiary of a financial institution if such an affiliate or subsidiary sells insurance on the premises of a financial institution.

(2) A clear and conspicuous notice substantially in the following form complies with this section:

Acknowledgment

I understand that the investment product I am purchasing is not a bank deposit and is not an obligation of, nor is it guaranteed by, any bank. This product is not insured or guaranteed by the federal deposit insurance corporation. In addition, I understand that the investment product purchased may be subject to investment risk, including possible loss of principal, and that any investment product's past performance should not be considered an indication of future results.

10-2-604. Disclosures. (1) A financial institution, and any person selling insurance with a cash value or a cash accumulation component on behalf of a financial institution, shall disclose to the financial institution's customers or members, and on any advertisements or promotional material, that insurance offered, recommended, sponsored, or sold by the financial institution, or on the premises of the financial institution:

- (a) Is not a deposit;
- (b) Is not insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation, the national credit union share insurance fund, or any agency of the state of Colorado or the federal government;
- (c) Is not guaranteed by the financial institution or any affiliated insured depository institution;
- (d) May involve investment risk, including loss of principal; and
- (e) May be purchased from a producer of the customer's choice and that the customer's choice of another insurance provider will not affect the customer's relationship with the financial institution.

10-2-605. Misleading advertising. (1) No financial institution, or any subsidiary, affiliate, or employee of a financial institution, may issue advertising that would lead a reasonable person to believe that the state of Colorado or the federal government:

- (a) Is responsible for insurance sales activities of the financial institution or any subsidiary, affiliate, or employee thereof;

(b) Guarantees any return on insurance products or is a source of payment of any insurance obligations sold by the financial institution or any subsidiary, affiliate, or employee thereof.

10-2-606. Discrimination against affiliated agents. (1) No financial institution shall:

(a) Require, as a condition of providing or renewing a contract for providing a product or service to any customer, that the customer purchase, finance, or negotiate any policy or contract of insurance through any particular person;

(b) In connection with a loan or extension of credit that requires a borrower to obtain insurance, reject an insurance policy solely because such policy has been issued or underwritten by any person who is not associated with such institution;

(c) Impose any requirement on any insurance producer who is not associated with the financial institution that is not imposed on any insurance producer who is associated with such institution; or

(d) Unless otherwise authorized by applicable federal or state law, require any debtor, insurer, or producer to pay a separate charge in connection with the handling of insurance that is required under a contract.

BUSINESS CONDUCT OF LICENSEES

10-2-701. Assumed names - registration - rules. Any insurance producer using an assumed name, including without limitation a trade or fictitious name, under which the insurance producer conducts business shall register the name with the insurance commissioner prior to using the assumed name. The commissioner shall not accept registration of any name that would tend to be misleading to the public or that is identical or similar to the name of any producer whose license has been revoked or suspended. Every insurance producer licensee shall promptly file with the commissioner a written notice of any change in or discontinuation of the use of any name. The commissioner may promulgate all rules necessary and proper to implement the provisions of this section.

10-2-702. Commissions. (1) No insurer or insurance producer shall pay, directly or indirectly, any commission, service fee, brokerage, or other valuable consideration to any person selling, soliciting, or negotiating insurance within this state unless, at the time such services were performed, such person was a duly licensed insurance producer under this article for the performance of such services. In addition, no person, other than a person appropriately licensed by this state as an insurance producer at the time such services were performed, shall accept any such consideration; except that any person duly licensed under this article may pay or assign such person's commissions to, or direct that such person's commissions be paid to, a partnership of which the person is a member, employee, or agent or to a corporation of which the person is an officer, employee, or agent. This section shall not prevent payment or receipt of renewal or other deferred commissions to or by any person entitled thereto under this section.

(2) An insurer or insurance producer may pay or assign commissions, service fees, brokerages, or other valuable consideration to an insurance agency, business entity, or persons who do not sell, solicit, or negotiate insurance in this state, unless the payment would violate section 10-3-1104 (1) (g).

10-2-704. Fiduciary responsibilities. (1) (a) All premiums belonging to insurers and all unearned premiums belonging to insureds received by an insurance producer licensee under this article shall be treated by such insurance producer in a fiduciary capacity. The commissioner may promulgate such rules as are necessary and proper relating to the treatment of such premiums.

(b) All premiums received, less commissions if authorized, shall be remitted to the insurer or its agent entitled thereto on or before the contractual due date or, if there is no contractual due date, within forty-five days after receipt.

(c) All returned premiums received from insurers or credited by insurers to the account of the licensee shall be remitted to or credited to the account of the person entitled thereto within thirty days after such receipt or credit.

(d) If any insurance producer has failed to account for any collected premium to the insurer to whom it is owing or to its agent entitled thereto for more than forty-five days after the contractual due date or, if there is no contractual due date, more than ninety days after receipt, the insurer or its agent shall promptly report such failure to the commissioner in writing.

(2) Every insurer shall remit unearned premiums to the insured or the proper agent, or shall otherwise credit the account of the proper licensee, as soon as is practicable after entitlement thereto has been established, but in no event more than forty-five days after the effective date of any cancellation or termination effected by the insurer or after the date of entitlement thereto as established by notification of cancellation or of termination or as otherwise established. It shall be the responsibility of any insurance producer having knowledge of a failure on the part of any insurer to comply with this subsection (2) to promptly report such failure to the commissioner in writing.

(3) No insurance producer under this article shall commingle premiums belonging to insurers and returned premiums belonging to insureds with the producer's personal funds or with any other funds except those directly connected with the producer's insurance business.

(4) Any insurer that delivers, in this state, a policy of insurance to an insurance producer representing the interest of the insured upon the application or request of such producer shall be deemed to have authorized such producer to receive on the insurer's behalf any premium due upon issuance or delivery of the policy; and the insurer shall be deemed to have so authorized the producer.

10-2-705. Bail bond documents - requirements - rules. (1) The insurance producer who posts a bail bond with the court on behalf of a defendant shall ensure that the following documents comply with the following provisions:

- (a) An indemnity agreement must:
  - (I) Be in writing;
  - (II) Be signed by the producer;
  - (III) Be signed by the defendant or indemnitor;
  - (IV) Set forth the amount of bail set in the case, the name of the defendant released on the bail bond, the court case number if available, the court where the bond is executed, the premium charged, the amount and type of collateral held by the insurance producer, and the conditions under which the collateral is returned;
  - (V) Contain documentation that the indemnitor has received copies of signed and dated disclosure forms; and
  - (VI) If the defendant or indemnitor is illiterate or does not read English, contain a note on the indemnity agreement that the producer or a third party has read or translated the agreement to the defendant or indemnitor and be affixed with an affidavit to the indemnity agreement attesting that the document was translated;
- (b) A promissory note must be:
  - (I) In writing;
  - (II) Signed by the producer; and
  - (III) Signed by the defendant or indemnitor;
- (c) A collateral receipt must:
  - (I) Be dated;
  - (II) Be in writing;
  - (III) Be signed by the producer;
  - (IV) Be signed by the defendant or indemnitor;
  - (V) Be prenumbered;
  - (VI) Contain a full description of the collateral, including the condition of the collateral at the time it is taken into custody; and
  - (VII) Set forth the amount of bail set in the case, the name of the defendant released on the bail bond, the court case number, the court where the bond is executed, the premium charged, the amount and type of collateral held by the insurance producer, and the conditions under which the collateral is returned;
- (d) A bail bond revocation request must be:
  - (I) Dated;
  - (II) In writing;
  - (III) Signed by the producer; and
  - (IV) Signed by the defendant or indemnitor.

(2) (a) Before accepting consideration, the insurance producer who writes bail bonds shall commit to writing, sign, date, and obtain the defendant's or indemnitor's signature on an arrangement for the payment of all or part of the premium, commission, or fee, including the payment schedule. The signature of the insurance producer who writes bail bonds is not an obligation to pay any debt owed to a lender. To be enforceable, interest and financial charges on any unpaid premium must comply with the "Uniform Consumer Credit Code", articles 1 to 9 of title 5, C.R.S.

(b) Before accepting consideration or taking collateral, the insurance producer who writes bail bonds shall provide, in a form prescribed by the commissioner, a disclosure statement to each defendant and indemnitor detailing the terms of the bail bond.

(3) (a) An insurance producer who posts a bail bond with the court and who accepts consideration for a bail bond or undertaking shall, for each payment received, provide to the person tendering payment a prenumbered, signed receipt containing the following:

- (I) The date;
- (II) The defendant's name;
- (III) A description of the consideration and amount of money received;

- (IV) The purpose for which it was received;
- (V) The number of any power-of-attorney form attached to the bail bond;
- (VI) The penal sum of the bail bond;
- (VII) The name of the person tendering payment; and
- (VIII) The terms under which the money or other consideration is released.

(b) The insurance producer who posts a bail bond with the court shall provide the person tendering payment a signed and dated receipt for each premium payment listing the amount paid.

(4) The insurance producer shall prepare or execute separate agreements and documents for each time the producer posts a bail bond with the court. The producer shall give the indemnitor a copy of each document executed in the course of the bail bond transaction.

(5) For three years after the date of discharge of a bail bond and return of any collateral or proof of notice to the defendant or indemnitor that any promissory note has been satisfied, the insurance producer who posts the bail bond with the court shall keep at the producer's business copies of each receipt, indemnity agreement, bond, disclosure statement, payment plan, bond revocation request, or other document or information related to the bond transaction the commissioner reasonably requires by rule and shall make these documents available for inspection by the commissioner or the commissioner's authorized representative during normal business hours.

(7) The commissioner may examine the business practices, books, and records of any insurance producer as often as the commissioner deems appropriate.

Editor's note: Section 52 of chapter 280, Session Laws of Colorado 2012, provides that the act adding this section applies to offenses committed and applications submitted on or after July 1, 2012.

10-2-707. Business practices - price limits - collateral. (1) An insurance producer who writes bail bonds shall not charge a premium or commission of more than the greater of fifty dollars or fifteen percent of the amount of bail furnished. An insurance producer who writes bail bonds shall not assess fees for any bail bond posted by the producer with the court unless the fee is for payment of a bail bond filing charged by a court or law enforcement agency, the fee is for the actual cost of storing collateral in a secure, self-service public storage facility, or the fee is for premium financing.

(2) If an insurance producer who posts the bail bond with the court has issued a disclosure statement in accordance with section 10-2-705 (2) (b), the producer may use collateral received from the defendant or indemnitor to secure the following obligations:

- (a) Compliance with the bond issued on behalf of the principal;
- (b) Any balance due on the premium, commission, or fee for the bail bond; and
- (c) Any actual costs incurred by the insurance producer as a result of issuing the bail bond.

DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS

10-2-801. Licenses - denial, suspension, revocation, termination - reporting of actions - definitions. (1) The commissioner may place an insurance producer on probation; suspend, revoke, or refuse to issue, continue, or renew an insurance producer license; order restitution to be paid from an insurance producer; or assess a civil penalty pursuant to section 10-2-804 or 10-3-1108, if, after notice to the insurance producer licensee and after a hearing held in accordance with sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S., the commissioner finds that as to the licensee or applicant any one or more of the following conditions exist:

(a) Any incorrect, misleading, incomplete, or materially untrue information in the license application;

(b) Any cause for which issuance of the license could have been refused had it then existed and been known to the commissioner at the time of issuance;

(c) Violation of, or noncompliance with, section 18-13-130, C.R.S., or any insurance law, or violation of any lawful rule, order, or subpoena of the commissioner or of the insurance department of another state;

(d) Obtaining or attempting to obtain any such license through misrepresentation or fraud;

(e) Improperly withholding, misappropriating, or converting to the licensee's or applicant's own use any moneys or property belonging to policyholders, insurers, beneficiaries, or others received in the course of the business of insurance;

(f) Misrepresentation of the terms of any actual or proposed insurance contract or application for insurance;

(g) (I) Conviction of a felony or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude.

(II) For the purposes of this paragraph (g), "moral turpitude" shall include any sexual offense against a child as defined in section 18-3-411, C.R.S.

(h) Commission of any unfair trade practice or fraud;

(i) The use of fraudulent, coercive, or dishonest practices or demonstrating incompetence, untrustworthiness, or financial irresponsibility in this state or elsewhere;

(j) Suspension, revocation, or denial of an insurance license in any other state, province, district, or territory;

(k) Forgery of another's name to an application for insurance or to any document related to an insurance transaction;

(l) Cheating on an examination, including, but not limited to, improperly using notes or any other reference material to complete an examination for an insurance license;

(m) Failure to fully meet the licensing requirements;

(n) Knowingly accepting insurance business from a person who is not licensed;

(o) Failing to comply with an administrative or court order imposing a child support obligation;

(p) Failing to pay state income tax or comply with any administrative or court order directing payment of state income tax; or

(q) Profiting either directly or indirectly from the business of a cash-bonding agent or professional cash-bail agent unless the person profiting is registered as a cash-bonding agent or professional cash-bail agent and the profit is derived from their own business.

(2) In the event that the action by the commissioner is to not renew or continue or to deny an application for a license, the commissioner shall notify the applicant or licensee of the reasons for such action and advise, in writing, the applicant or licensee of the reason for the denial or nonrenewal of the applicant's or licensee's license.

(3) A producer or business entity shall report to the commissioner any administrative action taken against the producer in another jurisdiction or by another governmental agency in this state within thirty days after the final disposition of the matter. This report shall include a copy of the order, consent to order, or other relevant legal document.

(4) Within thirty days after the initial pretrial hearing date, a producer or business entity shall report to the commissioner any criminal prosecution of the producer in any jurisdiction. The report shall include a copy of the initial complaint, the order resulting from the hearing, and any other relevant legal documents.

(5) If the commissioner revokes the license of an insurance producer pursuant to this section, or if an insurance producer surrenders its license to avoid discipline by the commissioner, the insurance producer shall not be eligible to apply for a new insurance producer license for two years after the date the license is revoked or surrendered and returned to the commissioner pursuant to section 10-2-802 (1).

(6) For the purposes of this section, "restitution" means benefits or moneys owed due to the regulated entity's violation of this title.

(2) Section 52 of chapter 280, Session Laws of Colorado 2012, provides that the act adding subsection (1)(q) and amending subsection (1)(c) applies to offenses committed and applications submitted on or after July 1, 2012.

10-2-802. Surrender of license. (1) An insurance producer license issued under this article, although issued and delivered to the licensee, shall at all times be the property of the state of Colorado and shall be surrendered or returned promptly to the commissioner by personal delivery or by certified or registered mail within fifteen days under any of the following conditions:

- (a) Suspension, revocation, or termination of the license;
- (b) Discontinuation or nonrenewal of the license by the licensee;
- (c) Cessation of residency in this state or, in the case of a nonresident licensee, cessation of residency in the licensee's resident state; or
- (d) Suspension, termination, or revocation of a nonresident licensee's license in the state of residence.

(2) The commissioner may require surrender of an insurance producer license for any proper reason in addition to the grounds stated in subsection (1) of this section.

(3) As to any insurance producer license issued pursuant to this article which is lost, stolen, or destroyed while in the possession of the licensee, the commissioner may accept, in lieu of return of the license, the affidavit of the individual licensee or, in the case of an insurance agency or business entity, the person given responsibility for custody of the license, as to the facts concerning such loss, theft, or destruction.

10-2-804. Investigation by commissioner. (1) The commissioner may examine and investigate the business affairs and conduct of every person applying for or holding an insurance producer license under this article to determine whether such person has been or is engaged in any violation of the insurance laws or rules of this state or has engaged in unfair or deceptive acts or practices in any state.

(2) On receipt of any information regarding the possible violation of the insurance laws or rules of this or any other state, or the possible use of unfair or deceptive practices by a person applying for or holding an insurance producer license under this article, the commissioner may require such person to appear and show cause why the commissioner should not discontinue, revoke, suspend, or refuse to issue or renew the person's license and may, upon the failure of such person to show cause, revoke, suspend, or refuse to issue or renew the license.

(3) The license of an insurance agency or business entity may be suspended or revoked or the renewal or continuation refused if the commissioner finds, after hearing, that an individual licensee's violation was known or should have been known to one or more of the partners, officers, or managers acting on behalf of the insurance agency or business entity, including any foreign or domestic entity as defined in section 7-90-102, C.R.S., and that such violation was not reported to the division of insurance nor corrective action taken in relation thereto.

(4) In addition to or in lieu of any applicable denial, suspension, or revocation of an insurance producer license, any person who violates any provision of this article may, after hearing, be subject to any remedy or civil penalty of not more than three thousand dollars for each such violation.

(5) The commissioner shall retain the authority to enforce the provisions of and impose any penalty or remedy authorized by this article against any person who is under investigation for or charged with a violation of this article even if the person's license has been surrendered or has lapsed by operation of law.

REINSURANCE INTERMEDIARY MODEL ACT

10-2-901. Short title. This part 9 shall be known and may be cited as the "Reinsurance Intermediary Act".

Source: L. 93: Entire article R&RE, p. 1374, § 1, effective January 1, 1995.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 10-2-301 as it existed prior to 1993.

(1) "Controlling person" means any person, firm, association, or corporation that directly or indirectly has the power to direct or cause to be directed, the management, control, or activities of the reinsurance intermediary.

(2) “Insurer” means any person, firm, association, or corporation duly licensed in this state pursuant to applicable provisions of the insurance laws as an insurer.

(3) “Licensed producer” means an insurance producer or reinsurance intermediary licensed in this state pursuant to applicable provisions of the insurance laws.

(4) “Reinsurance intermediary” means a reinsurance intermediary — producer as defined in subsection (6) of this section or a reinsurance intermediary — manager as defined in subsection (5) of this section.

(5) “Reinsurance intermediary — manager”, referred to in this part 9 as “RM”, means any person, firm, association, or corporation that has authority to bind or manages all or part of the assumed reinsurance business of a reinsurer (including the management of a separate division, department, or underwriting office) and acts as an agent for such reinsurer whether known as an RM, manager, or other similar term. Notwithstanding the provisions of this subsection (5), the following persons shall not be considered an RM, with respect to such reinsurer, for the purposes of this part 9:

(a) An employee of the reinsurer;

(b) A United States manager of the United States branch of an alien reinsurer;

(c) An underwriting manager who, pursuant to contract, manages all the reinsurance operations of the reinsurer and who is under common control with the reinsurer subject to the provisions of part 8 of article 3 of this title and whose compensation is not based on the volume of premiums written;

(d) The manager of a group, association, pool, or organization of insurers which engage in joint underwriting or joint reinsurance and are subject to examination by the commissioner or the equivalent insurance regulatory authority of the state in which the manager’s principal business office is located.

(6) “Reinsurance intermediary — producer”, referred to in this part 9 as “RP”, means any person, other than an officer or employee of the ceding insurer, firm, association, or corporation, that solicits, negotiates, or places reinsurance cessions or retrocessions on behalf of a ceding insurer without the authority or power to bind reinsurance on behalf of such insurer.

(7) “Reinsurer” means any person, firm, association, or corporation duly licensed in this state pursuant to the applicable provisions of the insurance laws as an insurer with the authority to assume reinsurance.

(8) “To be in violation” means that the reinsurance intermediary, insurer, or reinsurer for whom the reinsurance intermediary was acting failed to substantially comply with the provisions of this part 9.

Source: L. 93: Entire article R&RE, p. 1374, § 1, effective January 1, 1995. L. 2009: (4) to (6) amended, (SB 09-292), ch. 369, p. 1941, § 11, effective August 5.

Editor’s note: This section is similar to former § 10-2-302 as it existed prior to 1993.

10-2-903. Licensure. (1) No person, firm, association, or corporation shall act as an RP in this state if the RP maintains an office either directly or as a member or employee of a firm or association, or an officer, director, or employee of a corporation:

(a) In this state, unless such RP is a licensed producer in this state; or

(b) In another state, unless such RP is a licensed producer in this state or another state having a law substantially similar to this part 9, or such RP is licensed in this state as a nonresident reinsurance intermediary.

(2) No person, firm, association, or corporation shall act as an RM:

(a) For a reinsurer domiciled in this state, unless such RM is a licensed producer in this state;

(b) In this state, if the RM maintains an office either directly or as a member or employee of a firm or association, or an officer, director, or employee of a corporation in this state, unless such RM is a licensed producer in this state;

(c) In another state for a nondomestic insurer, unless such RM is a licensed producer in this state or another state having a law substantially similar to this part 9 or such person is licensed in this state as a nonresident reinsurance intermediary.

(3) The commissioner may require an RM subject to subsection (2) of this section to:

(a) File a bond in an amount from an insurer acceptable to the commissioner for the protection of the reinsurer; and

(4) (a) The commissioner may issue a reinsurance intermediary license to any person, firm, association, or corporation that has complied with the requirements of this part 9. Any such license issued to a firm or association will authorize all the members of such firm or association and any designated employees to act as reinsurance intermediaries under the license, and all such persons shall be named in the application and any supplements thereto. Any such license issued to a corporation shall authorize all of the officers, and any designated employees and directors thereof to act as reinsurance intermediaries on behalf of such corporation, and all such persons shall be named in the application and any supplements thereto.

(b) If the applicant for a reinsurance intermediary license is a nonresident, such applicant, as a condition precedent to receiving or holding a license, shall designate the commissioner as agent for service of process in the manner, and with the same legal effect, provided for by this part 9 for designation of service of process upon unauthorized insurers; and also shall furnish the commissioner with the name and address of a resident of this state upon whom notices or orders of the commissioner or process affecting such nonresident reinsurance intermediary may be served. Such licensee shall promptly notify the commissioner in writing of every change in its designated agent for service of process, and such change shall not become effective until acknowledged by the commissioner.

(5) The commissioner may refuse to issue a reinsurance intermediary license if, in the commissioner's judgment, the applicant, any one named on the application, or any member, principal, officer, or director of the applicant, is not trustworthy, or that any controlling person of such applicant is not trustworthy to act as a reinsurance intermediary, or that any individual specified in this subsection (5) has given cause for revocation or suspension of such license, or has failed to comply with any prerequisite for the issuance of such license. Upon written request therefor, the commissioner shall furnish a summary of the basis for refusal to issue a license, which document shall be privileged and not subject to the provisions of part 2 of article 72 of title 24, C.R.S.

(6) Licensed attorneys at law of this state when acting in their professional capacity as such shall be exempt from this section.

10-2-904. Required contract provisions - reinsurance intermediary — producers.

(1) Transactions between an RP and the insurer such RP represents shall only be entered into pursuant to a written authorization specifying the responsibilities of each party. The authorization shall, at a minimum, contain provisions that:

(a) The insurer may terminate the RP's authority at any time;

(b) The RP shall render accounts to the insurer accurately detailing all material transactions, including information necessary to support all commissions, charges, and other fees received by, or owing to, the RP, and remit all funds due to the insurer within thirty days of receipt;

(c) All funds collected for the insurer's account shall be held by the RP in a fiduciary capacity in a bank which is a qualified United States financial institution;

(d) The RP shall comply with section 10-2-905;

(e) The RP shall comply with the written standards established by the insurer for the cession or retrocession of all risks;

(f) The RP shall disclose to the insurer any relationship with any reinsurer to which business will be ceded or retroceded.

Source: L. 93: Entire article R&RE, p. 1377, § 1, effective January 1, 1995.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 10-2-304 as it existed prior to 1993.

10-2-905. Books and records - reinsurance intermediary — producers. (1) For at least ten years after expiration of each contract of reinsurance transacted by the RP, the RP shall keep a complete record for each transaction showing:

- (a) The type of contract, limits, underwriting restrictions, classes, or risks and territory;
  - (b) The period of coverage, including effective and expiration dates, cancellation provisions, and notice required of cancellation;
  - (c) The reporting and settlement requirements of balances;
  - (d) The rate used to compute the reinsurance premium;
  - (e) The names and addresses of assuming reinsurers;
  - (f) The rates of all reinsurance commissions, including the commissions on any retrocessions handled by the RP;
  - (g) Related correspondence and memoranda;
  - (h) Proof of placement;
  - (i) Details regarding retrocessions handled by the RP including the identity of retrocessionaires and the percentage of each contract assumed or ceded;
  - (j) Financial records, including but not limited to premium and loss accounts; and
  - (k) When the RP procures a reinsurance contract on behalf of a licensed ceding insurer:
    - (I) Directly from any assuming reinsurer, written evidence that the assuming reinsurer has agreed to assume the risk; or
    - (II) If placed through a representative of the assuming reinsurer, other than an employee, written evidence that such reinsurer has delegated binding authority to the representative.
- (2) The insurer shall have access and the right to copy and audit all accounts and records maintained by the RP related to its business in a form usable by the insurer.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 10-2-305 as it existed prior to 1993.

10-2-906. Duties of insurers utilizing the services of a reinsurance intermediary — producer. (1) An insurer shall not engage the services of any person, firm, association, or corporation to act as an RP on its behalf unless such person is licensed as required by section 10-2-903 (1).

(2) An insurer may not employ an individual who is employed by an RP with which it transacts business, unless such RP is under common control with the insurer and subject to the provisions of part 8 of article 3 of this title.

(3) The insurer shall annually obtain a copy of statements of the financial condition of each RP with which it transacts business.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 10-2-306 as it existed prior to 1993.

10-2-907. Required contract provisions - reinsurance intermediary — managers. (1) Transactions between an RM and the reinsurer such RM represents shall only be entered into pursuant to a written contract specifying the responsibilities of each party, which shall be approved by the reinsurer's board of directors. At least thirty days before such reinsurer assumes or cedes business through such producer, a true copy of the approved contract shall be filed with the commissioner for approval. The contract shall, at a minimum, contain provisions that incorporate all of the following:

(a) The reinsurer may terminate the contract for cause upon written notice to the RM. The reinsurer may suspend the authority of the RM to assume or cede business during the pendency of any dispute regarding the cause for termination.

(b) The RM shall render accounts to the reinsurer accurately detailing all material transactions, including information necessary to support all commissions, charges, and other fees received by, or owing to, the RM, and remit all funds due under the contract to the reinsurer on not less than a monthly basis;

(c) All funds collected for the reinsurer's account shall be held by the RM in a fiduciary capacity in a bank that is a qualified United States financial institution as defined in section 10-1-102 (17). The RM may retain no more than three months' estimated claims payments and allocated loss adjustment expenses. The RM shall maintain a separate bank account for each reinsurer that such RM represents.

(d) For at least ten years after expiration of each contract of reinsurance transacted by the RM, the RM shall keep a complete record for each transaction showing:

(I) The type of contract, limits, underwriting restrictions, classes, or risks and territory;

(II) The period of coverage, including effective and expiration dates, cancellation provisions, notice required for cancellation, and disposition of outstanding reserves on covered risks;

(III) The reporting and settlement requirements of balances;

(IV) The rate used to compute the reinsurance premium;

(V) The names and addresses of reinsurers;

(VI) The rates of all reinsurance commissions, including the commissions on any retrocessions handled by the RM;

(VII) Related correspondence and memoranda;

(VIII) Proof of placement;

(IX) Details regarding retrocessions handled by the RM, as permitted by section 10-2-909 (4), including the identity of retrocessionaires and percentage of each contract assumed or ceded;

(X) Financial records, including but not limited to premium and loss accounts; and

(XI) When the RM places a reinsurance contract on behalf of a ceding insurer:

(A) Directly from any assuming reinsurer, written evidence that the assuming reinsurer has agreed to assume the risk; or

(B) If placed through a representative of the assuming reinsurer, other than an employee, written evidence that such reinsurer has delegated binding authority to the representative;

(e) The reinsurer shall have access and the right to copy all accounts and records maintained by the RM related to such RM's business in a form usable by the reinsurer;

(f) The contract cannot be assigned in whole or in part by the RM;

(g) The RM shall comply with the written underwriting and rating standards established by the insurer for the acceptance, rejection, or cession of all risks;

(h) The contract sets forth the rates, terms, and purposes of commissions, charges, and other fees which the RM may levy against the reinsurer;

(i) (I) If the contract permits the RM to settle claims on behalf of the reinsurer, all claims shall be reported to the reinsurer in a timely manner.

(II) A copy of the claim file shall be sent to the reinsurer at its request or as soon as it becomes known that the claim:

(A) Has the potential to exceed the lesser of an amount determined by the commissioner or the limit set by the reinsurer;

(B) Involves a coverage dispute;

(C) May exceed the RM claims settlement authority;

(D) Is open for more than six months; or

(E) Is closed by payment of the lesser of an amount set by the commissioner or an amount set by the reinsurer;

(III) All claim files shall be the joint property of the reinsurer and RM; however, upon an order of liquidation of the reinsurer, such files shall become the sole property of the reinsurer or its estate; the RM shall have reasonable access to and the right to copy the files on a timely basis;

(IV) Any settlement authority granted to the RM may be terminated for cause upon the reinsurer's written notice to the RM or upon the termination of the contract. The reinsurer may suspend the settlement authority during the pendency of the dispute regarding the cause of termination.

(j) If the contract provides for a sharing of interim profits by the RM, that such interim profits will not be paid until one year after the end of each underwriting period for property business and five years after the end of each underwriting period for casualty business or a later period set by the commissioner for specified lines of insurance and not until the adequacy of reserves on remaining claims has been verified pursuant to section 10-2-909 (3);

(k) The RM shall annually provide the reinsurer with a statement of its financial condition prepared by an independent certified accountant;

(l) The reinsurer shall periodically and at least semiannually conduct an on-site review of the underwriting and claims processing operations of the RM;

(m) The RM shall disclose to the reinsurer any relationship such RM has with any insurer prior to ceding or assuming any business with such insurer pursuant to the contract;

Source: L. 93: Entire article R&RE, p. 1378, § 1, effective January 1, 1995. L. 2003: (1)(c) amended, p. 615, § 7, effective July 1.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 10-2-307 as it existed prior to 1993.

10-2-908. Prohibited acts. (1) The RM shall not:

(a) Bind retrocessions on behalf of the reinsurer; except that the RM may bind facultative retrocessions pursuant to obligatory facultative agreements if the contract with the reinsurer contains reinsurance underwriting guidelines for such retrocessions. Such guidelines shall include a list of reinsurers with which such automatic agreements are in effect, and for each such reinsurer, the coverages and amounts or percentages that may be reinsured, and commission schedules.

(b) Commit the reinsurer to participate in reinsurance syndicates;

(c) Appoint any producer without assuring that the producer is lawfully licensed to transact the type of reinsurance for which he is appointed;

(d) Without prior approval of the reinsurer, pay or commit the reinsurer to pay a claim, net of retrocessions, that exceeds the lesser of an amount specified by the reinsurer or one percent of the reinsurer's policyholder's surplus as of December 31 of the last complete calendar year;

(e) Collect any payment from a retrocessionaire or commit the reinsurer to any claim settlement with a retrocessionaire, without prior approval of the reinsurer. If prior approval is given, a report shall be promptly forwarded to the reinsurer.

(f) Jointly employ an individual who is employed by the reinsurer;

(g) Appoint a sub-RM.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 10-2-308 as it existed prior to 1993.

10-2-909. Duties of reinsurers utilizing the services of a reinsurance intermediary — manager. (1) A reinsurer shall not engage the services of any person, firm, association, or corporation to act as an RM on its behalf unless such person is licensed as required by section 10-2-903 (2).

(2) The reinsurer shall annually obtain a copy of statements of the financial condition of each RM which such reinsurer has engaged prepared by an independent certified accountant in a form acceptable to the commissioner.

(3) If an RM establishes loss reserves, the reinsurer shall annually obtain the opinion of an actuary attesting to the adequacy of loss reserves established for losses incurred and outstanding on business produced by the RM. This opinion shall be in addition to any other required loss reserve certification.

(4) Binding authority for all retrocessional contracts or participation in reinsurance syndicates shall rest with an officer of the reinsurer who shall not be affiliated with the RM.

(5) Within thirty days of termination of a contract with an RM, the reinsurer shall provide written notification of such termination to the commissioner.

(6) A reinsurer shall not appoint to its board of directors, any officer, director, employee, controlling shareholder, or subproducer of its RM. This subsection (6) shall not apply to relationships governed by part 8 of article 3 of this title.

10-2-911. Penalties and liabilities. (1) A reinsurance intermediary, insurer, or reinsurer found by the commissioner, after a hearing conducted in accordance with article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., to be in violation of any provision of this part 9 shall:

(a) For each separate violation, pay a penalty in an amount not to exceed five thousand dollars;

(b) Be subject to revocation or suspension of its license; and

(c) If a violation was committed by the reinsurance intermediary, such reinsurance intermediary shall make restitution to the insurer, reinsurer, rehabilitator, or liquidator of the insurer or reinsurer for the net losses incurred by the insurer or reinsurer attributable to such violation.

(2) The decision, determination, or order of the commissioner pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall be subject to judicial review by the court of appeals pursuant to section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S.

(3) Nothing contained in this section shall affect the right of the commissioner to impose any other penalties provided in this title.

(4) Nothing contained in this part 9 is intended to or shall in any manner limit or restrict the rights of policyholders, claimants, creditors, or other third parties or confer any rights to such persons.

PART 10

MANAGING GENERAL AGENTS ACT

10-2-1001. Short title. This part 10 shall be known and may be cited as the “Managing General Agents Act”.

Source: L. 93: Entire article R&RE, p. 1383, § 1, effective January 1, 1995.

Editor’s note: This section is similar to former § 10-2-401 as it existed prior to 1993.

(1) “Insurer” means any person, firm, association, or corporation duly licensed in this state as an insurance company pursuant to the applicable provisions of the insurance laws.

(2) (a) “Managing general agent”, referred to in this part 10 as “MGA”, means any person, firm, association, or corporation who negotiates and binds ceding reinsurance contracts on behalf of an insurer or manages all or part of the insurance business of an insurer, including the management of a separate division, department, or underwriting office, and acts as an agent for such insurer whether known as a managing general agent, manager, or other similar term, who, with or without the authority, either separately or together with affiliates, produces, directly or indirectly, and underwrites an amount of gross direct written premium equal to or more than five percent of the policyholder surplus as reported in the last annual statement of the insurer in any one quarter or year together with one or both of the following:

- (I) Adjusts or pays claims in excess of an amount determined by the commissioner; or
- (II) Negotiates reinsurance on behalf of the insurer.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection (2), the following persons shall not be considered an MGA for the purposes of this part 10:

- (I) An employee of the insurer;
- (II) A United States manager of the United States branch of an alien insurer;
- (III) An underwriting manager who, pursuant to contract, manages all the insurance operations of the insurer and who is under common control with the insurer subject to the provisions of part 8 of article 3 of this title and whose compensation is not based on the volume of premiums written;
- (IV) The attorney-in-fact authorized by and acting for the subscribers of a reciprocal insurer or interinsurance exchange under powers of attorney.

Source: L. 93: Entire article R&RE, p. 1383, § 1, effective January 1, 1995.

Editor’s note: This section is similar to former § 10-2-402 as it existed prior to 1993.

10-2-1003. Licensure. (1) No person, firm, association, or corporation shall act in the capacity of an MGA with respect to risks located in this state for an insurer licensed in this state unless such person is a licensed producer in this state.

(2) No person, firm, association, or corporation shall act in the capacity of an MGA representing an insurer domiciled in this state with respect to risks located outside this state unless such person is licensed as a producer in this state (such license may be a nonresident license) pursuant to the provisions of this part 10.

(3) The commissioner may require a bond in an amount acceptable to the commissioner for the protection of the insurer.

(4) The commissioner may require the MGA to maintain an errors and omissions policy.

10-2-1004. Required contract provisions. (1) No person, firm, association, or corporation acting in the capacity of an MGA shall place business with an insurer unless there is in force a written contract between the parties which sets forth the responsibilities of each party and where both parties share responsibility for a particular function, which specifies the division of such responsibilities, and which contains the following minimum provisions:

(a) The insurer may terminate the contract for cause upon written notice to the MGA. The insurer may suspend the underwriting authority of the MGA during the pendency of any dispute regarding the cause for termination.

(b) The MGA shall render accounts to the insurer detailing all transactions and remit all funds due under the contract to the insurer on not less than a monthly basis.

(c) All funds collected for the insurer's account shall be held by the MGA in a fiduciary capacity in a bank which is a member of the federal reserve system. This account shall be used for all payments on behalf of the insurer. The MGA may retain no more than three months' estimated claims payments and allocated loss adjustment expenses.

(d) Separate records of business written by the MGA shall be maintained. The insurer shall have access and right to copy all accounts and records related to its business in a form usable by the insurer, and the commissioner shall have access to all books, bank accounts, and records of the MGA in a form usable to the commissioner. Such records shall be retained for a period of five years commencing no later than the effective date of the last financial examination of the insurer.

(f) (I) Appropriate underwriting guidelines which shall include:

- (A) The maximum annual premium volume;
- (B) The basis of the rates to be charged;
- (C) The types of risks which may be written;
- (D) Maximum limits of liability;
- (E) Applicable exclusions;
- (F) Territorial limitations;
- (G) Policy cancellation provisions; and
- (H) The maximum policy period.

(II) The insurer shall have the right to cancel or nonrenew any policy of insurance subject to the applicable laws and regulations concerning the cancellation and nonrenewal of insurance policies.

(g) (I) If the contract permits the MGA to settle claims on behalf of the insurer, all claims shall be reported to the company in a timely manner.

(II) A copy of the claim file shall be sent to the insurer at its request or as soon as it becomes known that the claim:

- (A) Has the potential to exceed an amount determined by the commissioner or exceeds the limit set by the company, whichever is less;
- (B) Involves a coverage dispute;
- (C) May exceed the MGA's claims settlement authority;
- (D) Is open for more than six months; or
- (E) Is closed by payment of an amount set by the commissioner or an amount set by the company, whichever is less.

(III) All claim files shall be the joint property of the insurer and the MGA; however, upon an order of liquidation of the insurer, such files shall become the sole property of the insurer or its estate. The MGA shall have reasonable access to and the right to copy the files on a timely basis.

(IV) Any settlement authority granted to the MGA may be terminated for cause upon the insurer's written notice to the MGA or upon the termination of the contract. The insurer may suspend the settlement authority during the pendency of any dispute regarding the cause for termination.

(h) Where electronic claims files are in existence, the contract must address the timely transmission of the data;

(i) If the contract provides for a sharing of interim profits by the MGA, and the MGA has the authority to determine the amount of the interim profits by establishing loss reserves or controlling claim payments, or in any other manner, interim profits shall not be paid to the MGA until one year after they are earned for property insurance business and five years after they are earned on casualty business and not until the profits have been verified pursuant to section 10-2-1005.

(2) The MGA shall not:

(a) Bind reinsurance or retrocessions on behalf of the insurer; except that the MGA may bind facultative reinsurance contracts pursuant to obligatory facultative agreements if the contract with the insurer contains reinsurance underwriting guidelines including, for both reinsurance assumed and ceded, a list of reinsurers with which such automatic agreements are in effect, the coverages and amounts or percentages that may be reinsured, and commission schedules;

(b) Commit the insurer to participate in insurance or reinsurance syndicates;

(c) Appoint any producer without assuring that the producer is lawfully licensed to transact the type of insurance for which such producer is appointed;

(d) Without prior approval of the insurer, pay or commit the insurer to pay a claim over a specified amount, net of reinsurance, which shall not exceed one percent of the insurer's policyholder's surplus as of December 31 of the last completed calendar year;

(e) Collect any payment from a reinsurer or commit the insurer to any claim settlement with a reinsurer, without prior approval of the insurer. If prior approval is given, a report shall be promptly forwarded to the insurer.

(f) Permit its subproducer to serve on the insurer's board of directors;

(g) Jointly employ an individual who is employed with the insurer;

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 10-2-404 as it existed prior to 1993.

10-2-1005. Duties of insurers. (1) The insurer shall have on file an independent financial examination, in a form acceptable to the commissioner, of each MGA with which it has done business.

(2) If an MGA establishes loss reserves, the insurer shall annually obtain the opinion of an actuary attesting to the adequacy of loss reserves established for losses incurred and outstanding on business produced by the MGA. This is in addition to any other required loss reserve certification.

(3) The insurer shall periodically and at least semiannually conduct an on-site review of the underwriting and claims processing operations of the MGA.

(4) Binding authority for all reinsurance contracts or participation in insurance or reinsurance syndicates shall rest with an officer of the insurer, who shall not be affiliated with the MGA.

(5) Within thirty days of entering into or termination of a contract with an MGA, the insurer shall provide written notification of such appointment or termination to the commissioner. Notices of appointment of an MGA shall include a statement of duties which the applicant is expected to perform on behalf of the insurer, the lines of insurance for which the applicant is to be authorized to act, and any other information the commissioner may request.

(6) An insurer shall review its books and records each quarter to determine if any producer has become an MGA as defined in section 10-2-1002 (2). If the insurer determines that a producer has become an MGA pursuant to section 10-2-1002 (2), the insurer shall promptly notify the producer and the commissioner of such determination and the insurer and producer shall fully comply with the provisions of this part 10 within thirty days.

(7) An insurer shall not appoint to its board of directors an officer, director, employee, subproducer, or controlling shareholder of its MGA's. This subsection (7) shall not apply to relationships governed by part 8 of article 3 of this title.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 10-2-406 as it existed prior to 1993.

10-2-1007. Penalties and liabilities. (1) If the commissioner finds, after a hearing conducted in accordance with article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., that any person has violated any provision of this part 10, the commissioner may order:

(a) For each separate violation, a penalty in an amount not to exceed five thousand dollars;

(b) Revocation or suspension of the producer's license; and

(c) The MGA to reimburse the insurer, the rehabilitator, or liquidator of the insurer for any losses incurred by the insurer caused by a violation of this part 10 committed by the MGA.

(2) The decision, determination, or order of the commissioner pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall be subject to judicial review by the court of appeals pursuant to section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S.

(3) Nothing contained in this section shall affect the right of the commissioner to impose any other penalties provided for in this title.

(4) Nothing contained in this part 10 is intended to or shall in any manner limit or restrict the rights of policyholders, claimants, and auditors.

GENERAL

10-3-101. Formation of insurance companies. (1) Whenever any number of persons associate to form an insurance company for any of the purposes named in section 10-3-102, they shall submit articles of incorporation to the commissioner and attorney general for examination. After being approved by the commissioner and the attorney general, the articles shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state, who shall issue a certificate of incorporation. A copy of such articles, certified by the secretary of state, shall be filed with the commissioner. Any filings made pursuant to this subsection (1) may be in an electronic format.

(2) When not less than the amount required by section 10-3-201 has been paid in by the incorporators and deposited with the commissioner, as provided for in this title (except article 15) and article 14 of title 24, C.R.S., the commissioner shall cause an examination to be made either by the commissioner or some disinterested person especially appointed by the commissioner for the purpose, who shall certify that said provisions have been complied with by said company, as far as applicable thereto. Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the commissioner, who shall thereupon deliver to such company a certified copy thereof, which, together with a copy of the articles of incorporation, shall be filed in the office of the recorder of deeds of the county wherein the company is to be located, before the authority to commence business is granted. Any filings required to be made with the commissioner pursuant to this subsection (2) may be in an electronic format.

(3) Whenever any such corporation thereafter desires to amend its articles of incorporation, it shall file its certificate of amendment with the commissioner before filing the same with the secretary of state, and if the commissioner, with the advice of the attorney general, finds the same to be legally adopted and in due legal form and not in conflict with the provisions of law governing such companies, then and not otherwise such certificate of amendment shall be filed with the secretary of state. Filings required pursuant to this subsection (3) may be in an electronic format.

(4) To supplement the examination powers of the commissioner, as provided in this article, the commissioner may request or require a company, entity, or applicant, or the company, entity, or applicant may make a request to the commissioner, to be examined by independent examiners certified by the society of financial examiners, actuaries who are members of the American academy of actuaries, or other qualified loss reserve specialists, independent risk managers, independent certified public accountants, or other qualified examiners of insurance companies deemed competent by the commissioner, or any combination of such qualified persons. The commissioner may also accept as part of his examination reports made by any qualified person pursuant to this subsection (4). Neither such persons nor members of their immediate families shall be officers of, connected with, or financially interested in the entity, company, or applicant being examined other than as policyholders, nor shall they be financially interested in any other corporation or person affected by the examination, investigation, or hearing. The commissioner shall establish guidelines for assuring the neutrality of those persons to be authorized to supplement the examination procedures authorized in this article. The reasonable expenses and charges of such persons so retained or designated shall be paid directly by the company, entity, or applicant to any such outside authorized examiner.

ANNOTATION

This section is distinct from the law governing the incorporation of other companies, and this section rules the organization of insurance companies wherever in conflict with other provisions relating to the incorporation of stock companies. Greiger v. Salzer, 63 Colo. 167, 165 P. 240 (1917).

It was enacted to safeguard the rights of those taking policies in insurance companies and beneficiaries thereunder. The legislative idea manifestly was to prevent any company from lightly and prematurely assuming liability imposed by the issuance of policies of insurance. Greiger v. Salzer, 63 Colo. 167, 165 P. 240 (1917).

Under this section no company may issue a policy until after the statutory conditions have been complied with. Greiger v. Salzer, 63 Colo. 167, 165 P. 240 (1917).

The "business" which an insurance company may not transact until this section is complied with is clearly the business for which it was created, i.e., the writing of insurance. Not only is this the reasonable interpretation of the section itself but that interpretation is put beyond question by § 10-3-105, which limits the prohibition to "insurance business". Colo. Life Ins. Co. v. Madden, 73 Colo. 504, 216 P. 551 (1923).

Until payment of the deposit required by this section, a company organized as an insurance company has no legal capacity. Lucero v. Colo. Life Ins. Co., 67 Colo. 322, 184 P. 379 (1919).

10-3-102. Purpose of organization or admittance. (1) Any domestic insurance company having the required amount of capital or guaranty fund and surplus, when permitted by its articles of incorporation or charter, may be authorized and licensed by the commissioner to make insurance under one of the following paragraphs:

(a) To make insurance or reinsurance on dwelling houses, stores, and all kinds of buildings and household furniture, and other property against loss or damage, including loss of use or occupancy, by fire, lightning, windstorm, tornado, cyclone, earthquake, hail, bombardment, invasion, insurrection, riot, civil war or commotion, military or usurped power, and by explosion whether fire ensues or not; also against loss or damage by water or other fluid to any goods or premises arising from the breakage or leakage of sprinklers, pumps, or other apparatus erected for extinguishing fires or of other conduits or containers or by waters entering through leaks or openings in buildings and of water pipes, and against accidental injury to such sprinklers, pumps, apparatus, conduits, containers, or water pipes, and upon vessels, boats, cargoes, goods, merchandise, freights, and other property against loss or damage by any of the risks of lake, river, canal, inland, and ocean navigation and transportation, including all personal property floater risks and including insurance upon automobiles and all types of aircraft, whether stationary or being operated under their own power, which include all of the hazards of fire, explosion, transportation, collision, loss by legal liability for damage to persons and to property resulting from the maintenance and use of automobiles, and airplanes, seaplanes, dirigibles, or other aircraft, and loss by burglary or theft, vandalism, or malicious mischief, or the wrongful conversion, disposal, or concealment of automobiles, and all types of aircraft, whether held under conditional sale contract or subject to chattel mortgages or any one or more of such hazards;

(b) To make insurance or reinsurance upon the lives of persons, and every insurance pertaining thereto or connected therewith, including health and accident insurance, and to grant, purchase, or dispose of annuities, group annuities, unallocated annuities, guaranteed investment contracts, and funding agreement contracts;

(c) To make any of the following kinds of insurance, or reinsurance:

(I) Upon the health of persons;

(II) Against injury, disablement, or death of persons, resulting from traveling or from accidents by land or water;

(III) Upon the lives of horses, cattle, and other livestock;

(IV) Upon plate glass against breakage;

(V) Upon steam boilers, flywheels, and other forms of liability insurance, against explosion and against loss by damage to life or property resulting therefrom;

(VI) Against loss by burglary or theft or both;

(VII) To engage in the business of suretyship, and guaranteeing the fidelity of persons holding places of trust, public or private;

(VIII) Full coverage for motor vehicles;

(IX) All forms of casualty insurance, including all personal property floater risks.

(d) To make insurance or reinsurance upon any of the risks set forth in paragraphs (a) and (c) of this subsection (1).

(2) Any foreign or alien insurance company having the required amount of capital or guaranty fund, surplus, and deposit, when permitted by its articles of incorporation or charter and by the proper insurance supervisory authority of its domiciliary jurisdiction, may be authorized and licensed by the commissioner to make insurance under any one of the subsections of this section if otherwise qualified according to law.

(3) No foreign, alien, or domestic insurance company, excluding life insurance companies and title insurance companies, shall expose itself to loss in an amount exceeding ten percent of its paid-up capital or guaranty fund and surplus on any one risk or hazard, unless the same is reinsured through an insurance company which is licensed or accredited in this state, or otherwise through an insurance company acceptable to the commissioner.

(4) Any insurance company authorized to transact the business of title insurance under section 72-1-41 (4) (i), C.R.S. 1963, prior to July 1, 1969, shall not, by reason of the provisions of this part 1, be prohibited from transacting said business.

ANNOTATION

Annuity contracts are not wagering contracts except in the rough sense that insurance is a wager. Rishel v. Pacific Mut. Life Ins. Co., 78 F.2d 881 (10th Cir. 1935).

This section expressly authorizes insurance companies to grant annuities. Rishel v. Pacific Mut. Life Ins. Co., 78 F.2d 881 (10th Cir. 1935).

An annuity contract is not rendered impossible of performance because the annuitant, alive when the contract was made, is killed or dies before payments are due thereon. Rishel v.

Pacific Mut. Life Ins. Co., 78 F.2d 881 (10th Cir. 1935).

Annuity contracts, like other contracts, may be avoided if the annuitant is of unsound mind or for fraud or duress or material misrepresentations. Rishel v. Pacific Mut. Life Ins. Co., 78 F.2d 881 (10th Cir. 1935).

An annuity contract cannot be avoided because the annuitant dies before attaining his average expectancy or because it develops that his health was so impaired when the contract was written that his expectancy was less than the average. Rishel v. Pacific Mut. Life Ins. Co., 78 F.2d 881 (10th Cir. 1935).

Issuance of policies. A cause of action may be maintained against an insurance company for negligent delay in the issuance of a policy. DeFord v. New York Life Ins. Co., 75 Colo. 146, 224 P. 1049 (1924).

As well as for negligent failure to execute the policy requested by the plaintiff. Terry v.

Avemco Ins. Co., 663 F. Supp. 39 (D. Colo. 1987).

An insurance company can exclude certain risks or limit coverage under a policy so long as public policy is not violated. Chacon v. Am. Family Mut. Ins. Co., 762 P.2d 732 (Colo. App. 1988).

10-3-103. Names of companies. No domestic insurance company shall adopt the name of any existing company transacting a similar business nor any name so similar as to be calculated to mislead the public, but any domestic mutual or mutual assessment insurance company, upon complying with the terms and conditions of this title (except article 15), and article 14 of title 24, C.R.S., may be reorganized and reincorporated as a joint stock company under the same name by which it was incorporated as a mutual or assessment company, with the omission of the word "mutual", and it is unlawful for any other company to be incorporated or transact business under or by the name under which any such mutual or mutual assessment company was operating at the time of reincorporation.

10-3-104. Unauthorized companies - penalties. Except for reinsurance by an authorized insurer or insurance effected pursuant to the provisions of article 5 or article 15 of this title, it is unlawful for any person, company, or corporation in this state to procure, receive, or forward applications for insurance in, or to issue or to deliver policies for, any company not legally authorized to do business in this state, as provided in this title and article 14 of title 24, C.R.S. Any person violating the provisions of this section commits a class 1 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S.

Editor's note: Section 52 of chapter 280, Session Laws of Colorado 2012, provides that the act amending this section applies to offenses committed and applications submitted on or after July 1, 2012.

10-3-105. Certificate of authority to do business - companies prohibited - definitions. (1) Except pursuant to the provisions of article 5 of this title, no foreign or domestic insurance company shall transact any insurance business in this state, unless it first procures from the commissioner a certificate of authority stating that the requirements of the laws of this state have been complied with and authorizing it to do business. The certificate of authority shall expire on June 30 each year and shall be renewed annually if the company has continued to comply with the laws of the state.

(2) Except as provided by subsection (3) of this section, no certificate of authority to transact any kind of insurance business in this state shall be issued or renewed to any company which is owned, or financially controlled in whole or in part, by another state of the United States, or by a foreign government, or by any political subdivision, instrumentality, or agency of either, unless such company was so owned, controlled, or constituted prior to January 1, 1955, and also authorized to do business in this state on or prior to January 1, 1955.

(3) (a) The ownership or financial control, in part, of any insurer by any state of the United States, or by a foreign government, or by any political subdivision, instrumentality, or agency of either shall not restrict the commissioner from issuing, renewing, or continuing in effect the license of that insurer to transact in this state the kinds of insurance business for which that insurer is otherwise qualified under the provisions of this title and under its charter, if the insurer has satisfied the commissioner that:

(I) It is not subject to any form of subsidy;

(II) It does not engage in practices that discriminate in violation of section 24-34-402, C.R.S.;

(III) The ownership or financial control will not create the presence of any sovereign immunity in the insurer;

(IV) Appropriate measures and controls exist to avoid security problems resulting from the insurer's access to confidential information and data of its insured; and

(V) The ownership or financial control will not result in substantial or undue influence being asserted over the insurer.

(b) The provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection (3) are a clarification of the provisions of subsection (2) of this section and not a substantive change in the provisions of said subsection (2) as said subsection (2) existed prior to March 11, 1991.

(4) (a) The commissioner may order an insurer to pay restitution to a person, if, after notice to the insurer and after a hearing held in accordance with sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S., the commissioner finds that the insurer has violated this title or that the insurer is financially responsible for the unfair business practices of an insurance producer pursuant to section 10-3-131.

(b) As used in this subsection (4), "insurance producer" shall have the same meaning as set forth in section 10-2-103 (6).

(c) For the purposes of this subsection (4), "restitution" means benefits or moneys owed due to the regulated entity's violation of this title, including, but not limited to, costs and expenses for lost time from work and attorney fees.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Cases relevant to § 10-3-105 decided prior to its earliest source, L. 13, p. 334, § 21 (1), have been included in the annotations to this section.

After a company is once established according to the provisions of this section upon proper evidence, the validity of the company's organization cannot be questioned or its legal existence denied by any of its members. Aronoff v. Pioneer Mut. Comp. Co., 134 Colo. 395, 304 P.2d 1083 (1956).

The corporation is responsible to the government, and until forfeiture may continue to exercise its legitimate functions. Aronoff v. Piioneer Mut. Comp. Co., 134 Colo. 395, 304 P.2d 1083 (1956).

Even when commissioner unlawfully issued certificate. Policyholders may not attack an assessment as being invalid for the reason that the insurance commissioner unlawfully issued certificates of authority permitting the company to do business when its financial condition was impaired and it had failed to maintain the required reserve and surplus. Aronoff v. Pioneer Mut. Comp. Co., 134 Colo. 395, 304 P.2d 1083 (1956).

Judicial proceedings must be resorted to, and judgment of ouster made to effect a disso- lution. Aronoff v. Pioneer Mut. Comp. Co., 134 Colo. 395, 304 P.2d 1083 (1956).

Contracts of insurance made out of the state by correspondence upon property in the state are valid and enforceable. French v. People, 6 Colo. App. 311, 40 P. 463 (1895).

Compliance with section presumed on appeal. An action by an insurance company where there was introduced in evidence a document to show its authority to do business in this state, and the abstract of record prepared on appeal fails to contain the document, it will be presumed that the document introduced in evidence was a certificate of the superintendent of insurance that the requirements of the law of the state had been complied with. Thompson v. Commercial Union Assurance Co., 20 Colo. App. 331, 78 P. 1073 (1904).

10-3-106. Deemed incorporated under corporation law. All insurance companies having capital stock, incorporated under the laws of this state, are deemed to be incorporated under the general corporation laws of this state; but, excepting any provision of existing insurance laws which may purport to prescribe the law under which insurance companies may be or have been incorporated, no law or provision of law specially or expressly applicable to insurance companies or the business of insurance shall be in any way repealed, modified, or affected by this section.

10-3-107. Appointment of registered agent - commissioner agent for service of process. (1) Except pursuant to the provisions of article 5 of this title, no foreign insurance company, directly or indirectly, shall issue policies, take risks, or transact business in this state until it has first appointed, in writing, the commissioner to be the true and lawful attorney of such company in and for this state, upon whom all lawful process in any action or proceeding against the company may be served with the same effect as if the company existed in this state. Such power of attorney shall stipulate and agree, upon the part of the company, that any lawful process against the company that is served on said attorney, or in the commissioner's absence any employee in charge of the commissioner's office, shall be of the same legal force and validity as if served on the company and that the authority shall continue in force so long as any liability remains outstanding against the company in this state. A certificate of such appointment, duly certified and authenticated, shall be filed in the office of the commissioner, and copies certified by the commissioner shall be deemed sufficient evidence, and service upon such attorney shall be deemed sufficient service upon the principal. The certificate of appointment may be filed in an electronic format.

(1.5) (a) The provisions of subsection (1) of this section shall not apply to any insurance company maintaining a home office or a regional home office in this state.

(b) Each insurance company maintaining a home office or regional home office in this state shall file with the commissioner the name of a person designated to receive service of process. The commissioner shall maintain a list of persons so designated and shall make information from such list available to any person upon request. Each company must report any change in the name of the person designated to receive service of process to the commissioner within ten days after making such change. The information required to be filed with the commissioner pursuant to this subsection (1.5) may be filed in an electronic format.

(2) Whenever lawful process against any insurance company is served upon the commissioner, three copies shall be furnished, and he shall forthwith forward a copy of the process served on him by certified mail, postpaid, to the secretary of the company or, in case of companies of foreign countries, to the resident manager in this country, and he shall also forward a copy thereof to the general agent of said company in this state.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For article, "Colorado's Short-Arm Jurisdiction", see 37 U. Colo. L. Rev. 309 (1965).

Service on commissioner authorized in suit on bond on Colorado contract. The execution and delivery of a bond in Colorado to secure performance of a contract to be performed in Colorado authorizes the service of process, in a suit on the bond, on the commissioner. Bankers' Sur. Co. v. Town of Holly, 219 F. 96 (8th Cir. 1915).

Where summons was served on the deputy commissioner rather than commissioner of insurance, then, where the surety company received the summons and complaint, an objection to such service is very technical and does not appeal favorably to a court of justice. Bankers' Sur. Co. v. Town of Holly, 219 F. 96 (8th Cir. 1915).

10-3-108. File duly certified copy of charter. Except pursuant to the provisions of article 5 of this title, no foreign insurance company shall transact any business in this state unless it first files in the office of the commissioner a duly certified copy of its charter, articles of incorporation, or deed of settlement, together with a statement, under oath, of the president and secretary, or other chief officers of such company, showing the condition of affairs of such company on the thirty-first day of December next preceding the date of such oath. The statement shall be in the same form and shall set forth the same particulars as the annual statement required by this title (except article 15) and article 14 of title 24, C.R.S. After filing its articles of incorporation or charter with the secretary of state, no insurance company shall be required to file its annual report or any other instrument, except amendments to said articles of incorporation or charter, in the office of the secretary of state or to pay to the secretary of state an annual corporation tax. The filings required pursuant to this section may be made in an electronic format.

10-3-109. Reports, statements, assessments, and maintenance of records - publication - penalties for late filing, late payment, or failure to maintain. (1) Every insurance company doing business in this state, on or before the first day of March in each year, shall submit to the commissioner a report, signed and certified by its chief officers, of its condition on the preceding thirty-first day of December, which shall include a detailed statement of assets and liabilities, the amount and character of its business transacted, and moneys received and expended during the year, and any further details of expenditures, and such other information, to be included in the report or supplementary thereto, as the commissioner deems necessary. A synopsis of such statement, together with the commissioner's certificate of authority to transact business in this state, shall be published in some newspaper of general circulation, published at the state capital, for at least four insertions. Such publication shall be made within thirty days after such certificate of authority is issued, and a copy of the paper containing such publication shall be filed in the office of the commissioner. The commissioner shall revoke and refuse to reissue the certificate of authority of any insurance company failing or refusing to furnish the reports or other information requested by the commissioner as provided in this section. The report required pursuant to this subsection (1) may be filed in an electronic format.

(2) If any annual report, statement, or payment of special fees assessed pursuant to section 10-8-530 from any entity regulated by the division of insurance is not filed by the date specified by law or by rules of the commissioner, the commissioner may assess a penalty of up to one hundred dollars per day for each day after the date an annual statement, report, or assessment of special fees is due from any such entity.

(3) If any entity regulated by the division of insurance fails to file any other document required by law or rules and regulations to be filed with the division of insurance or fails to maintain complaint records as required by law, the commissioner may assess a penalty not to exceed five hundred dollars for an initial violation and a penalty not to exceed five thousand dollars for any subsequent failure to comply with any such filing requirement or requirement to maintain records. The commissioner, by rule and regulation, may establish a schedule for the assessment of penalties as authorized in this subsection (3) based upon the frequency and severity of noncompliance.

10-3-112. Directors - terms - election - conflicts of interest - recovery of profits.
(1) (a) The business of insurance companies incorporated under the laws of this state shall be managed by a board of directors consisting of such number of directors, not less than three, as may be prescribed by the articles of incorporation or bylaws, and said directors shall hold office until their successors are duly elected and qualified. Such directors shall be nominated and elected in the manner prescribed by the bylaws of the company not inconsistent with the laws of this state. No director may serve who has been convicted of fraud involving any financial institution or of a felony, but the commissioner may waive this provision regarding a felony if he or she determines that the particular felony does not jeopardize the person's ability to act as a director.

(b) Each executive officer and director of a domestic company applying for a certificate of authority to do business in Colorado shall submit a set of fingerprints to the commissioner. The commissioner shall forward such fingerprints to the Colorado bureau of investigation for the purpose of conducting a state and national fingerprint-based criminal history record check utilizing records of the Colorado bureau of investigation and the federal bureau of investigation. Only the actual costs of such record check shall be borne by the employer.

(2) Every domestic insurance company shall report within thirty days to the commissioner any change in its executive officers or directors, including in its report a statement of the business and professional affiliations of any new executive officer or director. For purposes of this subsection (2), the term "executive officer" includes only the following: Chairman of the board of directors, president, executive vice-president, secretary, and treasurer.

(3) No director, officer, or employee having any authority in the investment or disposition of the funds of a domestic insurance company shall accept, except on behalf of the company, or be the beneficiary of any fee, brokerage, gift, or other emolument because of any investment, loan, deposit, purchase, sale, payment, or exchange made by or for the company; but a director who is not otherwise an officer or employee of the company may receive reasonable compensation for necessary services performed for sales or purchases made to or for the company in the ordinary course of its business and in the usual private professional or business capacity of such director.

(4) Any profit or gain received by or on behalf of any person in violation of subsection (3) of this section shall inure to and be recoverable by the company. Suit to recover such profit may be instituted in any court of competent jurisdiction by the company, or by any stockholder of the company in its name and in its behalf if the company fails or refuses to bring such suit within sixty days after request in writing or fails diligently to prosecute the same thereafter; but no such suit shall be brought more than two years after the date such profit was realized.

10-3-113. Increase of capital. (1) Any such corporation organized and duly licensed by the commissioner to conduct an insurance business may sell additional stock or increase its capital for the purpose, in the manner, and to the extent prescribed by law, but the expense incurred in connection with such sale shall not exceed twenty percent of the amount realized from the sale of its capital stock, whether in cash or notes, and said expense shall be paid from surplus funds of the corporation.

(2) The provisions of this title (except article 15) and article 14 of title 24, C.R.S., also apply in the formation and authorization of domestic insurance companies formed upon the mutual plan, and to associations formed upon the assessment plan, that are organized with a guaranty fund in lieu of capital as provided in said references.

10-3-118. Reinsurance - conditions - credit for reinsurance. (1) The purpose of this section is to protect the interest of insurers, claimants, ceding insurers, assuming insurers, and the public. The general assembly hereby declares it is of interest to the state to ensure adequate regulation of insurers and reinsurers and adequate protection for those to whom they owe obligations. In furtherance of such state interest, the general assembly hereby supports a mandate that upon the insolvency of an alien insurer or reinsurer that provides security to fund its United States obligations in accordance with this section, the assets representing the security shall be maintained in the United States and claims shall be filed with and valued by the state insurance commissioner with regulatory oversight, and the assets shall be distributed in accordance with the insurance laws of the state in which the trust is domiciled that are applicable to the liquidation of domestic insurance companies. The general assembly declares that the matters contained in this section are fundamental to the business of insurance in accordance with 15 U.S.C. secs. 1011 and 1012. For the purposes of this section, "insurer" and "reinsurer" include any insurance company; health maintenance organization; fraternal benefit society; or nonprofit hospital, medical-surgical, and health service corporation.

(2) Complete copies of all reinsurance treaties and contracts and other information desired shall be filed with the commissioner at the commissioner's request.

(3) No credit shall be allowed as an asset or a reduction from liability, to any domestic ceding insurer for reinsurance:

(a) If any premium tax payable by the ceding insurer on the reinsured policies is not paid as required by section 10-3-209; or

(4) (a) Credit for reinsurance shall be allowed a domestic ceding insurer as either an asset or a reduction from liability on account of reinsurance ceded only when the reinsurer meets the requirements of paragraph (b), (c), (e), (f), or (g) of this subsection (4). Credit shall be allowed under paragraph (b), (c), or (e) of this subsection (4) only with respect to cessions of the kind or class of business in which the assuming insurer is licensed or otherwise permitted to write or assume in its state of domicile or, in the case of a United States branch of an alien assuming insurer, in the state through which it is entered and licensed to transact insurance or reinsurance. Credit shall be allowed under paragraph (e) or (f) of this subsection (4) only if the applicable requirements of paragraphs (h) and (i) of this subsection (4) have been satisfied.

(b) Credit shall be allowed when the reinsurance is ceded to a reinsurer that is licensed to transact insurance or reinsurance in this state.

(c) Credit shall be allowed when the reinsurance is ceded to a reinsurer that is accredited as a reinsurer in this state. To be accredited, a reinsurer shall:

(I) File with the commissioner evidence of its submission to this state's jurisdiction;

(II) Submit to this state's authority to examine its books and records;

(III) Be licensed to transact insurance or reinsurance or be licensed as a health maintenance organization in at least one state, or, in the case of a United States branch of an alien reinsurer, shall be entered through and licensed to transact insurance or reinsurance in at least one state;

(IV) File annually with the commissioner a copy of its annual statement filed with the regulatory authority of its state of domicile and a copy of its most recent audited financial statement and maintain a surplus as regards policyholders or net worth in an amount not less than twenty million dollars and whose accreditation has not been denied by the commissioner within ninety days after its submission or maintain a surplus as regards policyholders or net worth in an amount less than twenty million dollars and whose accreditation has been approved by the commissioner.

(d) Credit shall not be allowed a domestic ceding insurer if the reinsurer's accreditation has been revoked by the commissioner after notice and hearing.

(e) (I) Credit shall be allowed when the reinsurance is ceded to a reinsurer that is domiciled in, or in the case of a United States branch of an alien reinsurer is entered through, a state that employs standards regarding credit for reinsurance substantially similar to those applicable under this section, and the assuming insurer or a United States branch of an alien reinsurer:

(A) Maintains a surplus with regard to policyholders in an amount not less than twenty million dollars; and

(II) The requirement of sub-subparagraph (A) of subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (e) shall not apply to reinsurance ceded and assumed pursuant to pooling arrangements among insurers in the same holding company system.

(f) (I) Credit shall be allowed when the reinsurance is ceded to a reinsurer that maintains a trust fund in a qualified United States financial institution, as defined in section 10-1-102 (17), for the payment of the valid claims of its United States ceding insurers and their assigns and successors in interest. To enable the commissioner to determine the sufficiency of the trust fund, the reinsurer shall report annually to the commissioner information substantially the same as that required to be reported on the national association of insurance commissioners' annual statement form by licensed insurers. The reinsurer shall submit to examination of its books and records by the commissioner and shall bear the expense of the examination.

(II) (A) Credit for reinsurance shall not be granted under this paragraph (f) unless the form of the trust and any amendments to the trust have been approved by the commissioner of the state where the trust is domiciled or the commissioner of another state who, pursuant to the terms of the trust instrument, has accepted principal regulatory oversight of the trust.

(B) The form of the trust and any trust amendments shall also be filed with the commissioner of every state in which the ceding insurer beneficiaries of the trust are domiciled. The trust instrument shall provide that contested claims shall be valid and enforceable upon the final order of any court of competent jurisdiction in the United States. The trust shall vest legal title to its assets in its trustees for the benefit of the reinsurer's United States ceding insurers and their assigns and successors in interest. The trust and the reinsurer shall be subject to examination as determined by the commissioner.

(C) Such trust shall remain in effect for as long as the reinsurer has outstanding obligations due under the reinsurance agreements subject to the trust. No later than February 28 of each year, the trustees of the trust shall report to the commissioner in writing the balance of the trust, shall list the trust's investments at the preceding year-end, and shall certify the date of termination of the trust, if so planned, or certify that the trust will not expire prior to the next following December 31.

(III) The trust fund for a single assuming insurer shall consist of funds of an amount not less than the assuming insurer's liabilities attributable to reinsurance ceded by United States ceding insurers and, in addition, the assuming insurer shall maintain a trustee surplus of not less than twenty million dollars.

(IV) In the case of a group including incorporated and individual unincorporated underwriters, for reinsurance ceded under reinsurance agreements with an inception, amendment, or renewal date on or after August 1, 1995, the trust shall consist of a trustee account in an amount not less than the group's several liabilities attributable to business ceded by United States domiciled ceding insurers to any member of the group, and for reinsurance ceded under reinsurance agreements with an inception date on or before July 31, 1995, and not amended or renewed after such date, notwithstanding the other provisions of this section, the trust shall consist of a trusteed account in an amount not less than the group's several insurance and reinsurance liabilities attributable to business written in the United States. In addition, the group shall maintain in trust a trusteed surplus of which one hundred million dollars shall be held jointly for the benefit of the United States domiciled ceding insurers of any member of the group for all years of account. The incorporated members of the group shall not be engaged in any business other than underwriting as a member of the group and shall be subject to the same level of regulation and solvency control by the group's domiciliary regulator as are the unincorporated members. Within ninety days after its financial statements are due to be filed with the group's domiciliary regulator, the group shall provide to the commissioner an annual certification by the group's domiciliary regulator of the solvency of each underwriter member or, if a certification is unavailable, financial statements prepared by independent public accountants of each underwriter member of the group.

(g) Credit shall be allowed when the reinsurance is ceded to an assuming insurer not meeting the requirements of paragraph (b), (c), (e), or (f) of this subsection (4), but only as to the insurance of risks located in jurisdictions where the reinsurance is required by applicable law or rule of that jurisdiction.

(h) (I) If the reinsurer is not licensed or accredited to transact insurance or reinsurance in this state, or is not licensed as a health maintenance organization in this state, the credit permitted by paragraphs (e) and (f) of this subsection (4) shall not be allowed unless the assuming insurer agrees in the reinsurance agreements:

(A) That in the event of the failure of the reinsurer to perform its obligations under the terms of the reinsurance agreement, the reinsurer, at the request of the ceding insurer, shall submit to the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction in any state of the United States, will comply with all requirements necessary to give such court jurisdiction, and will abide by the final decision of such court or of any appellate court in the event of an appeal; and

(B) To designate the commissioner or a designated attorney as its true and lawful attorney upon whom may be served any lawful process in any action, suit, or proceeding instituted by or on behalf of the ceding company.

(II) This paragraph (h) is not intended to conflict with or override the obligation of the parties to a reinsurance agreement to arbitrate their disputes, if such an obligation is created in the agreement.

(i) If the assuming insurer does not meet the requirements of paragraph (b), (c), or (e) of this subsection (4), the credit permitted by paragraph (f) of this subsection (4) shall not be allowed unless the assuming insurer agrees in the trust agreements to the following conditions:

(I) Notwithstanding any other provisions in the trust instrument, if the trust fund is inadequate because it contains an amount less than the amount required by subparagraph (III) or (IV) of paragraph (f) of this subsection (4), or if the grantor of the trust has been declared insolvent or placed into receivership, rehabilitation, liquidation, or similar proceedings under the laws of its state or country of domicile, the trustee shall comply with an order of the commissioner with regulatory oversight over the trust or with an order of a court of competent jurisdiction directing the trustee to transfer to the commissioner with regulatory oversight all of the assets of the trust fund.

(II) The assets shall be distributed by and claims shall be filed with and valued by the commissioner with regulatory oversight in accordance with the laws of the state in which the trust is domiciled that are applicable to the liquidation of domestic insurance companies.

(III) If the commissioner with regulatory oversight determines that the assets of the trust fund or any part thereof are not necessary to satisfy the claims of the United States ceding insurers of the grantor of the trust, the assets or part thereof shall be returned by the commissioner with regulatory oversight to the trustee for distribution in accordance with the trust agreement.

(IV) The grantor shall waive any right otherwise available to it under United States law that is inconsistent with this paragraph (i).

(5) An asset or a reduction from liability for the reinsurance ceded by a domestic insurer to a reinsurer not meeting the requirements of subsection (4) of this section shall be allowed in an amount not exceeding the liabilities carried by the ceding insurer. The asset or reduction shall be in the amount of funds held by or on behalf of the ceding insurer, including funds held in trust for the ceding insurer, under a reinsurance contract with such reinsurer as security for the payment of such obligations, if such security is held in the United States subject to withdrawal solely by and under the exclusive control of the ceding insurer; or, in the case of a trust, held in a qualified United States financial institution as defined in section 10-1-102 (17). This security may be in the form of:

- (a) Cash;
- (b) Securities listed by the securities valuation office of the national association of insurance commissioners and qualifying as admitted assets;
- (c) Clean, irrevocable, unconditional letters of credit issued or confirmed in accordance with section 10-1-102 (17) (b) by a qualified United States financial institution, as defined by section 10-1-102 (17), effective no later than December 31 of the year for which filing is being made, and in the possession of, or in trust for, the ceding insurer on or before the filing date of its annual statement. Letters of credit meeting applicable standards of issuer acceptability as of the dates of their issuance or confirmation shall, notwithstanding the issuing or confirming institution's subsequent failure to meet applicable standards of issuer acceptability, continue to be acceptable as security until their expiration, extension, renewal, modification, or amendment, whichever first occurs.
- (d) Any other form of security acceptable to the commissioner.
- (6) The commissioner may adopt rules implementing the provisions of this section.
- (7) The liquidator, conservator, receiver, or statutory successor of the ceding insurer shall give written notice to the reinsurer of the pendency of a claim against the reinsurer. Such notice shall indicate the policy or bond reinsured and whether the claim could involve a possible liability on the part of the reinsurer. Such notice shall be given within a reasonable time after such claim is filed in the conservation, liquidation, or insolvency proceeding. During the pendency of such claim, the reinsurer may investigate such claim and interpose, at its own expense, in the proceeding where such claim is to be adjudicated, any defense deemed available to the ceding insurer or its liquidator, conservator, receiver, or statutory successor. The expense thus incurred by the reinsurer shall be chargeable, subject to the approval of the court, against the ceding insurer as part of the expense of conservation, liquidation, or insolvency proceeding to the extent of a pro rata share of the benefit that may accrue to the ceding insurer solely as a result of the defense undertaken by the reinsurer.

10-3-120. Investments of officers, directors, and principal stockholders.

(1) (a) Every person who is directly or indirectly the beneficial owner of more than ten percent of any class of equity security of a domestic stock insurance company or who is a director or an officer of such company shall file in the office of the commissioner within ten days after the person becomes such beneficial owner, director, or officer, a statement, in such form as the commissioner may prescribe, of the amount of all classes of equity securities of such company of which the person is the beneficial owner and within ten days after the close of each calendar month thereafter, if there has been a change in such ownership during such month, shall file in the office of the commissioner a statement, in such form as the commissioner may prescribe, indicating ownership at the close of the calendar month and such changes in ownership as have occurred during such calendar month.

(2) For the purpose of preventing the unfair use of information which is obtained by such beneficial owner, director, or officer by reason of his relationship to such company, any profit realized by him from any purchase and sale, or any sale and purchase, of any equity security of such company within any period of less than six months, unless such equity security was acquired in good faith in connection with a debt previously contracted, shall inure to and be recoverable by the company, irrespective of any intention on the part of such beneficial owner, director, or officer in entering into such transaction of holding the equity security purchased or of not repurchasing the equity security sold for a period exceeding six months. Suit to recover such profit may be instituted at law or in equity in any court of competent jurisdiction by the company or by the owner of any security of the company in the name and in behalf of the company if the company fails or refuses to bring such suit within sixty days after request or fails diligently to prosecute the same thereafter, but no such suit shall be brought more than two years after the date such profit was realized. This subsection (2) shall not be construed to cover any transaction where such beneficial owner was not such both at the time of the purchase and sale, or the sale and purchase, of the equity security involved, or any transaction which the commissioner may by rules and regulations exempt as not comprehended within the purpose of this subsection (2).

(3) It is unlawful for any such beneficial owner, director, or officer, directly or indirectly, to sell any equity security of such company if the person selling the equity security or his principal either does not own the equity security sold, or, if owning the equity security, does not deliver it against such sale within twenty days thereafter, or does not within five days after such sale deposit it in the mails or other usual channels of transportation; but no person is deemed to have violated this subsection (3) if he proves that, notwithstanding the exercise of good faith, he was unable to make such delivery or deposit within such time, or that to do so would cause undue inconvenience or expense.

(4) The provisions of subsection (2) of this section shall not apply to any purchase and sale or sale and purchase, and the provisions of subsection (3) of this section shall not apply to any sale of an equity security not then or theretofore held by him in an investment account by a dealer in the ordinary course of his business and incident to the establishment or maintenance by him of a primary or secondary market, otherwise than on an exchange, as presently defined in the federal "Securities Exchange Act of 1934", as amended, for such security.

(5) The provisions of this section shall not apply to foreign or domestic arbitrage transactions unless made in contravention of such rules and regulations as the commissioner may adopt in order to carry out the purposes of this section.

(6) The term "equity security" means any stock or similar security; or any security convertible, with or without consideration, into such a security, or carrying any warrant or right to subscribe to or purchase such a security; or any such warrant or right; or any other security which the commissioner deems to be of similar nature and considers necessary or appropriate, by such rules and regulations as he may prescribe in the public interest or for the protection of investors, to treat as an equity security.

(7) The provisions of this section shall not apply to equity securities of a domestic stock insurance company if:

(a) Such equity securities are registered, or are required to be registered, pursuant to section 12 of the federal "Securities Exchange Act of 1934", as amended; or

(b) Such domestic stock insurance company does not have any class of its equity securities held of record by one hundred or more persons on the last business day of the year next preceding the year in which equity securities of the company would be subject to the provisions of this section, except for the provisions of this paragraph (b).

10-3-121. Regulation of proxies, consents, or authorizations. (1) The purpose of this section is to regulate the solicitation of proxies, consents, or authorizations by domestic stock insurers having one hundred or more stockholders of record in accordance with the intent of congress as expressed in the "Securities Acts Amendments of 1964", by declaring unlawful certain solicitation practices and providing for the regulation thereof.

(2) No person shall, in contravention of such rules and regulations as the commissioner may prescribe as necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors, solicit, or permit the use of his name to solicit, any proxy or consent or authorization in respect of any security of a domestic stock insurer having one hundred or more stockholders of record.

(3) Unless proxies, consents, or authorizations in respect of a security of a domestic stock insurer are solicited by or on behalf of the management of the insurer from the holders of record of such security in accordance with the rules and regulations prescribed under subsection (2) of this section, prior to any annual or other meeting of the holders of such security, such insurer shall, in accordance with the rules and regulations prescribed by the commissioner, file with the commissioner and transmit to all holders of record of such security information substantially equivalent to the information which would be required to be transmitted if a solicitation were made.

(4) This section is applicable to all domestic stock insurers having one hundred or more stockholders of record; except that this section shall not apply to any insurer if ninety-five percent or more of its stock is owned or controlled by a parent or an affiliated insurer and the remaining shares are held by less than five hundred stockholders. A domestic stock insurer that files with the securities and exchange commission forms of proxies, consents, and authorizations complying with the requirements of the federal "Securities Exchange Act of 1934", as amended, is exempt from the provisions of this section.

(5) The term "person" as used in this section includes a natural person, corporation, partnership, and association.

10-3-123. Assessment accident associations. (1) Every contract whereby a benefit is to accrue to a party named therein, upon the accidental death or physical disability from accident or sickness of a person, which benefit is in any degree conditioned upon the collection of an assessment upon persons holding similar contracts, is deemed a contract of accident or casualty insurance upon the assessment plan, and the business involving the issuance of such contract shall be carried on in this state only by duly authorized corporations, which are subject to the provisions and requirements of this section and the general laws governing insurance companies in this state, except as otherwise provided in this section; but nothing in this section shall be construed as applicable to organizations which conduct their business as fraternal societies, on the lodge system, or to organizations which do not employ paid agents in soliciting business or limit their certificate holders to a particular order or fraternity.

(2) Twenty-five or more persons who are citizens of this state may form a corporation to carry on the business of casualty insurance on the assessment plan, but no such corporation shall begin to do business until a guaranty fund of at least ten thousand dollars is provided and deposited, in cash or in such securities as are permitted by law in the case of stock companies, with the commissioner under the conditions named in this title (except article 15) and article 14 of title 24, C.R.S. When this is done and at least two hundred persons have subscribed in writing to be insured, and when each has paid in at least one monthly assessment or premium, the commissioner, if the laws have been complied with, shall issue a certificate of authority for such corporation, which authorizes it to commence business. The word "association" shall be used in the title or name of all corporations organized under this section instead of the word "company".

(3) Every policy or indemnity certificate issued by any casualty corporation doing business in this state shall show, in plain and legible print at the top and on the face of the same, these words: "Incorporated on the assessment plan".

(4) There shall also be printed plainly and legibly in every such policy or certificate issued the minimum and maximum limits of the contingent mutual liability of the person to whom the policy is issued, which limits and the amount of liability, in the case of corporations incorporated under the Colorado laws, shall be fixed by the bylaws, and the rule shall be uniform. Such policies or certificates shall also specify the minimum sum of money to be paid upon each contingency insured against and the number of days after satisfactory proof of the happening of such contingency at which such payment shall be made. Upon the occurrence of such contingency, unless the contract has been voided by fraud or by breach of its conditions, the association is obligated to the beneficiary for such payment at the time and to the amount specified in the policy or certificate, and this indebtedness shall be a lien upon all the property, effects, and bills receivable of the association in this state, with priority over all indebtedness thereafter incurred, but the statement of said minimum sum shall not invalidate the rights of the party insured from receiving any further amount above such minimum sum that is based upon membership and to which he is entitled by the provisions of his policy.

(5) Any corporation organized under the authority of any other state or government to issue policies or certificates of casualty insurance on the assessment plan, as a condition precedent to transacting business in this state, shall pay such fees and comply with the same requirements as exacted of stock casualty insurance companies of other states or countries, as provided by this title (except article 15) and article 14 of title 24, C.R.S., and thereafter be subject to the same general laws and penalties of this title, unless otherwise provided in this section, and it shall deposit with the commissioner or with the proper official of some other state, for the protection of all its policyholders, a sum not less than that required to be deposited by domestic casualty insurance companies organized upon the mutual assessment plan. Such corporation shall also file with the commissioner a copy of its policies or certificates and applications therefor, for approval by the commissioner, and a sworn statement from the proper officers of such corporation that they have received a copy of this section, and shall be governed thereby in issuing policies or certificates in this state. The commissioner may thereupon issue or renew the authority of such corporation to do business in this state.

(6) The money or other benefit, charity, relief, or aid to be paid or provided or rendered by any corporation authorized to do casualty insurance on the assessment plan shall not be liable to attachment or other process and shall not be seized, taken, appropriated, or applied by any legal or equitable process, nor by operation of law, to pay any debts or liability of a policy or certificate holder, or any beneficiary named therein.

(7) Any corporation doing a casualty insurance business in this state on April 15, 1913, that is incorporated to do business on the assessment plan may reincorporate under the provisions of this title (except article 15) and article 14 of title 24, C.R.S., but nothing in said references shall be construed as requiring any such corporation to reincorporate, and any such corporation may continue to exercise all rights, powers, and privileges conferred by said references, or its articles of incorporation not inconsistent with this subsection (7).

10-3-125. Redomestication of foreign insurers. (1) Any foreign insurer which is authorized or which may be authorized to do business in this state for the purpose of writing insurance may become a domestic insurer by complying with all of the requirements of law relative to the organization and licensing of a domestic insurer of the same type. Said domestic insurer shall be entitled to like certificates and licenses to transact business in this state and shall be subject to the authority and jurisdiction of this state.

(2) Any domestic insurer may, upon the approval of the commissioner, transfer its domicile to any other state in which it is authorized to transact the business of insurance and, upon such a transfer, shall cease to be a domestic insurer and shall be admitted to this state if qualified as a foreign insurer. The commissioner shall approve any such proposed transfer unless he determines that such transfer is not in the interest of the policyholders of this state.

(3) Any foreign insurance company admitted or which may be admitted to transact business in this state may, upon proper notice to the commissioner, change its domicile by merger, consolidation, or otherwise to another foreign state without interruption of its license and without reapplying as a foreign insurer if:

(a) The change in domicile does not result in a reduction in the company's assets or surplus below the requirements for admission as a foreign insurer; and

(b) There is no substantial change in the lines of insurance to be written by the company; and

(c) The change in domicile has been approved by the supervising regulatory officials of both the former and new state of domicile.

(4) The certificate of authority, the agents' appointments and licenses, and the rates and other items which the commissioner allows, in his discretion, which are in existence at the time any insurer transfers its corporate domicile to this or any other state by merger, consolidation, or any other lawful method shall continue in full force and effect upon such transfer if such insurer remains duly qualified to transact the business of insurance in this state. All outstanding policies of any transferring insurer shall remain in full force and effect. In the event of a company name change, all outstanding policies shall be endorsed with the company's new name. Every transferring insurer shall file new policy forms with the commissioner on or before the effective date of the transfer. Such insurers may use existing policy forms with appropriate endorsements if allowed by and under such conditions as approved by the commissioner. Every such transferring insurer shall notify the commissioner of the details of the proposed transfer and shall file promptly any resulting amendments to corporate documents filed or required to be filed with the commissioner.

10-3-126. Alien insurers. (1) Any alien insurer, as defined in section 10-3-301 (1), may be admitted to do business in this state by qualifying and establishing an administrative office in this state and maintaining its corporate and insurance records in the United States for insurance of risks primarily in the United States of America, its territories, and its possessions and by complying with all of the requirements of law related to the organization and licensing of a domestic insurer of the same type.

(2) Any alien insurer, as defined in section 10-3-301 (1), which is authorized to do business (whether as an admitted company or nonadmitted company) for the purpose of writing insurance may become a domestic insurer by complying with all of the requirements of law relative to the organization and licensing of a domestic insurer of the same type and by making its principal place of business at a place in this state. Said domestic insurer shall be entitled to like certificates and licenses to transact business in this state and shall be subject to the authority and jurisdiction of this state.

10-3-127. Domicile of nonprofit hospital, medical-surgical, and health services corporations. (1) A corporation organized under the laws of another state for the purposes set forth in section 10-16-302 may qualify under parts 1 and 3 of article 16 of this title to do business in this state as a nonprofit hospital, medical-surgical, and health services corporation, and upon notice to the commissioner may change its domicile by merger, consolidation, or otherwise under the procedures of section 10-3-125 for insurers. Except as specified in this section, any such corporation shall comply with all provisions of parts 1 and 3 of article 16 of this title with respect to the business of the corporation in this state.

(2) The provisions of sections 10-16-304 (1) and 10-16-305 (1) shall apply to a foreign corporation to the extent such provisions do not conflict with the governing laws of the corporation's domicile.

10-3-128. Domestic insurer - requirement to maintain offices in this state. (1) Before granting the initial certificate of authority to an applicant to become a domestic insurer, the commissioner shall be satisfied by proper evidence that:

(a) The insurer's books and records are located or maintained in this state or are readily accessible to the examiners of this state; and

(b) The grant of a certificate of authority as a domestic insurer will provide benefit to the state of Colorado through either significant economic development or through the offering of insurance coverage desired by and beneficial to the Colorado insurance buying public.

(2) No later than January 1, 1992, any domestic insurer licensed in this state prior to July 1, 1991, shall file a plan for compliance with this section.

(3) The commissioner may modify or waive the requirements of this section for cause on a case by case basis.

(4) The commissioner may promulgate such rules and regulations as are necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

10-3-129. Prohibition - display of social security number - insurance companies.

(1) An insured may require that an insurance company or insurer doing business in Colorado not display the insured's social security number on his or her insurance identification card or proof of insurance card. If an insured makes the request, the insurance company or insurer shall reissue the insured an insurance identification card or proof of insurance card that does not display the insured's social security number.

(2) After January 1, 2006, upon issuance or renewal of an insurance policy, an insurance company or insurer doing business in Colorado shall not issue an insurance identification card or proof of insurance card that displays the insured's social security number.

PART 2

FINANCIAL AFFAIRS

10-3-201. Cash capital - guaranty fund - deposit.

(1) (a) (I) to (IV) Repealed.

(V) No insurance company, issued a certificate of authority on or after July 1, 1995, shall be permitted to do any business in this state, unless, in addition to the other requirements of law, it possesses the minimum capital or guaranty fund and an accumulated surplus in the form of cash or marketable securities which combined are at least equal to:

TYPE OF COMPANY	TOTAL CAPITAL OR GUARANTY FUND PLUS SURPLUS
Life .....	$1,500,000.00
Fire .....	1,500,000.00
Casualty .....	1,500,000.00
Multiple Line .....	2,000,000.00
Title Insurance .....	750,000.00

(b) To avoid situations where an insurer’s transactions would create undue financial risks to its enrollees, subscribers, or policyholders or to the people of this state, the regulations specified in this paragraph (b) are authorized. The commissioner may by regulation establish standards consistent with those of the national association of insurance commissioners which require any insurer to maintain a greater minimum surplus level than the specific dollar minimums established by paragraph (a) of this subsection (1). Such minimum surplus level shall reflect the type, volume, and nature of the insurance business being transacted and the type of entity for which the surplus levels are being established. Such regulation may additionally require the submission of an opinion by a qualified actuary which states whether or not the surplus level of the entity is sufficient for the authority requested.

(c) Companies already licensed on July 1, 1991, may continue to transact business and shall have until December 31, 1992, to increase their total capital or guaranty fund and surplus or file a plan with the commissioner. The commissioner may, upon showing of adequate justification by the company, extend the date for the company to attain the new levels specified in paragraph (a) of this subsection (1), or waive or reduce such new levels.

(d) An insurance company subject to this section shall increase its capital and surplus to those limits set forth in paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) within thirty days after any change of control of the insurance company. Any extension granted pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subsection (1) shall be automatically rescinded in the event of such a change of control. The insurance company is not required to increase its capital and surplus if the transfer of ownership occurs because of death and the ownership is transferred solely to one or more natural persons, each of whom would be an heir of the decedent if the decedent had died intestate.

(2) The cash or securities representing the minimum capital or guaranty fund and surplus required by paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of this section shall be deposited, in the case of domestic companies, with the commissioner in the manner provided by law and, in the case of foreign or alien companies, with the commissioner or with the duly authorized officer of some other state of the United States; except that the guaranty fund of mutual companies shall be construed to include deposits held for the benefit of policyholders as provided in this title (except article 15) and article 14 of title 24, C.R.S.

(3) The deposit shall be held by the commissioner for the benefit of all policyholders wherever located. For a foreign or alien insurer to be allowed credit for deposits in other jurisdictions, such deposits must be held for the benefit of all policyholders wherever located and not solely or with preference for those in the depository jurisdiction.

ANNOTATION

I. General Consideration.

II. Deposit for Benefit of Policyholders.

I. GENERAL CONSIDERATION.

Policyholders may not attack assessment where certificate unlawfully issued. Policyholders may not attack an assessment as being invalid for the reason that the insurance commissioner unlawfully issued certificates of authority permitting the company to do business when its financial condition was impaired and it had failed to maintain the required reserve and surplus. Aronoff v. Pioneer Mut. Comp. Co., 134 Colo. 395, 304 P.2d 1083 (1956).

II. DEPOSIT FOR BENEFIT OF POLICYHOLDERS.

This section provides that no life insurance company shall be permitted to be incorporated for business until a deposit, either in cash or in approved securities, is made with the state as a guaranty fund to protect policyholders and the business of the company. Greiger v. Salzer, 63 Colo. 167, 165 P. 240 (1917).

An express trust is specifically set up for the benefit of all policyholders under this section. Ogden First Fed. Sav. & Loan Ass'n v. Armstrong, 111 Colo. 309, 141 P.2d 173 (1943).

Policyholders have vested right in securities deposited. Persons procuring insurance policies while statutes requiring the deposit of securities for their protection are in force have a vested right in and to securities theretofore deposited with the insurance commissioner under the terms of the statutes. Cochrane v. Pacific States Life Ins. Co., 93 Colo. 462, 27 P.2d 196 (1933).

It is beyond the power of the general assembly to authorize a withdrawal of the deposits over the objection of such policyholders. Cochrane v. Pacific States Life Ins. Co., 93 Colo. 462, 27 P.2d 196 (1933).

Withdrawal not authorized until all claims are satisfied in full. The capital of a company is impounded and cannot be returned to the company even when so authorized by subsequent legislation until all who took out policies while the law was in force have had their claims satisfied in full. Ogden First Fed. Sav. & Loan Ass'n v. Armstrong, 111 Colo. 309, 141 P.2d 173 (1943).

10-3-202. Surplus ascertained - disposition of. Surplus of domestic insurance companies shall be ascertained by offsetting as a liability against the company's admitted assets the par value of its outstanding capital stock, if any, its reserve liability, and its current obligations of every kind. The excess of said admitted assets over said liabilities shall be the company's surplus. Surplus of domestic stock insurance companies belongs to their stockholders, and such part of the surplus may be apportioned or paid to policyholders, beneficiaries, and annuity and supplementary contract holders as the companies may from time to time determine.

10-3-203. Additional deposits - withdrawals. Any domestic insurance company depositing its insurance reserves with the commissioner under the optional reserve deposit law, section 10-7-101, at its option and in addition to its insurance reserves deposit, may also deposit with the commissioner approved securities not less in amount than the reserve required to mature any or all of the company's other contractual obligations of every kind designated at the time the deposits are made. Such additional deposits shall be to secure the payment of such other contractual obligations so designated. In determining the amount of deposit to be maintained with the commissioner on account of insurance or other reserves, he shall make proper deductions from the mathematical reserves for all indebtedness to the company on account of each policy and each contractual obligation not exceeding the reserve thereon, and for deferred and uncollected premiums on the policies and for the reserve on such part of each policy as may be reinsured as provided by law. Any amount at any time on deposit in excess of the amount required may be withdrawn by the depositing company. Whenever any such company makes an application to withdraw any excess deposit, the commissioner may accept the estimate or calculation of the company of such reserves or, at his option, may have a calculation or estimate thereof made for said purpose or an appraisal of the depositing company's securities, or both, at the expense of the company so applying, at such reasonable expense as may be agreed to by the company.

10-3-204. Payment of dividends. (1) The amount of dividend payments by any domestic insurance company is wholly within the discretion of its directors or of the duly constituted executive committee thereof. No dividend shall be paid except from the company's surplus.

(2) It is unlawful for the directors, trustees, managers, or officers of any domestic insurance company, directly or indirectly, to make or pay any dividends or pay any interest, bonus, or other allowance in lieu of dividends, other than premium refunds and deductions guaranteed, except from the company's surplus and from profits arising from the company's business. Any person who is found guilty of violating any provision of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars.

10-3-207. Fees paid by insurance companies. (1) Every entity regulated by the division in this state shall pay the following fees to the division:

(a) For investigating and processing an initial application for authorization or licensure as a foreign or domestic insurance company to do business in this state, a nonrefundable fee of five hundred dollars, which fee shall accompany each application for authorization or licensure;

(b) In each year subsequent to 1992, in addition to any fee collected under paragraph (a) of this subsection (1), every insurance company, interinsurance company, fraternal benefit society, health maintenance organization, and nonprofit hospital, medical-surgical, and health service corporation licensed or authorized in this state that is regulated by the division of insurance shall make an annual nonrefundable payment on or before March 1 of each year based on the schedule specified in this paragraph (b) at the time of authorization and each subsequent renewal year. For nonadmitted insurers and accredited reinsurers, the fee specified in this paragraph (b) shall be considered to include the fee pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (1):

(I) For insurance companies, interinsurance companies, fraternal benefit societies, health maintenance organizations, and nonprofit hospital, medical-surgical, and health service corporations that have prior year's direct written premiums, gross contract funds, or charges received in Colorado not exceeding one million dollars, a fee of six hundred seventy dollars;

(II) For insurance companies, interinsurance companies, fraternal benefit societies, health maintenance organizations, and nonprofit hospital, medical-surgical, and health service corporations that have prior year's direct written premiums, gross contract funds, or charges received in Colorado in excess of one million dollars but not exceeding ten million dollars, a fee of two thousand ten dollars. Any insurance company that did not write at least eighty thousand dollars of taxable premiums in the previous year in Colorado shall not exceed the fee as otherwise would have been payable pursuant to subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (b).

(III) For insurance companies, interinsurance companies, fraternal benefit societies, health maintenance organizations, and nonprofit hospital, medical-surgical, and health service corporations that have prior year's direct written premiums, gross contract funds, or charges received in Colorado in excess of ten million dollars, a fee of three thousand three hundred forty-five dollars. Any insurance company that did not write at least one hundred twenty thousand dollars of taxable premium in Colorado shall not exceed the fee as otherwise would have been payable pursuant to subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (b).

(f) (I) For the purpose of providing adequate funds to the division for market analysis, investigation, and enforcement of article 11 of this title and rules adopted pursuant to said article 11, in addition to any other fee collected pursuant to this subsection (1), each title insurer regulated by the division pursuant to article 11 of this title shall pay a nonrefundable annual fee on or before March 1 of each year. This fee shall be established by the commissioner in an amount sufficient to support two full-time equivalents within the division.

(III) Notwithstanding any provision of section 10-1-103 or 10-1-108 (9) to the contrary, all fees and surcharges collected pursuant to this paragraph (f) shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall deposit the same in the division of insurance cash fund created in section 10-1-103, and shall be subject to annual appropriation to the division and to the department of law for the purposes set forth in this paragraph (f).

(IV) Commencing January 1, 2009, the division shall provide annual reports to the joint budget committee, the senate business, labor, and technology committee, and the house business affairs and labor committee, or any such successor committees, and shall post on the division's web site a statistical report of the number of enforcement actions taken, market trends associated with title insurance and real estate transactions, and consumer complaints supported by the fee in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (f).

(1.5) Every entity regulated by the division of insurance not identified in paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section shall pay a fee of five hundred dollars at the time of its license or authorization renewal.

(2) Fees collected by the division of insurance pursuant to this section shall be transmitted to the state treasurer and credited to the division of insurance cash fund, created in section 10-1-103 (3).

(4) Fair and reasonable fees for various administrative services of the division of insurance, including but not limited to copying, record searches, computer listings, computer disks or tapes, and requests for any such services from individuals, shall be determined by the commissioner.

(5) Notwithstanding the amount specified for any fee in this section, the commissioner by rule or as otherwise provided by law may reduce the amount of one or more of the fees if necessary pursuant to section 24-75-402 (3), C.R.S., to reduce the uncommitted reserves of the fund to which all or any portion of one or more of the fees is credited. After the uncommitted reserves of the fund are sufficiently reduced, the commissioner by rule or as otherwise provided by law may increase the amount of one or more of the fees as provided in section 24-75-402 (4), C.R.S.

10-3-208. Financial statements. (1) All insurance companies doing business in this state, unless otherwise provided in this title (except article 15) and article 14 of title 24, C.R.S., shall make and file with the commissioner annually, on or before the first day of March in each year, a statement under oath, upon a form to be prescribed by the commissioner, stating the amount of all premiums collected or contracted for in this state or from residents thereof, in cash or notes, by the company making such statement during the year ending the last day of December next preceding; the amounts actually paid policyholders on losses and the amounts paid policyholders as returned premiums by property and casualty insurance companies; the amount of insurance reinsured in other companies authorized to do business in this state and the amount of premiums paid therefor; the amount of insurance reinsured in companies, naming them, not authorized to do business in this state and the amount of premiums paid therefor; and the amount of reinsurance accepted from admitted companies and the premiums received from such reinsurance on residents of this state or risks located in this state, with the name of the companies so reinsured. The annual statement made to the commissioner pursuant to this section or other provisions of said references shall at least include the substance of that which is required by what is known as the convention blank form adopted from year to year by the national association of insurance commissioners, including any instructions, procedures, and guidelines not in conflict with any provision of this title for completing the convention blank form.

(2) The commissioner may require any insurance company authorized to do business in this state to submit interim financial statements and reports on a monthly or quarterly basis in such form as he prescribes, as deemed necessary in the public interest.

(3) Each domestic, foreign, and alien insurer that is authorized to transact the business of insurance in this state shall on or before March 1 of each year file with the national association of insurance commissioners a copy of its annual statement convention blank, along with such additional filings as prescribed by the commissioner for the preceding year. The information filed with the national association of insurance commissioners shall include the signed jurat page and the actuarial certification, if applicable. Any amendments and addendums to the annual statement filing subsequently made with the commissioner shall also be filed with the national association of insurance commissioners.

(4) Foreign insurers that are domiciled in a state which has a law substantially similar to subsection (3) of this section shall be deemed in compliance with the provisions of said subsection (3).

(5) In the absence of actual malice, members of the national association of insurance commissioners, their duly authorized committees, subcommittees, and task forces, their delegates, employees of the national association of insurance commissioners, and all others charged with the responsibility of collecting, reviewing, analyzing, and disseminating the information developed from the filing of the annual statement convention blanks shall be acting as agents of the commissioner under the authority of this section and shall not be subject to civil liability for libel, slander, or any other cause of action by virtue of their collection, review, and analysis or dissemination of the data and information collected from the required filings.

(6) Examination synopses concerning insurance companies that are submitted to the division by the national association of insurance commissioners' insurance regulatory information system are confidential and shall not be disclosed by the division.

(7) (a) In preparing the statements required by subsection (1) of this section, all insurance companies shall follow the instructions, procedures, and guidelines of the national association of insurance commissioners. If the initial application of any such instruction, procedure, or guideline would cause a reduction in the total capital and surplus of a domestic insurer of ten percent or more or would cause the capital and surplus of a domestic insurer to fall to or below the company action level as defined by the commissioner by rule, such insurer may, within thirty days after the effective date of such instruction, procedure, or guideline, file with the commissioner a request to phase in the effect of the instruction, procedure, or guideline over a period not to exceed three years or a time period approved by the commissioner.

(b) Any request made pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (7) shall include a complete analysis, in a form prescribed by the commissioner, of the impact upon the insurer making the request that is expected to result from application of the subject instruction, procedure, or guideline and, if a phase-in is requested, a description of the insurer's plan for the phase-in period. The commissioner shall not deny a request for a phase-in except upon notice and the opportunity for a hearing as provided in section 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(c) Any request for a hearing made pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (7) shall include a description of the basis on which relief is sought. Upon receiving such a request, the commissioner shall, with regard to the insurer making the request, postpone the effective date of the subject instruction, procedure, or guideline pending the conclusion of the hearing and the taking of final agency action thereon. The hearing shall commence within sixty days after the commissioner receives the request and shall be conducted in accordance with section 24-4-105, C.R.S.

ANNOTATION

For validity of indictment charging perjury in making false statements in report, see People v. Swanson, 109 Colo. 371, 125 P.2d 637 (1942).

10-3-209. Tax on premiums collected - exemptions - penalties. (1) (a) All insurance companies writing business in this state, including, without limitation, those defined in section 10-1-102 (6), shall pay to the division of insurance a tax on the gross amount of all premiums collected or contracted for on policies or contracts of insurance covering property or risks in this state during the previous calendar year, after deducting from such gross amount the amount received as reinsurance premiums on business in this state, and the amount refunded under credit life and credit accident and health insurance policies on account of termination of insurance prior to the maturity date of the indebtedness, and, in the case of companies other than life, the amounts paid to policyholders as return premiums, which shall include dividends or unabsorbed premiums or premium deposits returned or credited to policyholders.

(b) (I) The rate of tax shall be as follows:

(A) For companies not exempted or charged a different rate of tax by another provision of this section, the rate of tax on the gross amount shall be:

1996	2.20%
1997	2.15%
1998	2.10%
2000 and thereafter	2.00%

(B) For companies maintaining a home office or a regional home office in this state, the rate of tax on the gross amount shall be one percent.

(II) (A) For purposes of this paragraph (b), any office in this state shall be deemed a company's home or regional home office if such office performs substantially the following functions for the company in each state in which the company is licensed or in three or more of such states: Actuarial, medical, legal, approval or rejection of applications, issuance of policies, information and service, advertising and publications, public relations, hiring, testing, and training of sales and service forces.

(B) Any company desiring to qualify an office in this state as a home or regional home office shall make application for qualification to the commissioner on forms prescribed by the commissioner and shall submit proof that it is operating a home or a regional home office in this state. Applications for companies that were not approved in the immediate preceding year shall be received by the commissioner by December 31 of the year immediately preceding the year for which the application for qualification is being made. Applications for companies that were approved in the immediate preceding year shall be received by the commissioner by March 1 of the year for which qualification is being made. Applications for companies that were approved in the immediate preceding year received through March 31 shall pay a late charge of one hundred dollars per day for each day after March 1 that any such application is received by the commissioner. Applications received after March 31 shall be denied. The provisions of subsection (2) of this section shall not apply to companies maintaining a home office or regional home office in this state.

(III) The commissioner may consider for approval applications of companies that maintain significant direct insurance operations in Colorado and perform operational functions, for a line or lines of business written, substantially equivalent to those enumerated in subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (b).

(c) The taxes prescribed in paragraph (b) of this subsection (1) shall constitute all taxes collectible under the laws of this state against any such insurance companies, and no other occupation tax or other taxes shall be levied or collected from any insurance company by any county, city, or town within this state; but this title (except article 15) and article 14 of title 24, C.R.S., shall not be construed to prohibit the levy and collection of state, county, school, and municipal taxes upon the real and personal property of such companies, nor shall it include or prohibit the levy and collection of a tax to be paid on net workers' compensation premiums, as provided under the "Colorado Medical Disaster Insurance Fund Act", part 3 of article 46 of title 8, C.R.S.

(d) (I) All fraternal and benevolent associations organized under the laws of this state and doing business in this state shall be exempt from the provisions of this section.

(II) Mutual protective associations writing crop hail insurance only and operating on an advance premium basis shall be exempt from the taxes provided by this section on that portion of the premium designated to the loss fund.

(III) There shall be no tax under this section in the case of any policy issued prior to 1959 by a domestic insurance company organized under the laws of this state, maintaining its principal place of business in this state, and having thirty percent or more of its assets invested in bonds or warrants of this state or of any county, city, town, or district of this state, and other property within this state in which such company is permitted by law to invest its funds, and the premium of which policy was fixed and is contractually binding upon the company.

(IV) Except to the extent provided in subsection (2) of this section, the tax imposed by this section shall not apply to premiums collected or contracted for after December 31, 1968, on policies or contracts issued in connection with a pension, profit sharing, or annuity plan established by an employer for employees if contributions by such employer thereunder are deductible by such employer in determining such employer's net income as defined in section 39-22-304, C.R.S., and shall not apply to premiums collected or contracted for after December 31, 1968, on policies or contracts purchased for an employee by an employer if such employer is exempt under section 39-22-112, C.R.S., from the tax imposed by article 22 of title 39, C.R.S., or is a state, a political subdivision of a state, or an agency or instrumentality of a state or political subdivision of a state. Except to the extent provided in subsection (2) of this section, the tax imposed by this section shall not apply to annuity considerations collected or contracted for after December 31, 1976.

(e) The taxes provided for in this section shall be due and payable on the first day of March in each year. Any company failing or refusing to render such statement and information, or to pay taxes as specified in this section, for more than thirty days after the time specified, shall be liable to a penalty of up to one hundred dollars for each additional day of delinquency, to be assessed by the commissioner. If the tax paid is less than the full amount prescribed by this section, interest at the rate of one percent per month or fraction thereof on the unpaid amount shall be charged from the date on which payment was due to the date on which full payment is made, and a penalty of up to twenty-five percent of the unpaid amount may be assessed by the commissioner. The commissioner may suspend the certificate of authority of a delinquent company until such taxes and penalty, should any penalty be imposed, are fully paid.

(f) In computing assets for the purpose of this section, the investments of any such company in the bonds, notes, or other obligations of the United States of America, or any instrumentality of the United States, the obligations of which are guaranteed by the United States, and deferred or uncollected insurance premiums and annuity considerations shall first be deducted. Any company claiming entitlement to any reduced rate provided in this section shall present such evidence in justification of its claim as may be required by the commissioner.

(g) For the purpose of obtaining the exemption provided in paragraph (d) (III) of this subsection (1), the term "other property within this state" means: Real estate and tangible personal property within this state; first mortgages upon real estate within this state; stocks or bonds of corporations organized under the laws of this state; deposits with banks, trust companies, savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, or financial institutions domiciled within this state; stocks or bonds of foreign or alien corporations which on the date of purchase of such stocks or bonds have fifty percent or more of their assets invested in this state; and accounts of agents who are residents of this state.

(2) When, by the laws of any other state, any taxes and fees in the aggregate, fines, penalties, deposits of money or securities or other obligations, prohibitions, or requirements are imposed upon insurers organized under any law of this state and transacting business in such other state, or upon the agents of such insurer, greater in aggregate amount than those imposed upon similar insurers by the laws of this state, or when the laws of any other state require insurers of this state to deposit money or security for the benefit or protection of citizens of such other state, or when the laws or officers of any other state prohibit insurers of this state from transacting business therein without a special examination of the insurers or a computation of their liabilities by the officers of that state, the same taxes and fees in the aggregate, fines, penalties, deposits, examinations, obligations, and requirements may be imposed by the commissioner upon all insurers doing business in this state that are incorporated or organized under the laws of such other state and upon their agents. For the purpose of this section, an alien insurer may be deemed to be domiciled in a state designated by it wherein it has established its principal office or agency in the United States or maintains the largest amount of its assets. If no such office or agency is established, its domicile is the country under laws of which it is formed.

(3) (a) Anything in subsection (1) of this section to the contrary notwithstanding, any insurance company doing business in this state which was liable for payment of more than five thousand dollars in taxes, as provided in this section, during the preceding calendar year shall, on and after January 1, 1971, pay quarterly estimates of such taxes as provided in paragraphs (b) to (d) of this subsection (3).

(b) Such estimated taxes shall become due and payable on the last day of the month following the close of any calendar quarter of the year, except for the fourth quarter which shall be due March 1 and shall include adjustments for the preceding calendar year. Any company failing or refusing to pay such estimated taxes for more than thirty days after the time specified shall be liable to a penalty of up to one hundred dollars for each additional day of delinquency, to be assessed by the commissioner. Failure of a company to make quarterly payments, if required, each payment to be of at least one-fourth of either the total tax paid during the preceding calendar year or eighty percent of the actual quarterly tax for the current calendar year, whichever is greater, shall be considered and treated the same as a failure or refusal to pay the estimated taxes and shall subject the company to the penalties provided in this paragraph (b). The amount of estimated taxes and the penalties collected shall be paid to the division of insurance; and the commissioner may suspend the certificate of authority of such delinquent company until such estimated taxes and penalty, should any penalty be imposed, are fully paid.

(c) Estimated taxes paid pursuant to this subsection (3) shall be based on the estimated amount of taxable premiums during the preceding calendar quarter. Except for the first calendar quarter of any year, calendar quarter estimates of taxes may include adjustments for any previous calendar quarter estimates of taxes, and estimated taxes shall be paid on the basis of such adjusted estimates.

(d) Adjustments in payments of estimated taxes for any calendar year shall be made at the time of the filing of the annual statement required under section 10-3-208 and the payment of taxes required by this section. If a company claims a refund, it shall file for such refund at the time of filing such annual statement, and, if the commissioner claims a deficiency, he shall notify the deficient company thereof.

(4) All taxes, penalties, and fines collected by the division of insurance under the provisions of this section shall be transmitted to the department of the treasury and credited to the general fund; except that such amounts appropriated by the general assembly to the division of insurance cash fund, created in section 10-1-103 (3), not to exceed a maximum of five percent of all taxes collected under this section, shall be transmitted to the state treasurer and deposited in the division of insurance cash fund.

(5) For the purpose of auditing a company's tax statement, the commissioner or the commissioner's designee has the power to examine any books, papers, records, agreements, or memoranda bearing upon the matters required to be included in the tax statement. Such books, papers, records, agreements, or memoranda shall be made available upon request to the commissioner's office.

ANNOTATION

The primary object and purpose of this section is to regulate insurance companies and the insurance business in the state. It is a regulation or supervision tax, and the method of arriving at the amount, or because of its operation the act produces an excess which is required to be turned in to the general fund, does not affect its validity or render it an act for revenue. French v. People, 6 Colo. App. 311, 40 P. 463 (1895); Colo. Nat'l Life Assurance Co. v. Clayton, 54 Colo. 256, 130 P. 330 (1913).

The intent is to create a fund for this purpose and for the maintenance of the insurance department. Colo. Nat'l Life Assurance Co. v. Clayton, 54 Colo. 256, 130 P. 330 (1913).

Company is liable for tax on premium fixed in policy. It appears quite clearly that the plain intent of this section is that the company should be liable to pay the tax on the premium fixed in the policy, for that is the premium contracted for in the policy for each and every year until it matures. Were it not so intended certainly an exemption from liability on account of dividends would have been provided for in the statute. Cochrane v. Nat'l Life Ins. Co., 77 Colo. 243, 235 P. 569 (1925); Prudential Ins. Co. v. Kavanaugh, 125 Colo. 93, 240 P.2d 508 (1952).

Dividends should be considered as premiums collected or contracted for during the year, and the company is liable for the tax thereon. Cochrane v. Nat'l Life Ins. Co., 77 Colo. 243, 235 P. 569 (1925).

But not to any subsequent divisible surplus. The tax provided for by this section should be applied solely on the premium contracted for in the policy, and not to any subsequent divisible surplus made applicable to the policyholder in the form of a dividend when such dividend was used to purchase paid-up additional insurance. Prudential Ins. Co. v. Kavanaugh, 125 Colo. 93, 240 P.2d 508 (1952).

The state is not bound by an erroneous interpretation of a taxing statute such as this section by one of its officers or agents. Beery v. Am. Liberty Ins. Co., 150 Colo. 499, 375 P.2d 93 (1962).

The obvious reason for subparagraph (III) of subsection (1)(d) is to encourage insurance companies to invest their assets in Colorado. Beery v. Am. Liberty Ins. Co., 150 Colo. 499, 375 P.2d 93 (1962).

The only bonds to be included under this paragraph are bonds of the state of Colorado or any of its counties, cities, towns, or districts. Beery v. Am. Liberty Ins. Co., 150 Colo. 499, 375 P.2d 93 (1962).

Not bonds of the United States or of other states. All bonds except so called "Colorado" bonds in effect having been specifically excluded by this section, bonds of the United States, or of any of the other 49 states for that matter, are not "other property within this state". Beery v. Am. Liberty Ins. Co., 150 Colo. 499, 375 P.2d 93 (1962).

Subsection (1)(c) held unconstitutional as applied to Denver, therefore must be viewed as to be limited to counties and statutory cities and towns. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co. v. Temple, 176 Colo. 537, 491 P.2d 1371 (1971).

Denver has enacted a sales and use tax. The exemption granted in subsection (1)(c) has been superseded within Denver by the enactment of local sales and use taxes. Security Life & Accident Co. v. Temple, 177 Colo. 14, 492 P.2d 63 (1972).

Insurance companies do not fall within the classifications of the entities exempted under the sales and use tax. Security Life & Accident Co. v. Heckers, 177 Colo. 455, 495 P.2d 225 (1972).

Taxation is the rule and exemption therefrom the exception. Security Life & Accident Co. v. Heckers, 177 Colo. 455, 495 P.2d 225 (1972).

The burden is on the taxpayer who claims an exemption to clearly establish the right to such exemption. Security Life & Accident Co. v. Heckers, 177 Colo. 455, 495 P.2d 225 (1972).

Premiums under medical disaster insurance fund act subject to taxation. The payment of the tax on premiums collected under this section is not to be interpreted as exempting the tax on premiums collected under the medical disaster insurance fund act by those insurance companies which write workmen's compensation insurance. Security Life & Accident Co. v. Heckers, 177 Colo. 455, 495 P.2d 225 (1972).

This does not indicate exemption from sales and use tax. This section, by expressly subjecting insurance companies to the special premium tax under the medical disaster insurance fund act, does not show an intent on the part of the general assembly to exempt insurance companies from the sales and use tax. Security Life & Accident Co. v. Heckers, 177 Colo. 455, 495 P.2d 225 (1972).

Subparagraph (I) of subsection (1)(d) exempts fraternal organization from taxation. The general assembly imposes a tax upon gross premium income of insurance companies. Fraternal and benevolent corporations defined as those which have a lodge system with a ritualistic form of work and representative form of government are exempted. It has clearly defined what is meant by "lodge system" and "representative government". Since the reorganization, Homesteaders has not had a lodge system; it has not had a representative form of government; nor has it performed any ritualistic work. These are requirements essential to a status that would exempt it from the tax under discussion. Beery v. Homesteaders Life Co., 146 Colo. 218, 361 P.2d 127 (1961).

Once it becomes mutual life insurance company, it loses exemption. Where a fraternal benefit society has reorganized and becomes a mutual life insurance company, has abandoned its lodge system and ritualistic work, and discontinued its representative form of government, it is obligated to pay taxes on the gross premiums received by it following reorganization on the old certificates issued as a fraternal benefit society. Beery v. Homesteaders Life Co., 146 Colo. 218, 361 P.2d 127 (1961).

10-3-210. Deposit and safekeeping of securities. (1) (a) The commissioner shall give receipts for all securities deposited with the commissioner, as required or permitted by law, to the company depositing them.

(b) If the company depositing securities in accordance with paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) is adjudged insolvent, such deposit shall be released only upon the entry of an order of a court acting in accordance with the provisions of part 5 of this article. If a company that has not been adjudged insolvent elects to dissolve, the commissioner may release securities under joint control upon a showing by the insurance company satisfactory to the commissioner that all debts, obligations, and liabilities of the insurance company have been paid and discharged, or adequate provisions for payment and discharge have been made, and upon return of the company's certificate of authority to the commissioner.

(d) If the company depositing securities in accordance with paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) remains solvent, the commissioner shall permit such company, or its assigns, to:

(I) Collect and receive the interest and dividends on deposited securities; and

(II) Withdraw any deposited securities if the company simultaneously deposits other securities to replace those withdrawn.

(e) The provisions of this subsection (1) shall not apply to securities subject to part 12 of this article.

(2) (a) (I) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the securities qualified for deposit under this section may be deposited as provided in part 12 of this article with a clearing corporation or held in the federal reserve book-entry system.

(II) Securities deposited with a clearing corporation or held in the federal reserve book-entry system and used to meet the deposit requirements set forth in this section shall be under the control of the commissioner and shall not be withdrawn by the company without the approval of the commissioner.

(b) The commissioner may prescribe or approve reasonable arrangements and safeguards under which a solvent company may sell a particular deposited security if the company:

(I) Immediately reinvests the proceeds of the sale in other securities eligible for deposit under this article; and

(II) Deposits other securities to replace those securities that were sold.

(c) Any owner, nominee owner, depository, or custodian of securities held in accordance with paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) shall not sell, claim against, or otherwise dispose of said securities without written permission of the commissioner.

(d) Any company holding securities in accordance with paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) shall provide to the commissioner evidence issued by its custodian or member bank through which such company has deposited such securities in a clearing corporation or through which such securities are held in the federal reserve book-entry system, respectively, in order to establish that the securities are actually recorded in an account in the name of the custodian or other direct participant or member bank and that the records of the custodian, other participant, or member bank reflect that such securities are held subject to the order of the commissioner.

(e) If the company depositing securities in accordance with paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) remains solvent, the commissioner shall permit such company, or its assigns, to:

(I) Collect and receive the interest and dividends on those deposited securities; and

(II) Withdraw any deposited securities if the company simultaneously deposits other securities to replace those withdrawn.

(f) If the company depositing securities in accordance with paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) is adjudged insolvent, such deposit shall be released only upon the entry of an order of a court acting in accordance with the provisions of part 5 of this article. If a company that has not been adjudged insolvent elects to dissolve, the commissioner may release securities under joint control upon a showing satisfactory to the commissioner that all debts, obligations, and liabilities of the insurance company have been paid and discharged, or adequate provisions for payment and discharge have been made, and upon return of the company's certificate of authority to the commissioner.

(g) (I) The commissioner may designate any solvent national bank, state bank, or trust company located in the city and county of Denver as the commissioner's depository for receiving and holding as custodian any deposit of securities in accordance with paragraph (a) of this subsection (2).

(II) Any deposit received and held pursuant to this subsection (2) shall be received and held at the expense of the company.

ANNOTATION

Securities deposited by an insurance company to protect its policyholders cannot be surrendered until the last of the policyholders is satisfied in full, and the fact that the policies have been reinsured and that the company holds sufficient funds to secure all outstanding policies, cannot avoid this conclusion. Cochrane v. Pacific States Life Ins. Co., 93 Colo. 462, 27 P.2d 196 (1933).

10-3-211. Deposit only admitted assets. (1) Deposits made with the commissioner as permitted or required by law shall be only those admitted assets of the company that are securities eligible for the purpose of a deposit, as provided in section 10-3-235 (1) or (2). The company may deposit, withdraw, exchange, or substitute any security at any time if the total amount of securities remaining on deposit is no less than required by law.

(2) When a domestic insurance company reinsures all of its business in another company, the securities deposited by the reinsured company with the commissioner, subject to any existing liens against and restrictions upon them, may be assigned or transferred to the reinsuring company, and the latter company shall thereupon acquire all the rights, title, and interest of the reinsured company in and to such securities and shall be entitled to all the rights, benefits, and privileges of the reinsured company pertaining thereto. If a domestic company, having securities on deposit with the commissioner, reinsures all of its business, such securities may only be withdrawn, except for the purpose of exchange or substitution, upon a showing satisfactory to the commissioner that all debts, obligations, and liabilities of the insurance company have been paid and discharged, or adequate provisions for payment and discharge have been made, and upon return of the company's certificate of authority to the commissioner.

10-3-212. Insolvency or impairment of stock insurance company. A stock insurance company is deemed insolvent when its admitted assets are less than all of its liabilities, excluding from such liabilities the aggregate amount of its outstanding capital stock, and is deemed impaired when its admitted assets are less than its liabilities, including as a liability the aggregate amount of its outstanding capital stock, or when its surplus is less than the minimum requirements of section 10-3-201.

10-3-213. Investments eligible as admitted assets. (1) Domestic insurance companies may invest their funds in the categories of assets described in sections 10-3-215 to 10-3-230 and 10-3-242. Every such investment shall be an admitted asset of the company; except that, if the section describing a category of asset contains a quantitative limitation, an investment in that category of asset shall be an admitted asset under that section to the extent that it does not exceed such limitation. Any such limitation shall apply only with respect to the category of assets described in that section and shall not constitute a general prohibition and shall not be applicable to any other section. Except as provided in section 10-3-237, any investment, or part thereof, that does not qualify under any of said sections shall not be an admitted asset under the provisions of this part 2. Except as specifically provided in this title (except article 15) and article 14 of title 24, C.R.S., a domestic insurance company shall not be prohibited from acquiring or holding an asset that is not an admitted asset, and such company may lend, pledge, sell, transfer, assign, hypothecate, dispose of, or exchange any asset acquired by it.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, an insurance company or other regulated entity to whom this section applies shall be required reasonably to diversify its investments made pursuant to sections 10-3-215 to 10-3-230 and 10-3-242 as to type and issue, and to maintain a sufficient degree of liquidity based on the nature of the business transacted. The commissioner may promulgate such reasonable rules and regulations as are necessary to carry out the provisions of this subsection (2), taking into consideration the standards of the national association of insurance commissioners. The commissioner may require an insurer or other regulated entity to show compliance by demonstrating that its investments are not overly concentrated in any one area, including without limitation the areas of duration, industry, issuer, or geographic location.

10-3-214. Quantitative investment limitations - manner of applying. In applying the investment limitations set forth in this part 2, which are expressed as percentages of a company's admitted assets, there shall be used as a base the total of all assets of the company that would be admitted under this title (except article 15) and article 14 of title 24, C.R.S., without regard to such limitations and without regard to any condition or restriction set forth in section 10-3-237 (2), and asset values will be those values determined at the current annual statement date or, in case of any statement or examination as of a date other than an annual statement date, those values determined at such other date. In applying any investment limitation set forth in this part 2, which is expressed as a percentage of a company's surplus, the amount of the company's surplus shall be that determined at the current annual statement date or, in the case of any statement or examination as of a date other than an annual statement date, the amount determined at such other date.

10-3-215. Bonds and other evidences of indebtedness. (1) Domestic insurance companies may invest in lawfully issued interest-bearing bonds, including bonds which provide for imputed interest payable at maturity, revenue bonds, and debentures, and other evidences of indebtedness:

(a) Of the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof, or of any state, territory, district, or political subdivision of the United States;

(b) Guaranteed or insured as to the payment of principal and interest by the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof, or by any state, territory, district, or political subdivision of the United States;

(c) Of counties, districts, townships, municipalities, and political subdivisions within the states, territories, and districts of the United States; except that investment in special improvement district obligations shall be limited to those which have received a designation or rating equivalent to or better than those specified in subsection (2) (b) of this section or, if not so designated or rated, have a credit enhancement approved by the commissioner;

(d) Of the Dominion of Canada and provinces and districts thereof and of counties, districts, townships, municipalities, and political subdivisions thereof, or guaranteed or insured as to the payment of principal and interest by the dominion of Canada or by any province or district thereof;

(e) Of solvent institutions created under the laws of the United States or of any state, territory, or district thereof, or of the dominion of Canada or any province thereof, which institutions are not referenced in paragraph (a), (b), (c), or (d) of this subsection (1) and which are not in default in the payment of interest on any of their bonds at the time the investment is made; but the aggregate value of all bonds and other evidences of indebtedness of any one such institution which may be admitted assets under this section shall not exceed three percent of the domestic insurance company's admitted assets, except as to those bonds and other evidences of indebtedness of insurance companies admitted to do business in any state of the United States or in the District of Columbia, for coinsurance or reinsurance purposes, in which case they shall not exceed the greater of three percent of the domestic insurance company's admitted assets or five percent of the debtor insurance company's admitted assets, or except as may be otherwise authorized under section 10-3-802;

(f) Of farm credit banks and banks for cooperatives, or other similar corporations organized under the laws of the United States;

(g) Repealed.

(h) Issued by, or guaranteed or insured as to the payment of principal and interest by, any foreign government other than those listed in paragraph (d) of this subsection (1); except that the aggregate value of all such bonds and other evidences of indebtedness which may be admitted assets pursuant to this paragraph (h) and paragraph (i) of this subsection (1) shall not exceed twenty percent of the domestic insurance company's admitted assets, and except that the aggregate amount of foreign investments that may be admitted assets pursuant to this paragraph (h) and to paragraph (i) of this subsection (1) in a single foreign jurisdiction shall not exceed:

(I) Ten percent of its admitted assets as to a foreign jurisdiction that has a sovereign debt rating from a nationally recognized statistical rating organization recognized by the securities valuation office of the national association of insurance commissioners equivalent to securities valuation office rating 1 in the then current purposes and procedures manual of the securities valuation office; or

(i) Of solvent foreign institutions other than those specified in paragraphs (e) and (j) of this subsection (1) which are not in default in the payment of interest on any of their bonds at the time the investment is made; except that the aggregate value of all such bonds and other evidences of indebtedness which may be admitted assets pursuant to this paragraph (i) and paragraph (h) of this subsection (1) shall not exceed twenty percent of the domestic insurance company's admitted assets, and except that the aggregate amount of foreign investments that may be admitted assets pursuant to this paragraph (i) and to paragraph (h) of this subsection (1) in a single foreign jurisdiction shall not exceed:

(I) Ten percent of its admitted assets as to a foreign jurisdiction that has a sovereign debt rating from a nationally recognized statistical rating organization recognized by the securities valuation office of the national association of insurance commissioners equivalent to securities valuation office rating 1 in the then current purposes and procedures manual of the securities valuation office; or

(j) Issued by, or guaranteed or insured as to the payment of principal and interest by, the international bank for reconstruction and development, the inter-American development bank, the African development bank, or the Asian development bank; but the aggregate value of all bonds and other evidences of indebtedness which may be admitted assets pursuant to this paragraph (j) shall not exceed five percent of the domestic insurance company's admitted assets.

(2) Domestic insurance companies may invest in mortgage-backed securities, including, without limitation, collateralized mortgage obligations and other obligations for the payment of money secured by participation certificates or loans secured, directly or indirectly, by real estate mortgages or deeds of trust if, at the time the investment is made, the entity issuing the obligation is not in default in the payment of interest on the obligation and:

(a) The obligation or each participation certificate or loan is fully guaranteed or insured as to principal and interest by the United States or by any state, territory, or district thereof, or by any agency, instrumentality, or political subdivision of one or more of the foregoing; but the aggregate value of any one issue of such obligations which may be admitted assets pursuant to this paragraph (a) shall not exceed five percent of the domestic insurance company's admitted assets; or

(b) The obligations have received a "1" or "2" quality designation by the securities valuation office of the national association of insurance commissioners as set forth in its most recently published valuations of securities manual or are rated investment grade in Standard & Poor's (at least BBB-) or Moody's (at least Baa3) bond guides, or have received comparable designations or ratings in the event the method of presenting such designations or ratings later changes or such designations or ratings are provided by successor entities, or have received comparable investment grade designations or ratings by any similar organization approved by the commissioner; but the aggregate value of any one issue of such obligations which may be admitted assets pursuant to this paragraph (b) shall not exceed three percent of the domestic insurance company's admitted assets.

L. 2000: (1)(h) and (1)(i) amended, p. 1729, § 2, effective August 15.

10-3-215.5. Investments in medium- and lower-grade obligations. (1) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Aggregate amount of medium-grade and lower-grade obligations" means the aggregate statutory statement value of medium-grade and lower-grade obligations.

(b) "Lower-grade obligation" means an obligation rated four, five, or six by the securities valuation office of the national association of insurance commissioners or by any successor entity.

(c) "Medium-grade obligation" means an obligation rated three by the securities valuation office of the national association of insurance commissioners or by any successor entity.

(d) "Obligation" means a bond or other type of evidence of indebtedness referred to in section 10-3-215.

(2) Without the written approval of the commissioner, no domestic insurance company shall acquire, directly or indirectly, any medium-grade or lower-grade obligation of any institution if, at the time of acquisition, after giving effect to any such acquisition:

(a) The aggregate amount of all medium-grade and lower-grade domestic and foreign obligations then held by the domestic insurance company would exceed twenty percent of its admitted assets with the aggregate amount of such foreign obligations being no more than ten percent of its admitted assets; or

(b) The aggregate amount of all lower-grade domestic and foreign obligations then held by the domestic insurance company would exceed ten percent of its admitted assets with the aggregate amount of such foreign obligations being no more than five percent of its admitted assets; or

(c) The aggregate amount of all domestic and foreign obligations held by the domestic insurance company which were rated five or six by the securities valuation office of the national association of insurance commissioners or by any successor entity would exceed three percent of its admitted assets with the aggregate amount of such foreign obligations being no more than one and one-half percent of its admitted assets; or

(d) The aggregate amount of all domestic and foreign obligations held by the domestic insurance company which were rated six by the securities valuation office of the national association of insurance commissioners or by any successor entity would exceed one percent of its admitted assets with the aggregate amount of such foreign obligations being no more than one-half percent of its admitted assets.

(3) Attaining or exceeding the limit of any one of the categories listed in paragraphs (a) to (d) of subsection (2) of this section shall not preclude an insurer from acquiring obligations in other categories subject to the specific and multi-category limits.

(4) Without the written approval of the commissioner, no domestic insurance company shall acquire, directly or indirectly, any medium-grade or lower-grade obligation of any institution if, at the time of acquisition, after giving effect to any such acquisition:

(a) The aggregate amount of all medium-grade and lower-grade obligations issued, guaranteed, or insured by such institution and held by the domestic insurance company exceeds one percent of the domestic insurance company's admitted assets; or

(b) The aggregate amount of all lower-grade obligations issued, guaranteed, or insured by such institution and held by the domestic insurance company exceeds one-half of one percent of the domestic insurance company's admitted assets.

(5) Nothing contained in this section shall prohibit a domestic insurance company from acquiring any obligation which it has committed to acquire if such insurance company would have been permitted to acquire that obligation pursuant to this section on the date on which such insurance company committed to purchase that obligation; and nothing in this section shall require a domestic insurance company to sell or otherwise dispose of any investment.

(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a domestic insurance company may acquire, whether or not through a restructuring, an obligation of an institution in which such insurance company already has one or more obligations, if such obligation is acquired in order to protect an investment previously made in the obligations of such institution so long as all such acquired obligations of an institution do not exceed one-half of one percent of the insurer's admitted assets.

(7) Nothing contained in this section shall prohibit a domestic insurance company from acquiring an obligation as a result of a restructuring of a medium- or lower-grade obligation already held.

(8) The board of directors of any domestic insurance company which acquires or invests, directly or indirectly, more than two percent of its admitted assets in medium-grade and lower-grade obligations shall adopt a written plan for the acquisition of such investments. The plan, in addition to guidelines with respect to the quality of the issues invested in, shall contain appropriate diversification standards applied to all of its investments, which may include, for example, standards for issuer, industry, duration, liquidity, and geographic location.

(9) All obligations acquired by a domestic insurance company shall be rated in accordance with the standards of the securities valuation office or any successor entity.

(10) The provisions of this section shall take effect July 1, 1992, and shall apply to all investments in obligations acquired on or after that date.

10-3-216. First liens on real property. (1) Domestic insurance companies may invest in loans secured by first liens on real property, subject to the following provisions:

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (1), no such loan shall exceed eighty percent of the value of the real property; except that, in the case of property which is improved with a residential building (which for the purposes of this paragraph (a) shall be deemed to include a condominium unit) designed for occupancy by not more than four dwelling units, the loan shall not exceed ninety percent of the value of the real property. In all cases, value shall be evidenced by the written appraisal of a qualified real estate appraiser, who may be an employee of the company; except that, in the case of property to be qualified under this section by reason of producing oil, gas, or other minerals, the appraisal must be made by an engineer or geologist qualified in the relevant field, and, in the case of commercial properties of over one hundred thousand dollars in value, the appraiser must be a member of an institute of real estate appraisers, or its equivalent.

(b) If a company sells any real property which is an admitted asset at the time of sale, the company may upon such sale make a purchase money loan, secured by a lien upon the property up to one hundred percent of the appraised value thereof, but any excess of the amount of the loan over the admitted asset value of the property at the time of sale shall not be taken into account in valuing the loan. Profits on any such sale shall not be deemed surplus until realized in cash or equivalent.

(c) The land to which the first lien pertains shall be improved with permanent buildings, or be used for agriculture or pasture, or be income-producing land, including, but not limited to, land used for parking lots or for the production of oil, gas, or other minerals; but loans secured by first liens on land not meeting any of the foregoing requirements of this paragraph (c) may be admitted assets of the company under this part 2 in an amount not exceeding in the aggregate five percent of its admitted assets.

(d) Any improvements shall be insured against loss or damage by fire, for the benefit of the lending company, by some reliable fire insurance company for an amount not less than the unpaid balance of the obligation or the insurable value of the property, whichever is less.

(e) The company shall hold such documents as are necessary to evidence its ownership of such first liens. If, under the law of the state in which the real property is situated, it is necessary to the validity of the lien to record a mortgage or assignment thereof, the company shall record such mortgage or assignment in compliance with such law.

(f) The entire obligation secured by a first lien on real estate shall be owned by the company; except that the company may own such an obligation in common with other participants if, at the time of the company's investment, each participant is:

(I) A bank whose depositors are insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation;

(II) A savings and loan association whose members are insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation or any successor agency thereto;

(III) A trust for a pension or other benefit plan for employees qualified under section 401 of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", as amended;

(IV) An insurance company organized in any state of the United States, the District of Columbia, or any province of Canada; or

(V) A corporation or association owned wholly by one or more of the entities or one or more wholly owned subsidiaries of the entities specified in subparagraph (I), (II), or (IV) of this paragraph (f).

(g) The instrument evidencing the loan secured by a first lien on real property shall provide for annual or more frequent periodic payments of principal and interest, so as to amortize the obligation over a specific period of time, and shall require that repayment of principal commence on a date not later than five years after the date the loan is made. In the case of a loan secured by a lien on a leasehold estate, the fixed payments under the loan instrument shall be sufficient to repay the indebtedness within the unexpired term of the lease. As to all loans made on or after July 1, 1973, except those made pursuant to binding commitments made prior to such date, the instrument evidencing the loan secured by a first lien on real property shall provide for payment of interest, which interest may be at a variable rate, at regular intervals no less frequent than annual, commencing on a date not later than one year from the date the loan is made, and for repayment of principal as follows: In the case of a loan secured by a lien on a fee simple interest in real property, the instrument shall provide for repayment of principal at least as rapidly as would be required under a repayment schedule calling for repayment of the entire principal within thirty-five years after the date the loan is made or within the actual term of the loan if shorter than thirty-five years, and calling for payment in equal installments at regular intervals not less frequent than annually, commencing no later than five years from the date the loan is made; in the case of a loan secured by a lien on a leasehold estate, the instrument shall provide for repayment of principal at least as rapidly as would be required under a repayment schedule calling for repayment of the entire principal within thirty-five years from the date the loan is made, or within the unexpired term of the lease if such unexpired term is less than thirty-five years, or within the actual term of the loan if shorter than either thirty-five years or the unexpired term of the lease, and calling for payment in equal installments at regular intervals not less frequent than annually, commencing no later than five years from the date the loan is made.

(h) If before a loan is paid the value of the real property, including any improvements thereon, securing the loan depreciates, the loan may nevertheless be carried as an admitted asset, but not for an amount exceeding seventy-five percent of the current value of the real property.

(i) The maximum amount of a loan or loans made, directly or indirectly, to any one obligor which may be an admitted asset of a company under this section shall not exceed two percent of such company's admitted assets. If, on April 5, 1973, a company has outstanding a loan to any one obligor which, except for the provisions of this paragraph (i) would be admitted assets under this section, or a binding commitment for any such loan, any such loan outstanding on such date shall continue to be admitted assets under this section, and any such loan made on or after April 5, 1973, pursuant to any such binding commitment shall be admitted assets under this section.

(j) The aggregate amount of investments of a company which may be admitted assets under this section shall not exceed fifty percent of the company's admitted assets. If a company has outstanding investments which, in the aggregate, exceed fifty percent of the company's admitted assets on July 1, 1993, the company shall reduce the excess amount invested in first liens on real property at the rate of at least twenty percent of the July 1, 1993, excess each year for five years until the first liens on the real property portfolio do not exceed fifty percent of the company's admitted assets. If a fraternal benefit society has outstanding investments which, in the aggregate, exceed sixty percent of the society's admitted assets on July 1, 1993, the society shall reduce the excess amount invested in first liens on real property at the rate of at least twenty percent of the July 1, 1993, excess each year for five years until the first liens on the real property portfolio do not exceed sixty percent of the society's admitted assets. Thereafter, a fraternal benefit society shall, over a five-year period, further reduce its outstanding aggregate investments in first liens on real property to fifty percent of its admitted assets by twenty percent per year, unless an exemption is granted by the commissioner. Such exemption shall be based on an analysis of the financial condition of the fraternal society.

10-3-217. Federally guaranteed or insured real estate loans. Domestic insurance companies may invest in obligations for the payment of money secured by real estate mortgages or deeds of trust which are either guaranteed or insured by the United States, any state, territory, or district thereof, or by any agency, instrumentality, or political subdivision of one or more of the foregoing, if any such investment which is in excess of the value limitation set forth in section 10-3-216 (1) (a) is so insured or guaranteed.

10-3-218. Real estate for use in company's business. Domestic insurance companies may invest in real estate for the accommodation of the company's business, but the aggregate investments by a company that may be admitted assets under this section shall not exceed fifteen percent of the company's admitted assets unless the commissioner has given prior approval of a greater aggregate investment. Any space in the company's home office building that is not required for its use may be rented to others. The commissioner may approve investments under this section which in the aggregate will not exceed twenty percent of the company's admitted assets, upon a finding that such investments do not render the company's operation hazardous, or its condition unsound, to the public or its policyholders.

10-3-219. Real estate acquired in satisfaction of indebtedness. (1) The following shall be admitted assets:

(a) Such real estate as has been mortgaged to the company in good faith, by way of security for loans or for money due it;

(b) Such real estate as is conveyed to the company in good faith in satisfaction of debts previously contracted in the course of its business;

(c) Such real estate as is purchased at sales under execution issued on judgments and decrees based upon debts due, or at foreclosure sales under mortgages or deeds of trust owned or held by the company or obtained by redemption as junior judgment creditor or mortgagee.

10-3-220. Real estate for production of income. (1) A domestic insurance company may invest in real estate for the production of income, subject to the following provisions:

(a) The aggregate investments by a company which may be admitted assets under this section shall not exceed ten percent of the company's admitted assets.

(b) The investment in any single parcel of real estate which may be an admitted asset under this section shall not exceed five percent of the company's admitted assets.

(c) Real estate qualifying as an admitted asset under section 10-3-218 or 10-3-219 may, at the option of the company, be an admitted asset under this section if such real estate is otherwise eligible under the provisions of this section.

(2) "Real estate", as used in this section, means lands held in fee simple or under leasehold estates, and improvements thereon or to be placed thereon, consisting only of store or other business buildings, or of dwellings, apartment houses, tenements, or other housing accommodations.

10-3-225. Transportation equipment interests. Domestic insurance companies may invest in equipment trust obligations or certificates which are adequately secured, or in other adequately secured instruments evidencing an interest in transportation equipment wholly or in part within the United States, and the right to receive determined portions of rental, purchase, or other fixed obligatory payments for the use or purchase of such transportation equipment; but the aggregate investments by a company which may be admitted assets under this section shall not exceed ten percent of the company's admitted assets, and the investment in the obligations or certificates of or in relation to any one transportation company, which may be admitted assets under this section, shall not exceed two percent of the investing company's admitted assets.

10-3-226. Stocks. (1) Domestic insurance companies may invest in preferred and common stocks issued by any solvent corporation created under the laws of the United States or of any state of the United States, the District of Columbia, or of Canada or any province thereof, but the aggregate value of all such stocks which may be admitted assets under this section shall not exceed ten percent of the company's admitted assets. For the purpose of such limitation on aggregate value, a company may, if it so elects, determine the value of all its stocks which may be admitted assets under this section on the basis of the aggregate initial cost of the stocks in lieu of determining the value of all of such stocks as provided in section 10-3-214.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, a domestic fire, casualty, or multiple-line insurance company may invest an additional twenty-five percent of its admitted assets in preferred and common stocks of any corporation organized under the laws of the United States, any state, territory, or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, or the Dominion of Canada or any province thereof.

(3) All investments authorized by subsections (1) and (2) of this section are subject to the following restrictions and limitations at the time of investment:

(a) The corporation issuing such preferred stock shall meet the following qualifications:

(I) If the class of preferred stock is cumulative preferred, the corporation must not be in arrears as to its dividends, or, if the class of preferred stock is noncumulative preferred, the corporation must have paid full dividends on that class of preferred stock in each of the last three years, or, if that class of noncumulative preferred stock has been outstanding less than three years, the commissioner of insurance must have approved the purchase thereof.

(II) If there is a sinking fund for that class of preferred stock, the corporation's sinking fund payments shall be on a current basis.

(III) (Deleted by amendment, L. 81, p. 529, § 5, effective July 1, 1981.)

(b) The corporation issuing such common stock shall meet the following qualifications:

(I) The corporation shall have had net earnings available for dividends on its outstanding common stock in each of the three fiscal years next preceding the date of acquisition.

(II) The stock shall be registered on a national securities exchange or regularly traded on a national or regional basis.

(III) (Deleted by amendment, L. 81, p. 529, § 5, effective July 1, 1981.)

(c) If there is a rise in the market value of the aggregate stock investments of a domestic insurance company and if the current market value of the aggregate investments of such company in common and preferred stock exceeds fifty percent of the admitted assets of such company as valued on December 31 of any year, then such company shall, on or before March 1 of the following year, liquidate a portion of such investments so that the market value of such stock investments does not exceed fifty percent of the company's admitted assets.

(d) Investments in common stock in any one corporation, at the time of investment, shall not exceed two percent of the admitted assets of the investing insurance company, and, at the time of investment, an insurance company shall not purchase more than five percent of the outstanding shares of common stock of any one corporation.

10-3-227. Stock for purpose of reinsurance, consolidation, or merger. (1) Domestic insurance companies may invest in stock in any other insurance company authorized to do a similar business to that of the investing company, subject to the following provisions:

(a) No greater amount shall be applied to the acquisition of such stock than the investing company's capital and surplus in excess of the minimum required by law; except that, the commissioner may, by written order prior to such acquisition, permit the application of a greater amount thereto.

(b) A reinsurance, consolidation, or merger between the investing company and such other insurance company shall be effected within two years of the acquisition of such stock or within such extension of such period as may be granted by the commissioner.

10-3-228. Collateral loans. (1) Domestic insurance companies may invest in collateral loans secured by the pledge of any one or more investments allowed for collateral loans, as provided by nationally recognized insurance statutory accounting principles, subject to the following provisions:

(a) The collateral pledged shall be legally assignable and validly assigned to the lending company.

(b) As at date made, no such loan shall exceed in amount seventy-five percent of the value of the collateral pledged.

(c) At no time shall the admitted value of a collateral loan be in excess of the actual market value of the collateral pledged.

(d) If any of the collateral pledged and taken into account to qualify a loan as an admitted asset under this section is of a category which, if invested in directly, would be subject to a limitation expressed as a percentage of the investing company's admitted assets, then, for the purpose of such limitation, so much of the loan as is so qualified by such collateral will be deemed to be a direct investment in such category.

(e) No loan shall qualify as an admitted asset under this section unless limited to a term not exceeding five years or, if less, the maturity date, if any, of any of the collateral taken into account in qualifying the loan as an admitted asset under this section.

10-3-228.5. Securities lending - repurchase - reverse repurchase - dollar roll transactions. (1) For the purposes of this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Dollar roll transaction" means two simultaneous transactions with settlement dates no more than ninety-six days apart so that in one transaction an insurer sells to a business entity and in the other transaction the insurer is obligated to purchase, from the same business entity, substantially similar securities of the following types:

(I) Mortgage-backed securities issued, assumed, or guaranteed by the government national mortgage association, the federal national mortgage association, the federal home loan mortgage corporation, or their respective successors; and

(II) Other mortgage-backed securities referred to in section 106 of title I of the "Secondary Mortgage Market Enhancement Act of 1984", 15 U.S.C. sec. 77r-1, as amended.

(b) "Repurchase transaction" means a transaction in which an insurer purchases securities from a business entity that is obligated to repurchase the purchased securities or equivalent securities from the insurer at a specified price, either within a specified period of time or upon demand.

(c) "Reverse repurchase transaction" means a transaction in which an insurer sells securities to a business entity and is obligated to repurchase the sold securities or equivalent securities from the business entity at a specified price, either within a specified period of time or upon demand.

(d) "Securities lending transaction" means a transaction in which securities are loaned by an insurer to a business entity that is obligated to return the loaned securities or equivalent securities to the insurer, either within a specified period of time or upon demand.

(2) An insurer may engage in securities lending, repurchase, reverse repurchase, and dollar roll transactions as set forth in this section. The insurer shall enter into a written agreement for securities lending, repurchase, reverse repurchase, and dollar roll transactions. Such agreements shall require that each transaction terminate no more than one year from its inception.

(3) Cash received in a transaction under this section shall be invested in accordance with this article and in a manner that recognizes the liquidity needs of the transaction or is used by the insurer for its general corporate purposes.

(4) So long as the transaction remains outstanding, the insurer, or its agent or custodian, shall maintain as acceptable collateral received in a transaction under this section, either physically or through the book entry systems of the federal reserve, depository trust company, participants' trust company, or other securities depositories approved by the commissioner, any of the following:

(a) Possession of the acceptable collateral;

(b) A perfected security interest in the acceptable collateral; or

(c) In the case of a jurisdiction outside of the United States, title to, or rights of a secured creditor to, the acceptable collateral.

(5) The limitations of section 10-3-215 (1) (e) and section 10-3-215.5 shall not apply to the business entity counter-party exposure created by transactions under this section. An insurer shall not enter into a transaction under this section, other than a dollar roll transaction, if, as a result of and after giving effect to the transaction:

(a) The aggregate amount of securities then loaned, sold to, or purchased from any one business entity counter-party under this section would exceed five percent of its admitted assets; and in calculating the amount sold to or purchased from a business entity counter-party under repurchase or reverse repurchase transactions, effect may be given to netting provisions under a master written agreement; or

(b) The aggregate amount of all securities then loaned, sold to, or purchased from all business entities under this section would exceed forty percent of its admitted assets.

(6) The amount of collateral required for securities lending, repurchase, and reverse repurchase transactions is the amount required pursuant to the provisions of the purposes and procedures manual of the national association of insurance commissioners' securities valuation office or pursuant to a successor to such publication.

10-3-230. Additional investments. (1) Domestic insurance companies may invest in any additional investments, except items specifically defined as nonadmitted assets in this title (except article 15) and article 14 of title 24, C.R.S., without regard to any limitation, condition, restriction, or exclusion set forth in sections 10-3-215 to 10-3-229 and 10-3-242, and regardless of whether the same or a similar type of investment has been included in or omitted from any such section, subject to the following provisions:

(a) The total amount of indebtedness secured by a lien on any single parcel of real property is an admitted asset only to the extent that such indebtedness does not exceed the value limitation set forth in section 10-3-216 (1) (a).

(a.1) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection (1), indebtedness, subject to the provisions of section 10-3-216 (1) (h), is an admitted asset only to the extent that such indebtedness does not exceed ninety-five percent of the current value of the real property. The aggregate investment by a company which may be admitted assets under this paragraph (a.1) shall not exceed twenty percent of the limits allowable under paragraph (c) of this subsection (1).

(b) The amount of indebtedness secured by a pledge of any collateral shall be an admitted asset only to the extent that such indebtedness does not exceed the value limitation set forth in section 10-3-228 (1) (b).

(c) The aggregate investments by a company which may be admitted assets under this section shall not exceed the lesser of five percent of its admitted assets or fifty percent of the amount by which the sum of the par value of its outstanding capital stock, if any, and its surplus exceeds the sum of the minimum capital, if any, and the minimum surplus required of such company under the applicable provision of section 10-3-201.

(d) In no event shall the admitted asset value of investments in loans secured by first liens on real property exceed the value limitations as set forth in section 10-3-216 (1) (i) and (1) (j).

Editor's note: Section 52 of chapter 280, Session Laws of Colorado 2012, provides that the act amending the introductory portion to subsection (1) applies to offenses committed and applications submitted on or after July 1, 2012.

10-3-231. Valuation of investments. (1) (a) Subject to the provisions of paragraphs (b), (c), and (d) of this subsection (1), all obligations having a fixed term and rate may, if not in default as to principal or interest, be valued as follows: If purchased at par, at the par value; if purchased above or below par, on the basis of the purchase price adjusted so as to bring the value to par at maturity and so as to yield in the meantime the effective rate of interest at which the purchase was made.

(b) The purchase price shall in no case be taken at a higher figure than the actual market value at the time of purchase, plus brokerage charges paid in the acquisition of such obligations.

(c) No such obligation shall be carried at above the call price for the entire issue during any period within which the obligation may be so called, and premiums paid at purchase shall be amortized by the scientific method to the first call date at which the entire issue may be redeemed.

(d) Obligations subject to amortization under the published findings of the national association of insurance commissioners shall be carried at their amortized values. Obligations which do not qualify for amortization shall be reported at their market value or a book value based on an amortized computation, whichever is lower.

(2) (a) Common stocks shall be valued at their market value, as determined by customary method, or, at the option of the company, they may be carried at cost if cost is less than market value. If no publicly traded market quotation is available, the value of the stocks shall be based on the pro rata share of the issuing company's net worth as shown by its audited financial statement or, in the case of an insurance company, the pro rata share of its statutory net worth.

(b) Preferred stocks shall be valued in accordance with procedures promulgated annually by the valuations committee of the national association of insurance commissioners.

(3) Other property purchased by a company may be valued at not more than its cost plus the cost of capitalized additions and permanent improvements, less depreciation. Depreciation shall be computed under the straight line method or, at the option of the company, under any other method resulting in larger accumulated depreciation at any given time. Depreciation of any buildings shall be based upon an estimated useful life of not more than fifty years.

(4) Property acquired in satisfaction of a debt shall be valued at its fair market value or the amount of the debt, including capitalized taxes and expenses, whichever amount is less.

(5) Property originally acquired in satisfaction of a debt and subsequently transferred to qualification under section 10-3-220 or 10-3-230 shall be valued as provided in subsection (3) of this section, and its cost shall be deemed to be its value at time of transfer determined under subsection (4) of this section.

(6) To the extent investments are valued by the securities valuation office of the national association of insurance commissioners, all investments owned by domestic insurance companies shall be valued in accordance with the most recently published valuations of the securities valuation office. Other investments not valued by the securities valuation office shall be valued as otherwise is provided in this section, or, if not otherwise provided in this section, in accordance with procedures promulgated by the national association of insurance commissioners.

10-3-232. Liens for certain purposes permitted. For the purposes of section 10-3-216, the existence of any lien existing by law, for the payment of any bonds, indebtedness, or assessments of, or created by a levy of, any special improvement district, any tunnel district, any conservation district, any irrigation district, any other district or territory, any municipality or quasi-municipality, or any state in which any real estate is situated, or by the United States, shall not prevent mortgages, trust deeds, or other encumbrances upon such real estate, if otherwise first liens, from being admitted assets of domestic insurance companies, if the property securing such mortgage, deed of trust, or other encumbrance is not delinquent in the payment of any installment or interest upon any such bonds, indebtedness, or assessments at the time such real estate loan is made.

10-3-234. Approval and record of investments. (1) No investment, loan, or sale thereof shall, except as to loans on a life insurance company's policies or annuity and supplementary contracts, be made by any domestic insurance company:

(a) Without the advance approval of its board of directors or of a committee appointed by such board and charged with the duty of making such investments, loans, or sales or of an officer charged with such duty; or

(b) Unless the transaction is:

(I) Transacted in compliance with a written policy or plan approved by its board of directors prior to the transaction; and

(II) Ratified by such board or by a committee appointed by such board charged with the duty of reviewing such investments, loans, and sales at a meeting held not less than quarterly.

(2) A permanent written record of all such investments, loans, and sales shall be maintained by the company.

10-3-235. Certain admitted assets deemed securities for deposit purposes. (1) For purposes of the minimum capital or guaranty fund deposit required by section 10-3-201, the following admitted assets shall be deemed to be securities eligible for such deposit: Any asset qualified as an admitted asset under sections 10-3-215 to 10-3-217 and 10-3-225.

(2) For purposes of optional reserve deposits permitted by section 10-7-101 (3) or other deposits permitted but not required by this title (except article 15) and article 14 of title 24, C.R.S., the following admitted assets, in addition to those referred to in subsection (1) of this section, shall be deemed to be securities eligible for such deposits: Any asset qualified as an admitted asset under section 10-3-220 or 10-3-226 to 10-3-228, and any life insurance policy, to the extent of the company's interest in the cash value thereof.

(3) If a company deposits the stock of a wholly owned insurance subsidiary with the commissioner as an optional reserve deposit, the value of such stock for purposes of such deposit shall be reduced by the value of any cash or securities owned by the subsidiary and on deposit with the commissioner or with the duly authorized officer in any other jurisdiction as a deposit of the subsidiary required or permitted by law.

(4) For purposes of all deposits required or permitted by this title (except article 15) and article 14 of title 24, C.R.S., assets shall be valued at their fair market value; except that, for purposes of optional reserve deposits permitted by section 10-7-101 (3), or other deposits permitted but not required by said references, bonds and mortgages shall be valued at their current book values under the methods used in determining admitted asset values for annual statement purposes.

10-3-237. Assets acquired under prior law. (1) Notwithstanding any condition, restriction, or exclusion set forth in section 10-3-215 to 10-3-229, any asset held by a company on May 31, 1969, which met the requirements of the law in effect immediately prior to such date for an investment of the company's reserves, paid-up capital stock, and other liabilities shall be an admitted asset of the company, but, if any such asset is in a category for which a limitation expressed in terms of a percentage of admitted assets is prescribed in sections 10-3-216 (1) (c), 10-3-218, 10-3-220, 10-3-225, or 10-3-226, such asset shall be taken into account in determining whether any additional investment in such category made after May 31, 1969, may be an admitted asset under the section prescribing such limitation.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of this title (except article 15) and article 14 of title 24, C.R.S., any asset held by a company on May 31, 1969, that is not an admitted asset under section 10-1-102 (2) or subsection (1) of this section and that did not meet the requirements of the law in effect immediately prior to such date for an investment of the company's reserves, paid-up capital stock, and other liabilities but which, under such law, would have been taken into account as an asset in determining the surplus of the company shall be taken into account as an admitted asset at all times at which the company has aggregate admitted assets under section 10-1-102 (2) and subsection (1) of this section in an amount at least equal to the total of its reserves, paid-up capital stock, and all other liabilities.

(3) Notwithstanding any condition, restriction, or exclusion set forth in sections 10-3-215 (1) (e), 10-3-216 (1) (f), or 10-3-226, any asset held prior to July 1, 1975, or thereafter acquired by exercise of warrants or other rights which were held prior to that date which met or would have met the requirements of the law in effect immediately prior to July 1, 1975, for an investment of the company's reserves, paid-up stock, and other liabilities shall be an admitted asset of the company; but, if any such asset is in a category for which a limitation expressed in terms of a percentage of admitted assets is prescribed in such sections, such asset shall be taken into account in determining whether any additional investment in such category made after July 1, 1975, may be an admitted asset under the section prescribing such limitation.

(4) Notwithstanding any condition, restriction, or exclusion set forth in section 10-3-218, any asset held by a company on July 1, 1981, which met the requirements of the law in effect immediately prior to such date for an investment of the company qualified as an admitted asset under this part 2 shall remain an admitted asset; but such asset shall be taken into account in determining whether any additional investment made on or after July 1, 1981, may be an admitted asset under this part 2.

10-3-238. Refunds. Whenever it appears to the satisfaction of the commissioner that, because of some mistake of fact, error in calculation, or erroneous interpretation of a statute of this or any other state, any insurer or other person engaged in the business of insurance in this state has paid to the commissioner or to the state of Colorado, pursuant to any provision of this title (except article 15) and article 14 of title 24, C.R.S., any taxes, fees, or other charges in excess of the amount legally chargeable against said insurer or other person during the one-year period immediately preceding the discovery of such overpayment, the commissioner has the authority to refund to such insurer or other person the amount of such excess by applying the amount thereof toward the payment of taxes, fees, or other charges already due, or that may thereafter become due, from such insurer or other person until such excess has been fully refunded; or, at the commissioner's discretion, the commissioner may make a cash refund thereof.

Editor's note: Section 52 of chapter 280, Session Laws of Colorado 2012, provides that the act amending this section applies to offenses committed and applications submitted on or after July 1, 2012.

10-3-239. Subordinated indebtedness. Domestic insurance companies may borrow and thereby assume a liability for the repayment of a sum of money upon a written agreement that the loan or advance with interest shall be repaid only out of surplus of the company in excess of such minimum surplus as is stipulated in and by the agreement. The agreement shall first be submitted to and approved by the commissioner. Repayment of principal or payment of interest may be made only with the approval of the commissioner when he is satisfied that the financial condition of the company warrants such action, but such approval may not be withheld if the company has and submits satisfactory evidence of surplus of not less than the amount stipulated in the repayment of principal or interest clause of the agreement. No loan or advance made under the provisions of this section or interest accruing thereon shall form a part of the legal liabilities of the company until authorized for payment by the commissioner, but, until such authorization, all statements published by the company or filed with the commissioner shall show the amount thereof then remaining as a special surplus account. Nothing in this section shall be construed to mean that a company may not otherwise borrow money, but the amount so borrowed with accrued interest thereon shall be carried by the company as a liability.

10-3-240. Approval of investments. (1) Except for investments made pursuant to sections 10-3-802 and 10-7-402, no domestic insurance company may, directly or indirectly, invest more than two percent of the company's admitted assets in stocks, bonds, debentures, notes, or other securities of its affiliates, as defined in section 10-3-801, without the prior approval of the commissioner. This section shall apply only to investments made on or after July 1, 1975.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, the commissioner may, upon written notice, require a domestic insurance company to obtain his prior approval for all investments in its affiliates if, based on past transactions of the insurance company, he determines that such investments might render the company's operation hazardous, or its condition unsound, to the public or its policyholders.

(3) Any domestic insurance company proposing to make an investment subject to approval under subsection (1) or (2) of this section shall give written notice thereof to the commissioner. If the commissioner has not approved or disapproved such investment within thirty days after receipt of such notice, the investment shall be deemed approved at the end of such thirty-day period.

10-3-242. Money market funds. (1) For the purposes of this section, “money market fund” means an open-end, diversified management type of mutual fund, registered under the federal “Investment Company Act of 1940”, 15 U.S.C. 80a-1 et seq., as amended, objectives of which include the maintenance of a stable net asset value of a specified dollar amount per share and the shareholders of which may withdraw the value of their shares by check, telephone, or mail. Domestic insurance companies may invest in the shares of any one or more money market funds subject to the following limitations:

(a) Domestic insurance companies may invest in money market funds that, at the time the investment is made, are either listed or meet the eligibility conditions for listing on the U.S. direct obligations exempt list, U.S. direct obligations/full faith and credit exempt list, or class 1 list, in the “purposes and procedures manual” of the securities valuation office of the national association of insurance commissioners. Investments in the shares of any one money market fund qualifying under this paragraph (a) shall not exceed ten percent of the domestic insurance company’s total admitted assets.

(b) Investments in shares of any one money market fund not qualified under paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) shall not exceed five percent of the domestic insurance company’s total admitted assets. The aggregate value of all shares that may be admitted assets under this paragraph (b) shall not exceed ten percent of the domestic insurance company’s total admitted assets.

(c) At the time of an investment in a money market fund under this section, the aggregate value of a domestic insurer’s investment in such money market fund shall not exceed five percent of the shares of such money market fund.

10-3-243. Derivative transactions - definitions - restrictions. (1) For the purposes of this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) “Counter-party exposure amount” means:

(I) The net amount of credit risk attributable to a derivative instrument entered into with a business entity other than through a qualified exchange or qualified foreign exchange, or cleared through a qualified clearinghouse as an over-the-counter derivative instrument. The net amount of credit risk shall equal:

(A) The market value of the over-the-counter derivative instrument if the liquidation of the derivative instrument would result in a final cash payment to the insurer; or

(B) Zero if the liquidation of the derivative instrument would not result in a final cash payment to the insurer.

(II) If over-the-counter derivative instruments are entered into under a written master agreement that provides for netting of payments owed by the respective parties, and the domiciliary jurisdiction of the counter-party is either within the United States or within a foreign jurisdiction listed in the purposes and procedures manual of the national association of insurance commissioners’ securities valuation office as eligible for netting, the net amount of credit risk shall be the greater of zero or the net sum of:

(A) The market value of the over-the-counter derivative instruments entered into under the agreement, the liquidation of which would result in a final cash payment to the insurer; and

(B) The market value of the over-the-counter derivative instruments entered into under the agreement, the liquidation of which would result in a final cash payment by the insurer to the business entity.

(III) For open transactions, market value shall be determined at the end of the most recent quarter of the insurer’s fiscal year and shall be reduced by the market value of acceptable collateral held by the insurer or placed in escrow by one or both parties.

(b) (I) “Derivative instrument” means an agreement, option, instrument, or a series or combination thereof:

(A) To make or take delivery of, or assume or relinquish, a specified amount of one or more underlying interests or to make a cash settlement in lieu thereof; or

(B) That has a price, performance, value, or cash flow based primarily upon the actual or expected price, level, performance, value, or cash flow of one or more underlying interests.

(II) (A) "Derivative instrument" includes options, warrants used in a hedging transaction and not attached to another financial instrument, caps, floors, collars, swaps, forwards, and futures.

(B) "Derivative instrument" does not include investments that are otherwise permitted pursuant to this article, nor does "derivative instrument" include repurchase, reverse repurchase, dollar roll, securities lending, or similar transactions.

(c) "Hedging transaction" means a derivative transaction that is entered into and maintained to reduce or manage:

(I) The risk of a change in value, yield, price, cash flow, or quantity of assets or liabilities that an insurer has acquired or incurred or anticipates acquiring or incurring; or

(II) The currency exchange rate risk or the degree of exposure as to assets or liabilities that an insurer has acquired or incurred or anticipates acquiring or incurring.

(d) "Income-generation transaction" means a derivative transaction that is intended to generate income or enhance return.

(e) "Replication transaction" means a derivative transaction or combination of derivative transactions that is intended to replicate the investment in one or more assets that an insurer is authorized to acquire or sell under this title. A derivative transaction that is entered into as a hedging transaction shall not be considered a replication transaction.

(2) A domestic insurer may, directly or indirectly through an investment subsidiary, engage in derivative transactions under this section by:

(a) Using derivative instruments to engage in hedging transactions;

(b) Entering into the following types of income generation transactions if, as a result of and after giving effect to the transactions, the aggregate statement value of the fixed income or equity assets that are subject to call or that generate the cash flows for payments under the caps or floors, plus the face value of fixed income securities underlying derivative instruments subject to call, plus the amount of the purchase obligations under the puts, does not exceed ten percent of its admitted assets:

(I) Sales of covered call options on noncallable fixed income securities, callable fixed income securities if the option expires by its terms prior to the end of the noncallable period, or derivative instruments based on fixed income securities;

(II) Sales of covered call options on equity securities, if the insurer holds in its portfolio, or is able to immediately acquire through the exercise of options, warrants, or conversion rights already owned, the equity securities subject to call during the complete term of the call option sold;

(III) Sales of covered puts on investments that the insurer is permitted to acquire under this section, if the insurer has placed into escrow, or entered into a custodial agreement segregating, cash or cash equivalents with a market value equal to the amount of its purchase obligations under the put during the complete term of the put option sold; or

(IV) Sales of covered caps or floors, if the insurer holds in its portfolio the investments generating the cash flow to make the required payments under the caps or floors during the complete term that the cap or floor is outstanding.

(c) An insurer may use derivative instruments for replication transactions if any asset being replicated is subject to all the provisions and limitations on the making thereof specified in this title with respect to investments by the insurer as if the transaction constituted a direct investment by the insurer in the replicated asset.

(d) An insurer shall include all counter-party exposure amounts in determining compliance with general diversification requirements and medium- and low-grade investment limitations under this section.

(e) Any investments in derivative investments shall be made in accordance with a written derivative use plan approved by the company's board of directors. The derivative use plan shall be available for review by the commissioner upon request.

(f) The commissioner may approve additional transactions involving the use of derivative instruments in excess of the limits in this section.

(3) Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the contrary, domestic insurers are prohibited from establishing margin accounts without the prior approval of the commissioner; except that the commissioner shall approve reasonable plans for domestic insurance companies to use financial futures or short selling techniques for hedging purposes.

PART 3

UNIFORM GUARANTY DEPOSITS

10-3-301. Definitions. As used in this part 3, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Alien insurer" means any insurer incorporated or organized under the laws of any country other than the United States.

(2) "Domestic insurer" means any insurer incorporated or organized under the laws of this state.

(3) "Foreign insurer" means any insurer incorporated or organized under the laws of any state, as defined in this section, other than this state.

(4) "Insurer" means any insurance company except a life insurance company and includes any reciprocal or interinsurance exchange.

(5) "Policyholders" means claimants under the insurer's policies, claimants having claims which arise under or by reason of the insurer's policies, and obligees under its surety contracts.

(6) "State" means any state of the United States, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the District of Columbia.

(7) "United States" means the states of the United States, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the District of Columbia.

10-3-302. Deposits required - when. No foreign or alien insurer authorized to transact business in this state, except a life insurance company, shall do such business unless it deposits and continuously maintains with the commissioner, or with an official of some other state of the United States designated by law to accept such deposit, cash, or securities having a fair market value of not less than the amounts required to be deposited for such insurers by the statutes of the state of Colorado. Such deposit shall be held for the benefit and protection of all the policyholders of such insurer in the United States. If the deposit is made with an official of some other state, the commissioner shall be furnished with and shall accept as evidence of deposit the certificate of such state officer under his hand and seal certifying that he holds such deposit for the benefit and protection of all the policyholders of such insurer in the United States. The provisions of this part 3 excepting life insurance companies from its stipulations shall not in any manner affect the duty and obligation of such companies to comply with the requirements of section 10-3-201, concerning cash capital, guaranty fund deposits, and surplus, and all such life insurance companies shall strictly comply therewith.

10-3-303. Deposits with commissioner. In the event any domestic insurer or alien insurer using this state as a state of entry into the United States is required, pursuant to the laws of any other state, country, province, district, or territory, to make a deposit differing in amount or character from the deposit required of domestic insurers by the laws of this state, such insurer may deposit with the commissioner cash or securities of the kind and amount sufficient to enable the insurer to meet such requirement, and the commissioner shall issue a certificate as evidence of such deposit for filing with an official of such other state, country, province, district, or territory.

10-3-304. Depositaries - responsibility. Upon request of the insurer, the commissioner may designate any solvent trust company or other solvent financial institution having trust powers domiciled in this state as the commissioner's depository to receive and hold any such deposit. Any such deposit so held shall be at the expense of the insurer. The state of Colorado shall be responsible for the safekeeping and return of all funds and securities deposited pursuant to this part 3 with the commissioner or in any such depository so designated by him.

10-3-305. Rights of depositors. (1) So long as the insurer remains solvent and complies with this part 3, it may:

- (a) Demand, receive, sue for, and recover the income from securities or cash deposited in accordance with this part 3;
- (b) Exchange and substitute for the deposited cash or securities, or any part thereof, cash or eligible securities of equivalent or greater value; and
- (c) Inspect, at reasonable times, any deposit made in accordance with this part 3.

10-3-306. Release of deposits. (1) Any deposit made in this state under this part 3 shall be released and returned:

- (a) To the insurer upon extinguishment by reinsurance or otherwise of all liability of the insurer for the security of which the deposit is held; or
- (b) To the insurer to the extent such deposit is in excess of the amount required; or
- (c) Upon proper order of a court of competent jurisdiction to the receiver, conservator, rehabilitator, liquidator of the insurer, or any other properly designated official who succeeds to the management and control of the insurer's assets.

DELINQUENCIES

10-3-401. Legislative declaration. (1) The purpose of this part 4 is to make available to the commissioner supplemental remedial authority in instances of insurance company delinquencies of various kinds and degrees which demand regulation and control by the commissioner in order to effectuate his responsibility that the business of insurance in this state is conducted according to law and his responsibility to protect the policyholders and public of this state. Most delinquencies are of such a kind or degree as to not justify the imposing of the remedy or sanction of loss of certificate or of rehabilitation or liquidation by court order. Either of the remedies of loss of certificate or of rehabilitation or liquidation by court order would in many instances defeat any realistic opportunity to rehabilitate the delinquent company. Such remedies are likely to destroy or diminish one or more of the following values or assets: The value of the insurance account or in-force business of the insurer; the value of the insurer as a going concern; the value of its agency force; and the value of other of its assets.

(2) The remedial steps provided by this part 4 are provided with the purpose in mind that insurance companies committing or suffering a delinquency be rehabilitated where and whenever possible with no loss of public confidence in the companies, and thus avoid the loss of a certificate of or the institution of rehabilitation or liquidation proceedings, by court order, against any insurance company, where possible. Furthermore, the remedial steps provided in this part 4 are provided to protect the assets of an insurer pending determination of whether or not the insurer can be successfully rehabilitated. In instances where rehabilitation or liquidation by court order are inevitable, it is nevertheless the purpose of this part 4 to allow preliminary or emergency supervision to prevent a dissipation of assets from taking place, and thus benefit the policyholders of the company. In such an instance, this part 4 shall operate in conjunction with part 5 of this article.

ANNOTATION

An interinsurance exchange is included in the definition of insurance company in former § 10-1-102 (4) (now § 10-1-102 (6)). Because § 10-13-114 applies the regulatory remedies in §§ 10-3-401 to 10-3-414 to interinsurance exchanges, the insurance commissioner has the discretion to rehabilitate an interinsurance exchange in the same manner as any other insurance company. Alias Smith & Jones v. Barnes, 695 P.2d 302 (Colo. App. 1984).

10-3-402. Definitions. All terms defined in section 10-1-102 shall have the same meaning in this part 4. As used in this part 4, unless the context otherwise requires:

(2) “Delinquency” means any act, omission, or condition, or combination thereof, which is contrary to the applicable laws of this state or any other state, including any regulation lawfully promulgated by the commissioner of insurance of any state or any other person or state agency having supervision of the business of insurance. It includes, but is not limited to, any such act, omission, or condition, or combination thereof, committed or created by or under the direction or authority of any insurance company or any officer or representative thereof. Specifically, it includes any act, omission, or condition, or combination thereof, which, although not otherwise proscribed by law, nevertheless renders the operation of the insurance company hazardous to the public or its policyholders.

(3) “Direct supervision” means the institution of control of an insurance company by order of the commissioner whereby one or more specifically enumerated acts shall be required of the company by order of the commissioner, or one or more specifically enumerated acts or decisions of the company shall not be permitted without prior written approval of the commissioner. In addition, such term includes the power to take all steps necessary to preserve, protect, and recover an insurance company’s assets as set forth in section 10-3-405 (2). It is a condition of control beyond normal regulation by the division of insurance and beyond the notifying of an insurance company of a determination of delinquency by the commissioner and supplying the company a list of requirements to abate the condition.

(4) “Rehabilitation” or “to rehabilitate” refers to the removal of an existing delinquency and restoration of the company to a condition of compliance with the law.

10-3-403. Scope of part 4. In addition to, and not to the exclusion of, any remedies or powers otherwise available to him, the commissioner may elect to take action against any insurance company formed or incorporated under the laws of this state or doing business in this state, whether authorized or not, which commits or suffers a delinquency according to the provisions of this part 4.

10-3-404. Determination of delinquency - procedure. Whenever evidence exists to the satisfaction of the commissioner that an insurance company has committed or suffered a delinquency, the commissioner may, upon determination of delinquency, notify the insurance company of his determination and furnish the insurance company a written list of requirements to abate his determination, and, if deemed necessary by the commissioner, he may place the insurance company under his direct supervision, with written notice to the company that it is so placed under direct supervision.

10-3-405. Direct supervision. (1) Any insurance company placed under direct supervision shall remain under direct supervision until all delinquencies are remedied, or until the commissioner deems such direct supervision no longer is necessary or desirable. During the period of direct supervision, the commissioner may appoint a supervisor other than himself to supervise the company and may provide that the company may not take any of the following actions without prior approval in writing of the commissioner or his duly appointed supervisor:

- (a) Dispose of, convey, or encumber any of its assets or its business in force;
- (b) Withdraw any of its bank accounts;
- (c) Lend any of its funds;
- (d) Invest any of its property;
- (e) Transfer any of its property;
- (f) Incur any debt, obligation, or liability;
- (g) Merge or consolidate with another company;
- (h) Enter into any new reinsurance contract or treaty.

(2) In addition to the power to require prior written approval of any of the actions set forth in subsection (1) of this section, the commissioner or the commissioner's duly appointed supervisor may take any further steps necessary to preserve, protect, and recover any assets or property of an insurance company under direct supervision.

10-3-406. Protest of finding of delinquency. In the event the insurance company protests the determination of delinquency by the commissioner, the commissioner shall stay his decision to place the insurance company under direct supervision and shall give the insurance company not less than fifteen days to show cause, at a hearing conducted by the commissioner, why such a determination should not be made. In cases of emergency, the commissioner may allow his determination of delinquency to stand until the insurance company, under the show cause order or at the hearing, gives sufficient proof that the commissioner's determination was erroneous.

10-3-411. Penalties for noncompliance. Any insurance company or any officer or official thereof who willfully fails to comply with an order of the commissioner while such insurance company is under direct supervision of the commissioner is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than two years, or by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

10-3-412. Review of action while under direct supervision. At any time during the period of direct supervision, or at any time pending abatement of the commissioner's determination of delinquency, the insurance company may request the commissioner, or his duly appointed deputy, to review an action taken or proposed to be taken by the direct supervisor, specifying in what manner the action complained of is believed not to be in the best interests of the insurance company. The insurance company shall be entitled to a hearing on such a request, if desired by the company.

10-3-413. Appeal from final determination or order of commissioner. (1) Upon exhausting all means of administrative appeal provided in this part 4, or in case the commissioner, under section 10-3-406, refuses to stay his order or determination pending the show cause order and hearing, the insurance company aggrieved by such determination or order may avail itself of the following procedure of appeal and none other:

(a) The insurance company shall file a petition setting forth its particular objection to the order or determination in the district court in and for the city and county of Denver, and not elsewhere, against the commissioner as defendant. Said action shall have precedence over all other cases on the docket of a different nature. The action shall not be limited to questions of law but shall be tried and determined upon a trial de novo.

(b) Either party to said action may appeal to the appellate court having jurisdiction of said cause of action, and said appeal shall have precedence in the appellate court over all causes of action of a different character pending in the appellate court.

ANNOTATION

Trial de novo limited. Under subsection (1)(a), a trial de novo is limited to determining questions of illegality or impropriety on the part of the commissioner in placing the company under an order of conservatorship. Atlantic & Pac. Ins. Co. v. Barnes, 666 P.2d 163 (Colo. App. 1983).

10-3-414. Nondisclosure of reports and evidence during period of direct supervision or conservatorship. Any other provision of law notwithstanding, the commissioner shall not divulge to the public any examination report, results of investigation, or other information received by the division of insurance on, about, or relating to any insurance company which would be detrimental to the efforts of rehabilitation of that company under this part 4.

INSURERS' REHABILITATION AND LIQUIDATION

Editor's note: This part 5 was numbered as article 17 of chapter 72, C.R.S. 1963. The substantive provisions of this part 5 were repealed and reenacted in 1992, resulting in the addition, relocation, and elimination of sections as well as subject matter. For amendments to this part 5 prior to 1992, consult the Colorado statutory research explanatory note and the table itemizing the replacement volumes and supplements to the original volume of C.R.S. 1973 beginning on page vii in the front of this volume. Former C.R.S. section numbers are shown in editor's notes following those sections that were relocated.

10-3-501. Legislative declaration - intents and purposes. (1) This part 5 shall not be interpreted to limit the powers granted the commissioner by other provisions of law.

(2) This part 5 shall be liberally construed to effect the purpose stated in subsection (3) of this section.

(3) The purpose of this part 5 is to protect the interests of insureds, claimants, creditors, and the public generally, with minimum interference with the normal prerogatives of the owners and managers of insurers, through:

(a) Early detection of any potentially dangerous condition in an insurer, and prompt application of appropriate corrective measures;

(b) Improved methods for rehabilitating insurers, involving the cooperation and management expertise of the insurance industry;

(c) Enhanced efficiency and economy of liquidation, through clarification of the law, to minimize legal uncertainty and litigation;

(d) Equitable apportionment of any unavoidable loss;

(e) Lessening the problems of interstate rehabilitation and liquidation of insurers by facilitating cooperation between states in the liquidation process and by extending the scope of personal jurisdiction over debtors of insurers outside this state;

(f) Regulation of the insurance business by means of laws relating to delinquency procedures and substantive rules relating to the insurance business generally; and

(g) The provision of a comprehensive scheme for the rehabilitation and liquidation of insurance companies and those subject to this part 5 as part of the regulation of the business of insurance, the insurance industry, and insurers in this state.

(4) The general assembly finds, determines, and declares that proceedings in cases of insurer insolvency and delinquency are an integral aspect of the business of insurance and are of vital public interest and concern.

ANNOTATION

This act establishes system for equitable and orderly liquidation of domiciliary insurance companies by giving the commissioner of insurance the authority to collect all of the company's assets for ratable distribution among claimants, including policy holders, general creditors, and stockholders. Skandia Am. Reinsurance Corp. v. Barnes, 458 F. Supp. 13 (D. Colo. 1978).

10-3-502. Definitions. As used in this part 5, unless the context otherwise requires:

- (1) "Ancillary state" means any state other than a domiciliary state.
- (2) "Creditor" means a person having any claim, whether matured or unmatured, liquidated or unliquidated, secured or unsecured, fixed or contingent, or absolute.
- (3) "Delinquency proceeding" means any proceeding instituted against an insurer for the purpose of liquidating, rehabilitating, reorganizing, or conserving such insurer.
- (4) "Doing business" includes any of the following acts, whether effected by mail or otherwise:
  - (a) Issuing or delivering contracts of insurance to persons resident in this state;
  - (b) Soliciting applications for such contracts or other negotiations preliminary to the execution of such contracts;
  - (c) Collecting premiums, membership fees, assessments, or other consideration for such contracts;
  - (d) Transacting matters subsequent to execution of such contracts and arising out of them; or
  - (e) Operating under a license or certificate of authority, as an insurer, issued by the commissioner or the insurance department of any state other than Colorado.
- (5) "Domiciliary state" means the state in which an insurer is incorporated or organized, or, in the case of an alien insurer, its state of entry.
- (6) "Fair consideration" is given for property or an obligation when:
  - (a) In exchange for such property or obligation in good faith and as a fair equivalent therefor, property is conveyed or services are rendered or an obligation is incurred or an antecedent debt is satisfied; or
  - (b) Such property or obligation is received in good faith to secure a present advance or antecedent debt in an amount not disproportionately small as compared to the value of the property or obligation obtained.
- (7) "Foreign country" means any other jurisdiction not in any state.
- (8) "General assets" means all property, real, personal, or otherwise, not specifically mortgaged, pledged, deposited, or otherwise encumbered for the security or benefit of specified persons or classes of persons. As to specifically encumbered property, "general assets" includes all such property or its proceeds in excess of the amount necessary to discharge the sum or sums secured thereby. Assets held in trust and on deposit for the security or benefit of all policyholders or all policyholders and creditors, in more than a single state, shall be treated as general assets.
- (9) "Guaranty association" means the Colorado insurance guaranty association created in part 5 of article 4 of this title, the life and health insurance protection association created in article 20 of this title, and any other similar entity now or hereafter created by this state for the payment of claims of insolvent insurers. "Foreign guaranty association" means any similar entity now in existence in, or hereafter created by, any other state.
- (10) "Insolvency" or "insolvent" means:
  - (a) For an insurer issuing only assessable fire insurance policies:
  - (I) The inability to pay any obligation within thirty days after the obligation becomes payable; or

(II) If an assessment is made within thirty days after the date the obligation becomes payable, the inability to pay such obligation thirty days following the date specified in the first assessment notice issued after the date of loss.

(b) For any other insurer, that it is unable to pay its obligations when they are due, or that it is deemed insolvent pursuant to section 10-3-212.

(11) "Insurance department" means the commissioner or other government official or agency of a state other than Colorado exercising powers and duties substantially equivalent to those of the commissioner or the division.

(12) "Insurer" means any person who has done, purports to do, is doing, or is licensed to do an insurance business and is or has been subject to the authority of, or to liquidation, rehabilitation, reorganization, supervision, or conservation by, the commissioner or any insurance department.

(13) "Preferred claim" means any claim with respect to which the terms of this part 5 accord priority of payment from the general assets of the insurer.

(15) "Reciprocal state" means any state other than this state in which, in substance and effect, sections 10-3-517 (1), 10-3-551, 10-3-552, 10-3-554, 10-3-555, and 10-3-556 are in force, and in which provisions are in force requiring that the commissioner or equivalent official be the receiver of a delinquent insurer, and in which some provision exists for the avoidance of fraudulent conveyances and preferential transfers.

(16) "Secured claim" means any claim secured by mortgage, trust deed, pledge, deposit as security, escrow, or otherwise, but not including special deposit claims or claims against general assets. The term also includes claims which have become liens upon specific assets by reason of judicial process.

(17) "Special deposit claim" means any claim secured by a deposit made pursuant to statute for the security or benefit of a limited class or classes of persons, but not including any claim secured by general assets.

(18) "State" means any state, district, or territory of the United States and the Panama canal zone.

(19) "Transfer" includes the sale and any other or different mode, direct or indirect, of disposing of or parting with property or any interest therein, or with the possession thereof, or of fixing a lien upon property or upon any interest therein, absolutely or conditionally, voluntarily, either by or without judicial proceedings. The retention of a security title to property delivered to a debtor shall be deemed a transfer suffered by the debtor.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 10-3-502 as it existed prior to 1992.

Cross references: For insurance definitions generally, see § 10-1-102.

ANNOTATION

In order for a state to be reciprocal to Colorado, subsection (15) requires only that the reciprocal state have "in substance and effect" provisions similar to those specified in that subsection. Herstam v. Bd. of Dirs., 895 P.2d 1131 (Colo. App. 1995).

Although the wording in the Arizona statutes and Colorado statutes is not identical, it is substantially similar and meets the definition of "reciprocal states" and, therefore, the Arizona order must be afforded full faith and credit and the receiver is entitled to apply for an injunction pursuant to § 10-3-505. Herstam v. Bd. of Dirs., 895 P.2d 1131 (Colo. App. 1995).

The definition of "assets" would include debtors' interest in property, pursuant to the deed of trust since such a finding is consistent with the purposes of this act. Herstam v. Bd. of Dirs., 895 P.2d 1131 (Colo. App. 1995).

10-3-503. Persons covered. (1) The proceedings authorized by this part 5 may be applied to:

(a) All insurers who are doing, or have done, an insurance business in this state and against whom claims arising from that business may exist now or in the future;

- (b) All insurers who purport to do an insurance business in this state;
- (c) All insurers who have insureds resident in this state;
- (d) All other persons organized or in the process of organizing with the intent to do an insurance business in this state;
- (e) All fraternal benefit societies and beneficial societies subject to article 14 of this title;
- (f) All title insurance companies subject to the "Title Insurance Code of Colorado", article 11 of this title;
- (g) All health care plans subject to the "Prepaid Dental Care Plan Law of Colorado", article 16.5 of this title, or the "Colorado Health Maintenance Organization Act", article 17 of this title; and
- (h) All employers' self-insurance pools created pursuant to section 8-44-205, C.R.S.

Editor's note: (1) The "Prepaid Dental Care Plan Law of Colorado", referred to in subsection (1)(g), was repealed, effective July 1, 1992. Provisions relating to prepaid dental care plans can now be found in part 5 of article 16 of this title.

(2) The "Colorado Health Maintenance Organization Act", referred to in subsection (1)(g) was repealed, effective July 1, 1992. Provisions relating to HMOs can now be found in parts 1 and 4 of article 16 of this title.

10-3-504. Jurisdiction - venue. (1) No delinquency proceeding shall be commenced under this part 5 by anyone other than the commissioner, and no court shall have jurisdiction to entertain, hear, or determine any proceeding commenced by any other person.

(2) The district court in and for the city and county of Denver shall have jurisdiction to entertain, hear, or determine any complaint praying for the dissolution, liquidation, rehabilitation, sequestration, conservation, or receivership of any insurer, or praying for an injunction or restraining order or other relief preliminary to, incidental to, or relating to such proceedings other than in accordance with this part 5.

(3) In addition to other grounds for jurisdiction provided by law, the district court in and for the city and county of Denver has jurisdiction over a person served pursuant to the rules of civil procedure or other applicable provisions of law in an action brought by the receiver of a domestic insurer or an alien insurer domiciled in this state if:

(a) The person served is an agent, broker, or other person who has at any time written policies of insurance for or has acted in any manner whatsoever on behalf of an insurer against which a delinquency proceeding has been instituted in any action resulting from or incident to such a relationship with the insurer; or

(b) The person served is a reinsurer who has at any time entered into a contract of reinsurance with an insurer against which a delinquency proceeding has been instituted, or is an agent or broker of or for the reinsurer, in any action on or incident to the reinsurance contract; or

(c) The person served is or has been an officer, director, manager, trustee, organizer, promoter, or other person in a position of comparable authority or influence over an insurer against which a delinquency proceeding has been instituted, in any action resulting from or incident to such a relationship with the insurer; or

(d) The person served is or was at the time of the institution of the delinquency proceeding against the insurer holding assets in which the receiver claims an interest on behalf of the insurer, in any action concerning such assets; or

(e) The person served is obligated to the insurer in any way whatsoever, in any action on or incident to the obligation.

(4) If the court on motion of any party finds that any action should as a matter of substantial justice be tried in a forum outside this state, the court may enter an appropriate order to stay further proceedings on the action in this state.

(5) All actions authorized pursuant to this part 5 shall be brought in the district court in and for the city and county of Denver.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 10-3-503 as it existed prior to 1992.

ANNOTATION

Trial court properly denied motion for change of venue since subsection (5) specifically requires that all actions authorized under this act be brought in Denver district court; subsection (5), not C.R.C.P. 98(b)(2), governs the action. Herstam v. Bd. of Dirs., 895 P.2d 1131 (Colo. App. 1995).

10-3-504.5. Application for receivership. No application or proceeding for a receivership of any domestic insurance company shall be made in any court in this state by any person, nor shall any court receive or entertain any such application or proceeding, unless and until such application is approved by the commissioner, and then such application shall be made only by the attorney general of the state. The commissioner shall not give said approval until after the examination and hearing by the commissioner and the attorney general, which shall not be made public, at which the company affected shall be given ample opportunity to submit the facts as to its condition. Any person who violates any provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than one month nor more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 10-3-503 as it existed prior to 1992.

10-3-505. Injunctions - orders. (1) Any receiver appointed in a proceeding under this part 5 may at any time apply for, and any court of general jurisdiction may grant, such restraining orders, preliminary and permanent injunctions, and other orders as may be deemed necessary and proper to prevent:

- (a) The transaction of further business;
  - (b) The transfer of property;
  - (c) Interference with the receiver or with a proceeding under this part 5;
  - (d) Waste of the insurer's assets;
  - (e) Dissipation or transfer, or both, of bank accounts;
  - (f) The institution or further prosecution of any actions or proceedings;
  - (g) The obtaining of preferences, judgments, attachments, garnishments, or liens against the insurer, its assets, or its policyholders;
  - (h) The levying of execution against the insurer, its assets, or its policyholders;
  - (i) The making of any sale or deed for nonpayment of taxes or assessments that would tend to lessen the value of the assets of the insurer;
  - (j) The withholding from the receiver of books, accounts, documents, or other records relating to the business of the insurer; or
  - (k) Any other threatened or contemplated action that might tend to lessen the value of the insurer's assets or prejudice the rights of policyholders, creditors, or shareholders or the administration of any proceeding under this part 5.
- (2) The receiver may, if necessary, apply to any court outside of the state for the relief described in subsection (1) of this section.

ANNOTATION

Since the grant or denial of a preliminary injunction is a decision that lies within the sound discretion of the trial court, an appellate court reviewing the issuance of the injunction will usually do so with great deference to the conclusions reached by the lower court and will substitute its judgment for that of the trial court only if the trial court's ruling was manifestly unreasonable, arbitrary, or unfair. Herstam v. Bd. of Dirs., 895 P.2d 1131 (Colo. App. 1995).

Trial court did not exceed its authority in granting the receiver's motion for preliminary injunction since subsection (1) grants the court broad authority to enjoin numerous acts, including interference with the receiver and the institution or further prosecution of any actions or proceedings. Herstam v. Bd. of Dirs., 895 P.2d 1131 (Colo. App. 1995).

10-3-506. Cooperation of officers, owners, and employees. (1) Any officer, manager, director, trustee, owner, employee, or agent of any insurer, or any other person with authority over or in charge of any segment of the insurer's affairs, shall cooperate with the commissioner in any proceeding under this part 5 or any investigation preliminary to the proceeding. The term "person" as used in this section shall include any person who exercises control directly or indirectly over activities of the insurer through any holding company or other affiliate of the insurer. "To cooperate" shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following:

(a) To reply promptly in writing to any inquiry from the commissioner requesting such a reply; and

(b) To make available to the commissioner any books, accounts, documents, or other records or information or property of or pertaining to the insurer and in the person's possession, custody, or control.

(2) No person shall obstruct or interfere with the commissioner in the conduct of any delinquency proceeding or any investigation preliminary or incidental thereto.

(3) This section shall not be construed to abridge otherwise existing legal rights, including the right to resist a petition for liquidation or other delinquency proceedings or other orders.

(4) Any person included within subsection (1) of this section who fails to cooperate with the commissioner, or any person who obstructs or interferes with the commissioner in the conduct of any delinquency proceeding or any investigation preliminary or incidental thereto, or who violates any valid order of the commissioner issued pursuant to this part 5 may:

(a) Be subject to a fine not to exceed ten thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of not more than one year, or both; or

(b) After a hearing, be subject to the imposition by the commissioner of a civil penalty not to exceed ten thousand dollars or to the revocation or suspension of any insurance licenses issued by the commissioner, or to both such civil penalty and such revocation or suspension.

10-3-507. Continuation of delinquency proceedings. Every proceeding commenced prior to July 1, 1992, shall be deemed to have been commenced under this part 5 for the purpose of conducting the proceeding thereafter; except that, in the discretion of the commissioner, the proceeding may be continued, in whole or in part, as it would have been continued had this part 5 not been enacted.

ANNOTATION

Trial court did not err in determining that the receiver must consider and pay the claim from an out of state insurance guarantee association. Generally the association would have subrogation rights against a receiver of an insolvent insurer and the receiver would be obligated to reimburse the association. The association's settlement of the claimants' claims and payments to them entitled the association to subrogation rights of those claimants. Stephens v. Colaiana, 942 P.2d 1374 (Colo. App. 1997).

Applied in H.M.O. Sys. v. Choicecare Health Servs., Inc., 665 P.2d 635 (Colo. App. 1983).

10-3-508. Condition on release from delinquency proceedings. (1) No insurer subject to any delinquency proceedings, whether formal, informal, administrative, or judicial, shall:

(a) Be released from such proceeding, unless such proceeding is converted into a judicial rehabilitation or liquidation proceeding;

(b) Be permitted to solicit or accept new business or request or accept the restoration of any suspended or revoked license or certificate of authority;

(c) Be returned to the control of its shareholders or private management; or

(d) Have any of its assets returned to the control of its shareholders or private management until all payments of or on account of the insurer's contractual obligations by all guaranty associations, along with all expenses thereof and interest on all such payments and expenses, shall have been repaid to the guaranty associations or a plan of repayment by the insurer shall have been approved by the guaranty association.

10-3-509. Court's seizure order. (1) The commissioner may file in the district court in and for the city and county of Denver a petition alleging, with respect to a domestic insurer:

(a) That there exists any fact or circumstance that would justify a court order for a formal delinquency proceeding against an insurer under this part 5;

(b) That the interests of policyholders, creditors, or the public will be endangered by delay; and

(c) That an order, the contents of which shall be furnished to the court by the commissioner, is necessary to protect the interests of policyholders, creditors, or the public.

(2) Upon a filing pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, the court may issue forthwith, ex parte, and without a hearing, the requested order which shall direct the commissioner to take possession and control of all or a part of the property, books, accounts, documents, and other records of an insurer, and of the premises occupied by the insurer for transaction of its business, and shall until further order of the court enjoin the insurer and its officers, managers, agents, and employees from disposition of its property and from the transaction of its business except with the written consent of the commissioner.

(3) The court shall specify in the order what its duration shall be, which shall be such time as the court deems necessary for the commissioner to ascertain the condition of the insurer. On motion of either party or on its own motion, the court may from time to time hold such hearings as it deems desirable after such notice as it deems appropriate, and may extend, shorten, or modify the terms of the seizure order. The court shall vacate the seizure order if the commissioner fails to commence a formal proceeding under this part 5 after having had a reasonable opportunity to do so. An order of the court pursuant to a formal proceeding under this part 5 shall ipso facto vacate the seizure order. For purposes of this section, a "formal proceeding" means any liquidation or rehabilitation proceeding.

(4) Entry of a seizure order under this section shall not constitute an anticipatory breach of any contract of the insurer.

(5) An insurer subject to an ex parte order under this section may petition the court at any time after the issuance of such order for a hearing and review of the order. The court shall hold such a hearing and review not more than fifteen days after the request. A hearing under this subsection (5) may be held privately in chambers and it shall be so held if the insurer proceeded against so requests. The court shall permit the directors of the insurer to take such actions as are reasonably necessary to defend against the order and may order payment from the estate of the insurer of such costs and other expenses of defense as justice may require.

(6) If, at any time after the issuance of such an order, it appears to the court that any person whose interest is or will be substantially affected by the order did not appear at the hearing and has not been served, the court may order that notice be given to such person. An order that notice be given shall not stay the effect of any order previously issued by the court.

10-3-510. Confidentiality of hearings. In all proceedings and judicial reviews thereof under section 10-3-509, all records of the insurer, other documents, and all division files and court records and papers, so far as they pertain to or are a part of the record of the proceedings, shall be and remain confidential except as is necessary to obtain compliance therewith, unless and until the court, after hearing arguments from the parties in chambers, shall order otherwise or unless the insurer requests that the matter be made public. Until such court order, all papers filed with the clerk of the court shall be held in a confidential file.

10-3-511. Grounds for rehabilitation. (1) The commissioner may apply by petition to the district court in and for the city and county of Denver for an order authorizing the commissioner to rehabilitate a domestic insurer or an alien insurer domiciled in this state on any one or more of the following grounds:

(a) The insurer is in such condition that the further transaction of business would be hazardous financially to its policyholders or creditors or to the public.

(b) There is reasonable cause to believe that there has been embezzlement from the insurer, wrongful sequestration or diversion of the insurer's assets, forgery or fraud affecting the insurer, or other illegal conduct in, by, or with respect to the insurer that if established would endanger assets in an amount threatening the solvency of the insurer.

(c) The insurer has failed to remove any person who in fact has executive authority in the insurer, whether such person is an officer, manager, general agent, employee, or other person, if the person has been found after notice and hearing by the commissioner to be dishonest or untrustworthy in a way affecting the insurer's business.

(d) Control of the insurer, whether by stock ownership or otherwise, and whether direct or indirect, is in a person or persons found after notice and hearing to be untrustworthy.

(e) Any person who in fact has executive authority in the insurer, whether an officer, manager, general agent, director or trustee, employee, or other person, has refused to be examined under oath by the commissioner concerning the insurer's affairs, whether in this state or elsewhere, and after reasonable notice of the fact, the insurer has failed promptly and effectively to terminate the employment and status of the person and all of such person's influence on management.

(f) After demand by the commissioner under section 10-1-204 or under this part 5, the insurer has failed to promptly make available for examination any of its own property, books, accounts, documents, or other records, or those of any subsidiary or related company within the control of the insurer, or those of any person having executive authority in the insurer insofar as they pertain to the insurer.

(g) Without first obtaining the written consent of the commissioner, the insurer has transferred, or attempted to transfer, in a manner contrary to part 7 or 8 of this article, substantially its entire property or business, or has entered into any transaction the effect of which is to merge, consolidate, or reinsure substantially its entire property or business in or with the property or business of any other person.

(h) The insurer or its property has been or is the subject of an application for the appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, conservator, sequestrator, or similar fiduciary of the insurer or its property otherwise than as authorized under the insurance laws of this state, and such appointment has been made or is imminent, and such appointment might oust the courts of this state of jurisdiction or might prejudice the orderly conduct of delinquency proceedings pursuant to this part 5.

(i) The insurer has willfully violated its charter or articles of incorporation, its bylaws, any insurance law of this state, or any valid order of the commissioner.

(j) The insurer has failed to pay within thirty days after the due date any obligation to any state or any subdivision thereof or any judgment entered in any state, if the court in which such judgment was entered had jurisdiction over such subject matter; except that such nonpayment shall not be a ground for rehabilitation until thirty days after the termination of any good-faith effort by the insurer to contest the obligation, whether such effort is made before the commissioner or in the courts, or the insurer has systematically attempted to compromise or renegotiate previously agreed settlements with its creditors on the ground that it is financially unable to pay its obligations in full.

(k) The insurer has failed to file its annual report or other financial report required by statute within the time allowed by law and, after written demand by the commissioner, has failed to give an adequate explanation for such failure immediately.

(l) The board of directors of, or the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote in, or a majority of those individuals entitled to the control of, those entities specified in section 10-3-503 request or consent to rehabilitation under this part 5.

(m) The insurer is impaired as defined in section 10-3-212.

10-3-512. Rehabilitation orders. (1) An order to rehabilitate the business of a domestic insurer or an alien insurer domiciled in this state shall appoint the commissioner as the rehabilitator and shall direct the rehabilitator forthwith to take possession of the assets of the insurer and to administer such assets under the general supervision of the court. The filing or recording of the order with the clerk of the district court in and for the city and county of Denver or with the recorder of deeds of the county in which the principal business of the company is conducted or the county in which its principal office or place of business is located shall impart the same notice as would be imparted by a deed, bill of sale, or other evidence of title duly filed or recorded with such recorder of deeds. The order to rehabilitate the insurer shall by operation of law vest title to all assets of the insurer in the rehabilitator.

(2) Any order issued under this section shall require accounting to the court by the rehabilitator. Accounting shall be at such intervals as the court specifies in its order, but no less frequently than semiannually. Each accounting shall include a report concerning the rehabilitator's opinion as to the likelihood that a plan under section 10-3-513 (4) will be prepared by the rehabilitator and the timetable for doing so.

(3) Entry of an order of rehabilitation shall not constitute an anticipatory breach of any contract of the insurer, nor shall it be a basis for retroactive revocation or retroactive cancellation of any contract of the insurer, unless such revocation or cancellation is done by the rehabilitator pursuant to section 10-3-513.

10-3-513. Powers and duties of rehabilitator. (1) The commissioner as rehabilitator may appoint one or more special deputies, who shall have all the powers and responsibilities of the rehabilitator granted under this section, and the commissioner may employ such counsel, clerks, and assistants as deemed necessary. The compensation of the special deputy, counsel, clerks, and assistants and all expenses of taking possession of the insurer and of conducting the proceedings shall be fixed by the commissioner, subject to the approval of the court, and shall be paid out of the funds or assets of the insurer. The persons appointed under this section shall serve at the pleasure of the commissioner. The commissioner, as rehabilitator, may, with the approval of the court, appoint an advisory committee of policyholders, claimants, or other creditors including guaranty associations should such a committee be deemed necessary. Such committee shall serve at the pleasure of the commissioner and shall serve without compensation other than reimbursement for reasonable travel and per diem living expenses. No other committee of any nature shall be appointed by the commissioner or by the court in rehabilitation proceedings conducted under this part 5.

(2) The rehabilitator may take such action as the rehabilitator deems necessary or appropriate to reform and revitalize the insurer, and shall have all the powers of the insurer's directors, officers, and managers, whose authority shall be suspended except insofar as they are redelegated by the rehabilitator. The rehabilitator shall have full power to direct, manage, hire, and discharge employees subject to any contract rights they may have, and to deal with the property and business of the insurer.

(3) If it appears to the rehabilitator that there has been criminal or tortious conduct or breach of any contractual or fiduciary obligation detrimental to the insurer by any officer, manager, agent, broker, employee, or other person, the rehabilitator may pursue all appropriate legal remedies on behalf of the insurer.

(4) If the rehabilitator determines that reorganization, consolidation, conversion, reinsurance, merger, or other transformation of the insurer is appropriate, the rehabilitator shall prepare a plan to effect such changes. Upon application of the rehabilitator for approval of the plan, and after such notice and hearings as the court may prescribe, the court may either approve or disapprove the plan proposed, or may modify it and approve it as modified. Any plan approved under this section shall be, in the judgment of the court, fair and equitable to all parties concerned. If the plan is approved, the rehabilitator shall carry out the plan. In the case of a life insurer, if all rights of shareholders are first relinquished, the plan proposed may include the imposition of liens upon the policies of the company. A plan for a life insurer may also propose imposition of a moratorium upon loan and cash surrender rights under policies, for such period and to such an extent as may be necessary.

(5) The rehabilitator shall have the power under sections 10-3-525 and 10-3-526 to avoid fraudulent transfers.

10-3-514. Actions by and against rehabilitator. (1) Any court in this state before which any action or proceeding in which the insurer is a party, or is obligated to defend a party, is pending when a rehabilitation order against the insurer is entered shall stay the action or proceeding for a minimum of ninety days and for such additional time as is necessary for the rehabilitator to obtain proper representation and prepare for further proceedings. The rehabilitator shall take such action respecting the pending litigation as the rehabilitator deems necessary in the interests of justice and for the protection of creditors, policyholders, and the public. The rehabilitator shall immediately consider all litigation pending outside this state and shall petition the courts having jurisdiction over that litigation for stays whenever necessary to protect the estate of the insurer.

(2) No statute of limitations or defense of laches shall run with respect to any action by or against an insurer between the filing of a petition for appointment of a rehabilitator for that insurer and the order granting or denying that petition. Any action against the insurer that might have been commenced when the petition was filed may be commenced within a period of not less than sixty days after the order of rehabilitation is entered or the petition is denied. The rehabilitator may, upon an order for rehabilitation, within one year or such other longer time as applicable law may permit, institute an action or proceeding on behalf of the insurer upon any cause of action against which the period of limitation fixed by applicable law had not expired at the time of the filing of the petition upon which such order is entered.

(3) Any guaranty association or foreign guaranty association covering life or health insurance or annuities shall have standing to appear in any court proceeding concerning the rehabilitation of a life or health insurer if such association is or may become liable to act as a result of the rehabilitation.

10-3-514.5. Immunity and indemnification of receiver and employees - applicability. (1) For the purposes of this section, the persons entitled to protection are:

(a) All receivers responsible for the conduct of a delinquency proceeding under this part 5 including present and former receivers; and

(b) Their employees, meaning all present and former special deputies and assistant special deputies appointed by the commissioner and all persons whom the commissioner, special deputies, or assistant special deputies have employed to assist in a delinquency proceeding under this part 5. Attorneys, accountants, auditors, and other professional persons or firms who are retained by the receiver as independent contractors and their employees shall not be considered employees of the receiver for purposes of this section.

(2) The receiver and his employees shall have official immunity and shall be immune from suit and liability, both personally and in their official capacities, for any claim for damage to or loss of property or personal injury or other civil liability caused by or resulting from any alleged act, error, or omission of the receiver or any employee arising out of or by reason of their duties or employment; except that nothing in this subsection (2) shall be construed to hold the receiver or any employee immune from suit and liability for any damage, loss, injury, or liability caused by the intentional or willful and wanton misconduct of the receiver or of any employee.

(3) If any legal action is commenced against the receiver or any employee, whether against him personally or in his official capacity, alleging property damage, property loss, personal injury, or other civil liability caused by or resulting from any alleged act, error, or omission of the receiver or any employee arising out of or by reason of their duties or employment, the receiver and any employee shall be indemnified from the assets of the insurer for all expenses, attorney fees, judgments, settlements, decrees, or amounts due and owing or paid in satisfaction of or incurred in the defense of such legal action unless it is determined upon a final adjudication on the merits that the alleged act, error, or omission of the receiver or employee giving rise to the claim did not arise out of or by reason of his duties or employment, or was caused by intentional or willful and wanton misconduct.

(4) Attorney fees and any and all related expenses incurred in defending a legal action for which immunity or indemnity is available under this section shall be paid from the assets of the insurer, as they are incurred, in advance of the final disposition of such action upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the receiver or employee to repay the attorney fees and expenses if it shall ultimately be determined upon a final adjudication on the merits that the receiver or employee is not entitled to immunity or indemnity under this section.

(5) Any indemnification for expense payments, judgments, settlements, decrees, attorney fees, surety bond premiums, or other amounts paid from the insurer's assets pursuant to this section shall be an administrative expense of the insurer.

(6) In the event of any actual or threatened litigation against a receiver or any employee for which immunity or indemnity may be available under this section, a reasonable amount of funds which in the judgment of the commissioner may be needed to provide immunity or indemnity shall be segregated and reserved from the assets of the insurer as security for the payment of indemnity until such time as all applicable statutes of limitation have run and all actual or threatened actions against the receiver or any employee have been completely and finally resolved and all obligations of the insurer and the commissioner under this section have been satisfied.

(7) In lieu of segregation and reservation of funds, the commissioner may, in the commissioner's discretion, obtain a surety bond or make other arrangements which will enable the commissioner to fully secure the payment of all obligations under this section.

(8) If any legal action against an employee for which indemnity may be available under this section is settled prior to final adjudication on the merits, the insurer shall pay the settlement amount on behalf of the employee, or indemnify the employee for the settlement amount, unless the commissioner determines:

(a) That the claim did not arise out of or by reason of the employee's duties or employment; or

(b) That the claim was caused by the intentional or willful and wanton misconduct of the employee.

(9) In any legal action in which the receiver is a defendant, that portion of any settlement relating to the alleged act, error, or omission of the receiver shall be subject to the approval of the court before which the delinquency proceeding is pending. The court shall not approve that portion of the settlement if it determines:

(a) That the claim did not arise out of or by reason of the receiver's duties or employment; or

(10) Nothing contained or implied in this section shall operate, or be construed or applied, to deprive the receiver or any employee of any immunity, indemnity, benefits of law, rights, or any defense otherwise available.

(11) (a) Subsection (2) of this section shall apply to any suit based in whole or in part on any alleged act, error, or omission occurring on or after July 1, 1992.

(b) No legal action shall lie against the receiver or any employee based in whole or in part on any alleged act, error, or omission which took place prior to July 1, 1992, unless suit is filed and valid service of process is obtained within twelve months after July 1, 1992.

(c) Subsections (3) to (9) of this section shall apply to any suit which is pending on or filed after July 1, 1992, without regard to when the alleged act, error, or omission took place.

10-3-515. Termination of rehabilitation. (1) Whenever the commissioner believes further attempts to rehabilitate an insurer would substantially increase the risk of loss to creditors, policyholders, or the public, or would be futile, the commissioner may petition the district court in and for the city and county of Denver for an order of liquidation. A petition under this subsection (1) shall have the same effect as a petition under section 10-3-516. The court shall permit the directors of the insurer to take such actions as are reasonably necessary to defend against the petition and may order payment from the estate of the insurer of such costs and other expenses of defense as justice may require.

(2) The protection of the interests of insureds, claimants, and the public requires the timely performance of all insurance policy obligations. If the payment of an insurer's policy obligations is suspended in substantial part for a period of six months at any time after the appointment of the rehabilitator and the rehabilitator has not filed an application for approval of a plan under section 10-3-513 (5), the rehabilitator shall petition the court for an order of liquidation on grounds of insolvency.

(3) The rehabilitator may at any time petition the district court in and for the city and county of Denver for an order terminating rehabilitation of an insurer. The court shall also permit the directors of the insurer to petition the court for an order terminating rehabilitation of the insurer and may order payment from the estate of the insurer of such costs and other expenses of such petition as justice may require. If the court finds that rehabilitation has been accomplished and that grounds for rehabilitation under section 10-3-511 no longer exist, it shall order that the insurer be restored to possession of its property and the control of the business. The court may also make such a finding and issue such an order at any time upon its own motion.

10-3-516. Grounds for liquidation. (1) The commissioner may petition the district court in and for the city and county of Denver for an order directing the commissioner to liquidate a domestic insurer or an alien insurer domiciled in this state on the basis:

(a) Of any ground for an order of rehabilitation as specified in section 10-3-511, whether or not there has been a prior order directing the rehabilitation of the insurer;

(b) That the insurer is insolvent; or

(c) That the insurer is in such condition that the further transaction of business would be hazardous, financially or otherwise, to its policyholders, its creditors, or the public.

10-3-517. Liquidation orders. (1) An order to liquidate the business of a domestic insurer shall appoint the commissioner as liquidator and shall direct the liquidator forthwith to take possession of the assets of the insurer and to administer them under the general supervision of the court. The liquidator shall be vested by operation of law with title to all of the property, contracts, rights of action, and books and records of the insurer ordered liquidated, wherever located, as of the entry of the final order of liquidation. The filing or recording of the order with the clerk of the district court in and for the city and county of Denver and the recorder of deeds of the county in which its principal office or place of business is located or, in the case of real estate, with the recorder of deeds of the county where the property is located, shall impart the same notice as would be imparted by a deed, bill of sale, or other evidence of title duly filed or recorded with that recorder of deeds.

(2) Upon issuance of the order, the rights and liabilities of any such insurer and of its creditors, policyholders, shareholders, members, and all other persons interested in its estate shall become fixed as of the date of entry of the order of liquidation except as provided in sections 10-3-518 and 10-3-536.

(3) An order to liquidate the business of an alien insurer domiciled in this state shall be in the same terms and have the same legal effect as an order to liquidate a domestic insurer; except that the assets and the business in the United States shall be the only assets and business included therein.

(4) At the time of petitioning for an order of liquidation or at any time thereafter, the commissioner, after making appropriate findings of an insurer's insolvency, may petition the court for a judicial declaration of such insolvency. After providing such notice and holding such hearing as it deems proper, the court may make the declaration.

(5) Any order issued under this section shall require financial reports to the court by the liquidator. Financial reports shall include, at a minimum, the assets and liabilities of the insurer and all funds received or disbursed by the liquidator during the current period. Financial reports shall be filed within one year of the liquidation order and at least annually thereafter.

(6) Within five days after July 1, 1992, or, if later, within five days after the initiation of an appeal of an order of liquidation, unless such order has been stayed, the commissioner shall present for the court's approval a plan for the continued performance of the defendant company's policy claims obligations, including the duty to defend insureds under liability insurance policies, during the pendency of the appeal. Such plan shall provide for the continued performance and payment of policy claims obligations in the normal course of events, notwithstanding the grounds alleged in support of the order of liquidation including the ground of insolvency. In the event the defendant company's financial condition will not, in the judgment of the commissioner, support the full performance of all policy claims obligations during the pendency of the appeal, the plan may prefer the claims of certain policyholders and claimants over creditors and interested parties as well as other policyholders and claimants, as the commissioner finds to be fair and equitable considering the relative circumstances of such policyholders and claimants. The court shall examine the plan submitted by the commissioner and, if it finds the plan to be in the best interests of the parties, the court shall approve the plan. No action shall lie against the commissioner or any of the commissioner's deputies, agents, clerks, assistants, or attorneys by any party based on preference in an appeal pendency plan approved by the court.

(7) The appeal pendency plan effected pursuant to subsection (6) of this section shall not supersede or affect the obligations of any insurance guaranty association.

(8) Any appeal pendency plan effected pursuant to subsection (6) of this section shall provide for equitable adjustments to be made by the liquidator to any distributions of assets to guaranty associations, in the event that the liquidator pays claims from assets of the estate which would otherwise be the obligations of any particular guaranty association but for the appeal of the order of liquidation, such that all guaranty associations equally benefit on a pro rata basis from the assets of the estate. Further, in the event an order of liquidation is set aside upon any appeal, the company shall not be released from delinquency proceedings unless and until all funds advanced by any guaranty association, including reasonable administrative expenses in connection therewith, relating to obligations of the company have been repaid in full together with interest at the judgment rate of interest, or unless an arrangement for repayment thereof has been made with the consent of all applicable guaranty associations.

10-3-518. Continuation of coverage. (1) All policies, including bonds and other noncancellable business but not including life or health insurance or annuities, in effect at the time of issuance of an order of liquidation shall continue in force only for the lesser of:

- (a) A period of thirty days from the date of entry of the liquidation order;
- (b) The expiration of the policy coverage;
- (c) The date when the insured has replaced the insurance coverage with equivalent insurance in another insurer or otherwise terminated the policy;
- (d) The effective date of a transfer of the policy obligation by the liquidator pursuant to section 10-3-520 (1) (i); or

(e) The date proposed by the liquidator and approved by the court to cancel coverage.

(2) An order of liquidation under section 10-3-517 shall terminate coverages at the time specified in subsection (1) of this section for purposes of any other statute.

(3) Policies of life or health insurance or annuities shall continue in force for such period and under such terms as is provided for by any applicable guaranty association or foreign guaranty association.

(4) Policies of life or health insurance or annuities or any period or coverage of such policies not covered by a guaranty association or foreign guaranty association shall terminate under subsections (1) and (2) of this section.

10-3-519. Dissolution of insurer. The commissioner may petition for an order dissolving the corporate existence of a domestic insurer or the United States branch of an alien insurer domiciled in this state at the time the commissioner applies for a liquidation order. The court shall order dissolution of the corporation upon petition by the commissioner upon or after the granting of a liquidation order. If the dissolution has not previously been ordered, it shall be effected by operation of law upon the discharge of the liquidator if the insurer is insolvent but may be ordered by the court upon the discharge of the liquidator if the insurer is under a liquidation order for some other reason.

10-3-520. Powers of liquidator. (1) The liquidator shall have the power:

(a) To appoint a special deputy or deputies to act for the liquidator under this part 5, and to determine the reasonable compensation of such special deputy. The special deputy shall have all powers of the liquidator granted by this section. The special deputy shall serve at the pleasure of the liquidator.

(b) To employ employees, agents, legal counsel, actuaries, accountants, appraisers, consultants, and such other personnel as the liquidator may deem necessary to assist in the liquidation;

(c) To appoint, subject to the approval of the court, an advisory committee of policyholders, claimants, or other creditors including guaranty associations should such a committee be deemed necessary. Such committee shall serve at the pleasure of the commissioner and shall serve without compensation other than reimbursement for reasonable travel and per diem living expenses. No other committee of any nature shall be appointed by the commissioner or by the court in liquidation proceedings conducted under this part 5.

(d) To fix the reasonable compensation of employees, agents, legal counsel, actuaries, accountants, appraisers, and consultants subject to the approval of the court;

(e) To pay reasonable compensation to persons appointed and to defray from the funds or assets of the insurer all expenses of taking possession of, conserving, conducting, liquidating, disposing of, or otherwise dealing with the business and property of the insurer. In the event that the property of the insurer does not contain sufficient cash or liquid assets to defray the costs incurred, the commissioner may advance the costs so incurred out of any appropriation for the maintenance of the division of insurance. Any amounts so advanced for expenses of administration shall be repaid to the commissioner for the use of the division out of the first available moneys of the insurer.

(f) To hold hearings, subpoena witnesses and compel their attendance, administer oaths, examine any person under oath, and compel any person to subscribe to the person's testimony after it has been correctly reduced to writing; and, in connection therewith, to require the production of any books, papers, records, or other documents which the liquidator deems relevant to the inquiry;

(g) To audit the books and records of all agents of the insurer insofar as those records relate to the business activities of the insurer;

(h) To collect all debts and moneys due and claims belonging to the insurer, wherever located, and for this purpose:

(I) To institute timely action in other jurisdictions, in order to forestall garnishment or attachment proceedings against such debts;

(II) To do such other acts as are necessary or expedient to collect, conserve, or protect its assets or property, including the power to sell, compound, compromise, or assign debts for purposes of collection upon such terms and conditions as the liquidator deems best; and

(III) To pursue any creditors' remedies available to enforce the liquidator's claims;

(i) To conduct public and private sales of the property of the insurer;

(j) To use assets of the estate of an insurer under a liquidation order to transfer policy obligations to a solvent assuming insurer, if the transfer can be arranged without prejudice to applicable priorities under section 10-3-541;

(k) To acquire, hypothecate, encumber, lease, improve, sell, transfer, abandon, or otherwise dispose of or deal with any property of the insurer at its market value or upon such terms and conditions as are fair and reasonable. The liquidator shall also have power to execute, acknowledge, and deliver any and all deeds, assignments, releases, and other instruments necessary or proper to effectuate any sale of property or other transaction in connection with the liquidation.

(l) To borrow money on the security of the insurer's assets or without security and to execute and deliver all documents necessary to such transaction for the purpose of facilitating the liquidation. Any funds so borrowed may be repaid as an administrative expense and may be given priority over any other claims in class 1 under the priority of distribution pursuant to section 10-3-541.

(m) To enter into such contracts as are necessary to carry out the order to liquidate, and to affirm or disavow any contracts to which the insurer is a party;

(n) To continue to prosecute and to institute in the name of the insurer or in the liquidator's own name any and all suits and other legal proceedings, in this state or elsewhere, and to abandon the prosecution of claims deemed unprofitable to pursue further. If the insurer is dissolved under section 10-3-519, the liquidator shall have the power to apply to any court in this state or elsewhere for leave to be substituted for the insurer as plaintiff.

(o) To prosecute any action which may exist on behalf of the creditors, members, policyholders, or shareholders of the insurer against any officer of the insurer or any other person;

(p) To remove any records and property of the insurer to the offices of the commissioner or to such other place as may be convenient for the purposes of efficient and orderly execution of the liquidation. Guaranty associations and foreign guaranty associations shall have such reasonable access to the records of the insurer as is necessary for them to carry out their statutory obligations.

(q) To deposit in one or more banks in this state such sums as are required to meet current administration expenses and dividend distributions;

(r) To invest all sums not currently needed, unless the court orders otherwise;

(s) To file any necessary documents for record in the office of any recorder of deeds or record office where property of the insurer is located, in this state or elsewhere;

(t) To assert all defenses available to the insurer as against third persons, which defenses shall include but not be limited to statutes of limitation, statutes of frauds, and the defense of usury. A waiver of any defense by the insurer after a petition in liquidation has been filed shall not bind the liquidator. Whenever a guaranty association or foreign guaranty association has an obligation to defend any suit, the liquidator shall give precedence to such obligation and may defend only in the absence of a defense by such guaranty associations.

(u) To exercise and enforce all the rights, remedies, and powers of any creditor, shareholder, policyholder, or member, including any power to avoid any transfer or lien that may be conferred by law whether or not such power is conferred by sections 10-3-525 to 10-3-527;

(v) To intervene in any proceeding, wherever instituted, which could result in the appointment of a receiver or trustee, and to act as the receiver or trustee whenever such appointment is offered;

(w) To enter into agreements with any receiver, commissioner, or insurance department of any other state relating to the rehabilitation, liquidation, conservation, or dissolution of an insurer doing business in both states;

(x) To exercise, in a manner consistent with the provisions of this part 5, all powers now held or hereafter conferred upon receivers by the laws of this state.

(2) (a) If a company placed in liquidation issued liability policies on a claims-made basis, and if such policies provided an option to purchase an extended period to report claims, then the liquidator may make available to holders of such policies, for a charge, an extended period to report claims subject to the conditions stated in this subsection (2). The extended reporting period shall be made available only to those insureds who have not secured substitute coverage. The extended period made available by the liquidator shall begin upon termination of any extended period to report claims in the basic policy and shall end at the earlier of the final date for filing of claims in the liquidation proceeding or eighteen months after the order of liquidation.

(b) The extended period to report claims made available by the liquidator shall be subject to the terms of the policy to which it relates. The liquidator shall make available such extended period within sixty days after the order of liquidation at a charge to be determined by the liquidator subject to approval of the court. Such offer shall be deemed rejected unless the offer is accepted in writing and the charge is paid within ninety days after the order of liquidation. No commissions, premium taxes, assessments, or other fees shall be due on the charge pertaining to the extended period to report claims.

(3) The enumeration, in this section, of the powers and authority of the liquidator shall not be construed as a limitation upon the liquidator, nor shall it exclude in any manner the liquidator's right to do such other acts not specifically enumerated or otherwise provided for in this section as may be necessary or appropriate for the accomplishment of, or in aid of the purpose of, liquidation.

(4) Notwithstanding the powers of the liquidator as stated in subsections (1) and (2) of this section, the liquidator shall have no obligation to defend claims or to continue to defend claims subsequent to the entry of a liquidation order.

10-3-521. Notice to creditors and others. (1) Unless the court otherwise directs, the liquidator shall give or cause to be given notice of the liquidation order as soon as possible:

(a) By first class mail and either by telegram or telephone to the insurance department of each jurisdiction in which the insurer is doing business;

(b) By first class mail to any guaranty association or foreign guaranty association which is or may become obligated as a result of the liquidation;

(c) By first class mail to all insurance agents of the insurer;

(d) By first class mail to all persons known or reasonably expected to have claims against the insurer, including all policyholders at their last known address as indicated by the records of the insurer; and

(e) By publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the insurer has its principal place of business and in such other locations as the liquidator deems appropriate.

(2) Notice to potential claimants under subsection (1) of this section shall require claimants to file with the liquidator their claims together with proper proofs thereof under section 10-3-535, on or before a date the liquidator shall specify in the notice. Although an earlier date may be set by the liquidator, the last day to file claims shall be no later than eighteen months after the order of liquidation. The liquidator need not require persons claiming cash surrender values or other investment values in life insurance and annuities to file a claim. All claimants shall have a duty to keep the liquidator informed of any changes of address.

(3) Notice under subsection (1) of this section to agents of the insurer and to potential claimants who are policyholders shall include, where applicable, notice that coverage by state guaranty associations may be available for all or part of policy benefits in accordance with applicable state guaranty laws.

(4) The liquidator shall promptly provide to the guaranty associations such information concerning the identities and addresses of such policyholders and their policy coverages as may be within the liquidator's possession or control and shall otherwise cooperate with guaranty associations to assist them in providing to such policyholders timely notice of the guaranty associations' coverage of policy benefits, including, as applicable, coverage of claims and continuation or termination of coverages.

(5) If notice is given in accordance with this section, the distribution of assets of the insurer under this part 5 shall be conclusive with respect to all claimants regardless of whether or not they received notice.

10-3-522. Duties of agents. (1) Every person who receives notice in the form prescribed in section 10-3-521 that an insurer which the person represents as an agent is the subject of a liquidation order shall, within thirty days of such notice, provide to the liquidator, in addition to the information such person may be required to provide pursuant to section 10-3-506, all information in the agent's records related to any policy issued by the insurer through the agent, and, if the agent is a general agent, the information in the general agent's records related to any policy issued by the insurer through an agent under contract to the general agent, including the name and address of such subagent. A policy shall be deemed issued through an agent if the agent has a property interest in the expiration of the policy, or if the agent has had in the agent's possession a copy of the declarations of the policy at any time during the life of the policy, except where the ownership of the expiration of the policy has been transferred to another.

(2) Any agent failing to provide information to the liquidator as required in subsection (1) of this section may be subject to a penalty of not more than one thousand dollars and, in addition, any licenses of any such agent may be suspended. Such penalty or suspension, or both, shall be imposed only after a hearing held by the commissioner.

10-3-523. Actions by and against liquidator. (1) Upon issuance of an order appointing a liquidator of a domestic insurer or of an alien insurer domiciled in this state, no action at law or equity or in arbitration shall be brought against the insurer or liquidator, whether in this state or elsewhere, nor shall any such existing actions be maintained or further presented after issuance of such order. The courts of this state shall give full faith and credit to injunctions against the liquidator or the company or the continuation of existing actions against the liquidator or the company, when such injunctions are included in an order to liquidate an insurer issued pursuant to corresponding provisions in other states. Whenever, in the liquidator's judgment, protection of the estate of the insurer necessitates intervention in an action against the insurer that is pending outside this state, the liquidator may intervene in the action. The liquidator may defend any action in which the liquidator intervenes under this section at the expense of the estate of the insurer.

(2) The liquidator may, upon or after an order for liquidation, within two years or such other longer time as applicable law may permit, institute an action or proceeding on behalf of the estate of the insurer upon any cause of action against which the period of limitation fixed by applicable law has not expired at the time of the filing of the petition upon which such order is entered. Where, by any agreement, a period of limitation is fixed for instituting a suit or proceeding upon any claim, or for filing any claim, proof of claim, proof of loss, demand, notice, or the like, or where in any proceeding, judicial or otherwise, a period of limitation is fixed, either in the proceeding or by applicable law, for taking any action, filing any claim or pleading, or doing any act, and where in any such case the period had not expired at the date of the filing of the petition, the liquidator may, for the benefit of the estate, take any such action or do any such act required of or permitted to the insurer, if the liquidator does so within a period of one hundred eighty days subsequent to the entry of an order for liquidation or within such further period as is shown to the satisfaction of the court not to be unfairly prejudicial to the other party.

(3) No statute of limitation or defense of laches shall run with respect to any action against an insurer between the filing of a petition for liquidation against the insurer and the denial of the petition. Any action against the insurer that might have been commenced when the petition was filed may be commenced for at least sixty days after the petition is denied.

(4) Any guaranty association or foreign guaranty association shall have standing to appear in any court proceeding concerning the liquidation of an insurer if such association is or may become liable to act as a result of the liquidation.

10-3-524. Collection and listing of assets. (1) As soon as practicable after the liquidation order but not later than one hundred twenty days thereafter, the liquidator shall prepare in duplicate a list of the insurer's assets. The list shall be amended or supplemented from time to time as the liquidator may determine. One copy shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court in and for the city and county of Denver and one copy shall be retained for the liquidator's files. All amendments and supplements shall be similarly filed.

(2) The liquidator shall reduce the assets to a degree of liquidity that is consistent with the effective execution of the liquidation.

(3) A submission to the court for disbursement of assets in accordance with section 10-3-533 fulfills the requirements of subsection (1) of this section.

10-3-525. Fraudulent transfers prior to petition. (1) Every transfer made or suffered and every obligation incurred by an insurer within one year prior to the filing of a successful petition for rehabilitation or liquidation under this part 5 is fraudulent as to then existing and future creditors if made or incurred without fair consideration or if made with actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud either existing or future creditors. A transfer made or an obligation incurred by an insurer ordered to be rehabilitated or liquidated under this part 5, which is fraudulent under this section, may be avoided by the receiver, except as to a person who in good faith is a purchaser, lienor, or obligee for a present fair equivalent value; except that any purchaser, lienor, or obligee, who in good faith has given a consideration less than fair for such transfer, lien, or obligation, may retain the property, lien, or obligation as security for repayment. The court may, on due notice, order any such transfer or obligation to be preserved for the benefit of the estate, and in that event, the receiver shall succeed to and may enforce the rights of the purchaser, lienor, or obligee.

(2) (a) A transfer of property other than real property shall be deemed to be made or suffered when it becomes so far perfected that no subsequent lien obtainable by legal or equitable proceedings on a simple contract could become superior to the rights of the transferee under section 10-3-527 (3).

(b) A transfer of real property shall be deemed to be made or suffered when it becomes so far perfected that no subsequent bona fide purchaser from the insurer could obtain rights superior to the rights of the transferee.

(c) A transfer which creates an equitable lien shall not be deemed to be perfected if there are available means by which a legal lien could be created.

(d) Any transfer not perfected prior to the filing of a petition for liquidation shall be deemed to be made immediately before the filing of the successful petition.

(e) The provisions of this subsection (2) shall apply whether or not there are or were creditors who might have obtained any liens or persons who might have become bona fide purchasers.

(3) Any transaction of the insurer with a reinsurer shall be deemed fraudulent and may be avoided by the receiver under subsection (1) of this section if:

(a) The transaction consists of the termination, adjustment, or settlement of a reinsurance contract in which the reinsurer is released from any part of its duty to pay the originally specified share of losses that had occurred prior to the time of the transactions, unless the reinsurer gives a present fair equivalent value for the release; and

(b) Any part of the transaction took place within one year prior to the date of filing of the petition through which the receivership was commenced.

10-3-526. Fraudulent transfer after petition. (1) After a petition for rehabilitation or liquidation has been filed, a transfer of any of the real property of the insurer made to a person acting in good faith shall be valid against the receiver if made for a present fair equivalent value; or, if not made for a present fair equivalent value, then to the extent of the present consideration actually paid therefore, for which amount the transferee shall have a lien on the property so transferred. The commencement of a proceeding in rehabilitation or liquidation shall be constructive notice upon the recording of a copy of the petition for or order of rehabilitation or liquidation with the recorder of deeds in the county where any real property in question is located. The exercise by a court of the United States or any state or jurisdiction to authorize or effect a judicial sale of real property of the insurer within any county in any state shall not be impaired by the pendency of such a proceeding unless the copy is recorded in the county prior to the consummation of the judicial sale.

(2) After a petition for rehabilitation or liquidation has been filed and before either the receiver takes possession of the property of the insurer or an order of rehabilitation or liquidation is granted:

(a) A transfer of any of the property of the insurer, other than real property, made to a person acting in good faith shall be valid against the receiver if made for a present fair equivalent value; or, if not made for a present fair equivalent value, then to the extent of the present consideration actually paid therefore, for which amount the transferee shall have a lien on the property so transferred.

(b) A person indebted to the insurer or holding property of the insurer may, if acting in good faith, pay the indebtedness or deliver the property, or any part thereof, to the insurer or upon the insurer's order, with the same effect as if the petition were not pending.

(c) A person having actual knowledge of the pending rehabilitation or liquidation shall be deemed not to act in good faith.

(d) A person asserting the validity of a transfer under this section shall have the burden of proof. Except as elsewhere provided in this section, no transfer by or on behalf of the insurer after the date of the petition for liquidation by any person other than the liquidator shall be valid against the liquidator.

(3) Every person receiving any property from the insurer or any benefit thereof which is a fraudulent transfer under subsection (1) of this section shall be personally liable therefore and shall be bound to account to the liquidator.

10-3-527. Voidable preferences and liens. (1) (a) A preference is a transfer of any of the property of an insurer to or for the benefit of a creditor, for or on account of an antecedent debt, made or suffered by the insurer within one year before the filing of a successful petition for liquidation under this part 5, the effect of which transfer may be to enable the creditor to obtain a greater percentage of this debt than another creditor of the same class would receive. If a liquidation order is entered while the insurer is already subject to a rehabilitation order, then such transfers shall be deemed preferences if made or suffered within one year before the filing of the successful petition for rehabilitation, or within two years before the filing of the successful petition for liquidation, whichever time is shorter.

(b) Any preference may be avoided by the liquidator if:

(I) The insurer was insolvent at the time of the transfer; or

(II) The transfer was made within four months before the filing of the petition; or

(III) The creditor receiving it or to be benefited thereby or the agent of any such creditor acting with reference thereto had, at the time when the transfer was made, reasonable cause to believe that the insurer was insolvent or was about to become insolvent; or

(IV) The creditor receiving it was an officer, or any employee or attorney or other person who was in fact in a position of comparable influence in the insurer to an officer whether or not such person held such position, or any shareholder holding directly or indirectly more than five percent of any class of any equity security issued by the insurer, or any other person, firm, corporation, association, or aggregation of persons with whom the insurer did not deal at arm's length.

(c) Where the preference is voidable, the liquidator may recover the property or, if it has been converted, its value from any person who has received or converted the property; except where a bona fide purchaser or lienor has given less than fair equivalent value, such purchaser or lienor shall have a lien upon the property to the extent of the consideration actually given by the purchaser. Where a preference by way of lien or security title is voidable, the court may on due notice order the lien or title to be preserved for the benefit of the estate, in which event the lien or title shall pass to the liquidator.

(2) (a) (I) A transfer of property other than real property shall be deemed to be made or suffered when it becomes so far perfected that no subsequent lien obtainable by legal or equitable proceedings on a simple contract could become superior to the rights of the transferee.

(II) A transfer of real property shall be deemed to be made or suffered when it becomes so far perfected that no subsequent bona fide purchaser from the insurer could obtain rights superior to the rights of the transferee.

(b) (I) A transfer which creates an equitable lien shall not be deemed to be perfected if there are available means by which a legal lien could be created.

(II) A transfer not perfected prior to the filing of a petition for liquidation shall be deemed to be made immediately before the filing of the successful petition.

(c) The provisions of this subsection (2) shall apply whether or not there are or were creditors who might have obtained liens or persons who might have become bona fide purchasers.

(3) (a) A lien obtainable by legal or equitable proceedings upon a simple contract is one arising in the ordinary course of such proceedings upon the entry or docketing of a judgment or decree, or upon attachment, garnishment, execution, or like process, whether before, upon, or after judgment or decree and whether before or upon levy. It does not include liens which under applicable law are given a special priority over other liens which are prior in time.

(b) A lien obtainable by legal or equitable proceedings could become superior to the rights of a transferee, or a purchaser could obtain rights superior to the rights of a transferee within the meaning of subsection (2) of this section, if such consequences would follow only from the lien or purchase itself, or from the lien or purchase followed by any step wholly within the control of the respective lienholder or purchaser, with or without the aid of ministerial action by public officials. Such a lien could not, however, become superior and such a purchase could not create superior rights for the purpose of subsection (2) of this section through any acts subsequent to the obtaining of such a lien or subsequent to such a purchase which require the agreement or concurrence of any third party or which require any further judicial action or ruling.

(4) A transfer of property for or on account of a new and contemporaneous consideration which is deemed under subsection (2) of this section to be made or suffered after the transfer because of delay in perfecting it does not thereby become a transfer for or on account of an antecedent debt if any acts required by the applicable law to be performed in order to perfect the transfer as against liens or bona fide purchasers' rights are performed within twenty-one days or any period expressly allowed by the law, whichever is less. A transfer to secure a future loan, if such a loan is actually made, or a transfer which becomes security for a future loan, shall have the same effect as a transfer for or on account of a new and contemporaneous consideration.

(5) If any lien deemed voidable under paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section has been dissolved by the furnishing of a bond or other obligation and the surety which has been indemnified directly or indirectly by the transfer of or the creation of a lien upon any property of an insurer before the filing of a petition under this part 5 which results in a liquidation order, the indemnifying transfer or lien shall also be deemed voidable.

(6) The property affected by any lien deemed voidable under subsections (1) and (5) of this section shall be discharged from such lien, and that property and any of the indemnifying property transferred to or for the benefit of a surety shall pass to the liquidator; except that the court may on due notice order any such lien to be preserved for the benefit of the estate and the court may direct that such conveyance be executed as may be proper or adequate to evidence the title of the liquidator.

(7) The district court in and for the city and county of Denver shall have summary jurisdiction of any proceeding by the liquidator to hear and determine the rights of any parties under this section. Reasonable notice of any hearing in the proceeding shall be given to all parties in interest, including the obligee of a releasing bond or other like obligation. Where an order is entered for the recovery of indemnifying property in kind or for the avoidance of an indemnifying lien, the court, upon application of any party in interest, shall in the same proceeding ascertain the value of the property or lien, and if the value is less than the amount for which the property is indemnity or than the amount of the lien, the transferee or lienholder may elect to retain the property or lien upon payment of its value, as ascertained by the court, to the liquidator, within such reasonable times as the court shall fix.

(8) The liability of the surety under a releasing bond or other like obligation shall be discharged to the extent of the value of the indemnifying property recovered or the indemnifying lien nullified and avoided by the liquidator, or where the property is retained under subsection (7) of this section to the extent of the amount paid to the liquidator.

(9) If a creditor has been preferred, and afterward in good faith gives the insurer further credit without security of any kind, for property which becomes a part of the insurer's estate, the amount of the new credit remaining unpaid at the time of the petition may be set off against the preference which would otherwise be recoverable from such insurer.

(10) If an insurer shall, directly or indirectly, within four months before the filing of a successful petition for liquidation under this part 5, or at any time in contemplation of a proceeding to liquidate it, pay money or transfer property to an attorney-at-law for services rendered or to be rendered, the transactions may be examined by the court on its own motion or shall be examined by the court on petition of the liquidator and shall be held valid only to the extent of a reasonable amount to be determined by the court, and the excess may be recovered by the liquidator for the benefits of the estate; except that, where the attorney is in a position of influence in the insurer or an affiliate thereof, payment of any money or the transfer of any property to the attorney-at-law for services rendered or to be rendered shall be governed by the provision of subparagraph (IV) of paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section.

(11) (a) Every officer, manager, employee, shareholder, member, subscriber, attorney, or any other person acting on behalf of the insurer who knowingly participates in giving any preference when any such person has reasonable cause to believe the insurer is or is about to become insolvent at the time of the preference shall be personally liable to the liquidator for the amount of the preference. It is permissible to infer that there is a reasonable cause to so believe if the transfer was made within four months before the date of filing of a successful petition for liquidation.

(b) Every person receiving any property from the insurer or the benefit thereof as a preference voidable under subsection (1) of this section shall be personally liable therefor and shall be bound to account to the liquidator.

(c) Nothing in this subsection (11) shall prejudice any other claim by the liquidator against any person.

10-3-528. Claims of holders of void or voidable rights. (1) No claims of a creditor who has received or acquired a preference, lien, conveyance, transfer, assignment, or encumbrance voidable under this part 5 shall be allowed unless such creditor surrenders the preference, lien, conveyance, transfer, assignment, or encumbrance. If the avoidance is effected by a proceeding in which a final judgment has been entered, the claim shall not be allowed unless the money is paid or the property is delivered to the liquidator within thirty days from the date of the entering of the final judgment; except that the court having jurisdiction over the liquidation may allow further time if there is an appeal or other continuation of the proceeding.

(2) A claim allowable under subsection (1) of this section by reason of the avoidance, whether voluntary or involuntary, or a preference, lien, conveyance, transfer, assignment, or encumbrance, may be filed as an excused last filing under section 10-3-534 if filed within thirty days from the date of the avoidance, or within the further time allowed by the court pursuant to subsection (1) of this section.

10-3-529. Setoffs - effective date - applicability. (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this title, mutual debts or mutual credits, whether arising out of one or more contracts between the insurer and another person in connection with any action or proceeding under this part 5, shall be set off, and the balance only shall be allowed or paid, except as provided in subsections (2) and (4) of this section and section 10-3-532.

(2) No setoff shall be allowed in favor of any person where:

(a) The obligation of the insurer to the person would not at the date of the filing of a petition for receivership entitle the person to share as a claimant in the assets of the insurer; or

(b) The obligation of the insurer to the person was purchased by or transferred to the person with a view to its being used as a setoff; or

(c) The obligation of the insurer is owed to an affiliate of such person, or any other entity or association other than the person; or

(d) The obligation of the person is owed to an affiliate of the insurer or to any other entity or association other than the insurer; or

(e) The obligation of the person is to pay an assessment levied against the members or subscribers of the insurer, or is to pay a balance upon a subscription to the capital stock of the insurer, or is in any other way in the nature of a capital contribution; or

(f) The obligations between the person and the insurer arise from business in which either the person or the insurer has assumed risks and obligations from the other party and then has ceded back to that party substantially the same risks and obligations; except that, with regard to such business, the commissioner has discretion to allow certain setoffs if the commissioner deems them appropriate.

(4) The commissioner may promulgate rules and regulations to implement this section including the establishment of reasonable accounting requirements.

(5) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section to the contrary, a setoff of sums due on obligations in the nature of those set forth in paragraph (f) of subsection (2) of this section shall be allowed for those sums accruing from business written where the contracts were entered into, renewed, or extended with the express written approval of the insurance department of the state of domicile of the now insolvent insurer and, in the judgment of such insurance department, it was necessary to provide reinsurance in order to prevent or mitigate a threatened impairment or insolvency of a domiciliary insurer in connection with the exercise of the said insurance department's regulatory responsibilities.

(6) This section shall be effective January 1, 1993, and shall apply to all contracts entered into, renewed, extended, or amended on or after said date and to debts or credits arising from any business written or transactions occurring after January 1, 1993, pursuant to any contract including those in existence prior to January 1, 1993, and shall supersede any agreements or contractual provisions which might be construed to enlarge the setoff rights of any person under any contract with the insurer. For purposes of this section, any change in the terms of, or consideration for, any such contract shall be deemed an amendment.

10-3-530. Assessments. (1) As soon as practicable but not more than two years after the date of an order of liquidation under section 10-3-517 of an insurer issuing assessable policies, the liquidator shall make a report to the court setting forth:

- (a) The reasonable value of the assets of the insurer;
- (b) The insurer's probable total liabilities;
- (c) The probable aggregate amount of the assessment necessary to pay all claims of creditors and expenses in full, including expenses of administration and costs of collecting the assessment; and
- (d) A recommendation as to whether or not an assessment should be made and in what amount.

(2) (a) Upon the basis of the report provided pursuant to subsection (1) of this section and including any supplements and amendments thereto, the district court in and for the city and county of Denver may levy one or more assessments against all members of the insurer who are subject to assessment.

(b) Subject to any applicable legal limits on assessability, the aggregate assessment shall be for the amount by which the sum of the probable liabilities, the expenses of administration, and the estimated cost of collection of the assessment exceeds the value of existing assets, with due regard being given to assessments that cannot be collected economically.

(3) After levy of assessment under subsection (2) of this section, the liquidator shall issue an order directing each member who has not paid the assessment pursuant to the order to show cause why the liquidator should not pursue a judgment therefor.

(4) The liquidator shall give notice of the order to show cause by publication and by first class mail to each member liable under such order mailed to the member's last known address as it appears on the insurer's records, at least twenty days before the return day of the order to show cause.

(5) (a) If a member does not appear and serve duly verified objections upon the liquidator on or before the return day of the order to show cause under subsection (3) of this section, the court shall make an order adjudging the member liable for the amount of the assessment together with costs, and the liquidator shall have a judgment against the member therefor.

(b) If, on or before such return day, the member appears and serves duly verified objections upon the liquidator, the commissioner may hear and determine the matter or may appoint a referee to hear it and make such order as the facts warrant. In the event that the commissioner determines that such objections do not warrant relief from assessment, the member may request the court to review the matter and vacate the order to show cause.

(6) The liquidator may enforce any order or collect any judgment under subsection (5) of this section by any lawful means.

10-3-531. Reinsurers' liability. (1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, the amount recoverable by the liquidator from reinsurers shall be payable under a contract or contracts reinsured by the reinsurer on the basis of reported claims allowed by the liquidation court without diminution as a result of the insolvency of the ceding insurer. Such payment shall be made directly to the ceding insurer or to its domiciliary liquidator unless the contract or other written agreement specifically provides another payee of such reinsurance in the event of the insolvency of the ceding insurer.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, if a life and health insurance guaranty association has elected to succeed to the rights and obligations of the insolvent insurer under the contract of reinsurance, whether pursuant to section 10-20-108 (13) (h) or otherwise, then the reinsurer's liability to pay covered reinsured claims shall continue under the contract of reinsurance, subject to the payment to the reinsurer of the reinsurance premiums for such coverage. Payment for such reinsured claims shall only be made by the reinsurer pursuant to the direction of the guaranty association or its designated successor. Any payment made at the direction of the guaranty association or its designated successor by the reinsurer shall discharge the reinsurer of all further liability to any other party for such claim payment.

10-3-532. Recovery of premiums owed. (1) (a) An agent, broker, premium finance company, or any other person other than the insured that is responsible for the payment of a premium shall be obligated to pay any unpaid premium for the full policy term due the insurer at the time of the declaration of insolvency, whether earned or unearned, as shown on the records of the insurer. The liquidator shall also have the right to recover from such person any part of an unearned premium that represents commission of such person. Credits or setoffs or both shall not be allowed to an agent, broker, or premium finance company for any amounts advanced to the insurer by the agent, broker, or premium finance company on behalf of, but in the absence of a payment by, the insured.

(b) An insured shall be obligated to pay any unpaid earned premium due the insurer at the time of the declaration of insolvency, as shown on the records of the insurer.

(2) Upon satisfactory evidence of a violation of this section, the commissioner may pursue either one or both of the following courses of action:

(a) Suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew the licenses of such offending party or parties;

(b) Impose a penalty of not more than one thousand dollars for each and every act in violation of this section by said party or parties.

(3) Before the commissioner takes any action set forth in subsection (2) of this section, the commissioner shall give written notice to the person, company, association, or exchange accused of violating the law, stating specifically the nature of the alleged violation and fixing a time and place, at least ten days thereafter, when a hearing on the matter shall be held. After such hearing, or upon failure of the accused to appear at such hearing the commissioner, if the commissioner finds the accused committed any such violation, shall impose such penalties under subsection (2) of this section as are deemed advisable.

(4) When the commissioner takes action in any or all of the ways set out in subsection (2) of this section, the party aggrieved may appeal from said action to the district court in and for the city and county of Denver.

10-3-533. Domiciliary liquidator's proposal to distribute assets. (1) Within one hundred twenty days after a final determination of insolvency of an insurer by a court of competent jurisdiction of this state, the liquidator shall make application to the court for approval of a proposal to disburse assets out of marshaled assets, from time to time and as such assets become available, to a guaranty association or foreign guaranty association having obligations because of such insolvency. If the liquidator determines that there are insufficient assets to disburse, the application required by this section shall be considered satisfied by a filing by the liquidator stating the reasons for such determination.

(2) The proposal referenced in subsection (1) of this section shall at least include provisions for:

(a) Reserving amounts for the payment of expenses of administration and the payment of claims of secured creditors, to the extent of the value of the security held, and claims falling within the priorities established in section 10-3-541 (1) and (2);

(b) Disbursement of the assets marshaled to date and subsequent disbursement of assets as they become available;

(c) Equitable allocation of disbursements to each of the guaranty associations and foreign guaranty associations entitled thereto;

(d) The securing, by the liquidator, from each of the associations entitled to disbursements pursuant to this section, of an agreement to return to the liquidator such assets together with income earned on assets previously disbursed as may be required to pay claims of secured creditors and claims falling within the priorities established in section 10-3-541 in accordance with such priorities; and in such case, no bond shall be required of any such association; and

(e) A full report to be made by each association to the liquidator accounting for all assets so disbursed to the association, all disbursements made therefrom, any interest earned by the association on such assets, and any other matter as the court may direct.

(3) The liquidator's proposal shall provide for disbursements to the associations in amounts estimated at least equal to the claim payments made or to be made thereby for which such associations could assert a claim against the liquidator, and shall further provide that, if the assets available for disbursement from time to time do not equal or exceed the amount of such claim payments made or to be made by the association, then disbursements shall be in the amount of available assets.

(4) The liquidator's proposal shall, with respect to an insolvent insurer writing life or health insurance or annuities, provide for disbursements of assets to any guaranty association or any foreign guaranty association covering life or health insurance or annuities or to any other entity or organization reinsuring, assuming, or guaranteeing policies or contracts of insurance under the statutes creating such associations.

(5) Notice of the application referenced in subsection (1) of this section shall be given to the association in, and to the insurance departments of, each of the states having jurisdiction over any insurer affected by the liquidator's proposal. Any such notice shall be deemed to have been given when deposited in the United States certified mail, first class postage prepaid, at least thirty days prior to submission of such application to the court. Action on the application may be taken by the court if such notice has been given and if the liquidator's proposal complies with the requirements of paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (2) of this section.

10-3-533.5. Sale of insolvent insurer as a going concern. (1) (a) The domiciliary receiver may apply to the court for permission to sell an insolvent domestic insurer as a going concern. If the court determines that the sale of the insurer as a going concern is in the best interest of the estate and that the sale will not diminish the value of the claims of shareholders and creditors, the court shall order that the insurer be discharged from all of its liabilities, that the outstanding shares of the insurer be cancelled, that for no additional consideration new shares of the insurer be issued in the name of the receiver, that the receiver be vested with title to the new shares, which shares shall be deemed validly issued, fully paid, and nonassessable pursuant to applicable law, and that the receiver be authorized to sell the shares, together with such state or federal income or other tax credits or deductions of the insurer as the receiver determines to be in the best interest of the estate. Upon confirmation of the sale by the court, the purchasers of the shares shall be vested with title to those shares, including any such tax credits of the insurer, free and clear of all claims and defenses. The proceeds from the sale of the shares shall become a part of the general assets of the estate in liquidation.

(b) A sale under this section does not affect the rights and liabilities of the estate of the insurer and of its creditors, policyholders, shareholders, members, and all other persons interested in the estate as fixed under section 10-3-541. No person is entitled to any priority or preference rights in the proceeds of the sale except as fixed under said section 10-3-541.

(c) As used in this section, "shares" has the same meaning as set forth in section 7-101-401 (31), C.R.S., and includes any secured party or other person or holder who has or claims to have any interest of any kind in any shares of the insurer.

(2) The enumeration of the powers and authority of the domiciliary receiver in this section shall not be construed as a limitation upon the receiver, nor shall it exclude in any manner the right to do such other acts not specifically enumerated in this section or otherwise provided for as may be necessary or appropriate for the accomplishment of or in aid of the purpose of liquidation.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be deemed a waiver of capitalization, surplus requirements, or any other condition of licensure imposed by this title for the issuance of a certificate of authority to do insurance business or for the change in control of a foreign or domestic insurer.

(4) This section shall be liberally construed to accomplish its purpose to provide a more expeditious and effective procedure for marshaling the assets of the estate in order to realize the maximum amount possible from the sale of those assets and ensure that the purchasers receive clear and marketable titles.

10-3-534. Filing of claims. (1) Proof of all claims shall be filed with the liquidator in the form required by section 10-3-535 on or before the last day for filing specified in the notice required under section 10-3-521; except that proof of claims for cash surrender values or other investment values in life insurance and annuities need not be filed unless the liquidator expressly so requires.

(2) The liquidator may permit a claimant making a late filing to share in distributions, whether past or future, as if the claimant's filing were not late, to the extent that any such payment will not prejudice the orderly administration of the liquidation, under the following circumstances:

(a) A transfer to a creditor was avoided under sections 10-3-525 to 10-3-527, or was voluntarily surrendered under section 10-3-528, and the filing satisfies the conditions set forth in section 10-3-528; or

(b) The valuation, under section 10-3-540, of security held by a secured creditor shows a deficiency which is filed within thirty days after the valuation.

(3) The liquidator shall permit late-filed claims to share in distributions, whether past or future, as if they were not late, if such claims are claims of a guaranty association or foreign guaranty association for reimbursement of covered claims paid or expenses incurred, or both, subsequent to the last day for filing where such payments were made and expenses incurred as provided by law.

10-3-535. Proof of claim. (1) Proof of claim shall consist of a statement signed by the claimant that includes all of the following that are applicable:

- (a) The particulars of the claim, including the consideration given for it;
- (b) The identity and amount of the security on the claim;
- (c) The payments made on the debt, if any;
- (d) That the sum claimed is justly owing and that there is no setoff, counterclaim, or defense to the claim;
- (e) Any right of priority of payment or other specific right asserted by the claimant;
- (f) A copy of the written instrument which is the foundation of the claim; and
- (g) The name and address of the claimant and of the attorney, if any, who represents the claimant.

(2) No claim needs to be considered or allowed if it does not contain all the information specified in subsection (1) of this section which may be applicable. The liquidator may require that a prescribed form be used, and may require that other information and documents be included.

(3) The liquidator may, at any time, request the claimant to present information or evidence supplementary to that required under subsection (1) of this section and may take testimony under oath, require production of affidavits or depositions, or otherwise obtain additional information or evidence.

(4) No judgment or order against an insured or the insurer entered after the date of filing of a successful petition for liquidation, and no judgment or order against an insured or the insurer entered at any time by default or by collusion, needs to be considered as evidence of liability or of quantum of damages. No judgment or order against an insured or the insurer entered within the four-month period immediately preceding the filing of the petition needs be considered as evidence of liability or of the quantum of damages.

(5) All claims of a guaranty association or foreign guaranty association shall be in such form and shall contain such substantiation as may be agreed to by the association and the liquidator.

10-3-536. Special claims. (1) The claim of a third party which is contingent only on such party's first obtaining a judgment against the insured shall be considered and allowed as though there were no such contingency.

(2) A claim may be allowed, even if contingent, if it is filed in accordance with section 10-3-534; and such claim may be allowed and may participate in all distributions declared after it is filed to the extent that it does not prejudice the orderly administration of the liquidation.

(3) Claims that are due except for the passage of time shall be treated in the same manner as are absolute claims; except that such claims may be discounted at the legal rate of interest.

(4) Claims made under employment contracts by directors, principal officers, or persons in fact performing similar functions or having similar powers are limited to payment for services rendered prior to the issuance of any order of rehabilitation or liquidation under section 10-3-512 or 10-3-517.

10-3-537. Special provisions for third-party claims. (1) Whenever any third party asserts a cause of action against an insured of an insurer in liquidation, the third party may file a claim with the liquidator.

(2) Whether or not the third party files a claim, the insured may file a claim on the insured's own behalf in the liquidation. If the insured fails to file a claim by the date for filing claims specified in the order of liquidation or within sixty days after mailing of the notice required by section 10-3-521, whichever is later, the insured is an unexcused late filer.

(3) The liquidator shall make recommendations to the court under section 10-3-541 for the allowance of an insured's claim under subsection (2) of this section after consideration of the probable outcome of any pending action against the insured on which the claim is based, the probable damages recoverable in the action, and the probable costs and expenses of defense. After allowance by the court, the liquidator shall withhold any dividends payable on the claim pending the outcome of litigation and negotiation with the insured. When appropriate, the liquidator shall reconsider the claim on the basis of additional information and amend the said recommendations to the court. The insured shall be afforded the same notice and opportunity to be heard on all changes in any recommendation as in its initial determination. The court may amend its allowance as it finds appropriate. As claims against the insured are settled or barred, the insured shall be paid from the amount withheld the same percentage dividend as was paid on other claims of like property, based on the lesser of the amount actually recovered from the insured by action or paid by agreement plus the reasonable costs and expense of defense, or the amount allowed on the claims by the court. After all claims are settled or barred, any sum remaining from the amount withheld shall revert to the undistributed assets of the insurer. Delay in final payment under this subsection (3) shall not be a reason for unreasonable delay of final distribution and discharge of the liquidator.

(4) If several claims founded upon one policy are filed, whether by third parties or as claims by the insured under this section, and the aggregate allowed amount of the claims to which the same limit of liability in the policy is applicable exceeds that limit, each claim as allowed shall be reduced in the same proportion so that the total equals the policy limit. Claims by the insured shall be evaluated as in subsection (3) of this section. If any insured's claim is subsequently reduced under subsection (3) of this section, the amount thus freed shall be apportioned ratably among the claims which have been reduced under this subsection (4).

(5) No claim may be presented under this section if it is or may be covered by any guaranty association or foreign guaranty association.

10-3-538. Disputed claims. (1) When a claim is denied in whole or in part by the liquidator, written notice of the determination shall be given to the claimant or the claimant's attorney by first class mail at the address shown in the proof of claim. Within sixty days after the mailing of the notice, the claimant may file objections with the liquidator. If no such filing is made, the claimant may not further object to the determination.

(2) Whenever objections are filed with the liquidator and the liquidator does not alter the denial of the claim as a result of the objections, the liquidator shall ask the court for a hearing as soon as practicable and give notice of the hearing by first class mail to the claimant or the claimant's attorney and to any other persons directly affected, not less than ten days nor more than thirty days before the date of the hearing. The matter may be heard by the court or by a court-appointed referee, who shall submit findings of fact along with a recommendation.

10-3-539. Claims of surety. Whenever a creditor whose claim against an insurer is secured, in whole or in part, by the undertaking of another person fails to prove and file that claim, such other person may do so in the creditor's name and shall be subrogated to the rights of the creditor, whether the claim has been filed by the creditor or by the other person in the creditor's name, to the extent that the other person discharges the undertaking; except that, in the absence of an agreement with the creditor to the contrary, the other person shall not be entitled to any distribution until the amount paid to the creditor on the undertaking plus the distributions paid on the claim from the insurer's estate to the creditor equals the amount of the entire claim of the creditor. Any excess received by the creditor shall be held by the creditor in trust for such other person. The term "other person", as used in this section, does not apply to a guaranty association or foreign guaranty association.

10-3-540. Secured creditors' claims. (1) The value of any security held by a secured creditor shall be determined in one of the following ways, as the court may direct:

(a) By converting the same into money according to the terms of the agreement pursuant to which the security was delivered to such creditor; or

(2) The determination shall be under the supervision and control of the court with due regard for the recommendation of the liquidator. The amount so determined shall be credited upon the secured claim, and any deficiency shall be treated as an unsecured claim. If the claimant surrenders the security to the liquidator, the entire claim shall be allowed as if unsecured.

10-3-541. Priority of distribution - definitions. (1) The priority of distribution of claims from the insurer's estate shall be in accordance with the order in which each class of claims is set forth in this section. Every claim in each class shall be paid in full, or adequate funds shall be retained for such payment, before the members of the next class receive any payment. No subclasses shall be established within any class. The order of distribution of claims shall be:

(a) Class 1. The costs and expenses of administration during rehabilitation and liquidation, including but not limited to the following:

(I) The actual and necessary costs of preserving or recovering the assets of the insurer;

(II) Compensation for all authorized services rendered in the rehabilitation and liquidation;

(III) Any necessary filing fees;

(IV) The fees and mileage payable to witnesses;

(V) Authorized reasonable attorney fees and fees for other professional services rendered in the rehabilitation and liquidation; and

(VI) The administrative expenses of guaranty associations.

(b) Class 2. All claims under policies including such claims of the federal or any state or local government including unearned premium claims, third-party claims, and all claims of a guaranty association or foreign guaranty association. That portion of any loss for which indemnification is provided by other benefits or advantages recovered by the claimant, other than benefits or advantages recovered or recoverable in discharge of familial obligation of support or by way of succession at death or as proceeds of life insurance, or as gratuities, shall not be included in this class. No payment by an employer to the employer's employee shall be treated as a gratuity. All claims under life insurance and annuities policies and deposits, whether for death proceeds, annuity proceeds, or values, shall be treated as class 2 claims. For the purpose of this paragraph (b), policies shall include those insurance company products that are authorized under the laws of this state as such laws existed on the date of the issuance of such policies or on the date of the entry of an order of liquidation. Notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph (b), class 2 claims shall not include:

(I) Claims under annuity and deposit contracts issued on or before August 15, 2000, however labeled, including labels such as annuity, deposit, financial guarantee, funding agreement, or guaranteed investment contract, unless the contract is:

(A) Issued to, or owned by, an individual or is otherwise an annuity issued in connection with and for the purpose of funding structured settlements of liability; or

(B) Issued to, for the benefit of, or in connection with, a specific employee benefit plan or governmental lottery;

(II) Claims where the risk is not borne by the insurer, such as the uninsured portion of:

(A) A minimum premium group insurance plan;
(B) A stop-loss group insurance plan; or
(C) An administrative-services only contract and the related uninsured plan liabilities;
(III) Claims under an unallocated annuity contract issued to an employee benefit plan protected under the federal pension benefit guaranty corporation; and

(IV) Claims for benefits which are exclusively payable or determined by a separate account required by the terms of such contract to be maintained by the insurer or a separate entity.

(c) Class 3. Claims of the federal government, except those described in paragraph (b) of this subsection (1).

(d) Class 4. Reasonable compensation to employees for services performed to the extent that they do not exceed two months of monetary compensation and represent payment for services performed within the one-year period immediately preceding the filing of the petition for liquidation. Principal officers and directors shall not be entitled to the benefit of this priority except as otherwise approved by the liquidator and the court. Such priority shall be in lieu of any other similar priority which may be authorized by law as to wages or compensation of employees.

(e) Class 5. Claims of any state or local government except those under paragraph (b) of this subsection (1). Claims in this paragraph (e), including those of any governmental body for a penalty or forfeiture, shall be allowed only to the extent of the pecuniary loss sustained from the act, transaction, or proceeding out of which the penalty or forfeiture arose and for the reasonable and actual costs occasioned thereby. The remainder of such claims shall be postponed to class 7.

(f) Class 6. Claims filed late and any other claims other than claims described in paragraph (h) of this subsection (1).

(g) Class 7. Surplus or contribution notes or similar obligations, and premium refunds on assessable policies. Payments to members of domestic mutual insurance companies shall be limited in accordance with law.

(2) (a) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2003, p. 2045, § 2, effective May 22, 2003.)

(b) Every claim under a separate account contract providing, in effect, that the assets in the separate account shall not be chargeable with liabilities arising out of any other business of the insurer shall be satisfied out of the assets in the separate account equal to the reserves and other contract liabilities maintained in such account for such contract. To the extent, if any, that the separate account assets are not sufficient to discharge such claims due to fraud, error, or other malfeasance on the part of the insurer or if unsatisfied claims arise from a contractual guarantee made to a contract holder by the insurer's general account, such unsatisfied claims shall be treated as a class 2 claim against the insurer's estate. Any such class 2 claim shall be subject to the applicable exceptions for this class, excluding the exception for separate accounts under subparagraph (IV) of paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section.

(3) As used in this section:

(a) "Insurer's estate" means the general assets of such insurer less any assets held in separate accounts that, pursuant to section 10-7-402, are not chargeable with liabilities arising out of any other business of the insurer. To the extent, if any, assets maintained in the separate account are in excess of the amounts needed to satisfy claims under the separate account contracts, the excess shall be treated as part of the insurer's estate.

(b) "Separate account contract" means any life policy or contract, annuity contract, funding agreement, or guaranteed investment contract providing for the allocation of amounts received in connection with such policy, contract, or agreement to a separate account authorized by section 10-7-402.

10-3-542. Liquidator's recommendations to the court. (1) The liquidator shall review all claims duly filed in the liquidation and shall make such further investigation as deemed necessary. The liquidator may compound, compromise, or in any other manner negotiate the amount for which claims will be recommended to the court except where the liquidator is required by law to accept claims as settled by any person or organization, including any guaranty association or foreign guaranty association. Unresolved disputes shall be determined under section 10-3-538. As soon as practicable, the liquidator shall present to the court a report of the claims against the insurer with the liquidator's recommendations. The report shall include the name and address of each claimant and the amount of the claim finally recommended, if any. If the insurer has issued annuities or life insurance policies, the liquidator shall report the persons to whom, according to the records of the insurer, amounts are owed as cash surrender values or other investment value and the amounts owed.

(2) The court may approve, disapprove, or modify the liquidator's report on claims. Claims allowed in any report not modified by the court within a period of sixty days after submission by the liquidator shall be treated by the liquidator as allowed claims, subject thereafter to later modification or to rulings made by the court pursuant to section 10-3-538. No claim under a policy of insurance shall be allowed for an amount in excess of the applicable policy limits.

10-3-543. Distribution of assets. Under the direction of the court, the liquidator shall pay distributions in a manner that will assure the proper recognition of priorities and a reasonable balance between the expeditious completion of the liquidation and the protection of unliquidated and undetermined claims, including third party claims. Distribution of assets in kind may be made at valuations set by agreement between the liquidator and the creditor and approved by the court.

10-3-544. Unclaimed and withheld funds. (1) All unclaimed funds subject to distribution remaining in the liquidator's hands when the liquidator is ready to apply to the court for discharge, including the amount distributable to any creditor, shareholder, member, or other person who is unknown or cannot be found, shall be deposited with the state treasurer and shall be paid, without interest, except in accordance with section 10-3-541, to the person entitled thereto or such person's legal representative upon proof satisfactory to the state treasurer of the person's right thereto. Any amount on deposit not claimed within six years after the date of discharge of the liquidator shall be deemed to have been abandoned and shall escheat, without formal escheat proceedings, to the state and shall be deposited in the general fund.

(2) All funds withheld under section 10-3-537 and not distributed shall, upon discharge of the liquidator, be deposited with the state treasurer and paid in accordance with section 10-3-541. Any sums remaining which, under section 10-3-541, would revert to the undistributed assets of the insurer shall be transferred to the state treasurer and become the property of the state under subsection (1) of this section unless the commissioner in the commissioner's discretion petitions the court to reopen the liquidation under section 10-3-546.

10-3-545. Termination of proceedings. (1) When all assets justifying the expense of collection and distribution have been collected and distributed under this part 5, the liquidator shall apply to the court for discharge. The court may grant the discharge and make any other orders, including an order to transfer any remaining funds that are uneconomic to distribute, as may be deemed appropriate.

(2) Any other person may apply to the court at any time for an order under subsection (1) of this section. If the application is denied, the applicant shall pay the costs and expenses of the liquidator in resisting the application, including a reasonable attorney fee.

10-3-546. Reopening liquidation. After the liquidation proceeding has been terminated and the liquidator discharged, the commissioner or other interested party may at any time petition the district court in and for the city and county of Denver to reopen the proceedings for good cause, including the discovery of additional assets. If the court is satisfied that there is justification for reopening, it shall so order.

10-3-547. Disposition of records during and after termination of liquidation. Whenever it appears to the commissioner that the records of any insurer in process of liquidation or completely liquidated are no longer useful, the commissioner may recommend to the court and the court shall direct what records should be retained for future reference and what should be destroyed.

10-3-548. External audit of receiver's books. The district court in and for the city and county of Denver may, as it deems desirable, cause audits to be made of the books of the commissioner relating to any receivership established under this part 5, and a report of each such audit shall be filed with the commissioner and with the court. The books, records, and other documents of the receivership shall be made available to the auditor at any time without notice. The expense of each audit shall be considered a cost of administration of the receivership.

10-3-549. Conservation of property of foreign or alien insurers found in this state. (1) If a domiciliary liquidator has not been appointed, the commissioner may apply to the district court in and for the city and county of Denver by verified petition for an order directing the commissioner to act as conservator to conserve the property of an alien insurer not domiciled in this state or a foreign insurer on any one or more of the following grounds:

- (a) Any of the grounds set forth in section 10-3-511;
- (b) That any of the insurer's property has been sequestered by official action in its domiciliary state or in any other state;
- (c) That enough of its property has been sequestered in a foreign country to give reasonable cause to fear that the insurer is or may become insolvent;
- (d) That its certificate of authority to do business in this state has been revoked or that none was ever issued and that there are residents of this state with outstanding claims or outstanding policies.

(2) When an order is sought under subsection (1) of this section, the court shall cause the insurer to be given such notice and time to respond thereto as is reasonable under the circumstances.

(3) The court may issue the order in whatever terms it deems appropriate. The filing or recording of the order with the clerk of the said court or with the recorder of deeds of the county in which the principal business of the company is located shall impart the same notice as would be imparted by a deed, bill of sale, or other evidence of title duly filed or recorded with that recorder of deeds.

(4) The conservator may at any time petition for, and the court may grant, an order under section 10-3-550 to liquidate assets of a foreign or alien insurer under conservation, or, if appropriate, for appointment as ancillary receiver under section 10-3-552.

(5) The conservator may at any time petition the court for an order terminating conservation of an insurer. If the court finds that the conservation is no longer necessary, it shall order that the insurer be restored to possession of its property and the control of its business. The court may also make such finding and issue such order at any time upon motion of any interested party. If such motion by any person other than the conservator is denied, all costs of such motion shall be assessed against the movant.

10-3-550. Liquidation of property of foreign or alien insurers found in this state.

(1) If no domiciliary receiver has been appointed, the commissioner may apply to the district court in and for the city and county of Denver by verified petition for an order directing the commissioner to liquidate the assets found in this state of a foreign insurer or an alien insurer not domiciled in this state, on any of the grounds specified in section 10-3-511 or 10-3-516 or any of the grounds specified in section 10-3-549 (1) (b) to (1) (d).

(2) When an order is sought under subsection (1) of this section, the court shall cause the insurer to be given such notice and time to respond thereto as is reasonable under the circumstances.

(3) If it appears to the court that the best interests of creditors, policyholders, and the public so require, the court may issue an order to liquidate in whatever terms it deems appropriate. The filing or recording of the order with the clerk of the said court or with the recorder of deeds of the county in which the principal business of the company is located or the county in which its principal office or place of business is located shall impart the same notice as would be imparted by a deed, bill of sale, or other evidence of title duly filed or recorded with such recorder of deeds.

(4) If a domiciliary liquidator is appointed in a reciprocal state while a liquidation is proceeding under this section, the liquidator under this section shall thereafter act as ancillary receiver under section 10-3-552. If a domiciliary liquidator is appointed in a nonreciprocal state while a liquidation is proceeding under this section, the liquidator under this section may petition the court for permission to act as ancillary receiver under section 10-3-552.

(5) On the same grounds as are specified in subsection (1) of this section, the commissioner may petition any appropriate federal district court to be appointed receiver to liquidate that portion of the insurer's assets and business over which the court will exercise jurisdiction, or over any lesser part thereof that the commissioner deems desirable for the protection of the policyholders and creditors in this state.

(6) The court may order the commissioner, when the commissioner has liquidated the assets of a foreign or alien insurer under this section, to pay claims of residents of this state against the insurer under such rules governing the liquidation of insurers under this part 5 as are otherwise compatible with the provisions of this section.

10-3-551. Domiciliary liquidators in other states. (1) The domiciliary liquidator of an insurer domiciled in a reciprocal state shall be vested, except as to special deposits and security on secured claims under section 10-3-552 (3), by operation of law with the title to all of the assets, property, contracts, rights of action, and agents' balances and all of the books, accounts, and other records of the insurer located in this state. The date of vesting shall be the date of the filing of the petition, if that date is specified by the domiciliary law for the vesting of property in the domiciliary state; otherwise, the date of vesting shall be the date of entry of the order directing possession to be taken. The domiciliary liquidator shall have the immediate right to recover balances due from agents and to obtain possession of the books, accounts, and other records of the insurer located in this state, and shall also, subject to the provisions of section 10-3-552, have the right to recover all other assets of the insurer located in this state.

(2) If a domiciliary liquidator is appointed for an insurer not domiciled in a reciprocal state, the commissioner of this state shall be vested by operation of law with the title to all of the property, contracts, and rights of action and all of the books, accounts, and other records of the insurer located in this state, at the same time that the domiciliary liquidator is vested with title in the domicile. The commissioner of this state may petition for a conservation or liquidation order under section 10-3-549 or 10-3-550 or for an ancillary receivership under section 10-3-552, or, after approval by the district court in and for the city and county of Denver, may transfer title to the domiciliary liquidator as the interests of justice and the equitable distribution of the assets require.

(3) Claimants residing in this state may file claims with the liquidator or ancillary receiver, if any, in this state or with the domiciliary liquidator, if the domiciliary law permits. Such claims shall be filed on or before the last date fixed for the filing of claims in the domiciliary liquidation proceedings.

10-3-552. Ancillary formal proceedings. (1) If a domiciliary liquidator has been appointed for an insurer not domiciled in this state, the commissioner may file a petition with the district court in and for the city and county of Denver requesting appointment as ancillary receiver in this state:

(a) If the commissioner finds that there are sufficient assets of the insurer located in this state to justify the appointment of an ancillary receiver; or

(2) The court may issue an order appointing an ancillary receiver in whatever terms it deems appropriate. The filing or recording of the order with a recorder of deeds in this state imparts the same notice as would be imparted by a deed, bill of sale, or other evidence of title duly filed or recorded with such recorder of deeds.

(3) When a domiciliary liquidator has been appointed in a reciprocal state, then the ancillary receiver appointed in this state may, whenever necessary, aid and assist the domiciliary liquidator in recovering assets of the insurer located in this state. The ancillary receiver shall, as soon as is practicable, liquidate from their respective securities those special deposit claims and secured claims which are proved and allowed in the ancillary proceedings in this state, and shall pay the necessary expenses of the proceedings. The ancillary receiver shall also promptly transfer all remaining assets, books, accounts, and records to the domiciliary liquidator. Subject to this section, the ancillary receiver and such ancillary receiver's deputies shall have the same powers and be subject to the same duties with respect to the administration of assets as a liquidator of an insurer domiciled in this state.

(4) When a domiciliary liquidator has been appointed in this state, ancillary receivers appointed in reciprocal states shall have, as to assets and books, accounts, and other records in their respective states, rights, duties, and powers corresponding to those provided in subsection (3) of this section for ancillary receivers appointed in this state.

10-3-553. Ancillary summary proceedings. The commissioner, in the commissioner's sole discretion, may institute proceedings under sections 10-3-509 and 10-3-510 at the request of the insurance department of the domiciliary state of any foreign or alien insurer having property located in this state.

10-3-554. Claims of nonresidents against insurers domiciled in this state. (1) In a liquidation proceeding commenced in this state against an insurer domiciled in this state, claimants residing in foreign countries or in states that are not reciprocal states must file claims in this state, and claimants residing in reciprocal states may file claims either with the ancillary receivers, if any, in their respective states, if a claim filing procedure is established in the ancillary proceeding, or with the domiciliary liquidator. Such claims shall be filed on or before the last date fixed for the filing of claims in the domiciliary liquidation proceeding.

(2) Claims belonging to claimants residing in reciprocal states may be proved either in the liquidation proceeding in this state as provided in this part 5, or in ancillary proceedings, if any, in the reciprocal states if a claim filing procedure is established in the ancillary proceeding. If notice of the claims and opportunity to appear and be heard is afforded the domiciliary liquidator of this state as provided in section 10-3-555 (2) with respect to ancillary proceedings, the final allowance of claims by the courts in ancillary proceedings in reciprocal states shall be conclusive as to amount and as to priority against special deposits or other security located in such ancillary states, but shall not be conclusive with respect to priorities against general assets under section 10-3-541.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 10-3-505 as it existed prior to 1992.

10-3-555. Claims of residents against insurers domiciled in reciprocal states.

(1) Promptly after the appointment of the commissioner as ancillary receiver for an insurer not domiciled in this state, the commissioner shall determine whether there are claimants residing in this state who are not protected by guaranty funds and, if so, whether the protection of such claimants requires the establishing of a claim filing procedure in the ancillary proceeding. If a claim filing procedure is established, claimants against the insurer who reside within this state may file claims either with the ancillary receiver, if any, in this state, or with the domiciliary liquidator. Such claims shall be filed on or before the last dates fixed for the filing of claims in the domiciliary liquidation proceeding.

(2) Claims belonging to claimants residing in this state may be proved either in the domiciliary state under the law of that state, or in ancillary proceedings, if any, in this state if a claim filing procedure is established in such ancillary proceeding. If a claimant elects to prove such a claim in this state, the claimant shall file the claim with the liquidator in the manner provided in sections 10-3-534 and 10-3-535. The ancillary receiver shall make a recommendation to the court as under section 10-3-542 and shall also arrange a date for hearing if necessary under section 10-3-538 and shall give notice to the liquidator in the domiciliary state, either by certified mail or by personal service, at least forty days prior to the date set for hearing. If the domiciliary liquidator, within thirty days after the giving of such notice, gives notice in writing to the ancillary receiver and to the claimant, either by certified mail or by personal service, of the domiciliary liquidator's intention to contest the claim, the domiciliary liquidator shall be entitled to appear or to be represented in any proceeding in this state involving the adjudication of the claim.

(3) The final allowance of the claim by the courts of this state shall be accepted as conclusive as to amount and as to priority against special deposits or other security located in this state.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 10-3-506 as it existed prior to 1992.

10-3-556. Attachment, garnishment, and levy of execution. During the pendency in this or any other state of a liquidation proceeding, whether called by that name or not, no action or proceeding in the nature of an attachment, garnishment, or levy of execution shall be commenced or maintained in this state against the delinquent insurer or its assets.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 10-3-510 as it existed prior to 1992.

10-3-557. Interstate priorities. (1) In a liquidation proceeding in this state involving one or more reciprocal states, the order of distribution of the domiciliary state shall control as to all claims of residents of this and reciprocal states. All claims of residents of reciprocal states shall be given equal priority of payment from general assets regardless of where such assets are located.

(2) The owners of special deposit claims against an insurer for which a liquidator is appointed in this or any other state shall be given priority against the special deposits in accordance with the statutes governing the creation and maintenance of the deposits. If there is a deficiency in any deposit, so that the claims secured by it are not fully discharged from it, the claimants may share in the general assets, but the sharing shall be deferred until general creditors, as well as all claimants against other special deposits who have received smaller percentages from their respective special deposits, have been paid percentages of their claims equal to the percentage paid from the special deposit.

(3) The owner of a secured claim against an insurer for which a liquidator has been appointed in this or any other state may surrender the security and file the claim as a general creditor. Alternatively, the claim may be discharged by resort to the security in accordance with section 10-3-540, in which case the deficiency, if any, shall be treated as a claim against the general assets of the insurer on the same basis as claims of unsecured creditors.

10-3-558. Subordination of claims for noncooperation. If an ancillary receiver in another state or foreign country, whether called by that name or not, fails to transfer to the domiciliary liquidator in this state any assets within such receiver's control other than special deposits, diminished only by the expenses of the ancillary receivership, if any, the claims filed in the ancillary receivership, other than special deposit claims or secured claims, shall be placed in the class 7 as defined in section 10-3-541 (1) (g).

PART 6

EXCHANGE OF INSURANCE SECURITIES ACT

10-3-601. Short title. This part 6 shall be known and may be cited as the "Colorado Exchange of Insurance Securities Act".

10-3-602. Exchange of securities. (1) Any stock insurance company organized under the laws of this state, referred to in this part 6 as a "domestic company", may adopt a plan of exchange providing for the exchange by its shareholders of their stock in the domestic company for:

- (a) Shares of stock issued by an acquiring corporation; or
- (b) Other securities issued by an acquiring corporation; or
- (c) Cash; or
- (d) Other consideration; or
- (e) Any combination of such stock, other securities, cash, or other consideration.

10-3-603. Acquiring corporation - definition. (1) As used in this part 6, "acquiring corporation" means:

(a) Any stock insurance company organized under the laws of this state, other than the domestic company whose shareholders are to exchange their stock under a plan of exchange, as provided in this part 6; or

(b) Any stock corporation organized under the "Colorado Corporation Code" which is not an insurance company; or

(c) Any stock corporation which is not an insurance company and which was organized under any general law of this state prior to the effective date of the "Colorado Corporation Code" (January 1, 1959) and to which such code is applicable; or

(d) Any stock corporation organized under the laws of any state of the United States, whether or not an insurance company.

Editor's note: The "Colorado Corporation Code", articles 1 to 10 of title 7, referred to in subsection (1)(b) and (1)(c), was repealed, effective July 1, 1994, and replaced by the "Colorado Business Corporation Act", articles 101 to 117 of title 7.

10-3-604. Procedure for exchange. (1) Any domestic company may adopt a plan of exchange with any acquiring corporation providing for the exchange of the outstanding stock of the domestic company for shares of stock or other securities issued by the acquiring corporation, or cash, or other consideration, or any combination thereof, in the following manner:

(a) The boards of directors of the domestic company and of the acquiring corporation, by resolutions approved by a majority of the whole of each such board, shall adopt a plan of exchange which shall set forth the terms and conditions of the exchange and the mode of carrying the same into effect and such other provisions with respect to the exchange as may be deemed necessary or desirable.

(b) The domestic company and the acquiring corporation shall submit to the commissioner three copies of the plan of exchange certified by an officer of each as having been adopted in accordance with paragraph (a) of this subsection (1). Such copies of the plan of exchange shall be accompanied by:

(I) The annual statement of the domestic company for its last preceding calendar year prepared pursuant to section 10-3-208;

(II) Fully audited financial information as to the earnings and financial condition of the acquiring corporation for the preceding five fiscal years of each such acquiring corporation, or for lesser period as such acquiring corporation and any predecessors thereof have been in existence, and similar unaudited information as of a date not earlier than ninety days prior to the date of filing the statement;

(III) A pro forma financial statement of each acquiring corporation based on the assumption that the plan of exchange was effective as proposed at the end of the last preceding calendar year of the domestic company;

(IV) An estimate of expenses already incurred and expenses expected to be incurred in connection with the proposed plan of exchange;

(V) A written statement which sets forth for each corporation the proposed changes, if any, in management policies and the identity of officers and directors of the domestic company and of the acquiring corporation which are initially contemplated should the plan of exchange be effective as proposed; and

(VI) If the plan of exchange is submitted to the commissioner after March 31 of any year, a balance sheet of the domestic company, as of a date within ninety days prior to the date the plan is submitted, a summary of operations of the domestic company for the period between the preceding December 31 and the date of such balance sheet, and financial statements of each acquiring corporation based on the assumption that the plan of exchange was effective as proposed on the date of such balance sheet.

(c) The commissioner shall hold a hearing upon the fairness of: The terms, conditions, and provisions of the plan of exchange; and the proposed exchange of stock or other securities of the acquiring corporation, or cash, or other consideration, or any combination thereof, for the stock of the domestic company, at which hearing the policyholders and the shareholders of both the domestic company and the acquiring corporation and any other interested party shall have the right to appear and to become party to the proceeding. The commissioner shall require the domestic company and the acquiring corporation to produce such evidence as he deems necessary to establish the fairness to be ascertained at the hearing, including in any event evidence concerning the valuation of the respective companies and the method utilized by the management of each corporation to accomplish such valuation, inclusive of the value established with respect to the stock of the domestic company which is proposed to be exchanged, as well as the value of the stock, securities, and consideration, other than cash, to be offered by the acquiring corporation in such exchange.

(d) Such hearing shall be commenced not less than twenty days after the date on which the plan of exchange is presented to the commissioner. The hearing shall be held in the city and county of Denver at such place, date, and time as the commissioner specifies. Notice of the hearing shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the city wherein is located the principal office of the domestic company and of the acquiring corporation, and in the city and county of Denver, once a week for two successive weeks. Written notice of the hearing shall be mailed at least ten days prior to the hearing by the domestic company and by the acquiring corporation to all of their respective shareholders. All expenses of publication shall be borne by the domestic company or the acquiring corporation, or both, as specified in the plan of exchange. The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of section 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(e) The commissioner shall issue an order approving the plan of exchange as delivered to him by the domestic company and the acquiring corporation and such modifications therein as a majority of the whole board of directors of each such corporation approves if he finds: That the plan, including all such modifications, if effected, will not tend adversely to affect the financial stability or management of the domestic company or the general capacity or intention to continue the safe and prudent transaction of the insurance business of the domestic company or of the acquiring corporation if it is a domestic insurance company; that the interests of the policyholders and shareholders of the domestic company and, if the acquiring corporation is a domestic insurance company, the policyholders of the acquiring corporation are adequately protected; that the fulfillment of the plan will not affect either the contractual obligations of the domestic company and of the acquiring corporation, if it is a domestic insurance company, to its policyholders or the ability and tendency of either to render service to its policyholders in the future; that the effect of the merger or other acquisition of control would not substantially lessen competition in the business of providing insurance in this state or tend to create a monopoly therein; that all plans or proposals which the acquiring corporation has to liquidate the domestic company or to sell its assets, consolidate or merge it with any person, or make any other material change in its business or corporate structure or management have been fully disclosed and are not unfair or unreasonable to policyholders of the domestic company and are in the public interest; that the competence, experience, and integrity of those persons who would control the operation of the insurer are such that it would be in the interest of the policyholders of the domestic company and of the public to permit the merger or other acquisition of control; and that the terms and conditions of the plan of exchange and the proposed issuance and exchange are otherwise fair and reasonable.

(f) The order of the commissioner approving or disapproving the plan of exchange shall be filed in his office within sixty days after the date the plan of exchange is presented to him. Upon filing such order, the commissioner shall send a copy thereof to each party to the proceeding, such copy to be sent to each such party by certified mail directed to such party at the address of such party as shown by the record of the hearing. Any final order of the commissioner approving or disapproving a plan of exchange pursuant to this section shall be subject to judicial review by the court of appeals pursuant to section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S.

(g) The plan of exchange as approved by the commissioner shall be submitted to a vote of the shareholders of the domestic company at an annual or special meeting of the shareholders. Notice of the submission of the plan to the shareholders shall be included in the notice of the meeting. The plan shall be approved by the shareholders of the domestic company upon receiving the affirmative votes of the holders of shares of the domestic company having at least two-thirds of the total voting power of the outstanding shares of the domestic company. Notwithstanding shareholder approval of the plan of exchange, and at any time prior to the filing of the certificate setting forth the plan of exchange by the commissioner pursuant to section 10-3-605, the plan of exchange may be abandoned pursuant to a provision for such abandonment, if any, contained in the plan of exchange.

(h) Within ten days after the plan of exchange is approved by the shareholders of the domestic company, a written notice of the approval of the plan of exchange shall be mailed or delivered personally to each shareholder of record of such company who was entitled to vote thereon. The domestic company shall thereafter file with the commissioner an affidavit of the secretary or an assistant secretary of such company, or of an officer of the transfer agent of such company, that such notice was given.

(i) Any shareholder of the domestic company owning shares not voted in favor of such plan at the meeting at which the plan was approved by the shareholders of the domestic company may object in writing to the plan and demand payment, should the plan become effective, of the fair value of any of such shares, as of the day on which the plan of exchange was approved by the shareholders of the domestic company pursuant to paragraph (g) of this subsection (1). Such objection and demand shall be received, together with the certificate representing the shares with respect to which objection and demand have been made, for notation thereon that such objection and demand have been made, by the domestic company or its transfer agent within thirty days after the date of said meeting of shareholders. No such objection and demand shall pertain to any shares which were voted in favor of the plan. No such objection and demand may be withdrawn unless the domestic company, by a duly authorized officer, consents thereto in writing.

(j) Upon the plan of exchange becoming effective, the holder of any shares, with respect to which such objection and demand have been made and certificates for which have been delivered to the domestic company or its transfer agent for notation, or any transferee thereof, shall cease to be a shareholder of the domestic company with respect to such shares and shall have no rights with respect to such shares, except the right to receive payment therefor in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (k) of this subsection (1). Every shareholder failing to make objection and demand accompanied by certificates representing the shares with respect to which such objection and demand have been made or withdrawing such objection and demand as provided in paragraph (i) of this subsection (1) shall be conclusively presumed to have assented to, and to have agreed to be bound by, the plan of exchange in accordance with its terms.

(k) Within forty-five days after the date of the meeting of shareholders of the domestic company at which the plan of exchange was approved by such shareholders, the domestic company, or, if the plan of exchange so specifies, the acquiring corporation, shall mail a written offer to each holder of record of shares with respect to which an objection and demand have been made, as provided in paragraph (i) of this subsection (1), to pay for such shares a price per share deemed by such corporation to be the fair value thereof as of the date of such meeting. The form of written offer to be used, including the price per share, shall first be submitted to and approved by the commissioner. If such offer is accepted in writing by such holder, such corporation shall pay such holder, within forty-five days after the date of the plan of exchange becoming effective, such price upon the surrender of the certificate representing such shares.

(l) If, within thirty days after the date of the mailing of such written offer, the domestic company or the acquiring corporation, as the case may be, and a shareholder do not agree on the price, such corporation or the shareholder may, within ninety days after the date of the mailing of such written offer, file a petition in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county where the registered office of the domestic company is located asking for a finding and determination of the fair value of such shares as of the date of the meeting of shareholders of the domestic company at which the plan of exchange was approved by such shareholders; and payment of the fair value thereof shall be made by the domestic company or, if the plan of exchange so specifies, the acquiring corporation within sixty days after the entry of the judgment or order determining such fair value, upon the surrender of the certificate representing such shares.

(m) All shares acquired by the domestic company, upon payment of the value therefor, shall be canceled by the board of directors of the domestic company, upon the plan of exchange becoming effective, or at any time thereafter in the manner provided in section 7-106-302 (2) (b), C.R.S., and any statement of cancellation made pursuant to said section shall first be filed with the commissioner prior to filing thereof with the secretary of state. If the commissioner finds such statement of cancellation to have been lawfully executed, and to be in due legal form and not in conflict with the provisions of law governing the domestic company, such statement of cancellation shall be filed with the secretary of state.

(n) If the plan of exchange does not become effective, the right of shareholders or transferees to be paid the fair value of their shares under this subsection (1) shall cease, and their status shall be the same as that of shareholders who voted in favor of the plan. If a shareholder or his transferee, with respect to any share for which objection and demand have been made: Withdraws such objection and demand in the manner provided by this subsection (1), or fails to submit a certificate at the time and in the manner required by this subsection (1), or does not file a petition for the determination of fair value within the time and in the manner provided in this subsection (1) and neither the domestic company nor the acquiring corporation files a petition for such determination, or is adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction not to be entitled to the relief provided by this subsection (1), then the right of the shareholder or his transferee to be paid the fair value of such share shall cease, and his status with respect to such share shall be the same as that of a shareholder who voted in favor of the plan.

10-3-605. Filing plan of exchange. Not earlier than thirty-one days after the date of the meeting of shareholders of the domestic company at which the plan of exchange was approved by such shareholders, a certificate setting forth the plan of exchange, the manner of the approval thereof by the directors of the acquiring corporation and the domestic company, and the manner of its approval by the shareholders of the domestic company and the vote by which approved by the shareholders of the domestic company, or setting forth that the plan of exchange has been abandoned, shall be signed on behalf of each such corporation by its president or a vice-president and shall then be presented in triplicate to the commissioner at his office for filing. The commissioner shall file one copy of such certificate in his office and shall deliver copies bearing the date and time of filing endorsed thereon to the domestic company and the acquiring corporation. Upon the filing of such certificate, unless it sets forth that the plan of exchange has been abandoned, the plan of exchange and the issuance and exchange provided for therein shall become effective, unless a later date and time is specified in the plan of exchange, in which event the plan of exchange and the issuance and exchange provided for therein shall become effective upon such later date and time.

10-3-606. Effect of exchange. (1) Upon the plan of exchange becoming effective, the exchange provided for therein shall be deemed to have been consummated, each shareholder of the domestic company shall cease to be a shareholder of such company, the ownership of all shares of the issued and outstanding stock of the domestic company, except shares payment of the value of which is required to be made by the domestic company or the acquiring corporation pursuant to section 10-3-604, shall vest in the acquiring corporation automatically without any physical transfer or deposit of certificates representing such shares, and all shares payment of the value of which is required to be made by the domestic company or the acquiring corporation pursuant to section 10-3-604, shall be deemed no longer outstanding shares of the domestic company.

(2) Certificates representing shares of the domestic company prior to the plan of exchange becoming effective, except certificates representing shares payment of the value of which is required to be made pursuant to section 10-3-604, and bearing a notation thereon that objection and demand pursuant to such section have been made, shall, after the plan of exchange becomes effective, represent: Shares of the issued and outstanding capital stock or other securities issued by the acquiring corporation; and the right, if any, to receive such cash or other consideration upon such terms as are specified in the plan of exchange; but the plan of exchange may specify that all certificates representing shares of stock of the domestic company, except certificates representing shares payment of the value of which is required to be made pursuant to section 10-3-604, shall, after the plan of exchange becomes effective, represent only the right to receive shares of stock or other securities issued by the acquiring corporation, or cash, or other consideration, or any combination thereof, upon such terms as are specified in the plan of exchange. Certificates representing shares of the domestic company with respect to which an objection and demand have been made pursuant to section 10-3-604, and bearing a notation thereon that such objection and demand have been made, shall, after the plan of exchange becomes effective, represent only the right to receive payment therefor, subject to the provisions of this part 6.

10-3-607. Authorized insurance business and regulatory authority. Nothing contained in this part 6 shall be construed to authorize any insurance company to engage in any kind of insurance business not authorized by its articles of incorporation or to authorize any acquiring corporation which is not an insurance company to engage directly in the business of insurance.

10-3-608. Domestic company and acquiring corporation separate and distinct entities. The domestic company and the acquiring corporation shall in all respects be regarded in law as separate and distinct corporations, with neither of such corporations having any liability to the creditors, policyholders, if any, or shareholders of the other, any acts or omissions of the officers, directors, or shareholders of either or both of such corporations notwithstanding.

10-3-609. Examination. After any acquiring corporation becomes the owner of all the outstanding shares of a domestic company pursuant to a plan of exchange consummated under the provisions of this part 6, the commissioner may, in connection with any examination of the domestic company, examine all records and documents of the acquiring corporation pertaining to the relationships and transactions of the domestic company with the acquiring corporation or its subsidiaries or affiliates. If the acquiring corporation is organized under the laws of any state other than Colorado, the commissioner may, as a condition of approving the plan of exchange, require such acquiring corporation to file a written consent to examination of its records and documents as provided in this section.

REINSURANCE

10-3-701. Right to reinsure. No domestic insurer shall reinsure all or a substantial portion of the risks of any other insurer, and no domestic or foreign insurer licensed in this state shall have all or a substantial portion of its risks on policies written in this state or covering risks or property located in this state reinsured, unless such insurer complies with the provisions of section 10-3-702. The provisions of this section shall apply whether the reinsurance is accomplished by means of treaty, merger, consolidation, or otherwise.

Cross references: For conditions necessary for reinsurance, see § 10-3-118.

10-3-702. Procedure. (1) Any domestic insurer proposing to reinsure all or a substantial portion of the risks of any other insurer and any domestic or foreign insurer proposing to have all or a substantial portion of its risks on policies issued in this state or covering risks or property located in this state reinsured shall file a petition for approval with the commissioner.

(3) If the commissioner deems it advisable, he may consider the petition at a public hearing.

(4) The commissioner may approve or disapprove the petition submitted, or he may approve it with such modifications as he deems to be in the best interests of policyholders and the public.

ANNOTATION

Disapproval of offset terms in reinsurance contracts by commissioner may be authorized by this section if commissioner deems such terms not to be in the best interests of policyholders and the public. Bluewater Ins. Ltd. v. Balzano, 823 P.2d 1365 (Colo. 1992).

10-3-703. Reinsurance of less than all or substantial portion of risks. The provisions of sections 10-3-701 and 10-3-702 shall not apply to the reinsurance of a portion of a company's risks which is less than a substantial portion thereof; but no domestic insurer shall have any portion of its risks which is less than a substantial portion thereof reinsured, and no foreign insurer licensed in this state shall have any portion of its risks which is less than a substantial portion thereof, on policies issued in this state or on risks or property located in this state, reinsured, unless the transaction has been approved by the commissioner.

10-3-704. Prohibition. Further reinsurance of any risks reinsured pursuant to sections 10-3-701 to 10-3-703, in or with a company not licensed in this state, without the approval of the commissioner, is prohibited.

10-3-705. Remuneration. No person who is or has been an officer, director, agent, or employee of any insurer involved in any reinsurance plan within the twelve months next preceding the transaction shall receive any fee, commission, compensation, or other valuable consideration whatsoever for aiding, promoting, or assisting in the drafting, adoption, or approval of such reinsurance plan.

10-3-706. Policy reserve deposits. A domestic life insurer approved by the commissioner to have any portion of its risks reinsured by a foreign insurer may be required to furnish the commissioner a complete reserve valuation of the risks involved by policy number, name, and address of each insured, and such insurer may be required to deposit with the commissioner securities having a market value at least equal to the aggregate reserve of the policies involved in such reinsurance, if the commissioner deems either or both to be necessary for the protection of the policyholders and the public. Such deposits shall remain with the commissioner until the obligations under the insurance contracts have been fulfilled; but withdrawals from the deposit may be made from time to time upon presentation to the commissioner of satisfactory evidence that the aggregate reserve for policies still outstanding on this portion of business has been reduced below the amount on deposit.

INSURANCE HOLDING COMPANY SYSTEMS

Cross references: For the applicability of part 12 of article 4 of this title (producer-controlled property and casualty insurers) on the provisions of this part 8, see § 10-4-1205.

10-3-801. Definitions. As used in this part 8, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) An “affiliate” of, or person “affiliated” with, a specific person means a person who directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with, the specific person.

(3) “Control”, including the terms “controlling”, “controlled by”, and “under common control with”, means the possession, direct or indirect, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract other than a commercial contract for goods or nonmanagement services, or otherwise, unless the power is the result of an official position with a corporation or a corporate office held by the person. Control is presumed to exist if any person, directly or indirectly, owns, controls, holds with the power to vote, or holds proxies representing ten percent or more of the voting securities of any other person. This presumption may be rebutted by a showing made in the manner provided by section 10-3-804 (9) that control does not exist in fact. The commissioner may determine, after furnishing all persons in interest notice and opportunity to be heard and making specific findings of fact to support such determination, that control exists in fact, notwithstanding the absence of a presumption to that effect.

(4) "Insurance holding company system" means two or more affiliated persons, one or more of which is an insurer.

(5) "Insurer" has the same meaning as set forth in section 10-3-502 (12); except that it shall include fraternal benefit societies and health maintenance organizations and shall not include agencies, authorities, or instrumentalities of the United States, its possessions and territories, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the District of Columbia, or a state or political subdivision of a state.

(6) "Person" means an individual, a corporation, a partnership, an association, a joint stock company, a trust, an unincorporated organization, any similar entity, or any combination of the foregoing acting in concert but shall not include any securities broker performing no more than the usual and customary broker's function.

(7) "Securityholder" of a specified person means one who owns any security of such person, including common stock, preferred stock, debt obligations, and any other security convertible into or evidencing the right to acquire any of the foregoing.

(8) "Subsidiary" of a specified person means an affiliate controlled by such person directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries.

(9) "Voting security" means any security convertible into or evidencing a right to acquire a voting security.

(10) "Wholly owned subsidiary" means a subsidiary owned by an insurer, which insurer owns shares of the issued and outstanding voting stock of such subsidiary having at least ninety-five percent of the total voting power of such stock for the election of directors.

10-3-802. Subsidiaries of insurers. (1) Any domestic insurer, either by itself or in cooperation with one or more persons, may organize or acquire one or more subsidiaries engaged in the following kinds of business:

(a) Any kind of insurance business authorized by the jurisdiction in which it is incorporated;

(b) Acting as an insurance broker or as an insurance agent for its parent or for any of its parent's insurer subsidiaries;

(c) Investing, reinvesting, or trading in securities for its own account, that of its parent, any subsidiary of its parent, or any affiliate or subsidiary;

(d) Management of any investment company subject to or registered pursuant to the federal "Investment Company Act of 1940", as amended, including related sales and services;

(e) Acting as a broker-dealer subject to or registered pursuant to the federal "Securities Exchange Act of 1934", as amended;

(f) Rendering investment advice to governments, government agencies, corporations, or other organizations or groups;

(g) Rendering other services related to the operations of an insurance business, including, but not limited to, actuarial, loss prevention, safety engineering, data processing, accounting, claims, appraisal, and collection services;

(h) Ownership and management of assets which the parent corporation could itself own or manage;

- (i) Acting as administrative agent for a governmental instrumentality which is performing an insurance function;
  - (j) Financing of insurance premiums, agents, and other forms of consumer financing;
  - (k) Any other business activity determined by the commissioner to be reasonably ancillary to an insurance business;
  - (l) Owning a corporation engaged or organized to engage exclusively in one or more of the businesses specified in this section; and
  - (m) Any other kind of business which in the opinion of the commissioner would be in the best interest of the insurer and would not be detrimental to the policyholders or the public.
- (2) In addition to investments in common stock, preferred stock, debt obligations, and other securities permitted under other provisions of this title, a domestic insurer may also:
- (a) Invest in common stock, preferred stock, debt obligations, and other securities of one or more subsidiaries amounts which do not exceed the lesser of ten percent of such insurer's assets or fifty percent of such insurer's surplus as regards policyholders, if, after such investments, the insurer's surplus as regards policyholders will be reasonable in relation to the insurer's outstanding liabilities and adequate to its financial needs. In calculating the amount of such investments, there shall be included:
    - (I) Total net moneys or other consideration expended and obligations assumed in the acquisition or formation of a subsidiary, including all organization expenses and contributions to capital and surplus of such subsidiary, whether or not represented by the purchase of capital stock or issuance of other securities; and
    - (II) All amounts expended in acquiring additional common stock, preferred stock, debt obligations, and other securities and all contributions to the capital or surplus of a subsidiary subsequent to its acquisition or formation.
  - (b) If the insurer's total liabilities, as calculated for national association of insurance commissioners' annual statement purposes, are less than ten percent of assets, invest any amount in common stock, preferred stock, debt obligations, and other securities of one or more subsidiaries, if, after such investment, the insurer's surplus as regards policyholders, considering such investment as if it were a disallowed asset, will be reasonable in relation to the insurer's outstanding liabilities and adequate to its financial needs;
  - (c) Invest any amount in common stock, preferred stock, debt obligations, and other securities of one or more subsidiaries if each such subsidiary agrees to limit its investments in any asset so that such investments will not cause the amount of the total investment of the insurer to exceed any of the investment limitations specified in paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) or in sections 10-3-213 to 10-3-242 applicable to the insurer. For the purpose of this paragraph (c), "the total investment of the insurer" includes:
    - (I) Any direct investment by the insurer in an asset; and
    - (II) The insurer's proportionate share of any investment in an asset by any subsidiary of the insurer, which shall be calculated by multiplying the amount of the subsidiary's investments by the percentage of the insurer's ownership of such subsidiary.
  - (d) With the approval of the commissioner, invest any greater amount than that specified in this subsection (2) in common stock, preferred stock, debt obligations, or any other securities of one or more subsidiaries, if, after such investment, the insurer's surplus as regards policyholders will be reasonable in relation to the insurer's outstanding liabilities and adequate to its financial needs; and
  - (e) Invest any amount in the common stock, preferred stock, debt obligations, or other securities of any subsidiary exclusively engaged in holding title to or holding title to and managing or developing real or personal property, if, after considering as a disallowed asset so much of the investment as is represented by subsidiary assets which if held directly by the insurer would be considered as a disallowed asset, the insurer's surplus as regards policyholders will be reasonable in relation to the insurer's outstanding liabilities and adequate to its financial needs, and if following such investment all voting securities of such subsidiary would be owned by the insurer.
- (3) Regardless of any provision of this title to the contrary, investments in common stock, preferred stock, debt obligations, or other securities of subsidiaries made in accordance with subsection (2) of this section shall be admitted assets of a domestic insurer, and such investments shall not be subject to any of the otherwise applicable restrictions or limitations applicable to such investments of insurers.

(4) Any provision of this title to the contrary notwithstanding, any investment by a domestic insurer in the common stock, preferred stock, debt obligations, or other securities of one or more insurance companies which are wholly owned subsidiaries of such domestic insurer shall be admitted assets thereof subject to the following provisions:

(a) If the authorized lines of business of the investing company and any such wholly owned subsidiary corporation together do not constitute the lines of business of a multiple line company, the common stock, preferred stock, debt obligations, and other securities of such subsidiary corporation shall not at any time be an admitted asset of the investing company unless at such time the two companies have, without taking such common stock, preferred stock, debt obligations, and other securities into account as an asset of the investing company, a combined capital or guaranty fund and a combined surplus which are at least equal, respectively, to the sum of the minimum capital or minimum guaranty fund required by law for the authorized line of business of each of the two companies and the sum of the minimum surplus required by law for the authorized line of business of each of the two companies, but this paragraph (a) shall not apply to an investing company which is a fraternal benefit society.

(b) If the authorized lines of business of the investing company and any such wholly owned subsidiary corporation together constitute the lines of business of a multiple line company, the common stock, preferred stock, debt obligations, and other securities of such subsidiary corporation shall not at any time be an admitted asset of the investing company unless at such time the two companies have, without taking such stock into account as an asset of the investing company, a combined capital or guaranty fund and a combined surplus which are at least equal, respectively, to the minimum capital or guaranty fund and the minimum surplus required by law for such multiple line company.

(c) If the authorized lines of business of any two insurance companies which are members of a chain of corporations directly or indirectly owned by a common parent corporation shall together constitute the lines of business of a multiple line company, the common stock, preferred stock, debt obligations, and other securities of either of such two insurance companies shall at any time be an admitted asset of any insurance company, including the common parent corporation, which is a member of such chain of corporations, unless at such time such two insurance companies have a combined capital or guaranty fund and a combined surplus which are at least equal, respectively, to the minimum capital or guaranty fund and the minimum surplus required by law for such a multiple line company.

(5) Whether any investment pursuant to subsection (2) of this section meets the applicable requirements thereof is to be determined immediately after such investment is made, taking into account the then outstanding principal balance on all previous investments in debt obligations, and the value of all previous investments in equity securities. Such value shall be determined as of the date of the latest investment, applying section 10-3-231.

(6) If an insurer ceases to control a subsidiary, it shall dispose of any investment therein made pursuant to this section within three years from the time of the cessation of control or within such further time as the commissioner may prescribe, unless, at any time after such investment has been made, such investment has met the requirements for investment under any other provision of this title, and the insurer has notified the commissioner thereof.

(7) Nothing in this part 8 shall be construed to prohibit a domestic insurer which, prior to and with the approval of the commissioner, organized or acquired a subsidiary from continuing to hold such insurer's investments in such subsidiary or from making further investments therein consistent with the provisions of subsection (2) of this section, if such subsidiary engages only in the kind of business which was represented to the commissioner as a basis for such approval.

10-3-803. Acquisition of control of or merger with domestic insurer. (1) (a) No person other than the issuer shall make a tender offer for, or a request or invitation for tenders of, or enter into any agreement to exchange securities for, seek to acquire, or acquire, in the open market or otherwise, any voting security of a domestic insurer if, after the consummation thereof, such person would, directly or indirectly, or by conversion or by exercise of any right to acquire, be in control of such insurer, and no person shall enter into an agreement to merge with or otherwise to acquire control of a domestic insurer unless, at the time any such offer, request, or invitation is made or any such agreement is entered into, or prior to the acquisition of such securities if no offer or agreement is involved, such person has filed with the commissioner and has sent to such insurer a statement containing the information required by this section and such offer, request, invitation, agreement, or acquisition has been approved by the commissioner in the manner prescribed in this section.

(b) In addition, if such person is an individual, the person shall submit a set of fingerprints to the commissioner pursuant to subsection (2.5) of this section. If such person is a corporation, each executive officer and director of the corporation shall submit a set of fingerprints to the commissioner pursuant to subsection (2.5) of this section.

(c) For purposes of this section, a domestic insurer shall include any other person controlling a domestic insurer unless such other person is either directly or through its affiliates primarily engaged in business other than the business of insurance.

(2) The statement to be filed with the commissioner under this section shall be made under oath or affirmation and shall contain the following information:

(a) (I) The name and address of each person by whom or on whose behalf the merger or other acquisition of control referred to in subsection (1) of this section is to be effected, referred to in this part 8 as the “acquiring party”;

(II) If such person is an individual, his principal occupation and all offices and positions held during the past five years, and any conviction of crimes other than minor traffic violations during the past ten years;

(III) If such person is not an individual, a report of the nature of its business operations during the past five years or for such lesser period as such person and any predecessors thereof have been in existence; an informative description of the business intended to be done by such person and such person’s subsidiaries; and a list of all individuals who are or who have been selected to become directors or executive officers of such person, or who perform or will perform functions appropriate to such positions. Such list shall include for each such individual the information required by subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (a).

(b) The source, nature, and amount of the consideration used or to be used in effecting the merger or other acquisition of control, a description of any transaction wherein funds were or are to be obtained for any such purpose, including any pledge of the insurer’s stock or the stock of any of its subsidiaries or controlling affiliates, and the identity of persons furnishing such consideration, but, where a source of such consideration is a loan made in the lender’s ordinary course of business, the identity of the lender shall remain confidential if the person filing such statement so requests;

(c) Fully audited financial information as to the earnings and financial condition of each acquiring party for the preceding five fiscal years of each such acquiring party, or for such lesser period as such acquiring party and any predecessors thereof have been in existence, and similar unaudited information as of a date not earlier than ninety days prior to the filing of the statement; except that, in the case of individuals, if audited financial information is not available, this requirement may be waived, at the discretion of the commissioner, and unaudited financial information may be accepted by the division of insurance;

(d) Any plans or proposals which each acquiring party has to liquidate such insurer, to sell its assets or merge or consolidate it with any person, or to make any other material change in its business or corporate structure or management;

(e) The number of shares of any security referred to in subsection (1) of this section which each acquiring party proposes to acquire, and the terms of the offer, request, invitation, agreement, or acquisition referred to in said subsection (1), and a statement as to the method by which the fairness of the proposal was arrived at;

(f) The amount of each class of any security referred to in subsection (1) of this section which is beneficially owned or concerning which there is a right to acquire beneficial ownership by each acquiring party;

(g) A full description of any contracts, arrangements, or understandings with respect to any security referred to in subsection (1) of this section in which any acquiring party is involved, including but not limited to transfer of any of the securities, joint ventures, loan or option arrangements, puts or calls, guarantees of loans, guarantees against loss or guarantees of profits, division of losses or profits, or the giving or withholding of proxies. Such description shall identify the persons with whom such contracts, arrangements, or understandings have been entered into.

(h) A description of the purchase of any security referred to in subsection (1) of this section during the twelve calendar months preceding the filing of the statement, by any acquiring party, including the dates of purchase, names of the purchasers, and consideration paid or agreed to be paid therefor;

(i) A description of any recommendations to purchase any security referred to in subsection (1) of this section made during the twelve calendar months preceding the filing of the statement, by any acquiring party, or by anyone based upon interviews or at the suggestion of such acquiring party;

(j) Copies of all tender offers for, requests or invitations for tenders of exchange offers for, and agreements to acquire or exchange any securities referred to in subsection (1) of this section and, if distributed, copies of additional soliciting material relating thereto;

(k) The terms of any agreement, contract, or understanding made with any broker-dealer as to solicitation of securities referred to in subsection (1) of this section for tender and the amount of any fees, commissions, or other compensation to be paid to broker-dealers with regard thereto;

(l) Such additional information as the commissioner may by rule or regulation prescribe as necessary or appropriate for the protection of policyholders and securityholders of the insurer or in the public interest.

(2.5) Each person described in paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section shall submit a set of fingerprints to the commissioner at the time of filing the statement described in paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of this section. The commissioner shall forward such fingerprints to the Colorado bureau of investigation for the purpose of conducting a state and national fingerprint-based criminal history record check utilizing records of the Colorado bureau of investigation and the federal bureau of investigation. Only the actual costs of such record check shall be borne by the employer.

(3) If the person required to file the statement referred to in subsection (1) of this section is a partnership, limited partnership, syndicate, or other group, the commissioner may require that the information called for by paragraphs (a) to (l) of subsection (2) of this section shall be given with respect to each partner of such partnership or limited partnership, each member of such syndicate or group, and each person who controls such partner or member. If any such partner, member, or person is a corporation or the person required to file the statement referred to in subsection (1) of this section is a corporation, the commissioner may require that the information called for by paragraphs (a) to (l) of subsection (2) of this section shall be given with respect to such corporation, each officer and director of such corporation, and each person who is directly or indirectly the beneficial owner of more than ten percent of the outstanding voting securities of such corporation. If any material change occurs in the facts set forth in the statement filed with the commissioner and sent to such insurer pursuant to this section, an amendment setting forth such change, together with copies of all documents and other material relevant to such change, shall be filed with the commissioner and sent to such insurer within two business days after the person learns of such change. Such insurer shall send a synopsis of any material changes in such amendment to its shareholders.

(4) If any offer, request, invitation, agreement, or acquisition referred to in subsection (1) of this section is proposed to be made by means of a registration statement under the federal "Securities Act of 1933" or in circumstances requiring the disclosure of similar information under the federal "Securities Exchange Act of 1934", or under a state law requiring similar registration or disclosure, the person required to file the statement referred to in subsection (1) of this section may utilize such documents in furnishing the information called for by that statement.

(4.5) (a) The commissioner shall conduct an independent investigation to determine the impact of a proposed merger on competition:

(I) When the proposed merger involves a transaction that the commissioner determines under section 10-3-803.5 (2) would present prima facie evidence of a violation of the competitive standard; and

(II) If the merger or acquisition involves a domestic entity authorized under article 16 of this title or section 6-18-302 (1) (b) (IV), C.R.S., or a domestic insurer authorized under section 10-3-102 that writes more than fifty percent of its business as health insurance coverage.

(b) The investigation shall include an analysis of the probable effects of the merger on consumers and on suppliers of services. The commissioner shall not rely solely on representations of insurers to determine whether the merger will produce economies of scale or economies in resource utilization that cannot be achieved feasibly in any other way. The investigation shall also include, but not be limited to, reviewing the market conduct examination and financial examination reports for this state or any other state, consumer complaint information from records maintained by the division or any other state regulatory agency, and any information from any state or federal agency related to the applicant. The investigation shall commence no later than fifteen days after the filing of the form E by the applicant.

(c) The commissioner shall make public the report of the independent investigation conducted pursuant to this subsection (4.5) no later than five business days after the submission of such report to the commissioner, subject to the provisions of the "Colorado Open Records Act", part 2 of article 72 of title 24, C.R.S.

(d) The commissioner shall issue an executive summary, subject to the provisions of the "Colorado Open Records Act", part 2 of article 72 of title 24, C.R.S., of the competitive impact analysis filed by the applicant to the transaction no later than fifteen business days after the analysis is filed with the division. The competitive impact analysis shall be filed by the applicant at the same time the applicant files its form E with the division.

(e) All data and reports pertaining to the proposed merger and collected or used by the commissioner in his or her investigation and analysis shall be made available to the public; except that, in the commissioner's discretion, specific items of proprietary information may be redacted. If the insurer claims that information provided is proprietary, the insurer has the burden of proof on that issue.

(f) The independent investigation pursuant to this subsection (4.5) shall be completed no later than the day on which the application is deemed complete by the division of insurance. The commissioner shall coordinate the completion of this independent investigation with the experts retained pursuant to subsection (6) of this section. Any expenses associated with the independent investigation shall be borne by the applicant pursuant to subsection (6) of this section.

(5) The commissioner shall approve any merger or other acquisition of control referred to in subsection (1) of this section unless, after an independent investigation pursuant to subsection (4.5) of this section, and public hearing thereon, the commissioner finds that:

(a) After the change of control the domestic insurer referred to in subsection (1) of this section would not be able to satisfy the requirements for the issuance of a license to write the line of insurance for which it is presently licensed;

(c) The financial condition of any acquiring party is such as might jeopardize the financial stability of the insurer or prejudice the interest of its policyholders;

(e) The plans or proposals which the acquiring party has to liquidate the insurer, sell its assets or consolidate or merge it with any person, or make any other material change in its business or corporate structure or management are unfair and unreasonable to policyholders of the insurer and not in the public interest;

(f) The competence, experience, and integrity of those persons who would control the operation of the insurer are such that it would not be in the interest of policyholders of the insurer and of the public to permit the merger or other acquisition of control;

(g) The effect of the merger or other acquisition of control would be substantially to lessen competition in insurance in this state or tend to create a monopoly therein. In applying the competitive standard in this paragraph (g):

(I) The standards of section 10-3-803.5 shall apply;

(II) The merger or other acquisition shall not be disapproved if the commissioner finds that any of the situations meeting the criteria provided by section 10-3-803.5 (4) exist; and

(III) The commissioner may condition the approval of the merger or other acquisition on the removal of the basis of disapproval within a specified period of time; or

(h) The acquisition is likely to be hazardous or prejudicial to the insurance buying public.

(6) (a) The commissioner shall provide public notice of the filing of an application of merger or acquisition no later than five business days after the receipt of the initial application. The commissioner shall also provide a general statement to the public of the process and procedures concerning a merger or acquisition of a domestic insurer. This statement shall be a clear and concise statement of how the public may participate in the review of a merger or acquisition transaction including a public hearing or providing written comments to the commissioner.

(b) No later than fifteen business days after the initial application for a merger pursuant to this section, the commissioner and the applicant shall establish the elements of a public notice of the transaction. The notice will be provided and made public no later than seven days after the application is deemed complete by the division.

(c) The public hearing referred to in subsection (5) of this section shall be held within thirty days after the statement required by subsection (1) of this section is filed, and at least twenty days' notice thereof shall be given by the commissioner to the person filing the statement. Not less than seven days' notice of such public hearing shall be given, pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (6), to the insurer and to the public. The insurer shall give such notice to its security holders. The commissioner shall make a determination within thirty days after the conclusion of such hearing. At such hearing, the person filing the statement, the insurer, any person to whom notice of hearing was sent, and any other person whose interests may be affected thereby have the right to present evidence, examine and cross-examine witnesses, and offer oral and written arguments and, in connection therewith, are entitled to conduct discovery proceedings in the same manner as is presently allowed in the district courts of this state. All discovery proceedings shall be concluded no later than three days prior to the commencement of the public hearings. The commissioner may retain, at the acquiring party's expense, any attorneys, actuaries, accountants, and other experts as may reasonably be necessary to assist the commissioner in reviewing the proposed acquisition of control.

(d) There shall be a period of ten business days for submission of written public comment after the hearing to respond to testimony from the applicant. The commissioner shall review all responses and provide a report summarizing all public testimony.

(7) A synopsis of the statement required in subsection (1) of this section, and all notices of public hearings held pursuant to subsection (5) of this section, shall be mailed by the insurer to its shareholders within five business days after the insurer has received such statements, amendments, other material, or notices filed pursuant to this section. The expenses of mailing shall be borne by the person making the filing. As security for the payment of such expenses, such person shall file with the commissioner an acceptable bond or other deposit in an amount to be determined by the commissioner.

(8) The provisions of this section shall not apply to:

(b) Any exchange of stock of a domestic insurer actually accomplished in accordance with sections 10-3-604 to 10-3-606, or any preliminary agreement between a domestic insurer and any other corporation entered into in contemplation of the adoption of a plan of exchange under part 6 of this article;

(c) Any offer, request, invitation, agreement, or acquisition which the commissioner by order exempts therefrom as not having been made or entered into for the purpose and not having the effect of changing or influencing the control of a domestic insurer, or as otherwise not comprehended within the purposes of this section.

(9) The following are violations of the provisions of this section:

(a) The failure to file any statement, amendment, or other material required to be filed pursuant to subsection (1) or (2) of this section; or

(b) The effectuation or any attempt to effectuate an acquisition of control of, or merger with, a domestic insurer unless the commissioner has given his approval thereto.

(10) The courts of this state are vested with jurisdiction over every person not resident, domiciled, or authorized to do business in this state who files a statement with the commissioner under this section, and over all actions involving any such person arising out of violations of this section, and each such person is deemed to have performed acts equivalent to and constituting an appointment by such a person of the commissioner to be his true and lawful attorney upon whom may be served all lawful process in any action, suit, or proceeding arising out of violations of this section. Copies of all such lawful process shall be served on the commissioner and transmitted by registered or certified mail by the commissioner to such person at his last known address.

(11) If the procedures set forth in this section are not followed prior to the issuance of the order of the commissioner that approves or disapproves the merger, the aggrieved party may seek remedies pursuant to section 10-3-813.

(12) Nothing in this section shall limit the commissioner's ability to conduct a hearing for transactions that do not meet the requirements in subsection (4.5) of this section.

10-3-803.5. Standards for determining whether competition will be lessened.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Acquisition" means any agreement, arrangement, or activity the consummation of which results in a person acquiring directly or indirectly the control of another person, and includes but is not limited to the acquisition of voting securities, the acquisition of assets, bulk reinsurance, and mergers.

(b) "Insurer" includes any company or group of companies under common management, ownership, or control.

(c) "Involved insurer" includes an insurer which either acquires or is acquired, is affiliated with an acquirer or acquired, or is the result of a merger.

(d) "Market" means the relevant product and geographical markets. In determining the relevant product and geographical markets, the commissioner shall give due consideration to, among other things, the definitions or guidelines, if any, promulgated by the national association of insurance commissioners. The commissioner shall also give due consideration to information, if any, submitted by parties to the acquisition or by members of the public; except that the commissioner shall not rely solely on information submitted by parties to the acquisition. In the absence of sufficient information to the contrary, the relevant product market is assumed to be the direct written insurance premium for a line of business which line is that used in the annual statement required to be filed by insurers doing business in this state, and the relevant geographical market is assumed to be this state.

(2) In determining whether a proposed acquisition would lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly as described in section 10-3-803 (5) (g), the commissioner shall consider the following:

(a) (I) Any acquisition involving two or more insurers competing in the same market is prima facie evidence of violation of the competitive standard if one of the following occurs:

(A) The market is highly concentrated and the involved insurers possess the following shares of the market:

Insurer A	Insurer B
4 percent	4 percent or more
10 percent	2 percent or more
15 percent	1 percent or more

(B) The market is not highly concentrated and the involved insurers possess the following shares of the market:

Insurer A	Insurer B
5 percent	5 percent or more
10 percent	4 percent or more
15 percent	3 percent or more
19 percent	1 percent or more

(II) A highly concentrated market is one in which the share of the four largest insurers is seventy-five percent or more of the market. Percentages not shown in the tables are interpolated proportionately to the percentages that are shown. If more than two insurers are involved, exceeding the total of the two columns in the table is prima facie evidence of violation of the competitive standard in section 10-3-803 (5) (g). For the purpose of this paragraph (a), the insurer with the largest share of the market shall be deemed to be Insurer A.

(b) There is a significant trend toward increased concentration when the aggregate market share of any grouping of the largest insurers in the market from the two largest to the eight largest has increased by seven percent or more of the market over a period of time extending from any base year five to ten years prior to the acquisition up to the time of the acquisition. Any acquisition or merger involving two or more insurers competing in the same market is prima facie evidence of violation of the competitive standard in section 10-3-803 (5) (g) if the following occur:

(I) There is a significant trend toward increased concentration in the market;

(II) One of the insurers involved is one of the insurers in a grouping of such large insurers showing the requisite increase in the market share; and

(III) Another involved insurer's market is two percent or more.

(3) Even though an acquisition is not prima facie violative of the competitive standard in section 10-3-803 (5) (g), the commissioner may establish the requisite anticompetitive effect, and even though an acquisition is prima facie violative of the competitive standard in section 10-3-803 (5) (g), a party may establish the absence of the requisite anticompetitive effect based upon other substantial evidence. Relevant factors in making a determination under this subsection (3) include, but are not limited to, the following: Market shares; volatility of ranking of market leaders; number of competitors; concentration; trend of concentration in the industry; and ease of entry and exit into the market.

(4) The commissioner shall not disapprove an acquisition or merger on the ground that it would tend to lessen competition if:

(a) The acquisition will yield substantial economies of scale or economies in resource utilization that cannot be achieved feasibly in any other way and the public benefits that would arise from such economies exceed the public benefits that would arise from not lessening competition. The commissioner shall not rely solely on information submitted by representatives of the insurers in making this determination.

(b) The acquisition will substantially increase the availability of insurance and the public benefits of such increase exceed the public benefits that would arise from not lessening competition.

10-3-804. Registration of insurers. (1) Every insurer which is authorized to do business in this state and which is a member of an insurance holding company system shall register with the commissioner, except a foreign insurer subject to registration requirements and standards adopted by statute or regulation in the jurisdiction of its domicile which are substantially similar to those contained in this section and section 10-3-805 (1). Such insurer shall file a copy of the registration statement and summary as required by this section. Any insurer which is subject to registration under this section shall register within sixty days after July 1, 1971, or fifteen days after it becomes subject to registration, whichever is later, unless the commissioner, for good cause shown, extends the time for registration, and then within such extended time. The commissioner may require any authorized insurer which is a member of a holding company system which is not subject to registration under this section to furnish a copy of the registration statement or other information filed by such insurance company with the insurance regulatory authority of domiciliary jurisdiction.

(2) Every insurer subject to registration shall file a registration statement on a form provided by the commissioner, which shall contain current information about:

(a) The capital structure, general financial condition, ownership, and management of the insurer and any person controlling the insurer;

(b) The identity of every member of the insurance holding company system;

(c) The following agreements in force and transactions currently outstanding between such insurer and its affiliates:

(I) Loans, other investments, or purchases, sales, or exchanges of securities of the affiliates by the insurer or of the insurer by its affiliates;

(II) Purchases, sales, or exchanges of assets;

(III) Transactions not in the ordinary course of business;

(IV) Guarantees or undertakings for the benefit of an affiliate which result in an actual contingent exposure of the insurer's assets to liability, other than insurance contracts entered into in the ordinary course of the insurer's business;

(V) All management and service contracts and all cost-sharing arrangements;

(VI) Reinsurance agreements;

(VII) Consolidated tax allocation agreements;

(VIII) Loans or extensions of credit to any person who is not an affiliate, where the insurer makes such loans or extensions of credit with the agreement or understanding that the proceeds of such transactions, in whole or in substantial part, are to be used to make loans or extensions of credit to, to purchase assets of, or to make investments in any affiliate of the insurer making such loans or extensions of credit; and

(IX) Any material transactions, specified by regulation, which the commissioner determines may adversely affect the interest of such insurer's policyholders.

(d) Other matters concerning transactions between registered insurers and any affiliates as may be included from time to time in any registration forms adopted or approved by the commissioner;

(e) Any pledge of the insurer's assets, including stock of any subsidiary or affiliate, for a loan made to any member of the insurance holding company system.

(2.1) All registration statements shall contain a summary outlining all items in the current registration statement representing changes from the prior registration statement.

(3) No information need be disclosed on the registration statement filed pursuant to subsection (2) of this section if such information is not material for the purposes of this section. Unless the commissioner by rule, regulation, or order provides otherwise, sales, purchases, exchanges, loans, or extensions of credit, or investments involving one-half of one percent or less of an insurer's admitted assets as of December 31 next preceding shall not be deemed material for purposes of this section. Transactions of like kind entered into in a series pursuant to a plan for the purpose of avoiding the materiality standard of this subsection (3) shall be deemed to be one single transaction.

(4) Each registered insurer shall keep current the information required to be disclosed in its registration statement by reporting all material changes or additions on amendment forms provided by the commissioner within fifteen days after the end of the month in which it learns of each such change or addition; except that, subject to section 10-3-805 (3), each registered insurer shall so report all dividends and other distributions to shareholders within two business days following the declaration thereof.

(5) The commissioner shall terminate the registration issued under this section of any insurer which demonstrates that it no longer is a member of an insurance holding company system.

(6) The commissioner may require or allow two or more affiliated insurers subject to registration under this section to file a consolidated registration statement or consolidated reports amending their consolidated registration statement or their individual registration statements.

(7) The commissioner may allow an insurer which is authorized to do business in this state and which is part of an insurance holding company system to register on behalf of any affiliated insurer which is required to register under subsection (1) of this section and to file all information and material required to be filed under this section.

(8) The provisions of this section shall not apply to any insurer, information, or transaction to the extent that the commissioner by rule, regulation, or order shall exempt the same from the provisions of this section.

(9) Any person may file with the commissioner a disclaimer of affiliation with any authorized insurer, or such a disclaimer may be filed by such insurer or any member of an insurance holding company system. The disclaimer shall fully disclose all material relationships and bases for affiliation between such person and such insurer as well as the basis for disclaiming such affiliation. After a disclaimer has been filed, the insurer shall be relieved of any duty to register or report under this section which may arise out of the insurer's relationship with such person, unless and until the commissioner disallows such a disclaimer. The commissioner shall disallow such a disclaimer only after furnishing all parties in interest with notice and opportunity to be heard, and after making specific findings of fact to support such disallowance.

(10) The failure to file a registration statement or any amendment thereto required by this section within the time specified for such filing is a violation of this section.

(11) Any person within an insurance holding company system subject to registration pursuant to this section shall be required to provide complete and accurate information to an insurer if such information is reasonably necessary to enable the insurer to comply with the provisions of this part 8.

10-3-805. Standards. (1) Material transactions within an insurance holding company system by registered insurers shall be subject to the following standards:

(b) The books, accounts, and records of each party shall be so maintained as to clearly and accurately disclose the precise nature and details of the transactions including such accounting information as is necessary to support the reasonableness of the charges or fees to the respective parties.

(c) The insurer's surplus as regards policyholders following any dividends or distributions to shareholder affiliates shall be reasonable in relation to the insurer's outstanding liabilities and adequate for its financial needs.

(d) The charges or fees for services performed shall be reasonable.

(e) The expenses incurred and payment received shall be allocated to the insurer in conformity with customary insurance accounting practices consistently applied.

(2) (a) For the purposes of this part 8 in determining whether an insurer's surplus as regards policyholders is reasonable in relation to the insurer's outstanding liabilities and adequate for its financial needs, the following factors, among others, shall be considered:

(I) The size of the insurer as measured by its assets, capital and surplus, reserves, premium writings, insurance in force, and other appropriate criteria;

(II) The extent to which the insurer's business is diversified among the several lines of insurance;

(III) The number and size of risks insured in each line of business;
(IV) The extent of the geographical dispersion of the insurer's insured risks;
(V) The nature and extent of the insurer's reinsurance program;
(VI) The quality, diversification, and liquidity of the insurer's investment portfolio;
(VII) The recent past and projected future trend in the size of the insurer's surplus as regards policyholders;

(VIII) The surplus as regards policyholders maintained by other comparable insurers;
(IX) The adequacy of the insurer's reserves;
(X) The quality of the insurer's earnings and the extent to which the reported earnings include extraordinary items, such as surplus relief reinsurance transactions;

(XI) The quality and liquidity of investments in subsidiaries made pursuant to section 10-3-802. The commissioner may treat any such investment as a disallowed asset for purposes of determining the adequacy of surplus as regards policyholders, whenever such investment so warrants.

(XII) Any other situation not described in this paragraph (a) which may render the operations of the insurer hazardous to the public or its policyholders.

(b) Each year the division shall review the ordinary shareholder dividends paid by domestic insurers to determine whether such dividends are reasonable. In conducting such review the division shall consider:

(I) The adequacy of the level of surplus as regards policyholders remaining after the dividend payment or payments; and

(II) The quality of the insurer's earnings and the extent to which the reported earnings include extraordinary items, such as surplus relief reinsurance transactions.

(c) The division, consistent with the standards in paragraph (a) of this subsection (2), may promulgate rules defining when an insurer's surplus as regards policyholders is not reasonable and adequate. The division may also promulgate rules that limit or disallow the payment of shareholder dividends whenever it determines that an insurer is financially distressed or troubled.

(d) Shareholder dividends shall be declared or paid only from earned surplus, unless the division approves the dividend prior to payment. For purposes of this paragraph (d), "earned surplus" excludes surplus arising from unrealized capital gains or a revaluation of assets.

(3) No insurer subject to registration under section 10-3-804 shall pay any extraordinary dividend or make any other extraordinary distribution to its shareholders until thirty days after the commissioner has received notice of the declaration thereof and has not within such period disapproved such payment or the commissioner has approved such payment within such thirty-day period. For purposes of this section, an extraordinary dividend or distribution includes any dividend or distribution of cash or other property, whose fair market value together with that of other dividends or distributions made within the preceding twelve months exceeds the greater of ten percent of such insurer's surplus as regards policyholders as of December 31 next preceding, or the net gain from operations of such insurer, if such insurer is a life insurer, or the net income, if such insurer is not a life insurer, not including realized capital gains, for the twelve-month period ending December 31 next preceding but shall not include pro rata distributions of any class of the insurer's own securities. Any other provision of law to the contrary notwithstanding, an insurer may declare an extraordinary dividend or distribution which is conditional upon the commissioner's approval thereof, and such a declaration confers no rights upon shareholders until the commissioner has approved the payment of such dividend or distribution or the commissioner has not disapproved such payment within the thirty-day period referred to in this subsection (3).

(4) (a) The transactions specified in this paragraph (a) involving a domestic insurer and any person in its holding company system may not be entered into unless the insurer has notified the commissioner in writing of its intention to enter into any such transaction at least thirty days prior thereto, or such shorter period as the commissioner may permit, and the commissioner has not disapproved it within such period. Such transactions include:

(I) Sales, purchases, exchanges, loans, or extensions of credit, guarantees, or investments, if such transactions are equal to or exceed as of December 31 next preceding:

(A) With respect to nonlife insurers, the lesser of three percent of the insurer's admitted assets or twenty-five percent of surplus as regards policyholders;

(B) With respect to life insurers, three percent of the insurer's admitted assets;

(II) Loans or extensions of credit to any person who is not an affiliate, where the insurer makes such loans or extensions of credit with the agreement or understanding that the proceeds of such transactions, in whole or in part, are to be used to make loans or extensions of credit to, to purchase assets of, or to make investments in, any affiliate of the insurer making such loans or extensions of credit, if such transactions are equal to or exceed as of December 31 next preceding:

(A) With respect to nonlife insurers, the lesser of three percent of the insurer's admitted assets or twenty-five percent of surplus as regards policyholders;

(B) With respect to life insurers, three percent of the insurer's admitted assets;

(III) Reinsurance proposals or cover notes or modifications to existing agreements in which the reinsurance premium or a change in the insurer's liabilities equals or exceeds five percent of the insurer's surplus as regards policyholders, as of December 31 next preceding, including those agreements which may require as consideration the transfer of assets from an insurer to a nonaffiliate, if an agreement or understanding exists between the insurer and nonaffiliate that any portion of such assets will be transferred to one or more affiliates of the insurer;

(IV) All material transactions affecting management agreements, service contracts, and all cost-sharing arrangements; and

(V) Any material transactions specified by regulation, which the commissioner determines may adversely affect the interests of the insurer's policyholders.

(b) Nothing in this subsection (4) shall be deemed to authorize or permit any transactions which, in the case of an insurer not a member of the same holding company system, would be otherwise contrary to law.

(4.5) Any domestic insurer that is a member of an insurance holding company system and declares a shareholder dividend shall report such declaration to the division within five days thereafter and at least ten business days before the payment. If the division, applying the criteria in paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of this section, determines that the insurer's surplus as regards policyholders is not reasonable in relation to the insurer's outstanding liabilities and adequate to its financial needs, it may, prior to the expiration of the ten-day period described in this subsection (4.5), enter an order prohibiting the payment of the dividend. At the request of the insurer the division shall promptly set the matter for hearing. The commissioner shall enter a final order within thirty days of completion of the hearing. Any order prohibiting the payment of a dividend shall remain in effect pending entry of a final order by the commissioner. The division may, taking into consideration the factors set forth in paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of this section, promulgate rules concerning the reporting of proposed dividends and the conduct of hearings pertaining thereto.

(5) A domestic insurer may not enter into transactions which are part of a plan or series of like transactions with persons within the holding company system if the purpose of those separate transactions is to avoid the statutory threshold amount and thus avoid the review that would occur otherwise. If the commissioner determines that such separate transactions were entered into over any twelve-month period for such purpose, the commissioner may exercise authority pursuant to section 10-3-810.

(6) In reviewing transactions pursuant to subsection (4) of this section, the commissioner shall consider whether the transactions comply with the standards set forth in subsection (1) of this section and whether such transactions may adversely affect the interests of policyholders.

(7) The commissioner shall be notified within thirty days of any investment of the domestic insurer in any one corporation if the total investment in such corporation by the insurance holding company system exceeds ten percent of such corporation's voting securities.

10-3-806. Examination. (1) Subject to the limitation contained in this section and in addition to the other powers which the commissioner has under this title relating to the examination of insurers, the commissioner has the power to order any insurer registered under section 10-3-804 to produce such records, books, or other information papers in the possession of the insurer or its affiliates as shall be necessary to ascertain the financial condition or legality of conduct of such insurer. In the event such insurer fails to comply with such order, the commissioner has the power to examine such affiliates to obtain such information.

(2) The commissioner shall exercise his power under subsection (1) of this section only if the examination of the insurer under other sections of this title is inadequate or the interests of the policyholders of such insurer may be adversely affected.

(3) The commissioner may retain at the registered insurer's expense such attorneys, actuaries, accountants, and other experts not otherwise a part of the commissioner's staff as shall be reasonably necessary to assist in the conduct of the examination under subsection (1) of this section. Any persons so retained shall be under the direction and control of the commissioner and shall act in a purely advisory capacity.

(4) Each registered insurer producing for examination records, books, and papers pursuant to subsection (1) of this section is liable for and shall pay the expense of such examination in accordance with part 2 of article 1 of this title.

10-3-807. Confidential treatment. All information, documents, and copies thereof obtained by or disclosed to the commissioner or any other person in the course of an examination or investigation made pursuant to section 10-3-806 and all information reported pursuant to section 10-3-804 shall be given confidential treatment and shall not be subject to subpoena or made public by the commissioner or any other person, except to insurance departments of other states, without the prior written consent of the insurer to which it pertains, unless the commissioner, after giving the insurer and its affiliates who would be affected thereby notice and opportunity to be heard, determines that the interests of policyholders, shareholders, or the public will be served by the disclosure thereof, in which event he may disclose all or any part thereof in such manner as he deems appropriate.

10-3-809. Injunctions - prohibitions against voting securities - sequestration of voting securities. (1) Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any insurer or any director, officer, employee, or agent thereof has committed or is about to commit a violation of this part 8 or of any rule, regulation, or order issued by the commissioner, the commissioner may apply to the district court for the county in which the principal office of the insurer is located or, if such insurer has no such office in this state, to the district court for the city and county of Denver, for an order enjoining such insurer or such director, officer, employee, or agent thereof from violating or continuing to violate this part 8 or any such rule, regulation, or order, and for such other equitable relief as the nature of the case and the interests of the insurer's policyholders, creditors, and shareholders or the public may require.

(2) No security which is the subject of any agreement or arrangement regarding acquisition, or which is acquired or to be acquired, in contravention of the provisions of this part 8 or of any rule, regulation, or order issued by the commissioner may be voted at any shareholders' meeting, or may be counted for quorum purposes, and any action of shareholders requiring the affirmative vote of a percentage of shares may be taken as though such securities were not issued and outstanding; but no action taken at any such meeting shall be invalidated by the voting of such securities, unless the action would materially affect control of the insurer or unless the courts of this state have so ordered. If an insurer or the commissioner has reason to believe that any security of the insurer has been or is about to be acquired in contravention of the provisions of this part 8 or of any rule, regulation, or order issued by the commissioner, the insurer or the commissioner may apply to the district court for the county in which the principal office of the insurer is located or, if such insurer has no such office in this state, to the district court for the city and county of Denver for an order to enjoin any offer, request, invitation, agreement, or acquisition made in contravention of section 10-3-803, or any rule, regulation, or order issued by the commissioner under said section to enjoin the voting of any security so acquired, to void any vote of such security already cast at any meeting of shareholders, and for such other equitable relief as the nature of the case and the interests of the insurer's policyholders, creditors, and shareholders or the public may require.

(3) In any case where a person has acquired or is proposing to acquire any voting securities in violation of this part 8 or any rule, regulation, or order issued by the commissioner, the district court for the county in which the insurer has its principal place of business may, on such notice as the court deems appropriate, upon the application of the insurer or the commissioner, seize or sequester any voting securities of the insurer owned directly or indirectly by such person and issue such orders with respect thereto as may be appropriate to effectuate the provisions of this part 8. Any provision of the law to the contrary notwithstanding, for the purposes of this part 8 the situs of the ownership of the securities of domestic insurers is deemed to be in this state.

10-3-810. Criminal proceedings - civil penalties. (1) Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any insurer or any director, officer, employee, or agent thereof has committed a willful violation of this part 8, the commissioner may cause criminal proceedings to be instituted in the district court for the county in which the principal office of the insurer is located or, if such insurer has no such office in this state, in the district court for the city and county of Denver against such insurer or the responsible director, officer, employee, or agent thereof. Any insurer which willfully violates this part 8 commits a class 6 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S. Any individual who willfully violates this part 8 commits a class 6 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

(2) (a) Any insurer or any director, officer, employee, or agent thereof failing, without just cause, to file any registration statement, amendment, or notice of shareholder distribution as required in this part 8 may be required, after notice and hearing, to pay a civil penalty of not more than five thousand dollars for each violation. Each violation shall be a separate offense. The commissioner shall issue an order setting forth the amount of the civil penalty, which amount shall be based on the alleged violator's history of previous violations, the good faith of the alleged violator in attempting to achieve rapid compliance after notification of the violation, the gravity and willfulness of the violation, the potential deterrent effect of the civil penalty, and such other considerations as may be specified by the commissioner. The commissioner shall have the power to compromise, mitigate, or remit any such civil penalty.

(b) For purposes of this subsection (2), "civil penalty" means any monetary penalty levied against any insurer or any director, officer, employee, or agent thereof because of a violation of this part 8. "Civil penalty" does not include any criminal penalty levied under subsection (1) of this section.

(c) All civil penalties collected pursuant to this subsection (2) shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the general fund.

10-3-811. Delinquencies. Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has committed a violation of this part 8 which so impairs the financial condition of a domestic insurer as to threaten insolvency or make the further transaction of business by it hazardous to its policyholders, its creditors, its shareholders, or the public, the commissioner may proceed as provided in part 4 or part 5 of this article.

10-3-812. Revocation, suspension, or nonrenewal of insurer's license. Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has committed a violation of this part 8 which makes the continued operation of an insurer contrary to the interests of policyholders or the public, the commissioner may, after giving notice and an opportunity to be heard, suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew such insurer's license or authority to do business in this state for such period as he finds is required for the protection of policyholders or the public. Any such determination shall be accompanied by specific findings of fact and conclusions of law.

10-3-813. Judicial review - mandamus. (1) Any person aggrieved by any act, determination, rule, regulation, order, or any other action of the commissioner pursuant to this part 8 may appeal therefrom to the district court for the city and county of Denver. The court shall conduct its review without a jury and by trial de novo; except that, if all parties, including the commissioner, so stipulate, the review shall be confined to the record. Portions of the record may be introduced by stipulation into evidence in a trial de novo as to those parties so stipulating.

(2) The filing of an appeal pursuant to this section shall stay the application of any such rule, regulation, order, or other action of the commissioner to the appealing party unless the court, after giving such party notice and an opportunity to be heard, determines that such a stay would be detrimental to the interests of policyholders, shareholders, creditors, or the public.

(3) Any person aggrieved by any failure of the commissioner to act or make a determination required by this part 8 may petition the district court for the city and county of Denver for an action in the nature of a mandamus or a peremptory mandamus directing the commissioner to act or make such determination forthwith.

10-3-814. Recovery of distributions or payments. (1) If a receiver has been appointed by a court of this state, such receiver shall have a right to recover on behalf of a domestic insurer, either from any parent corporation or holding company or person or affiliate who otherwise controlled the insurer, the amount of distributions other than distributions of shares of the same class of stock, paid by the insurer on its capital stock, or from any director, officer, or employee, any payment in the form of a bonus, termination settlement, or extraordinary lump sum salary adjustment made by the insurer or its subsidiary. Such recovery shall be made where the distribution or payment is made at any time within one year preceding the petition for liquidation, conservation, or rehabilitation subject to the limitations of this section.

(2) No distribution or payment shall be recoverable pursuant to this section if the parent, affiliate, or other person shows that when the distribution or payment was paid such distribution or payment was lawful and reasonable and that the insurer did not know and could not reasonably have known that such distribution or payment might adversely affect the ability of the insurer to fulfill its contractual obligations.

(3) Any person who was a parent corporation or holding company or a person who otherwise controlled the insurer or affiliate at the time distributions described in subsection (1) of this section were paid shall be liable up to the amount of distributions or payments such person received. Any person who otherwise controlled the insurer at the time such distributions were declared shall be liable up to the amount of distributions he would have received if they had been paid immediately.

(4) The maximum amount recoverable under this section shall be the amount needed in excess of all other available assets of the impaired or insolvent insurer to pay the contractual obligations of the impaired or insolvent insurer and to reimburse the Colorado insurance guaranty fund.

(5) To the extent that any person liable under subsection (3) of this section is insolvent or otherwise fails to pay claims due from it pursuant to said subsection, its parent corporation, holding company, or the person who otherwise controlled it at the time the distribution was paid shall be liable for any resulting deficiency in the amount recovered from such parent corporation, holding company, or person who otherwise controlled it.

PART 9

UNAUTHORIZED INSURANCE

10-3-901. Short title. This part 9 shall be known and may be cited as the "Regulation of Unauthorized Insurance Act".

Source: L. 67: p. 873, § 10. C.R.S. 1963: § 72-25-10.

10-3-902. Legislative declaration. The purpose of this part 9 is to subject certain persons and insurers to the jurisdiction of the commissioner, of proceedings before the commissioner, and of the courts of this state in suits. The general assembly declares that it is a subject of concern that many residents of this state hold policies of insurance issued by persons and insurers not authorized to do insurance business in this state, thus presenting to such residents the often insuperable obstacle of asserting their legal rights under such policies in forums foreign to them under laws and rules of practice with which they are not familiar and are deprived of the benefit of Colorado laws regulating insurance. The general assembly declares that it is also concerned with the protection of residents of this state against acts by persons and insurers not authorized to do an insurance business in this state by the maintenance of fair and honest insurance markets; by protecting the premium tax revenues of this state; by protecting authorized persons and insurers, which are subject to strict regulation, from unfair competition by unauthorized persons and insurers; and by protecting against the evasion of the insurance regulatory laws of this state. In furtherance of such state interest, the general assembly in this part 9 exercises its power to protect residents of this state and to define what constitutes transacting insurance business in this state.

10-3-903. Definition of transacting insurance business. (1) Any of the following acts in this state, effected by mail or otherwise, by an unauthorized insurer constitute transacting insurance business in this state as the term is used in section 10-3-105:

- (a) The making of, or proposing to make, as an insurer, an insurance contract;
  - (b) The making of, or proposing to make, as guarantor or surety, any contract of guaranty or suretyship as a vocation and not merely incidental to any other legitimate business or activity of the guarantor or surety;
  - (c) The taking or receiving of any application for insurance;
  - (d) The receiving or collection of any premium, commission, membership fees, assessments, dues, or other consideration for any insurance or any part thereof;
  - (e) The issuance or delivery of contracts of insurance to residents of this state or to persons authorized to do business in this state;
  - (f) Directly or indirectly acting as an agent for or otherwise representing, or aiding on behalf of another, any person or insurer in the solicitation, negotiation, procurement, or effectuation of insurance or renewals thereof; or in the dissemination of information as to coverage or rates; or in the forwarding of applications; or in the delivery of policies or contracts; or in the inspection of risks; or in the fixing of rates; or in the investigation or adjustment of claims or losses; or in the transaction of matters subsequent to the effectuation of the contract and arising out of it; or in any other manner representing or assisting a person or insurer in the transaction of insurance with respect to subjects of insurance resident, located, or to be performed in this state. The provisions of this paragraph (f) shall not operate to prohibit full-time salaried employees of a corporate insured from acting in the capacity of an insurance manager or buyer in placing insurance on behalf of such employer.
  - (g) The doing of any kind of insurance business specifically recognized as constituting the doing of an insurance business within the meaning of the statutes relating to insurance;
  - (h) The doing, or proposing to do, any insurance business in substance equivalent to any of the foregoing in a manner designed to evade the provisions of the statutes;
  - (i) Any other transactions of business in this state by an insurer;
  - (j) Funding, either directly or indirectly, the cash qualification bond of a cash-bonding agent or professional cash-bail agent when the means do not constitute an arm's-length transaction under reasonable commercial standards or where the agreement to repay is contingent on the volume or value of the bonds posted;
  - (k) Except for payments from the defendant or a third-party indemnitor who applied for the bond, paying, either directly or indirectly, for the forfeiture of a bail bond posted by a cash-bonding agent or professional cash-bail agent when the payment is made by a person other than the cash-bonding agent or professional cash-bail agent that posted the bail bond.
- (2) The provisions of this section do not apply to:
- (a) The lawful transaction of surplus lines insurance;
  - (b) The lawful transaction of reinsurance by insurers;
  - (c) Transactions in this state involving a policy lawfully solicited, written, and delivered outside of this state covering only subjects of insurance not resident, located, or expressly to be performed in this state at the time of issuance, and which transactions are subsequent to the issuance of such policy;
  - (d) Transactions involving contracts of insurance independently procured through negotiations occurring entirely outside of this state which are reported and on which premium tax is paid;
  - (e) Attorneys acting in the ordinary relation of attorney and client in the adjustment of claims or losses;
  - (f) Transactions in this state involving group life or group annuities where the master policy of such groups was lawfully issued and delivered in a state in which the company was authorized to do an insurance business;

(g) The transaction of business by a preowned home warranty service company pursuant to part 6 of article 61 of title 12, C.R.S.;

(h) Transactions in this state involving group sickness and accident or blanket sickness and accident insurance where the master policy was lawfully issued and delivered to a single employer in another state in which the company was authorized to do an insurance business, when a master policy which covers residents of this state includes mammography benefits at a level at least as comprehensive as those required by section 10-16-104 (18) (b) (III);

(i) Any transaction in this state involving the issuance of a charitable gift annuity, as defined in section 10-1-102 (4);

(j) The sale of authorized insurance by agents of a motor vehicle rental company if such sale complies with the limitations set forth in section 10-2-105 (2) (g);

(k) Participation in a direct provider contracting pilot program pursuant to section 25.5-5-413, C.R.S.;

10-3-903.5. Jurisdiction over providers of health care benefits. (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, and except as provided in this section, any person or other entity which provides coverage in this state for medical, surgical, chiropractic, physical therapy, speech pathology, audiology, professional mental health, dental, hospital, or optometric expenses, whether such coverage is by direct payment, reimbursement, or otherwise, shall be presumed to be subject to the jurisdiction of the division of insurance, unless such person or entity shows that while providing such services it is subject to the jurisdiction of another agency of this state, any subdivisions thereof, or the federal government.

(2) A person or other entity may show that it is subject to the jurisdiction of another agency of this state, any subdivision thereof, or the federal government, by providing to the insurance commissioner the appropriate certificate, license, or other document issued by the other governmental agency which permits or qualifies it to provide those services. Nothing in this section shall be construed to in any way limit the ability of the division of insurance to regulate insurance companies, multiple employer trusts, multiple employer welfare arrangements, association health plans, or preferred provider organizations.

(3) Any person or other entity which is unable to show under subsection (2) of this section that it is subject to the jurisdiction of another agency of this state, any subdivision thereof, or the federal government, shall submit to an examination by the insurance commissioner to determine the organization and solvency of the person or the entity, and to determine whether such person or entity complies with the applicable provisions of this article.

(4) Any person or other entity unable to show that it is subject to the jurisdiction of another agency of this state, any subdivision thereof, or the federal government, shall be subject to all appropriate provisions of this article regarding the conduct of its business.

(5) Any production agency or administrator which advertises, sells, transacts, or administers the coverage in this state described in subsection (1) of this section and which is required to submit to an examination by the insurance commissioner under subsection (3) of this section, shall, if said coverage is not fully insured or otherwise fully covered by an admitted sickness and accident insurer, nonprofit hospital, medical, surgical, and health service corporation, prepaid dental care plan, or health maintenance organization, advise every purchaser, prospective purchaser, and covered person of such lack of insurance or other coverage.

(6) Any administrator which advertises or administers the coverage in this state described in subsection (1) of this section and which is required to submit to an examination by the insurance commissioner under subsection (3) of this section, shall advise any production agency of the elements of the coverage, including the amount of "stop-loss" insurance in effect.

(7) (a) The provisions of this section and any other laws of this state that regulate insurance or insurance companies shall not apply to any multiple employer health trust which meets the requirements of paragraph (b) of this subsection (7) or any multiple employer welfare arrangement which meets the requirements of paragraph (c) of this subsection (7). Any such trust or arrangement shall be subject to the requirements of this subsection (7) and section 10-3-1104. The exemption provided by this subsection (7) shall not apply to any entity if the division of insurance determines that its operation is hazardous to the public or to individuals receiving benefits.

(b) A multiple employer health trust is any trust which is:

(I) Sponsored, maintained, and funded by one or more entities of state government or political subdivisions of the state organized pursuant to state law and is for the benefit of the entity's employees; or

(II) Established and maintained pursuant to the provisions of a collective bargaining agreement between one or more unions and employers or an association of employers for the benefit of employees who are covered by such agreement, and pursuant to which health benefits, wages, pension benefits, and other terms of employment have been bargained for in good faith and the sponsoring union provides services and benefits to its members other than health benefits.

(c) A multiple employer welfare arrangement is any arrangement which complies with the following requirements:

(I) The multiple employer welfare arrangement shall have been in existence continuously since at least January 1, 1983, and shall maintain unallocated reserves of not less than five percent of the first two million dollars of annual contributions made to such arrangement in the preceding year.

(II) The multiple employer welfare arrangement shall file its annual financial statement with the division within sixty days after the end of its fiscal year to demonstrate that the required reserves are being maintained, and it shall file its audited financial statement with the division within the time period that insurance companies are required to file such statements.

(III) The multiple employer welfare arrangement shall file an actuarial opinion with the division which states that the reserves and the contribution and funding levels of the arrangement are adequate and which includes the underlying actuarial report in support of the opinion in accordance with the requirements of section 10-7-114, and such arrangement shall file such opinion and report within the time period that insurance companies are required to file such actuarial opinion.

(IV) The multiple employer welfare arrangement shall provide benefits which are in substantial compliance with the mandated benefit provisions that are applicable to insurers offering health insurance coverage in this state.

(V) The multiple employer welfare arrangement shall be sponsored and maintained by an association which:

(A) Has within its membership the employers who participate in and fund the arrangement;

(B) Is engaged in substantial activities for its employer members, other than the sponsorship of an employee welfare benefit plan, and provides business or professional assistance and benefits to its members who share a common business interest and are primarily engaged in the same trade or business; and

(C) Has been in existence for a period of at least ten years.

ANNOTATION

This section is not inconsistent with the federal Employee Retirement Income Security Act, 29 U.S.C. §§ 1001 et seq., and is therefore not preempted by 29 U.S.C.

10-3-904. Commissioner may enjoin unauthorized company. Whenever the commissioner of insurance believes, from evidence satisfactory to him, that any foreign or alien company is violating the provisions of section 10-3-105 and this part 9, the commissioner may, through the attorney general of this state, cause a complaint to be filed in the district court in and for the city and county of Denver to enjoin and restrain such company from continuing such violation or engaging therein or doing any act in furtherance thereof. The court has jurisdiction of the proceeding and has the power to make and enter an order or judgment awarding such preliminary or final injunctive relief as in its judgment is proper.

ANNOTATION

Claims asserted against the state attorney general must be dismissed where the ground for the claim is that she is charged under Colorado law with enforcing Colorado's statutory provisions governing the business of insurance, including the enforcement of workers' compensation statutes, when in fact she is not responsible for enforcing either insurance or workers' compensation laws and may become involved in prosecuting related matters only at the request of the commissioner of insurance or the director of workers' compensation. Fuller v. Norton, 881 F. Supp. 468 (D. Colo. 1995).

10-3-904.5. Emergency cease-and-desist orders - issuance. (1) The commissioner may issue an emergency cease-and-desist order ex parte if:

(a) The commissioner believes that an unauthorized person is engaging in the business of insurance in violation of the provisions of section 10-3-105 or 10-3-903 or is in violation of a rule promulgated by the commissioner; and

(b) It appears to the commissioner that the alleged conduct is fraudulent, creates an immediate danger to the public safety, or is causing or can be reasonably expected to cause significant, imminent, and irreparable public injury.

(2) For purposes of subsection (1) of this section, "unauthorized person" means any individual, corporation, association, partnership, or other natural or artificial person that directly or indirectly engages in the transaction of insurance business as described in section 10-3-903, except as such business may be engaged in in accordance with specific authorization in this title.

(3) Upon making a determination under subsection (1) of this section that an emergency cease-and-desist order should be issued, the commissioner shall serve on the person who is the subject of the order, by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, at such person's last known address, an order that contains a statement of the charges and requires such person to immediately cease and desist from the acts, methods, or practices stated in the order.

(4) The division of insurance shall promulgate reasonable rules necessary to carry out the provisions of this section and sections 10-3-904.6 and 10-3-904.7. Such rules shall include, to the extent possible, provisions requiring uniformity with respect to the procedures of this state and other states, the United States, and the national association of insurance commissioners.

10-3-904.6. Emergency cease-and-desist orders - hearings - judicial review - violations. (1) Any person who is the subject of an emergency cease-and-desist order may contest such order by requesting an immediate hearing before the commissioner, pursuant to section 24-4-105 (12), C.R.S., at which such person shall have the opportunity to show cause why the order should not be affirmed or upheld. Any immediate hearing requested by a person against whom an emergency cease-and-desist order has been issued pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be held in accordance with the requirements of article 4 of title 24, C.R.S. The commissioner shall have all of the powers provided in such article for the party conducting the hearing.

(2) Upon good cause shown the commissioner shall permit any person to intervene, appear, and be heard at the hearing, either in person or through counsel.

(3) Following the hearing the commissioner shall affirm, modify, or set aside, in whole or in part, the emergency cease-and-desist order.

(4) Any person adversely affected by the commissioner's decision may appeal such decision by filing an action for judicial review in the court of appeals pursuant to the provisions of section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S. Any appeal made pursuant to the provisions of this subsection (4) shall not operate to stay or vacate a decision or order of the commissioner unless the court issues an order that specifically stays or vacates the order or decision. The commissioner may recover reasonable attorney fees if judicial action is necessary to enforce an order made pursuant to section 10-3-904.5.

(5) The commissioner shall be responsible for determining whether an emergency cease-and-desist order has been violated and may conduct a hearing pursuant to the procedures in section 24-4-105, C.R.S., to assist in making such determination. If the commissioner determines that a violation has occurred, notice of a hearing shall be mailed by the commissioner to the alleged violator's last known address. Such notice shall contain the time, date, and place of the hearing to be held for the purpose of eliciting further information. Hearings shall not be held before the twenty-first day after the date the notice is sent. The notice shall contain a statement of the facts or conduct alleged to be in violation of the emergency cease-and-desist order. If after a hearing the commissioner determines that an emergency cease-and-desist order has been violated the commissioner may:

(a) Impose a civil penalty of twenty-five thousand dollars for each act of violation;

(b) Direct the person against whom the order was issued to make complete restitution, in the form and amount and within the period determined by the commissioner, to all state residents, insureds, and entities operating in this state that were damaged by the violation or failure to comply; or

(c) Impose the penalty described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (5) and direct restitution pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (b) of this subsection (5).

(6) Any person adversely affected by an order issued by the commissioner pursuant to subsection (5) of this section may appeal such order by commencing an action for judicial review in the court of appeals pursuant to section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S. Any such action shall be commenced no later than the twentieth day after the date of the order. The division may recover reasonable attorney fees if judicial action is necessary for enforcement of the commissioner's order.

10-3-904.7. Failure to pay penalties or restitution. (1) If a person fails to pay a penalty or make complete restitution as directed by the commissioner under section 10-3-904.6 (5) (a) or (5) (b), the commissioner may:

- (a) Refer the matter to the attorney general for enforcement; or
- (b) Cancel or revoke any permit, license, certificate of authority, certificate, registration, or other authorization issued to such person.

10-3-905. Service of process upon unauthorized company. (1) Any act of entering into a contract of insurance as an insurer, or transacting insurance business in this state, as such term is defined by section 10-3-903, by an unauthorized foreign or alien company is equivalent to and constitutes an appointment by such company of the commissioner to be its true and lawful attorney upon whom may be served all lawful process in any action or proceeding against it arising out of a violation of this part 9, or any action which may arise under the terms of this part 9, and the performance of one or more of such acts is signification of its agreement that any such process against it which is so served is of the same legal force and validity as if served upon the company.

(2) (a) Service of such process shall be made by delivering and leaving with the commissioner two copies thereof and the payment to the commissioner of a fee of ten dollars. The commissioner shall promptly mail by certified mail one of the copies of such process to such company at its last known principal place of business and shall keep a record of all process so served upon the commissioner. Such process is sufficient service upon such company if notice of such service and a copy of the process are, within ten days thereafter, sent by certified mail, by or on behalf of the commissioner, to such company at its last-known principal place of business, and the return receipt of the company or, in the event the company refuses to accept such certified mail, the certified mail with its refusal thereon and the affidavit of compliance herewith by or on behalf of the commissioner is filed with the clerk of the court in which such action or proceeding is pending. The date of filing of the return receipt or refusal and affidavit of compliance constitutes the effective date of service and sufficient proof thereof.

(b) Notwithstanding the amount specified for the fee in paragraph (a) of this subsection (2), the commissioner by rule or as otherwise provided by law may reduce the amount of the fee if necessary pursuant to section 24-75-402 (3), C.R.S., to reduce the uncommitted reserves of the fund to which all or any portion of the fee is credited. After the uncommitted reserves of the fund are sufficiently reduced, the commissioner by rule or as otherwise provided by law may increase the amount of the fee as provided in section 24-75-402 (4), C.R.S.

(3) The court in any action or proceeding in which service is made in the manner provided in subsection (2) of this section may, in its discretion, order such postponement as may be necessary to afford such company reasonable opportunity to defend such action or proceeding.

(4) Nothing in this section is to be construed to prevent an unauthorized foreign or alien company from filing a motion to quash a writ or to set aside service thereof made in the manner provided in subsection (2) of this section on the ground that such unauthorized company has not done any of the acts referred to in section 10-3-903.

(5) No judgment by default shall be entered in any such action or proceeding until the expiration of thirty days from the date of the filing of the affidavit of compliance.

(6) Nothing in this section shall limit or affect the right to serve any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon any company in any other manner permitted by law.

10-3-906. Validity of insurance contracts - liability under insurance contract.

(1) The failure of a company transacting insurance business in Colorado to obtain a certificate of authority shall not impair the validity of any act or contract of such company and shall not prevent such company from defending any action in any court of this state.

(2) In event of failure of any such unauthorized insurer to pay any claim or loss within the provisions of such insurance contract, any person who assisted or in any manner aided directly or indirectly in the procurement of such insurance contract is also liable to the insured for the full amount of the claim or loss in the manner provided by the provisions of such insurance contract.

10-3-907. Investigation and disclosure of insurance contracts. (1) Whenever the commissioner has reason to believe that insurance has been effectuated by or for any person in this state with an unauthorized insurer, the commissioner shall in writing order such person to produce for examination all insurance contracts and other documents evidencing insurance with both authorized and unauthorized insurers and to disclose to the commissioner the amount of insurance, name and address of each insurer, gross amount of premium paid or to be paid, and the name and address of the person assisting or aiding in the solicitation, negotiation, or effectuation of such insurance.

(2) Every person who, for thirty days after such written order pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, neglects to comply with the requirements of such order or who willfully makes a disclosure that is untrue, deceptive, or misleading shall forfeit fifty dollars, and an additional fifty dollars for each day of neglect after expiration of said thirty days.

10-3-908. Reporting of unauthorized insurance. (1) Every person investigating or adjusting any loss or claim on a subject of insurance in this state shall immediately report to the commissioner every insurance policy or contract which has been entered into by any insurer not authorized to transact such insurance business in this state.

(2) Every person acting in the capacity of insurance adviser, counselor, or analyst shall report to the commissioner every insurance policy or contract covering a subject of insurance in this state which has been entered into by an insurer not authorized to transact such insurance business in this state.

(3) This section does not apply to transactions in this state involving a policy lawfully solicited, written, and delivered outside of this state covering only subjects of insurance not resident, located, or expressly to be performed in this state at the time of issuance, and which transactions are subsequent to the issuance of such policy.

10-3-909. Unauthorized insurance premium tax. (1) Except as to premiums that are subject to a federal premium, excise, or stamp tax equal to or in excess of two and one-fourth percent of net premiums, and except as to premiums on independently procured insurance on which tax has been paid pursuant to section 10-3-209, 10-5-111, or 10-5-111.5, every insured under a contract procured from an unauthorized insurer shall pay to the division of insurance before March 1 next succeeding the calendar year in which the insurance was so effectuated, continued, or renewed a premium tax of two and one-quarter percent of net premiums charged for the insurance. Such insurance on subjects resident, located, or to be performed in this state procured through negotiations or an application, in whole or in part occurring or made within or from within or outside of this state, or for which premiums in whole or in part are remitted directly or indirectly from within or outside of this state, is deemed to be insurance procured, continued, or renewed in this state. The term "premium" includes all premiums, membership fees, assessments, dues, and any other consideration for insurance. If the tax prescribed by this section is not paid within the time stated, the tax is increased by a penalty of twenty-five percent and by the amount of an additional penalty computed at the rate of one percent per month or any part thereof from the date the payment was due to the date paid.

(2) If a policy covers risks or exposures only partially in this state, the tax payable shall be computed on the portions of the premium which are properly allocable to the risks or exposures located in this state.

(3) Proration of premium taxes due from an industrial insured under a contract procured from an unauthorized insurer having property in states other than Colorado shall be determined by rules and regulations promulgated by the commissioner using the following criteria where applicable:

- (a) Percentage of physical assets in Colorado;
- (b) Percentage of employee payroll in Colorado;
- (c) Percentage of sales in Colorado;
- (d) Percentage of taxable income reportable in Colorado.

Source: L. 67: p. 871, § 8. C.R.S. 1963: § 72-25-8. L. 2012: (1) amended, (HB 12-1215), ch. 104, p. 354, § 6, effective August 8.

10-3-910. Application of this part 9. (1) Other than section 10-3-909, this part 9 shall not apply to any insurance company or underwriter issuing contracts of insurance to industrial insureds nor to any contract of insurance issued to any one or more industrial insureds.

(2) For purposes of this section, an “industrial insured” is:

(a) An insured who procures the insurance of any risk other than life and annuity contracts by use of the services of a full-time employee acting as an insurance manager or buyer or the services of a regularly and continuously retained qualified insurance consultant who does not receive a commission or compensation for placing the risk; and

(b) An insured whose aggregate annual premiums for insurance on all risks total at least one hundred thousand dollars; and

(c) An insured having at least one hundred full-time employees.

(3) This part 9 shall not apply to any life insurance company organized and operated, without profit to any private shareholder or individual, exclusively for the purpose of aiding educational or scientific institutions organized and operated without profit to any private shareholder or individual by issuing insurance and annuity contracts directly from the home office of the company and without agents or representatives in this state only to or for the benefit of such institutions and to individuals engaged in the services of such institutions, nor to any policy or contract which it issues; but this exemption is conditioned upon any such company complying with the following requirements:

(a) Payment of an annual registration fee of five thousand dollars; except that the commissioner by rule or as otherwise provided by law may reduce the amount of the fee if necessary pursuant to section 24-75-402 (3), C.R.S., to reduce the uncommitted reserves of the fund to which all or any portion of the fee is credited. After the uncommitted reserves of the fund are sufficiently reduced, the commissioner by rule or as otherwise provided by law may increase the amount of the fee as provided in section 24-75-402 (4), C.R.S.

(b) Filing a copy of any policy or contract issued to Colorado residents with the commissioner;

(c) Filing a copy of its annual statement prepared pursuant to the laws of its state of domicile, as well as such other financial material as may be requested with the commissioner; and

(d) Providing, in such form as may be acceptable to the commissioner, for the appointment of the commissioner as its true and lawful attorney upon whom may be served all lawful process in any action or proceeding against such company arising out of any policy or contract it has issued to, or which is currently held by, a Colorado citizen, and process so served against such company shall have the same force and validity as if served upon the company.

PART 10

UNAUTHORIZED INSURERS PROCESS ACT

10-3-1001. Short title. This part 10 shall be known and may be cited as the “Unauthorized Insurers Process Act”.

Source: L. 55: p. 478, § 6. CRS 53: § 72-19-5. C.R.S. 1963: § 72-18-5.

10-3-1002. Legislative declaration. The purpose of this part 10 is to subject certain insurers to the jurisdiction of courts of this state in suits by or on behalf of insureds or beneficiaries under insurance contracts. The general assembly declares that it is a subject of concern that many residents of this state hold policies of insurance issued or delivered in this state by insurers while not authorized to do business in this state, thus presenting to such residents the often insuperable obstacle of resorting to distant forums for the purpose of asserting legal rights under such policies. In furtherance of such state interest, the general assembly provides in this part 10 a method of substituted service of process upon such insurers and declares that in so doing it exercises its power to protect its residents and to define, for the purpose of this part 10, what constitutes doing business in this state, and also exercises powers and privileges available to the state by virtue of Public Law 15, 79th Congress of the United States, Chapter 20, 1st Sess., S. 340, as amended, which declares that the business of insurance and every person engaged therein shall be subject to the laws of the several states.

10-3-1003. Service of process upon unauthorized insurer. (1) Any of the following acts in this state, effected by mail or otherwise, by an unauthorized foreign or alien insurer: The issuance or delivery of contracts of insurance to residents of this state or to corporations authorized to do business therein; the solicitation of applications for such contracts; the collection of premiums, membership fees, assessments, or other considerations for such contracts; or any other transaction of insurance business, is equivalent to and constitutes an appointment by such insurer of the commissioner and his successor in office to be its true and lawful attorney, upon whom may be served all lawful process in any action, suit, or proceeding instituted by or on behalf of an insured or beneficiary arising out of any such contract of insurance; and any such act shall be signification of its agreement that such service of process is of the same legal force and validity as personal service of process in this state upon such insurer.

(2) Such service of process shall be made by delivering to and leaving with the commissioner or some person in apparent charge of his office two copies thereof and the payment to him of ten dollars which shall be taxed as part of costs of the proceeding. The commissioner shall forthwith mail by certified mail one of the copies of such process to the defendant at its last known principal place of business and shall keep a record of all process so served upon him. Such service of process is sufficient, if notice of such service and a copy of the process are sent within ten days thereafter by certified mail by plaintiff or plaintiff's attorney to the defendant at its last known principal place of business, and if the defendant's receipt or receipt issued by the post office with which the letter is certified, showing the name of the sender of the letter and the name and address of the person to whom the letter is addressed, and the affidavit of the plaintiff or plaintiff's attorney showing a compliance herewith are filed with the clerk of the court in which such action is pending on or before the date the defendant is required to appear or within such further time as the court may allow.

(3) Service of process in any such action, suit, or proceeding shall, in addition to the manner provided in subsection (2) of this section, be valid if served upon any person within this state who, in this state on behalf of such insurer, is soliciting insurance, or making, issuing, or delivering any contract of insurance, or collecting or receiving any premium, membership fee, assessment, or other consideration for insurance, and if a copy of such process is sent within ten days thereafter by registered mail by the plaintiff or plaintiff's attorney to the defendant at the last known principal place of business of the defendant, and if the defendant's receipt or the receipt issued by the postoffice with which the letter is registered, showing the name of the sender of the letter and the name and address of the person to whom the letter is addressed, and the affidavit of the plaintiff or plaintiff's attorney showing a compliance herewith are filed with the clerk of the court in which such action is pending on or before the date the defendant is required to appear or within such further time as the court may allow.

(4) No plaintiff or complainant shall be entitled to a judgment by default under this section until the expiration of thirty days from date of the filing of the affidavit of compliance.

(5) Nothing in this section shall limit or abridge the right to serve any process, notice, or demand upon any insurer in any other manner permitted by law.

10-3-1004. Defense of action by unauthorized insurer. (1) Before any unauthorized foreign or alien insurer files or causes to be filed any pleading in any action, suit, or proceeding instituted against it, such unauthorized insurer shall either deposit, with the clerk of the court in which such action, suit, or proceeding is pending, cash or securities, or file with such clerk a bond with good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the court, in an amount to be fixed by the court sufficient to secure the payment of any final judgment which may be rendered in such action, or procure a certificate of authority to transact the business of insurance in this state, unless one or more of the following is applicable:

(a) The insurer makes a showing satisfactory to the court and the commissioner that there are, in this state or in another state, cash, securities, bond, or other assets sufficient and available to secure the payment of any final judgment which may be rendered in the action, suit, or proceeding or that the insurance was placed lawfully in the jurisdiction in which the transaction took place and which was not an unlawful placement under the laws of this state;

(b) At the time the insurer files any pleading in any action, suit, or proceeding instituted against it, the insurer is listed on the eligible nonadmitted insurers list prepared by the commissioner pursuant to subsection (1) of section 10-5-108;

(c) With respect to a contract of reinsurance, the reinsurer has complied with the provisions of this title necessary to permit the ceding insurer to take credit on its financial statement for the reinsurance pursuant to subsections (5) and (6) of section 10-3-118.

(1.5) If an insurer or reinsurer asserts an exemption under paragraph (a), (b), or (c) of subsection (1) of this section, such insurer or reinsurer shall notify the court of the basis on which the exemption is sought and shall file a copy of the assertion with the commissioner of insurance.

(2) The court, in any action, suit, or proceeding in which service is made in the manner provided in section 10-3-1003 (2) or (3), may, in its discretion, order such postponement as may be necessary to afford the defendant reasonable opportunity to comply with the provisions of subsection (1) of this section and to defend such action.

(3) Nothing in subsection (1) of this section is to be construed to prevent an unauthorized foreign or alien insurer from filing a motion to quash a writ or to set aside service thereof made in the manner provided in section 10-3-1003 (2) or (3) on the ground either that such unauthorized insurer has not done any of the acts enumerated in section 10-3-1003 (1) or that the person on whom service was made pursuant to section 10-3-1003 (3) was not doing any of the acts therein enumerated.

10-3-1005. Attorney fees. In any action against an unauthorized foreign or alien insurer upon a contract of insurance issued or delivered in this state to a resident thereof or to a corporation authorized to do business therein, if the insurer has failed for thirty days after demand prior to the commencement of the action to make payment in accordance with the terms of the contract, and it appears to the court that such refusal was vexatious and without reasonable cause, the court may allow to the plaintiff a reasonable attorney fee and include such fee in any judgment that may be rendered in such action. Such fee shall not exceed twelve and one-half percent of the amount which the court or jury finds the plaintiff is entitled to recover against the insurer, but in no event shall such fee be less than twenty-five dollars. Failure of an insurer to defend any such action is deemed prima facie evidence that its failure to make payment was vexatious and without reasonable cause.

ANNOTATION

For section to apply, policy must be issued or delivered in Colorado. Despite the fact that defendant, an out of state insurance company, was not authorized to do business in Colorado at the time this suit was commenced, it is clear that this statute does not apply where the policy was neither issued nor delivered in this state. Iowa State Travelers Mut. Assurance Co. v. Brown, 29 Colo. App. 458, 485 P.2d 910 (1971).

UNFAIR COMPETITION - DECEPTIVE PRACTICES

Editor's note: This part 11 was numbered as article 14 of chapter 72, C.R.S. 1963. The substantive provisions of this part 11 were repealed and reenacted in 1973, resulting in the addition, relocation, and elimination of sections as well as subject matter. For amendments to this part 11 prior to 1973, consult the Colorado statutory research explanatory note beginning on page vii in the front of this volume.

10-3-1101. Legislative declaration. The purpose of this part 11 is to regulate trade practices in the business of insurance by defining, or providing for the determination of, all such practices in this state which constitute unfair methods of competition or unfair or deceptive acts or practices, and by prohibiting the trade practices so defined or determined. No rules or regulations shall be promulgated to adversely affect free and open competition in the sale of insurance.

ANNOTATION

The phrase "providing for the determination of all such practices" cannot reasonably be construed as an intent by the general assembly to exempt the insurance industry from other Colorado statutes. The phrase can only mean all such practices in the regulatory context since the purpose of the act is the comprehensive regulation of insurance trade practices. Showpiece Homes Corp. v. Assurance Co. of Am., 38 P.3d 47 (Colo. 2001).

While this act provides for the general governance of the insurance industry, it does not encompass redress for any losses sustained pursuant to an insurance company's negligence, default, or tort. As a result, other statutes may also apply in order for private parties to obtain relief. Showpiece Homes Corp. v. Assurance Co. of Am., 38 P.3d 47 (Colo. 2001).

A private cause of action by an insured against an insurer under the Colorado Consumer Protection Act is not preempted by this act. Showpiece Homes Corp. v. Assurance Co. of Am., 38 P.3d 47 (Colo. 2001).

For discussion of tort of "bad faith breach of insurance contract", see Farmers Group, Inc. v. Trimble, 658 P.2d 1370 (Colo. App. 1982), aff'd, 691 P.2d 1138 (Colo. 1984).

A third-party administrator owes a duty of good faith to an insured when a special relationship exists between the third-party administrator and the insured. A special relationship is created when the administrator has primary control over benefit determinations; assumes some of the insurance risk of loss; undertakes many of the obligations and risks of an insurer; and has the power, motive, and opportunity to act unscrupulously in the investigation and servicing of the insurance claims. To establish a breach of this duty of good faith, the plaintiff must establish that the third-party administrator's conduct was unreasonable and that the administrator knew its conduct was unreasonable or acted in a reckless disregard of whether its conduct was unreasonable. Cary v. United of Omaha Life Ins. Co., 68 P.3d 462 (Colo. 2003).

Admission of attorney litigation conduct as evidence in bad faith insurance claim. There are substantial concerns about the relevancy, probative value, and prejudicial impact of evidence of attorney litigation conduct when presented as evidence of a bad faith claim. Such evidence may be admissible in some circumstances. The appropriate test must recognize the importance of those concerns in evaluating whether evidence of attorney litigation conduct is admissible as part of a bad faith claim. Parsons v. Allstate Ins. Co., 165 P.3d 809 (Colo. App. 2006).

Test to determine admissibility of attorney litigation conduct. Evidence of attorney litigation conduct is admissible as part of a bad faith insurance claim if the risks of unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, or misleading the jury, and considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or presentation of unnecessary cumulative evidence are substantially outweighed by the probative value of the evidence. Parsons v. Allstate Ins. Co., 165 P.3d 809 (Colo. App. 2006).

Applied in Augustin v. Barnes, 41 Colo. App. 533, 592 P.2d 9 (1978), aff'd in part and rev'd in part, 626 P.2d 625 (Colo. 1981).

(1) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of insurance.

(2) "Insurance policy" or "insurance contract" means any contract of insurance, indemnity, medical or hospital service, suretyship, or annuity issued, proposed for issuance, or intended for issuance by any person.

(3) "Person" means any individual, corporation, association, partnership, reciprocal exchange, interinsurer, Lloyds insurer, nonadmitted insurer, fraternal benefit society, and other legal entities engaged in the insurance business, including agents, limited insurance representatives, agencies, brokers, surplus line brokers, and adjusters. Such term shall also include medical service plans and hospital service plans regulated under parts 1 and 3 of article 16 of this title and health maintenance organizations regulated under parts 1 and 4 of article 16 of this title. Such plans and organizations shall be deemed to be engaged in the business of insurance for purposes of this part 11 only.

10-3-1104. Unfair methods of competition - unfair or deceptive acts or practices.

(1) The following are defined as unfair methods of competition and unfair or deceptive acts or practices in the business of insurance:

(a) Misrepresentations and false advertising of insurance policies: Making, issuing, circulating, or causing to be made, issued, or circulated, any estimate, circular, statement, sales presentation, omission, or comparison which:

(I) Misrepresents the benefits, advantages, conditions, or terms of any insurance policy; or

(II) Misrepresents the dividends or share of the surplus to be received on any insurance policy; or

(III) Makes any false or misleading statements as to the dividends or share of surplus previously paid on any insurance policy; or

(IV) Is misleading or is a misrepresentation as to the financial condition of any person, or as to the legal reserve system upon which any life insurer operates; or

(V) Uses any name or title of any insurance policy or class of insurance policies misrepresenting the true nature thereof; or

(VI) Is a misrepresentation for the purpose of inducing or tending to induce the lapse, forfeiture, exchange, conversion, or surrender of any insurance policy; or

(VII) Is a misrepresentation for the purpose of effecting a pledge or assignment of or effecting a loan against any insurance policy; or

(VIII) Misrepresents any insurance policy as being a security; or

(IX) Misrepresentation shall not be construed where a written comparison of policies is made factually disclosing relevant features and benefits for which the policy is issued and by which an informed decision can be made;

(b) False information and advertising generally:

(I) Making, publishing, disseminating, circulating, or placing before the public, or causing, directly or indirectly, to be made, published, disseminated, circulated, or placed before the public, in a newspaper, magazine, or other publication, or in the form of a notice, circular, pamphlet, letter, or poster, or over any radio or television station, or in any other way, an advertisement, announcement, or statement containing any assertion, representation, or statement with respect to the business of insurance, or with respect to any person in the conduct of his or her insurance business, which is untrue, deceptive, or misleading;

(II) Knowingly filing with the commissioner or other public official, or with any employee or agent of the division of insurance in the department of regulatory agencies, a written, false statement of material fact as to the financial condition of an insurer;

(III) Knowingly making any false entry of a material fact in any book, report, or other written statement of any insurer; knowingly omitting or failing to make a true entry of a material fact pertaining to the business of the insurer in any book, report, or other written statement of the insurer; or knowingly making any written, false material statement to the commissioner or any employee or agent of the division of insurance in the department of regulatory agencies;

(c) Defamation: Making, publishing, disseminating, or circulating, directly or indirectly, or aiding, abetting, or encouraging the making, publishing, disseminating, or circulating of any oral or written statement or any pamphlet, circular, article, or literature which is false, or maliciously critical, or derogatory to the financial condition of any person, and which is calculated to injure such person;

(d) Boycott, coercion, and intimidation: Entering into any agreement to commit, or by any concerted action committing, any act of boycott, coercion, or intimidation resulting in or tending to result in unreasonable restraint of, or monopoly in, the business of insurance;

(e) Stock operations and advisory board contracts: Issuing or delivering, or permitting agents, officers, or employees to issue or deliver, agency company stock or other capital stock, or benefit certificates or shares, in any corporation, or securities, or any special or advisory board contracts, or other contracts of any kind promising returns and profits as an inducement to insurance;

(f) (I) Unfair discrimination: Making or permitting any unfair discrimination between individuals of the same class and equal expectation of life in the rates charged for any contract of life insurance or of life annuity, or in the dividends or other benefits payable thereon, or in any other of the terms and conditions of such contract;

(II) Making or permitting any unfair discrimination between individuals of the same class or between neighborhoods within a municipality and of essentially the same hazard in the amount of premium, policy fees, or rates charged for any policy or contract of insurance, or in the benefits payable thereunder, or in any of the terms or conditions of such contract, or in any other manner whatever;

(III) Making or permitting to be made any classification solely on the basis of marital status or sex, unless such classification is for the purpose of insuring family units or is justified by actuarial statistics;

(IV) Making or permitting to be made any classification solely on the basis of blindness, partial blindness, or a specific physical disability unless such classification is based upon an unequal expectation of life or an expected risk of loss different than that of other individuals;

(VI) Inquiring about or making an investigation concerning, directly or indirectly, an applicant's, an insured's, or a beneficiary's sexual orientation in:

(A) An application for coverage; or

(B) Any investigation conducted in connection with an application for coverage;

(VII) Using information about gender, marital status, medical history, occupation, residential living arrangements, beneficiaries, zip codes, or other territorial designations to determine sexual orientation;

(VIII) Using sexual orientation in the underwriting process or in the determination of insurability;

(IX) Making adverse underwriting decisions because an applicant or an insured has demonstrated concerns related to AIDS by seeking counseling from health care professionals;

(X) Making adverse underwriting decisions on the basis of the existence of nonspecific blood code information received from the medical information bureau, but this prohibition shall not bar investigation in response to the existence of such nonspecific blood code as long as the investigation is conducted in accordance with the provisions of section 10-3-1104.5;

(XI) Reducing benefits under a health insurance policy by the addition of an exclusionary rider, unless such rider only excludes conditions which have been documented in the original underwriting application, original underwriting medical examination, or medical history of the insured, or which can be shown with clear and convincing evidence to have been caused by the medically documented excluded condition;

(XII) Denying health care coverage subject to article 16 of this title to any individual based solely on that individual's casual or nonprofessional participation in the following activities: Motorcycling; snowmobiling; off-highway vehicle riding; skiing; or snowboarding;

(XIII) Making or permitting any unfair discrimination between individuals of the same class and of essentially the same hazard in the amount of premium, policy fees, or rates charged for any policy of sickness and accident insurance, in the benefits payable under such policy, in the terms or conditions of the policy, or in any other manner;

(XIV) Making or permitting any unfair discrimination between individuals or risks of the same class and of essentially the same hazard by refusing to insure, refusing to renew, canceling, or limiting the amount of insurance coverage on a property and casualty risk solely because of the geographic location of the risk, unless the action is the result of the application of sound underwriting and actuarial principles related to actual or reasonably anticipated loss experience;

(XV) Making or permitting any unfair discrimination between individuals or risks of the same class and of essentially the same hazards by refusing to insure, refusing to renew, canceling, or limiting the amount of insurance coverage on the residential property risk, or the personal property contained therein, solely because of the age of the residential property;

(XVI) Terminating or modifying coverage or refusing to issue or renew any property or casualty policy solely because the applicant or insured or any employee of either is mentally or physically impaired; except that this subparagraph (XVI) does not:

(A) Apply to accident and health insurance sold by a casualty insurer; or

(B) Modify any other provision of law relating to the termination, modification, issuance, or renewal of any insurance policy or contract;

(XVII) Refusing to insure a person solely because another insurer has refused to write a policy, or has cancelled or has refused to renew an existing policy, in which the person was the named insured. Nothing in this subparagraph (XVII) prevents an insurer from terminating an excess insurance policy based on the failure of the insured to maintain any required underlying insurance.

(g) Rebates: Except as otherwise expressly provided by law, knowingly permitting, or offering to make, or making any contract of insurance or agreement as to such contract, other than as plainly expressed in the insurance contract issued thereon, or paying, or allowing, or giving, or offering to pay, allow, or give, directly or indirectly, as inducement to such insurance or annuity, any rebate of premiums payable on the contract, or any special favor or advantage in the dividends or other benefits thereon, or any valuable consideration or inducement whatever not specified in the contract; or giving, or selling, or purchasing, or offering to give, sell, or purchase, as inducement to such insurance contract or annuity or in connection therewith any stocks, bonds, or other securities of any insurance company or other corporation, association, or partnership, or any dividends or profits accrued thereon, or anything of value whatsoever not specified in the contract;

(h) Unfair claim settlement practices: Committing or performing, either in willful violation of this part 11 or with such frequency as to indicate a tendency to engage in a general business practice, any of the following:

(I) Misrepresenting pertinent facts or insurance policy provisions relating to coverages at issue; or

(II) Failing to acknowledge and act reasonably promptly upon communications with respect to claims arising under insurance policies; or

(III) Failing to adopt and implement reasonable standards for the prompt investigation of claims arising under insurance policies; or

(IV) Refusing to pay claims without conducting a reasonable investigation based upon all available information; or

(V) Failing to affirm or deny coverage of claims within a reasonable time after proof of loss statements have been completed; or

(VI) Not attempting in good faith to effectuate prompt, fair, and equitable settlements of claims in which liability has become reasonably clear; or

(VII) Compelling insureds to institute litigation to recover amounts due under an insurance policy by offering substantially less than the amounts ultimately recovered in actions brought by such insureds; or

(VIII) Attempting to settle a claim for less than the amount to which a reasonable man would have believed he was entitled by reference to written or printed advertising material accompanying or made part of an application; or

(IX) Attempting to settle claims on the basis of an application which was altered without notice to, or knowledge or consent of, the insured; or

(X) Making claims payments to insureds or beneficiaries not accompanied by statement setting forth the coverage under which the payments are being made; or

(XI) Making known to insureds or claimants a policy of appealing from arbitration awards in favor of insureds or claimants for the purpose of compelling them to accept settlements or compromises less than the amount awarded in arbitration; or

(XII) Delaying the investigation or payment of claims by requiring an insured or claimant, or the physician of either of them, to submit a preliminary claim report, and then requiring the subsequent submission of formal proof of loss forms, both of which submissions contain substantially the same information; or

(XIII) Failing to promptly settle claims, where liability has become reasonably clear, under one portion of the insurance policy coverage in order to influence settlements under other portions of the insurance policy coverage; or

(XIV) Failing to promptly provide a reasonable explanation of the basis in the insurance policy in relation to the facts or applicable law for denial of a claim or for the offer of a compromise settlement; or

(XV) Raising as a defense or partial offset in the adjustment of a third-party claim the defense of comparative negligence as set forth in section 13-21-111, C.R.S., without conducting a reasonable investigation and developing substantial evidence in support thereof. At such time as the issue is raised under this subparagraph (XV), the insurer shall furnish to the commissioner a written statement setting forth reasons as to why a defense under the comparative negligence doctrine is valid.

(XVI) Excluding medical benefits under health care coverage subject to article 16 of this title to any covered individual based solely on that individual's casual or nonprofessional participation in the following activities: Motorcycling; snowmobiling; off-highway vehicle riding; skiing; or snowboarding; or (XVII) Failing to adopt and implement reasonable standards for the prompt resolution of medical payment claims.

(i) Failure to maintain complaint handling procedures: Failing of any insurer to maintain a complete record of all the complaints which it has received since the date of its last examination. This record shall indicate the total number of complaints, their classification by line of insurance, the nature of each complaint, the disposition of these complaints, and the time it took to process each complaint. For purposes of this paragraph (i), "complaint" shall mean any written communication primarily expressing a grievance.

(j) Misrepresentation in insurance applications: Making false or fraudulent statements or representations on or relative to any application for an insurance policy, for the purpose of obtaining a fee, commission, money, or other benefit from any person;

(k) Requiring, directly or indirectly, any insured or claimant to submit to any polygraph test concerning any application for or any claim under any policy of insurance;

(l) Violation of or noncompliance with any insurance law in part 6 of article 4 of this title;

(m) Failure to make promptly a full refund or credit of all unearned premiums to the person entitled thereto upon termination of insurance coverage;

(n) Requiring or attempting to require or otherwise induce a health care provider, as defined in section 13-64-403 (12) (a), C.R.S., to utilize arbitration agreements with patients as a condition of providing medical malpractice insurance to such health care provider;

(o) Failure to comply with all the provisions of section 10-3-1104.5 regarding HIV testing;

(p) Violation of or noncompliance with any provision of part 13 of this article;

(q) Increasing the premiums unilaterally or decreasing the coverage benefits on renewal of a policy of insurance, increasing the premium on new policies, or failing to issue an insurance policy to barbers, cosmetologists, cosmeticians, manicurists, barbershops, or beauty salons, as regulated in article 8 of title 12, C.R.S., regardless of the type of risk insured against, based solely on the decision of the general assembly to stop mandatory inspections of the places of business of such insureds;

(r) Advising an employer to arrange for or arranging for an employee or an employee's dependent to apply to a plan developed pursuant to the "Colorado High Risk Health Insurance Act", under part 5 of article 8 of this title, for the purpose of separating such employee or employee's dependent from any group health coverage provided in connection with such employee's employment;

(s) Certifying pursuant to section 10-16-107.2 or issuing, soliciting, or using a policy form, endorsement, or rider that does not comply with statutory mandates. Such solicitation or certification shall be subject to the sanctions described in sections 10-2-704, 10-2-801, 10-2-804, 10-3-1107, 10-3-1108, and 10-3-1109.

(t) Certifying pursuant to section 10-4-419 or issuing, soliciting, or using a claims-made policy form, endorsement, or disclosure form that does not comply with statutory mandates. Such solicitation or certification shall be subject to the sanctions described in sections 10-3-1107, 10-3-1108, and 10-3-1109.

(u) Certifying pursuant to section 10-4-633 or issuing, soliciting, or using an automobile policy form, endorsement, or notice form that does not comply with statutory mandates. Such solicitation or certification shall be subject to the sanctions described in sections 10-3-1107, 10-3-1108, and 10-3-1109.

(v) Failure to comply with all provisions of section 10-16-108.5 concerning fair marketing of basic and standard health benefit plans, and section 10-16-105 concerning guaranteed issue of basic and standard health benefit plans;

(w) Failure to comply with the provisions of section 10-16-201.5 concerning the renewability of individual health benefit plans;

(x) Violation of the provisions of part 8 of article 1 of title 25, C.R.S., concerning patient records;

(y) Violating any provision of the "Consumer Protection Standards Act for the Operation of Managed Care Plans", part 7 of article 16 of this title by those subject to said part 7;

(z) Willfully violating any provision of section 10-16-113.5;

(aa) Certifying pursuant to section 10-10-109 (3) or 10-10-109 (4), issuing, soliciting, or using a credit insurance policy form, certificate of insurance, notice of proposed insurance, application for insurance, endorsement, or rider that does not comply with Colorado law. Such certification, issuance, solicitation, or use shall be subject to the sanctions described in sections 10-3-1107, 10-3-1108, and 10-3-1109.

(bb) Certifying pursuant to section 10-15-105 (1), issuing, soliciting, or using a preneed funeral contract form or a form of assignment that does not comply with Colorado law. Such certification, issuance, solicitation, or use shall be subject to the sanctions described in sections 10-3-1107, 10-3-1108, and 10-3-1109.

(cc) Violation of the provisions of section 10-16-122 (4) concerning an unauthorized transfer of a covered person or subscriber's prescription;

(dd) Failing to comply with the provisions of section 10-4-628 (2) (a) (V) or 10-16-201 (5);

(ee) Willfully or repeatedly violating section 10-11-108 (1) (c) or (1) (d), including a willful or repeated violation through the creation or operation of an improper affiliated business arrangement;

(ff) Violation of the "Physician Designation Disclosure Act", article 38 of title 25, C.R.S.;

(gg) Violation of section 10-16-705 (6.5) or (10.5);

(hh) Unfair compensation practices: Basing the compensation of claims employees or contracted claims personnel, including compensation in the form of performance bonuses or incentives, on any of the following:

(I) The number of policies canceled;

(II) The number of times coverage is denied;

(III) The use of a quota limiting or restricting the number or volume of claims; or

(IV) The use of an arbitrary quota or cap limiting or restricting the amount of claims payments without due consideration of the merits of the claim;

(ii) Violation of section 8-43-401.5, C.R.S.;

(jj) Violation of part 6 of article 43 of title 8, C.R.S.;

(kk) Violation of section 10-7-703 of the "Insurable Interest Act", part 7 of article 7 of this title;

(ll) Engaging in stranger originated life insurance;

(mm) Paying a fee or rebate or giving or promising anything of value to a jailer, peace officer, clerk, deputy clerk, an employee of a court, district attorney or district attorney's employees, or a person who has power to arrest or to hold a person in custody as a result of writing a bail bond;

(nn) Unless the indemnitor consents in writing otherwise, failure to post a bail bond within twenty-four hours after receipt of full payment or a signed contract for payment, and if the bail bond is not posted within twenty-four hours after receipt of full payment or a signed contract for payment, failure to refund all moneys received, release all liens, and return all collateral within seven days after receipt of good funds;

(oo) Failure to report, preserve without use, retain separately, or return after payment in full, collateral taken as security on any bail bond to the principal, indemnitor, or depositor of the collateral;

(pp) Soliciting bail bond business in or about any place where prisoners are confined, arraigned, or in custody; or

(qq) Failure to pay a final, nonappealable judgment award for failure to return or repay collateral received to secure a bond.

(2) Nothing in paragraph (f) or (g) of subsection (1) of this section shall be construed as including within the definition of discrimination or rebates any of the following practices:

(a) In the case of any contract of life insurance or life annuity, paying bonuses to policyholders or otherwise abating their premiums in whole or in part out of surplus accumulated from nonparticipating insurance, if any such bonuses or abatement of premiums shall be fair and equitable to policyholders and for the best interests of the company and its policyholders;

(b) In the case of life insurance policies issued on the industrial debit plan, making allowance to policyholders who have continuously for a specified period made premium payments directly to an office of the insurer in an amount which fairly represents the saving in collection expenses;

(c) Readjustment of the rate of premium for a group insurance policy based on the loss or expense thereunder, at the end of the first or any subsequent policy year of insurance thereunder, which may be made retroactive only for such policy year;

(d) Requests by a person that an applicant or insured take an HIV related test when such request has been prompted by either the health history or current condition of the applicant or insured or by threshold coverage amounts which are applied to all persons within the risk class, as long as such test is conducted in accordance with the provisions of section 10-3-1104.5.

(4) The following is defined as an unfair practice in the business of insurance: For an insurer to deny, refuse to issue, refuse to renew, refuse to reissue, cancel, or otherwise terminate a motor vehicle insurance policy, to restrict motor vehicle insurance coverage on any person, or to add any surcharge or rating factor to a premium of a motor vehicle insurance policy solely because of:

(a) A conviction under section 12-47-901 (1) (b), C.R.S., or section 18-13-122 (2), C.R.S., or any counterpart municipal charter or ordinance offense or because of any driver's license revocation resulting from such conviction. This paragraph (a) includes, but is not limited to, a driver's license revocation imposed under section 42-2-125 (1) (m), C.R.S.

(b) The licensee's inability to operate a motor vehicle due to physical incompetence if the licensee obtains an affidavit from a rehabilitation provider or licensed physician acceptable to the department of revenue.

(5) It shall not be an unfair practice in the business of insurance for an insurer to pay an assignee if the insurer believes in good faith that the claim is subject to a written assignment from the insured. The insurer shall remain responsible to the insured for such amounts pursuant to the applicable policy terms in the event the person paid did not hold a written assignment and did not provide services or goods to the insured at the insured's request.

Law reviews. For article, "The Professional Liability Insurer's Duty to Defend — Part I", see 15 Colo. Law. 799 (1986). For comment, "Comprehensive General Liability Insurance Coverage for CERCLA Liabilities: A Recommendation for Judicial Adherence to State Canons of Insurance Contract Construction", see 61 U. Colo. An insurer has a contractual duty to investigate third-party claims in the ordinary course of business to determine whether the third-party's claims are within an insured's coverage and to resolve them. Lazar v. Riggs, 79 P.3d 105 (Colo. 2003).

A third-party administrator owes a duty of good faith to an insured when a special relationship exists between the third-party administrator and the insured. A special relationship is created when the administrator has primary control over benefit determinations; assumes some of the insurance risk of loss; undertakes many of the obligations and risks of an insurer; and has the power, motive, and opportunity to act unscrupulously in the investigation and servicing of the insurance claims. To establish a breach of this duty of good faith, the plaintiff must establish that the third-party administrator's conduct was unreasonable and that the administrator knew its conduct was unreasonable or acted in a reckless disregard of whether its conduct was unreasonable. Cary v. United of Omaha Life Ins. Co., 68 P.3d 462 (Colo. 2003).

Subsection (1)(h) may not serve as the sole basis for a civil action instituted by private citizens allegedly aggrieved by the conduct of their insurers. Farmers Group, Inc. v. Trimble, 658 P.2d 1370 (Colo. App. 1982), aff'd, 691 P.2d 1138 (Colo. 1984); Appel v. Sentry Life Ins. Co., 701 P.2d 634 (Colo. App. 1985), aff'd, 739 P.2d 1380 (Colo. 1987); Simmons v. Prudential Ins. Co., 641 F. Supp. 675 (D. Colo. 1986).

The plain meaning of subsection (1)(h)(I) is that insurers are prohibited from making misrepresentations about facts or coverage. There is no indication in the language of subsection (1)(h)(I) that the general assembly intended to impose upon insurers the affirmative duty of informing their insureds when the statute of limitations on a claim will run. Olson v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 174 P.3d 849 (Colo. App. 2007).

Subsection (1)(h)(VI) cannot be used as a basis for private cause of action. Sections 10-3-1101 through 10-3-1112 provide for state regulation of insurance companies and do not create a private cause of action. Schnacker v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 843 P.2d. 102 (Colo. App. 1992).

Award of attorney fees not authorized by language of subsection (1)(h)(VII). Cont'l W. Ins. Co. v. Heritage Estates Mut. Hous. Ass'n, 77 P.3d 911 (Colo. App. 2003).

Duties of agent selling replacement insurance. An agent selling life insurance must determine whether new insurance will replace existing insurance and, if so, the agent must furnish the applicant with a "disclosure statement" detailing the costs, advantages, and disadvantages of the proposed replacement insurance, and a notice warning applicants about problems that may arise from replacement. Augustin v. Barnes, 41 Colo. App. 533, 592 P.2d 9 (1978), aff'd in part and rev'd in part, 626 P.2d 625 (Colo. 1981).

Insurance agents have standing to assert alleged violation of insured's constitutional rights when compliance with a regulation would result directly in the violation of the insured's right to privacy in those cases where the insured has requested confidentiality. Augustin v. Barnes, 626 P.2d 625 (Colo. 1981).

Preemption of insurance provisions under the federal "Employee Retirement Income Security Act". ERISA does not preempt persons from state laws which regulate insurance, banking, and securities. The test for whether a state law falls under the "business of insurance" is: (1) Whether the state law has the effect of transferring or spreading a policy holder's risk; (2) whether the state law is an integral part of the policy relationship between the insurer and the insured; and (3) whether the state law is limited to entities within the insurance industry. Denette v. Life of Indiana Ins. Co., 693 F. Supp. 959 (D. Colo. 1988).

Subsection (1)(h) relating to unfair claim settlement practices meets only the third requirement of the test and therefore does not regulate insurance. Denette v. Life of Indiana Ins. Co., 693 F. Supp. 959 (D. Colo. 1988).

10-3-1104.5. HIV testing - legislative declaration - definitions - requirements for testing - limitations on disclosure of test results. (1) The general assembly declares that a balance must be maintained between the need for information by those conducting the business of insurance and the public's need for fairness in practices for testing for the human immunodeficiency virus, including the need to minimize intrusion into an individual's privacy and the need to limit disclosure of the results of such testing.

(2) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

This section does not "regulate" insurance because it fails to satisfy the first two criteria of the test. Kelley v. Sears, Roebuck & Co., 882 F.2d 453 (10th Cir. 1989).

"Misrepresentation" as used in this section was demonstrated by company's failure to warn its insureds of impending withdrawal from market at time of change of policy form, failure to implement promised gradual plan of withdrawal, ambiguous price term in offer of "tail coverage", false assurances of stability, and failure to make offered "tail coverage" available to those who desired it. Hartford Fire Ins. Co. v. Colo. Div. of Ins., 824 P.2d 76 (Colo. App. 1991).

Misstatements by agent of insurance company as to the policy's eligibility terms and the scope and types of coverage involved constitute actionable misrepresentation under subsection (1)(a)(I). Life Investors Ins. Co. of Am. v. Smith, 833 P.2d 864 (Colo. App. 1992).

Selling agent who misstates terms of insurance policy makes a misrepresentation of the terms, benefits, and conditions of such policy. Life Investors Ins. Co. of Am. v. Smith, 833 P.2d 864 (Colo. App. 1992).

Suggestion by insurance company's attorney that insured submit to a polygraph examination and settlement proposal by insurance company's attorney that would require insured to drop other claims violated section. People v. McClung, 953 P.2d 1282 (Colo. 1998).

A violation of this section does not constitute a per se violation of the Colorado Consumer Protection Act, part 1 of article 1 of title 6. This section does not create a private right of action against an insurer for a deceptive trade practice. Coors v. Sec. Life of Denver Ins. Co., 91 P.3d 393 (Colo. App. 2003), aff'd by operation of law, 112 P.3d 59 (Colo. 2005).

An insurer engages in an unfair method of competition and an unfair or deceptive trade practice when: It adopts a false or misleading scheme to induce an insured to accept a unilateral change to the insured's express insurance policy; denies the insured a refund for the insured's charges; and charging the insured a termination fee. Such unfair method of competition or unfair or deceptive trade practice is actionable by the insurance commissioner. Coors v. Sec. Life of Denver Ins. Co., 91 P.3d 393 (Colo. App. 2003), aff'd by operation of law, 112 P.3d 59 (Colo. 2005).

(c) "HIV" means human immunodeficiency virus.

(d) "HIV infection" means infection with the human immunodeficiency virus or any other related virus identified as a probable causative agent of AIDS.

(e) "HIV related test" means any laboratory test or series of tests for any virus, antibody, antigen, or etiologic agent whatsoever thought to cause or to indicate the presence of AIDS.

(f) "Person" means any individual, corporation, association, partnership, fraternal benefit society, or any other entity engaged in the insurance business, except insurance agents and brokers. Such term shall also include medical service plans and hospital service plans regulated under parts 1 and 3 of article 16 of this title and health maintenance organizations regulated under parts 1 and 4 of article 16 of this title. Such plans and health maintenance organizations shall be deemed to be engaged in the business of insurance for purposes of this section.

(3) No person shall request or require that an applicant submit to an HIV related test unless that person:

(a) Obtains the applicant's prior written informed consent; and

(b) Reveals, in the written consent form, and explains the use of the HIV related test result to the applicant and entities to whom test results may be disclosed pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (4) of this section; and

(c) Provides the applicant with:

(I) Printed material prior to testing which contains factual information describing AIDS; its causes, symptoms, and transmission; and the tests used to detect HIV infection and what a person should do if the result of the HIV related test is positive; or

(II) Information on how to obtain relevant counseling from a qualified practitioner having extensive training and experience in addressing the fears, questions, and concerns of persons tested for HIV infection; and

(d) Administers the HIV related test based upon the following test protocol, as a minimum:

(I) Two positive ELISA tests and a western blot test with bands present at p24, p31, and either gp41 or gp160; or

(II) An equally reliable screening or confirmatory test protocol designated by the commissioner, with the approval of the department of public health and environment; and

(4) (a) On the basis of the applicant's written informed consent as specified in subsection (3) of this section, a person may disclose an individual applicant's HIV related test results to its reinsurers or to those contractually retained medical personnel, laboratories, and insurance affiliates, excluding agents and brokers, which are involved in underwriting decisions regarding the individual's application if disclosure is necessary to make underwriting decisions regarding such application.

(b) Other than the disclosures permitted by paragraph (a) of this subsection (4), no person shall disclose HIV related test results which identify the individual applicant with the test results obtained to anyone without first obtaining separate written informed consent for such disclosure from the applicant; except that, if the result of the HIV related test of an applicant is positive or indeterminate, such person may report the test finding to the medical information bureau but only if a nonspecific blood test result code is used which does not indicate that the applicant was tested for HIV infection.

(c) Nothing in this subsection (4) shall be construed to prohibit reporting as required by the provisions of sections 25-4-1402, 25-4-1403, and 25-4-1405 (8), C.R.S.

(5) A person shall notify the applicant in writing of an adverse underwriting decision based upon the results of such applicant's blood test but shall not disclose the specific results of such blood test to such applicant. The person shall also inform the applicant that the results of the blood test will be sent to the physician designated by the applicant at the time of application and that such physician should be contacted for information regarding the HIV related test. If a physician was not designated at the time of application, the person shall request that the applicant name a physician to whom a copy of the blood test can be sent.

(6) Notwithstanding any other provisions to the contrary, any person who fails to comply with all the provisions of this section regarding the disclosure of HIV related test results is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars nor more than five thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than six months nor more than twenty-four months, or both such fine and imprisonment.

10-3-1104.6. Genetic information - limitations on disclosure of information - liability - definitions - legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds and determines that recent advances in genetic science have led to improvements in the diagnosis, treatment, and understanding of a significant number of human diseases. The general assembly further declares that:

(a) Genetic information is the unique property of the individual to whom the information pertains;

(b) Any information concerning an individual obtained through the use of genetic services may be subject to abuses if disclosed to unauthorized third parties without the willing consent of the individual to whom the information pertains;

(c) To protect individual privacy and to preserve individual autonomy with regard to the individual's genetic information, it is appropriate to limit the use and availability of genetic information;

(d) The intent of this section is to prevent genetic information from being used to deny access to health care insurance or medicare supplement insurance coverage.

(2) For the purposes of this section:

(a) "Entity" means any sickness and accident insurance company, health maintenance organization, nonprofit hospital, medical-surgical and health service corporation, or other entity that provides health care insurance or medicare supplement insurance coverage and is subject to the jurisdiction of the commissioner of insurance.

(b) "Family member" means an individual who is related to another individual by blood, adoption, or marriage within the first, second, third, or fourth degree.

(c) (I) "Genetic information" means information about an individual's genetic test, the genetic tests of family members of the individual, and the manifestation of a disease or disorder in family members of the individual. "Genetic information" includes any request for, or receipt of, genetic services with respect to an individual, or participation by an individual or the family member of an individual in clinical research that includes genetic services.

(II) With regard to an individual who is pregnant, "genetic information" includes genetic information of the fetus carried by the pregnant individual. With regard to an individual or family member using reproductive technology, "genetic information" includes genetic information of any embryo legally held by an individual or family member.

(III) "Genetic information" does not include information about the sex or age of an individual.

(d) "Genetic services" means a genetic test, genetic counseling, which includes obtaining, interpreting, or assessing genetic information, or genetic education.

(e) (I) "Genetic test" means any analysis of human DNA, RNA, chromosomes, proteins, or metabolites that detects genotypes, mutations, or chromosomal changes.

(II) "Genetic test" does not include:

(A) An analysis of proteins or metabolites that is directly related to a manifested disease, disorder, or pathological condition that could reasonably be detected by a health care professional with appropriate training and expertise in the field of medicine involved; or

(B) An analysis of proteins or metabolites that does not detect genotypes, mutations, or chromosomal changes.

(f) "Underwriting purposes" means any of the following:

(I) Rules for, or determination of, eligibility for enrollment or continued eligibility in a policy or for benefits under the policy;

(II) The computation of premium or contribution amounts under the policy;

(III) The application of any preexisting condition exclusion under the policy; and

(IV) Other activities related to the creation, renewal, or replacement of a contract of health insurance or health benefits.

(3) (a) Genetic information shall be confidential and privileged. Any release, for purposes other than diagnosis, treatment, or therapy, of genetic information that identifies the person tested with the test results released requires specific written consent by the person about whom the genetic information pertains or the parent or guardian of that person.

(b) (I) Any entity that receives genetic information may not seek, use, or keep the information for any nontherapeutic purpose or for any underwriting purpose connected with the provision of health care insurance or medicare supplement insurance coverage.

(II) If an entity obtains genetic information incidental to a request or requirement for, or purchase of, other information concerning an individual, the request or requirement for, or purchase of, such information shall not be considered a violation of this paragraph (b) if it is not in violation of paragraph (a) of this subsection (3).

(c) (I) An entity shall not request or require an individual or family member of the individual to undergo a genetic test unless otherwise authorized by applicable state or federal law.

(II) Nothing in this paragraph (c) shall be construed to preclude an entity from obtaining and using the results of a genetic test in making a determination regarding payment, as defined in 45 CFR 164.501, as may be amended, and consistent with paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection (3).

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (3) of this section, in the course of a criminal investigation or a criminal prosecution, and to the extent allowed under the federal or state constitution, any peace officer, district attorney, or assistant attorney general, or a designee thereof, may obtain genetic information regarding the identity of any individual who is the subject of the criminal investigation or prosecution for use exclusively in any criminal investigation or prosecution without the consent of the individual being tested.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (3) of this section, any research facility may use genetic information for scientific research purposes if the identity of any individual to whom the information pertains is not disclosed to any third party; except that the individual's identity may be disclosed to the individual's physician if the individual consents to the disclosure in writing.

(6) This section does not limit the authority of a court or any party to a parentage proceeding to use genetic information for purposes of determining parentage pursuant to section 13-25-126, C.R.S.

(7) This section does not limit the authority of a court or any party to a proceeding that is subject to the limitations of part 5 of article 64 of title 13, C.R.S., to use genetic information for purposes of determining the cause of damage or injury.

(8) This section does not limit the authority of the state board of parole to require any offender who is involved in a sexual assault to submit to blood tests and to retain the results of such tests on file as authorized under section 17-2-201 (5) (g), C.R.S.

(9) This section does not limit the authority granted the state department of public health and environment, the state board of health, or county, district, or municipal public health agencies pursuant to section 25-1-122, C.R.S.

(10) Any violation of this section is an unfair practice as defined in section 10-3-1104 (1), and is subject to the provisions of sections 10-3-1106 to 10-3-1113.

(11) Any individual who is injured by an entity's violation of this section may recover in a court of competent jurisdiction the following remedies:

(a) Equitable relief, which may include a retroactive order, directing the entity to provide health insurance or medicare supplement insurance coverage, whichever is approprate, to the injured individual under the same terms and conditions as would have applied had the violation not occurred; and

(b) The greater of:

(I) An amount equal to any actual damages suffered by the individual as a result of the violation; or

(12) The prevailing party in an action under this section may recover costs and reasonable attorney fees.

10-3-1104.7. Genetic testing - legislative declaration - definitions - limitations on disclosure of information - liability. (1) The general assembly hereby finds and determines that recent advances in genetic science have led to improvements in the diagnosis, treatment, and understanding of a significant number of human diseases. The general assembly further declares that:

(a) Genetic information is the unique property of the individual to whom the information pertains;

(b) Any information concerning an individual obtained through the use of genetic techniques may be subject to abuses if disclosed to unauthorized third parties without the willing consent of the individual to whom the information pertains;

(c) To protect individual privacy and to preserve individual autonomy with regard to the individual's genetic information, it is appropriate to limit the use and availability of genetic information;

(d) The intent of this section is to prevent information derived from genetic testing from being used to deny access to group disability insurance or long-term care insurance coverage.

(2) For the purposes of this section:

(a) "Entity" means any entity that provides group disability insurance or long-term care insurance coverage and is subject to the jurisdiction of the commissioner of insurance.

(b) "Genetic testing" means any laboratory test of human DNA, RNA, or chromosomes that is used to identify the presence or absence of alterations in genetic material which are associated with disease or illness. "Genetic testing" includes only such tests as are direct measures of such alterations rather than indirect manifestations thereof.

(3) (a) Information derived from genetic testing shall be confidential and privileged. Any release, for purposes other than diagnosis, treatment, or therapy, of genetic testing information that identifies the person tested with the test results released requires specific written consent by the person tested.

(b) Any entity that receives information derived from genetic testing may not seek, use, or keep the information for any nontherapeutic purpose or for any underwriting purpose connected with the provision of group disability insurance or long-term care insurance coverage.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (3) of this section, in the course of a criminal investigation or a criminal prosecution, and to the extent allowed under the federal or state constitution, any peace officer, district attorney, or assistant attorney general, or a designee thereof, may obtain information derived from genetic testing regarding the identity of any individual who is the subject of the criminal investigation or prosecution for use exclusively in the criminal investigation or prosecution without the consent of the individual being tested.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (3) of this section, any research facility may use the information derived from genetic testing for scientific research purposes so long as the identity of any individual to whom the information pertains is not disclosed to any third party; except that the individual's identity may be disclosed to the individual's physician if the individual consents to such disclosure in writing.

(6) This section does not limit the authority of a court or any party to a parentage proceeding to use information obtained from genetic testing for purposes of determining parentage pursuant to section 13-25-126, C.R.S.

(7) This section does not limit the authority of a court or any party to a proceeding that is subject to the limitations of part 5 of article 64 of title 13, C.R.S., to use information obtained from genetic testing for purposes of determining the cause of damage or injury.

(8) This section does not limit the authority of the state board of parole to require any offender who is involved in a sexual assault to submit to blood tests and to retain the results of such tests on file as authorized under section 17-2-201 (5) (g), C.R.S.

(9) This section does not limit the authority granted the state department of public health and environment, the state board of health, or local departments of health pursuant to section 25-1-122, C.R.S.

(10) Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the contrary, the only requirements that shall apply to an insurer in connection with life insurance or individual disability insurance are as follows:

(a) Except as otherwise specifically authorized or required by another section of state or federal law, an insurer shall not require the performance of or perform a genetic test without first receiving the specific, written, informed consent of the subject of the test who has the capacity to consent or, if the person subject to the test lacks the capacity to consent, of a person authorized by law to consent on behalf of the subject of the test. Written consent shall be in a form prescribed by the commissioner.

(b) The results of a genetic test performed pursuant to this subsection (10) are privileged and confidential and shall not be released to any person except as specifically authorized under applicable state or federal law.

(11) Any violation of this section is an "unfair practice", as defined in section 10-3-1104 (1), and is subject to the provisions of sections 10-3-1106 to 10-3-1113.

(12) Any individual who is injured by an entity's violation of this section may recover in a court of competent jurisdiction the following remedies:

(a) Equitable relief, which may include a retroactive order, directing the entity to provide group disability insurance or long-term care insurance coverage, whichever is appropriate, to the injured individual under the same terms and conditions as would have applied had the violation not occurred; and

(b) The greater of:

(I) An amount equal to any actual damages suffered by the individual as a result of the violation; or

(II) Ten thousand dollars per violation.

(13) The prevailing party in an action under this section may recover costs and reasonable attorney fees.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For article, "The Genetic Privacy Act: Proposed Model Legislation", see 24 Colo. Law. 2317 (1995).

10-3-1104.8. Domestic abuse discrimination - prohibited. (1) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Domestic abuse" means the occurrence of one or more of the following acts between family members, current or former household members, or persons who are or have been involved in an intimate relationship:

(I) Committing an act of unlawful sexual behavior, as described in part 4 of article 3 of title 18, C.R.S., or otherwise intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causing or attempting to cause another person, including a minor, bodily injury or physical or psychological harm; or

(II) Knowingly engaging in repeated acts under circumstances that place the person toward which such acts are directed in reasonable fear of bodily injury or physical or psychological harm; or

(III) Subjecting another person to false imprisonment; or

(IV) Intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causing or attempting to cause damage to property so as to intimidate or attempt to control the behavior of another person.

(b) "Domestic abuse related medical condition" means a medical condition sustained by a victim of domestic abuse that arises in whole or in part out of an act or pattern of domestic abuse.

(c) "Domestic abuse status" means the fact or perception that a person is or has been a victim of domestic abuse, irrespective of whether the person has sustained a domestic abuse related medical condition.

(d) "Victim of domestic abuse" means a person against whom any of the acts specified in paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) has been directed by any of the persons specified in said paragraph (a).

(2) The following are unfair methods of competition and unfair or deceptive acts or practices in the business of insurance by insurers licensed in this state, their employees, or their producers:

(a) Denying, refusing to issue, refusing to renew, refusing to reissue, canceling, or otherwise terminating an insurance policy or restricting coverage on any person solely because of that person's domestic abuse status; or

(b) Adding any surcharge or rating factor to a premium of an insurance policy solely because of an insured's domestic abuse status; or

(c) Directly or indirectly asking an insured or an insurance applicant about that person's domestic abuse status unless related to the provision of appropriate medical or mental health services to an insured as provided by the insurance contract or health maintenance organization, but said information shall not be released without specific, separate authorization from the insured; or

(d) Disclosing or transferring by insurers licensed in this state, their employees, or their producers any information relating to a person's domestic abuse status or a person's domestic abuse related medical condition as it relates to a person's family, household, social, or employment relationship with a victim of domestic abuse, except:

(I) To the extent required in the ordinary course of business and consistent with paragraph (a), (b), or (c) of this subsection (2);

(II) To the extent required for compliance with domestic abuse reporting laws or with an order of a court of competent jurisdiction; or

(III) At the written request of the commissioner for the purpose of determining the insurer's compliance with this section. This paragraph (d) shall not preclude a victim of domestic abuse from obtaining his or her records, including medical records.

(3) An insurer that takes an action that adversely affects an insured or an applicant who is a victim of domestic abuse, shall demonstrate to the applicant or the insured, upon the written request of the insured or applicant, that such action is not based solely upon the domestic abuse status of the insured or the applicant but that the action is based on underwriting criteria related to the condition, property, or claim history of the insured or the applicant and that the decision to take such action was based on sound underwriting and actuarial principles related to actual or anticipated loss experience.

(4) An insurer that complies with this section and acts in good faith shall not be held civilly liable in any cause of action that may be brought because of compliance with this section.

(5) Nothing in this section shall be construed to alter or modify any policy conditions, exclusions, or limitations that are consistent with paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of subsection (2) of this section and are clearly stated in the contract.

(6) Nothing in this section shall be construed to establish a protected class for victims of domestic abuse.

10-3-1105. Favored agent or insurer - coercion of debtors. (1) No person may:

(a) Require, as a condition precedent to the lending of money, or extension of credit, or to entering into any lease transaction, or any renewal of any of them, that the person to whom such money or credit is extended, or the lessee, or the person whose obligation the creditor is to acquire or finance negotiate any policy or contract of insurance through a particular insurer or group of insurers or agent or broker or group of agents or brokers;

(b) Unreasonably disapprove the insurance policy provided by a borrower or lessee for the protection of the property securing the credit, or lien, or which is the subject of the lease. For the purposes of this paragraph (b), disapproval shall be deemed unreasonable if it is not based solely on reasonable standards uniformly applied, relating to the extent of coverage required and the financial soundness and the services of an insurer. Such standards shall not discriminate against any particular type of insurer, nor shall such standards call for the disapproval of an insurance policy because such policy contains coverage in addition to that required; or

(c) Require directly or indirectly that any borrower, mortgagor, purchaser, insurer, broker, or agent pay a separate charge in connection with the handling of any insurance policy required as security for a loan on real estate, or pay a separate charge to substitute the insurance policy of one insurer for that of another. The provisions of this paragraph (c) shall not apply to the interest which may be charged on premium loans or premium advancements in accordance with the security instrument.

(2) The commissioner may investigate the affairs of any person to whom this section applies to determine whether such person has violated the provisions of this section. If a violation of this section is found, the person in violation shall be subject to the same procedures and penalties as are applicable to other provisions of this part 11.

(3) For the purposes of this section, "person" includes any individual, corporation, association, partnership, or other legal entity.

Co. v. Combined Ins. Co. of Am., 312 F.2d 513 (10th Cir. 1962) (decided under repealed § 72-15-6, CRS 53).

10-3-1108. Orders. (1) If, after a hearing conducted under section 10-3-1107, the commissioner determines that the person charged has engaged in an unfair method of competition or an unfair or deceptive act or practice or has violated any other provision of this title or any rule or lawful order of the commissioner, the commissioner shall reduce the findings to writing and shall issue and cause to be served on such person a copy of such findings and an order requiring such person to cease and desist from engaging in such method of competition, act, practice, or violation, and, except in the case of an act or practice that is not a violation of any specific provision of this title or any specific rule or lawful order of the commissioner, the commissioner may, at his or her discretion, order any one or more of the following:

(a) Payment of a monetary penalty of not more than three thousand dollars for each act or violation but not to exceed an aggregate penalty of thirty thousand dollars, unless such person, being an insurer, knew or reasonably should have known he or she was in violation of this part 11, in which case the penalty shall not be more than thirty thousand dollars for each act or violation, but not to exceed an aggregate penalty of seven hundred fifty thousand dollars annually;

(b) Suspension or revocation of the person's license if he knew or reasonably should have known he was in violation of the provisions of this part 11; or

(c) Payment of a contractual claim to an insured or beneficiary pursuant to an insurance policy if the commissioner finds that the violation of this part 11 caused the failure to pay the claim, which amount shall be determined by the commissioner at the hearing based on the testimony and evidence presented. This paragraph (c) shall not apply during the pendency of any civil action seeking a declaratory judgment concerning such claims.

(2) Any order issued by the commissioner pursuant to paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of this section may be appealed to the district court, whereupon the matter shall be tried de novo by the district court.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 10-3-1108 is similar to repealed § 72-15-7, CRS 53, a relevant case construing that provision has been included in the annotations to this section.

This section does not provide an exclusive remedy for unfair competition. Atlantic & Pac. Ins. Co. v. Combined Ins. Co. of Am., 312 F.2d 513 (10th Cir. 1962).

Federal courts also can supply a remedy. This section does not remove unfair competition

10-3-1109. Penalty for violation of cease-and-desist orders. (1) Any person who violates a cease-and-desist order of the commissioner issued under section 10-3-1108, and while such order is in effect, may, after notice and hearing and upon order of the commissioner, be subject, at the discretion of the commissioner, to any one or more of the following:

(a) A monetary penalty of not more than ten thousand dollars for each and every act or violation of an insurer; or a monetary penalty of not more than five hundred dollars for each and every act or violation of an individual;

Rules. (1) The commissioner may, after notice and hearing, as provided in article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., promulgate reasonable rules and regulations as are necessary or proper to identify specific methods of competition or acts or practices which are prohibited by sections 10-3-1104 and 10-3-1105.

(2) The commissioner may, after notice and hearing, as provided in article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., promulgate rules with respect to the payment of benefits under group and individual contracts of property or casualty coverage, issued by organizations authorized to do business in this state under the provisions of article 4 of this title; except that, to the extent that a provision of this subsection (2) conflicts with section 10-4-642, as enacted by senate bill 04-125, enacted at the second regular session of the sixty-fourth general assembly, the provisions of said section 10-4-642 shall govern. Such rules may establish a penalty payable to the claimant on benefit payments that are delayed more than sixty days after a valid and complete filing of the claim unless there is a reasonable dispute between the parties concerning such claim. Such penalty shall not exceed twenty dollars on claims of less than one hundred dollars or interest at a rate of eight percent annually on claims above one hundred dollars. In addition to such penalties payable to the claimant, the commissioner, after notice and hearing, may assess a civil penalty against any insurer of one hundred dollars per day for each day benefit payments are delayed more than sixty days after a valid and complete filing of the claim unless there is a reasonable dispute between the parties concerning such claim.

10-3-1112. Immunity from prosecution. (1) If any person asks to be excused from attending and testifying or from producing any books, papers, records, correspondence, or other documents at any hearing on the ground that the testimony or evidence required of him may tend to incriminate him or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture and, notwithstanding, is directed to give such testimony or produce such evidence, he must comply with such direction; but he shall not thereafter be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which he may testify or produce evidence pursuant thereto; and no testimony so given or evidence so produced shall be received against him upon any criminal action, investigation, or proceeding. No such individual so testifying may be exempt from prosecution or punishment for perjury in the first degree committed by him while so testifying, and the testimony or evidence so given or produced shall be admissible against him upon any criminal action, investigation, or proceeding concerning such perjury; nor may he be exempt from the refusal, revocation, or suspension of any license, permission, or authority conferred, or to be conferred, pursuant to the insurance law of this state.

(2) Any such individual may execute, acknowledge, and file in the office of the commissioner a statement expressly waiving such immunity or privilege in respect to any transaction, matter, or thing specified in such statement and thereupon the testimony of such person or such evidence in relation to such transaction, matter, or thing may be received or produced before any judge or justice, court, tribunal, grand jury, or otherwise, and if so received or produced such individual shall not be entitled to any immunity or privilege on account of any testimony he may so give or evidence so produced.

10-3-1113. Information to trier of fact in civil actions. (1) In any civil action for damages founded upon contract, or tort, or both against an insurance company, the trier of fact may be instructed that the insurer owes its insured the duty of good faith and fair dealing, which duty is breached if the insurer delays or denies payment without a reasonable basis for its delay or denial.

(2) Under a policy of liability insurance, the determination of whether the insurer's delay or denial was reasonable shall be based on whether the insurer's delay or denial was negligent.

(3) Under a policy of first-party insurance, the determination of whether the insurer's delay or denial was reasonable shall be based on whether the insurer knew that its delay or denial was unreasonable or whether the insurer recklessly disregarded the fact that its delay or denial was unreasonable.

(4) In determining whether an insurer's delay or denial was reasonable, the jury may be instructed that willful conduct of the kind set forth in section 10-3-1104 (1) (h) (I) to (1) (h) (XIV) is prohibited and may be considered if the delay or denial and the claimed injury, damage, or loss was caused by or contributed to by such prohibited conduct.

Preemption of insurance provisions under the federal "Employee Retirement Income Security Act". ERISA does not preempt persons from state laws which regulate insurance, banking, and securities. The test for whether a state law falls under the "business of insurance" is: (1) Whether the state law has the effect of transferring or spreading a policy holder's risk; (2) whether the state law is an integral part of the policy relationship between the insurer and the insured; and (3) whether the state law is limited to entities within the insurance industry. Denette v. Life of Indiana Ins. Co., 693 F. Supp. 959 (D. Colo. 1988).

Subsection (1)(a) and (1)(c) meet only the third requirement of the test and therefore does not regulate insurance. Denette v. Life of Indiana Ins. Co., 693 F. Supp. 959 (D. Colo. 1988).

Arbitration under this section may bar bad faith and punitive damage claim. Plaintiff who raised issue of unreasonable delay in arbitration was barred by collateral estoppel from asserting in court separate claims for bad faith and punitive damages. Leahy v. Guaranty Nat. Ins. Co., 907 P.2d 697 (Colo. App. 1995).

Supreme court overrules Leahy v. Guaranty Nat. Ins. Co., 907 P.2d 697 (Colo. App. 1995), to the extent it can be read as equating willful and wanton conduct under the no fault act and insurance bad faith. Dale v. Guaranty Nat'l Ins. Co., 948 P.2d 545 (Colo. 1997).

A surety is subject to a claim of bad faith by the beneficiary of a contract. Although no contract had been entered into between a school district and the surety for the contractor hired by the district, the trial court did not err in allowing the district's common law claim for bad faith breach of the performance bond contract to be submitted to the jury. *Brighton Sch. 10-3-1115. Improper denial of claims - prohibited - definitions - severability. (1) (a) A person engaged in the business of insurance shall not unreasonably delay or deny payment of a claim for benefits owed to or on behalf of any first-party claimant.

(b) For the purposes of this section and section 10-3-1116:

(I) "First-party claimant" means an individual, corporation, association, partnership, or other legal entity asserting an entitlement to benefits owed directly to or on behalf of an insured under an insurance policy. "First-party claimant" includes a public entity that has paid a claim for benefits due to an insurer's unreasonable delay or denial of the claim.

(II) "First-party claimant" does not include:

(A) A nonparticipating provider performing services; or

(2) Notwithstanding section 10-3-1113 (3), for the purposes of an action brought pursuant to this section and section 10-3-1116, an insurer's delay or denial was unreasonable if the insurer delayed or denied authorizing payment of a covered benefit without a reasonable basis for that action.

(3) If any provision of this section or its application to any person or circumstance is held illegal, invalid, or unenforceable, no other provisions or applications of this section shall be affected that can be given effect without the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this section are severable.

(5) This section and section 10-3-1116 shall not apply to insurance issued in compliance with the "Workers' Compensation Act of Colorado", articles 40 to 47 of title 8, C.R.S.

(6) This section and section 10-3-1116 shall not apply to title insurance issued pursuant to article 11 of this title or to life insurance issued pursuant to article 7 of this title.

10-3-1116. Remedies for unreasonable delay or denial of benefits - required contract provision - frivolous actions - severability. (1) A first-party claimant as defined in section 10-3-1115 whose claim for payment of benefits has been unreasonably delayed or denied may bring an action in a district court to recover reasonable attorney fees and court costs and two times the covered benefit.

(2) An insurance policy, insurance contract, or plan that is issued in this state that offers health or disability benefits shall not contain a provision purporting to reserve discretion to the insurer, plan administrator, or claim administrator to interpret the terms of the policy, contract, or plan or to determine eligibility for benefits.

(3) An insurance policy, insurance contract, or plan that is issued in this state shall provide that a person who claims health, life, or disability benefits, whose claim has been denied in whole or in part, and who has exhausted his or her administrative remedies shall be entitled to have his or her claim reviewed de novo in any court with jurisdiction and to a trial by jury.

(4) The action authorized in this section is in addition to, and does not limit or affect, other actions available by statute or common law, now or in the future. Damages awarded pursuant to this section shall not be recoverable in any other action or claim.

(5) If the court finds that an action brought pursuant to this section was frivolous as provided in article 17 of title 13, C.R.S., the court shall award costs and attorney fees to the defendant in the action.

(6) If any provision of this section or its application to any person or circumstance is held illegal, invalid, or unenforceable, no other provisions or applications of this section shall be affected that can be given effect without the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this section are severable.

SYSTEMS FOR HOLDING AND TRANSFERRING SECURITIES

10-3-1201. Legislative declaration. The purpose of section 10-3-210 (2) and this part 12 is to authorize domestic insurance companies to utilize modern systems for holding and transferring securities without physical delivery of securities certificates, subject to appropriate regulations of the commissioner.

(1) “Clearing corporation” has the meaning ascribed to it in section 4-8-102 (a) (5), C.R.S.; except that, with respect to a security issued by an institution organized or existing under the laws of any foreign country or a security used to meet the deposit requirements pursuant to the laws of a foreign country as a condition of doing business therein, “clearing corporation” includes a corporation which is organized or existing under the laws of any foreign country and which is legally qualified under such laws to effect transactions in securities by computerized book-entry.

(2) “Direct participant” means a bank or trust company or other institution which maintains an account in its name in a clearing corporation and through which an insurance company participates in a clearing corporation.

(3) “Federal reserve book-entry system” means the computerized system sponsored by the United States department of the treasury and certain agencies and instrumentalities of the United States for holding and transferring securities of the United States government and such agencies and instrumentalities, respectively, in federal reserve banks through banks which are members of the federal reserve system or which otherwise have access to such computerized system.

(4) “Member bank” means a national bank, state bank, or trust company which is a member of the federal reserve system and through which an insurance company participates in the federal reserve book-entry system.

10-3-1203. Book-entry system. (1) Notwithstanding any provision of law, a domestic insurance company may deposit or arrange for the deposit of securities held in or purchased for its general account and its separate accounts in a clearing corporation or the federal reserve book-entry system. When securities are deposited with a clearing corporation, certificates representing securities of the same class of the same issuer may be merged and held in bulk in the name of the nominee of such clearing corporation with any other securities deposited with such clearing corporation by any person, regardless of the ownership of such securities, and certificates representing securities of small denominations may be merged into one or more certificates of larger denominations. The records of any member bank through which an insurance company holds securities in the federal reserve book-entry system and the records of any custodian banks through which an insurance company holds securities in a clearing corporation shall, at all times, show that such securities are held for such insurance company and for which accounts thereof. Ownership of, and other interests in, such securities may be transferred by bookkeeping entry on the books of such clearing corporation or in the federal reserve book-entry system without, in either case, physical delivery of certificates representing such securities.

(2) The commissioner is authorized to promulgate rules and regulations governing the deposit by insurance companies of securities with clearing corporations and in the federal reserve book-entry system.

PART 13

MODEL QUALITY REPLACEMENT PARTS ACT

10-3-1301. Short title. This part 13 shall be known and may be cited as the “Model Quality Replacement Parts Act”.

10-3-1302. Legislative declaration. The general assembly declares that the purpose of this article is to recognize the use of replacement automobile crash parts by requiring disclosure when any use is proposed of a nonoriginal equipment replacement crash part, and by requiring that the manufacturer of any such replacement crash part be adequately identified.

10-3-1303. Definitions. As used in this part 13, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) “Insurer” means every person engaged as principal, indemnitor, surety, or contractor in the business of making contracts of insurance, and any person authorized to represent an insurer with respect to a claim.

(2) “Nonoriginal equipment replacement crash part” means a replacement crash part which is not supplied by the manufacturer of the motor vehicle on which the part is used.

(3) “Replacement crash part” means a replacement for any of the nonmechanical sheet metal or plastic parts which generally constitute the exterior of a motor vehicle, including inner and outer panels.

10-3-1304. Identification of parts. Any nonoriginal equipment replacement crash part supplied for use in this state shall have the name or trademark of the manufacturer affixed to or inscribed on it. Such name or trademark shall be placed so as to be visible after installation of the part whenever practicable.

10-3-1305. Disclosure. No insurer shall specify the use of nonoriginal equipment replacement crash parts in the repair of an insured's motor vehicle without disclosing the intended use of such parts to the insured. In all instances where nonoriginal equipment replacement crash parts are intended for use by an insurer, the written estimate shall clearly identify each such part as being a nonoriginal equipment replacement crash part, and a disclosure document containing the following information in ten-point type or larger type shall appear on or be attached to the insured's copy of the estimate: "This estimate has been prepared based on the use of one or more crash parts supplied by a source other than the manufacturer of your motor vehicle. Warranties, if any, applicable to these replacement crash parts are provided by the parts manufacturer or distributor rather than by the manufacturer of your vehicle."

10-3-1306. Unfair and deceptive acts. A violation of or noncompliance with any provision of this part 13 shall be an unfair method of competition and unfair or deceptive act or practice in the business of insurance subject to the provisions of part 11 of this article.

10-3-1307. Liability. Nothing in this part 13 shall affect either rights, defenses, or liabilities of parties otherwise available at law regarding damages or injuries arising from the use of replacement crash parts.

MODEL RISK RETENTION ACT

10-3-1401. Short title. This part 14 shall be known and may be cited as the "Model Risk Retention Act".

10-3-1402. Purpose. The purpose of this part 14 is to authorize the commissioner to regulate the formation or operation, or both, of risk retention groups and purchasing groups in this state formed pursuant to the provisions of the federal "Liability Risk Retention Act of 1986", to the extent permitted by such federal law.

10-3-1403. Authority of commissioner. The commissioner may establish, and from time to time amend, such regulations as are necessary to enable the commissioner to regulate risk retention groups and purchasing groups in this state to the extent permitted by the federal "Liability Risk Retention Act of 1986" and pursuant to the provisions of the laws of the state of Colorado.

10-3.5-101. Short title. This article shall be known and may be cited as the “Certified Capital Company Act”.

Source: L. 2001: Entire article added, p. 1525, § 1, effective June 9.

10-3.5-102. Legislative declaration. (1) The primary purpose of the “Certified Capital Company Act” is to provide assistance in the formation of new businesses and the expansion of existing businesses that create jobs in the state by providing an incentive for insurance companies to invest in certified capital companies.

(2) The general assembly hereby:

(a) Finds that the legislative audit committee of the general assembly has evaluated the implementation of the “Certified Capital Company Act” pursuant to Senate Joint Resolution 03-050, enacted at the first regular session of the sixty-fourth general assembly;

(b) Determines that the allocation of premium tax credits under the “Certified Capital Company Act” that was to be made after January 31, 2004, has been repealed and reallocated pursuant to the provisions of Senate Bill 04-106 and House Bill 04-1206, enacted at the second regular session of the sixty-fourth general assembly, which leaves only those premium tax credits allocated before January 31, 2004, remaining subject to the “Certified Capital Company Act”; and

(c) Declares that:

(I) The “Certified Capital Company Act” should be modified to more efficiently and effectively achieve the purposes for which it was enacted, in particular by amending the method by which the office of economic development calculates certified capital companies’ internal rate of return to address ambiguities and weaknesses in current law; and

(II) Those purposes are best served by prospectively amending the “Certified Capital Company Act” pursuant to Senate Bill 04-247 and House Bill 04-1190, enacted at the second regular session of the sixty-fourth general assembly. No provision of this article shall be construed to retrospectively modify any existing statutory, regulatory, or contractual obligation.

Editor’s note: Amendments to this section by House Bill 04-1190 and Senate Bill 04-247 were harmonized.

10-3.5-103. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) (a) “Affiliate”, with respect to a certified capital company or insurance company, means:

(I) Any person who, directly or indirectly, beneficially owns (whether through rights, options, convertible interests, or otherwise), controls, or holds power to vote fifteen percent or more of the outstanding voting securities or other voting ownership interests of the certified capital company or insurance company, as applicable;

(II) Any person, fifteen percent or more of whose outstanding voting securities or other voting ownership interests are directly or indirectly beneficially owned (whether through rights, options, convertible interests, or otherwise), controlled, or held with power to vote by the certified capital company or insurance company, as applicable;

(III) Any person who, directly or indirectly, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with the certified capital company or insurance company, as applicable;

(IV) A partnership in which the certified capital company or insurance company, as applicable, is a general partner; or

(V) Any person who is an officer, director, employee, or agent of the certified capital company or insurance company, as applicable, or an immediate family member of such officer, director, employee, or agent.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subsection (1), an investment by a certified investor in a certified capital company pursuant to an allocation of premium tax credits in accordance with section 10-3.5-106 shall not cause such certified capital company to become an affiliate of such certified investor.

(2) "Allocation date" means the date on which the office allocates premium tax credits to the certified investors of a certified capital company.

(3) "Certified capital" means an amount of cash that:

(a) Is invested by a certified investor in a certified capital company; and

(b) Fully funds the purchase price of either or both the certified investor's equity interest in the certified capital company or a qualified debt instrument issued by the certified capital company.

(4) "Certified capital company" means a partnership, corporation, trust, or limited liability company, organized on a for-profit basis, that has its principal office located or is headquartered in Colorado, that has as its primary business activity the investment of cash in qualified businesses or qualified rural businesses, and that is certified by the office as meeting the criteria of this article.

(5) "Certified investor" means any insurance company that contributes certified capital pursuant to an allocation of premium tax credits as set forth in section 10-3.5-106.

(6) "Designated rural county" means any county, but not any city and county, in this state that, as of June 9, 2001, has a population of not more than one hundred fifty thousand people and, if the county's population exceeds twenty thousand people, that has a growth rate that does not exceed the statewide average for the period 1990-2000 by more than twenty-five percent as defined in the two most recent decennial censuses.

(7) "Distressed urban community" means any county or portion of a county in this state as defined by the office.

(8) "Office" means the Colorado office of economic development, created in section 24-48.5-101, C.R.S.

(9) "Person" means any natural person or entity, including without limitation a corporation, general or limited partnership, trust, or limited liability company.

(10) "Premium tax credit allocation claim" means a claim for allocation of premium tax credits prepared and executed by a certified investor on a form provided by the office and filed by a certified capital company with the office. The form shall indicate whether the premium tax credit allocation claim is for an allocation of premium tax credits pursuant to section 10-3.5-106 (2) (a) (I) or (2) (a) (II) and shall include an affidavit of the certified investor pursuant to which such certified investor shall become legally bound and irrevocably committed to make an investment of certified capital in a certified capital company in the amount allocated, even if such amount is less than the amount of the claim, subject only to the receipt of an allocation pursuant to section 10-3.5-106.

(11) "Qualified business" means a business that:

(a) Meets all of the following conditions as of the time of a certified capital company's first investment in the business if that investment occurred before May 27, 2004:

(I) It is headquartered in this state, and its principal business operations are located in this state;

(II) It is a small business concern as described in the small business size regulations of the United States small business administration, 13 CFR 121.201; and

(III) It is not a business predominantly engaged in professional services provided by accountants or lawyers.

(b) Subject to paragraph (c) of this subsection (11), meets all of the following conditions as of the time of a certified capital company's first investment in the business if that investment occurs on or after May 27, 2004:

(I) Either of the following:

(A) It is headquartered in this state, its principal business operations are located in this state, and the certified capital company has a reasonable expectation, based upon an affidavit of one of the principal officers of the business or other comparable evidence, that the business intends to preserve its headquarters and principal place of business in Colorado for at least three years after the qualified investment and that it will expend substantially all of the qualified investment within Colorado pursuant to criteria adopted by the office by rule. If a business meets some but not all of the criteria of this sub-subparagraph (A), the business may nevertheless be deemed to be a qualified business if the Colorado economic development commission determines that an investment of certified capital proposed by a certified capital company pursuant to this article will further the economic development of the state.

(B) It has entered into a contract with the certified capital company to comply, within ninety days after finalization of the contract, with sub-subparagraph (A) of this subparagraph (I), and the contract contains enforceable provisions requiring a return of any investment of certified capital if the business fails to so comply.

(II) It is a small business concern as described in the small business size regulations of the United States small business administration, 13 CFR 121.201; and

(III) It is not a business predominantly engaged in:

(A) Professional services provided by accountants, doctors, or lawyers;

(B) Banking or lending;

(C) Real estate development;

(D) Insurance;

(E) Oil and gas exploration;

(F) Direct gambling activities, which shall not include ancillary gambling equipment and other indirect gambling activities, as defined by the office; or

(G) Businesses that make loans to or invest in a certified capital company or an affiliate of a certified capital company or insurance company.

(c) Any business that is classified as a qualified business pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (11) at the time of the first qualified investment in said business shall remain classified as a qualified business, may receive continuing qualified investments, and such continuing investments shall be qualified investments even though such business may not meet the definition of a qualified business at the time of such continuing investments; except that, unless otherwise determined by the economic development commission, such business shall not be eligible to receive further qualified investments if:

(I) It has relocated its headquarters or principal business operations outside of this state; or

(II) It has not expended substantially all of its prior qualified investments within Colorado pursuant to criteria adopted by the office by rule; except that this limitation shall not be deemed to either:

(A) Preclude the purchase of services or goods from outside of Colorado if such services are performed and such goods are used in Colorado; or

(B) Apply retroactively to disqualify a qualified investment previously approved by the office after the qualified investment has been made.

(12) "Qualified debt instrument" means a debt instrument issued by a certified capital company, at par value or a premium, with an original maturity date of at least five years after the date of issuance, a repayment schedule that is no faster than a level principal amortization over five years, and interest, distribution, or payment features that are not related to the profitability of the certified capital company or the performance of the certified capital company's investment portfolio.

(13) "Qualified distribution" means any distribution out of certified capital in connection with any of the following:

(a) Reasonable costs and expenses of forming, syndicating, and organizing the certified capital company, including reasonable and necessary fees paid for professional services, including, but not limited to, legal and accounting services, related to the formation of the certified capital company, and the cost of financing and insuring the obligations of the certified capital company;

(b) Reasonable costs and expenses of managing and operating the certified capital company, including an annual management fee in an amount that does not exceed two and one-half percent of certified capital; except that:

(I) No such cost or expense shall be paid to a certified investor or affiliate of a certified investor;

(II) No such cost or expense shall be paid for federal or state taxes, including penalties and interest related to state and federal income taxes, of the equity owners of a certified capital company resulting from a tax liability of the certified capital company; and

(III) Such costs and expenses in the aggregate shall not exceed five percent of certified capital in any one year;

(c) Reasonable and necessary fees in accordance with industry custom for professional services, including but not limited to legal and accounting services, related to the operation of the certified capital company; except that such professional services shall not be construed to include litigation challenging the validity or effect of this article, lobbying, or governmental relations.

(14) (a) "Qualified investment" means the investment of cash by a certified capital company in a qualified business or qualified rural business for the purchase of any debt, debt participation, equity, or hybrid security, including a debt instrument or security that has the characteristics of debt but provides for conversion into equity or equity participation instruments, including, but not limited to, options or warrants; except that, with respect to all certified capital invested pursuant to an allocation of tax credits pursuant to section 10-3.5-106 (2) (a) (I), the investment shall be made in a qualified rural business.

(b) Unless previously approved by the office based upon unique circumstances, a certified capital company shall not make a loan on or after May 27, 2004, to a qualified business or qualified rural business unless the business has received two written loan rejection letters from two different commercial banks that are federally or state chartered in Colorado and that make small business loans, at least one of which banks is a preferred or certified lender designated by the federal small business administration. Any such loan by a certified capital company shall not be made through or in connection with any guaranteed loan program. Additionally, a certified capital company shall not make a loan on or after May 27, 2004, to a qualified business or qualified rural business unless the state's revolving loan fund that covers the area where the business is located has declined the loan.

(15) "Qualified rural business" means a qualified business that has its principal business operations in a designated rural county.

(15.5) "Seed or early stage", in reference to a qualified business, means that the qualified business, at the time of the initial qualified investment, either:

(a) Had less than five hundred thousand dollars in total revenues for the fiscal year immediately preceding the initial qualified investment;

(b) Has received no more than one investment from a professional venture capital firm with funds raised from institutional investors; or

(c) Does not have positive operational cash flow for the fiscal year immediately preceding the initial qualified investment.

(16) "State premium tax liability" means any liability incurred by an insurance company under the provisions of sections 10-3-209 and 10-6-128, or, in the case of a repeal or reduction by the state of the liability imposed by section 10-3-209 or 10-6-128, any other tax liability imposed upon an insurance company by the state.

10-3.5-104. Certification - fees. (1) The office shall establish by rule the procedures for making an application to become a certified capital company.

(2) An applicant shall:

(a) File an application with the office;

(b) Pay a nonrefundable application fee of seven thousand five hundred dollars at the time of filing the application;

(c) Have an equity capitalization at the time of seeking certification of five hundred thousand dollars or more in the form of unencumbered cash, marketable securities, or other liquid assets. The applicant shall submit as part of its application an audited balance sheet that contains an unqualified opinion of an independent certified public accountant issued not more than thirty-five days before the application date that states whether the applicant satisfies this equity capitalization requirement.

(d) Have at least two principals or at least two persons employed to manage the funds who each have at least two years of money management experience in the venture capital industry; except that an applicant that seeks to be certified with respect to premium tax credits to be allocated pursuant to section 10-3.5-106 (2) (a) (I) need only have at least two principals or at least two persons employed to manage the funds who each have at least two years of experience in either the venture capital or investment banking industry.

(3) The office shall verify whether the applicant meets the requirements of subsection (2) of this section.

(4) Any offering material involving the sale of securities of the certified capital company shall include the following statement:

By authorizing the formation of a certified capital company, the state does not necessarily endorse the quality of management or the potential for earnings of such company and is not liable for damages or losses to a certified investor in the company. Use of the word "certified" in an offering does not constitute a recommendation or endorsement of the investment by the Colorado office of economic development. If any applicable provisions of the "Certified Capital Company Act" are violated, the state may require forfeiture of unused premium tax credits and repayment of used premium tax credits.

(5) The office shall stamp applications for certification with the date and time of receipt. Within thirty days after receipt of an application, the office shall issue the certification or refuse the certification and communicate in detail to the applicant the grounds for the refusal, including suggestions for the removal of such grounds. The office shall review and approve or reject applications in the order submitted, treating all applications received on the same day as being received simultaneously; except that an application that is incomplete or for which additional information is requested by the office shall be treated as having been received on the date originally submitted only if the applicant submits the additional information within fifteen days after the office's request. The deadline for review may be extended by the office an additional ten days. The certification issued by the office shall indicate whether the certification is applicable only to credits to be allocated pursuant to section 10-3.5-106 (2) (a) (I).

(6) (a) No insurance company or affiliate of an insurance company shall, directly or indirectly:

(I) Beneficially own, whether through rights, options, convertible interests, or otherwise, fifteen percent or more of the voting securities or other voting ownership interests of a certified capital company;

(II) Manage a certified capital company; or

(III) Control the direction of investments for a certified capital company.

(b) A certified capital company may obtain a guaranty, indemnity, bond, insurance policy, or other payment undertaking for the benefit of its certified investors from any entity; except that in no case shall more than one certified investor of such certified capital company or affiliate of such certified investor be entitled to provide such guaranty, indemnity, bond, insurance policy, or other payment undertaking in favor of the certified investors of the certified capital company and its affiliates in this state.

(c) This subsection (6) shall not preclude a certified investor, insurance company, or other party from exercising its legal rights and remedies, including, without limitation, interim management of a certified capital company, in the event that a certified capital company is in default of its statutory obligations or its contractual obligations to such certified investor, insurance company, or other party.

10-3.5-105. Premium tax credit. (1) Any certified investor that makes an investment of certified capital pursuant to an allocation of premium tax credits as set forth in section 10-3.5-106 shall, during the year of investment, earn a vested credit against state premium tax liability equal to one hundred percent of the certified investor's investment of certified capital. With respect to investments of certified capital made after January 31, 2002, but before January 31, 2004, a certified investor shall be entitled to take up to ten percent of the vested premium tax credit each year beginning in tax year 2003 and continuing thereafter for ten years or, if the credit is carried forward pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, until the credit is fully utilized.

(2) The credit to be applied against state premium tax liability in any one year shall not exceed the state premium tax liability of the certified investor for such taxable year. All unused credits against state premium tax liability may be carried forward for up to ten years from the date on which the credit may first be utilized.

(3) A certified investor claiming a credit against state premium tax liability earned through an investment in a certified capital company shall not be required to pay any additional or retaliatory tax as a result of claiming such credit.

10-3.5-106. Aggregate limitations on credits. (1) (a) The aggregate amount of certified capital for which premium tax credits are allowed for all certified investors under this article shall not exceed the amount that would entitle all certified investors in certified capital companies to take aggregate credits of ten million dollars per year for ten years beginning in tax year 2003, which certified capital may be invested in certified capital companies no earlier than January 31, 2002. A certified capital company, on an aggregate basis together with its affiliates, shall not file premium tax credit allocation claims in excess of the maximum amount of certified capital for which premium tax credits may be allowed at the time of filing as provided in this subsection (1); except that a certified capital company whose certification is applicable only to credits to be allocated pursuant to subparagraph (I) of paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of this section shall not file premium tax credit allocation claims in excess of the maximum amount of certified capital for which premium tax credits may be allowed pursuant to such subparagraph (I) at the time of filing.

(b) (I) Subject to subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (b) and pursuant to rules promulgated by the office, one or more certified investors may claim up to ten million dollars of state premium tax credits annually for ten years beginning in tax year 2005 for investments occurring on or after April 1, 2004, of certified capital in one or more certified capital companies to be used for qualified investments. With regard to such investments:

(A) Twenty-five percent of certified capital for which premium tax credits are allowed shall be allocated to certified investors in certified capital companies for investments in qualified rural businesses in the order in which premium tax credit allocation claims that request an allocation of premium tax credits under this sub-subparagraph (A) are filed with the office by certified capital companies on behalf of their certified investors; and

(B) After the certified capital has been allocated pursuant to sub-subparagraph (A) of this subparagraph (I), seventy-five percent of certified capital for which premium tax credits are allowed shall be allocated to certified investors in certified capital companies in the order in which premium tax credit allocation claims that request an allocation of premium tax credits under this sub-subparagraph (B) are filed with the office by certified capital companies on behalf of their certified investors.

(II) (A) Notwithstanding any other requirement of this article, of the ten million dollars of tax credits that would otherwise be claimed annually for ten years beginning in tax year 2005 pursuant to this subsection (1), five million dollars shall not be claimed pursuant to this subsection (1) and an equivalent amount of credits may instead be claimed annually pursuant to part 2 of article 46 of title 24, C.R.S.; except that, if H.B. 04-1206 is enacted at the second regular session of the sixty-fourth general assembly, becomes law, and is subsequently declared to be unconstitutional by a final judgment that invalidates the tax credits enacted by such bill, the remaining five million dollars of tax credits that would otherwise be claimed pursuant to this subsection (1) annually for each of the remaining calendar years through 2014 shall not be claimed pursuant to this subsection (1), and a total of ten million dollars of tax credits may instead be claimed annually for each of the remaining calendar years through 2014 pursuant to part 2 of article 46 of title 24, C.R.S.

(B) Notwithstanding any other requirement of this article, of the ten million dollars of tax credits that would otherwise be claimed annually for ten years beginning in tax year 2005 pursuant to this subsection (1), five million dollars shall not be claimed pursuant to this subsection (1) and an equivalent amount of credits may instead be claimed annually pursuant to section 10-8-534; except that, if S.B. 04-106 is enacted at the second regular session of the sixty-fourth general assembly, becomes law, and is subsequently declared to be unconstitutional by a final judgment that invalidates the tax credits enacted by such bill, the remaining five million dollars of tax credits that would otherwise be claimed annually each of the remaining calendar years through 2014 shall not be claimed pursuant to this subsection (1), and a total of ten million dollars of tax credits may instead be claimed annually for each of the remaining calendar years through 2014 pursuant to section 10-8-534.

(2) (a) With regard to investments to be made in certified capital companies no earlier than January 31, 2002, but prior to January 31, 2004:

(I) Twenty-five million dollars of certified capital for which premium tax credits are allowed shall be allocated to certified investors in certified capital companies in the order in which premium tax credit allocation claims that request an allocation of premium tax credits under this subparagraph (I) are filed with the office by certified capital companies on behalf of their certified investors; and

(II) After all twenty-five million dollars have been allocated pursuant to subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (a), seventy-five million dollars of certified capital for which premium tax credits are allowed shall be allocated to certified investors in certified capital companies in the order in which premium tax credit allocation claims that request an allocation of premium tax credits under this subparagraph (II) are filed with the office by certified capital companies on behalf of their certified investors.

(b) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2004, pp. 26, 46, §§ 5, 5, effective March 4, 2004.)

(3) If two or more certified capital companies file premium tax credit allocation claims seeking an allocation of premium tax credits pursuant to the same subparagraph of paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of this section with the office on behalf of their respective certified investors on the same day and the sum of such premium tax credit allocation claims exceeds, in the aggregate, the maximum aggregate amount available under such particular subparagraph at the time of filing, the capital for which premium tax credits are allowed under such particular subparagraph shall be allocated among the certified investors on a pro rata basis. The pro rata allocation for any one certified investor shall bear the same relation to the maximum aggregate amount available under such particular subparagraph at the time of filing, as that certified investor's premium tax credit allocation claim under such particular subparagraph bears to the total of all premium tax credit allocation claims seeking an allocation of premium tax credits pursuant to the same subparagraph of paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of this section filed on behalf of all certified investors on the same day.

(4) Within five business days after the office receives a premium tax credit allocation claim filed by a certified capital company on behalf of one or more of its certified investors, the office shall notify the certified capital company of the amount of tax credits allocated to each of the certified investors in such certified capital company.

(5) If a certified capital company does not receive an investment of certified capital equaling the amount of premium tax credits allocated to a certified investor for which it filed a premium tax credit allocation claim within five business days after its receipt of notice of allocation, that portion of the premium tax credits allocated to such certified investor in the certified capital company shall be forfeited and the office shall reallocate the certified capital among the other certified investors in all certified capital companies that filed premium tax credit allocation claims under the same subparagraph under which the forfeited credits were allocated on a pro rata basis in accordance with subsection (3) of this section. The office is authorized to levy a fine of not more than fifty thousand dollars on any certified investor that does not invest the full amount of certified capital allocated by the office to such investor in accordance with the premium tax credit allocation claim filed on its behalf.

(6) The maximum amount of premium tax credit allocation claims that any one certified investor and its affiliates may file in one or more certified capital companies shall not exceed fifteen percent of the maximum aggregate amount available under subsection (1) of this section at the time of such filing; except that a certified investor that files a premium tax credit allocation claim for an investment in a certified capital company whose certification is applicable only to credits to be allocated pursuant to subparagraph (I) of paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of this section shall not file, on an aggregate basis with its affiliates, premium tax credit allocation claims in excess of the maximum amount of certified capital for which premium tax credits may be allowed pursuant to such subparagraph (I) at the time of filing.

(7) Unless its certification indicates otherwise, a certified capital company may file premium tax credit allocation claims on behalf of its certified investors pursuant to either or both of the subparagraphs of paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of this section. If the certified investors of a certified capital company are allocated premium tax credits pursuant to both subparagraphs of paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of this section, the requirements of this act shall apply to the certified capital invested pursuant to each such allocation on a separate and independent basis.

10-3.5-107. Requirements for continuance of certification - fees. (1) To continue to be eligible for certification, a certified capital company shall make qualified investments according to the following schedule:

(a) Within the period ending three years after an allocation date, a certified capital company shall have made qualified investments cumulatively equal to at least thirty percent of the certified capital allocated to its certified investors on such allocation date.

(b) Within the period ending five years after an allocation date, a certified capital company shall have made qualified investments cumulatively equal to at least fifty percent of the certified capital allocated to its certified investors on such allocation date.

(2) The aggregate cumulative amount of all qualified investments made by the certified capital company from an allocation date shall be considered in the calculation of the percentage requirements under this article. For purposes of satisfying the percentage requirements of subsection (1) of this section only, a certified capital company that has raised certified capital pursuant to an allocation under section 10-3.5-106 (2) (a) (II) shall be deemed to have invested two dollars for every dollar actually invested in a qualified rural business or qualified business that has its principal business operations located in a distressed urban community from certified capital raised under such section. Any proceeds received from a qualified investment may be invested in another qualified investment and shall count toward any requirement in this article with respect to investments of certified capital.

(3) Any business that is classified as a qualified business or qualified rural business at the time of the first investment in said business by a certified capital company shall remain classified as a qualified business or qualified rural business, as applicable, may receive continuing investments from any certified capital company or any of its affiliates, and such continuing investments shall be qualified investments even though such business may not meet the definition of a qualified business or qualified rural business, as applicable, at the time of such continuing investments; except that:

(a) A business that is a qualified business or qualified rural business at the time of the first investment by a certified capital company in such business when such investment occurs on or after May 27, 2004, but that subsequently violates the requirements of section 10-3.5-103 (11) (b) (I) or (11) (c) within the first six months after such qualified investment shall not be deemed to be a qualified business or qualified rural business, as applicable, for purposes of subsection (1) of this section and section 10-3.5-109 (2) (a) only, and may not receive continuing investments from any certified capital company or any of its affiliates.

(b) An investment in a business that relocates either its headquarters or its principal business operations outside of Colorado after six months but less than three years after the initial qualified investment shall:

(I) Not be deemed to satisfy a requirement of section 10-3.5-109 (2) (a) if such requirement has not already been complied with and if the relocation occurred during the certified capital company's investment in the business; and

(II) Be deemed to continue to satisfy a requirement of section 10-3.5-109 (2) (a) that has already been complied with and paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1) of this section.

(4) A certified capital company shall not:

(a) Invest more than fifteen percent of its total certified capital in any one qualified business or qualified rural business; or

(b) Own, through an initial qualified investment occurring on or after May 27, 2004, in aggregate total with a business that was organized by, is a franchisee of, or is an affiliate of, the certified capital company, more than forty-nine percent of any one qualified business or qualified rural business without the specific approval of the office; except that nothing in this paragraph (b) shall preclude a certified capital company from exercising any:

(I) Right or remedy upon a default by the qualified business pursuant to an investment contract; or

(II) Anti-dilution or preemptive rights it may have been granted in connection with an initial qualified investment that can be exercised upon an investment in the business by a party other than the certified capital company or an affiliate of the certified capital company.

(5) At its option, a certified capital company, before making a proposed investment in a specific business, may request from the office a written opinion that the business in which it proposes to invest should be considered a qualified business or qualified rural business, as applicable. Upon receiving such a request, the office shall have ten working days to determine whether the business meets the definition of a qualified business or qualified rural business, as applicable, and notify the certified capital company of its determination with an explanation of the determination. If the office fails to notify the certified capital company with respect to the proposed investment within such ten-working-day period, the business in which the certified capital company proposes to invest shall be deemed to be a qualified business or qualified rural business, as applicable. If the office determines that the business in which the certified capital company proposes to invest before May 27, 2004, does not meet all of the criteria set forth in section 10-3.5-103 (11) (a) or (15), as applicable, the office may nevertheless consider the business a qualified business or qualified rural business, as applicable, and approve the investment if the Colorado economic development commission determines that the proposed investment will further the economic development of the state.

(6) All certified capital not currently invested in qualified investments by the certified capital company shall be invested in:

- (a) Cash that is deposited in a federally insured financial institution;
- (b) Certificates of deposit in a federally insured financial institution;
- (c) Investment securities that are obligations of the United States, its agencies, or instrumentalities or obligations that are guaranteed fully as to principal and interest by the United States;

(d) Debt instruments rated at least "AA" or its equivalent by a nationally recognized credit rating organization, or issued by, or guaranteed with respect to payment by, an entity whose unsecured indebtedness is rated at least "AA" or its equivalent by a nationally recognized credit rating organization, and that is not subordinated to other unsecured indebtedness of the issuer or the guarantor, as the case may be;

(e) Obligations of this state, any municipality in this state, or any political subdivision thereof;

(f) Interests in money market funds, the portfolios of which are limited to cash and obligations described in this subsection (6); or

(g) Any other investments approved in advance and in writing by the office.

(7) (a) As soon as practicable after the receipt of certified capital, each certified capital company shall provide the office with a copy of all documents relating to each certified investor's investment of certified capital and shall report the following to the office:

(I) The name of each certified investor from which the certified capital was received, including such certified investor's insurance premium tax identification number;

(II) The amount of each certified investor's investment of certified capital and premium tax credits; and

(III) The date on which the certified capital was received.

(b) On or before January 31 of each year, each certified capital company shall report the following to the office:

(I) The amount of the certified capital company's certified capital at the end of the immediately preceding year;

(II) Whether or not the certified capital company has invested more than fifteen percent of its total certified capital in any one business;

(III) All qualified investments that the certified capital company made during the previous calendar year; and

(IV) The location and number of new jobs that have been created due to the certified capital company's qualified investments during the previous twelve months and since the certified capital company's initial qualified investment.

(c) Annually, and within ninety days after the close of its fiscal year, each certified capital company shall provide to the office an audited financial statement that includes the opinion of an independent certified public accountant. The audit shall address the methods of operation and conduct of the business of the certified capital company to determine if the certified capital company is complying with this article and the rules set forth by the office and that the moneys received by the certified capital company have been invested as required within the time limits provided by subsection (1) of this section.

(d) On or before January 31 of each year, each certified capital company shall pay to the office a nonrefundable certification fee of five thousand dollars; except that no such fee shall be required within six months of the initial allocation date of a certified capital company.

(e) During each calendar year from 2003 to 2010, the office shall hold a meeting in each of five counties that have populations of no more than one hundred fifty thousand persons at which a representative from each certified capital company shall be present to review business plans from qualified businesses headquartered in those counties.

10-3.5-108. Distributions - remittance of portion of proceeds. (1) Subject to section 10-3.5-109 (2) (a), a certified capital company may make qualified distributions at any time.

(2) (a) Subject to section 10-3.5-109 (2) (a) and paragraph (b) of this subsection (2), in order to make a distribution occurring on or after May 27, 2004, out of proceeds or gains from qualified investments, proceeds or gains from any other use of certified capital, equity capitalization contributions paid into the certified capital company on or after May 27, 2004, or certified capital allocated to its certified investors on a particular allocation date other than a qualified distribution or a distribution pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (2), a certified capital company shall:

(I) Have made qualified investments in an amount cumulatively equal to:

(B) At least one-third of the certified capital allocated to its certified investors under section 10-3.5-106 (2) (a) (II) in qualified businesses that are in the seed or early stage. Seed or early stage investments of certified capital allocated under section 10-3.5-106 (2) (a) (II) and section 10-3.5-106 (2) (a) (I) shall both count toward meeting the requirement of this sub-paragraph (B).

(II) Have proposed a distribution amount and calculated the amount of the transfers identified in subsection (3) of this section pursuant to rules promulgated by the office; and

(III) Make the transfers to the entities designated in paragraphs (c) and (d) of subsection (3) of this section.

(b) A certified capital company may make repayments of principal and interest on its indebtedness without any restriction whatsoever, including repayments of indebtedness of the certified capital company on which certified investors earned premium tax credits. A certified capital company may make a distribution:

(I) Without any restriction whatsoever to pay any projected increase in federal or state taxes, including penalties and interest related to federal and state income taxes, of the equity owners of a certified capital company resulting from operations or ownership of the certified capital company; or

(II) To return any equity capitalization paid into the certified capital company before May 27, 2004, from any equity capitalization contributions paid into the certified capital company before May 27, 2004, proceeds or gains from qualified investments, or proceeds or gains from any other use of certified capital.

(3) (a) (I) Subject to subparagraphs (II) and (III) of this paragraph (a), distributions out of proceeds or gains from qualified investments, proceeds or gains from any other use of certified capital, proceeds or gains from equity capitalization contributions, equity capitalization contributions, and certified capital allocated to certified investors on a particular allocation date shall be specifically examined as part of the annual review conducted pursuant to section 10-3.5-109. On the basis of such review, the office shall determine pursuant to rules whether the aggregate total of such distributions, when combined with all tax credits allocated on such allocation date and utilized pursuant to this article, have resulted in an annual internal rate of return exceeding ten percent on the certified capital allocated to the certified investors of the certified capital company on such allocation date plus any additional equity capital contributions to the certified capital company. Equity capital contributions shall not be deemed to include proceeds or gains from:

- (A) Qualified investments;
- (B) Any other use of certified capital; or
- (C) Equity capital contributions.

(II) Qualified distributions shall not be subject to the review conducted pursuant to subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (a).

(III) The following types of distribution shall specifically be subject to the review conducted pursuant to subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (a):

(A) A distribution to pay any projected increase in federal or state taxes of the equity owners of a certified capital company resulting from operations or ownership of the certified capital company;

(B) Repayments of principal and interest on a certified capital company's indebtedness, including repayments of indebtedness of the certified capital company on which certified investors earned premium tax credits;

(C) A distribution to return any equity capitalization paid into the certified capital company before May 28, 2004;

(D) A distribution to return any equity capitalization paid into the certified capital company on or after May 28, 2004; and

(E) Any other distribution other than a qualified distribution.

(b) (I) If the annual internal rate of return determined in accordance with paragraph (a) of this subsection (3) exceeds ten percent, then the certified capital company shall annually:

(A) Report to the division of housing in the department of local affairs the amount of money equal to twenty percent of any further distributions, from an item subject to subparagraph (I) or (III) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (3), above the amount required to produce such ten percent return; except that distributions for items described specifically in sub-subparagraph (A), (B), or (C) of subparagraph (III) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (3) shall either be reported to the division of housing or accrued for reporting at a later date as determined by the economic development commission; and except that in no event shall this sub-subparagraph (A) restrict a certified capital company's ability to make repayments of indebtedness, including making repayments of indebtedness of the certified capital company on which certified investors earned premium tax credits; and

(II) If the annual internal rate of return determined in accordance with paragraph (a) of this subsection (3) does not exceed ten percent, then the certified capital company shall annually:

(A) Report to the division of housing in the department of local affairs the amount of money equal to fifteen percent of the proposed distribution amount other than qualified distributions and distributions described in sub-subparagraphs (A), (B), and (C) of subparagraph (III) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (3);

(B) Make the transfers required pursuant to paragraphs (c) and (d) of this subsection (3); and

(C) Continue the fifteen percent distribution until the certified capital company's internal rate of return exceeds ten percent. At that time, all future transfer amounts shall be calculated using the method described in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (b). Amounts previously transferred by the certified capital company shall be taken into consideration when determining the net amount of future transfers.

(III) The office shall promulgate rules to establish the procedures by which the internal rate of return is calculated and to govern other items such as the timing of distributions and the amount and timing of future capital contributions to the certified capital company to ensure that the calculation of the internal rate of return is accurately calculated.

(c) Upon the approval of the state housing board within the division of housing in accordance with rules promulgated by the board, the division shall direct each certified capital company that reports to the division pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (3) to transfer to one or more local housing authorities, public nonprofit corporations, or private nonprofit corporations an amount of money equal to one-half of the amount identified in such report for:

(I) Development or redevelopment costs incurred prior to the completion or occupancy of low- or moderate-income housing, as defined in section 24-32-717 (4) (b), C.R.S., or for the rehabilitation of such housing;

(II) Providing incentives for the additional acquisition, construction, rehabilitation, or renovation of affordable housing that is made available to households of very low incomes and to households of senior citizens and that addresses the special needs of members of these communities, especially in connection with the availability of rental housing;

(III) Providing mixed-income housing to better ensure economic integration;

(IV) Ensuring the affordability of housing over the long term and helping to preserve project-based federally-authorized rental units;

(V) Allowing the state or a local government or any of their agencies to leverage federal, local, and private resources such as low-income housing tax credits, private activity bonds, mortgage revenue bonds, community development block grants, McKinney funds, home funds, private grants, and land donations to increase the pool of capital available to finance the provision of affordable housing;

(VI) Providing resources to local governments and other appropriate entities that result in the operation, construction, and renovation of emergency shelters and direct services linked to housing; or

(VII) Providing resources to local governments to assist home buyers with the financing of down payments or closing costs.

(d) The executive director of the department of human services shall direct each certified capital company that reports to the division pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (3) to transfer to one or more approved community mental health clinics or approved community mental health centers, as defined in section 27-66-101, C.R.S., an amount of money equal to one-half of the amount identified in such report to be used solely for the purposes identified in sections 27-66-103 and 27-66-104 (3), C.R.S., taking into account the standards contained in section 27-66-105, C.R.S.

10-3.5-109. Annual review - decertification - penalties. (1) The office shall conduct an annual review of each certified capital company to determine whether the certified capital company is abiding by the requirements of certification, to advise the certified capital company as to the eligibility status of its qualified investments, and to ensure that no investment has been made in violation of this article. The cost of the annual review shall be paid by each certified capital company according to a reasonable fee schedule adopted by the office.

(2) (a) (I) Within the period ending ten years after an allocation date, a certified capital company shall have made qualified investments in an amount cumulatively equal to:

(A) One hundred percent of the certified capital allocated to its certified investors on such allocation date. Failure to comply with this requirement shall not subject the certified capital company to decertification.

(B) At least one-third of the certified capital allocated to its certified investors under section 10-3.5-106 (2) (a) (II) in qualified businesses that are in the seed or early stage. Seed or early stage investments of certified capital allocated under section 10-3.5-106 (2) (a) (II) and section 10-3.5-106 (2) (a) (I) shall both count toward meeting the requirement of this sub-subparagraph (B). Failure to comply with this requirement shall not subject the certified capital company to decertification.

(II) Beginning on the tenth anniversary of an allocation date, a certified capital company shall make no further distributions of any kind, including qualified distributions, from certified capital or proceeds or gains from any type of investment of certified capital, unless and until the certified capital company has made qualified investments cumulatively equal to one hundred percent of the certified capital allocated to its certified investors on such allocation date; except that this subparagraph (II) shall not prohibit payments on indebtedness of the certified capital company, including indebtedness to certified investors, on qualified debt instruments or distributions permitted by section 10-3.5-108 (2) (b).

(III) If a certified capital company fails to have made qualified investments cumulatively equal to one hundred percent of the certified capital allocated to its certified investors on such allocation date within the period ending:

(A) Twelve years after an allocation date, the percentage reported to the division of housing in section 10-3.5-108 (3) (b) shall equal sixty percent.

(B) Sixteen years after an allocation date, the percentage reported to the division of housing in section 10-3.5-108 (3) (b) shall equal one hundred percent, and the economic development commission shall have the authority over all monetary and investment assets of the certified capital company, including, but not limited to, the ability to select a new manager for all future investments of the certified capital company's assets.

(b) Any material violation of section 10-3.5-107 shall be grounds for decertification of the certified capital company, assessment of an administrative fine determined by the office by rule, or both. Any material violation of this article occurring on or after May 27, 2004, shall be grounds for assessment of an administrative fine pursuant to a schedule determined by the office by rule. Violations involving a use of funds that is unauthorized under this article shall require the repayment or reinvestment of the funds, and fines for such violations shall not exceed an amount equal to the amount of funds involved. Fines for violations not involving the misuse of funds shall not exceed one hundred thousand dollars. If the office determines that a certified capital company is not in compliance with the requirements referenced in this paragraph (b), it shall, by written notice, inform the officers of the certified capital company that the certified capital company may be subject to decertification, or the assessment of a fine as allowed by this paragraph (b), one hundred twenty days after the date of mailing of the notice unless the deficiencies are corrected and the certified capital company is again in compliance with all requirements for certification.

(c) (I) For the purpose of determining compliance with this article, including all requirements for distributions and certification, regardless of any claim that such records or operations are confidential or otherwise exempt from inspection, the office may, upon reasonable notice, inspect the records and operations of:

(A) A certified capital company; or

(B) If the information received pursuant to sub-subparagraph (A) of this subparagraph (I) is insufficient, a qualified business or qualified rural business.

(II) A record that is exempt from inspection pursuant to section 24-72-204, C.R.S., shall be exempt from inspection while in the custody of the office if the requirements of part 2 of article 72 of title 24, C.R.S., are complied with, and the office and its employees shall not disclose the confidential or exempt portions of the contents of any such record to anyone outside of the office unless disclosure of the confidential or exempt portions of the contents of such record is required to effectuate final administrative action against a certified capital company pursuant to this section.

(3) At the end of the one-hundred-twenty-day period provided in subsection (2) of this section, if the certified capital company is still not in compliance with the requirements referenced in paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of this section, the office may do either or both of the following, as appropriate:

(a) Send a notice of decertification to the certified capital company and to all other appropriate state agencies, including without limitation the division of insurance in the department of regulatory agencies;

(b) Assess an administrative fine pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of this section against the certified capital company. The assessment shall occur only after the director of the office holds a hearing in accordance with section 24-4-105, C.R.S. Judicial review may be obtained in the court of appeals pursuant to section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S. The office shall transfer any such fine that it receives to the state treasurer, who shall credit it to the general fund.

(4) Decertification of a certified capital company may cause the recapture of premium tax credits previously claimed and the forfeiture of future premium tax credits to be claimed by certified investors with respect to such certified capital company, as follows:

(a) Decertification of a certified capital company within three years after an allocation date shall cause the recapture of all premium tax credits allocated to its certified investors on such allocation date that were previously claimed and the forfeiture of all premium tax credits allocated to its certified investors on such allocation date that are still to be claimed by certified investors with respect to such certified capital company.

(b) When a certified capital company meets all requirements for continued certification under section 10-3.5-107 (1) (a) with respect to certified capital allocated on a particular allocation date and subsequently fails to meet the requirements for continued certification under the provisions of section 10-3.5-107 (1) (b) with respect to such certified capital, those premium tax credits allocated to the certified investors of the certified capital company on such allocation date that have been or will be taken by certified investors within three years after such allocation date shall not be subject to recapture or forfeiture, but all other premium tax credits allocated to the certified investors of the certified capital company on such allocation date that have been or will be taken by certified investors shall be subject to recapture or forfeiture.

(c) Once a certified capital company has met all requirements for continued certification under section 10-3.5-107 (1) with respect to certified capital allocated on a particular allocation date and is subsequently decertified, those premium tax credits allocated to the certified investors of the certified capital company on such allocation date that have been or will be taken by certified investors within five years after such allocation date shall not be subject to recapture or forfeiture. Those premium tax credits allocated to the certified investors of the certified capital company on such allocation date to be taken after the fifth anniversary of such allocation date shall be subject to forfeiture only if the certified capital company is decertified within five years after such allocation date.

(d) Once a certified capital company has invested an amount cumulatively equal to one hundred percent of the certified capital allocated to its certified investors on a particular allocation date in qualified investments, all premium tax credits allocated to such certified investors on such allocation date that were claimed or remain to be claimed by its certified investors are no longer subject to recapture or forfeiture.

(5) Once a certified capital company has invested an amount cumulatively equal to one hundred percent of its certified capital in qualified investments and complied with sections 10-3.5-107 (3) (a) and 10-3.5-108 (2) (a) (I) (B), the certified capital company shall no longer be subject to regulation by the office except insofar as is necessary to oversee the distributions made pursuant to section 10-3.5-108 (3) (b).

(6) The office shall send written notice to the address of each certified investor whose premium tax credit has been subject to recapture or forfeiture, using the address shown on the most recent premium tax filing.

(7) The office shall have the authority to waive any recapture or forfeiture of credits if, after considering all facts and circumstances, it determines that such waiver will have the effect of furthering the economic development of the state.

10-3.5-110. Transferability. The premium tax credit established pursuant to this article may be transferred or sold. The office shall promulgate rules to facilitate the transfer or sale of such premium tax credits. A transfer or sale shall not affect the time schedule for taking the premium tax credit as provided in this article. Any premium tax credits recaptured pursuant to section 10-3.5-109 shall be the liability of the taxpayer who actually claimed the premium tax credits.

GENERAL

10-4-101. Legislative declaration. The general assembly declares that the health, welfare, and safety of the people of the state of Colorado would be enhanced by the expeditious handling of liability claims. The general assembly further declares that the handling of such claims would be expedited if voluntary payment by one person, or on his behalf to an injured person, could not be construed as an admission of fault or liability as to any claim arising out of the same occurrence.

10-4-102. Federal "voluntary fair access to insurance required, property insurance program" - state qualification. In order that this state may share in the provisions of 12 U.S.C. 1749bbb, which makes available to states that qualify with its provisions a federal program of reinsurance against abnormally high property insurance losses resulting from riots and other civic commotions, the commissioner is authorized to adopt necessary regulations to qualify this state with the provisions of said federal law, but any regulations so authorized by this section shall otherwise comply with the laws of this state and be subject thereto, and such plan shall be in all respects voluntary.

10-4-103. Voluntary partial payment of liability claims without admission of liability. No voluntary partial payment of a claim against any person based on alleged liability of that person for injury or property damage arising out of any occurrence shall be construed as an admission of fault or liability, or as a waiver or release of claim, by the person receiving such payment. Such payment, moreover, shall not be admissible in any action, as evidence, for the purpose of determining the amount of any judgment with respect to the same parties as to such occurrence. Upon settlement of the claim, the parties may make any agreement they so desire in respect to all such voluntary partial payments. After entry of judgment, any such payment shall be treated as a credit against the judgment and is deductible from the amount of the judgment. If, after partial voluntary payments are made as provided for in this section, it is determined by final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction that the payor is liable for an amount less than the voluntary payments already made, the payor shall have no right of action for the recovery of amounts by which the voluntary payments exceed the final judgment. No voluntary partial payments shall be construed to reduce the amount of damages which may be pleaded and proved in a court proceeding between the parties.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For article, "Recovery of Interest: Part I — Personal Injury", see 18 Colo. Law. 1063 (1989).

10-4-104. Competency of minor to contract for insurance - nonavoidance. Any minor of the age of sixteen years or over may, notwithstanding his minority, contract for insurance upon his own property or liabilities. Such a minor shall, notwithstanding such minority, be deemed competent to exercise all rights and powers with respect to or under any such contract as might be exercised by a person of full legal age and may at any time surrender his interest in any such contracts and give valid discharge for any benefits accruing or money payable thereunder. Such a minor shall not, by reason of his minority, be entitled to rescind, avoid, or repudiate the contract nor to rescind, avoid, or repudiate any exercise of a right or privilege thereunder.

10-4-105. Valuation of bonds and policies other than life. For the purpose of establishing the liability of companies doing a surety business and of insurance companies other than life, the amount required to safely reinsure all outstanding risks shall be estimated by taking fifty percent of the gross annual premiums on all surety bonds, risks, and policies in force that have less than one year to run, and pro rata of all gross premiums on risks that have more than one year to run.

10-4-106. Assigned risks. (1) The commissioner may, after consultation with the insurers licensed to write mortgage guaranty insurance in this state, establish or approve a reasonable plan, and rules governing the same, for the equitable apportionment among such insurers of applicants for such insurance who are in good faith entitled to but are unable to procure insurance through ordinary methods, and, when such plan has been approved, all such insurers may subscribe thereto and participate therein. Any applicant for such insurance, any person insured under such plan, and any insurer affected may appeal to the commissioner from any ruling or decision of the manager or committee designated to operate such plan.

(2) Insurance provided under this section shall be provided only for the purposes listed in article 49 of title 7, C.R.S., and may be made in cooperation with the corporation established in said article.

Source: L. 75: Entire section added, p. 270, § 2, effective June 29.

10-4-107. Cancellation of medical malpractice policies. (1) A notice of cancellation of a medical malpractice policy shall be valid only if it is based on one or more of the following reasons:

- (a) Nonpayment of premiums; or
- (b) The license of the insured health care provider has been suspended or revoked by the appropriate state regulatory authority; or
- (c) The insured knowingly made a false statement on the application for insurance; or
- (d) There has been a substantial change in the exposure or risk other than that indicated in the application and underwritten as of the effective date of the policy unless the insured has notified the insurer of the change and the insurer accepts such change.

(2) This section shall not apply to any policy or coverage which has been in effect less than sixty days at the time the notice of cancellation is mailed or delivered by the insurer, unless it is a renewal policy.

(3) This section shall not apply to nonrenewal of a policy.

(4) This section shall not apply to insurers providing coverage for exempt commercial policyholders, as defined pursuant to section 10-4-1402 and rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to that section.

Source: L. 76: Entire section added, p. 365, § 1, effective May 21. L. 86: (1)(c) amended and (1)(d) added, p. 572, § 1, effective July 1. L. 99: (4) added, p. 389, § 12, effective January 15, 2000.

10-4-108. Notice. (1) No notice of the cancellation of a policy to which section 10-4-107 applies shall be valid unless mailed or delivered by the insurer to the named insured at least ninety days prior to the effective date of cancellation; but, where cancellation is for nonpayment of premium, at least ten days' notice of cancellation accompanied by the reasons therefor shall be given. Unless the reasons of the company are included in the notice of cancellation, the notice of cancellation shall state or be accompanied by a statement that, upon written request of the named insured mailed or delivered to the insurer not less than fifteen days prior to the effective date of cancellation, the insurer will specify the reasons for such cancellation.

(2) When the reason for cancellation does not accompany or is not included in the notice of cancellation, the insurer shall, upon written request of the named insured mailed or delivered to the insurer not less than fifteen days prior to the effective date of cancellation, specify in writing the reason for such cancellation. Such reason shall be mailed or delivered to the named insured within five days after receipt of such request.

(3) This section shall not apply to nonrenewal of a policy.

(4) This section shall not apply to insurers providing coverage for exempt commercial policyholders, as defined pursuant to section 10-4-1402 and rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to that section.

Source: L. 76: Entire section added, p. 365, § 1, effective May 21. L. 86: (1) amended, p. 572, § 2, effective July 1. L. 99: (4) added, p. 389, § 13, effective January 15, 2000.

10-4-109. Nonrenewal of medical malpractice policies. (1) No insurer shall refuse to renew a policy of medical malpractice insurance unless such insurer or its agent mails or delivers to the named insured, at the last address shown in the insurer's records, at least ninety days' advance notice of its intention not to renew. This section shall not apply:

- (a) If the insurer has already manifested its willingness to renew;
- (b) Repealed.

- (c) If the insured fails to pay any premium deposit required by the insurer for renewal.
- (2) Notwithstanding the failure of an insurer to comply with this section, the policy shall terminate on the effective date of any other malpractice liability insurance policy with respect to the particular insured, if such policy has substantially the same limits and provisions of coverage.
- (3) Renewal of a policy shall not constitute a waiver or estoppel with respect to grounds for cancellation which existed before the effective date of such renewal.
- (4) In the event an insurer refuses to renew, the insured may, by written request, demand a written notification of the reasons for nonrenewal. Such notification shall be given the insured within twenty days after receipt of such request.
- (5) Any statement of reasons contained in the notice pursuant to subsection (4) of this section shall be privileged and shall not constitute grounds for any action against the insurer or its representatives or any person who in good faith furnished to the insurer the information upon which the statement is based.
- (6) This section shall not apply to insurers providing coverage for exempt commercial policyholders, as defined pursuant to section 10-4-1402 and rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to that section.

ANNOTATION

Effect of notice requirements on duty of insurer to renew policies. This section requires that insurer give at least ninety days' advance notice of its intention not to renew a policy. Bad faith cause of action can not be based on insurer's nonrenewal of policies where this section and other policy terms provided that insurer had no duty to renew policies. Ballow v. PHICO Ins. Co., 841 P.2d 344 (Colo. App. 1992).

10-4-109.5. Notice of intent prior to unilateral increase in premium or decrease in coverage previously provided in medical malpractice policies. (1) No insurer shall increase the premium unilaterally or decrease the coverage benefits previously provided as contained in a medical malpractice policy unless such insurer mails by first-class mail to the named insured, at the last address shown in the insurer's records, at least ninety days' advance notice, accompanied by the reason therefor, of the company's intention to increase the premium unilaterally or decrease the coverage benefits provided on renewal.

(2) A notice of a decrease in coverage benefits previously provided pursuant to this section shall be valid only if it sets forth the reason for the decrease and is based on one or more of the following reasons:

- (a) Nonpayment of premium;
- (b) A false statement knowingly made by the insured on the application for insurance;
- (c) A substantial change in the exposure or risk other than that indicated in the application and underwritten as of the effective date of the policy unless the insured has notified the insurer of the change and the insurer accepts such change.

(3) This section shall not apply to insurers providing coverage for exempt commercial policyholders, as defined pursuant to section 10-4-1402 and rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to that section.

Source: L. 86: Entire section added, p. 573, § 4, effective July 1. L. 99: (3) added, p. 389, § 15, effective January 15, 2000.

10-4-109.7. Notice of intent prior to cancellation of certain policies of insurance. (1) No insurer shall cancel a policy of insurance that provides coverages on commercial exposures such as general comprehensive liability, municipal liability, automobile liability and physical damage, fidelity and surety, fire and allied lines, inland marine, errors and omissions, excess liability, products liability, police liability, professional liability, or false arrest insurance unless such insurer mails by first-class mail to the named insured, at the last address shown in the insurer's records, at least forty-five days in advance a notice of the company's intention to cancel; but, where cancellation is for nonpayment of premium, at least ten days' notice of cancellation accompanied by the reasons therefor shall be given.

(2) A notice of cancellation pursuant to this section shall be valid only if it is based on one or more of the following reasons:

- (a) Nonpayment of premium;
- (b) A false statement knowingly made by the insured on the application for insurance;
- (c) A substantial change in the exposure or risk other than that indicated in the application and underwritten as of the effective date of the policy unless the insured has notified the insurer of the change and the insurer accepts such change.

(3) This section shall not apply to insurance companies authorized to write surplus line insurance in Colorado.

(4) This section shall not apply to insurers providing coverage for exempt commercial policyholders, as defined pursuant to section 10-4-1402 and rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to that section.

Source: L. 86: Entire section added, p. 573, § 4, effective July 1. L. 87: (1) amended and (3) added, p. 425, § 2, effective May 1. L. 99: (4) added, p. 389, § 16, effective January 15, 2000.

10-4-110. Notice of intent prior to nonrenewal of certain policies of insurance.

(1) No insurer shall refuse to renew a policy of insurance that provides coverages on commercial exposures such as general comprehensive liability, municipal liability, automobile liability and physical damage, fidelity and surety, fire and allied lines, inland marine, errors and omissions, excess liability, products liability, police liability, professional liability, or false arrest insurance unless such insurer mails by first-class mail to the named insured, at the last address shown in the insurer's records, at least forty-five days in advance a notice of the company's intention not to renew.

(3) The provisions of this section shall not apply:

- (a) Repealed.
- (b) If the insured fails to pay any premium deposit required by the insurer for renewal;
- (c) To any policy or coverage which has been in effect less than sixty days, unless it is a renewal policy.

(4) An insurer's failure to mail notice of intent shall be considered a manifestation of its willingness to renew.

(5) Renewal of a policy shall not constitute a waiver or estoppel with respect to grounds for cancellation which existed before the effective date of such renewal.

(6) This section shall not apply to insurance companies authorized to write surplus line insurance in Colorado.

(7) This section shall not apply to insurers providing coverage for exempt commercial policyholders, as defined pursuant to section 10-4-1402 and rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to that section.

Source: L. 77: Entire section added, p. 511, § 1, effective July 1. L. 86: (1) amended and (2) and (3)(a) repealed, pp. 574, 575, §§ 5, 7, effective July 1. L. 87: (1) amended and (6) added, p. 426, § 3, effective May 1. L. 99: (7) added, p. 390, § 17, effective January 15, 2000.

10-4-110.3. Exclusions where claim involves sexual misconduct - void. (1) No insurer, in a policy of professional malpractice insurance, shall attempt to nullify or limit its stated liability with regard to claims not relating to sexual misconduct in cases where:

- (a) There is an allegation or proof of a claim of sexual misconduct by the insured; and

(b) The policy requires aggregation of all damages under the liability limit for sexual misconduct.

(2) Any policy provision that violates subsection (1) of this section is hereby declared contrary to public policy and is void and unenforceable.

(3) This section shall not apply to nonadmitted insurers approved pursuant to article 5 of this title.

Source: L. 95: Entire section added, p. 865, § 1, effective May 24.

ANNOTATION

Unambiguous exclusion from insurance policy for sexual misconduct of perpetrator did not violate the public policy concerns that gave rise to this section where such insurance policy did not require aggregation of claims or subject claims unrelated to sexual misconduct to a smaller liability limit. Church Mut. Ins. Co. v. Klein, 940 P.2d 1001 (Colo. App. 1996).

10-4-110.4. Exclusion - claims involving loss in progress not known to insured.

(1) A provision in a liability insurance policy issued to a construction professional excluding or limiting coverage for one or more claims arising from bodily injury, property damage, advertising injury, or personal injury that occurs before the policy's inception date and that continues, worsens, or progresses when the policy is in effect is void and unenforceable if the exclusion or limitation applies to an injury or damage that was unknown to the insured at the policy's inception date.

(2) Any provision in an insurance policy issued in violation of this section is void and unenforceable as against public policy. A court shall construe an insurance policy containing a provision that is unenforceable under this section as if the provision was not a part of the policy when the policy was issued.

(3) This section applies only to an insurance policy that covers occurrences of damage or injury during the policy period and that insures a construction professional for liability arising from construction-related work.

Source: L. 2010: Entire section added, (HB 10-1394), ch. 253, p. 1128, § 2, effective May 21.

Editor's note: Section 3 of chapter 253, Session Laws of Colorado 2010, provides that the act adding this section applies to all insurance policies currently in existence or issued on or after May 21, 2010.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For article, "H.B. 10-1394: New Law Governing Insurance Coverage for Construction Defect Claims", see 39 Colo. Law. 89 (August 2010).

10-4-110.5. Notice of intent prior to unilateral increase in premium or decrease in coverage previously provided in certain policies of insurance.

(1) No insurer shall increase the premium unilaterally or decrease the coverage benefits on renewal of a policy of insurance that provides coverages on commercial exposures such as general comprehensive liability, municipal liability, automobile liability and physical damage, fidelity and surety, fire and allied lines, inland marine, errors and omissions, excess liability, products liability, police liability, professional liability, or false arrest insurance unless the insurer mails by first-class mail to the named insured, at the last address shown in the insurer's records, at least forty-five days in advance a notice, accompanied by the reasons therefor, stating the renewal terms and the amount of premium due. If the insurer fails to furnish the renewal terms and the statement of the amount of premium due at least forty-five days prior to the expiration date of the policy, the insurer shall automatically extend the existing policy for a period of forty-five days and the premium for this extended period shall be prorated based on the premium applicable to the existing policy. If the insurer fails to meet the requirements of this section prior to the expiration date of the existing policy, the insurer shall be deemed to have renewed the insured's policy for an identical policy period at the same terms, conditions, and premium as the existing policy.

(2) A notice of a decrease in coverage benefits during the term of a policy of insurance identified in subsection (1) of this section shall be valid only if it sets forth the reason for the decrease and is based on one or more of the following reasons:

- (a) Nonpayment of premium;
- (b) A false statement knowingly made by the insured on the application for insurance;
- (c) A substantial change in the exposure or risk other than that indicated in the application and underwritten as of the effective date of the policy unless the insured has notified the insurer of the change and the insurer accepts such change.

(3) This section shall not apply to insurance companies authorized to write surplus line insurance in Colorado.

Source: L. 86: Entire section added, p. 574, § 6, effective July 1. L. 87: (1) amended and (3) added, p. 426, § 4, effective May 1.

ANNOTATION

Plain language of notice provision in subsection (1) reveals that purpose of statute is to provide 45 days' notice to insured of insurer's unilateral intent to increase premium or decrease coverage upon renewal of existing policy. Accordingly, subsection (1) either extends or renews the existing policy if insurer provides late or inadequate notice to insured. Granite State Ins. Co. v. Ken Caryl Ranch Master Ass'n, 183 P.3d 563 (Colo. 2008).

Under plain language of subsection (1), first sentence establishes notice requirements, and second and third sentences provide distinct remedies to insured if insurer fails to comply with notice requirements set forth in first sentence. If insurer fails to provide adequate notice at least 45 days before expiration of existing policy, second sentence automatically extends policy for 45 days at prorated premium. If insurer fails to meet "requirements" of notice statute before expiration of existing policy, third sentence imposes full-term renewal of policy under same terms, conditions, and premium as existing policy. Granite State Ins. Co. v. Ken Caryl Ranch Master Ass'n, 183 P.3d 563 (Colo. 2008).

First sentence of notice statute sets forth more than one requirement. First sentence requires notice to be: (1) Sent by first-class mail to insured's last known address; (2) sent at least 45 days before expiration of existing policy; (3) accompanied by reasons for change in policy premiums or coverage; and (4) accompanied by renewal terms and amount of premium due. Use of plural term "requirements" in third sentence refers to notice requirements in first sentence, imposing full-term renewal of existing policy if insurer fails to fulfill notice requirements before expiration of policy. Granite State Ins. Co. v. Ken Caryl Ranch Master Ass'n, 183 P.3d 563 (Colo. 2008).

Where insurer provided late but adequate notice, 5 days before expiration of policy, of reduced coverage under renewal policy, remedy in second sentence of subsection (1) applied to automatically extend existing policy for 45 days at prorated premium. Since insurer adequately notified insured of reduced coverage before expiration of policy, full-term renewal remedy in third sentence of subsection (1) was not triggered. Granite State Ins. Co. v. Ken Caryl Ranch Master Ass'n, 183 P.3d 536 (Colo. 2008).

The notice requirement of this section does not apply to a public entity self-insurance pool. Under the plain language of § 24-10-115.5, public entity self-insurance pools, such as the Colorado intergovernmental risk sharing agency, are not to be construed to be insurance companies and are not otherwise subject to state laws regulating insurance companies except §§ 10-1-203, 10-1-204 (1) to (5) and (10). City of Arvada v. Colo. Intergovernmental Risk Sharing Agency, 988 P.2d 184 (Colo. App. 1999), aff'd, 19 P.3d 10 (Colo. 2001).

10-4-110.6. Homeowner's insurance - definition. For the purposes of this article, "homeowner's insurance" means insurance that covers damage or loss to all types of homes, including, but not limited to, site-built homes, manufactured homes, factory-built homes, and mobile homes.

Source: L. 2004: Entire section added, p. 1972, § 2, effective August 4; entire section added, p. 1981, § 2, effective January 1, 2005.

10-4-110.7. Cancellation or nonrenewal - homeowner's insurance policies.

(1) (a) If an insurer issues a binder of insurance during a period in which the insurer assesses the risk related to an individual's real and personal property for the purposes of homeowner's insurance, the insurer shall provide notice to the potential insured that the documents are only a binder and subject to cancellation.

(b) The commissioner may promulgate a rule or issue a bulletin concerning disclosure requirements for a binder of insurance for homeowner's insurance.

(2) (a) If an insurer uses underwriting criteria based on an individual's credit score, the claims history of the property, or the claims history of the applicant, the insurer shall notify the applicant of the use of such criteria during the application process.

(b) If an insurer uses claims experience for the property and such claims history results in an adverse action to the applicant or policyholder, the insurer shall disclose to the applicant or policyholder the specific claim information that resulted in the adverse action.

(3) No insurer shall cancel or refuse to renew a policy of homeowner's insurance unless such insurer mails, by first-class mail to the named insured, at the last address shown in the insurer's records, at least thirty days in advance, a notice of its intended action pursuant to section 10-4-110 that specifically states the reasons for proposing to take such action pursuant to section 10-4-110; except that, where cancellation is for nonpayment of premium, at least ten days' notice of cancellation accompanied by the reasons therefor shall be given.

(4) An insurer offering homeowner's insurance in this state shall file with the commissioner the underwriting methodologies used by the insurer. Such underwriting methodologies are not public records and are exempted from article 72 of title 24, C.R.S., and are proprietary and not subject to public examination; except that the commissioner may use information from the underwriting methodologies filed pursuant to this subsection (4) that does not identify a specific insurer for consumer information publications concerning homeowner's insurance.

(5) If an insurer issues a binder or a policy of insurance during a period in which the insurer assesses the risk related to an individual's real and personal property for the purposes of homeowner's insurance, the insurer shall provide notice to the potential insured that the documents are conditional and that the insurer has thirty business days, commencing on the effective date of the conditional coverage, to evaluate the issuance of a policy for homeowner's insurance. If the insurer refuses to issue a policy of homeowner's insurance or cancels a conditional policy that has been issued as of an effective date within this thirty-business-day period, the insurer shall notify the homeowner of the insurer's decision. If, prior to the expiration of the thirty-business-day period, the insurer obtains information showing an articulable and reasonable basis on which the insurer might be justified in cancelling coverage and the insurer believes that further investigation or repair of the property is necessary, the thirty-business-day period may be extended. The insurer shall complete any inspection associated with the underwriting of the new property within the thirty-business-day period.

10-4-110.8. Homeowner's insurance - prohibited practices - definitions. (1) An insurer may not cancel or fail to renew coverage of an insured solely because the insured inquires about coverage for homeowner's insurance and the inquiry is not related to an actual claim to the property insured.

(2) An insurer may only provide information regarding claims to an entity that compiles or monitors personal claim or loss experience shared by insurers for underwriting or rating purposes.

(3) For the purposes of this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Claim" includes a demand for payment of a benefit by the insured, the payment of a covered benefit by an insurer, a loss reserve established by the insurer, a loss adjustment expense incurred by the insurer, or a payment made to the insured.

(b) "Inquiry" means a request for information regarding the terms, conditions, or coverages afforded under an insurance contract.

(4) Every insurer issuing a policy of homeowner's insurance shall comply with section 10-3-1104 (1) (h) and all other provisions of part 11 of article 3 of this title.

(5) (a) In a common interest community, as defined in section 38-33.3-103 (8), C.R.S., a unit owner may file a claim against the policy of the unit owner's association to the same extent, and with the same effect, as if the unit owner were a named insured if the following conditions are met:

(I) The unit owner has contacted the executive board or the association's managing agent in writing, and in accordance with any applicable association policies or procedures for owner-initiated insurance claims, regarding the subject matter of the claim;

(II) The unit owner has given the association at least fifteen days to respond in writing, and, if so requested, has given the association's agent a reasonable opportunity to inspect the damage; and

(III) The subject matter of the claim falls within the association's insurance responsibilities.

(b) The association's insurer, when determining premiums to be charged to the association, shall not take into account any request by a unit owner for a clarification of coverage.

10-4-110.9. Fire insurance - issuance and renewal of policies within federally designated disaster areas. (1) No insurer shall refuse to issue a fire insurance policy for any property located within a federally designated disaster area, so designated because of wildfire, where such refusal is based on such property's zip code, county location, or distance from any wildfire. This section shall not apply to property that is located within an immediately threatened area as designated by the appropriate state, local, or federal official.

(2) An insurer shall not refuse to renew an existing fire insurance policy for property that is within an area that has been declared a federally designated disaster area for any reason that is related to wildfire. As a condition of such renewal, an insurer may require a property owner to take reasonable actions to reduce the risk of fire to such property.

(3) If a property owner refinances a mortgage on an insured property that falls within an area that has been declared a federally designated disaster area because of wildfire, the insurer of such property shall continue to provide coverage for the remaining term of the existing fire insurance policy, adjusted as required by the mortgage lender for any increase or decrease in the value of such property. Such required adjustment shall not conflict with the requirements of section 10-4-114.

(4) The commissioner of insurance may adopt rules as necessary for implementation of this section.

10-4-111. Summary disclosure forms required. (1) Every insurer issuing policies of dwelling fire insurance, homeowners insurance, or automobile insurance subject to the provisions of part 6 of this article shall, as a condition of doing business in this state, have on file for public inspection at the division a summary disclosure form that contains a simple explanation of the major coverages and exclusions of such policies of insurance together with a recitation of general factors considered in cancellation, nonrenewal, and increase in premium situations. Each summary disclosure form shall provide notice in bold face letters that the policyholder should read the policy for complete details, and such disclosure form shall not be construed to replace any provision of the policy itself. In the event of any conflict between the policy and the disclosure form, the provisions of the policy shall prevail.

(2) Every insurer shall update disclosure forms periodically subject to changes in major coverages and exclusions of such policies of insurance and changes in factors considered in cancellation, nonrenewal, and increase in premium situations.

(3) Every insurer or its designated agent shall furnish the required disclosure form to applicants for insurance coverage at the time of the initial insurance purchase and thereafter on any renewal policy when there are changes in major coverages and exclusions or changes in factors considered in cancellation, nonrenewal, and increase in premium situations.

(4) Any insurer who violates the provisions of subsection (1) of this section shall be deemed to have engaged in unfair or deceptive acts or practices prohibited by section 10-3-1104 (1) (a) (I) and shall be subject to the penalties provided in section 10-3-1108 and 10-3-1109.

(5) In addition to the disclosure requirements in this section, every insurer or producer who issues automobile insurance policies pursuant to part 6 of this article shall comply with the disclosure requirements in section 10-4-636.

ANNOTATION

Homeowners' policy, which excluded coverage for intentional conduct of "any insured", did not provide coverage for property damage intentionally caused by the insureds' minor son, where policy defined "insured" to include son. Chacon v. Am. Family Mut. Ins. Co., 762 P.2d 732 (Colo. App. 1988).

10-4-112. Property damage - time of payment. (1) After an insurer has issued a draft or check to a loss payee and the insured under the terms of a property damage policy for the repair of property damage to a one- to four-family dwelling unit or an owner-operated commercial property when the mortgage or deed of trust secures a debt not in excess of two hundred thousand dollars, such draft or check, if satisfactory in an amount to the insured, shall be properly endorsed by the insured in favor of the loss payee and delivered to the loss payee.

(2) If the draft or check is for the full amount of the loss and is in an amount of one thousand dollars or less, the loss payee shall return the draft or check, properly endorsed, to the insured within ten days after the date of its receipt by the loss payee, unless the evidence of the debt or the instrument given as security for the debt is in default.

(3) If the draft or check is in an amount in excess of one thousand dollars, or is a partial payment on a loss in an amount in excess of one thousand dollars, the loss payee shall either:

(a) Send the draft or check, properly endorsed, to the insured within ten days after the date of its receipt by the loss payee;

(b) Process the draft or check for collection or deposit, except as provided in paragraph (c) of this subsection (3). Any loss payee holding funds under this paragraph (b), upon its approval of contracts or plans for the completion of repairs, shall make reasonable advances or progress payments as appropriate to be applied to the completion of repairs and shall be entitled to require appropriate lien waivers and to inspect the repairs during the progress of the repairs. The loss payee shall be entitled to retain up to fifteen percent of the amount of the draft or check as retainage until completion and inspection, satisfactory to the insured, of the work.

(c) Process the draft or check for collection or deposit. Any loss payee holding funds under this paragraph (c) shall hold such funds for the payment of the cost of repairs unless any one of the following circumstances is present:

(I) The evidence of the debt or the instrument given as security for the debt is in default. If the default is a result of failure to make payments in a timely manner as required by the evidence of debt or the instrument securing the debt, the loss payee may apply an amount of such proceeds sufficient to cure the default, including taxes, penalties, and late charges, and hold the balance for the cost of repairs, pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (3).

(II) The restoration of the property would violate local, state, or federal laws or regulations;

(III) The property cannot reasonably be restored to its condition prior to the loss at a cost of not to exceed the amount of the draft, reduced by an amount applied to cure a default pursuant to subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (c).

(d) Advise the insurer and insured that it is not satisfied with the amount of the draft or check and pursue a claim for the loss under the terms of the policy. Upon such notification the insured shall not be precluded from pursuing, either singly or jointly with the loss payee, a claim for the loss under the terms of the policy.

(4) Neither approval of contracts, plans for the completion of repairs, nor inspection of the work shall make the loss payee liable to any person for any improper, negligent, or unsatisfactory repairs.

Law reviews. For article, "The Standard Mortgage Clause", see 20 Colo. Law. 731 (1991).

10-4-113. Exemptions. (1) The commissioner shall have authority to grant reasonable exemptions from the provisions of sections 10-4-107, 10-4-108 (1), 10-4-109 (1), 10-4-109.5, 10-4-109.7, 10-4-110 (1), and 10-4-110.5 if compliance therewith is shown to be impracticable. Such exemptions may be granted to individual companies or by insurance line, type, or class and may be based on any of the following reasons:

(a) If the primary insurer, due to forces outside its control, has lost all or a significant portion of its reinsurance and the insurer can provide proof that the continuance of coverage or the continuance of the same premium and coverage would endanger the direct insurer's solvency;

(b) If a policy issued in this state covers risks with multistate locations, except with respect to coverages applicable to locations within this state;

(c) If the insurer is obligated and fails to send advance notice of cancellation or nonrenewal to any designated mortgagee or loss payee or motor carrier commission;

(d) If the insured has replaced his coverage or has specifically requested cancellation. The insurer must maintain in its file properly documented proof that termination was made at the request of the insured. This applies also to reduction in coverage specifically requested by the insured.

(e) If the policy has been in effect for less than sixty days at the time the notice is mailed or delivered, unless the policy is a renewal policy, and there has been a material misrepresentation or nondisclosure to the insurer of a material fact at the time of acceptance of the risk;

(f) If the policy is a policy written for a period of less than six months or a binder with a specific expiration date and the insured knows in advance that coverage will not be continued on expiration;

(g) If an insurer has become insolvent and cancellation is ordered by a rehabilitator or liquidator;

(h) If a risk is cancelled and rewritten with the same insurer in order to obtain common expiration dates;

(i) If a named insured fails to comply with loss control recommendations which the insured agreed would be implemented as a condition of issuance of the policy;

(j) Such other exemptions as the commissioner may determine are reasonable and necessary; or

(k) If the insurer is providing coverage for exempt commercial policyholders, as defined pursuant to section 10-4-1402 and rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to that section.

10-4-114. Requirements on hazard insurance coverage for loans secured by real property. (1) No lender shall require a borrower under a loan secured by real property to provide hazard insurance coverage on that property in an amount exceeding the replacement value of the improvements on the property.

(2) Any person harmed by a violation of this section shall be entitled to obtain injunctive relief and may recover damages and reasonable attorney fees and costs.

(3) A violation of this section does not affect the validity of the loan or the mortgage or deed of trust.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For article, "The Standard Mortgage Clause", see 20 Colo. Law. 731 (1991).

10-4-115. Private utilization review. (1) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Private utilization review organization" means an entity, other than a hospital or public reviewer following federal guidelines, which conducts utilization review.

(b) "Utilization review" means an evaluation of the necessity, appropriateness, and efficiency of the use of health care services, procedures, and facilities, but does not include any independent medical examination provided for in any policy of insurance.

(2) An insurance carrier regulated pursuant to the provisions of this article may contract with any private utilization review organization and receive from that private utilization review organization a utilization review opinion. If the insurance carrier relies on the opinion of the private utilization review organization resulting in a decision to not pay benefits that an appropriate fact finder later determines were due and owing, then the insurance carrier shall be responsible to pay the past due benefits in addition to interest and costs. Nothing in this subsection (2) shall be construed to affect or limit the commissioner's power to regulate under the provisions of section 10-3-1104 (1) (h), nor shall anything in this subsection (2) limit or affect the insured's remedies under part 6 of this article, or any common law remedy.

10-4-116. Use of credit information. (1) An insurer that offers personal lines of property and casualty insurance shall not:

(a) Use an insurance score that is calculated using income, gender, address, United States postal zip code, ethnic group, religion, marital status, or nationality of the consumer;

(b) Deny, cancel, or fail to renew a policy of personal lines of property and casualty insurance on the basis of credit information, without consideration of any other applicable underwriting factor that is independent of credit information prohibited pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (1);

(c) Base an insured's renewal rates for personal lines of property and casualty insurance upon credit information, without consideration of any other applicable factor independent of credit information;

(d) Take an adverse action against a consumer because he or she does not have a credit card account, without consideration of any other applicable factor independent of credit information;

(e) Consider an absence of credit information or an inability to calculate an insurance score in underwriting or rating personal lines of property and casualty insurance issued in this state, unless the insurer does one of the following:

(I) Treats the consumer in a manner otherwise approved by the commissioner, if the insurer presents information that such an absence or inability relates to the risk for the insurer;

(II) Treats the consumer as if he or she had neutral credit information, as defined by the insurer; or

(III) Excludes the use of credit information as a factor and uses only other underwriting criteria;

(f) Take an adverse action against a consumer based on credit information, unless the insurer obtains and uses a credit report issued or an insurance score calculated within ninety days before the date the policy is first written or renewal is issued;

(g) Use credit information unless, not later than every thirty-six months following the last time that the insurer obtained current information for the consumer, the insurer recalculates the consumer's insurance score or obtains an updated credit report. Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the contrary, an insurer:

(I) At annual renewal, upon the request of a consumer or the consumer's agent, shall reunderwrite and rerate the policy based upon a current credit report or insurance score. An insurer may recalculate the insurance score or obtain the updated credit report of a consumer more frequently than once during a twelve-month period.

(II) May obtain current credit information upon a renewal before the thirty-sixth month of coverage, if obtaining current credit information is consistent with the insurer's underwriting guidelines;

(III) Notwithstanding subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (g), need not obtain current credit information for an insured if one of the following situations apply:

(A) The insurer is treating the insured in a manner otherwise approved by the commissioner;

(B) The insured is in the most-favorably-priced tier of the insurer, within a group of affiliated insurers; except that the insurer may order a credit report if ordering the credit report is consistent with its underwriting guidelines;

(C) Credit was not used for underwriting or rating the insured when the insured's initial policy of insurance was written; except that an insurer may use credit for underwriting or rating the insured upon renewal if the use of credit is consistent with its underwriting guidelines; or

(D) The insurer reevaluates the insured beginning no later than thirty-six months after inception and thereafter based upon other underwriting or rating factors, excluding credit information.

(h) Use the following as a negative factor in an insurance scoring methodology or in reviewing credit information for the purpose of underwriting or rating a policy of personal lines of property and casualty insurance:

(I) Credit inquiries not initiated by the consumer or inquiries requested by the consumer for his or her own credit information;

(II) Inquiries relating to insurance coverage, if so identified on a consumer's credit report;

(III) Collection accounts with a medical industry code, if so identified on the consumer's credit report;

(IV) Multiple lender inquiries, if coded by the consumer reporting agency on the consumer's credit report as being from the motor vehicle lending industry and made within thirty days after one another, unless only one inquiry is considered;

(V) Multiple lender inquiries, if coded by the consumer reporting agency on the consumer's credit report as being from the home mortgage industry and made within thirty days of one another, unless only one inquiry is considered;

(VI) Identity theft that may be sufficiently and independently corroborated;

(VII) Credit information adversely impacted by a dissolution of marriage or by the credit information of a former spouse.

(2) If it is determined through the dispute resolution process as set forth in the federal "Fair Credit Reporting Act", 15 U.S.C. sec. 1681i (a) (5), that the credit information of a current insured was incorrect or incomplete and if the insurer receives notice of a determination from either the consumer reporting agency or from the insured, the insurer shall reunderwrite and re-rate the consumer within thirty days after receiving the notice. After reunderwriting or rerating the insured, the insurer shall make any adjustments necessary, consistent with its underwriting and rating guidelines. If an insurer determines that the insured has overpaid a premium, the insurer shall refund to the insured the amount of overpayment calculated back to the shorter of either the last twelve months of coverage or the actual policy period.

(3) (a) If an insurer offering personal lines of property and casualty coverage uses credit information in underwriting or rating a consumer, the insurer or the producer shall disclose, either on the insurance application or at the time the insurance application is taken, that it may obtain credit information in connection with such application. The disclosure shall be either in writing or in the same medium as the application for insurance is taken. The insurer may provide the disclosure statement required pursuant to this subsection (3) to an insured on a renewal policy, if the consumer has previously been provided a copy of the disclosure statement.

(b) Use of the following disclosure statement shall constitute compliance with the provisions of this subsection (3); except that an insurer may use different terms or phrases to communicate the same meaning:

In connection with this application for insurance, we may review your credit report or obtain or use a credit-based insurance score based on the information contained in that credit report. We may use a third party in connection with the development of your insurance score.

(4) If an insurer takes an adverse action based upon credit information, the insurer shall meet the notice requirements of this subsection (4). Specifically, an insurer shall:

(a) Provide notification to the consumer that an adverse action has been taken, in accordance with the requirements of the federal "Fair Credit Reporting Act", 15 U.S.C. sec. 1681m (a); and

(b) Provide notification to the consumer explaining the reason for the adverse action. The reasons shall be provided in sufficiently clear and specific language so that a person may identify the basis for the insurer's decision to take adverse action. The notification shall include a description of up to four factors that were the primary influences of the adverse action. The use of generalized terms such as "poor credit history", "poor credit rating", or "poor insurance score" does not meet the explanation requirements of this subsection (4). Standardized credit explanations provided by consumer reporting agencies or other third-party vendors are deemed to comply with this subsection (4).

(5) An insurer that uses insurance scores to underwrite and rate risk shall file its scoring models or other scoring processes with the commissioner. A third party may file scoring models on behalf of an insurer. A filing that includes insurance scoring may include loss experience justifying the use of credit information. The insurer may request that information requested pursuant to this subsection (5) not be open to public inspection or considered an open record pursuant to article 72 of title 24, C.R.S.

(6) An insurer shall indemnify, defend, and hold a producer harmless against all liability, fees, and costs arising out of or relating to the actions, errors, or omissions of the producer who obtains or uses credit information or insurance scores for an insurer, so long as the producer follows the instructions of or procedures established by the insurer and complies with any applicable law or rule. Nothing in this section shall be construed to provide a consumer or insured with a cause of action that does not exist in the absence of this section.

(7) (a) A consumer reporting agency shall not provide or sell data or lists that include information that, in whole or in part, was submitted in conjunction with an insurance inquiry about a consumer's credit information or a request for a credit report or insurance score. Information that may not be provided or sold includes, but is not limited to, the expiration dates of an insurance policy or other information that may identify periods in which a consumer's insurance may expire and the terms and conditions of the consumer's insurance coverage.

(b) The restrictions provided in paragraph (a) of this subsection (7) shall not apply to data or lists the consumer reporting agency supplies to the insurance producer from whom information was received, the insurer on behalf of whom the producer acted, or such insurer's affiliates or holding companies.

(c) Nothing in this subsection (7) shall be construed to restrict an insurer from being able to obtain a claims history report or a motor vehicle report.

(8) For the purposes of this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Adverse action" means a denial or cancellation of, an increase in any charge for, or a reduction or other unfavorable change in the terms of coverage or amount of any insurance existing or applied for in connection with the underwriting of personal lines of property and casualty insurance coverages.

(b) "Affiliate" means a company that controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with another insurer.

(c) "Applicant" means a person who has applied to be covered under a policy of personal lines of property and casualty insurance.

(d) "Beneficiary or claimant" includes an insured person and a third-party claimant.

(e) "Consumer" means an insured whose credit information is used or whose insurance score is calculated in the underwriting or rating of personal lines of property and casualty insurance or an application for personal lines of property and casualty insurance coverage.

(f) "Consumer reporting agency" shall have the same meaning as in section 12-14-103 (4.5), C.R.S.

(g) "Credit information" means credit-related information derived from a credit report itself or provided on an application for personal lines of property and casualty insurance. Information that is not credit-related shall not be considered "credit information" regardless of whether it is contained in a credit report or in an application or is used to calculate an insurance score.

(h) "Credit report" means a written, oral, or other communication of information by a consumer reporting agency bearing on a consumer's creditworthiness, credit standing, or credit capacity that is used or expected to be used or collected in whole or in part for the purpose of serving as a factor to determine personal lines of property and casualty insurance premiums, eligibility for coverage, or tier placement.

(i) "Insurance score" means a number or rating that is derived from an algorithm, computer application, model, or other process that is based in whole or in part on credit information for the purpose of predicting the future insurance loss exposure of an individual applicant or insured.

10-4-117. Loss history information report - notice to insured - definition. (1) Each insurer shall print in at least twelve-point bold-faced type, on the first page of each packet containing the insurance policy and each packet containing the renewal notice for homeowner's insurance or as a separate document:

(a) Information regarding how an insured may obtain a free copy of his or her loss history information report;

(b) A toll-free telephone number that the insured may call to obtain the loss history information report; and

(c) A web site address that the insured may access to obtain the loss history information report.

(2) For the purposes of this section, "loss history information report" means a compilation of an insured's prior loss history information used by an insurer in the insured's homeowner's insurance underwriting process. Such information may include, but need not be limited to, the insured's name, date of birth, and claim information such as date of loss, type of loss, and the amounts paid for the loss, if any, or any other information that may negatively affect the insured's rate of homeowner's insurance or the ability to obtain homeowner's insurance. A loss history information report shall include only information regarding claims made to an insurer and shall not include information regarding inquiries made to the insurer.

10-4-118. Severability. If any provision or clause of this part 1 or application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this part 1 that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this title are declared to be severable.

10-4-119. Monthly and electronic payment of premiums. An insurer offering personal lines of property and casualty insurance shall offer each policyholder the option to pay his or her insurance premiums monthly and to make premium payments by automatic electronic transfer. The insurer shall not be required to offer such payment options if an applicant or policyholder has previously made one or more premium payments that were dishonored because the account closed, the account had insufficient funds, or for any other similar reason for nonpayment.

10-4-120. Unfair or discriminatory trade practices - legislative declaration.
(1) (a) The general assembly determines that competition is fundamental to the free market system and that the unrestrained interaction of competitive forces will yield the best allocation of our economic resources, the lowest prices, the highest-quality commodities and services, and the best environment for democratic and social institutions. Therefore, the right of the individual to choose a repair business is a matter of statewide concern.

(b) The general assembly declares that the purposes of this section are to:

(I) Safeguard the public against monopolies, trusts, and market barriers;

(II) Foster and encourage competition by prohibiting unfair and discriminatory insurance practices that impede fair and honest competition;

(III) Ensure that all consumers benefit from competition and the expansion of choices in the marketplace; and

(IV) Enhance Colorado's economic development.

(c) This section shall be liberally construed so that its beneficial purposes may be served.

(2) An insurer or its agent that issues or renews a policy that insures real or personal property shall not:

- (a) Directly or indirectly require that appraisals or repairs to the property be made or not be made by a specified repair business;
  - (b) Represent to a beneficiary or claimant who is making a claim under a policy that the use of, or the failure to use, a particular repair business may result in the nonpayment or delayed payment of a claim;
  - (c) Intimidate, coerce, threaten, or induce by incentive a beneficiary or claimant to use a particular repair business for repairs; except that an inducement by incentive does not include warranty or guaranty repairs;
  - (d) Contract with a person to manage, handle, or arrange insurance repair work or to act as an agent for the insurer if:
    - (I) The contract requires a particular repair business to do claims work for the insurer at a price established by the insurer; and
    - (II) The person retains a percentage of any compensation paid by the insurer;
  - (e) Use disincentives to discourage a beneficiary or claimant from using a particular repair business; except that a disincentive does not include warranty or guaranty repairs;
  - (f) Solicit or accept a referral fee or compensation in exchange for referring the beneficiary or claimant to a repair facility;
  - (g) Require the beneficiary or claimant to travel an unreasonable distance to choose a repair facility;
  - (h) Misinform a beneficiary or claimant to induce the use of a particular repair business; or
  - (i) In the settlement of a liability claim by a third party against a beneficiary or claimant for property damage claimed by the third party, require a third-party claimant to have repairs done by a particular repair business.
- (3) An insurer or its agent that issues or renews a policy that insures real or personal property shall:
- (a) Supply the beneficiary or claimant with a copy of the estimate upon which the settlement is based, when partial losses are settled on the basis of an estimate prepared by or for the insurer;
  - (b) Require that any estimate prepared by or for the insurer covering damages that are visible or evident at the time of inspection is adequate to restore the property within a reasonable time to its condition before the loss, in accordance with applicable policy provisions;
  - (c) Pay for repair services and products based on a prevailing competitive price, as established by competitive bids, generally accepted insurer-based methodology, or market surveys that determine a fair and reasonable market price for similar services;
  - (d) Orally or in writing disclose to a beneficiary or claimant that the beneficiary or claimant may freely choose any repair business;
  - (e) Assume all reasonable costs sufficient to pay for the beneficiary's or claimant's repairs including materials or parts, less any applicable deductible or reduction for comparative negligence;
  - (f) Promptly pay the cost of property repair services and products from any repair facility location that is within a reasonable distance, less any applicable deductible amount payable by the beneficiary or claimant according to the terms of the insurance policy, at no less than the prevailing competitive market price in the same geographic area; and
  - (g) Disclose to the beneficiary or claimant any ownership interest in, or ownership by or through an affiliation with, a repair business recommended by the insurer when the recommendation is made.
- (4) An insurer is not required to furnish the notices required by this section more than once to each beneficiary or claimant for each claim.
- (5) A beneficiary, claimant, or repair business may submit a written, documented complaint to the commissioner alleging a violation of this section.
- (6) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, an insurer or its agent shall inform the beneficiary or claimant that he or she may select any repair business of his or her choosing, and, if the insurer chooses, the insurer may also inform the beneficiary or claimant that the insurer can provide a list of repair businesses for the beneficiary or claimant to consider.

PART 3

BONDS EXECUTED BY QUALIFIED SURETY COMPANIES

Editor's note: This part 3 was numbered primarily as article 12 of chapter 72, C.R.S. 1963. The substantive provisions of this part 3 were repealed and reenacted in 1979, resulting in the addition, relocation, and elimination of sections as well as subject matter. For amendments to this part 3 prior to 1979, consult the Colorado statutory research explanatory note and the table itemizing the replacement volumes and supplements to the original volume of C.R.S. 1973 beginning on page vii in the front of this volume. Former C.R.S. section numbers are shown in editor's notes following those sections that were relocated.

10-4-301. Bond executed by surety company. (1) Whenever any bond, undertaking, recognizance, or other obligation is, by law or the charter, ordinance, rules, or regulations of any municipality, board, body, organization, court, judge, or public officer, required or permitted to be made, given, tendered, or filed with surety and whenever the performance of any act, duty, contract, or obligation or the refraining from any act is required or permitted to be guaranteed, such bond, undertaking, obligation, recognizance, or guaranty may be executed as surety by a company qualified as provided in this title. Such execution by the company of such bond, undertaking, obligation, recognizance, or guaranty shall be in all respects a full and complete compliance with every requirement of every law, charter, ordinance, rule, or regulation that the bond, undertaking, obligation, recognizance, or guaranty was executed by one or more sureties or that sureties shall be residents or householders or freeholders, or either, or both, or possess any other qualifications.

(2) All courts, judges, heads of departments, boards, bodies, municipalities, and public officers of every character shall accept and treat such bond, undertaking, obligation, recognizance, or guaranty, when so executed by such company, as conforming to and fully and completely complying with every such requirement of every such law, charter, ordinance, rule, or regulation; except that such company may be required to justify, in such terms and for such amounts as may be satisfactory, to the court, person, or body authorized to approve such surety.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 10-4-321 as it existed prior to 1979.

10-4-302. Release of surety - other security. Any surety upon the bond of any state, county, municipal, judicial district, irrigation district, or court officer shall be released from further liability as such surety for such officer by filing, with the person having authority to approve said bond or with whom said bond is directed to be filed, a notice that said surety is unwilling to continue to be surety for such officer. When any such notice is filed, written notice thereof shall immediately be given to such officer, who shall thereupon file other security to be approved as provided by law. If such officer, within ten days after the service of such notice upon him, does not file such bond to be approved, the office shall become vacant, and the vacancy shall be filled in the manner provided by law. If a new bond is given by any officer, as provided, the former surety shall be entirely released and discharged from all liability incurred by such officer from and after the time of giving of such notice, and the sureties to the new bond shall be liable therefor as provided in such bond.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 10-4-322 as it existed prior to 1979.

10-4-303. Application for release of surety - refund. When any company, surety upon the official bond of any trustee, committee, conservator, guardian, assignee, receiver, executor, administrator, or other fiduciary in this state desires to be released from such obligation, such surety shall file its application for such release in the court having jurisdiction of such fiduciary, and, thereupon, the clerk of such court shall issue, under the seal thereof, a notice to such fiduciary requiring him to furnish a new bond, with sureties to be approved by the court, within ten days after the date of the service of said notice. Such notice may be served in the manner provided by law for the service of a summons in a civil action. If such fiduciary fails to furnish such bond within the time prescribed, he shall be summarily removed from office, and a new trustee, committee, conservator, guardian, assignee, receiver, executor, administrator, or other fiduciary shall be forthwith appointed. From and after the time when such new bond is furnished and approved, or such new fiduciary appointed and qualified, the surety making such application shall be released from all liability upon its bond, except for such default or other misconduct on the part of such fiduciary as occurred prior thereto. If any surety has been released or withdrawn as provided in this title, and if the principal accounts in due form of law for all of his acts and doings and all trust funds or estate in his hands and secured by such bond, and if such account has been approved so that there is no further liability of the surety upon such bond, the unearned portion of any premium paid to such surety shall be refunded and repaid by the said surety.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 10-4-323 as it existed prior to 1979.

10-4-304. Place of deposit. It is lawful for any party of whom a bond, undertaking, or other obligation is required to agree with his surety for the deposit of any moneys and assets for which such surety is or may be held responsible with a bank, savings bank, or safe deposit or trust company authorized by law to do business as such or other depository approved by the court, if such deposit is otherwise proper, for the safekeeping thereof, and in such manner as to prevent the withdrawal of such moneys and assets or any part thereof, without the written consent of such surety or an order of the court made on such notice to such surety as such court may direct, and such agreement shall not in any manner release or change the liability of the principal or sureties as established by the terms of the bond.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 10-4-324 as it existed prior to 1979.

10-4-305. Bond part of expense. Any receiver, assignee, guardian, trustee, committee, executor, administrator, curator, or other fiduciary required by law or the order of any court to give a bond or other obligation as such may include, as a part of the lawful expense of executing his trust, such reasonable sum paid a company authorized under the laws of this state so to do for becoming his surety on such bond as may be allowed by the court in which he is required to account, not exceeding one percent per annum on the amount of such bond or other obligation. A party to any action, suit, or proceeding entitled to recover costs in such action, suit, or proceeding shall be allowed and may have taxed and may recover, as costs therein, such sum as said party has paid such a company as premium for executing any bond, recognizance, undertaking, stipulation, or other obligation therein, not exceeding five dollars per annum for each thousand dollars or fraction thereof of the penalty of such bond, recognizance, undertaking, stipulation, or other obligation for each year or part thereof that the same has been in force. The premium so paid shall be taxed by the clerk of the court in which such action, suit, or proceeding is pending, as costs therein, upon production to him of proper receipt for the payment of such premium, which receipt shall be by him filed with the papers in the cause.

RATE REGULATION

Editor's note: This part 4 was numbered as article 35 of chapter 72, C.R.S. 1963. The substantive provisions of this part 4 were repealed and reenacted in 1979, resulting in the addition, relocation, and elimination of sections as well as subject matter. For amendments to this part 4 prior to 1979, consult the Colorado statutory research explanatory note and the table itemizing the replacement volumes and supplements to the original volume of C.R.S. 1973 beginning on page vii in the front of this volume. Former C.R.S. section numbers are shown in editor's notes following those sections that were relocated.

10-4-401. Purpose - applicability. (1) The purpose of this part 4 is to promote the public welfare by regulating insurance rates to the end that they not be excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory, to prohibit price-fixing agreements and other anti-competitive behavior by insurers, to promote price competition among insurers, to provide rates that are responsive to competitive market conditions, and to improve the availability and reliability of insurance. For such purposes, the division of insurance of the department of regulatory agencies and the head of the division, the commissioner of insurance, shall be charged with the execution of this part 4.

(2) This part 4 shall apply to all kinds of insurance except:

- (a) Reinsurance other than joint reinsurance as provided in section 10-4-411;
  - (b) Life insurance and annuities regulated under article 7 of this title;
  - (c) Sickness and accident insurance regulated under parts 1 and 2 of article 16 of this title;
  - (d) Nonprofit hospital and health services regulated under parts 1 and 3 of article 16 of this title;
  - (e) Health maintenance organization services regulated under parts 1 and 4 of article 16 of this title;
  - (f) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2000, p. 465, § 3, effective August 2, 2000.)
  - (g) Surplus line insurance regulated under article 5 of this title.
- (3) The kinds of insurance subject to this part 4 shall be divided into two classes, as follows:

(a) Type I kinds of insurance, regulated by prior filing and approval of rating information, which shall be subject to all provisions of this part 4 unless specifically excluded by the terms of a section. The following kinds of insurance shall be classified as type I:

(I) Workers' compensation and employer's liability incidental thereto for any pure premium rate filed by a rating organization. With regard to a rate filing submitted by a rating organization, the commissioner shall make available to the public, in a manner deemed appropriate by the commissioner, the aggregate loss and payroll data by class code that the rating organization submits with the rate filing. Such data shall not be used for any commercial purpose.

(II) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2000, p. 465, § 3, effective August 2, 2000.)

(III) Assigned risk motor vehicle insurance;

(IV) and (V) Repealed.

(VI) Such other kinds of insurance as the commissioner shall order classified as type I pursuant to the provisions of section 10-4-403 (5).

(b) Type II kinds of insurance, regulated by open competition between insurers, including fire, casualty, inland marine, title, credit, workers' compensation and employer's liability incidental thereto and written in connection therewith for rates filed by insurers, and all other kinds of insurance that are subject to this part 4 and not specified in paragraph (a) of this subsection (3), including the expense and profit components of workers' compensation insurance, which shall be subject to all the provisions of this part 4 except for sections 10-4-405 and 10-4-406. Type II insurers shall file rating data, as provided in section 10-4-403, with the commissioner; except that credit life and credit accident and health insurers shall file schedules of premium rates pursuant to sections 10-10-109 and 10-10-110. A rate filing summary for a type II kind of insurance subject to this part 4, except for workers' compensation insurance, shall be posted on the division's web site in order to provide notice to the public. The public notice shall include the rate standards that apply pursuant to section 10-4-403 (1). Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the right of the public to inspect a rate filing and any supporting information pursuant to part 2 of article 72 of title 24, C.R.S., or to impair the commissioner's ability to review rates and determine that the rates are not excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory.

(4) Except for type I kinds of insurance as defined in paragraph (a) of subsection (3) of this section, prior approval of rates, schedules of rates, rating plans, rating classifications and territories, rating rules, and rate manuals with the commissioner, or his prior approval thereof, shall not be required. In lieu thereof, the provisions of paragraph (b) of subsection (3) of this section and sections 10-4-413, 10-4-414, and 10-4-418 regarding the availability of such items, the review thereof, and hearings and judicial review thereof are applicable.

(5) Rate filings for insurance subject to this part 4 shall be filed electronically in a format made available by the division, unless exempted by rule for an emergency situation as determined by the commissioner.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For article, "Assemblage, Design and Construction for Real Estate Developments", see 11 Colo. Law. 2297 (1982).

10-4-402. Definitions. As used in this part 4, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Advisory organization" means every group, association, or other organization of insurers, whether located within or outside this state, which prepares policy forms or assists insurers which make their own rates or rating organizations in rate-making by the collection and furnishing of loss or expense statistics or by the submission of recommendations, but which does not make rates under this part 4. "Advisory organization" does not include a joint underwriting association, any actuarial or legal consultant, an insurer or insurers under common control or management, or their employees or managers.

(1.3) "Classification system" or "classification" means the plan, system, or arrangement for recognizing differences in exposure to hazards among industries, occupations, or operations of insurance policyholders.

(1.4) "Competitive market" means a market which has not been found to be noncompetitive pursuant to section 10-4-403 (5).

(1.5) "Expenses" means that portion of any rate attributable to acquisition, field supervision, and collection expenses, general expenses, and taxes, licenses, and fees.

(1.6) "Loss trending" means any procedure for projecting developed losses to the average date of loss for the period during which the policies are to be effective.

(2) "Member" means an insurer who participates or is entitled to participate in the management of a rating, advisory, or other organization.

(2.3) "Noncompetitive market" means a market for which there is a ruling in effect pursuant to section 10-4-403 (5) that a reasonable degree of competition does not exist.

(2.4) "Pure premium rate" means that portion of the rate which represents the loss cost per unit of exposure, including loss adjustment expenses.

(3) "Rating organization" means every person, other than an admitted insurer, which has as its object or purpose the making of pure premium rates, rating plans, or rating systems. Two or more admitted insurers, other than insurers having a common ownership or operating in this state under common management or control, which act in concert for the purpose of making pure premium rates, rating plans, or rating systems shall be deemed to be a rating organization unless they operate within the specific authorizations contained in sections 10-4-404, 10-4-409, 10-4-411, and 10-4-412. No single insurer, joint underwriting association, actuarial or legal consultant, insurer or insurers under common control or management, or their employees or managers shall be deemed to be a rating organization.

(3.5) "Stacking" means aggregating, combining, multiplying, or pyramiding limits of separate policies providing uninsured and underinsured motorist coverage as provided in section 10-4-609.

(4) "Subscriber" means an insurer which is furnished, at its request: With rates and rating manuals by a rating organization of which it is not a member; or with advisory services by an advisory organization of which it is not a member.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 10-4-401 as it existed prior to 1979.

10-4-403. Standards for rates - competition - procedure - requirement for independent actuarial opinions regarding 1991 legislation. (1) Rates shall not be excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory. The following rate standards shall apply:

(a) Rates are excessive if they are likely to produce a long run profit that is unreasonably high for the insurance provided or if expenses are unreasonably high in relation to services rendered.

(b) Concerning inadequacy, rates are not inadequate unless clearly insufficient to sustain projected losses and expenses, or the use of such rates, if continued, will tend to create a monopoly in the market.

(c) Concerning unfair discrimination, unfair discrimination exists if, after allowing for practical limitations, price differentials fail to reflect equitably the differences in expected losses and expenses. A rate is not unfairly discriminatory solely if different premiums result for policyholders with like loss exposures but different expenses, or like expenses but different loss exposures, so long as the rate reflects the differences with reasonable accuracy. Additionally, the provisions of section 10-3-1104 (1) (f) shall apply.

(2) (a) In determining whether rates comply with the excessiveness standard, the inadequacy standard, and the unfair discrimination standard, the following criteria shall apply:

(I) Concerning basic factors in rates, due consideration shall be given to past and prospective loss and expense experience, to catastrophe hazards and contingencies, to events or trends, to loadings for leveling premium rates over time or for dividends or savings to be allowed or returned by insurers to their policyholders, members, or subscribers, and to all other relevant factors, including judgment;

(II) Concerning expenses, the expense provisions included in the rates to be used by an insurer shall reflect the operating methods of the insurer and, so far as it is credible, its own actual and anticipated expenses experience;

(III) Concerning profits, the rate shall contain provisions for contingencies and an allowance permitting a reasonable profit. In determining the reasonableness of profit, consideration should be given to all investment income attributable to premiums and the reserves associated with those premiums.

(b) In setting rates, insurers shall consider past and prospective loss experience and catastrophic hazards, if any, solely within the state of Colorado. However, if there is insufficient experience within Colorado upon which a rate can be based, the insurer may consider experiences within any other state or states which have a similar cost of claim and frequency of claim experience as the state of Colorado; and, if insufficient experience is available, the insurer may use a countrywide experience. The insurer, in its rate filing or in its records, shall expressly state and describe what rate experience it is using, and for Colorado business other than workers' compensation insurance, the insurer shall specify the state or states from which experiences were drawn and the considerations used in setting the rates. In considering experience outside the state of Colorado, as much weight as possible shall be given to the Colorado experience. The rates shall allow a reasonable margin for profit, as allowed in subparagraph (III) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (2), and contingencies.

(2.1) (a) In setting rates for medical malpractice insurance, rates shall not be excessive or inadequate, as defined in this section, nor shall they be unfairly discriminatory. No rate shall be held to be excessive unless such rate is unreasonably high for the insurance provided and a reasonable degree of competition does not exist in the area with respect to the classification to which such rate is applicable. No rate shall be held to be inadequate unless such rate is unreasonably low for the insurance provided and the continued use of such rate endangers the solvency of the insurer using the same, or unless such rate is unreasonably low for the insurance provided and the use of rate by the insurer using the same has, or if continued will have, the effect of destroying competition or creating a monopoly.

(b) In setting rates, medical malpractice insurers shall consider past and prospective loss experience and catastrophic hazards, if any, solely within the state of Colorado. However, if there is insufficient experience within Colorado upon which a rate can be based, the insurer may consider experiences within any other state or states which have a similar cost of claim and frequency of claim experience as the state of Colorado; and, if insufficient experience is available, the insurer may use a nationwide experience. The insurer, in its rate filing or in its records, shall expressly state and describe what rate experience it is using, specifying the state or states from which experiences were drawn and the considerations used in setting the rates. In considering experience outside the state of Colorado, as much weight as possible shall be given to the Colorado experience. The rates shall allow a reasonable margin for profit and contingencies, including dividends, savings, or unearned premium deposits allowed or returned by insurers to their policyholders, members, or subscribers. In determining profits, the insurer shall consider investment income from unearned premium reserves and reserves for incurred losses and incurred but not reported losses.

(c) Medical malpractice insurers shall specify in their rate filings and shall consider and support the evaluation with an analysis and opinion of a qualified property and casualty actuary, and the commissioner as a result of such filing or upon his own motion may also consider, the impact of the following on medical malpractice rates:

(I) Tort reform legislation;

(II) Risk management activities;

(III) Underwriting standards and practices;

(IV) Any other activity designed to reduce rates or rate increases or the cost of administration and determination of claims.

(2.5) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, any insurer licensed to sell motor vehicle insurance within the state of Colorado may offer a reduction in premiums if the claims experience subsequent to the enactment of section 42-4-237, C.R.S., so warrants.

(3) The systems of expense provisions included in the rates for use by any insurer or group of insurers may differ from those of other insurers or groups of insurers to reflect the requirements of the operating methods of any such insurer or group with respect to any subdivision or combination thereof for which subdivision or combination separate expense provisions are applicable.

(4) Risks may be grouped by classifications for the establishment of rates and minimum premiums. Classification rates may be modified to produce rates for individual risks in accordance with rating plans which establish standards for measuring variations in hazards or expense provisions or both. Such standards may measure any difference among risks that can be demonstrated to have a probable effect upon losses or expenses.

(5) Under the commissioner's power to review rates of all companies, if he determines, after a hearing and on the basis of findings of fact and conclusions, that, with respect to any territory or to any kind, subdivision, or class of insurance, competition is either insufficient to assure that rates will not be excessive, or so conducted as to be destructive of competition or detrimental to the solvency of insurers, he shall order that the rates for such insurance or territory shall be regulated as type I kinds of insurance as defined in section 10-4-401 (3) (a). Such order shall have a specified duration of not more than one year but may be renewed by the commissioner upon appropriate findings of fact, conclusions, and order.

(6) The commissioner shall require an independent actuarial opinion that the best estimate of the impact of the reforms to the workers' compensation system enacted in Senate Bill 91-218 during the first regular session of the fifty-eighth general assembly have been incorporated in any workers' compensation rate change filed with the commissioner until July 1, 1994.

(7) This section shall not apply to insurers providing coverage to exempt commercial policyholders, as defined pursuant to section 10-4-1402 and rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to that section.

ANNOTATION

Insurance commissioner does not set rates, but rather he is to consider the present projections of future needs based on past experience, and then, based thereon, either approve or disapprove the rates submitted by the insurer. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co. v. Barnes, 41 Colo. App. 380, 585 P.2d 929 (1978) (decided under former § 10-4-403 as it existed prior to the 1979 repeal and reenactment of this article).

No regulation of agent's freedom to select coverages. This section was not intended to be a mechanism through which the commissioner could indirectly regulate an independent insurance agent's freedom to select individual coverages best suited to the needs of his clients and to the economies of his business. United States

Fid. & Guar. Co. v. Barnes, 42 Colo. App. 49, 589 P.2d 76 (1978) (decided under former § 10-4-402 as it existed prior to the 1979 repeal and reenactment of this article).

That a filing approved by the commissioner applies only to new and renewal policies does not, of itself, make such filing unfairly discriminatory, as the filing merely prevented new rates from being retroactively imposed on existing insurance contracts. Although application of new rates only to new and renewal policies differentiates among policy holders based on their renewal date, the rates are not unfairly discriminatory. D & B Enters., Inc. v. Commissioner of Ins., 919 P.2d 935 (Colo. App. 1996).

10-4-404. Rate administration. (1) The commissioner shall promulgate rules and regulations which shall require each insurer to record and report its loss and expense experience and such other data, including reserves, as may be necessary to determine whether rates comply with the standards set forth in section 10-4-403. Every insurer or rating organization shall provide such information and in such form as the commissioner may require. No insurer shall be required to record or report its loss or expense experience on a classification basis that is inconsistent with the rating system used by it. The commissioner may designate one or more rating organizations or advisory organizations to assist him in gathering and in compiling such experience and data. No insurer shall be required to record or report its experience to a rating organization unless it is a member of such organization.

(2) (a) The commissioner may require that the annual report and any such supplemental report which contains information of a company's loss and loss adjustment reserves be accompanied by an opinion signed and sworn to by a qualified and independent actuary verifying that, within the nine months prior to the submission of the report, the actuary has conducted a review and analysis of the insurance company's loss and loss adjustment reserves and the reserves are computed in accordance with accepted loss reserving standards and are fairly stated in accordance with sound loss reserving principles.

(b) For purposes of the requirements of this section, a qualified actuary shall be an associate or fellow of the casualty actuarial society and shall be independent of the company whose reserves the actuary has reviewed and analyzed and which is submitting the sworn actuarial certificate.

(3) Any insurer who fails to comply with the terms of this section shall pay a civil penalty of ten thousand dollars and a fine of two hundred dollars for every day thereafter until the insurer complies with this section.

(4) It is the duty of the commissioner to maintain for at least six years by carrier all reports submitted by insurers pursuant to rules and regulations promulgated by the commissioner under this section. The commissioner shall consider these reports in determining the appropriateness of premium rates for various types of insurance in this state.

(5) In order to make the administration of rate regulatory laws uniform, the commissioner and every insurer and rating organization may exchange information and loss experience data.

(6) The commissioner shall promulgate regulations to effect rate reductions or credits for insureds who implement plans pursuant to article 14.5 of title 8, C.R.S.

(7) This section shall not apply to insurers providing coverage for exempt commercial policyholders, as defined pursuant to section 10-4-1402 and rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to that section.

(2) Subsection (6) was numbered as subsection (7) in HB 90-1212 but was renumbered on revision for proper placement in the section as repealed and reenacted by HB 90-1214.

10-4-404.5. Rating plans - property and casualty type II insurers - rules. (1) The commissioner may promulgate rules for type II insurers that establish reasonable standards for rating plans, including experience rating plans, schedule rating plans, and expense reduction plans, and that are designed to modify rates in the development of premiums for individual risks insured in the property and casualty insurance market. Such rules may permit recognition of expected differences in loss and expense characteristics and shall be designed so that such plans are reasonable and equitable in their application and are not unfairly discriminatory. Such rules shall not prevent the development of new rating methods that would otherwise comply with this part 4. The rules may establish maximum charges against and credits to the experience rating of an insured that may result from the application of a rating plan. The rules may encourage the use of loss control programs, safety programs, and other methods of risk management and may require insurers to maintain documentation of the basis for the charges and credits applied under any plan. The rules may also require the rating plans to include merit rating to the extent feasible.

(2) This section shall not apply to insurers providing coverage for exempt commercial policyholders, as defined pursuant to section 10-4-1402 and rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to that section.

10-4-405. Filing of rating information - certain coverages. (1) With respect to type I kinds of insurance as defined in section 10-4-401 (3) (a), every insurer shall file with the commissioner every manual of classifications, rules, and rates, every rating plan, and every modification of any of the foregoing which it proposes to use in this state.

(2) (a) Every filing shall state the proposed effective date thereof and shall indicate the character and extent of the coverage contemplated. Filings regarding workers' compensation insurance rates shall be filed on or before August 1 of any calendar year. When a filing is not accompanied by the information upon which the insurer supports the filing and the commissioner does not have sufficient information to determine whether the filing meets the requirements of this part 4, he shall, within fifteen days after the date of filing, require the insurer to furnish the information upon which it supports the filing, and in such event the waiting period provided for in section 10-4-406 (2) shall commence as of the date such information is furnished.

(b) The information furnished in support of a filing may include: The experience or judgment of the insurer or rating organization making the filing; its interpretation of any statistical data it relied upon; the experience of other insurers or rating organizations; or any other factors which the insurer or rating organization deems relevant.

(3) A filing and any supporting information shall be open to public inspection at the division of insurance.

(4) An insurer may satisfy its obligation to make such filings by becoming a member of, or a subscriber to, a licensed rating organization which makes such filings and by authorizing the commissioner to accept such filings in its behalf; but nothing contained in this title shall be construed as requiring any insurer to become a member of, or a subscriber to, any rating organization.

(5) Upon the written application of the insured, stating his reasons therefor, filed with and approved by the commissioner, a rate in excess of that provided by filing, otherwise applicable, may be used on any specific risk, and such application shall not be subject to any of the provisions of section 10-4-406.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 10-4-304 as it existed prior to 1979.

10-4-406. Review of filings - certain coverages. (1) Upon receipt of filings required under the provisions of section 10-4-405 (1), the commissioner shall review, or cause to be reviewed, the same as soon as reasonably possible after they have been made in order to determine whether they meet the requirements of this part 4.

(2) A filing which the commissioner has placed on file for public inspection, shall so remain on file for fifteen days (counting such filing date as the first day of such public inspection period) and shall not be approved, disapproved, or become effective during such fifteen-day period except after a public hearing. If not theretofore approved or disapproved after a public hearing thereon, or affirmatively approved or disapproved by the commissioner on the sixteenth day after the filing was so placed on file for public inspection, the filing shall be deemed approved as of 12:01 a.m. on such sixteenth day, unless within such fifteen-day period the commissioner concludes it to be in the public interest to hold a public hearing to determine whether the filing meets the requirements of this part 4 and gives notice of such hearing to the insurer or rating organization that made the filing, in which case the effectiveness of the filing shall be subject to the further order of the commissioner.

(2.5) For any filing made pursuant to section 10-4-405 for workers' compensation and employer's liability insurance incidental thereto and written in connection therewith, and where the commissioner determines that it is necessary to use the services authorized in subsection (3.5) of this section, the commissioner shall have a reasonable time not to exceed sixty days to review or inspect the filing after it is determined to be complete and before the filing shall be considered placed on file pursuant to subsection (2) of this section. The commissioner shall place on file for public inspection the results of any review or examination performed pursuant to subsection (3.5) of this section.

(3) An insurer or rating organization may, at the time it makes a filing with the commissioner, request a public hearing thereon. In such event the commissioner shall forthwith place the filing on file in his office for public inspection, and shall give notice of the hearing, and shall otherwise hold and conduct the hearing as provided in section 10-4-407; and the effectiveness of the filing shall be subject to the commissioner's order made following the hearing.

(3.5) If the commissioner determines that it is reasonably necessary, the commissioner may cause the filing to be reviewed or examined by actuaries, accountants, insurance experts, or any other person at the discretion of the commissioner. The reasonable costs of any such review or examination shall be paid by the rating organization, advisory organization, or group, association, or insurer submitting the filing for approval.

(4) (a) If any such filing results in a change in premium rate as to assigned risk motor vehicle insurance, the commissioner shall, coincidentally with placing the filing on file in his office for public inspection as provided in this section, inform two established news agencies having offices at Denver thereof by mailing, postage prepaid, to each of said news agencies a notice of such filing. Such notice shall read as follows:

Notice of assigned risk motor vehicle insurance rate filing, pursuant to section 10-4-406 (4), Colorado Revised Statutes, is hereby given by the commissioner of insurance that a rate change has been filed by:

Name of insurance company

Type of property affected

Type of insurance coverage

Nature of rate change

Date of filing

Dated and signed at Denver, Colorado, this ( ) day of (month), 20....

By: .....

Commissioner of Insurance

The commissioner shall certify in writing as to the mailing of the aforesaid notices to such news agencies, and a copy of the certificate shall be made part of the commissioner's records pertaining to such filings. The effectiveness of any such filing or action of the commissioner relative thereto shall not be affected by failure of the commissioner so to inform any particular news agency.

(b) It is the intent of this subsection (4) that the sending of said notice is the responsibility of the commissioner and not of the company or rating organization requesting the rate change.

(5) (a) If the commissioner approves a filing, he or she shall give prompt notice thereof to the insurer or rating organization that made the filing. The filing shall become effective upon such subsequent date as may be satisfactory to the commissioner and the insurer or rating organization that made the filing; except that rates for workers' compensation insurance shall become effective on January 1 unless the commissioner, upon application, makes a finding upon good cause shown that a later date is necessary or appropriate for the implementation of such filing.

(b) If the filing is deemed approved in the absence of affirmative action by the commissioner, as provided in subsection (2) of this section, it shall become effective upon such subsequent date as may be satisfactory to the commissioner and the insurer or rating organization that made the filing; except that rates for workers' compensation insurance shall become effective on January 1 unless the commissioner, upon application, makes a finding upon good cause shown that a later date is necessary or appropriate for the implementation of such filing.

(c) If the commissioner disapproves a filing, he shall promptly give notice of such action to the insurer or rating organization that made the filing, stating the respects in which the filing does not meet the requirements of this part 4.

ANNOTATION

Applied in Barnes v. District Court, 199 Colo. 310, 607 P.2d 1008 (1980).

10-4-407. Hearings. (1) If, pursuant to section 10-4-406 (2), the commissioner determines to hold a public hearing as to a filing or holds such a public hearing pursuant to request therefor under section 10-4-406 (3), he shall give written notice thereof to the rating organization or insurer that made the filing, shall hold such hearing within thirty days after commencement of the public inspection period provided for in section 10-4-406 (3), and, not less than ten days prior to the date of the hearing, he shall give written notice of the hearing to the insurer or rating organization that made the filing. The commissioner may also give advance public notice of such hearing by publication of notice in one or more daily newspapers of general circulation in this state.

(2) If the commissioner's order disapproves the filing, the rate change shall not be placed into effect. If the commissioner's order approves the filing or any portion thereof, the approved rate filing shall become effective upon such subsequent date as may be satisfactory to the insurer or rating organization that made the filing; except that rates for workers' compensation insurance shall become effective on January 1 unless the commissioner, upon application, makes a finding upon good cause shown that a later date is necessary or appropriate for the implementation of such filing.

(3) Any person aggrieved by the approval by the commissioner of a rate filing may make written application to the commissioner for a hearing thereon, and such application shall specify the grounds to be relied upon by the applicant. If the commissioner finds that the application is made in good faith, that the applicant would be so aggrieved if his grounds are established, and that such grounds otherwise justify holding such a hearing, he shall hold a hearing as provided in sections 24-4-102 to 24-4-107, C.R.S.

(4) Any insurer or rating organization aggrieved by an order or decision of the commissioner made without a hearing may, within thirty days after notice of the order or decision to the insurer or rating organization, make written application to the commissioner for a hearing thereon. The commissioner shall hold a hearing as provided in sections 24-4-102 to 24-4-107, C.R.S. Within fifteen days after such hearing, the commissioner shall affirm, reverse, or modify his previous action, specifying his reasons therefor. Pending such hearing and decision thereon, the commissioner may suspend or postpone the effective date of his previous action.

(5) Hearings held under this part 4 shall be held by the commissioner or his designee. Any final action of the commissioner pursuant to this part 4 shall be subject to judicial review by the court of appeals pursuant to section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former §§ 10-4-318 and 10-4-403 as they existed prior to 1979.

ANNOTATION

This section provides for two types of hearings: A quasi-legislative, public hearing to evaluate rate filings, and an individual, quasi-judicial hearing. An application for a quasi-judicial hearing must be granted by the commissioner if the commissioner finds that: (1) The application is made in good faith; (2) the applicant would be aggrieved if the facts alleged are true; and (3) those grounds otherwise justify holding such a hearing. D & B Enters., Inc. v. Commissioner of Ins., 919 P.2d 935 (Colo. App. 1996).

The applicant must meet all of the above criteria in order to be entitled to a quasi-judicial hearing. And the applicant's status as "aggrieved" did not entitle applicant to such hearing, since the application lacked sufficient grounds and thus did not meet all three criteria. D & B Enters., Inc. v. Commissioner of Ins., 919 P.2d 935 (Colo. App. 1996).

Applicants did not assert sufficient grounds in requesting a hearing where the issue to be heard was whether reductions in insurance rates should apply to outstanding policies instead of being limited to new and renewed policies. D & B Enters., Inc. v. Commissioner of Ins., 919 P.2d 935 (Colo. App. 1996).

Applicants were not denied due process rights as they could not establish that they had a constitutionally protected right to receive a lower insurance rate or maintain parity with other employers. Any deprivation that may have occurred was a result of quasi-legislative action, and neither the constitution nor this section require notice. D & B Enters., Inc. v. Commissioner of Ins., 919 P.2d 935 (Colo. App. 1996).

As commissioner's order was subject to review, applicants were not denied access to the courts guaranteed by the state constitution. D & B Enters., Inc. v. Commissioner of Ins., 919 P.2d 935 (Colo. App. 1996).

Applied in Barnes v. District Court, 199 Colo. 310, 607 P.2d 1008 (1980).

10-4-408. Rating organization - study of workers' compensation rates - premium reductions - adoption of rules. (1) A corporation, an unincorporated association, a partnership, or an individual, whether located within or outside this state, may make application to the commissioner for a license as a rating organization for such kinds of insurance or subdivisions thereof as are specified in its application and shall file therewith:

(a) A copy of its constitution, its articles of agreement or association or its certificate of incorporation, and its bylaws, rules, and regulations governing the conduct of its business;

(b) A list of its members and subscribers;

(c) The name and address of a resident of this state upon whom notices or orders of the commissioner or process affecting such rating organization may be served; and

(d) A statement of its qualifications as a rating organization.

(2) If the commissioner finds that the applicant is competent, trustworthy, and otherwise qualified to act as a rating organization and that its constitution, articles of agreement or association or its certificate of incorporation, and its bylaws, rules, and regulations governing the conduct of its business conform to the requirements of law, the commissioner shall issue a license specifying the kinds of insurance or subdivisions thereof for which the applicant is authorized to act as a rating organization. Every such application shall be granted or denied in whole or in part by the commissioner within sixty days after the date of its filing. Licenses issued pursuant to this section shall remain in effect for three years unless sooner suspended or revoked by the commissioner. The fee for said license shall be twenty-five dollars; except that the commissioner by rule or as otherwise provided by law may reduce the amount of the fee if necessary pursuant to section 24-75-402 (3), C.R.S., to reduce the uncommitted reserves of the fund to which all or any portion of the fee is credited. After the uncommitted reserves of the fund are sufficiently reduced, the commissioner by rule or as otherwise provided by law may increase the amount of the fee as provided in section 24-75-402 (4), C.R.S.

(3) Licenses issued pursuant to this section may be suspended or revoked by the commissioner, after hearing upon notice, in the event the rating organization ceases to meet the requirements of this section.

(4) Every rating organization shall notify the commissioner promptly of every change in:

(a) Its constitution, its articles of agreement or association or its certificate of incorporation, and its bylaws, rules, and regulations governing the conduct of its business;

(b) Its list of members and subscribers;

(c) The name and address of the resident of this state designated by it upon whom notices or orders of the commissioner or process affecting such rating organization may be served.

(5) (a) The commissioner shall organize a working group composed of representatives of employer and employee organizations, regulatory agencies, and the insurance industry including, but not limited to, representatives of businesses insured for worker's compensation in the state of Colorado and an insurance actuary to study issues concerning workers' compensation rates, including, but not limited to, definitions of excessive, inadequate, and discriminatory rates, profits, expenses, and loss-ratio standards for insurance companies, and powers the commissioner should have concerning the rate-setting process.

(b) The commissioner and the working group shall also review the appropriateness of allowing insurance carriers to provide up-front premium discounts as opposed to providing only premium dividends to insureds based on participation in risk-management programs.

(c) The commissioner shall promulgate rules and regulations which establish standards for risk-management services which shall be offered by community, technical, or junior colleges or by insurance carriers offering workers' compensation insurance pursuant to articles 40 to 47 of title 8, C.R.S. Business entities which accept such risk-management services and comply with the standards established by the commissioner shall be entitled to a premium dividend if any such business entity's loss experience under the risk-management program indicates such premium dividend is warranted. In developing such rules and regulations, the commissioner shall consider the information developed by the workers' compensation cost-containment board. In such rules and regulations, the commissioner shall require insurance carriers to inform policyholders in a clear and conspicuous manner of the availability of cost containment certification by the workers' compensation cost containment board pursuant to section 8-14.5-107, C.R.S.

(d) The commissioner shall promulgate rules and regulations which establish that all insurance companies in this state offering workers' compensation insurance pursuant to articles 40 to 47 of title 8, C.R.S., shall provide a premium differential on all policies when the policyholder has selected an authorized treating physician or physicians. Such premium differential shall be clearly stated to all policyholders in an appropriate communication medium on an annual basis.

(e) On or before October 1, 1994, the commissioner shall promulgate rules which establish, for purposes of section 8-44-115, C.R.S., standards for determining:

(I) When a motor vehicle accident has not been caused, wholly or in part, by an employee or the employer of such employee;

(II) A loss limitation to be included in the calculation of workers' compensation insurance experience modifications when a motor vehicle accident has not been caused, wholly or in part, by an employee or the employer of such employee;

(III) The distribution, among workers' compensation classifications, of any loss remaining after deduction of the loss limitation established under subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (e); and

(IV) (A) When the use of a motor vehicle is an integral part of an employer's business.

(B) Rules promulgated pursuant to this subparagraph (IV) shall be based on the job classification system for workers' compensation insurance in use on January 1, 1994.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 10-4-306 as it existed prior to 1979.

10-4-409. Rates furnished - cooperation among organizations. (1) Subject to rules and regulations which are approved by the commissioner as reasonable, each rating organization shall permit any insurer, not a member, to be a subscriber to its rating services for any kind of insurance or subdivision thereof for which it is authorized to act as a rating organization. Notice of proposed changes in such rules and regulations shall be given to subscribers. Each rating organization shall furnish its rating services without discrimination to its members and subscribers. The reasonableness of any rule or regulation in its application to subscribers or the refusal of any rating organization to admit an insurer as a subscriber, at the request of any subscriber or any such insurer, shall be reviewed by the commissioner at a hearing held upon at least ten days' written notice to such rating organization and to such subscriber or insurer. If the commissioner finds that such rule or regulation is unreasonable in its application to subscribers, he shall order that such rule or regulation shall not be applicable to subscribers. If the rating organization fails to grant or reject an insurer's application for subscribership within thirty days after it is made, the insurer may request a review by the commissioner as if the application has been rejected. If the commissioner finds that the insurer has been refused admittance to the rating organization as a subscriber without justification, he shall order the rating organization to admit the insurer as a subscriber. If he finds that the action of the rating organization is justified, he shall make an order affirming its action.

(2) No rating organization shall adopt any rule the effect of which would prohibit or regulate the payment of dividends, savings, or unabsorbed premium deposits allowed or returned by insurers to their policyholders, members, or subscribers.

(3) Cooperation among rating organizations or among rating organizations and insurers in rate-making or in other matters within the scope of this part 4 is authorized, if the rates resulting from such cooperation are subject to all the provisions of this part 4 which are applicable to rates generally. The commissioner may review such cooperative activities and practices and if, after a hearing, he finds that any such activity or practice is unfair or unreasonable or otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of this part 4, he may issue a written order specifying in what respects such activity or practice is unfair or unreasonable or otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of this part 4 and requiring the discontinuance of such activity or practice.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 10-4-307 as it existed prior to 1979.

10-4-410. Advisory organizations. (1) Every advisory organization shall file with the commissioner a copy of its constitution, its articles of agreement or association or its certificate of incorporation, and its bylaws, rules, and regulations governing its activities, a list of its members, the name and address of a resident of this state upon whom notices or orders of the commissioner or process issued at his direction may be served, and an agreement that the commissioner may examine such advisory organization in accordance with the provisions of section 10-4-414.

(2) If, after hearing, the commissioner finds that the furnishing of such information or assistance involves any act or practice which is unfair or unreasonable or otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of this part 4, he may issue a written order specifying in what respects such act or practice is unfair or unreasonable or otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of this part 4 and requiring the discontinuance of such act or practice.

10-4-411. Joint underwriting. (1) Every group, association, or other organization of insurers which engages in joint reinsurance or joint underwriting shall be subject to regulation with respect thereto as provided in this part 4.

(2) If, after a hearing, the commissioner finds that any activity or practice of any such group, association, or other organization is unfair or unreasonable or otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of this part 4, he may issue a written order specifying in what respects such activity or practice is unfair or unreasonable or otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of this part 4 and requiring the discontinuance of such activity or practice.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 10-4-312 as it existed prior to 1979.

10-4-412. Assigned risk motor vehicle insurance. (1) The commissioner may, after consultation with the insurers licensed to write motor vehicle insurance in this state, establish or approve a reasonable plan, and rules governing the same, for the equitable apportionment among such insurers of applicants for such insurance who are in good faith entitled to but are unable to procure insurance through ordinary methods, and, when such plan has been approved, all such insurers shall subscribe thereto and shall participate therein. Any applicant for such insurance, any person insured under such plan, and any insurer affected may appeal to the commissioner from any ruling or decision of the manager or committee designated to operate such plan.

(2) If an insurer admitted to transact motor vehicle insurance fails to subscribe to the plan or to any amendments thereto or fails to comply with the rules of the plan, the commissioner shall give ten days' written notice to such insurer to so subscribe or so comply. If such insurer fails to comply with such notice, the commissioner, after hearing, may suspend the certificate of authority of such insurer to transact insurance business in this state until such insurer so complies.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 10-4-316 as it existed prior to 1979.

10-4-413. Records required to be maintained. (1) Every insurer, rating organization, or advisory organization and every group, association, or other organization of insurers which engages in joint underwriting or joint reinsurance shall maintain reasonable records, of the type and kind reasonably adapted to its method of operation, of its experience or the experience of its members and of the data, statistics, or information collected or used by it in connection with the rates, rating plans, rating systems, underwriting rules, policy or bond forms, surveys, or inspections made or used by it, so that such records will be available at all reasonable times to enable the commissioner to determine whether such organization, insurer, group, or association and, in the case of an insurer or rating organization, every rate, rating plan, and rating system made or used by it complies with the provisions of this part 4 applicable to it. The maintenance of such records in the office of a licensed rating organization of which an insurer is a member or subscriber will be sufficient compliance with this section for any insurer maintaining membership or subscribership in such organization to the extent that the insurer uses the rates, rating plans, rating systems, or underwriting rules of such organization. Such records shall be maintained in an office within this state or shall be made available for examination or inspection by the commissioner at any time, upon reasonable notice.

(2) All records of any such organization or individual insurer dealing with workers' compensation and employer's liability insurance incidental thereto and written in connection therewith shall be subject to the requirements of article 44 of title 8, C.R.S., concerning the filing of its system of rates.

10-4-414. Examinations.

(2) The commissioner may, at any reasonable time, make or cause to be made an examination of every admitted insurer transacting any class of insurance to which the provisions of this part 4 are applicable to ascertain whether such insurer and every rate and rating system used by it for every such class of insurance complies with the requirements and standards of this title applicable thereto. Such examination need not be a part of a periodic general examination participated in by representatives of more than one state.

(3) The officers, managers, agents, and employees of any such organization, group, association, or insurer may be examined at any time under oath and shall exhibit all books, records, accounts, documents, or agreements governing its method of operation, together with all data, statistics, and information of every kind and character collected or considered by such organization, group, association, or insurer in the conduct of the operations to which such examination relates.

(4) The commissioner may conduct such examination on the basis of concern for an insurer's solvency or the complaint of a person claiming to be aggrieved or to ascertain compliance by insurers and rating organizations with the requirements of this part 4.

(5) Filed reports on examinations shall be available for public inspection at the division of insurance.

(6) This section shall not apply to insurers providing coverage for exempt commercial policyholders, as defined pursuant to section 10-4-1402 and rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to that section.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 10-4-313 as it existed prior to 1979.

10-4-415. Prohibition against anticompetitive behavior. (1) (a) No insurer or rating organization shall monopolize or attempt to monopolize, or combine or conspire with any other person to monopolize, in any territory, the business of insurance of any kind, subdivision, or class thereof.

(b) No insurer or rating organization shall agree with any other insurer or rating organization to charge or adhere to any rate, although insurers and rating organizations may continue to exchange statistical information.

(c) No insurer or rating organization shall make any agreement with any other insurer, rating organization, or other person to restrain trade.

(d) No insurer or rating organization shall make any agreement with any other insurer, rating organization, or other person the effect of which may be substantially to lessen competition in any territory or in any kind, subdivision, or class of insurance.

(e) No insurer may acquire or retain any capital stock or assets of, or have any common management with, any other insurer if the effect of such acquisition, retention, or common management may be substantially to lessen competition in any territory or in any kind, subdivision, or class of insurance.

(f) No insurer or rating organization shall make any agreement with any other insurer or rating organization to refuse to deal with any person in connection with the sale of insurance.

(g) No rating organization or member or subscriber thereof shall interfere with the right of any insurer to make its rates independently of such rating organization or to charge rates different from the rates made by such rating organization.

(h) No member of or subscriber to a rating organization shall refuse to do business with, or prohibit or prevent the payment of commissions to, any licensed agent or broker on the ground that such agent or broker does business with an insurer which makes its rates, or any portion thereof, independently of such rating organization.

(i) Nothing in this part 4 shall be construed as requiring any insurer to become a member of or a subscriber to any rating organization, or as preventing any insurer, while a member of or subscriber to a rating organization, from making its own rates for any kind, subdivision, or class of insurance, for which it does not elect to authorize the rating organization to act on its behalf.

(j) Any insurer which is a member of or subscriber to a rating organization may make its own rates for any kind, subdivision, or class of insurance. No rating organization shall have authority to act on behalf of any insurer which is a member of or subscriber to such rating organization except as authorized in writing by such member or subscriber, which authority may be supplemented, modified, or revoked, in whole or in part, at any time by such member or subscriber at its option.

(k) No rating organization shall have or adopt any rule or exact any agreement, or formulate or engage in any program, the effect of which would be to require any member, subscriber, or other insurer to utilize some or all of its services, or to adhere to its rates, rating plans, rating systems, underwriting rules, or policy forms, or to prevent any insurer from acting independently.

(2) (a) The commissioner, through the attorney general, and any person injured in his business or property by reason of anything forbidden in subsection (1) of this section may maintain an action to enjoin any violation of such subsection (1).

(b) Any person injured in his business or property by reason of anything forbidden in subsection (1) of this section may maintain an action and shall be able to recover punitive damages not to exceed actual monetary loss and expense.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 10-4-404 as it existed prior to 1979.

10-4-416. Prohibiting changes in rates or coverages. In any case involving insurance subject to this part 4 on which an insured has prepaid a premium for the issuance of a policy of insurance for a specified policy period, the insurer shall not increase unilaterally, during said policy period, the rate charged nor decrease the coverage benefits provided unless there is a change in risk during the policy term attributable to any act or acts of the insured or the risk to be insured was misrepresented by the insured. This section shall not prohibit cancellation of a policy for any reason otherwise permitted by the policy or by law during an initial policy period of not to exceed sixty days.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 10-4-315 as it existed prior to 1979.

10-4-417. False or misleading information. No person or organization shall willfully withhold information from, or knowingly give false or misleading information to, the commissioner, any statistical agency designated by the commissioner, any rating organization, or any insurer which will affect the rates or premiums chargeable under this part 4.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 10-4-214 as it existed prior to 1979.

10-4-418. Enforcement procedures - penalties. (1) Any person aggrieved by any rate charged, rating plan, rating system, underwriting rule, policy form, certificate, or contract of insurance or rider followed or adopted by an insurer, advisory organization, or rating organization may request the insurer, advisory organization, or rating organization to review the manner in which the rate, plan, system, rule, form, certificate, or contract or rider has been applied with respect to insurance afforded him. Such request may be made by his authorized representative and shall be written. If the request is not granted within thirty days after it is made, it may be treated as rejected. Any person aggrieved by the action of an insurer, advisory organization, or rating organization in refusing the review requested or in failing or refusing to grant all or part of the relief requested may file a written complaint and request for hearing with the commissioner, specifying the grounds relied upon. If the commissioner finds that probable cause for the complaint does not exist or that the complaint is not made in good faith, he shall deny the hearing; however, if he finds that the complaint charges a violation of this title and that the complainant would be aggrieved if the violation is proven, he shall proceed as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(2) (a) If, after examination or inspection of an insurer, rating organization, advisory organization, or group, association, or other organization of insurers which engages in joint underwriting or joint reinsurance, or upon the basis of other information, or upon sufficient complaint as provided in subsection (1) of this section, the commissioner has good cause to believe that such insurer, organization, group, or association, or any rate, rating plan, rating system, underwriting rule, policy form, certificate, contract of insurance or rider, made or used by any such insurer, advisory organization, or rating organization, or proposals thereof made by advisory or rating organizations does not comply with the applicable requirements and standards of this title, he shall, unless he has good cause to believe that such noncompliance is willful, give notice in writing to such insurer, organization, group, or association, stating therein in what manner and to what extent such noncompliance is alleged to exist and specifying therein a reasonable time, not less than ten days thereafter, in which such noncompliance shall be corrected. Notices and filings of underwriting rules required under this section shall be confidential as between the commissioner and the parties.

(b) The commissioner shall not find that a policy form, certificate, or contract of insurance or rider does not comply with the applicable requirements and standards of this title on the ground that it excludes coverage of claims made by a member of a household against another member of the same household. Such exclusions are in conformity with the public policy of this state.

(c) Repealed.

(3) (a) If the commissioner has good cause to believe that such noncompliance is willful or if, within the period prescribed by the commissioner in the notice required by subsection (2) of this section, the insurer, organization, group, or association does not make such changes as may be necessary to correct the noncompliance specified by the commissioner or establish to the satisfaction of the commissioner that such specified noncompliance does not exist, the commissioner may hold a public hearing in connection therewith. Within a reasonable period of time, not less than ten days before the date of such hearing, he shall mail a written notice of the hearing to such insurer, organization, group, or association. The notice given under this subsection (3) shall state in what manner and to what extent noncompliance is alleged to exist and the matters to be considered at such hearing. The hearing shall not include subjects not specified in the notice. The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with section 24-4-105, C.R.S., and the commissioner shall have all the powers granted in said section.

(b) Any insurer, rating organization, advisory organization, or group, association, or other organization of insurers which engages in joint underwriting or joint reinsurance aggrieved by an order or decision of the commissioner made without a hearing may, within thirty days after notice of the order or decision to the corporation, make written application to the commissioner for a hearing thereon. The commissioner shall hold a hearing as provided in the applicable provisions of article 4 of title 24, C.R.S. Within fourteen days after such hearing, the commissioner shall affirm, reverse, or modify his previous action, specifying his reasons therefor.

(4) If, after a hearing pursuant to subsection (3) of this section, the commissioner finds:

(a) That any rate, rating plan, or rating system violates the provisions of this title applicable to it, the commissioner may issue an order to the insurer or rating organization which has been the subject of the hearing, specifying in what respects such violation exists and stating when, within a reasonable period of time, the further use of such rate or rating system by such insurer or rating organization in contracts of insurance made thereafter shall be prohibited. In such order the commissioner may require the excess premium plus a maximum of eighteen percent interest to be refunded to the policyholder. The amount of the refund, plus interest, shall be computed from the effective date of the rate used on the individual policyholder contract to the commencement date of the hearing on the rate. Interest shall be computed as simple interest per annum.

(b) That an insurer, rating organization, advisory organization, or group, association, or other organization of insurers which engages in joint underwriting or joint reinsurance is in violation of the provisions of this title applicable to it, other than the provisions dealing with rates, rating plans, or rating systems, he may issue an order to such insurer, organization, group, or association which has been the subject of the hearing, specifying in what respects such violation exists and requiring compliance within a specified time thereafter;

(c) That any policy form, policy, certificate, contract of insurance or rider, or any portion or any proposal thereof made by advisory or rating organizations contains any provision or style of presentation which is deceptive or misleading or renders its use hazardous to the public or the policyholders or otherwise does not comply with the requirements of law, he may issue an order to such insurer, organization, group, or association which has been the subject of the hearing, prohibiting the further use of any such form in this state;

(d) That the violation of any of the provisions of this title applicable to it by any insurer or rating organization which has been the subject of hearing was willful, he may suspend or revoke, in whole or in part, the certificate of authority of such insurer or the license of such rating organization with respect to the class of insurance which has been the subject matter of the hearing;

(e) That any rating organization has willfully engaged in any fraudulent or dishonest act or practice, he may suspend or revoke, in whole or in part, the license of such organization in addition to any other penalty provided in this title.

(5) In addition to other remedies or penalties provided by law:

(a) The commissioner may suspend or revoke, in whole or in part, the license of any rating organization or the certificate of authority of any insurer which fails to comply with an order of the commissioner within the time limited by such order. The commissioner shall not suspend or revoke the license or certificate of authority for failure to comply with an order until the time prescribed for an appeal therefrom has expired or, if an appeal has been taken, until such order has been affirmed. The commissioner may determine when a suspension or revocation of license or certificate of authority shall become effective. An order of suspension shall remain in effect for the period fixed by the commissioner, unless he modifies or rescinds such suspension or until the order upon which such suspension is based is modified, rescinded, or reversed. No license shall be suspended or revoked except upon a written order of the commissioner, stating his findings, made after a hearing held upon not less than ten days' written notice to such person or organization specifying the alleged violation.

(b) If a failure to comply with an order of the commissioner within the time limited by such order is willful, the rating organization or insurer shall be liable to the state in an amount not exceeding five thousand dollars for such failure. The commissioner shall collect the amount so payable and may bring a civil action in the name of the people of the state of Colorado to enforce collection. Such penalty may be in addition to the remedy provided in paragraph (a) of this subsection (5). All moneys collected by the commissioner under this paragraph (b) shall be paid into the general fund of the state of Colorado.

(6) Any findings, determination, rule, ruling, or order made by the commissioner shall be subject to judicial review by the court of appeals, and proceedings on review shall be in accordance with the provisions of section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S.

(7) This section shall apply to insurers providing coverage for exempt commercial policyholders, as defined pursuant to section 10-4-1402 and rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to that section, that the commissioner determines to be anticompetitive, as described in section 10-4-415.

Nor do they violate policy holders' right to equal protection guaranteed by the Colorado and United States constitutions. Allstate v. Feghali, 814 P.2d 863 (Colo. 1991).

Nor do they transform automobile defined in insurance policy as an "insured automobile" into an "uninsured automobile" for purpose of allowing insured to receive uninsured motorist benefits. Allstate v. Feghali, 814 P.2d 863 (Colo. 1991); Mayo v. Nat'l Farmers Union Prop. & Cas. Co., 833 P.2d 54 (Colo. 1992).

Nor do they infringe upon fundamental right to travel. Mayo v. Nat'l Farmers Union, 833 P.2d 54 (Colo. 1992).

Household exclusion clause in automobile insurance policies issued before effective date of this section is unenforceable. The provision in this section stating that exclusion clauses are compatible with state public policy applies prospectively. People v. Dillings, 884 P.2d 275 (Colo. 1994).

Use of the phrase "claims made by a member of a household against another member of the same household" in subsection (2)(b) evidences a clear intent to permit "household exclusions", but this language does not redeem a separate "named insured exclusion." Dotson v. Pearson, 903 P.2d 19 (Colo. App. 1994), aff'd, 913 P.2d 27 (Colo. 1996).

10-4-419. Claims-made policy forms. (1) No insurer shall use or issue any policy, certificate, or contract of insurance or any portion thereof which provides coverage on a claims-made basis unless it has been certified by the insurer and the insurer has filed a certification with the commissioner that such policy endorsement or disclosure form or any portion thereof which provides coverage on a claims-made basis conforms to Colorado law pursuant to subsection (2) of this section and any rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to subsection (3) of this section.

(2) A claims-made policy shall not be delivered or issued for delivery to any person in this state unless:

(a) The insurer defines the nature of the risks or exposures to be insured on the claims-made policy;

(b) (I) The policy contains clear and adequate disclosure and alerts the insured to the fact that the policy is a claims-made policy and explains the unique features distinguishing it from an occurrence policy and relating to renewal, extended reporting periods, and coverage of occurrences with long periods of exposure. The commissioner shall promulgate regulations which establish proof of delivery and acceptance thereof by the policyholder and set forth the contents and format of the minimum disclosures required under this article.

(II) Such disclosures shall include:

(A) A description of the principal benefits and coverage provided in the policy;

(B) A statement of the exceptions, reductions, and limitations contained in the policy;

(C) A statement of the renewal provisions including any reservation by the insurer of a right to change premiums;

(D) A statement that the outline of coverage is a summary of the policy issued or applied for and that the policy should be consulted to determine governing contractual provisions.

(c) The policy clearly defines the events and conditions which trigger coverage and defines when and how a claim is deemed to be made or is deemed made;

(d) The policy offers, at the insured's option, the purchase of an extended reporting period of at least one year for claims not filed during the policy period. The premium may not exceed two hundred percent of the expiring policy premium unless the adjusted premium is determined by the commissioner to be inadequate based upon section 10-4-403 and based upon an opinion of a qualified actuary submitted on behalf of the insurer.

(e) The policy requires insurers to furnish policyholders, upon their request and within thirty days thereafter, sufficient information about closed or paid claims, claims for which the company has established reserves, and claims for which the company has received notices of occurrences which could give rise to claims to allow the insured to determine how much of his aggregate coverage remains available under the policy;

(f) The insured approves and acknowledges, by signature on the written endorsement, any exclusionary endorsement which excludes coverage in a renewal period for claims from certain known occurrences, events, products, or locations;

(g) All persons engaged in the sale, consultation, or adjustment of the claims-made policy have been trained and certified pursuant to the standards and procedures set forth in regulations promulgated by the commissioner.

(3) (a) The commissioner may prohibit the use of a claims-made liability policy if the policy does not contain one or more of the following policy provisions:

(I) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2000, p. 466, § 5, effective August 2, 2000.)

(II) A policy provision that, in the event of cancellation or nonrenewal for any reason, the policy guarantees the insured the right of a sixty-day period to purchase coverage for an extended reporting period as provided in subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (a); or

(III) A policy provision that, at the insured's option, the insured may purchase coverage for an extended reporting period of at least the length of time of exposure under the applicable statute of limitation.

(IV) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2000, p. 466, § 5, effective August 2, 2000.)

(b) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2000, p. 466, § 5, effective August 2, 2000.)

(4) If a standardized claims-made policy form, proposed by a rating or advisory organization, has been filed with the commissioner and certified by the rating or advisory organization to be in compliance with statutory mandates, an insurer may utilize such a form.

(5) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires, "claims-made policy" means a policy of liability insurance that provides coverage for those claims that are made or reported to the insurance carrier, as is required in the policy, during the term of the policy or for such extended reporting term for which coverage has been purchased. A "claims-made policy" may include coverage for events occurring before the current policy term.

(6) This section shall not apply to any public entity self-insurance pool formed pursuant to section 24-10-115.5, C.R.S., or to any policy, certificate, or contract of insurance offered or issued by an insurer to such a pool.

(6.5) This section shall not apply to insurers providing coverage for exempt commercial policyholders, as defined pursuant to section 10-4-1402 and rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to that section.

(7) All insurers providing insurance on a claims-made basis and who are authorized by the commissioner to conduct business in Colorado shall submit an annual report to the commissioner listing any policy form, endorsement, disclosure form, or any other evidence of coverage issued or delivered to any policyholder in Colorado. Such listing shall be submitted by July 15, 1993, and not later than July 1 of each subsequent year and shall contain a certification by an officer of the organization that each policy form, endorsement, or disclosure form in use complies with Colorado law. The necessary elements of the certification shall be determined by the commissioner.

(8) All insurers providing insurance on a claims-made basis and who are authorized by the commissioner to conduct business in Colorado shall also submit to the commissioner a list of any new policy form, endorsement, or disclosure form at least thirty-one days before using such policy form, endorsement, or disclosure form. Such listing shall also contain a certification by an officer of the organization that each new policy form, endorsement, or disclosure form proposed to be used complies with Colorado law. The necessary elements of the certification shall be determined by the commissioner.

(9) The commissioner shall have the power to examine and investigate insurers authorized to conduct business in Colorado to determine whether claims-made policy forms, endorsements, or disclosure forms comply with the certification of the insurer and statutory mandates.

PART 5

COLORADO INSURANCE GUARANTY ASSOCIATION ACT

10-4-501. Short title. This part 5 shall be known and may be cited as the “Colorado Insurance Guaranty Association Act”.

10-4-502. Legislative declaration. The purposes of this part 5 are to provide a mechanism for the payment of covered claims under certain insurance policies, to avoid excessive delay in payment and financial loss to claimants or policyholders because of the insolvency of an insurer, to assist in the detection and prevention of insurer insolvencies, and to provide an association to assess the cost of such protection among insurers.

Source: L. 71: p. 756, § 1. C.R.S. 1963: § 72-34-2.

ANNOTATION

Intent to protect the public. In enacting the CIGA, the general assembly intended to protect the public and did not intend to hinder or foreclose its recovery by requiring a claimant to litigate to recover the full amount of the uninsured motorist coverage rather than entering into a settlement. The public and judicial policies in Colorado favor the settlement of such disputes.

Colo. Ins. Guar. Ass’n v. Harris, 827 P.2d 1139 (Colo. 1992).

Penalties are not “covered claims”; and, therefore, statutory penalties otherwise available to claimants under the workers’ compensation law may not be assessed against the association. Mosley v. Indus. Claim Appeals Office, 119 P.3d 576 (Colo. App. 2005).

10-4-503. Definitions. As used in this part 5, unless the context otherwise requires:

- (1) “Account” means any one of the three accounts created by section 10-4-506.
- (2) “Association” means the Colorado insurance guaranty association created under section 10-4-506.
- (3) “Commissioner” means the commissioner of insurance of this state.
- (4) (a) “Covered claim” means an unpaid claim, including one for unearned premiums:
  - (I) That arises out of and is within the coverage and not in excess of the applicable limits of an insurance policy to which this part 5 applies issued by an insurer if such insurer becomes an insolvent insurer after July 1, 1971; and
  - (II) With respect to which the claimant or insured is a resident of this state at the time of the insured event or the claim is a first-party claim for damage to property with a permanent location in this state.
- (b) “Covered claim” does not include:
  - (I) Any amount due any reinsurer, insurer, insurance pool, or underwriting association, as subrogation recoveries or otherwise; except that:
    - (A) A claim for any such amount asserted against a person insured under a policy issued by an insurer that has become insolvent and which claim would be a covered claim if it were not a claim by or for the benefit of a reinsurer, insurer, insurance pool, or underwriting association may be filed directly with the receiver or the insolvent insurer; and
    - (B) In no event may any such claim be asserted in any legal action against the insured of such insolvent insurer.
  - (II) A first-party claim by an insured whose net worth exceeds ten million dollars on December 31 of the year immediately preceding the date the insurer becomes an insolvent insurer. An insured’s net worth on such date includes the aggregate net worth of the insured and all of its subsidiaries as calculated on a consolidated basis.

(III) Any claim for incurred but not reported losses; except that nothing in this subparagraph (III) affects any covered claims or rights under this part 5.

(5) "Insolvent insurer" means an insurer licensed to transact insurance business in this state, either at the time the policy was issued or when the insured event occurred, and against whom an order of liquidation with a finding of insolvency has been entered by a court of competent jurisdiction in the insurer's state of domicile or of this state and which order of liquidation has not been stayed or been the subject of a writ of supersedeas or other comparable order.

(6) "Member insurer" means any person who writes any kind of insurance to which this part 5 applies under section 10-4-504, including the exchange of reciprocal or interinsurance contracts, and who is licensed to transact insurance business in this state.

(7) "Net direct written premiums" means direct gross premiums written in this state on insurance policies to which this part 5 applies, less return premiums thereon and dividends paid or credited to policyholders on such direct business. "Net direct written premiums" does not include premiums on contracts between insurers and reinsurers.

(8) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, association, or voluntary organization.

ANNOTATION

"Covered claim" is a claim that should have been paid by the insurer pursuant to the policy but for the insurer's insolvency. Barr v. Colo. Ins. Guar. Ass'n, 926 P.2d 102 (Colo. App. 1995).

Statutory limit per claim depends on terms of policy. Directors' liability in failing to investigate borrower resulted in one collective claim under insurance policy, and CIGA was obligated to pay statutory limits for only one claim on behalf of insolvent insurer. Barr v. Colo. Ins. Guar. Ass'n, 926 P.2d 102 (Colo. App. 1995).

10-4-504. Scope. This part 5 shall apply to all kinds of direct insurance, except life, title, surety, sickness and accident, disability, credit, mortgage guaranty, financial guaranty, and ocean marine insurance.

ANNOTATION

Applied in Colo. Ins. Guar. Ass'n v. Harris, 827 P.2d 1139 (Colo. 1992).

10-4-506. Colorado insurance guaranty association. There is created a nonprofit unincorporated legal entity to be known as the Colorado insurance guaranty association. All member insurers shall be and remain members of the association as a condition of their authority to transact insurance business in this state. The association shall perform its functions under a plan of operation established and approved under section 10-4-509 and shall exercise its powers through a board of directors established under section 10-4-507. For purposes of administration and assessment, the association shall be divided into three separate accounts: Workers' compensation insurance account; automobile insurance account; and the account for all other insurance to which this part 5 applies.

10-4-507. Board of directors. (1) The board of directors of the association shall consist of not less than five nor more than nine persons serving terms as established in the plan of operation. The members of the board shall be selected by member insurers, subject to the approval of the commissioner. Vacancies on the board shall be filled for the remaining period of the term in the same manner as initial appointments.

(2) In approving selections to the board, the commissioner shall consider among other things whether all member insurers are fairly represented.

(3) Members of the board may be reimbursed from the assets of the association for actual and necessary expenses incurred by them as members of the board of directors.

10-4-508. Powers and duties of association. (1) The association shall:

(a) (I) Be obligated to the extent of the covered claims existing prior to a determination of insolvency and arising within thirty days after the determination of insolvency, or before the policy expiration date, if less than thirty days after such determination, or before the insured replaces the policy or on request effects cancellation, if the insured does so within thirty days after such determination, but such obligation includes only that amount of each covered claim that is less than fifty thousand dollars; except that:

(A) For an order of liquidation with a finding of insolvency by a court of competent jurisdiction entered between July 1, 1988, and August 10, 2011, such obligation includes only that amount of each covered claim that is less than one hundred thousand dollars;

(B) For an order of liquidation with a finding of insolvency by a court of competent jurisdiction entered on or after August 10, 2011, such obligation includes only that amount of each covered claim that is less than three hundred thousand dollars; and

(C) Notwithstanding sub-subparagraph (A) or (B) of this subparagraph (I), the association shall pay the full amount of any covered claim arising out of workers' compensation policies.

(II) In no event is the association obligated to a policyholder or claimant in an amount in excess of the face amount of the policy from which the claim arises.

(III) Notwithstanding any other provision of this part 5, a covered claim does not include any claim filed with the guaranty fund after the earlier of:

(A) Twenty-four months after the date of the order of liquidation; or

(B) The final date set by the court for the filing of claims against the liquidator or receiver of an insolvent insurer.

(b) Be deemed the insurer to the extent of its obligation on the covered claims and to such extent shall have all rights, duties, and obligations of the insolvent insurer as if the insurer had not become insolvent;

(c) Allocate claims paid and expenses incurred among the three accounts separately and assess member insurers amounts separately for each account necessary to pay: The obligations of the association under paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) subsequent to an insolvency; the expenses of handling covered claims subsequent to an insolvency; the cost of examinations under section 10-4-513; and other expenses authorized by this part 5. The assessments of each member insurer shall be in the proportion that the net direct written premiums of the member insurer for the preceding calendar year on the kinds of insurance in the account bears to the net direct written premiums of all member insurers for the preceding calendar year on the kinds of insurance in the account. Each member insurer shall be notified of the assessment not later than thirty days before it is due. No member insurer may be assessed in any year on any account an amount greater than two percent of that member insurer's net direct written premiums for the preceding calendar year on the kinds of insurance in the account. If the maximum assessment, together with the other assets of the association in any account, does not provide in any one year in any account an amount sufficient to make all necessary payments from that account, the funds available shall be prorated and the unpaid portion shall be paid as soon thereafter as funds become available. The association may defer, in whole or in part, the assessment of any member insurer, if the assessment would cause the member insurer's financial statement to reflect amounts of capital or surplus less than the minimum amounts required for a certificate of authority by any jurisdiction in which the member insurer is authorized to transact insurance; but during the period of deferment no dividends shall be paid to shareholders or policyholders. Deferred assessments shall be paid when such payment will not reduce capital and surplus below required minimums. Such payment shall be refunded to those companies receiving larger assessments by virtue of such deferment or, in the discretion of any such company, credited against future assessments. Each member insurer may set off against any assessment authorized payments made on covered claims and expenses incurred in the payment of such claims by the member insurer if they are chargeable to the account for which the assessment is made.

(d) Investigate claims brought against the association and adjust, compromise, settle, and pay covered claims to the extent of the association's obligation, and deny all other claims, and may review settlements, releases, and judgments to which the insolvent insurer or its insureds were parties to determine the extent to which such settlements, releases, and judgments may be properly contested;

(e) Notify such persons as the commissioner directs under section 10-4-510 (2) (a);

(f) Handle claims through its employees or through one or more insurers or other persons designated as servicing facilities. Designation of a servicing facility is subject to the approval of the commissioner, but such designation may be declined by a member insurer.

(g) Reimburse each servicing facility for obligations of the association paid by the facility and for expenses incurred by the facility while handling claims on behalf of the association and shall pay the other expenses of the association authorized by this part 5.

(2) The association may:

(a) Employ or retain such persons as are necessary to handle claims and perform other duties of the association;

(b) Borrow funds necessary to effect the purposes of this part 5 in accord with the plan of operation;

(c) Sue or be sued, and such power to sue includes the power and right to intervene as a party before any court in this state that has jurisdiction over an insolvent insurer, as defined in section 10-4-503 (5);

(d) Negotiate and become a party to such contracts as are necessary to carry out the purpose of this part 5;

(e) Perform such other acts as are necessary or proper to effectuate the purposes of this part 5;

(f) Refund to the member insurers in proportion to the contribution of each member insurer to that account that amount by which the assets of the account exceed the liabilities, if, at the end of any calendar year, the board of directors finds that the assets of the association in any account exceed the liabilities of that account as estimated by the board of directors for the coming year.

ANNOTATION

Limitation imposed by subsection (1)(a) is constitutional because it is reasonably related to legitimate governmental purposes such as ensuring finality and the prompt recovery of reimbursement from the estates of insolvent insurers. *Alexander v. Automobile accident victim entitled only to statutory maximum from fund even though victim obtained judgment in excess of $145,000 against company insured by insolvent insurer. Fontenot v. Haight, 764 P.2d 378 (Colo. App. 1988) (decided prior to 1988 amendment).

The state insurance guaranty association was required to "step into the shoes" of the insolvent insurance company and defend the insureds of the bankrupt company after the claimant was found entitled to maintain her claim for the amount between the limits of her own insurance policy and the state insurance guaranty association's statutory limit. Colo. Ins. Guaranty Assn. v. Harris, 815 P.2d 983 (Colo. App. 1991).

Claimant that filed initial proof of claim six months after deadline for filing such proofs of claim cannot obtain reimbursement for claims it had to pay as a result of a liquidated insurer's insolvency. Colaianne v. Aspen Indem. Corp., 885 P.2d 337 (Colo. App. 1994).

10-4-508.5. Aggregate liability of association. (1) (a) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this part 5, except in the case of a claim for benefits under workers' compensation coverage, any obligation of the association to any and all persons shall cease when ten million dollars shall have been paid in the aggregate by the association and any one or more associations similar to the association of any other state or states or any property/casualty insurance security fund that obtains contributions from insurers on a pre-insolvency basis, to or on behalf of any insured and its affiliates on covered claims or allowed claims arising under the policy or policies of any one insolvent insurer.

(b) For purposes of this section, the term "affiliate" shall mean a person who directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with another person.

(2) If the association determines that there may be more than one claimant having a covered claim or allowed claim against the association or any associations similar to the association or any property/casualty insurance security fund in other states, under the policy or policies of any one insolvent insurer, the association may establish a plan to allocate amounts payable by the association in such manner as the association in its discretion deems equitable.

10-4-509. Plan of operation. (1) The association shall submit to the commissioner a plan of operation and any amendments thereto necessary or suitable to assure the fair, reasonable, and equitable administration of the association. The plan of operation and any amendments thereto shall become effective upon approval in writing by the commissioner.

(2) If the association fails to submit a suitable plan of operation within ninety days following July 1, 1971, or if at any time thereafter the association fails to submit suitable amendments to the plan, the commissioner shall, after notice and hearing, adopt and promulgate such reasonable rules as are necessary or advisable to effectuate the provisions of this part 5. Such rules shall continue in force until modified by the commissioner or superseded by a plan submitted by the association and approved by the commissioner.

(3) All member insurers shall comply with the plan of operation.

(4) The plan of operation shall:

(a) Establish the procedures whereby all the powers and duties of the association under section 10-4-508 will be performed;

(b) Establish procedures for handling assets of the association;

(c) Establish the amount and method of reimbursing members of the board of directors under section 10-4-507;

(d) Establish procedures by which claims may be filed with the association and provide acceptable forms of proof of covered claims. Notice of claims to the receiver or liquidator of the insolvent insurer shall be deemed notice to the association or its agent, and a list of such claims shall be periodically submitted to the association or similar organization in another state by the receiver or liquidator.

(e) Establish regular places and times for meetings of the board of directors;

(f) Establish procedures for records to be kept of all financial transactions of the association, its agents, and the board of directors;

(g) Provide that any member insurer aggrieved by any final action or decision of the association may appeal to the commissioner within thirty days after the action or decision;

(h) Establish the procedures whereby selections for the board of directors will be submitted to the commissioner;

(i) Contain additional provisions necessary or proper for the execution of the powers and duties of the association.

(5) The plan of operation may provide that any or all powers and duties of the association, except those under section 10-4-508 (1) (c) and (2) (c), are delegated to a corporation, association, or other organization which performs or will perform functions similar to those of the association, or its equivalent, in two or more states. Such a corporation, association, or organization shall be reimbursed as a servicing facility would be reimbursed and shall be paid for its performance of any other functions of the association. A delegation under this subsection (5) shall take effect only with the approval of both the board of directors and the commissioner and may be made only to a corporation, association, or organization which extends protection not substantially less favorable and effective than that provided by this part 5.

10-4-510. Duties and powers of commissioner. (1) The commissioner shall:

(a) Notify the association of the existence of an insolvent insurer not later than three days after he receives notice of the determination of the insolvency;

(b) Upon request of the board of directors, provide the association with a statement of the net direct written premiums of each member insurer.

(2) The commissioner may:

(a) Require that the association notify the insureds of the insolvent insurer and any other interested parties of the determination of insolvency and of their rights under this part 5. Such notification shall be by first-class mail at their last known addresses, where available, but if sufficient information for notification by mail is not available, notice by publication in a newspaper of general circulation shall be sufficient.

(b) Require each agent of the insolvent insurer to give prompt written notice to each insured of the insolvent insurer for whom he was agent of record by sending such notice by first-class mail to the insured's last known address;

(c) Suspend or revoke, after notice and hearing, the certificate of authority to transact insurance business in this state of any member insurer which fails to pay an assessment when due or fails to comply with the plan of operation. As an alternative, the commissioner may levy a fine on any member insurer which fails to pay an assessment when due or fails to comply with the plan of operation. Such fine shall not exceed five percent of the unpaid assessment per month; except that no fine shall be less than one hundred dollars per month.

(d) Revoke the designation of any servicing facility if he finds claims are being handled unsatisfactorily.

(3) Any final action or order of the commissioner under this part 5 shall be subject to judicial review by the court of appeals pursuant to section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S.

Source: L. 71: p. 760, § 1. C.R.S. 1963: § 72-34-10. L. 92: (3) amended, p. 1559, § 60, effective May 20.

10-4-511. Effect of paid claims. (1) Any person recovering under this part 5 from the association shall be deemed to have assigned his rights under the policy to the association to the extent of his recovery from the association. Every insured or claimant seeking the protection of this part 5 shall cooperate with the association to the same extent as such person would have been required to cooperate with the insolvent insurer. The association shall have no cause of action against the insured of the insolvent insurer for any sums it has paid out.

(2) The receiver, liquidator, or statutory successor of an insolvent insurer shall be bound by settlements of covered claims by the association or a similar organization in another state. The court having jurisdiction shall grant such claims priority equal to that which the claimant would have been entitled in the absence of this part 5 against the assets of the insolvent insurer. The expenses of the association or a similar organization in handling claims shall be accorded the same priority as the liquidator's expenses.

(3) The association shall periodically file with the receiver or liquidator of an insolvent insurer statements of the covered claims paid by the association and estimates of anticipated claims on the association, which shall preserve the rights of the association against the assets of the insolvent insurer.

(4) (a) The association shall have the right to recover from the following persons the amount of any covered claim paid on behalf of such person pursuant to this part 5:

(I) Any insured whose net worth on December 31 of the year immediately preceding the date the insurer becomes an insolvent insurer exceeds twenty-five million dollars and whose liability obligations to other persons are satisfied in whole or in part by payments made under this part 5. An insured's net worth on such date shall be deemed to include the aggregate net worth of the insured and all of its subsidiaries as calculated on a consolidated basis; and

(II) Any person who is an affiliate of the insolvent insurer and whose liability obligations to other persons are satisfied in whole or in part by payments made under this part 5.

(b) The association and any similar organization in another state shall be recognized as claimants in the liquidation of an insolvent insurer for any amounts paid by them on covered claims obligations as determined under this part 5 or similar laws in other states and shall receive dividends and any other distributions at the priority set forth in part 5 of article 3 of this title. The receiver, liquidator, or statutory successor of an insolvent insurer shall be bound by determinations of covered claim eligibility under this part 5 and by settlements of claims made by the association or a similar organization in another state. The court having jurisdiction shall grant such claims priority equal to that which the claimant would have been entitled in the absence of this part 5 against the assets of the insolvent insurer. The expenses of the association or similar organization in handling claims shall be accorded the same priority as the liquidator's expenses.

10-4-512. Nonduplication of recovery. (1) Any person having a claim against an insurer under any provision in any insurance policy that is also a covered claim shall exhaust first the person's right under such policy. Any amount payable on a covered claim under this part 5 is reduced by the amount recoverable under such insurance policy.

(2) Any person having a claim which may be recovered under more than one insurance guaranty association or its equivalent shall seek recovery first from the association of the place of residence of the insured; except that, if it is a first-party claim for damage to property with a permanent location, recovery shall be sought from the association of the location of the property, and, if it is a workers' compensation claim, recovery shall be sought from the association of the residence of the claimant. A claimant or first-party insured who has received a recovery from any other guaranty association or its equivalent in an amount equal to or greater than the recovery allowed under this part 5 shall not be eligible to receive any recovery from the Colorado insurance guaranty association. In addition, any recovery under this part 5 shall be reduced by the amount of the recovery from any other insurance guaranty association or its equivalent.

ANNOTATION

Section implicitly provides Colorado insurance guaranty association (CIGA) with cause of action to enforce provision. The general assembly expressly provided for nonduplication of recovery to conserve CIGA's resources and impliedly intended to create private civil remedy for CIGA to enforce its right to reduce its payments to avoid duplication of recovery by insureds. The legislative goal of nonduplication of recovery would be substantially frustrated if CIGA lacked a civil remedy to enforce its statutory rights. Colo. Ins. Guar. Ass'n v. Menor, 166 P.3d 205 (Colo. App. 2007).

CIGA not required to intervene in defendant's earlier settlement proceedings with UM/UMI carrier in order to bring claim for offset under this section, and district court has subject matter jurisdiction to determine amount of CIGA's claimed offset, if any, allowed under this section and to apportion economic and noneconomic damages in defendant's settlement with UM/UMI carrier. Colo. Ins. Guar. Ass'n v. Menor, 166 P.3d 205 (Colo. App. 2007).

While CIGA, acting as worker's compensation insurer, does not have subrogation rights against UM/UMI insurance benefits under § 8-41-203, CIGA has claim for relief for nonduplication of recovery under this section with respect to any recovery by an injured party against his or her insurer that is also a covered claim under the Colorado Insurance Guaranty Association Act. Colo. Ins. Guar. Ass'n v. Menor, 166 P.3d 205 (Colo. App. 2007).

Claimant satisfied the statutory requirement that she must exhaust her rights against her insurer because she negotiated a settlement of slightly less than her policy limits for uninsured motorists, and was thus entitled to make a claim against the state insurance guaranty association for up to the difference between her policy limit and CIGA's statutory limit. Colo. Ins. Guaranty Assn. v. Harris, 815 P.2d 983 (Colo. App. 1991); aff'd, 827 P.2d 1139 (Colo. 1992).

10-4-513. Prevention of insolvencies. (1) To aid in the detection and prevention of insurer insolvencies, it is the duty of the board of directors, upon majority vote, to notify the commissioner of any information indicating that any member insurer may be insolvent or is in a financial condition hazardous to the policyholders or the public.

(2) To aid in the detection and prevention of insurer insolvencies, it is the duty of the commissioner:

(a) To notify the commissioners of all other states and territories of the United States and the District of Columbia by mail within thirty days of any of the following actions taken by him against a member insurer:

(I) Revocation of license;

(II) Suspension of license;

(III) Any formal order that such company restrict its premium writing, obtain additional contributions to surplus, withdraw from the state, reinsure all or any part of its business, or increase capital, surplus, or any other account for the security of policyholders or creditors;

(b) To report to the board of directors when he has taken any of the actions set forth in paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) or has received a report from any other commissioner indicating that any such action has been taken in another state. Such report to the board of directors shall contain all significant details of the action taken or the report received from another commissioner.

(c) To report to the board of directors when he has reasonable cause to believe from any examination, whether completed or in process, of any member company that such company may be insolvent or in a financial condition hazardous to the policyholders or the public;

(d) To furnish to the board of directors the early warning tests developed by the national association of insurance commissioners. The board of directors may use the information contained in such tests in carrying out its duties and responsibilities pursuant to this section. Such report and the information contained therein shall be kept confidential by the board of directors until such time as made public by the commissioner of another lawful authority.

(3) The commissioner may seek the advice and recommendations of the board of directors concerning any matter affecting his duties and responsibilities regarding the financial condition of member companies and companies seeking admission to transact insurance business in this state.

(4) The board of directors, upon majority vote, may make reports and recommendations to the commissioner upon any matter germane to the solvency, liquidation, rehabilitation, or conservation of any member insurer or germane to the solvency of any company seeking to do business in this state. Such reports and recommendations shall not be considered public documents.

(5) It is the duty of the board of directors, upon majority vote, to notify the commissioner of any information indicating that any member insurer may be insolvent or in a financial condition hazardous to the policyholders or the public.

(6) The board of directors, upon majority vote, may request that the commissioner order an examination of any member insurer which the board in good faith believes to be in a financial condition hazardous to the policyholders or the public. Within thirty days of the receipt of such request, the commissioner shall begin such examination. The examination may be conducted as a national association of insurance commissioners examination or may be conducted by such persons as the commissioner designates. The cost of such examination shall be paid by the association, and the examination report shall be treated as are other examination reports. In no event shall such examination report be released to the board of directors prior to its release to the public, but this shall not preclude the commissioner from complying with subsection (1) of this section. The commissioner shall notify the board of directors when the examination is completed. The request for an examination shall be kept on file by the commissioner, but it shall not be open to public inspection prior to the release of the examination report to the public.

(7) The board of directors, upon majority vote, may make recommendations to the commissioner for the detection and prevention of insurer insolvencies.

(8) The board of directors, at the conclusion of any insurer insolvency in which the association was obligated to pay covered claims, shall prepare a report to the commissioner containing such information as it may have in its possession bearing on the history and causes of such insolvency. The board of directors shall cooperate with the boards of directors of guaranty associations in other states in preparing a report on the history and causes for insolvency of a particular insurer and may adopt by reference any report prepared by such other associations.

10-4-514. Examination of association. The association shall be subject to examination and regulation by the commissioner. The board of directors shall submit, not later than March 30 of each year, a financial report for the preceding calendar year in a form approved by the commissioner.

10-4-516. Recognition of assessments in rates. The rates and premiums charged for insurance policies to which this part 5 applies shall include amounts sufficient to recoup a sum equal to the amounts paid to the association by the member insurer, less any amounts returned to the member insurer by the association, and such rates shall not be deemed excessive because they contain an amount reasonably calculated to recoup assessments paid by the member insurer.

10-4-517. Immunity. There shall be no liability on the part of, and no cause of action of any nature shall arise against, any member insurer, the association or its agents or employees, the board of directors, or the commissioner or his representatives for any action taken by them in the performance of their powers and duties under this part 5.

ANNOTATION

Immunity conferred by this section is absolute and includes immunity from penalties that would otherwise be available under § 8-43-

304 (1). Mosley v. Indus. Claim Appeals Office, 119 P.3d 576 (Colo. App. 2005).

10-4-518. Stay of proceedings. All proceedings to which an insolvent insurer is a party in any court in this state shall be stayed for sixty days after the date the insolvency is determined to permit proper defense by the association of all pending causes of action.

Cross references: For stay of proceedings to permit proper defense by the Colorado insurance guaranty association, see § 10-4-508 (1)(d) regarding the exercise of powers and duties relevant thereto.

10-4-519. Termination - distribution of funds. (1) The commissioner shall by order terminate the operation of the association as to any kind of insurance covered by this part 5 with respect to which he has found, after hearing, that there is in effect a statutory or voluntary plan which:

(a) Is a permanent plan which is adequately funded or for which adequate funding is provided; and

(b) Extends, or will extend, to the Colorado policyholders and residents protection and benefits with respect to insolvent insurers not substantially less favorable and effective to such policyholders and residents than the protection and benefits provided with respect to such kinds of insurance under this part 5.

(2) The commissioner shall by the same order authorize discontinuance of future payments by insurers to the association with respect to the same kinds of insurance; but the assessments and payments shall continue, as necessary, to liquidate covered claims of insurers adjudged insolvent prior to said order and the related expenses not covered by such other plan.

(3) In the event the operation of the association is so terminated as to all kinds of insurance otherwise within its scope, the association as soon as possible thereafter shall distribute the balance of moneys and assets remaining after discharge of the functions of the association with respect to prior insurer insolvencies not covered by such other plan, together with related expenses, to the insurers which are then writing in this state policies of the kinds of insurance covered by this part 5 and which have made payments to the association pro rata upon the basis of the aggregate of such payments made by the respective insurers during the period of five years next preceding the date of such order. Upon completion of such distribution with respect to all of the kinds of insurance covered by this part 5, this part 5 shall be deemed to be repealed.

Advertising. No person, including an insurer, agent, or affiliate of an insurer, shall make, publish, disseminate, circulate, or place before the public or cause, directly or indirectly, to be made, published, disseminated, circulated, or placed before the public in any newspaper, magazine, or other publication or in the form of a notice, circular, pamphlet, letter, or poster or over any radio station or television station or in any other way any advertisement, announcement, or statement which uses the existence of the insurance guaranty association of this state for the purpose of sales, solicitation, or inducement to purchase any form of insurance covered by this part 5, but this section shall not apply to the Colorado insurance guaranty association or to any other entity which does not sell or solicit insurance.

PART 6

AUTOMOBILE INSURANCE POLICY - REGULATIONS

Cross references: For abuse of property insurance, see § 18-13-119.5.

10-4-601. Definitions. As used in this part 6, unless the context otherwise requires:

(2) "Complying policy" means a policy of insurance that provides the coverages and is subject to the terms and conditions required by this part 6, and is certified by the insurer and the insurer has filed a certification with the commissioner that such policy, contract, or endorsement conforms to Colorado law and any rules promulgated by the commissioner.

(3) "Converter" means a person other than a named insured or resident relative who operates or uses a motor vehicle in a manner that a reasonable person would determine was unauthorized or beyond the scope of permission given by a named insured or resident relative. In determining whether a person is a converter, the following factors should be considered:

(a) The duration of the person's control over the motor vehicle;

(b) The circumstances surrounding the conduct of the person operating or using the motor vehicle; and

(c) The person's good faith.

(4) "Described motor vehicle" means the motor vehicle described in the complying policy.

(5) "Insured" means the named insured, relatives of the named insured who reside in the same household as the named insured, and any person using the described motor vehicle with the permission of the named insured.

(5.5) "Licensed health care provider" means a person, corporation, facility, or institution licensed or certified by this state to provide health care or professional services as a hospital, health care facility, or dispensary or to practice and practicing medicine, osteopathy, chiropractic, nursing, physical therapy, podiatry, dentistry, pharmacy, acupuncture, or optometry in this state, or an officer, employee, or agent of the person, corporation, facility, or institution working under the supervision of the person, corporation, facility, or institution in providing health care services.

(6) "Motor vehicle" means a "motor vehicle" and a "low-power scooter", as both terms are defined in section 42-1-102, C.R.S.; except that "motor vehicle" does not include a toy vehicle, snowmobile, off-highway vehicle, or vehicle designed primarily for use on rails.

(7) "Nonpayment of premium" means failure of the named insured to discharge when due any obligations in connection with the payment of premiums on the policy, or any installment of such premium, whether the premium is payable directly to the insurer or its agent or indirectly under any premium finance plan or extension of credit.

(8) "Owner" means a person who holds the legal title to a vehicle; except that, if the vehicle is the subject of an agreement for the conditional sale or lease thereof with the right of purchase upon performance of the conditions stated in the agreement and with an immediate right of possession vested in the conditional vendee or lessee, or if a mortgagor of the vehicle is entitled to possession, then such conditional vendee or lessee or mortgagor shall be deemed the owner for the purpose of this part 6.

(9) "Person" means every natural person, firm, partnership, association, or corporation.

(10) “Policy” means an automobile insurance policy providing coverage for all or any of the following coverages: Collision, comprehensive, bodily injury liability, property damage liability, medical payments, and uninsured motorist coverage, or a combination automobile policy providing bodily injury liability, property damage liability, medical payments, uninsured motorist, and physical damage coverage, delivered or issued for delivery in this state, insuring a single individual, or husband and wife, or family members residing in the same household, as named insured, and under which the insured vehicles therein designated are of the following types only:

(a) A motor vehicle of the private passenger or station wagon type that is not used as a public or livery conveyance for passengers nor rented to others pursuant to the terms of a motor vehicle rental agreement; or

(b) Any other four-wheel motor vehicle with a load capacity of fifteen hundred pounds or less that is not used in the occupation, profession, or business of the insured.

(11) “Renewal” or “to renew” means the issuance and delivery by an insurer of a policy replacing at the end of the policy period a policy previously issued and delivered by the same insurer, or the issuance and delivery of a certificate or notice extending the term of the policy beyond its policy period or term; but any policy with a policy period or term of less than six months shall, for the purpose of this part 6, be considered as if written for a policy period or term of six months; and any policy written for a term longer than one year, or any policy with no fixed expiration date, shall, for the purpose of this part 6, be considered as if written for successive policy periods or terms of one year, and such policy may be terminated at the expiration of any annual period upon giving twenty days’ notice of cancellation prior to such anniversary date, and such cancellation shall not be subject to any other provisions of this part 6.

(13) “Resident relative” means a person who, at the time of the accident, is related by blood, marriage, or adoption to the named insured or resident spouse and who resides in the named insured’s household, even if temporarily living elsewhere, and any ward or foster child who usually resides with the named insured, even if temporarily living elsewhere.

(14) “Stacking” has the same meaning set forth in section 10-4-402 (3.5).

Editor’s note: Amendments to this section by House Bill 03-1253 and House Bill 03-1188 were harmonized, resulting in the renumbering of provisions of this section.

ANNOTATION

Annotator’s note. Since this section is similar to former § 10-4-601 as it existed prior to its 2003 amendment and to § 10-4-703 as it existed prior to the 2003 repeal of part 7 of article 4 of this title, relevant cases construing those provisions have been included in the annotations to this section.

The phrase “unless the context otherwise requires” does not suggest that the definitions contained in this section apply to all uninsured motorist coverage provisions. If such were the case, the language limiting the definitions to “this part 7” would always be over-ridden by the exception. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co. v. Stein, 924 P.2d 1154 (Colo. App. 1996), aff’d, 940 P.2d 384 (Colo. 1997).

Policy provision cannot limit scope of insureds to whom compulsory coverage must be provided. Truck Ins. Exch. v. Home Ins. Co., 841 P.2d 354 (Colo. App. 1992).

The definition of “insured” under subsection (5) specifically allows liability coverage to be predicated upon using a motor vehicle described in the policy. The third category of "insureds" is, by definition, vehicle-dependent. Farmers Ins. Exch. v. Anderson, 260 P.3d 68 (Colo. App. 2010).

The plain import of subsection (6) is that an insurer is not required to extend coverage to any person who uses the vehicle without the permission of the named insured. The permissive use exclusion in insured's insurance policy is not in violation of the "Colorado Auto Accident Reparations Act" because it does not limit the compulsory classification of insureds to whom the insurer is obligated to provide coverage. The provision constitutes a valid exclusion by which a non-permissive user of a vehicle is exempt from coverage as an insured pursuant to the statute. Winscom v. Garza, 843 P.2d 126 (Colo. App. 1992); McConnell v. St. Paul Fire and Marine Ins. Co., 906 P.2d 109 (Colo. 1995).

Once a named insured grants initial permission to use the insured vehicle, the named insured impliedly consents to use of the vehicle by subsequent permittees unless their "permission" to use the vehicle emanates from a converter. Raitz v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 960 P.2d 1179 (Colo. 1998).

If the definition of "permissive user" in the insurance policies is more restrictive than the language of the Colorado Auto Accident Reparations Act, the policies must be interpreted in accord with the Act, as clauses in an insurance contract which attempt to dilute, condition, or limit statutorily mandated coverage are invalid or void. Wiglesworth v. Farmers Ins. Exch., 917 P.2d 288 (Colo. 1996).

Exclusion of state, federal, police, and fire vehicles permissible exercise of police power. Bushnell v. Sapp, 194 Colo. 273, 571 P.2d 1100 (1977).

Definition of "motor vehicle" does not include snowmobiles. Uninsured motorist statute does not require coverage for accidents involving snowmobiles used off public roads. Keely v. Allstate Ins. Co., 835 P.2d 584 (Colo. App. 1992).

Definition of "motor vehicle" applies to any vehicle with the physical characteristics that require registration and licensing, regardless of whether the vehicle is actually registered and licensed in Colorado. Thus, the Act may extend to vehicles registered and licensed in another state. Ranger v. Fortune Ins. Co., 881 P.2d 394 (Colo. App. 1994).

Subsection (8) makes it clear that a title holder is not divested of the duty to insure a vehicle merely by conditional sale or by actual use by the vendee following a conditional sale.

It is only after entering into a conditional sale agreement that vests the right of immediate possession in the vendee. Whether the right of immediate possession vests in a conditional vendee ultimately depends upon the agreement of the parties. Sachtjen v. Am. Family Mut. Ins. Co., 49 P.3d 1146 (Colo. 2002).

Policy clause that excludes from liability coverage a certain category of permissive users because some other form of coverage exists under a separate policy is inconsistent with the requirements of the Auto Accident Reparations Act and contrary to public policy; thus, it is unenforceable. Finizio v. Am. Hardware Mut. Ins., 967 P.2d 188 (Colo. App. 1998).

However, insurance policy's "excess clause", which made coverage secondary to other collectible insurance, was not void as an erosion of the statutory mandate of § 10-4-619 that vehicle owners carry minimum liability insurance. Court contrasted excess clause, which limited coverage to the extent that other coverage existed, with "escape clause", whereby an insurer provides no coverage if other insurance applied. Shelter Mut. Ins. Co. v. Mid-Century Ins. Co., 214 P.3d 489 (Colo. App. 2008), aff'd, 246 P.3d 651 (Colo. 2011).

A certificate of title is prima facie evidence that a person is the "owner" of a vehicle; however, it does not represent conclusive proof of ownership. Martinez v. Allstate Ins. Co., 961 P.2d 531 (Colo. App. 1997).

Pursuant to definition of "policy", a snowmobile was not intended to be one of the "only" types of vehicles designated as an insured vehicle subject to the statutory "policy" provisions. Keely v. Allstate Ins. Co., 835 P.2d 584 (Colo. App. 1992).

The definition of "policy" in subsection (2) does not apply to limit the provisions of § 10-4-609. Based on the legislative intent that all purchasers of automobile liability insurance policies must have the opportunity to purchase uninsured motorist coverage, under § 10-4-609 a car rental agreement may qualify as a "policy" and the car rental company is required to offer the lessee uninsured motorist coverage. Passamano v. Travelers Indem. Co., 882 P.2d 1312 (Colo. 1994).

Definition of "motor vehicle" in subsection (2) makes it apparent that the general assembly did not intend for a motorcycle to be type of vehicle designated as an insured vehicle subject to statutory policy provisions. Allstate Indem. Co. v. Gonzales, 902 P.2d 953 (Colo. App. 1995).

10-4-601.5. Administrative authority. The commissioner shall administer and enforce the provisions of this part 6 and may make rules necessary for the administration of this part 6 in accordance with article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since this section is similar to § 10-4-704 as it existed prior to the 2003 repeal of part 7 of article 4 of this title, a relevant case construing that provision has been included in the annotations to this section.

Authority to issue proper regulations. The commissioner of insurance and the director of revenue have the authority, individually or jointly, to issue proper regulations to enforce relevant statutes. Travelers Indem. Co. v. Barnes, 191 Colo. 278, 552 P.2d 300 (1976).

Deference given to construction of statute by administrative official. Construction of a statute by administrative official charged with its enforcement shall be given great deference by the courts. Travelers Indem. Co. v. Barnes, 191 Colo. 278, 552 P.2d 300 (1976).

However, administrative regulations are not absolute rules. Travelers Indem. Co. v. Barnes, 191 Colo. 278, 552 P.2d 300 (1976).

Action by administrative official in excess of authority. When an administrative official misconstrues a statute and issues a regulation beyond the scope of a statute, it is in excess of administrative authority granted, and the regulation is invalid. Travelers Indem. Co. v. Barnes, 191 Colo. 278, 552 P.2d 300 (1976).

10-4-602. Basis for cancellation. (1) A notice of cancellation of a policy shall be valid only if it is based on one or more of the following reasons:

- (a) Nonpayment of premium; or
  - (b) The driver's license or motor vehicle registration of either the named insured or any operator either residing in the insured's household or who customarily operates an automobile insured under the policy has been under suspension or revocation during the policy period or, if the policy is a renewal, during its policy period or the one hundred eighty days immediately preceding its effective date; or
  - (c) An applicant knowingly made a false statement on the application for insurance; or
  - (d) An insured knowingly and willfully made a false material statement on a claim submitted under the policy.
- (2) This section shall not apply to any policy or coverage which has been in effect less than sixty days at the time notice of cancellation is mailed or delivered by the insurer, unless it is a renewal policy.
- (3) This section shall not apply to nonrenewal of a policy.

Source: L. 69: p. 550, § 2. C.R.S. 1963: § 72-30-2. L. 94: (1)(c) amended and (1)(d) added, p. 328, § 1, effective July 1.

ANNOTATION

Applied in Wright v. Newman, 598 F. Supp. 1178 (D. Colo. 1984), aff'd, 767 F.2d 460 (10th Cir. 1985).

10-4-603. Notice. (1) No notice of cancellation of a policy to which section 10-4-602 applies shall be valid unless mailed or delivered by the insurer to the named insured at least thirty days prior to the effective date of cancellation; but, where cancellation is for nonpayment of premium, at least ten days' notice of cancellation accompanied by the reason therefor shall be given or, alternatively, a notice advising that the policy will be cancelled if timely payment of premium is not made may be given at least ten days but not more than thirty days prior to the premium due date. Unless the reason accompanies or is included in the notice of cancellation, the notice of cancellation shall state or be accompanied by a statement that, upon written request of the named insured, mailed or delivered to the insurer not less than fifteen days prior to the effective date of cancellation, the insurer will specify the reason for such cancellation. As used in this section, "premium due date" means the date that a premium that has been previously paid is fully earned.

(2) Where the reason for cancellation does not accompany or is not included in the notice of cancellation, the insurer shall, upon written request of the named insured, mailed or delivered to the insurer not less than fifteen days prior to the effective date of cancellation, specify in writing the reason for such cancellation. Such reason shall be mailed or delivered to the named insured within five days after receipt of such request.

Source: L. 69: p. 550, § 3. C.R.S. 1963: § 72-30-3. L. 96: (1) amended, p. 363, § 1, effective April 17.

ANNOTATION

Section applicable to cancellation not expiration of policy. The notice provisions set out in this section apply to unilateral cancellation by the insurer and do not apply to policy expiration. Shelly v. Strait, 634 P.2d 1017 (Colo. App. 1981).

Cancellation for nonpayment of premium can occur only if payment is overdue so that notice one month prior to the due date of a premium payment does not meet requirements of this section. Rotenberg v. Am. Standard Ins. Co., 865 P.2d 905 (Colo. App. 1993).

10-4-604. Nonrenewal. (1) No insurer shall refuse to renew a policy unless such insurer or its agent mails or delivers to the named insured, at the address shown in the policy, at least thirty days' advance notice of its intention not to renew. This section shall not apply:

- (a) If the insurer has manifested its willingness to renew;
- (b) In case of nonpayment of premium;
- (c) If the insured fails to pay any advance premium required by the insurer for renewal.

(2) Notwithstanding the failure of an insurer to comply with this section, the policy shall terminate on the effective date of any other insurance policy with respect to any automobile designated in both policies.

(3) Renewal of a policy shall not constitute a waiver or estoppel with respect to grounds for cancellation which existed before the effective date of such renewal.

(4) In the event an insurer refuses to renew, the insured may, by written request, demand a written notification of the reason for nonrenewal. Such notification shall be given the insured within twenty days after receipt of such request.

10-4-604.5. Issuance or renewal of insurance policies - proof of insurance provided by certificate, card, or other media. (1) In addition to any other requirement, if an insurer issues or renews a policy of insurance, the insurer shall provide the insured a proof of insurance certificate or insurance identification card to accompany the insured's registration application or renewal card or provide proof of insurance in such other media as is authorized by the department under section 42-3-105 (1) (d), C.R.S.

10-4-606. Further notice. When automobile bodily injury and property damage liability coverage is cancelled, other than for nonpayment of premium, or in the event of failure to renew automobile bodily injury and property damage liability coverage to which section 10-4-604 applies, the insurer shall notify the named insured of his possible eligibility for automobile liability insurance through an assigned risk plan established pursuant to section 10-4-412 and shall notify the insured as to where he may obtain information concerning such plan. Such notice shall accompany or be included in the notice of cancellation or the notice of intent not to renew.

10-4-607. Immunity. There shall be no liability on the part of, and no cause of action of any nature shall arise against, the commissioner or against any insurer, its authorized representative, its agents, its employees, or any firm, person, or corporation furnishing to the insurer information as to reasons for cancellation or nonrenewal, or for any statement made by any of them in any written notice of cancellation or notification of reason for nonrenewal, or in any other communication, oral or written, specifying the reasons for cancellation or nonrenewal, or the providing of information with respect thereto, or for statements made or evidence submitted at any hearings conducted in connection therewith.

10-4-608. Exemptions. (1) This part 6 shall not apply to any policy:

- (a) Issued under an assigned risk plan established under section 10-4-412;
- (b) Insuring more than four automobiles;
- (c) Except as authorized by section 10-4-624, arising out of a motor vehicle rental agreement or any self-insurance thereof;
- (d) Covering a garage, automobile sales agency, repair shop, service station, or public parking place operation hazard; or
- (e) Issued principally to cover personal or premises liability of an insured even though such insurance may also provide some incidental coverage for liability arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of a motor vehicle on the premises of such insured, or on the ways immediately adjoining such premises.

10-4-609. Insurance protection against uninsured motorists - applicability. (1) (a) No automobile liability or motor vehicle liability policy insuring against loss resulting from liability imposed by law for bodily injury or death suffered by any person arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of a motor vehicle shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this state with respect to any motor vehicle licensed for highway use in this state unless coverage is provided therein or supplemental thereto, in limits for bodily injury or death set forth in section 42-7-103 (2), C.R.S., under provisions approved by the commissioner, for the protection of persons insured thereunder who are legally entitled to recover damages from owners or operators of uninsured motor vehicles because of bodily injury, sickness, or disease, including death, resulting therefrom; except that the named insured may reject such coverage in writing.

(b) This subsection (1) shall not apply to motor vehicle rental agreements or motor vehicle rental companies.

(c) The coverage described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) shall be in addition to any legal liability coverage and shall cover the difference, if any, between the amount of the limits of any legal liability coverage and the amount of the damages sustained, excluding exemplary damages, up to the maximum amount of the coverage obtained pursuant to this section. A single policy or endorsement for uninsured or underinsured motor vehicle coverage issued for a single premium covering multiple vehicles may be limited to applying once per accident. The amount of the coverage available pursuant to this section shall not be reduced by a setoff from any other coverage, including, but not limited to, legal liability insurance, medical payments coverage, health insurance, or other uninsured or underinsured motor vehicle insurance.

(2) Before the policy is issued or renewed, the insurer shall offer the named insured the right to obtain uninsured motorist coverage in an amount equal to the insured's bodily injury liability limits, but in no event shall the insurer be required to offer limits higher than the insured's bodily injury liability limits.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (2) of this section, after selection of limits by the insured or the exercise of the option not to purchase the coverages described in this section, no insurer nor any affiliated insurer shall be required to notify any policyholder in any renewal or replacement policy, as to the availability of such coverage or optional limits. However, the insured may, subject to the limitations expressed in this section, make a written request for additional coverage or coverage more extensive than that provided on a prior policy.

(4) Uninsured motorist coverage shall include coverage for damage for bodily injury or death that an insured is legally entitled to collect from the owner or driver of an underinsured motor vehicle. An underinsured motor vehicle is a land motor vehicle, the ownership, maintenance, or use of which is insured or bonded for bodily injury or death at the time of the accident.

(5) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2007, p. 1921, § 2, effective January 1, 2008.)

(6) An alleged tortfeasor shall be deemed to be uninsured solely for the purpose of allowing the insured party to receive payment under uninsured motorist coverage, regardless of whether the alleged tortfeasor was actually insured, if:

(a) The alleged tortfeasor cannot be located for service of process after a reasonable attempt to serve the alleged tortfeasor; and

(b) (I) Service of process on the insurance carrier as authorized by section 42-7-414 (3), C.R.S., is determined by a court to be insufficient or ineffective after reasonable effort has failed; or

(II) (A) The report of a law enforcement agency investigating the motor vehicle accident fails to disclose the insurance company covering the alleged tortfeasor's motor vehicle; and

(B) The alleged tortfeasor's insurance coverage when the incident occurred is not actually known by the person attempting to serve process.

(7) Nothing in subsection (6) of this section voids the alleged tortfeasor's policy if the alleged tortfeasor was actually insured.

App. 425, 579 P.2d 1178 (1978), rev'd on other grounds, 197 Colo. 462, 594 P.2d 1042 (1979).

This section requires that insurance companies issuing policies on motor vehicles registered or principally garaged in this state offer uninsured motorist coverage. Alliance Mut. Cas. Co. v. Duerson, 184 Colo. 117, 518 P.2d 1177 (1974).

However, this section does not mandate that a driver carry uninsured motorist coverage. Individual insureds are free to decline such coverage. Cruz v. Farmers Ins. Exch., 12 P.3d 307 (Colo. App. 2000).

Insurance policy exclusion of resident relatives who own a vehicle from uninsured/underinsured motorist (UM/UIM) coverage violates Colorado public policy. Pacheco v. Shelter Mut. Ins. Co., 583 F.3d 735 (10th Cir. 2009) (decided under law in effect in 2000).

Where former § 10-4-703 (6) defined "insured" to include "relatives of the named insured who reside in the same household as the named insured", a policy that attempted to exclude from UM/UIM coverage vehicle-owning relatives meeting that definition is void and unenforceable. Pacheco v. Shelter Mut. Ins. Co., 583 F.3d 735 (10th Cir. 2009) (decided under law in effect in 2000).

Automobile insurance policy cannot narrow the class of individuals who were required to be covered under the former no fault act. If a person seeking coverage was one for whom coverage was required by statute, an insurer cannot limit its statutory obligation by a contractual provision contrary to the requirements of the no fault act. Pacheco v. Shelter Mut. Ins. Co., 583 F.3d 735 (10th Cir. 2009) (decided under law in effect in 2000).

Because UM/UIM coverage must be offered to a class coextensive with the class covered under the policy's liability provision, the exclusion of resident relatives owning vehicles is also void and unenforceable for purposes of UM/UIM coverage. The appropriate remedy is to consider the offending provision void and provide coverage to the limits of the policy. Pacheco v. Shelter Mut. Ins. Co., 583 F.3d 735 (10th Cir. 2009) (decided under law in effect in 2000).

This section incorporates the minimum limits for bodily injury or death as set forth in the financial responsibility act. Nationwide Mut. Ins. Co. v. Hillyer, 32 Colo. App. 163, 509 P.2d 810 (1973).

If uninsured motorist coverage is not rejected by the insured, the minimum amount of coverage required is as provided in the motor vehicle financial responsibility law. Alliance Mut. Cas. Co. v. Duerson, 184 Colo. 117, 518 P.2d 1177 (1974).

Limitation on recovery allowable. As long as a policy assures payment of the statutory minimum, a limitation on recovery is not repugnant to the motor vehicle financial responsibility law. Arguello v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 42 Colo. App. 372, 599 P.2d 266 (1979).

Coverage satisfying legislative intent. The legislative intent is satisfied by coverage which assures that one injured by an uninsured motorist will be compensated at least to the same extent as one injured by a motorist who is insured in compliance with the motor vehicle financial responsibility law. Alliance Mut. Cas. Co. v. Duerson, 184 Colo. 117, 518 P.2d 1177 (1974).

Section does not apply to umbrella policies. An umbrella liability insurance policy that includes excess liability coverage for the ownership or operation of motor vehicles is not an "automobile liability or motor vehicle liability policy" under the plain language of the section; therefore, insurer is not subject to the requirement to offer UM/UIM coverage as part of an umbrella policy. Apodaca v. Allstate Ins. Co., 232 P.3d 253 (Colo. App. 2009), aff'd, 255 P.3d 1099 (Colo. 2011).

There is a clear statutory basis for the use of a per occurrence limit on liability when two or more persons are injured. Subsection (2) sets both per person and per accident limits for the amount of uninsured motorist coverage an insurer is required to offer an insured. Application of per occurrence limit coupled with an anti-stacking provision is not inconsistent with the purpose of Colorado's underinsured motorist statute - to place the insured in the same position as if the underinsured had liability limits in an amount equal to an insured's coverage. Shean v. Farmers Ins. Exch., 934 P.2d 835 (Colo. App. 1996).

Attorney fees and expenses are not recoverable pursuant to this section. Thurman v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 942 P.2d 1327 (Colo. App. 1997); Loar v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 143 P.3d 1083 (Colo. App. 2006).

An insurance policy provision violates this section only if it directly limits the benefits to which the insured is entitled. Terranova v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 800 P.2d 58 (Colo. 1990); Peterman v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 948 P.2d 63 (Colo. App. 1997), rev'd on other grounds, 961 P.2d 487 (Colo. 1998).

And the mere act of specifying a procedure for determining the insured's right to recover UM benefits from the insurer does not directly limit such benefits, at least so long as the procedure specified is not unduly burdensome. Peterman v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 948 P.2d 63 (Colo. App. 1997), rev'd on other grounds, 961 P.2d 487 (Colo. 1998).

The phrase "bodily injury, sickness, or disease" in subsection (1)(a) does not include emotional distress absent a physical manifestation of the injury. Hence, this section does not require an insurer to provide benefits for purely emotional harm. Williams v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 195 P.3d 1158 (Colo. App. 2008).

Where a motor vehicle is being used in a manner reasonably foreseeable at the time the parties contracted for insurance and the "use" of the vehicle is inextricably linked to a plaintiff's injury, plaintiff is entitled to recover under the policy. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co. v. Kastner, 77 P.3d 1256 (Colo. 2003).

Limiting underinsured benefits to bodily injuries or deaths sustained by a person insured by the policy is not void as against public policy. Jones v. AIU Ins. Co., 51 P.3d 1044 (Colo. App. 2001).

The key to the application of this section is the inability of the innocent injured party to recover for a loss caused by another's negligence, whether that person is known or unknown. Farmers Ins. Exch. v. McDermott, 34 Colo. App. 305, 527 P.2d 918 (1974).

Section requires coverage for hit-and-run drivers. While the language of this section focuses on the problems of an uninsured motor vehicle, its applicability is not limited to those situations in which the identity of the negligent party is known. Furthermore, the declaration of public policy expresses the general assembly's prime concern as the need to compensate the innocent driver for injuries received at the hands of one from whom damages cannot be recovered. Thus, this section does require coverage for hit-and-run drivers. Farmers Ins. Exch. v. McDermott, 34 Colo. App. 305, 527 P.2d 918 (1974).

Section requires coverage for accidents involving drivers having governmental immunity. The phrase "legally entitled to recover damages", as used in this section, means that the insured must be able to establish that the fault of the uninsured motorist gave rise to damages and the extent of those damages. But where recovery from the driver is precluded solely because of the Colorado Governmental Immunity Act, denial of coverage would contravene legislative intent. Borjas v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 33 P.3d 1265 (Colo. App. 2001).

Provision requiring physical contact held invalid. Uninsured motorist provision of an insurance policy, insofar as it required a physical contact between the insured vehicle and the "hit-and-run" vehicle, was invalid as an impermissible restriction upon the coverage which is required by this section. The physical contact rule is inconsistent with the public policy of the state. Farmers Ins. Exch. v. McDermott, 34 Colo. App. 305, 527 P.2d 918 (1974).

Gunshot injuries sustained during a traffic altercation were "caused by accident" and, therefore, subject to uninsured motorist coverage. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co. v. McMillan, 925 P.2d 785 (Colo. 1996).

Phrase "caused by accident" was ambiguous, and must be construed against the drafter of the insurance policy. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co. v. McMillan, 925 P.2d 785 (Colo. 1996).

"Use of an automobile" held not to include the defendant's action of blocking the path of the plaintiffs' vehicle with his own vehicle, exiting his vehicle, and then assaulting the plaintiffs with a golf club. Roque v. Allstate Ins. Co., 2012 COA 10, __ P.3d __.

The insurance commissioner cannot by any of his actions vary the requirements of this section or change the public policy of this state determined by the general assembly as specified in former § 10-4-320. Nationwide Mut. Ins. Co. v. Hillyer, 32 Colo. App. 163, 509 P.2d 810 (1973).

Provision in insurance policy that allows the insurer to set off benefits received from workmen's compensation is, in effect, the reduction of uninsured motorist coverage in contravention of the established minimums, and this result is contrary to public policy. Nationwide Mut. Ins. Co. v. Hillyer, 32 Colo. App. 163, 509 P.2d 810 (1973).

Double recovery is not contemplated by the uninsured motorist statute. Alliance Mut. Cas. Co. v. Duerson, 184 Colo. 117, 518 P.2d 1177 (1974).

"Other insurance" clause not offensive to public policy. A person purchasing a motor vehicle insurance policy has three options: That of rejecting uninsured motorist coverage; that of purchasing it in a minimum amount; or that of purchasing it in an amount greater than that specified by statute. In view of these options, there is nothing offensive to public policy in an "other insurance" clause which denied recovery of additional sums over and above that provided by the primary insurance carrier. Alliance Mut. Cas. Co. v. Duerson, 184 Colo. 117, 518 P.2d 1177 (1974).

Validity of arbitration clauses. While courts in other jurisdictions have held that insurance policy clauses requiring arbitration of coverage under the uninsured motorist provisions cannot be reconciled with statute requiring protection against uninsured motorists, the Colorado appellate court has declined to adopt this view in light of the discernible policy supporting arbitration in this state. Wales v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 38 Colo. App. 360, 559 P.2d 255 (1976).

An arbitration clause that compels an insured to arbitrate a claim for UM benefits does not directly limit the insured's right to such benefits and is thus enforceable. Peterman v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 948 P.2d 63 (Colo. App. 1997), rev'd on other grounds, 961 P.2d 487 (Colo. 1998).

Requirement for enforceability of arbitration clause. C.R.C.P. 109, which requires that the parties execute a written agreement to arbitrate a dispute, that an arbitrator be named, and that the award may be filed as a basis of a judgment, must be satisfied as a requisite to enforceability of an arbitration clause in an insurance policy. Wales v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 38 Colo. App. 360, 559 P.2d 255 (1976).

Personal injury protection and uninsured motorist coverage compared. Newton v. Nationwide Mut. Fire Ins. Co., 197 Colo. 462, 594 P.2d 1042 (1979).

For decisions under former § 10-4-320 relating to legislative declaration as to uninsured motorist coverage, see Nationwide Mut. Ins. Co. v. Hillyer, 32 Colo. App. 163, 509 P.2d 810 (1973); Alliance Mut. Cas. Co. v. Duerson, 184 Colo. 117, 518 P.2d 1177 (1974); Farmers Ins. Exch. v. McDermott, 34 Colo. App. 305, 527 P.2d 918 (1974); Granite State Ins. Co. v. Dundas, 34 Colo. App. 382, 528 P.2d 961 (1974); Wales v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 38 Colo. App. 360, 559 P.2d 255 (1976); Newton v. Nationwide Mut. Fire Ins. Co., 197 Colo. 462, 594 P.2d 1042 (1979).

This section regulates the availability of insurance protection against uninsured motorists and is designed to protect persons from the often devastating consequences of motor vehicle accidents. Kral v. Am. Hardware Mut. Ins. Co., 784 P.2d 759 (Colo. 1989); Thurman v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 942 P.2d 1327 (Colo. App. 1997); DeHerrera v. Sentry Ins. Co., 992 P.2d 629 (Colo. App. 1999), rev'd on other grounds, 30 P.3d 167 (Colo. 2001).

This section requires insurers to offer their customers the opportunity to protect themselves from loss caused by negligent conduct of drivers who have not obtained insurance to pay for such loss. The coverage enables the insured to gain compensation for loss due to the negligent conduct of non-insured motorists in the same manner as the insured would be compensated for loss due to the negligent conduct of insured motorists. Kral v. Am. Hardware Mut. Ins. Co., 784 P.2d 759 (Colo. 1989); Thurman v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 942 P.2d 1327 (Colo. App. 1997).

Purpose of section is to provide insurance protection against injuries and damages caused by financially irresponsible uninsured motorists. Shelter Mut. Ins. Co. v. Thompson, 852 P.2d 459 (Colo. 1993) (decided prior to 1992 amendment); Freeman v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 946 P.2d 584 (Colo. App. 1997).

The purpose of underinsured motorist coverage is to enable an insured to receive coverage to the extent necessary to compensate fully for a loss caused by the conduct of a financially irresponsible driver. Freeman v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 946 P.2d 584 (Colo. App. 1997).

Intent of this section is to enable an injured insured to recover for loss caused by an underinsured motorist to the same extent that the injured insured would recover for damages caused by an uninsured motorist, and the underlying legislative policy of underinsured motorist coverage does not differ from that of uninsured motorist coverage. Thompson v. Shelter Mut. Ins. Co., 835 P.2d 518 (Colo. App. 1991) (decided prior to 1992 amendment).

This section is to assure that a person injured by an uninsured motorist is compensated to the same extent as one injured by a motorist who is insured in compliance with the law. Section 10-4-711 requires coverage only for accidents that occur within the United States, its territories or possessions, Canada, and Puerto Rico. Gonzales v. Allstate Ins. Co., 51 P.3d 1103 (Colo. App. 2002).

This section contains no provision expressly authorizing insurers to limit their liability for uninsured motorist benefits. Kral v. Am. Hardware Mut. Ins. Co., 784 P.2d 759 (1989).

Liability of insurer for underinsured motorist coverage is not contingent upon insured's full recovery under tortfeasor's policy. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co. v. Bencomo, 873 P.2d 47 (Colo. App. 1994).

Whether an insurer has made a sufficient offer requires an analysis of whether the notification was commercially reasonable, the limits of the coverage were specified, the insured was intelligibly advised as to the nature of the coverage so as to allow an assessment of the offer, and whether the insured was advised that the optional coverage was available for a modest increase in the premium. Parfrey v. Allstate Ins. Co., 815 P.2d 959 (Colo. App. 1991), aff'd in part and rev'd in part, 830 P.2d 905 (Colo. 1992).

An insurer is liable for prejudgment interest pursuant to § 5-12-102 for underinsured motorist coverage from the date of the insurer's wrongful refusal or failure to pay, notwithstanding a policy provision that provided that liability and the amount of damages were to be determined by agreement of the parties or by arbitration. Bowen v. Farmers Ins. Exch., 929 P.2d 14 (Colo. App. 1996).

Insurer is liable for prejudgment interest in excess of an uninsured motorist policy limit pursuant to § 5-12-102 where the interest is a damage item that did not arise out of the accident but arose instead out of the insurer's breach of the insurance contract. Peterman v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 8 P.3d 549 (Colo. App. 2000).

Insurer is not liable for prejudgment interest in excess of the underinsured motorist policy limits. If the insurer has paid the maximum allowed under the policy, prejudgment interest may not be added. Vaccaro v. Am. Family Ins. Group, 2012 COA 9M, 275 P.3d 450.

The purpose of subsection (2) is to provide the prospective policyholder an opportunity to make an informed decision regarding the appropriate level of uninsured/underinsured motorist (UM/UIM) coverage. Richardson v. Farmers Ins. Exch., 101 P.3d 1138 (Colo. App. 2004).

In furtherance of that purpose, the subsection imposes a duty on the insurance company to offer the prospective policyholder the opportunity to purchase UM/UIM coverage in an amount equal to the policyholder's bodily injury liability limits up to $100,000 per person and $300,000 per accident. DeHerrera v. Sentry Ins. Co., 30 P.3d 167 (Colo. 2001); Richardson v. Farmers Ins. Exch., 101 P.3d 1138 (Colo. App. 2004).

Subsection (2) creates a one-time duty upon an insurer to notify an insured of the nature and purpose of uninsured and underinsured motorist coverage and to give such insured the opportunity to purchase such coverage in accordance with the insurer's rating plan. Allstate Ins. Co. v. Parfrey, 830 P.2d 905 (Colo. 1992).

But, the insurer's duty of notification and offer must be performed in such a manner as is reasonably calculated to permit the insured to make an informed choice as to whether to purchase uninsured and underinsured motorist coverage in an amount which exceeds the minimum statutory liability limits. Allstate Ins. Co. v. Parfrey, 830 P.2d 905 (Colo. 1992); Richard- son v. Farmers Ins. Exch., 101 P.3d 1138 (Colo. App. 2004).

Subsection (2) does not make the obligation to inform contingent upon the insured's purchase of bodily injury liability coverage in excess of the statutory minimum. Loar v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 143 P.3d 1083 (Colo. App. 2006) (decided prior to 2007 amendment).

Absent any special relationship of "entitlement" in which an insurer assumes a greater duty of care for an insured, the insurer has no obligation to offer or recommend UM/UIM coverage in an amount greater than the statutorily set limits. Kaercher v. Sater, 155 P.3d 437 (Colo. App. 2006).

The determination as to whether an insurer adequately performed its duty of notification and offer will be based on a consideration of the totality of the circumstances. Factors to consider include the clarity of the explanation, whether the explanation was oral or written, the specificity of the options explained to the insured, the price of the different levels of coverage, and any other circumstances regarding the adequacy and clarity of the notification and offer. Allstate Ins. Co. v. Parfrey, 830 P.2d 905 (Colo. 1992).

Where the insurer does not comply with the statutory requirement to offer the prospective policyholder the opportunity to purchase UM/UIM coverage in an amount equal to the policy's bodily injury liability limits for a class of insureds coextensive with the class of insureds covered under the liability provisions, a step-down endorsement limiting UM/UIM coverage for permissive users of the covered individual's vehicle is unenforceable. Richardson v. Farmers Ins. Exch., 101 P.3d 1138 (Colo. App. 2004).

Under subsection (2), insureds are not entitled to obtain enhanced UM/UIM coverage without raising their own bodily injury liability limits. Loar v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 143 P.3d 1083 (Colo. App. 2006) (decided prior to 2007 amendment).

Former § 10-4-712 (3)(c)(II)(H) contained an exception to this section's rule that an insurer does not have a duty to offer higher UM/UIM coverage when the insured makes a change to a policy. The exception required the insurer to offer new UM/UIM coverage pursuant to subsection (2) if there is an increase in bodily injury liability limits and the limits of the uninsured motorist coverage would be less than such limits. Pacheco v. Shelter Mut. Ins. Co., 583 F.3d 735 (10th Cir. 2009) (decided under law in effect in 2000).

Former § 10-4-712 (3)(c)(II)(H) required insurer to offer higher UM/UIM coverage when insureds increased their bodily injury liability limits, regardless of whether the policy was a new policy, a replacement policy, or a renewal policy. Pacheco v. Shelter Mut. Ins. Co., 583

F.3d 735 (10th Cir. 2009) (decided under law in effect in 2000).

Factors to consider in determining, under a totality of the circumstances approach, whether the insurer satisfied its duty to notify and offer higher UM/UM coverage include the clarity with which the purpose of UM/UM coverage was explained to the insured; whether the explanation was made orally or in writing; the specificity of the options made known to the insured; the price at which the different levels of UM/UM coverage could be purchased; and any other circumstances bearing on the adequacy and clarity of the notification and offer. Pacheco v. Shelter Mut. Ins. Co., 583 F.3d 735 (10th Cir. 2009) (decided under law in effect in 2000).

“Stacking” provisions harmonized. Subsection (2) allows an insurer to prohibit stacking of UM/UM limits only as to policies issued to the insured, not as to policies covering the insured but not issued to the insured or a resident relative. Therefore, under subsection (4)(a), the policy limits of two policies could be combined to determine whether the tortfeasor was underinsured. Progressive Spec. Ins. Co. v. Hartford Und. Ins. Co., 148 P.3d 470 (Colo. App. 2006).

Exclusion of a vehicle insured under the liability terms of a policy from uninsured motor vehicle coverage does not violate the legislative purposes and the public policy underlying this section. The insured vehicle exclusion prevents the transformation of uninsured coverage into liability coverage when a claim is made for uninsured motorist benefits to compensate injuries that result from the operation of a vehicle insured for liability. Terranova v. State Farm, 800 P.2d 58 (Colo. 1990).

Exclusions for coverage based on vehicles being owned by the policyholder but insured by a different automobile insurance policy are void and against the public policy of this section. Jaimes v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 53 P.3d 743 (Colo. App. 2002).

Owned-but-not-insured exclusion is misleading. In UM/UM policy, an exclusion for owned-but-not-insured vehicles is void. Therefore, an insurer who includes such an exclusion in its policies fails to satisfy its disclosure obligations. Briggs v. Am. Nat’l Prop. & Cas. Co., 209 P.3d 1181 (Colo. App. 2009).

A clause limiting coverage to incidents corroborated by someone other than the named insured are void against the public policy of this section. This section does not include a corroboration clause or permit a policy to have such a provision. Therefore, the use of such clauses violates the public policy. Mavashev v. Windsor Ins. Co., 72 P.3d 469 (Colo. App. 2003).

Uninsured motorist benefits unavailable to insured when policy definition excludes from uninsured motorist protection an automobile insured under the policy’s liability coverage and policy also denies liability coverage under a household exclusion. Allstate v. Feghali, 814 P.2d 863 (Colo. 1991).

Insurance coverage under this section is not based on the number of uninsured or underinsured tortfeasors causing an accident, nor is it significant that one driver was uninsured and the other was underinsured. Farmers Ins. Exch. v. Star, 952 P.2d 809 (Colo. App. 1997); Am. Family Mut. Ins. Co. v. Murakami, 169 P.3d 192 (Colo. App. 2007).

Holders of certificates of self-insurance are not required by subsection (1) to carry uninsured motorist coverage. White by Scott v. Reg’l Transp. Dist., 735 P.2d 218 (Colo. App. 1987).

A car rental agreement constitutes an insurance policy for purposes of this section, where the rental company offers to sell the lessee various types of insurance coverage for specified prices. The lessee is the named insured and the rental company is required to provide the lessee the option of purchasing uninsured motorist coverage. Passamano v. Travelers Indem. Co., 882 P.2d 1312 (Colo. 1994).

The fact that the car rental company is self-insuring is not controlling. The car rental company still constitutes an insurer and must offer the lessee, as the named insured, the option of rejecting uninsured motorist protection. Passamano v. Travelers Indem. Co., 882 P.2d 1312 (Colo. 1994).

The definition of “policy” in § 10-4-601 (2) does not apply to this section. Application of the definition to this section would conflict with the legislative intent that all purchasers of automobile liability insurance policies must be afforded the opportunity to purchase uninsured motorist coverage. Passamano v. Travelers Indem. Co., 882 P.2d 1312 (Colo. 1994).

Subrogation and release-trust agreements allowed. With regard to an award under uninsured motorist coverage, an insurer can be subrogated to the rights which the insured has against those persons responsible for his injuries. Likewise, a trust release agreement entered into between the insured and the insurer is not void as against public policy. Granite State Ins. Co. v. Dundas, 34 Colo. App. 382, 528 P.2d 961 (1974); Kral v. Am. Hardware Mut. Ins. Co., 754 P.2d 411 (Colo. App. 1987), rev’d on other grounds, 784 P.2d 759 (Colo. 1989).

Subsection (1) of this section and § 42-7-103 (2), when read together, clearly establish the intent of the general assembly to provide a mechanism by means of which an insured might purchase insurance coverage for protection against loss caused by the conduct of a negligent and financially irresponsible motorist. This legislative intent is further reflected in subsections (4) and (5) of this section which provisions were added to the uninsured motorist coverage statute in 1983. Kral v. Am. Hardware Mut. Ins. Co., 784 P.2d 759 (Colo. 1989); Briggs v. Am. Family Mut. Ins. Co., 833 P.2d 859 (Colo. App. 1992).

Subsection (4) permits an injured insured to recover for loss caused by an underinsured motorist to the same extent the insured would recover if the underinsured motorist had no insurance. Subsection (5) measures the maximum limits of the insurer's liability by the extent of the insured's loss. When considered together, subsections (1), (4), and (5) of this section and § 42-7-103 (3) reflect a clear legislative purpose to place an injured party having uninsured motorist coverage in the same position as if the uninsured motorist had been insured. Kral v. Am. Hardware Mut. Ins. Co., 784 P.2d 759 (Colo. 1989); Briggs v. Am. Family Mut. Ins. Co., 833 P.2d 859 (Colo. App. 1992).

Subsection (5) allows an insurer to aggregate all amounts received by the insured from all parties liable for his or her injuries, and such a policy would not violate public policy by impermissibly diluting or limiting statutorily mandated coverage. Carlisle v. Farmers Ins. Exch., 946 P.2d 555 (Colo. App. 1997); Am. Family Mut. Ins. Co. v. Murakami, 169 P.3d 192 (Colo. App. 2007).

Primary insurer is first to receive the offset under subsection (5). As between a primary insurer and an excess insurer, the primary insurer faced the greater risk. Had the tortfeasor been uninsured, the primary insurer would have been required to pay the claim up to the full amount of its policy limits before the excess insurer was required to pay anything. Therefore, the primary insurer should be the first to receive the benefit of the offset. Progressive Spec. Ins. Co. v. Hartford Und. Ins. Co., 148 P.3d 470 (Colo. App. 2006).

The purpose of underinsurance is to place the injured party in the same position as if the underinsured had liability limits in amounts equal to the insured's coverage. This will not necessarily result in the injured being compensated to the full extent of such injured person's injuries. Leetz v. Amica Mut. Ins. Co., 839 P.2d 511 (Colo. App. 1992); Prudential Prop. and Cas. Ins. Co. v. LaRose, 919 P.2d 915 (Colo. App. 1996); McCord v. Affinity Ins. Group, Inc., 13 P.3d 1224 (Colo. App. 2000).

The purpose of the uninsured/underinsured motorist coverage available pursuant to this section is to compensate fully an innocent insured for loss, subject to policy limits, caused by financially irresponsible motorists. Farmers Ins. Exch. v. Walther, 902 P.2d 930 (Colo. App. 1995).

This section does not specify how legal entitlement to uninsured motorist benefits is to be determined in regard to the liability of an insurer. It is the insurance policy that specifies the process for determining whether the insured is "legally entitled" to collect damages so as to bind the insurer. Peterman v. State Farm Mut.

Auto. Ins. Co., 948 P.2d 63 (Colo. App. 1997), rev'd on other grounds, 961 P.2d 487 (Colo. 1998).

This section requires insurers to offer uninsured motorist coverage to a class of individuals coextensive with the class covered by the liability provision of the respective policy. Aetna Cas. & Sur. Co. v. McMichael, 906 P.2d 92 (Colo. 1995); Richardson v. Farmers Ins. Exch., 101 P.3d 1138 (Colo. App. 2004); Farmers Ins. Exch. v. Anderson, 260 P.3d 68 (Colo. App. 2010).

Section does not impose a right to be offered UM/UIM insurance on a per vehicle basis. Neither the statute nor case law interpreting the statute expressly or impliedly requires that insurance be offered for each vehicle owned by the policyholder. Briggs v. Am. Nat'l Prop. & Cas. Co., 209 P.3d 1181 (Colo. App. 2009).

The enforcement of a subrogation clause and release-trust agreement placing the insured in the position of having no greater protection against her loss than if uninsured motorist coverage had not been purchased contravened the strong policy adopted by the general assembly to enable an insured who purchases uninsured motorist protection to receive the benefits of that coverage to the extent necessary for full compensation for loss caused by the negligent conduct of a financially irresponsible motorist. Kral v. Am. Hardware Mut. Ins. Co., 784 P.2d 759 (Colo. 1989).

To the extent any reduction of benefits payable to the insured under the uninsured motorist provision of the contract of insurance because of the terms of the subrogation clause and release-trust agreement would result in the insured's inability to obtain full compensation for the loss she sustained, the agreements would directly violate that legislative policy and would therefore be unenforceable. Kral v. Am. Hardware Mut. Ins. Co., 784 P.2d 759 (Colo. 1989).

The general assembly's decision to allow insureds to decline to purchase uninsured motorist protection does not mean the legislature has exempted subrogation of uninsured motorist benefits from its general policy of requiring full compensation to insureds for loss sustained in automobile accidents. Kral v. Am. Hardware Mut. Ins. Co., 784 P.2d 759 (Colo. 1989).

Arbitration provision in no-fault policy with uninsured motorist coverage requiring each party to pay its own fees and expenses of arbitration held void as against public policy and unenforceable. Garceau v. Iowa Kemper Ins. Co., 859 P.2d 243 (Colo. App. 1993).

Where clause of an uninsured motorist policy permits either party to demand trial on merits after the completion of arbitration if amount awarded exceeds specified amount, clause violates public policy by diluting uninsured motorist coverage and is unenforceable.

Huizar v. Allstate Ins. Co., 952 P.2d 342 (Colo. 1998).

“Actual trial” clause in insurance contract violates public policy by diluting uninsured motorist coverage and is unenforceable. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co. v. Brekke, 105 P.3d 177 (Colo. 2004).

Denial of coverage in cases where the uninsured motorist's liability is determined in a default judgment needlessly requires the insured to re-litigate issues already decided. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co. v. Brekke, 105 P.3d 177 (Colo. 2004).

The general assembly has established that a person who purchases uninsured motorist coverage and sustains loss caused by the negligent conduct of an uninsured motorist is entitled to the benefits of such coverage to the extent necessary to fully compensate the insured for the loss, subject to the limits of the insurance contract. However, the general assembly did not intend to grant windfall profits to insureds by authorizing them to obtain double recovery for the same loss. To the extent payment of all or part of the authorized uninsured motorist benefit to the insured would, when added to the settlement proceeds she received, result in her receiving sums in excess of her total loss, the insurer should be entitled to enforce the terms of a release-trust agreement. Kral v. Am. Hardware Mut. Ins. Co., 784 P.2d 759 (Colo. 1989).

Allowing an insurance company to reduce the amount to be paid in UM/UIM coverage by the amount of social security disability benefits received by the insured contravenes public policy which allows insureds full recovery within policy limits. Barnett v. Am. Family Mut. Ins. Co., 843 P.2d 1302 (Colo. 1993).

While insureds should not be deprived of benefits for which they pay premiums, they should not be given a double recovery. Where plaintiff is fully compensated for medical expenses, it is not unlawful for insurer to deduct from UM/UIM benefits the amount of medical payments insurer paid. Levy v. Am. Family Mut. Ins. Co., ___ P.3d ___ (Colo. App. 2011).

This section has been construed to allow certain offsets of amounts that the insured receives from the tortfeasor's carrier and the uninsured/underinsured motorist benefits the insured receives under a policy other than his or her own when injured by an uninsured motorist, except that insurer may not offset amounts an insured receives under “separate and distinct” insurance or other agreements. Farmers Ins. Exch. v. Walther, 902 P.2d 930 (Colo. App. 1995).

Under this section, an injured person covered by an underinsured motorist policy who settles in good faith with a tortfeasor or liability carrier for less than the tortfeasor's policy limits, and who is eligible for underinsured motorist benefits, is entitled to compensation in an amount not exceeding the difference between the amount paid to the insured by or on behalf of the tortfeasor and the limits of underinsured motorist coverage. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co. v. Tye, 931 P.2d 540 (Colo. App. 1996).

Phrase “legally liable for the bodily injury” refers only to the tortfeasor who caused such bodily injury or death. Carrier liable for underinsured motorist benefits that sought to offset amount owed to insured with amount insured received as heir to the decedent, who was not the tortfeasor, was not eligible for such offset, as liability for amount insured received as heir to the decedent was not “imposed by law”; rather, liability was imposed pursuant to a contract of insurances between decedent and her carrier that insured against losses resulting from bodily injury or death caused by someone legally liable for such bodily injury or death. McCord v. Affinity Ins. Group, Inc., 13 P.3d 1224 (Colo. App. 2000).

This section does not prohibit an auto policy provision that excludes coverage for personal injury to an insured's relative who occupied a vehicle owned by the insured but which was not covered by the insured's auto policy. Williams-Diehl v. State Farm, 793 P.2d 587 (Colo. App. 1989).

Nor does this section prohibit an exclusion for a vehicle that is not insured under the policy. An exclusion that does not cover any vehicle that is provided for the insured's use does not violate this section. Cruz v. Farmers Ins. Exch., 12 P.3d 307 (Colo. App. 2000).

There is a private cause of action based on violations of this section. Preventing an insured's right of relief for failure to provide the coverage would circumvent the statutory duty imposed upon insurer to include the coverage in every policy, unless the insured expressly rejects it. Parfrey v. Allstate Ins. Co., 815 P.2d 959 (Colo. App. 1991), aff'd in part and rev'd in part, 830 P.2d 905 (Colo. 1992).

Tort claim against the uninsured motorist is distinct from the contract claim against the insurer. In the former case, where the uninsured motorist's liability is determined by default, the insurer may not insist upon a jury trial. In the latter case, however, the amount of damages payable under the contract is an issue, and the insurer may demand a jury trial. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co. v. Brekke, 105 P.3d 177 (Colo. 2004).

The term “replacement policy” used in subsection (3) refers to a policy issued to replace a prior policy which has been lost or destroyed or to a new policy which incorporates provisions different from those in a prior policy. Allstate Ins. Co. v. Parfrey, 830 P.2d 905 (Colo. 1992).

Consent to sue clauses are void as against public policy. Briggs v. Am. Family Mut. Ins. Co., 833 P.2d 859 (Colo. App. 1992).

Consent to sue clause in uninsured motorist provisions of an insurance contract was void as against the statutory mandate of this state regarding uninsured motorist coverage. Peterman v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 961 P.2d 487 (Colo. 1998).

Consent to settle clause does not violate public policy. Such clause, designed to protect the legitimate right of an insurer to pursue its subrogation rights, serves a valid purpose and does not diminish the protection of this statute. Estate of Harry v. Hawkeye-Security Ins. Co., 972 P.2d 279 (Colo. App. 1998).

Possibility of fraud or collusion is not justification for upholding consent to sue clauses and the multiplicity of lawsuits that result therefrom. Insurer can intervene in tort action between the insured and the uninsured for protection from such multiplicity of suits. Briggs v. Am. Family Mut. Ins. Co., 833 P.2d 859 (Colo. App. 1992).

An insurer will be bound by the resolution of issues in a tort action between the insured and an uninsured motorist as long as the insurer has notice and an opportunity to intervene, even if the insurer fails to seek intervention. Briggs v. Am. Family Mut. Ins. Co., 833 P.2d 859 (Colo. App. 1992).

"Consent to sue" clause in uninsured policy found void as against public policy. Briggs v. Am. Family Mut. Ins. Co., 833 P.2d 859 (Colo. App. 1992).

Anti-stacking provisions contained in underinsured motorist insurance policies do not violate the public policy underlying this section. Shelter Mut. Ins. Co. v. Thompson, 852 P.2d 459 (Colo. 1993).

Anti-stacking provisions contained in insurance policies are valid and the claimant was not entitled to stack the underinsured motorist benefits of his three separate policies. Colo. Farm Bureau Mut. Ins. v. Kehr, 853 P.2d 1155 (Colo. 1993); Farmers Ins. Exch. v. Stever, 854 P.2d 1230 (Colo. 1993).

Anti-stacking provisions do not include exclusionary provisions and "other insurance" provisions in the uninsured/underinsured policy concerning limitations on coverage when other automobile liability or uninsured/underinsured motorist coverage applies. Farmers Ins. Exch. v. Walther, 902 P.2d 930 (Colo. App. 1995).

Anti-stacking provision in subsection (2) does not apply where it was enacted after the policy was issued and after the accident on which the case was based occurred. Farmers Ins. Exch. v. Walther, 902 P.2d 930 (Colo. App. 1995); Sellers v. Allstate Ins. Co., 82 F.3d 350 (10th Cir. 1996).

Because the anti-stacking provisions of seven insurance policies applied only to policies issued by the same company, and the petitioners' motorcycle policy was not issued by the same company as their car policies, the existing record failed to support the district court's order in its entirety. The question of different insurance companies should have been addressed when noticed by the appellate court regardless of the petitioners' failure to raise it in the trial court or on appeal. Roberts v. Am. Family Mut. Ins. Co., 144 P.3d 546 (Colo. 2006).

Adding a new vehicle to a UM/UM policy does not constitute the issuance of a new policy because a policy applies to the individuals insured and not the vehicles, therefore statutory amendments that became effective January 1, 2008, and applied only to policies issued or renewed on or after that date were not incorporated into an existing policy by the addition of coverage for a new vehicle. Snell v. Progressive Preferred Ins. Co., 260 P.3d 37 (Colo. App. 2010).

By its terms subsection (2) prohibits stacking a policy issued to a named insured upon another policy issued to the named insured or a resident relative of the named insured. The statute prohibits stacking a policy issued to injured child's mother upon a policy issued to the child or a policy issued to injured child's father upon a policy issued to the child. Because injured child's mother and father are not resident relatives of one another, the statute does not prohibit the stacking of a policy issued to the mother upon a policy issued to the father. Am. Std. Ins. Co. v. Savaiano, 298 F. Supp.2d 1092 (D. Colo. 2003).

For purposes of uninsured motorist provisions, plaintiff's automobile was uninsured while under control of uninsured thief and therefore the owner who was injured while trying to stop theft of car was entitled to recover damages under uninsured motorist coverage. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co. v. Nissen, 835 P.2d 537 (Colo. App. 1992), aff'd, 851 P.2d 165 (Colo. 1993).

Policy requirement that plaintiff "occupy" vehicle at time of accident against public policy. Since plaintiff was using vehicle at time of accident even though not occupying it, he is entitled to recover. McMichael v. Aetna Ins. Co., 878 P.2d 61 (Colo. App. 1994).

Restrictions on kind of vehicle also against public policy. This act requires that UM/UM insurance apply to an insured person when injured by a financially irresponsible motorist. The act places no geographical limits on coverage, nor does it purport to tie protection against uninsured motorists to occupancy in any kind of vehicle. DeHerrera v. Sentry Ins. Co., 30 P.3d 167 (Colo. 2001).

UM/UM coverage follows the insured, not the vehicle. Wagner v. Travelers Prop. Cas. Co. of Am., 209 P.3d 1119 (Colo. App. 2008); Farmers Ins. Exch. v. Anderson, 260 P.3d 68 (Colo. App. 2010).

While section does not require insurer to advise insured of the implications of court decisions affecting UM/UM coverage under automobile insurance policies, summary judgment in favor of insurer was not appropriate because there is a genuine question of material fact as to whether a reasonable consumer could believe insurer sold UM/UM coverage on a vehicle basis rather than a policy basis, thereby requiring the consumer to purchase UM/UM coverage on all vehicles in order to protect the named insured and residential family members. Wagner v. Travelers Prop. Cas. Co. of Am., 209 P.3d 1119 (Colo. App. 2008).

Insurer's policy was not misleading because it: (1) Does not list a separate UM/UM premium for each of plaintiff's insured vehicles; (2) includes a total premium section specifically for UM/UM insurance that provides coverage for class one insureds and class two insureds; (3) contains a declaration page identified as "Additional Coverage"; and (4) shows a single charge for the entire policy regardless of the number of vehicles covered. Mullen v. Allstate Ins. Co., 232 P.3d 168 (Colo. App. 2009).

Insurer did not fraudulently conceal a material fact from insured that in equity and good conscience should have been disclosed. Insurer is not required to provide information regarding the business practices of other insurance companies, specifically, that per-vehicle coverage was available from other insurance companies, and plaintiff and other insureds received the benefit of UM/UM coverage under their policy for class two insureds in all vehicles listed on the policy. Mullen v. Allstate Ins. Co., 232 P.3d 168 (Colo. App. 2009).

Insurer did not commit negligent misrepresentation by omission. Insurer was not obligated to provide information about other types of coverage; insurer's policy did not include an owned but not insured exclusion; and insurer's UM/UM coverage on additional vehicles provided an additional benefit by insuring class two insureds. Mullen v. Allstate Ins. Co., 232 P.3d 168 (Colo. App. 2009).

Insurer did not engage in bad faith where policy informed customers that purchase of UM/UM coverage provided UM/UM coverage for all class one and class two insureds in all vehicles. An offer that includes accurate information about additional benefits provided is sufficient, and those benefits do not need to be specifically identified as additional benefits. Mullen v. Allstate Ins. Co., 232 P.3d 168 (Colo. App. 2009).

Insurer's practices comply with Colorado law, and, therefore, its practices were not unreasonable. Mullen v. Allstate Ins. Co., 232 P.3d 168 (Colo. App. 2009).

In determining whether the tortfeasor's vehicle was underinsured, the trial court correctly used the per accident bodily injury liability limit in the tortfeasor's policy for comparison where the plaintiff's insurance policy specified only a single limit. Leetz v. Amica Mut. Ins. Co., 839 P.2d 511 (Colo. App. 1992).

A tortfeasor's motor vehicle is underinsured under subsection (4)(a) whenever the limits of insurance liability on that motor vehicle are less than the sum of the underinsured motorist coverage declared in the injured party's policy and the underinsured motorist coverage declared in all other applicable policies. The word "limits" contained in subsection (4)(a) refers to the full amount of underinsured motorist coverage allowed by the injured party's entire policy, including those terms and conditions that permit the "stacking" of the underinsured portions of a policy issued to the injured party and the underinsured portions of other policies covering the injured party that were not issued to either the injured party or one of his or her resident relatives. Therefore, the initial determination of whether a tortfeasor's motor vehicle is underinsured under subsection (4)(a) is determined by comparing the liability limits of the tortfeasor's vehicle with the sum of the underinsured portions of the injured party's policy and the underinsured portions of any other applicable policies. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co. v. Progressive Mut. Ins. Co., 148 P.3d 117 (Colo. 2006).

The legislative directive in this section to find coverage for "innocent insureds" should not be construed to provide coverage for non-insureds even when a non-insured person has relied on such coverage. General Ins. Co. of Am. v. Smith, 874 P.2d 412 (Colo. App. 1993).

Public policy not violated for failure to carry uninsured motorist coverage for a particularly excluded driver or his or her innocent passenger. Lopez v. Dairyland Ins. Co., 890 P.2d 192 (Colo. App. 1994).

A policy for UM/UM coverage, negotiated at specific request of the insured, that is more narrow than general liability coverage does not impermissibly dilute, condition, or limit the coverage that must be offered pursuant to this section. Bernal v. Lumbermens Mut. Cas. Co., 97 P.3d 197 (Colo. App. 2003).

The provisions of this section do not include an express restriction on the policyholder's freedom to modify the scope of UM/UM coverage. Bernal v. Lumbermens Mut. Cas. Co., 97 P.3d 197 (Colo. App. 2003).

Public policy prohibits restricting UM/UM coverage according to the type of vehicle. Where an employee operated a company truck within the course and scope of the employee's employment and for which the employer elected UM/UM coverage for employee's occupying private passenger autos only, the court found restricted UM/UM coverage an impermissible restriction on coverage. Bernal v.

Lumbermens Mut. Cas. Co., 97 P.3d 197 (Colo. App. 2003).

The exclusion of uninsured motorist coverage for the wrongful death of a person who is not insured under the terms of an insurance policy does not violate the public policy underlying uninsured motorist insurance as required by this section. Farmers Ins. Exch. v. Chacon, 939 P.2d 517 (Colo. App. 1997).

Injuries sustained by police officer, who was attacked by dog that leapt from vehicle during stop and arrest of dog's owner who was uninsured, are not covered under officer's uninsured motorist coverage. Transporting of dog, in and of itself, insufficient to support a finding that the injury arose from the use of the automobile. Sanchez v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 878 P.2d 31 (Colo. App. 1994).

Summary judgment in favor of insured defendant was proper where plaintiff was injured while a passenger in a vehicle driven by a person specifically excluded from insurance coverage under this section, and no obligation to provide uninsured motorist coverage exists. Lopez v. Dairyland Ins. Co., 890 P.2d 192 (Colo. App. 1994).

Summary judgment in favor of insurance company defendant was affirmed where claimant was not a named insured under her parents' policy, her claim for emotional distress was based on a provision that applied only to persons with derivative claims, and she sought damages as a result of her own direct injuries and not those of her mother. Wieprkowski v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 976 P.2d 891 (Colo. App. 1999).

An action against an insurance company is barred by res judicata where claimant's initial claim for UIM benefits arising from an accident and the subsequent bad faith breach of contract claim against the company derive from the same "transaction". Salazar v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 148 P.3d 278 (Colo. App. 2006).

Road repair truck used as barricade between worker and on-coming traffic was in "use" for purposes of recovery under underinsured motorist provisions of employer-truck owner's motor vehicle insurance policy. Liability coverage was extended to anyone using the insured vehicle with the permission of the named insured and since plaintiff had permission to use the vehicle, he was entitled to UIM coverage to the extent that his injuries arose out of the "use" of the truck. McMichael v. Aetna Ins. Co., 878 P.2d 61 (Colo. App. 1994).

Death not causally related to use of uninsured motor vehicle, therefore, uninsured motorist benefits not available under insurance policy. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co. v. Fisher, 618 F.3d 1103 (10th Cir. 2010).

"[U]se" does not include a sexual assault inside a motor vehicle. Using the interior of a motor vehicle for sexual assault is not a reasonably foreseeable use of a motor vehicle; therefore, it does not have a sufficient causal nexus to injuries caused by such act. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co. v. Kastner, 77 P.3d 1256 (Colo. 2003).

Insurer is entitled to aggregate damages from multiple insureds under this section in calculating amount owed under a per-accident policy. Union Ins. Co. v. Houtz, 883 P.2d 1057 (Colo. 1994).

Insurer's method of aggregating damages under the per-accident policy is not contrary to public policy. Union Ins. Co. v. Houtz, 883 P.2d 1057 (Colo. 1994).

Insurance policy coverage is not rendered illusory simply by crediting an insurer with payments it has made, even if payments might reduce available UM/UIM coverage. Levy v. Am. Family Mut. Ins. Co., ___ P.3d ___ (Colo. App. 2011).

Insurance policy exclusion for motorcycles does not violate public policy. Allstate Indem. Co. v. Gonzales, 902 P.2d 953 (Colo. App. 1995); DeHerrera v. Sentry Ins. Co., 992 P.2d 629 (Colo. App. 1999), rev'd on other grounds, 30 P.3d 167 (Colo. 2001).

Insured entitled to collect uninsured motorist benefits need not be person who suffered bodily injury or death. Where plaintiff sought to collect uninsured motorist benefits as an heir to the decedent under a wrongful death claim arising from a death caused by an underinsured motorist, plaintiff was an "insured" for the purposes of subsection (4). McCord v. Affinity Ins. Group, Inc., 13 P.3d 1224 (Colo. App. 2000).

Where divorced parents' son was killed in an automobile accident, and each parent had a separate policy applicable to the accident that provided up to $100,000 for damages arising from an accident involving an underinsured motor vehicle, and the driver's policy had a liability limit of $100,000, the driver was obligated to pay $50,000 to each parent. As a result, for purposes of each parent's policy, $50,000 was paid to a person "other than an insured injured person in the accident", namely, the other parent. Hence, the driver's vehicle was underinsured under the terms of each policy. Under the wrongful death statute, each parent could recover up to $75,000 in uninsured motorist (UIM) benefits, and insurer was potentially liable under each parent's UIM policy for such amount. Kline v. Am. States Ins. Co., 924 P.2d 1150 (Colo. App. 1996).

An insurer may require judgment or settlement from the underinsured driver as a precondition to a claim for UIM benefits without diluting, conditioning, or unduly limiting statutorily mandated UIM coverage. Freeman v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 946 P.2d 584 (Colo. App. 1997).

It is not bad faith for an insurer to not pay underinsured motorist coverage while related action is pending. The insurer's reliance on the plain meaning of the section and case law indicating that the amount of underinsured motorist coverage is unknown until recovery is made from the at-fault party was reasonable. Pham v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 70 P.3d 567 (Colo. App. 2003).

Nothing in this section suggests the general assembly considered loss of consortium to be a separate bodily injury that must be insured against in all insurance policies. Thus an insurer need not offer either liability or uninsured motorist insurance which separately covers a loss of consortium claim to be in compliance with this section. Spaur v. Allstate Ins. Co., 942 P.2d 1261 (Colo. App. 1996).

Loss of consortium is not a "sickness" of the noninjured spouse any more than it is a "bodily injury", it is merely an element of consequential damages arising out of the bodily injury to the spouse injured in the accident. Spaur v. Allstate Ins. Co., 942 P.2d 1261 (Colo. App. 1996).

This section does not require full indemnification of losses suffered at the hands of the uninsured motorists under all circumstances without regard to policy limits. Spaur v. Allstate Ins. Co., 942 P.2d 1261 (Colo. App. 1996).

Independent contractor who elects not to obtain a policy of workers' compensation insurance covering himself is precluded from recovering more than the $15,000 statutory limit in damages from a UM/UIM insurer of the employer of a tortfeasor who is in the same employ as the independent contractor. Cont'l Divide Ins. Co. v. Dickinson, 179 P.3d 202 (Colo. App. 2007).

10-4-610. Property damage protection against uninsured motorists. (1) Every policy providing insurance for bodily injury caused by uninsured motorists that is delivered or issued for delivery in this state, which policy does not also provide insurance for collision damage, shall provide, at the request of the insured, coverage for the protection of persons insured thereunder who are legally entitled to recover damages from the owner or operator of an uninsured motor vehicle because of property damage to the motor vehicle described in the policy arising out of the operation, maintenance, or use of the uninsured motor vehicle. The coverage provided under this section shall cover the actual cash value of the vehicle or the cost of repair or replacement, whichever is less. Any coverage offered pursuant to this section on a vehicle may be subject to a deductible, at the option of the insurer, as with other property damage coverage. The coverage provided under this section shall not provide protection for:

- (a) Damage if there is not actual physical contact between the covered motor vehicle and another motor vehicle;
  - (b) Damages which are paid or payable under any other property insurance;
  - (c) Loss of use of a motor vehicle.
- (2) Repealed.

10-4-611. Elimination of discounts - damage by uninsured motorist. No rating discounts applied to any policy of motor vehicle insurance issued in this state shall be reduced or eliminated as the result of a collision with an uninsured motor vehicle where the operator of the insured motor vehicle is not at fault.

10-4-613. Glass repair and replacement. (1) No insurance company, domestic or foreign, or any agent or employee of such a company, shall require or permit that automobile glass repair or replacement work must be performed by a particular facility, individual, or business establishment as a condition of payment of a claim. However, an insurance company may provide that payments for such work shall be limited to a fair competitive price. No insurance company that issues, delivers, or renews such a policy shall fail to pay for the repair or replacement of automobile glass by an insured's chosen vendor, nor shall any such insurance company engage in any act or practice of intimidation, coercion, or threat for or against any insured person or entity to use a particular vendor or location for such glass repair or replacement work. No insurance company shall agree to refund or rebate any applicable deductible or portion thereof as an incentive or inducement to any insured to use a particular vendor or location for glass repair or replacement work. The provisions of this section shall apply to all policies of insurance delivered, issued for delivery, or renewed in this state that cover motor vehicles.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, an insurance company may agree to pay the full cost of glass repair, notwithstanding any applicable deductible.

Editor's note: This section was originally numbered as § 10-4-612 in House Bill 92-1275 but was renumbered on revision for ease of location.

10-4-614. Inflatable restraint systems - replacement - verification of claims. (1) If an insured receives payment for a policy claim for an inflatable restraint system that has inflated and deployed or been stolen, the insured shall replace such inflatable restraint system in the motor vehicle. Upon receiving such a policy claim, the insurer is authorized to inspect the vehicle for which the claim is being filed to verify that the inflatable restraint system did inflate and deploy or was stolen.

(2) For the purposes of this section, "inflatable restraint system" has the same meaning as is set forth in 49 CFR 507.208 S4.1.5.1 (b).

10-4-615. Motorist insurance identification database program - reporting required - fine. (1) (a) Each insurer that issues a policy pursuant to this part 6 shall provide to the department of revenue a record of each policy issued during the immediately preceding period. Such record shall comply with the requirements of subsections (2) and (3) of this section. This subsection (1) shall not be construed to prohibit more frequent reporting. Such policy information shall be provided to the department as follows:

(I) and (II) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2006, p. 1014, § 10, effective July 1, 2006.)

(III) Each insurer with any policies in place for the preceding six months shall provide such policy information every week for the immediately preceding week. Such information shall be reported no later than seven working days after the last date of the week reported on.

(b) Each insurer shall provide policy information on all existing policies issued by such insurer to the department at least every six months. The department and the working group created in section 42-7-604 (4) (b), C.R.S., shall determine if any new means of transmittal of such information may be utilized. Each insurer shall provide information regarding changes to existing policies to the department at the time of receipt of such information.

(2) The record described in subsection (1) of this section shall include:

(a) The name, date of birth, driver's license number, and address of each named insured owner or operator;

(b) The make, year, and vehicle identification number of each insured motor vehicle; and

(c) The policy number, effective date, and expiration date of each policy.

(3) Each insurer shall provide the required information in a form or manner acceptable to the designated agent.

(4) (a) The division of insurance shall assess a fine of not more than two hundred fifty dollars against an insurer for each day such insurer fails to report timely and accurate information in accordance with this section or with rules promulgated pursuant to section 42-7-604 (8), C.R.S. Any administrative costs incurred by the division of insurance shall be paid from the fines assessed pursuant to this paragraph (a).

(b) The commissioner shall excuse the fine if an insurer provides proof that its failure to comply was inadvertent, accidental, or the result of excusable neglect.

(5) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2006, p. 1014, § 10, effective July 1, 2006.)

10-4-616. Disclosure of credit reports. (1) (a) Insurers using new or updated credit information in insurance underwriting or rating shall notify applicants or policyholders that their credit information will be used for underwriting or rating.

(b) When an insurer uses a producer for such disclosure, the insurer shall provide the producer with the form of such notice and use a reasonable means to verify that such notice is given. The disclosure notice form shall be developed by the insurer.

(c) Upon request by an applicant or policyholder, an insurer or producer shall provide an explanation of the significant characteristics of the credit information that impact the policyholder's insurance score. This information may be included in the disclosure notice form.

(2) If the use of credit information results in an adverse action to a consumer, the insurer shall comply with the notice requirements of the federal "Fair Credit Reporting Act", 15 U.S.C. sec. 1681 et seq. Such notice shall include, but is not limited to:

(a) The identity, telephone number, and address of any consumer reporting agency from whom a credit report was obtained;

(b) Notice of the consumer's right to receive a free credit report from the consumer reporting agency for a period of sixty days if such report resulted in an adverse action; and

(c) Notice of the consumer's right to lodge a dispute with the consumer reporting agency and have any erroneous information corrected in accordance with the federal "Fair Credit Reporting Act", 15 U.S.C. sec. 1681 et seq.

(3) For the purposes of this section, "adverse action" means a denial, cancellation, or nonrenewal of, an increase in any charge for, a placement into a higher tier, or a reduction or unfavorable change in the terms of coverage or amount of insurance in connection with underwriting of existing insurance or an application for insurance.

10-4-617. Insurers - biannual fee - auto theft prevention authority. (1) Each insurer that issues a policy pursuant to this part 6 shall biannually pay a fee to the automobile theft prevention board, created pursuant to section 42-5-112, C.R.S., for the support of the automobile theft prevention authority. Upon receiving payment, the board shall transfer the amount received to the state treasurer for deposit in the Colorado auto theft prevention cash fund created in section 42-5-112 (4), C.R.S. The amount of the fee shall be equal to one dollar multiplied by the number of motor vehicles insured by the insurer as of July 1 of each year, divided by two. The insurer shall report the number of insured motor vehicles and pay the assessed biannual fee as follows:

(a) On or before August 15, 2008, and on or before August 15 each year thereafter, the insurer shall notify the automobile theft prevention board of the number of motor vehicles insured by that insurer as of July 1 of that year; and

(b) On or before January 1, 2009, and July 1, 2009, and on or before January 1 and July 1 each year thereafter, the insurer shall pay to the automobile theft prevention board the assessed biannual fee in the amount specified in this subsection (1).

(2) On or before February 1, 2009, and on or before February 1 each year thereafter, the automobile theft prevention board shall compare the list of insurers who paid the biannual fee with the list compiled by the division of insurance of all insurance companies licensed to insure motor vehicles in the state and shall notify the commissioner of the division of insurance of any insurer's failure to pay the fee prescribed in subsection (1) of this section. Upon receiving notice of an insurer's failure to pay the fee, the commissioner shall notify the insurer of the fee requirement. If the insurer fails to pay the fee to the automobile theft prevention board within fifteen days after receiving the notice, the commissioner may suspend the insurer's certificate of authority or impose a civil penalty of not more than one hundred twenty percent of the amount due, or both. The insurer shall pay the civil penalty to the commissioner. The commissioner shall transfer the amount received to the state treasurer who shall credit the amount to the Colorado auto theft prevention cash fund, created in section 42-5-112 (4), C.R.S.

(3) For the purposes of this section, "insurer" shall have the same meaning as provided in section 10-1-102 (13) that covers the operation of a motor vehicle.

(4) (a) Each insurer subject to the provisions of this section is hereby authorized to recoup the fee required in subsection (1) of this section from its policyholders.

(b) Each insurer subject to the provisions of this section shall not raise its premiums based on the fee in this section.

(5) As used in this section, "motor vehicle" does not include vehicles or vehicle combinations with a declared gross weight of more than twenty-six thousand pounds.

Coverage compulsory. (1) Every owner of a motor vehicle who operates the motor vehicle on the public highways of this state or who knowingly permits the operation of the motor vehicle on the public highways of this state shall have in full force and effect a complying policy under the terms of this part 6 covering the said motor vehicle, and any owner who fails to do so shall be subject to the sanctions provided under sections 42-4-1409 and 42-7-301, C.R.S., of the "Motor Vehicle Financial Responsibility Act". This section shall not apply to persons who hold a current and valid certificate of self-insurance pursuant to section 10-4-624.

(2) An insurer shall not refuse to provide benefits to an insured on the basis that the insured is a volunteer for a fire department and is injured in a motor vehicle while responding to an emergency.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since this section is similar to § 10-4-705 as it existed prior to the 2003 repeal of part 7 of article 4 of this title, relevant cases construing that provision have been included in the annotations to this section.

Act generally covers claims arising from automobile accidents between private person and public entity. Reg'l Transp. Dist. v. Voss, 890 P.2d 663 (Colo. 1995).

Vehicles operating out of the normal traffic flow on highways, roads, or other places, are exempt, as are their owners, from the compulsion of the statute. Smith v. Simpson, 648 P.2d 677 (Colo. App. 1982).

Coverage is compulsory even though the owner does not have knowledge of or give permission to each individual who drives the car. Bukulmez v. Hertz Corp., 710 P.2d 1117 (Colo. App. 1985); aff'd in part and rev'd in part on other grounds sub nom. in Blue Cross of W. New York v. Bukulmez, 736 P.2d 834 (Colo. 1987).

The provisions of this section and § 10-4-706 do not mandate a minimum coverage for every policy. Rather, the purpose of these statutes is to impose upon motor vehicle owners a mandated level of insurance coverage for their vehicles. Since the insurer limited its total liability under all three identical vehicle insurance policies to the requisite statutory minimum and since each policy therefore complied with the insured's statutory obligation, there was no conflict with this section and § 10-4-107. Am. Standard Ins. Co. v. Ekeroth, 791 P.2d 1220 (Colo. App. 1990), cert. denied, 797 P.2d 1299 (Colo. 1990).

In-state insurers are not excluded from having to provide the minimum coverages required of out-of-state insurers. Ortiz v. Hawkeye-Security Ins. Co., 971 P.2d 233 (Colo. App. 1998).

Court declined to read in a primacy requirement to the compulsory coverage mandated by this section. Neither case law nor current statutory law requires compulsory coverage under this section to be treated as primary. To the contrary, § 10-4-623 states that an owner's compulsory coverage "may be subject to conditions and exclusions that are not inconsistent with the requirements" of the relevant statutes. Further, former § 10-4-707 (4) shows that the general assembly knows how to identify primary coverage. Hence, the omission of such a provision in this section cannot be dismissed as inadvertent. Shelter Mut. Ins. Co. v. Mid-Century Ins. Co., 214 P.3d 489 (Colo. App. 2008), aff'd, 246 P.3d 651 (Colo. 2011).

Nor is there any compelling public policy basis for reading a primary-insurer require- ment into the statutory scheme. The public policy behind Colorado's mandatory-insurance laws only requires that the public benefit from insurance coverage, not that any insurer be primary. Shelter Mut. Ins. Co. v. Mid-Century Ins. Co., 246 P.3d 651 (Colo. 2011).

Nor does industry custom compel the vehicle owner's insurer be primary. Shelter Mut. Ins. Co. v. Mid-Century Ins. Co., 246 P.3d 651 (Colo. 2011).

Insureds and insurers are not prohibited from determining by contract what coverages are primary and what coverages are excess as to compulsory coverage. Accident victims are equally protected by compulsory coverage that is primary or multiple coverages that are co-primary. Thus, there is no need to abrogate the freedom of contract between insureds and insurers regarding primacy of coverages. Shelter Mut. Ins. Co. v. Mid-Century Ins. Co., 214 P.3d 489 (Colo. App. 2008), aff'd, 246 P.3d 651 (Colo. 2011).

Insurance policy's "excess clause", which made coverage secondary to other collectible insurance, was not void as an erosion of the statutory mandate that vehicle owners carry minimum liability insurance. Court contrasted excess clause, which limited coverage to the extent that other coverage existed, with "escape clause", whereby an insurer provides no coverage if other insurance applied. Shelter Mut. Ins. Co. v. Mid-Century Ins. Co., 214 P.3d 489 (Colo. App. 2008), aff'd, 246 P.3d 651 (Colo. 2011).

Exclusion in insurance policy for bodily injury or property damage caused intentionally by or at the direction of an insured does not violate the mandatory liability insurance statute or the state's public policy. Gov't Employees Ins. Co. v. Brown, 739 F. Supp. 2d 1317 (D. Colo. 2010).

Where insureds gave the keys to their truck to the driver and informed him that he could drive the truck to work without asking for further permission, the driver had the initial permission of the insureds necessary to trigger the insurance protection required by the Colorado Auto Accident Reparations Act. Wiglesworth v. Farmers Ins. Exch., 917 P.2d 288 (Colo. 1996).

Initial permission from the primary insured to use the vehicle is all that is required to confer coverage under the Colorado Auto Accident Reparations Act. Wiglesworth v. Farmers Ins. Exch., 917 P.2d 288 (Colo. 1996).

Applied in Ohio Cas. Ins. Co. v. Guaranty Nat'l Ins. Co., 197 Colo. 264, 592 P.2d 397

10-4-620. Required coverage. Subject to the limitations and exclusions authorized by this part 6, the basic coverage required for compliance with this part 6 is legal liability coverage for bodily injury or death arising out of the use of the motor vehicle to a limit, exclusive of interest and costs, of twenty-five thousand dollars to any one person in any one accident and fifty thousand dollars to all persons in any one accident and for property damage arising out of the use of the motor vehicle to a limit, exclusive of interest and costs, of fifteen thousand dollars in any one accident.

Annotator's note. Since this section is similar to § 10-4-706(1)(a) as it existed prior to the 2003 repeal of part 7 of article 4 of this title, relevant cases construing that provision have been included in the annotations to this section.

Nothing in this section suggests the general assembly considered loss of consortium to be a separate bodily injury that must be insured against in all insurance policies. Thus an insurer need not offer either liability or uninsured motorist insurance which separately covers a loss of consortium claim to be in compliance with this section. Spaur v. Allstate Ins. Co., 942 P.2d 1261 (Colo. App. 1996).

An insurance policy is a contract that should be interpreted consistently with principles of contract law. A reviewing court should give the words of an insurance policy their plain and ordinary meaning unless the intent of the parties, as expressed in the policy, indicates a contrary intent. However, when the provisions are ambiguous, they are construed against the drafting party. Farmers Ins. Exch. v. Wiglesworth, 903 P.2d 659 (Colo. App. 1994), rev'd on other grounds, 917 P.2d 288 (Colo. 1996).

"Household exclusion" clause against public policy. A household exclusion clause, excluding coverage of family members residing in the same household, is void as against public policy. Meyer v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 689 P.2d 585 (Colo. 1984) (decided prior to 1986 enactment of § 10-4-418 (2)(b)).

Physical damage waiver contained in automobile rental agreement was so significantly restricted it was unconscionable, and lessor could not enforce a limitation on such waiver which excluded damages caused when driver was under influence of drugs or intoxicants when it brought action against lessee to recover for total destruction of automobile which occurred while lessee was intoxicated. Davis v. M.L.G. Corp., 712 P.2d 985 (Colo. 1986).

Automobile lessor impermissibly attempted to limit the statutory requirements of subsection (1) which requires automobile liability coverage by conditioning its compulsory liability coverage for property damage on compliance with its lease's provisions. Davis v. M.L.G. Corp., 712 P.2d 985 (Colo. 1986).

Common-law obligations by contract may be altered by parties to bailment or lease of an automobile, provided such contract does not contravene public policy or violate a statute. Davis v. M.L.G. Corp., 712 P.2d 985 (Colo. 1986).

Initial permission from the primary insured to use the vehicle is all that is required to confer coverage. Wiglesworth v. Farmers Ins. Exch., 917 P.2d 288 (Colo. 1996).

The clause "exclusive of interest and costs" must be given meaning and therefore the minimum legal liability coverage mandated by this section means $25,000 of benefits plus any interests and costs attendant thereto. Bjorkman v. Bjorkman v. Steenrod, 762 P.2d 706 (Colo. App. 1988).

Prejudgment interest is subject to the policy limits. Prejudgment interest is an element of damages included within the damages coverages of an insurance policy and subject to the policy limit for such coverage. Allstate Ins. Co. v. Allen, 797 P.2d 46 (Colo. 1990).

Mandatory coverage of $25,000 exclusive of interest and costs establishes minimum applicable to initial amount of damages suffered and not exclusion from liability. Garceau v. Iowa Kemper Ins. Co., 859 P.2d 243 (Colo. App. 1993).

Where each of three identical vehicle insurance policies contained language limiting the insurer's liability to the maximum amount recoverable under any one policy, such provisions prohibited the "stacking" of liability coverage under the three policies. The fact that separate premiums were paid on each policy is not dispositive and does not alter the plain wording of the policies. Am. Standard Ins. Co. v. Ekeroth, 791 P.2d 1220 (Colo. App. 1990).

The provisions of this section and § 10-4-705 do not mandate a minimum coverage for every policy. Rather, the purpose of these statutes is to impose upon motor vehicle owners a mandated level of insurance coverage for their vehicles. Since the insurer limited its total liability under all three identical vehicle insurance policies to the requisite statutory minimum and since each policy therefore complied with the insured's statutory obligation, there was no conflict with this section and § 10-4-107. Am. Standard Ins. Co. v. Ekeroth, 791 P.2d 1220 (Colo. App. 1990), cert. denied, 797 P.2d 1299 (Colo. 1990).

This section and § 10-4-623 (1) deal with mandated minimum liability coverages and have no application to the crime exclusion in the insurance policy because the exclusion applies to supplemental coverage that is in addition to, and separate from, the mandatory coverage. Lincoln Gen. Ins. Co. v. Bailey, 224 P.3d 336 (Colo. App. 2009), aff'd, 255 P.3d 1039 (Colo. 2011).

Any construction of the policy's exclusion, if inconsistent with the Act, renders the exclusion void. Great Plains Ins. Co., Inc. v. Angerman, 833 P.2d 810 (Colo. App. 1991).

Exclusion in insurance policy for bodily injury or property damage caused intentionally by or at the direction of an insured does not violate the mandatory liability insurance statute or the state's public policy. Gov't Employees Ins. Co. v. Brown, 739 F. Supp. 2d 1317 (D. Colo. 2010).

10-4-621. Required coverages are minimum. (1) Nothing in this part 6 shall be construed to prohibit the issuance of policies providing coverages more extensive than the minimum coverage required by section 10-4-620, nor to require the segregation of such minimum coverage from other coverages in the same policy. However, loss statistics as to bodily injury liability and property damage liability shall be kept separately for rating purposes, and such statistics shall be filed with the commissioner each year.

(2) On and after January 1, 2005, all insurers shall offer collision coverage for damage to insured motor vehicles subject to deductibles of one hundred dollars and two hundred fifty dollars. Insurers may offer such other reasonable deductibles as they deem appropriate. Collision coverage shall provide insurance without regard to fault against accidental property damage to the insured motor vehicle with another motor vehicle or motor vehicle caused by physical contact of the insured with another object or by upset of the insured motor vehicle, if the accident occurs within the United States or its territories or possessions.

(3) No insurer may surcharge, refuse to write, cancel, or nonrenew a complying policy of automobile insurance based solely on the method of compliance or level of coverage chosen, as long as the requirements are met under section 42-3-105 (1) (d) (I) or (1) (f), C.R.S.

10-4-622. Required provision for intrastate and interstate operation. (1) Notwithstanding any of its terms and conditions, every complying policy shall afford coverage at least as extensive as the minimum coverage required by section 10-4-620.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be construed to require that a complying policy provide coverage while the insured motor vehicle is operated in other jurisdictions by reason of any program, statute, law, or administrative rule in effect in such other jurisdiction by which coverage is afforded in such other jurisdiction through a government agency or publicly financed auto accident reparations plan such as, by way of illustration and not limitation, plans presently in effect in the province of Saskatchewan, Canada, and the commonwealth of Puerto Rico, U.S.A.

(3) On and after January 1, 2005, notwithstanding any of its other terms and conditions, every complying policy shall afford coverage at least as extensive as the minimum coverage required by operation of section 10-4-620, during such periods of time as the insured motor vehicle is operated in other jurisdictions of the United States or its territories or possessions, as the statutes, laws, or administrative rules of such other jurisdictions require with respect to liability or financial responsibility and direct benefit or first-party coverages for operators, occupants, and persons involved in accidents arising out of use or operation of motor vehicles within such other jurisdictions.

(4) (a) Notwithstanding any of its other terms and conditions, every contract of liability insurance for injury, wherever issued, covering ownership, maintenance, or use of a motor vehicle, shall provide coverage at least as extensive as the minimum coverages required by operation of section 10-4-620, and qualifies as security covering the vehicle while it is in this state.

(b) An insurer authorized to transact or transacting business in this state may not exclude the minimum coverage required by operation of section 10-4-620 in any contract of liability insurance for injury, wherever issued, covering ownership, maintenance, or use of a motor vehicle while it is in this state.

10-4-623. Conditions and exclusions. (1) The coverage described in section 10-4-620 may be subject to conditions and exclusions that are not inconsistent with the requirements of this part 6.

(2) The coverage described in section 10-4-620 may also be subject to exclusions where the injured person:

- (a) Sustains injury caused by his or her own intentional act; or
- (b) Is operating a motor vehicle as a converter without a good faith belief that he or she is legally entitled to operate or use such vehicle.

(3) (a) The coverage described in section 10-4-620 is conditioned upon the insurer offering coverages pursuant to section 10-4-609 (1).

(b) The insurer shall be deemed to have complied with the requirements of section 10-4-609 (1) and the exclusion of the insured from uninsured motorist coverage shall be deemed valid if the named insured has rejected the uninsured motorist coverage in writing. Such exclusion shall be continuing until such time as the insured requests that the insurer provide uninsured motorist coverage. The insurer shall not have a duty to offer uninsured motorist coverage after receiving the insured's written request for exclusion even though:

- (I) The vehicles insured under the policy have changed; or
- (II) The policy is reinstated, transferred, substituted, amended, altered, modified, replaced, or renewed.

(c) The insurer shall be deemed to have complied with section 10-4-609 (1) and the insured's uninsured motorist coverage shall be deemed valid if the insurer has offered coverage at available levels and the insured has selected coverage of a certain value. The insurer shall not have a duty to offer changes in uninsured motorist coverage to the insured even though:

- (I) The vehicles covered under the policy have changed; or
- (II) The policy is reinstated, transferred, substituted, amended, altered, modified, replaced, or renewed; except that, if there is an increase in bodily injury liability limits and the limits of the uninsured motorist coverage would be less than such limits, the insurer shall offer new uninsured motorist coverage to the insured pursuant to section 10-4-609 (2).

"Household exclusion" clause invalid because it is neither authorized by statute nor in harmony with the legislative purpose of this act. Meyer v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 689 P.2d 585 (Colo. 1984) (decided prior to 1986 amendment).

Household exclusion clauses in automobile insurance policies issued after effective date of § 10-4-418, are valid, and the provision in that section stating that exclusion clauses are compatible with state public policy applies prospectively. Coffman v. State Farm Mut. Auto Ins. Co., 884 P.2d 275 (Colo. 1994).

Exclusion for bodily injury to employees that was intended to avoid duplication of benefits available under the Workers' Compensation Act is enforceable even when the employer failed to obtain workers' compensation insurance because coverages required under § 10-4-706 can be excluded under subsection (1) of this section so long as the exclusion is not contrary to the public policy expressed in § 10-4-702 to avoid inadequate compensation, and injured employee had a remedy under § 8-43-408 of the Workers' Compensation Act. Canal Ins. Co. v. Nix, 7 P.3d 1038 (Colo. App. 1999).

Subsection (1) of this section and § 10-4-620 deal with mandated minimum liability coverages and have no application to the crime exclusion in the insurance policy because the exclusion applies to supplemental coverage that is in addition to, and separate from, the mandatory coverage. Lincoln Gen. Ins. Co. v. Bailey, 224 P.3d 336 (Colo. App. 2009), aff'd, 255 P.3d 1039 (Colo. 2011).

Exclusion in insurance policy for bodily injury or property damage caused intentionally by or at the direction of an insured does not violate the mandatory liability insurance statute or the state's public policy. Gov't Employees Ins. Co. v. Brown, 739 F. Supp. 2d 1317 (D. Colo. 2010).

Factual determination made during workers' compensation hearing does not bar a determination of claimant's entitlement to PIP benefits under doctrine of collateral estoppel. Determination that claimant was driving employer's vehicle outside scope of employment not determinative of whether she was acting as converter of the vehicle and therefore might not be entitled to PIP benefits. Maryland Cas. Co. v. Messina, 874 P.2d 1058 (Colo. 1994).

The business use delivery exclusion is invalid and unenforceable under the no-fault act because it is not authorized by statute or in harmony with the legislative purpose of mandating liability coverage to avoid inadequate compensation. St. Paul Fire and Marine Ins. Co. v. Mid-Century Ins. Co., 18 P.3d 854 (Colo. App. 2001).

10-4-624. Self-insurers. (1) Any person in whose name more than twenty-five motor vehicles are registered may qualify as a self-insurer by obtaining a certificate of self-insurance issued by the commissioner.

(2) The commissioner may, in his or her discretion, upon the application of such person, issue a certificate of self-insurance when the commissioner is satisfied that such person is able and will continue to be able to pay benefits as required under section 10-4-620 and to pay any and all judgments that may be obtained against such person. Upon not less than five days' notice and a hearing pursuant to such notice, the commissioner may, upon reasonable grounds, cancel a certificate of self-insurance. Failure to pay any benefits under section 10-4-620 or failure to pay any judgment within thirty days after such judgment has become final shall constitute a reasonable ground for the cancellation of a certificate of self-insurance.

(3) For purposes of subsection (2) of this section, the commissioner shall accept, as proof that a motor carrier as defined in article 10.1 of title 40, C.R.S., is able and will continue to be able to pay all judgments that might be obtained against the carrier, a surety bond in a form acceptable to the commissioner in an amount determined by the commissioner sufficient to ensure that the carrier has the ability to pay all judgments that may be obtained against any such carrier.

a motor vehicle provide liability coverage for bodily injury arising from the vehicle's permissive use. Barnes v. Whitt, 852 P.2d 1322 (Colo. App. 1993).

10-4-625. Premium payments. The commissioner shall issue rules establishing monthly, quarterly, semiannual, and annual premium payments for persons who are required to purchase insurance under this part 6. An insurer providing a plan for payments on a basis that is more frequent than quarterly need not also provide a quarterly payment plan. An insurer's plan for payments may provide for payment of an advance deposit premium.

10-4-626. Prohibited reasons for nonrenewal or refusal to write policy of automobile insurance applicable to this part 6. (1) No insurer authorized to transact or transacting business in this state shall refuse to write or refuse to renew a policy of insurance affording the coverage required by operation of section 10-4-620 solely because of the age, race, creed, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, ancestry, residence, marital status, or lawful occupation, including the military service, of anyone who is or seeks to become insured or solely because another insurer has canceled a policy or refused to write or renew such policy. The commissioner shall administer and enforce this subsection (1).

(2) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit an insurance company authorized to transact or transacting business in this state from issuing policies of insurance affording the coverage required by operation of section 10-4-620 solely to a specialty market authorized by the commissioner.

Insurers failure to notify insureds clearly and unequivocally of its cancellation of cov- erage constituted a course of conduct which led insureds, as ordinary laypersons, reasonably to believe that by properly endorsing and returning their premium payment their personal injury coverage would remain in effect or be reinstated. Leland v. Travelers Indem. Co. of Illinois, 712 P.2d 1060 (Colo. App. 1985).

10-4-627. Discriminatory standards - premiums - surcharges - proof of financial responsibility requirements. (1) An insurer shall not:

(a) Cancel or nonrenew, or increase the premium of, a policy of insurance on a motor vehicle used by any resident of the household of the named insured solely because of convictions for traffic violations that resulted in less than seven points being assessed under the point system schedule set forth in section 42-2-127 (5), C.R.S., resulting from violations while in the course of employment while the insured is driving a motor vehicle used primarily as a public or livery conveyance or licensed as a commercial vehicle; or

(b) Add a surcharge to the policy premium of an insured or a family member of an insured or other person living in the same household as an insured in a manner that results in an excessive or unfairly discriminatory premium pursuant to section 10-4-403.

(2) This section shall not be construed to limit or in any manner restrict an insurer from cancelling or refusing to issue or renew a policy of insurance or from increasing the premium of an insured on a motor vehicle used by him or her for commercial purposes or from reclassifying an insured for traffic violations received by the insured while using a motor vehicle for commercial purposes.

10-4-628. Refusal to write - changes in - cancellation - nonrenewal of policies prohibited. (1) No insurer shall cancel; fail to renew; refuse to write; reclassify an insured under; reduce coverage under, unless the reduction is part of a general reduction in coverage filed with the commissioner; or increase the premium for, unless the increase is part of a general increase in premiums filed with the commissioner, any complying policy because the applicant, insured, permissive user, or any resident of the household of the applicant or insured has:

(a) Had an accident or accidents that are not the fault of such named applicant, insured, household member, or permissive user;

(b) Had a license suspended pursuant to section 42-2-127.5, C.R.S., or been denied a license pursuant to section 42-2-104 (3) (f), C.R.S.

(2) (a) (I) No insurer shall cancel; fail to renew; reclassify an insured under; reduce coverage under, unless the reduction is part of a general reduction in coverage filed with the commissioner; or increase the premium for, unless the increase is part of a general increase in premiums filed with the commissioner, any complying policy solely because the insured person has been convicted of an offense related to the failure to have in effect compulsory motor vehicle insurance or because such person has been denied issuance of a motor vehicle registration for failure to have such insurance.

(II) Unless actuarial justification in support of the insurer's action that has been filed with the commissioner demonstrates that there is an increase in risk, no insurer shall refuse to write a policy for a new applicant, surcharge the premium of a new applicant, or place a new applicant in a higher-priced program or plan based solely upon:

(A) The fact that the applicant had no prior insurance;

(B) The identity of the applicant's prior insurer; or

(C) The applicant's prior type of coverage, including assigned risk or residual market coverage or any plan other than a preferred plan.

(III) An insurer may use industry-wide data in its actuarial justification under subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (a).

(IV) An insurer shall not refuse to write a policy for a new applicant, surcharge the premium of a new applicant, or place a new applicant in a higher-priced program or plan solely because the applicant had no prior insurance if the applicant was not required to have insurance under section 10-4-620 or under a similar law in another state.

(V) An insurer shall not reduce or cancel insurance coverage except for nonpayment, refuse to issue or renew a policy, or surcharge a newly issued or renewed policy due to a covered person's failure to maintain coverage during a period in which the covered person was deployed by or called to active duty in the United States military if the person was not required to maintain insurance under section 10-4-619 or under a similar law of another state.

(b) (I) An insurer shall not refuse to write a complying policy solely because of the claim or driving record of one or more but fewer than all of the persons residing in the household of the named insured.

(II) An insurer shall offer to exclude any person in a household by name pursuant to section 10-4-630 if such person's driving record and claim experience would justify the refusal by such insurer to write a policy for such person if such person were applying in such person's own name and not as part of a household.

(III) An insurer renewing a policy pursuant to subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (b) shall include, as part of such renewal, a written notice naming the party specifically excluded from coverage.

(3) An insured who believes subsection (1) or (2) of this section have been violated has the right to file a complaint with the division of insurance pursuant to section 10-4-629.

(4) The commissioner shall promulgate rules to implement this section.

10-4-629. Cancellation - renewal - reclassification. (1) Except in accordance with the provisions of this part 6, an insurer shall not cancel or fail to renew a policy of insurance that complies with this part 6, issued in this state, as to any resident of the household of the named insured, for any reason other than nonpayment of premium, or increase a premium for any coverage on any such policy unless the increase is part of a general increase in premiums filed with the commissioner and does not result from a reclassification of the insured, or reduce the coverage under any such policy unless the reduction is part of a general reduction in coverage filed with the commissioner or to satisfy the requirements of other sections of this part 6.

(2) An insurer intending to take an action subject to this section shall, on or before the thirtieth day before the effective date of the intended action, send written notice by United States mail of its intended action to the insured at the insured's last-known address. The insurer may include the notice of the intended action in the renewal documents, nonrenewal, or cancellation notice provided to the policyholder, as applicable. The notice must state in clear and specific terms, on a form for which the insurer has filed a certification with the commissioner that such notice form conforms to Colorado law and any rules promulgated by the commissioner:

(a) The proposed action to be taken, including, if the action is an increase in premium or reduction in coverage, the amount of increase and the type of coverage to which it is applicable or the type of coverage reduced and the extent of the reduction;

(b) The proposed effective date of the action;

(c) The insurer's actual reasons for proposing to take such action. The statement of reasons shall be sufficiently clear and specific so that a person of average intelligence can identify the basis for the insurer's decision without making further inquiry. Generalized terms such as "personal habits", "living conditions", "poor morale", or "violation or accident record" shall not suffice to meet the requirements of this subsection (2).

(d) If there is coupled with the notice an offer to continue or renew the policy in accordance with this section, the name of the person or persons to be excluded from coverage and what the premium would be if the policy is continued or renewed with such person or persons excluded from coverage;

(e) The right of the insured to replace the insurance through an assigned risk plan;

(f) The right of the insured to file a complaint with the division of insurance regarding the action that is the subject of the notice.

(g) and (h) Repealed.

(3) Any statement of reasons contained in the notice given pursuant to paragraph (c) of subsection (2) of this section shall be privileged and shall not constitute grounds for any action against the insurer or its representatives or any person who in good faith furnished to the insurer the information upon which the statement is based.

(4) to (8) Repealed.

(9) This section does not apply to an insurance policy or coverage that has been in effect less than sixty days at the time the insurer mails or delivers the notice of cancellation, nonrenewal, or reclassification, unless it is a renewal policy.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since this section is similar to § 10-4-720 as it existed prior to the 2003 repeal of part 7 of article 4 of this title, relevant cases construing that provision have been included in the annotations to this section.

Endorsement was not a decrease in coverage requiring approval by the Commissioner since the household exclusion was not void and since the statute containing the legislative declaration on the household exclusion was enacted at the time the policy was in effect. Coffman v. Coffman, 865 P.2d 856 (Colo. App. 1993).

The statute is not clear and unambiguous with respect to whether an insurer, when pro- viding the required notice to an insured, must refer to the rule, policy, or guidelines on which it bases its decision. Requiring such a reference is a reasonable interpretation that is not arbitrary, capricious, or inconsistent with statute, and the commissioner's disallowance of a proposed increase of premium charged to an insured was upheld accordingly. Colo. Div. of Ins. v. Midwest Mut. Ins. Co., 961 P.2d 1158 (Colo. App. 1998).

Notice requirements of this section do not apply to binders because binders are not "insurance policies". Unigard Sec. Ins. v. Mission Ins. Co., 12 P.3d 296 (Colo. App. 2000).

10-4-630. Exclusion of named driver. (1) In any case where an insurer is authorized under this part 6 to cancel or refuse to renew or increase the premiums on an automobile liability insurance policy under which more than one person is insured because of the claim experience or driving record of one or more but less than all of the persons insured under the policy, the insurer shall in lieu of cancellation, nonrenewal, or premium increase offer to continue or renew the insurance but to exclude from coverage, by name, the person whose claim experience or driving record would have justified the cancellation or nonrenewal. The premiums charged on any such policy excluding a named driver shall not reflect the claims, experience, or driving record of the excluded named driver.

(2) With respect to any person excluded from coverage under this section, the policy may provide that the insurer shall not be liable for damages, losses, or claims arising out of this operation or use of the insured motor vehicle, whether or not such operation or use was with the express or implied permission of a person insured under the policy.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since this section is similar to § 10-4-721 as it existed prior to the 2003 repeal of part 7 of article 4 of this title, relevant cases construing that provision have been included in the annotations to this section.

This section unambiguously authorizes an automobile insurer to exclude from coverage all liability arising from use of an automobile by a specifically named driver. Sersion v. Dairyland Ins. Co., 757 P.2d 1169 (Colo. App. 1988); Principal Mut. Life Ins. Co. v. Progressive Mountain Ins. Co., 1 P.3d 250 (Colo. App. 1999), aff'd, 27 P.3d 343 (Colo. 2001).

Trial court properly granted summary judgment in favor of the defendants as insured's son was not an insured driver of the automobile. Sersion v. Dairyland Ins. Co., 757 P.2d 1169 (Colo. App. 1988).

An insurer may exclude a named driver from all coverage, including UM/UIM coverage, while the excluded driver is operating the vehicle. The exclusion of the named driver extends to preclude recovery by a resident relative passenger of the named driver. Massingill v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins., 176 P.3d 816 (Colo. App. 2007).

Public policy not violated for failure to carry uninsured motorist coverage for a particularly excluded driver or his or her innocent passenger. Lopez v. Dairyland Ins. Co., 890 P.2d 192 (Colo. App. 1994).

Exclusion of a claim for negligent entrustment from an automobile policy is authorized under this section. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co. v. Graham, 860 P.2d 566 (Colo. App. 1993).

Exclusion endorsement which provided that insurer would not be liable for damages, losses, or claims arising out of the operation or use of the insured motor vehicle by the named excluded person, which tracked the language of this section, was not ambiguous and therefore enforceable. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co. v. Graham, 860 P.2d 566 (Colo. App. 1993).

Summary judgment in favor of insured defendant was proper where plaintiff was injured while a passenger in a vehicle driven by a person specifically excluded from insurance coverage under this section, and no obligation to provide uninsured motorist coverage exists. Lopez v. Dairyland Ins. Co., 890 P.2d 192 (Colo. App. 1994).

10-4-631. Insurers to file rate schedule. Any insurer authorized to transact or transacting business in this state shall file a schedule of insurance rates for the minimum coverages required under this part 6 no later than July 1, 2003. The commissioner shall make the information required by this section open to public inspection no later than July 1, 2003.

Editor's note: This section was originally numbered as § 10-4-628 in House Bill 03-1188 but has been renumbered on revision for ease of location.

10-4-632. Reduction in rates for drivers aged fifty-five years or older who complete driver's education course - legislative declaration. (1) (a) (I) The general assembly finds and determines that motor vehicle accidents cause a substantial economic impact in lost wages, medical bills, legal fees, rehabilitation costs, and higher insurance rates.

(II) The general assembly also finds that the motor vehicle accident rate creates an additional societal burden in the form of taxes for medicaid, for the medically indigent, and for other hospital-related costs.

(III) The general assembly further finds that the number of such accidents and injuries is positively affected when drivers fifty-five years of age or older take driver's education courses.

(b) Therefore, the general assembly declares that it is appropriate and beneficial to all the people of Colorado that drivers fifty-five years of age or older with recent training and good driving records pay experience-based insurance premiums.

(c) A financial incentive in the form of lower premiums will prompt drivers fifty-five years of age or older to take driver's education courses and will further the goal of the general assembly to reduce accident-related injuries and fatalities in Colorado.

(2) All rates, rating schedules, and rating manuals for liability and collision coverages of a motor vehicle insurance policy submitted to or filed with the commissioner under this part 6 shall provide for an appropriate reduction in premium charges based on justifiable data when the vehicle is a covered vehicle and when the principal operator is fifty-five years of age or older and has successfully completed a driver's education course taught by a driving school regulated pursuant to article 15 of title 12, C.R.S., or by a nonprofit corporation subject to articles 121 to 137 of title 7, C.R.S., if such course has been preapproved by the department of revenue. Any discount used by an insurer shall be presumed appropriate unless credible data demonstrates otherwise. Insurers shall provide the commissioner with data reflecting the claims experience of drivers who have received reductions in premium charges compared with the claims experience of drivers who have not received such reductions.

(3) Each person who successfully completes a driver's education course taught by a commercial driving school regulated pursuant to article 15 of title 12, C.R.S., shall be issued a certificate by the commercial driving school offering the course, which certificate shall be evidence of qualification for the premium discount required by this section.

(4) Each person who successfully completes a driver's education course taught by a nonprofit corporation subject to articles 121 to 137 of title 7, C.R.S., if such course has been preapproved by the department of revenue, shall be issued a certificate by the nonprofit corporation offering the course, which certificate shall be evidence of qualification for the premium discount required by this section.

(5) The premium reduction required by this section shall be effective for an insured for a three-year period after successful completion of the approved course. However, the insurer may require, as a condition of providing and maintaining such discount, that the insured, during the three-year period after course completion, not be involved in an accident for which the insured is held at fault.

(6) An insured may renew qualification for the discount provided by this section by:

(a) (I) Retaking a driver's education course taught by a commercial driving school regulated pursuant to article 15 of title 12, C.R.S.; or

(II) Retaking a driver's education course taught by a nonprofit corporation subject to articles 121 to 137 of title 7, C.R.S., if such course has been preapproved by the department of revenue; and

(b) Not being involved in an accident for which the insured is held at fault.

(7) This section shall not apply where an insured driver is taking a driver's education course as a result of an order of a court or other governmental entity resulting from a moving traffic violation.

10-4-633. Certification of policy and notice forms. (1) All insurers providing automobile insurance and who are authorized by the commissioner to conduct business in Colorado shall submit an annual report to the commissioner listing any policy forms, endorsements, cancellation notices, renewal notices, disclosure forms, notices of proposed premium increases, notices of proposed reductions in coverage, and such other forms as may be requested by the commissioner issued or delivered to any policyholder in Colorado. Such listing shall be submitted no later than July 1 of each year and shall contain a certification by an officer of the organization that to the best of the officer's knowledge each policy form, endorsement, or notice form in use complies with Colorado law. The necessary elements of the certification shall be determined by the commissioner.

(2) All insurers providing automobile insurance and who are authorized by the commissioner to conduct business in Colorado shall also submit to the commissioner a list of any new policy form, endorsement, cancellation notice, renewal notice, disclosure form, notice of proposed premium increase, notice of proposed reductions in coverage, and any other form as may be requested by the commissioner at least thirty-one days before using such policy form, endorsement, cancellation notice, renewal notice, disclosure form, notice of proposed premium increase, notice of proposed reductions in coverage, and any other form as may be requested by the commissioner. Such listing shall also contain a certification by an officer of the organization that to the best of the officer's knowledge each new policy form, endorsement, or notice form proposed to be used complies with Colorado law. The necessary elements of the certification shall be determined by the commissioner.

(3) The commissioner shall have the power to examine and investigate insurers authorized to conduct business in Colorado to determine whether automobile policy forms, endorsements, cancellation notices, renewal notices, disclosure forms, notices of proposed premium increases, notices of proposed reductions in coverage, and such other forms as may be requested by the commissioner comply with the certification of the organization and statutory mandates.

10-4-633.5. Automobile insurance policies - plain language required - rules.

(1) (a) An insurer issuing or renewing automobile insurance policies subject to this part 6 shall not issue or renew a policy unless the text of the policy form does not exceed the tenth-grade level, as measured by the Flesch-Kincaid grade level formula, or does not score less than fifty as measured by the Flesch reading ease formula.

(b) In conjunction with the report submitted to the commissioner pursuant to section 10-4-633, the insurer shall report the readability scores prior to the issuance or renewal of a policy or the use of the policy form.

(2) The policy form shall contain an index or table of contents if the policy is more than three pages in length or if the text of the policy exceeds three thousand words. The index, table of contents, and text of the policy form shall be printed in not less than ten-point type.

(3) For purposes of subsection (1) of this section, the following shall apply:

(a) (I) A contraction, hyphenated word, or numbers and letters, when separated by spaces, shall count as one word;

(II) A unit of words ending with a period, semicolon, or colon, but excluding headings and captions, shall be counted as a sentence; and

(III) A syllable means a unit of spoken language consisting of one or more letters of a word as divided by an accepted dictionary. If the dictionary shows two or more equally acceptable pronunciations of a word, the pronunciations containing fewer syllables may be used.

(b) "Text" includes all printed matter except the following:

(I) The name and address of the insurer; the name, number, or title of the policy; the table of contents or index; captions and subcaptions; and specification pages, schedules, or tables; and

(II) Any policy language that is drafted to conform to the requirements of any federal law or regulation; any policy language required by any collectively bargained agreement; any medical terminology; any words that are defined in the policy; and any policy language required by law or regulation if the insurer identifies the language or terminology excepted and certifies in writing that the language or terminology is entitled to be excepted.

(4) The commissioner shall promulgate rules regarding the electronic dissemination of newly issued or renewed policy forms or endorsements.

(5) (a) The requirements of this section shall not apply to commercial automobile insurance coverage.

(b) For the purpose of this subsection (5), "commercial automobile insurance coverage" means any insurance coverage provided to an insured, regardless of the number of vehicles or entities covered, under a commercial automobile, garage, motor carrier, or truckers coverage policy form and rated using either a commercial manual or rating rule.

10-4-634. Assignment of payment for covered benefits. (1) On and after thirty days after April 5, 2004, a policy of motor vehicle insurance coverage pursuant to this part 6 shall allow, but not require, an insured under the policy to assign, in writing, payments due under medical payments coverage of the policy to a licensed hospital or other licensed health care provider, an occupational therapist as defined in section 12-40.5-103, C.R.S., or a massage therapist as defined in section 12-35.5-103 (8), C.R.S., for services provided to the insured that are covered under the policy.

(2) When a licensed hospital or other licensed health care provider, occupational therapist, or massage therapist receives an assignment from an insured, it is the responsibility of the provider to bill the insurer and notify the insurer that the licensed health care provider holds an assignment on file. The insurer shall honor this assignment the same as if a copy of the assignment had been received by the insurer. Only upon request of the insurer shall the health care provider be required to provide a copy of the assignment. The provider shall also provide a copy of such bill to the insured, stating on such copy that it is for informational purposes only and that the insurer has been billed for covered benefits. The provider shall also furnish to the insurer a current taxpayer identification number as part of the initial bill and each subsequent billing. Subsequent billings to an insurer need not include a copy of the assignment unless required by the insurer so long as it is clearly noted on each such subsequent billing that the benefits have been assigned. The insurer shall honor such assignment and make payment of covered benefits directly to such licensed hospital or other licensed health care provider, occupational therapist, or massage therapist. If the insurer fails to honor such assignment but instead makes payment to the insured, and if the insured fails to timely pay an amount equivalent to such payment to the licensed hospital or other licensed health care provider, then the insurer shall be liable for such payment directly to the licensed hospital or other licensed health care provider, occupational therapist, or massage therapist. It shall be the responsibility of the licensed hospital or other licensed health care provider, occupational therapist, or massage therapist to notify the insurer if timely payment has not been received.

10-4-635. Medical payments coverage - definitions. (1) (a) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection (1), no automobile liability or motor vehicle liability policy insuring against loss resulting from liability imposed by law for bodily injury or death suffered by any person arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of a motor vehicle shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this state unless coverage is provided in the policy or in a supplemental policy for medical payments with benefits of five thousand dollars for bodily injury, sickness, or disease resulting from the ownership, maintenance, or use of the motor vehicle.

(b) A policy may be issued without medical payments coverage only if the named insured rejects medical payments coverage in writing or in the same medium in which the application for the policy was taken. The insurer shall maintain proof that a named insured rejected medical payments coverage for at least three years after the date of the rejection, and such proof of rejection shall be presumed valid for all insureds under the policy, including resident relatives of the named insured and permissive users of the motor vehicle. An agent or insurer that obtains a rejection of medical payments coverage from the named insured or applicant pursuant to this section shall not be liable to the insured or any other person seeking benefits under the named insured's policy for claims arising out of or relating to the rejection of medical payments coverage.

(c) If the insurer fails to offer medical payments coverage or fails to maintain or provide proof that the named insured rejected medical payments coverage in the manner required by this section, the insured's policy shall be presumed to include medical payments coverage with benefits of five thousand dollars.

(d) If an insured selects limits for medical payments coverage or exercises the option not to purchase the coverages described in this section, an insurer or affiliated insurer shall not be required to notify any policyholder in any renewal or replacement policy of the availability of medical payments coverage. However, the insured may make a request for additional coverage or coverage more extensive than that provided on a prior policy.

(e) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit any other coverage amounts being made available by an insurer.

(2) (a) If a policy contains medical payments coverage, medical payments benefits shall be paid to persons providing medically necessary and accident-related trauma care or medical care. Except as provided in paragraphs (b), (c), and (d) of this subsection (2), payments of claims for medical payments coverage shall be made in accordance with section 10-4-642.

(b) Upon receiving notice, either from a provider or the insured, of an accident for which the medical payments coverage specified in this section or medical payments coverage in a greater amount may apply, the insurer shall reserve five thousand dollars of the medical payments coverage for the payment of trauma care provided by a licensed air ambulance, licensed ambulance, trauma physician, or trauma center in the following priority, as applicable:

(I) Benefits shall be paid first to licensed ambulances or air ambulances that provide trauma care at the scene of or immediately after the motor vehicle accident, including transport to or from a trauma center.

(II) After payments to providers described in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (b), benefits shall be paid next to trauma physicians that provide trauma care to stabilize or provide the first episode of care to the injured person.

(III) After payments to providers described in subparagraphs (I) and (II) of this paragraph (b), benefits shall be paid next to trauma centers designated as level IV or V pursuant to section 25-3.5-703 (4), C.R.S., that provide trauma care to stabilize or provide the first episode of care to the injured person.

(IV) After payments to providers described in subparagraphs (I), (II), and (III) of this paragraph (b), benefits shall be paid next to trauma centers designated as level I, II, or III or as a regional pediatric trauma center pursuant to section 25-3.5-703 (4), C.R.S., that provide trauma care to stabilize or provide the first episode of care to the injured person.

(c) The reserve shall be held and used to pay claims of trauma care providers described in this subsection (2) for no more than thirty days after receipt of the accident notice. After the thirty-day period, any amount of the reserve for which the insurer has not received a claim for reimbursement from a trauma care provider described in this subsection (2) may be used to pay any other claims for reimbursement submitted by other providers.

(d) The periods specified in section 10-4-642 for the prompt payment of medical payments coverage benefits shall be tolled for the period that an insurer is required under this subsection (2) to hold payment of a claim from a provider that did not provide trauma care, but only to the extent the medical payments coverage benefits not held in reserve are insufficient to pay the claim.

(3) (a) An insurer providing benefits under medical payments coverage in the amount specified in this section or in a greater amount than the amount specified in this section shall not have a right to recover against an owner, user, or operator of a motor vehicle, or against any person or organization legally responsible for the acts or omissions of such person, in any action for damages for benefits paid under such medical payments coverage. An insurer shall not have a direct cause of action against an alleged tortfeasor for benefits paid under medical payments coverage.

(b) Nothing in this subsection (3) shall be construed to:

(I) Modify the requirements of section 13-21-111.6, C.R.S., or any requirements under the "Workers' Compensation Act of Colorado", articles 40 to 47 of title 8, C.R.S.;

(II) Prevent a person to whom benefits are paid under medical payments coverage from obtaining recovery of benefits available under uninsured motorist coverage pursuant to section 10-4-609; or

(III) Afford an insurer a cause of action against a person to whom or for whom the medical payments coverage benefits specified in this section were paid except in a case where the benefits were paid by reason of fraud.

(4) This section shall not apply to:

(a) A person obtaining an automobile liability or motor vehicle policy insuring against loss resulting from the ownership, maintenance, or use of a motorcycle, low-power scooter, or toy vehicle, as defined in section 42-1-102, C.R.S., a snowmobile, as defined in section 33-14-101, C.R.S., or any vehicle designed primarily for use off the road or on rails;

(b) A person that has obtained a certificate of self-insurance from the commissioner pursuant to section 10-4-624.

(5) As used in this section:

(a) "Injured person" means the insured, or a passenger who is authorized by the insured to occupy the insured's motor vehicle, who sustains bodily injury arising out of the use of the insured's motor vehicle.

(b) "Licensed air ambulance" means an air ambulance, as defined in section 25-3.5-103 (1), C.R.S., that is licensed by the department of public health and environment pursuant to section 25-3.5-307, C.R.S.

(c) "Licensed ambulance" means an ambulance, as defined in section 25-3.5-103 (1.5), C.R.S., that is licensed pursuant to section 25-3.5-301, C.R.S.

(d) "Licensed health care provider" shall have the same meaning as set forth in section 10-4-601, and also includes an occupational therapist as defined in section 12-40.5-103 (8), C.R.S.

(e) "Medical care" means all medically necessary and accident-related health care and rehabilitation services provided by a licensed health care provider to a person injured in an automobile accident for which benefits under the terms of the medical payments coverage in the policy are payable.

(f) "Provider" means a licensed health care provider, licensed air ambulance, licensed ambulance, trauma physician, or trauma center.

(g) "Stabilize" means, with respect to a medical condition resulting from a trauma, to provide such medical treatment of the condition as may be necessary to assure, within reasonable medical probability, that no material deterioration of the condition is likely to result or occur during the transfer of the individual to or from a trauma center.

(h) "Trauma" means an injury or wound to a living person caused by the application of an external physical force. Trauma includes any event that threatens life, limb, or the well-being of an individual in such a manner that a prudent lay person would believe that immediate medical care is needed.

(i) "Trauma care" means care provided by a licensed ambulance or air ambulance, trauma physician, or trauma center to a person injured in a motor vehicle accident from the time the administration of care begins to the time the patient is fully stabilized or through the first episode of care, not to exceed seventy-two hours after the administration of care begins. The term includes a trauma care system, trauma transport protocols, and triage, as defined in section 25-3.5-703, C.R.S.

(j) "Trauma center" means the emergency department in a licensed or certified hospital or a health care facility that is designated by the department of public health and environment as a level I, II, III, IV, or V facility or as a regional pediatric trauma center.

(k) "Trauma physician" means a trauma surgeon, orthopedic surgeon, neurosurgeon, intensive care unit physician, anesthesiologist, or physician who provides care in a trauma center to a trauma patient injured in a motor vehicle accident.

10-4-636. Disclosure requirements for automobile insurance products offered - rules. (1) (a) An insurer or producer issuing automobile insurance policies shall, as a condition of doing business in this state, have on file for public inspection at the division a summary disclosure form that contains an explanation of the major coverages and exclusions of such policies of insurance together with a recitation of general factors considered in cancellation, nonrenewal, and increase-in-premium situations. Each summary disclosure form shall provide notice in bold-faced letters that the policyholder should read the policy for complete details, and such disclosure form shall not be construed to replace any provision of the policy itself.

(b) Every insurer and producer shall update disclosure forms periodically to reflect changes in major coverages and exclusions of such policies of insurance and changes in factors considered in cancellation, nonrenewal, and increase-in-premium situations.

(c) Every insurer and producer or his or her designated agent shall furnish the required disclosure form to applicants for insurance coverage at the time of the initial insurance purchase and thereafter on any renewal when there are changes in major coverages and exclusions or changes in factors considered in cancellation, nonrenewal, and increase-in-premium situations.

(d) An insurer or producer who violates this section shall be deemed to have engaged in unfair or deceptive acts or practices prohibited by section 10-3-1104 (1) (a) (I) and shall be subject to the penalties provided in sections 10-3-1108 and 10-3-1109.

(2) In addition to the disclosure required by subsection (1) of this section, any insurer or producer offering motor vehicle coverage pursuant to this part 6 shall provide a clear explanation to the insured regarding the products purchased, the amount of coverage purchased, and the applicability of the coverage depending on the determination of fault of the insured in an automobile accident.

(3) (a) An insurer or producer offering motor vehicle coverage pursuant to this part 6 shall not automatically add optional or enhanced coverages that will result in an increased premium to an insured's policy without the express consent of the insured. Such consent may be in the same medium in which the policy is offered. The insurer or producer, for three years, shall maintain adequate evidence of the insured's consent, and such evidence shall be subject to review by the commissioner. The insurer or producer shall record:

(I) Whether optional or enhanced coverage added for an increased premium to an insured's policy was requested by the insured or was recommended by the insurer or producer and consented to by the insured; and

(II) To the extent practicable, an explanation of why such coverage was changed.

(b) For the purposes of this section, "adequate evidence" means:

(I) Written notes or other memorializations of any oral or written communication with the insured kept within the normal course of business; or

(II) A declaration page indicating which coverages are not mandatory after payment of the premium is made unless the insured disputes such coverage within a reasonable time.

(c) This section shall not apply to changes in coverages mandated by law or to amended policy forms that are changed at renewal.

(4) The disclosure form required by subsection (1) of this section shall include a disclosure specifying that:

(a) Medical payments coverage pays for reasonable health care expenses incurred for bodily injury caused by an automobile accident, regardless of fault, up to the policy limits chosen by the insured;

(b) Medical payments coverage is primary to any health insurance coverage available to an insured when injured in an automobile accident;

(c) Medical payments coverage applies to any coinsurance or deductible amount required to be paid by the person's health coverage plan, as defined in section 10-16-102 (22.5); and

(d) An insured who is injured in an automobile accident will not receive benefits from medical payments coverage for any medical expenses incurred as a result of an accident that is the fault of the insured unless medical payments coverage is purchased.

(5) The disclosure required by subsection (1) of this section shall include a disclosure of any coverages delivered or issued pursuant to section 10-4-610.

(6) (a) The commissioner may promulgate rules to address the suitability of coverages for insureds, including, but not limited to, administrative remedies against an insurer or producer for automatically adding optional or enhanced coverages that increase the insured's premium without the insured's consent, which additions may include, but are not limited to, remedies for violations of section 10-3-1104 (1) (j).

(b) The commissioner shall promulgate by rule a uniform disclosure form that reflects the requirements of this section. Such uniform disclosure form shall be used by insurers and producers in this state in order to comply with this section.

(7) Nothing in this section shall be construed to create a private right of action for damages by an insured.

(8) The disclosures required by this section shall not apply to commercial automobile insurance policies, as defined by the commissioner in rules adopted pursuant to section 10-4-641 (1).

10-4-637. No discrimination by profession. Reimbursement for lawfully performed health care services covered by a policy providing medical payments coverage under a motor vehicle policy issued pursuant to this part 6 shall not be denied when such services are a covered benefit and rendered within the scope of practice for a licensed health care provider, a massage therapist, as defined in section 12-35.5-103, C.R.S., or an occupational therapist, as defined in section 12-40.5-103, C.R.S., performing the services.

10-4-638. Retroactive adjustment of health care service claims. (1) Twelve months or more after the date a claim is paid for health care services performed pursuant to this part 6, an insurer may not retroactively adjust the payment of the claim.

(2) Adjustments to claims made pursuant to a policy providing for medical payments coverage in cases where a carrier has reported fraud or abuse, pursuant to section 10-1-128 (5) (a) (IV), committed by the provider shall not be subject to the requirements of subsection (1) of this section.

10-4-639. Claims practices for property damage. (1) An insurer shall pay title fees, sales tax, and any other transfer or registration fee associated with the total loss of a motor vehicle.

(2) An insurer shall clearly disclose to an insured or inform a third-party claimant what benefits are provided related to towing and storage of a motor vehicle that sustains property damage and shall specifically advise an insured or third-party claimant concerning excess charges that may be incurred related to towing and storage of a motor vehicle for which the insured or third-party claimant may be responsible.

(3) An insurer shall establish a fair and consistent method for determining total loss of a motor vehicle. Such method shall include consideration of unique characteristics of the motor vehicle and a credible source of valuation. An insurer shall maintain a record of its methodology for determining total loss evaluation and provide such methodology to the commissioner upon request. The commissioner may promulgate rules for the administration and enforcement of this subsection (3). An insurer may not use different credible sources of valuation only to determine the lowest amount payable for the total loss of the motor vehicle.

(4) The commissioner shall promulgate rules concerning when payments for any applicable replacement motor vehicle shall be made by an insurer and collision waivers for third-party claimant coverage.

Source: L. 2004: Entire section added, p. 895, § 4, effective May 21.

10-4-640. Operator's policy of insurance. (1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (8) of this section, any natural person may satisfy the requirements of section 10-4-619 by obtaining, in lieu of an owner's policy of insurance, an operator's policy of liability insurance that meets the requirements of this section and of this part 6.

(2) An operator's policy of liability insurance shall provide coverage and shall state in a conspicuous type face and font on the face of the policy, that:

(a) The insurer is only liable under the policy for liability or damages incurred by the insured while the named insured is the operator of a motor vehicle or while a motor vehicle owned by the insured is not being operated by any other person;

(b) The policy does not provide coverage for any vicarious liability imposed on the owner of the motor vehicle as a result of the operation by another person of a motor vehicle owned by the insured;

(c) The coverage provided by the policy may not meet the requirements of the mandatory motor vehicle insurance or financial responsibility laws of another state.

(3) No operator's policy of liability insurance issued pursuant to this section may be delivered or issued for delivery in this state unless the insured has signed a statement, in the same medium as the application was taken, that appears on the contract and states that the insured has read and understood the policy and its limitations.

(4) An owner of a motor vehicle that is registered or required to be registered in this state and who holds an operator's policy of liability insurance shall not permit another person to operate such motor vehicle if the owner knows or should have known that the person does not have insurance to cover such other person's operation of such motor vehicle. If a motor vehicle insured under an operator's policy of liability insurance is driven by a person who does not have in effect a complying policy as required by section 10-4-619 and such person is involved in an accident, the owner of such motor vehicle and such driver shall be liable for any liability or damages arising out of such person's use of the motor vehicle.

(5) An operator's policy of liability insurance shall not provide coverage for damages incurred while a person other than the named insured is operating a motor vehicle.

(6) An operator's policy of liability insurance may provide coverage that applies in other jurisdictions if the coverage available pursuant to this section does not meet the mandatory motor vehicle insurance or financial responsibility requirements of other jurisdictions.

(7) An operator's policy of liability insurance shall provide coverage for liability incurred by the insured while a motor vehicle owned by the insured is not being operated by any other person.

(8) This section shall not apply to a lessor, dealer, manufacturer, rebuilder, or distributor of a motor vehicle; an owner of a fleet; a common, contract, or private motor carrier; or any other individual who owns a motor vehicle for use in the individual's business.

(9) If an insurer writing policies of insurance pursuant to this part 6 offers an operator's policy of insurance, such policy shall meet the requirements of this section.

Source: L. 2004: Entire section added, p. 895, § 4, effective May 21.

10-4-641. Rules - medical payments coverage. (1) The commissioner shall promulgate any necessary rules for the administration of medical payments coverage and coordination of benefits and the implementation of section 10-4-636 (4) concerning disclosures required to be made regarding medical payments coverage and the definition of commercial automobile insurance policies for purposes of the exception allowed in section 10-4-636 (8). Medical payments coverage shall be primary to any health insurance benefit of a person injured in a motor vehicle accident, and medical payments coverage shall apply to any coinsurance or deductible amount required by the injured person's health coverage plan, as defined in section 10-16-102 (22.5).

Source: L. 2004: Entire section added, p. 1340, § 1, effective May 28. L. 2005: (2) repealed, p. 468, § 3, effective July 1; (1) amended, p. 468, § 2, effective January 1, 2006. L. 2006: (1) amended, p. 40, § 5, effective January 1, 2007.

10-4-642. Prompt payment of direct benefits - legislative declaration - definitions. (1) The general assembly finds, determines, and declares that patients and health care providers are entitled to receive reimbursements from auto insurance entities in a timely manner. Therefore, it is in the interest of the citizens of Colorado that reasonable standards be imposed for the timely payment of claims.

(2) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Claim" means a claim for payment of medical payments coverage benefits in accordance with the insurer's policy.

(b) "Claimant" means a policyholder, insured, or injured person entitled to medical payments benefits as a result of a motor vehicle accident or a provider with the proper assignment of benefits.

(c) "Clean claim" means:

(I) A claim where there is no additional information needed by the insurer to accept or deny the claim. A claim requiring additional information shall not be considered a clean claim and shall be paid, denied, or settled as set forth in paragraph (b) of subsection (6) of this section.

(II) A claim form that is submitted with, or after submission of, a properly executed application form for benefits currently used by the insurer by the policyholder, insured, or injured person entitled to benefits.

(3) The commissioner may, in consultation with interested parties, including health care providers, adopt a uniform application form for medical payments benefits or a uniform claim form or both a uniform application and uniform claim form. For a uniform claim form or a uniform application form having elements provided by a health care provider, the commissioner shall consider the uniform claim forms and elements adopted for health insurance pursuant to section 10-16-106.3. If the commissioner determines that new elements are required to establish that an injury or benefit requested is the result of a motor vehicle accident, the new elements may be listed in a separate uniform application form.

(4) (a) A claimant may submit a claim:

(I) By United States mail, first class, or by overnight delivery service;

(II) Electronically, if the insurer accepts claims electronically, to the location designated by the insurer;

(III) By facsimile to the location designated by the insurer; or

(IV) By hand delivery to the location designated by the insurer.

(b) (I) The provider may contact the insurer for the purpose of resubmission of a claim. The insurer shall have a separate facsimile process to receive resubmitted paper claims. A resubmitted claim shall be deemed received on the date of the facsimile transmission acknowledgment.

(II) If a claim is submitted electronically, it is presumed to have been received by the insurer or the insurer's clearinghouse, if applicable, on the date of the electronic verification of receipt. If a claim is submitted by facsimile, it is presumed to have been received by the insurer or the insurer's clearinghouse, if applicable, on the date of the facsimile transmission acknowledgment. If a claim is submitted by mail, it is presumed to have been received by the insurer or the insurer's clearinghouse, if applicable, three business days after the date of mailing. If a claim is submitted by overnight delivery service or by hand delivery, it is presumed to have been received on the date of delivery.

(c) The presumptions in paragraph (b) of this subsection (4) may be rebutted by:

(I) A date stamp on a claim showing the date of receipt. Such date shall be presumed the date of receipt.

(II) The fact that the insurer's records maintained in the ordinary course of business do not evidence receipt of a claim. In such case, the claim shall be deemed not to have been received by the insurer.

(d) An insurer shall maintain claim data that is accessible and retrievable for examination by the commissioner for the current year and for the two immediately preceding years. For each claim, an insurer shall provide a claim number, date of loss, date of auto accident, date of receipt of an application for benefits, date of receipt of a claim, date of payment of a claim, and date of denial or date the claim is closed without payment. An insurer shall detail all material activities relative to a claim. A claim file shall have all material documentation relative to a claim. Each material document within a claim file shall be noted as to date received, date processed, or date sent. Detailed documentation shall be contained in each claim file to permit reconstruction of the insurer's activities relative to each claim.

(5) (a) Every insurer shall provide a copy of its claim filing requirements to every insured or provider upon request within fifteen calendar days after the request is received by the insurer.

(b) Every insurer shall, within fifteen calendar days after receipt of a notification of loss, an application for benefits, or a claim, provide the necessary application or claim forms and instructions so that the claimant can comply with the policy conditions.

(6) (a) Clean claims shall be paid, denied, or settled within thirty calendar days after receipt by the insurer if submitted electronically and within forty-five calendar days after receipt by the insurer if submitted by any other means.

(b) If the resolution of a claim requires additional information, the insurer shall, within thirty calendar days after receipt of the claim, give to the claimant a full explanation in writing of what additional information is needed to resolve the claim, including any additional medical or other information related to the claim. The person receiving a request for such additional information shall submit all additional information requested by the insurer within thirty calendar days after receipt of such request. The insurer may deny a claim if a provider receives a request for additional information and fails to timely submit additional information requested under this paragraph (b), subject to the resubmittal of the claim or terms of the policy. If such person has provided all such additional information necessary to resolve the claim, the claim shall be paid, denied, or settled by the insurer within thirty days after receipt of additional information or after the applicable time period set forth in paragraph (c) of this subsection (6).

(c) Absent fraud, all claims other than clean claims shall be paid, denied, or settled within ninety calendar days after receipt by the insurer; except that the commissioner may adopt rules for the purpose of exempting an insurer from the requirement that the insurer pay, deny, or settle a claim within ninety calendar days in circumstances where the investigation of a claim by the insurer is incomplete or otherwise needs to be continued and for extraordinary or unusual claims with extenuating circumstances as determined by the commissioner. The rules shall require the insurer, within thirty days after the receipt of a claim and every thirty days thereafter, to send to the claimant or the claimant's representative, and to the health care provider if applicable, a letter setting forth the reasons why additional time is needed. The insurer that is exempt from the ninety-day time period due to circumstances where an investigation is incomplete or otherwise needs to be continued shall pay, deny, or settle the claim within one hundred eighty days after receipt of the claim. An insurer that is exempt from the ninety-day time period shall not be exempt from payment of the interest due pursuant to subsection (7) of this section.

(d) No insurer shall deny a claim on the grounds of a specific policy provision, condition, or exclusion unless reference to such provision, condition, or exclusion is included in the denial. The denial shall be in writing and given to the claimant, and the claim file shall contain documentation of the basis for the denial. The commissioner may adopt a rule regarding the time period for delivery of the denial to the claimant, which shall be the same or shorter time period than the period in which the claim was delivered.

(7) An insurer that fails to pay, deny, or settle a clean claim in accordance with paragraph (a) of subsection (6) of this section or fails to take other required action within the time periods set forth in paragraph (b) of subsection (6) of this section shall be liable for the covered benefit and, in addition, shall pay to the claimant interest at the rate of ten percent per annum for the first one hundred eighty days and at the rate of fifteen percent per annum thereafter, on the total amount ultimately allowed on the claim, accruing from the date payment was due pursuant to subsection (6) of this section. Except for shorter time periods for clean claims, all interest begins to accrue ninety calendar days after receipt of the claim by the insurer.

(8) If an insurer delegates its claims processing functions to a third party, the delegation agreement shall provide that the claims processing entity shall comply with the requirements of this section. Any delegation by the insurer shall not be construed to limit the insurer's responsibility to comply with this section or any other applicable provision of this article.

(9) This section shall not apply to claims filed pursuant to the "Workers' Compensation Act of Colorado", articles 40 to 47 of title 8, C.R.S.

(10) The commissioner may investigate claims against an insurer that is authorized to conduct business in this state when such claims are filed by a provider related to the improper handling or denial of benefits pursuant to this section.

(11) The commissioner may impose, after proper notice and hearing, any other penalties set forth in this title against an insurer who has a pattern and practice of violations of this section.

(12) When an insured entitled to benefits under medical payments coverage is injured or believes that he or she has been injured in an accident and is examined or treated by a health care provider, such health care provider shall notify the insurer within thirty calendar days after the insured's initial visit. This subsection (12) shall not apply to a hospital or other health facility or entity licensed or certified pursuant to section 25-1.5-103 (1), C.R.S.

ANNOTATION

Admission of attorney litigation conduct as evidence in bad faith insurance claim. There are substantial concerns about the relevancy, probative value, and prejudicial impact of evidence of attorney litigation conduct when presented as evidence of a bad faith claim. Such evidence may be admissible in some circumstances. The appropriate test must recognize the importance of those concerns in evaluating whether evidence of attorney litigation conduct is admissible as part of a bad faith claim. Parsons v. Allstate Ins. Co., 165 P.3d 809 (Colo. App. 2006).

Test to determine admissibility of attorney litigation conduct. Evidence of attorney litigation conduct is admissible as part of a bad faith insurance claim if the risks of unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, or misleading the jury, and considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or presentation of unnecessary cumulative evidence are substantially outweighed by the probative value of the evidence. Parsons v. Allstate Ins. Co., 165 P.3d 809 (Colo. App. 2006).

10-4-643. Electronic claim forms - rules. The commissioner may promulgate rules, consistent with section 10-4-642, for an insurer to accept claim forms for medical payments coverage benefits from health care providers in electronic form. An insurer shall not prohibit the submission of a medical payments coverage benefit claim in hard-copy form, nor shall an insurer be prohibited from requiring that a claim be submitted in hard-copy form. An insurer shall not require submission of a medical payments coverage benefit claim form other than those set forth in section 10-4-642.

MOTOR VEHICLE ("NO-FAULT") INSURANCE

10-4-701 to 10-4-726. (Repealed)

Editor's note: (1) This part 7 was numbered as article 25 of chapter 13, C.R.S. 1963. (2) Section 10-4-726 provided for the repeal of this part 7, effective July 1, 2003. (See L. 2002, p. 649.)

ANNOTATION

Insurer violated the no-fault act where it offered enhanced personal injury protection (PIP) benefits only to the named insured and family members and did not include passengers or pedestrians as required by the act. Cardenas v. Fin. Indem. Co., __ P.3d __ (Colo. App. 2011) (decided under law as it existed prior to 2003 repeal of § 10-4-710).

Plaintiffs' claims accrued when they knew or should have known that the insurer would not offer more than basic PIP benefits. Former § 10-4-710 (2)(a) required insurers to offer extended coverage that included unlimited medical and wage loss benefits in exchange for higher premiums. A claim asserting that, contrary to that statutory mandate, an insurer did not offer extended PIP coverage to a policyholder accrued when the plaintiff knew or should have known that the insurer did not do so. Crosby v. Am. Family Mut. Ins. Co., __ P.3d __ (Colo. App. 2010) (decided under law as it existed prior to 2003 repeal of § 10-4-710); Rovenstine v. Am. Family Mut. Ins. Co., __ P.3d __ (Colo. App. 2010) (decided under law as it existed prior to 2003 repeal of § 10-4-710).

10-4-1002. Definitions. As used in this part 10, unless the context otherwise requires:

- (1) "Authorized agency" means:
  - (a) A fire department;
  - (b) The Colorado bureau of investigation, the office of the attorney general, and any other law enforcement agency authorized or charged with the investigation of crimes;
  - (c) Any district attorney or county attorney and their representatives; and
  - (d) Any professional licensing board or regulatory agency, including, without limitation, the division of insurance.
- (1.5) "Fraudulent insurance act" has the meaning set forth in section 10-1-128.
- (2) "Insurer" means any insurer and any person licensed or regulated under this title and Pinnacol Assurance.
- (3) "Notice" or "notify" means the notification in writing to an authorized agency by an insurer.
- (4) "Person" means every natural person, firm, partnership, association, or corporation.
- (5) "Relevant" means information having any tendency to make the existence of any fact that is of consequence to the investigation or determination of the issue more probable or less probable than it would be without the evidence.

10-4-1003. Disclosure of information. (1) (a) When any person or insurer has reason to believe that a fire loss may have been caused by other than accidental means or that any insurance claim may be fraudulent, then such person may, and such insurer shall, notify an authorized agency.

(b) A notification pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) shall be confidential, shall not constitute a public record under part 2 of article 72 of title 24, C.R.S., and shall not be discoverable or admissible in any civil action.

(c) No insurer or authorized agency shall intentionally refuse to release any relevant information concerning a possible nonaccidental fire loss or fraudulent insurance act, upon request, to:

(I) An insurer that is or could be required to pay a claim to which such information relates; or

(II) Any authorized agency.

(2) Any authorized agency may, in writing, require the insurer having an interest in a fire loss or other claim to release to the authorized agency specific, relevant information or evidence deemed important by the authorized agency which the insurer has in its possession and which relates to the fire loss or other claim in question. Relevant information may include, but shall not be limited to:

(a) Insurance policy information pertaining to a fire loss or other claim under investigation and any application for such a policy;

(b) Policy premium payment records;

(c) History of previous claims made by the insured; and

(d) Any other material relating to the investigation of the loss, including statements of any person who may have information about the loss and any proof of such loss.

(3) Nothing in subsection (1) of this section shall abrogate or impair the rights or powers created under subsection (2) of this section.

(4) Any authorized agency provided with relevant information or evidence pursuant to subsection (1) or (2) of this section may release such information to any other authorized agency.

(5) Any insurer providing information to an authorized agency or agencies pursuant to subsection (1) or (2) of this section may, in writing, request such agency to release to such insurer specific, relevant information or evidence relating to the fire loss or other claim under investigation. Such agency may, in its sole discretion, and with such restrictions as such agency deems appropriate, release such information to such insurer.

(6) Any authorized agency receiving a notice or other information pursuant to this part 10 may release such notice or other information to other law enforcement agencies.

(7) Any insurer providing information pursuant to subsection (1) or (2) of this section shall cooperate with any law enforcement agency of competent jurisdiction.

(8) (a) Any person that has reason to believe that a fire loss may have been caused by other than accidental means, that any insurance claim or application for insurance coverage may be fraudulent, or that a fraudulent insurance act has been committed, may, and any insurer that has reason to believe the same shall, furnish and disclose any relevant information in its possession concerning such loss, claim, or act to any insurer or authorized agency for the purpose of detecting, prosecuting, or preventing fraudulent insurance claims. Such reporting shall be confidential, shall not be a public record under article 72 of title 24, C.R.S., and shall not be discoverable or admissible under the Colorado rules of civil procedure in any civil litigation, but only to the extent that the insurer or person disclosing the information is granted immunity under section 10-4-1005. The immunity as set forth in section 10-4-1005 shall apply to any report made pursuant to this subsection (8). The commissioner of insurance may promulgate rules regarding such reporting.

(b) Paragraph (a) of this subsection (8) shall not be construed to prohibit the admission of evidence of a fraudulent insurance act:

(I) In any civil litigation involving such fraudulent insurance act; or

(II) In any civil litigation involving the alleged disclosure of information as to which the insurer or person alleged to have made such disclosure does not have immunity under section 10-4-1005.

(c) An insurer disclosing information to another insurer under this subsection (8) may make a written request to such other insurer for the release of information relating to other fire losses, insurance claims, or applications for coverage submitted by the same insured or applicant; except that such request and any such release of information shall be solely for the purpose of detecting, investigating, preventing, or prosecuting an actual or suspected fraudulent insurance act. Information so provided shall not be used for underwriting or rating purposes except in connection with an application or policy under which a fraudulent insurance act was committed. Information released pursuant to such request shall be subject to the confidentiality and immunity provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection (8).

10-4-1004. Evidence - confidential. (1) Any authorized agency or insurer which receives any information furnished pursuant to this part 10 shall hold the information in confidence except as provided in section 10-4-1003 (4) or until such time as its release is required pursuant to a civil or criminal proceeding.

(2) Any authorized agency or its agents or employees may be required to testify in any civil or criminal proceeding in which the insurer at interest is named as a party.

10-4-1005. Immunity. (1) In the case of actions taken under this part 10, and except where information is furnished with knowledge that the information is false or with reckless disregard for its truth or falsity, there shall be no civil penalty or damages on the part of, and no claim for relief shall be brought against, any person, insurer, or authorized agency for furnishing information or taking other action pursuant to the provisions of this part 10.

(2) Every person, insurer, and authorized agency shall be immune from civil liability when acting in good faith to cooperate with, furnish evidence to or on behalf of, provide information to, or solicit or receive information from, any of the following with regard to an actual or suspected fraudulent insurance act:

(a) An agency of the federal or any state, county, or municipal government that is involved in the detection, prosecution, or prevention of arson or insurance fraud;

(b) Any employee or agent of an agency listed in paragraph (a) of this subsection (2); and

(c) Another insurer, if acting in accordance with section 10-4-1003 (8) (c) solely for the purpose of detecting, investigating, preventing, or prosecuting an actual or suspected fraudulent insurance act. Information so provided shall not be used for underwriting or rating purposes except in connection with an application or policy under which a fraudulent insurance act was committed.

(3) Every person, insurer, and authorized agency shall be immune from civil liability when acting in good faith to comply with a court order to provide evidence or testimony with regard to an actual or suspected fraudulent insurance act; except that such immunity shall not apply to a person or insurer that has committed, or has conspired in or aided and abetted the commission of, such fraudulent insurance act.

(4) The immunity granted by this section shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, any right, privilege, or immunity available under the common law or any other applicable statute or rule.

PART 12

TRANSACTION OF BUSINESS WITH PRODUCER-CONTROLLED
PROPERTY AND CASUALTY INSURERS

10-4-1201. Definitions. As used in this part 12, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Accredited state" means a state in which the insurance department has qualified as meeting the minimum financial regulatory standards promulgated and established from time to time by the national association of insurance commissioners ("NAIC").

(2) "Control" or "controlled" has the meaning set forth in section 10-3-801 (3).

(3) "Controlled insurer" means a licensed insurer which is controlled, directly or indirectly, by a producer.

(4) "Controlling producer" means a producer who, directly or indirectly, controls an insurer.

(5) "Insurance department" means the commissioner or other government official or agency of a state other than Colorado exercising powers and duties substantially equivalent to those of the commissioner or the division.

(6) "Insurer" or "licensed insurer" means any person, firm, association, or corporation duly licensed to transact a property and casualty insurance business in this state. The following are not licensed insurers for the purposes of this part 12, and this list is not exclusive:

(a) All risk retention groups as defined in the "Superfund Amendments Reauthorization Act of 1986", Pub.L. 99-499, 100 Stat. 1613 (1986), the "Risk Retention Act", 15 U.S.C. secs. 3901 et seq., and the "Model Risk Retention Act", part 14 of article 3 of this title;

(b) All residual market pools and joint underwriting authorities or associations; and

(c) All captive insurers. For the purposes of this part 12, "captive insurers" are insurance companies owned by another organization and whose exclusive purpose is to insure risks of the parent organization and affiliated companies, or, in the case of groups and associations, captive insurers are insurance organizations owned by the insureds whose exclusive purpose is to insure risks to member organizations, or to group members and their affiliates, or to both.

(7) "Producer" means an insurance broker or brokers or any other person, firm, association, or corporation when, for any compensation, commission, or other thing of value, such person, firm, association, or corporation acts or aids in any manner in soliciting, negotiating, or procuring the making of any insurance contract on behalf of an insured other than the said person, firm, association, or corporation.

10-4-1202. Minimum standards. (1) Applicability of section. (a) The provisions of this section shall apply if, in any calendar year, the aggregate amount of gross written premium on business placed with a controlled insurer by a controlling producer is equal to or greater than five percent of the admitted assets of the controlled insurer, as reported in the controlled insurer's annual statement filed as of December 31 of the prior year.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subsection (1), the provisions of this section shall not apply if:

(I) The controlling producer:

(A) Places insurance only with the controlled insurer or only with the controlled insurer and a member or members of the controlled insurer's holding company system or with the controlled insurer's parent, affiliate, or subsidiary and receives no compensation in connection with such insurance; and

(B) Accepts insurance placements only from nonaffiliated subproducers, and not directly from insureds;

(II) The controlled insurer, except for insurance business written through a residual market facility, accepts insurance business only from a controlling producer, a producer controlled by the controlled insurer, or a producer that is a subsidiary of the controlled insurer.

(2) A controlled insurer shall not accept business from a controlling producer, and a controlling producer shall not place business with a controlled insurer, unless there is a written contract between the controlling producer and the controlled insurer specifying the responsibilities of each party, which contract has been approved by the board of directors of the controlled insurer and contains the following minimum provisions:

(a) The controlled insurer may terminate the contract for cause, upon written notice to the controlling producer; and the controlled insurer shall suspend the authority of the controlling producer to write business during the pendency of any dispute regarding the cause for the termination;

(b) The controlling producer shall render accounts to the controlled insurer detailing all material transactions, including information necessary to support all commissions, charges, and other fees received by or owing to the controlling producer;

(c) The controlling producer shall remit all funds due under the terms of the contract to the controlled insurer on at least a monthly basis; and the due date shall be fixed so that premiums or installments thereof collected shall be remitted no later than ninety days after the effective date of any policy placed with the controlled insurer under this contract;

(d) All funds collected for the controlled insurer's account shall be held by the controlling producer in a fiduciary capacity, in one or more appropriately identified bank accounts in banks that are members of the federal reserve system, in accordance with the provisions of the insurance law as applicable; and funds of a controlling producer not required to be licensed in this state shall be maintained in compliance with the requirements of the controlling producer's domiciliary state;

(e) The controlling producer shall maintain separately identifiable records of business written for the controlled insurer; and such records shall be retained for a period of five years commencing no later than the effective date of the last financial examination of the insurer;

(f) The contract shall not be assigned in whole or in part by the controlling producer;

(g) The controlled insurer shall provide the controlling producer with its underwriting standards, rules and procedures, manuals setting forth the rates to be charged, and the conditions for the acceptance or rejection of risks, which standards, rules, procedures, rates, and conditions shall be the same as those applicable to comparable business placed with the controlled insurer by a producer other than the controlling producer and to which standards, rules, procedures, rates, and conditions the controlling producer shall adhere;

(h) The rates and terms of the controlling producer's commissions, charges, or other fees and a definition of the purposes for those charges; and the rates of the commissions, charges, and other fees shall be no greater than those applicable to comparable business placed with the controlled insurer by producers other than controlling producers. For purposes of this paragraph (h) and paragraph (g) of this subsection (2), examples of "comparable business" include, without limitation, the same lines of insurance, same kinds of insurance, same kinds of risks, similar policy limits, and similar quality of business.

(i) If the contract provides that the controlling producer, on insurance business placed with the insurer, is to be compensated contingent upon the insurer's profits on that business, then such compensation shall not be determined and paid until at least five years after the premiums on liability insurance are earned and at least one year after the premiums are earned on any other insurance. In no event shall the commissions be paid until the adequacy of the controlled insurer's reserves on remaining claims has been independently verified pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection (4) of this section.

(j) A limit on the controlling producer's writings in relation to the controlled insurer's surplus and total writings, which limit may be different for each line or sub-line of business. The controlled insurer shall notify the controlling producer when the applicable limit is approached and shall not accept business from the controlling producer if the limit is reached. The controlling producer shall not place business with the controlled insurer if it has been notified by the controlled insurer that the limit has been reached.

(k) The controlling producer may negotiate but shall not bind reinsurance on behalf of the controlled insurer on business the controlling producer places with the controlled insurer; except that the controlling producer may bind facultative reinsurance contracts pursuant to obligatory facultative agreements if the contract with the controlled insurer contains underwriting guidelines including, for both reinsurance assumed and ceded, a list of reinsurers with which such automatic agreements are in effect, the coverages and amounts or percentages that may be reinsured, and commission schedules.

(3) Audit committee. Every controlled insurer shall have an audit committee of the board of directors, which committee shall be composed of independent directors. The audit committee shall annually meet with management, the insurer's independent certified public accountants, and an independent casualty actuary or other independent loss reserve specialist acceptable to the commissioner to review the adequacy of the insurer's loss reserves.

(4) Reporting requirements. (a) In addition to any other required loss reserve certification, the controlled insurer shall annually, on April 1 of each year, file with the commissioner an opinion of an independent casualty actuary or such other independent loss reserve specialist acceptable to the commissioner reporting loss ratios for each line of business written and certifying to the adequacy of loss reserves established for losses incurred and outstanding as of year-end including incurred but not reported reserves on business placed by the producer.

(b) The controlled insurer shall annually report to the commissioner the amount of commissions paid to the producer, the percentage such amount represents of the net premiums written, and comparable amounts and percentage paid to noncontrolling producers for placements of the same kinds of insurance.

10-4-1203. Disclosure. The producer, prior to the effective date of the policy, shall deliver written notice to the prospective insured disclosing the relationship between the producer and the controlled insurer; except that, if the business is placed through a subproducer who is not a controlling producer, the controlling producer shall retain, as part of the controlling producer's records, a signed commitment from the subproducer that the subproducer is aware of the relationship between the insurer and the producer and that the subproducer has notified or will notify the insured.

10-4-1204. Penalties. (1) (a) If the commissioner believes that the controlling producer or any other person has not materially complied with this part 12 or with any regulation or order promulgated pursuant thereto, after notice and opportunity to be heard, the commissioner may order the controlling producer to cease placing business with the controlled insurer.

(b) If it was found that, because of such material noncompliance, the controlled insurer or any policyholder thereof has suffered any loss or damage, the commissioner may maintain a civil action or intervene in an action brought by or on behalf of the insurer or policyholder for recovery of compensatory damages for the benefit of the insurer or policyholder or for other appropriate relief.

(2) If an order for liquidation or rehabilitation of the controlled insurer has been entered pursuant to part 5 of article 3 of this title, and the receiver appointed under such order believes that the controlling producer or any other person has not materially complied with this part 12 or with any regulation or order promulgated pursuant thereto and that, as a result, the insurer suffered any loss or damage, the receiver may maintain a civil action for recovery of damages or other appropriate sanctions for the benefit of the insurer.

(3) Nothing contained in this section shall affect the right of the commissioner to impose any other penalties provided for in the laws of this state governing insurance.

(4) Nothing contained in this section is intended to or shall in any manner alter or affect the rights of policyholders, claimants, creditors, or other third parties.

10-4-1205. Applicability. This part 12 shall apply to licensed insurers as defined in section 10-4-1201 (6), whether domiciled in this state or domiciled in a state that is not an accredited state having in effect a substantially similar law. All provisions of part 8 of article 3 of this title, to the extent they are consistent with the provisions of this part 12, shall continue to apply to all parties within holding company systems subject to this title.

10-4-1206. Effective date. This part 12 shall take effect July 1, 1992. Controlled insurers and controlling producers who are not in compliance with section 10-4-1202 as of such date shall have sixty days thereafter to come into compliance with said section and shall, in addition, comply with section 10-4-1203 beginning with all policies written or renewed on or after the sixty-first day after the said date.

PART 13

BLACK LUNG DISEASE INSURANCE JOINT UNDERWRITING ASSOCIATION

10-4-1301. Legislative declaration. The purpose of this part 13 is to ensure the continuing availability of necessary black lung insurance in this state by establishing a temporary market for black lung insurance coverage. It is intended that the nonprofit temporary joint underwriting association created by this part 13 operate on a self-supporting basis, without subsidy from its members, to make the necessary black lung insurance available for an interim period in order to allow the voluntary market to respond or to provide additional time to the general assembly to consider appropriate remedial legislation addressing the problems of availability and high cost of black lung insurance.

10-4-1302. Definitions. As used in this part 13, unless the context otherwise requires:

- (1) "Association" means the joint underwriting association created pursuant to this part 13.
- (2) "Black lung insurance" means any insurance policy providing coverage to employers subject to the "Federal Coal Mine Health and Safety Act of 1969", 30 U.S.C. secs. 931 to 942, as amended.
- (3) "Board" means the board of directors of the association.

Source: L. 95: Entire part added, p. 731, § 1, effective May 23.

10-4-1303. Temporary joint underwriting association. (1) A nonprofit temporary joint underwriting association is hereby created, consisting of all insurance carriers authorized to transact business in this state, including Pinnacol Assurance, that insures employers against liability for compensation under the provisions of articles 40 to 47 of title 8, C.R.S., who shall constitute the members thereof. Every such insurer shall participate in the association as a condition of its authority to continue to make contracts of such kind of insurance in this state.

(2) The purpose of the association shall be to provide black lung insurance coverage for employers located in Colorado who are in good faith entitled to such coverage but who are unable to purchase such insurance through the voluntary market.

(3) The association shall issue policies beginning immediately; except that the association shall not commence underwriting operations until the commissioner finds that black lung insurance is not, or as of a determinable date will not be, available or cannot be made available in the voluntary market or the cost is so unreasonably high as to make such insurance practicably unavailable.

(4) (a) The association shall, pursuant to the provisions of this part 13 and the plan of operation, have the power on behalf of its members:

- (I) To issue, or cause to be issued, policies of black lung insurance;
- (II) To underwrite such insurance;
- (III) To adjust and pay losses with respect thereto; and
- (IV) To provide or cede reinsurance.

(b) The association may contract with one or more servicing carriers or any other appropriate entity to perform any or all of the duties of the association.

10-4-1304. Board of directors - authority. (1) The association shall be governed by a board of six directors, to be appointed by the commissioner. Such directors shall be individuals employed full-time in the business of writing workers' compensation insurance in Colorado, at least one shall be employed by Pinnacol Assurance, at least one shall be actively engaged in operations in a small underground mine, and at least one shall be actively engaged in operations in a large underground mine. The board shall elect a chairperson from among its members.

(2) The board shall have the authority to take all lawful actions necessary to implement this part 13, including, but not limited to, issuing policies as named insurer.

10-4-1305. Plan of operation - annual certification. (1) (a) The board shall submit to the commissioner a proposed plan of operation consistent with the provisions of this part 13. If the board fails to do so, the commissioner shall promulgate a plan of operation or part thereof, as the case may be. The plan of operation approved or promulgated by the commissioner shall become effective and operational upon order of the commissioner.

(b) The board may change the plan of operation at any time upon the board's initiative. Adoption of the plan and any changes thereto shall require the consent of two-thirds of the members and the approval of the commissioner.

(2) The plan of operation shall provide for the prompt and efficient provision of black lung insurance and shall contain other provisions including, but not limited to:

(a) A preliminary uniform assessment of all members, based on market share as measured by workers' compensation premium in this state, for initial expenses necessary to commence operations;

- (b) The establishment of necessary facilities;
- (c) The management of the association;
- (d) A pro rata assessment of members to defray losses and expenses;
- (e) Reasonable and objective underwriting standards;
- (f) The cession of reinsurance;
- (g) Appointments of servicing carriers or other servicing arrangements, including contracts with data service organizations; except that the criteria for selecting service providers shall include, at a minimum, experience in administration of workers' compensation with particular emphasis on workers' compensation residual market mechanisms;
- (h) Procedures for determining amounts of insurance to be provided by the association;
- (i) Criteria for eligibility for coverage under the plan;
- (j) Programs to encourage insurers to provide black lung insurance coverage in the voluntary market;
- (k) Procedures for publication of renewal dates of employers insured under the plan;
- (l) Procedures for equitable distribution of applicants to the plan;

- (m) The provision of policy, claims, and loss control services to the employers insured under the plan;
- (n) Review of applications for coverage with the plan;
- (o) Procedures for auditing employers insured under the plan, which procedures shall be based on reasonable business judgment and designed to maximize the likelihood that the plan will collect the appropriate premiums;
- (p) Servicing carrier standards, commission schedules, and other provisions relating to agents who submit business to the plan;
- (q) Termination of coverage of and refusal of future coverage to an insured employer that:
  - (I) Fails to make payments when due;
  - (II) Is delinquent in payment of workers' compensation or employers' liability insurance payments or deductible payments owed to a service provider or former insurer;
  - (III) Fails to comply with any reasonable loss control programs recommended by the plan; or
  - (IV) Fails to cooperate with reasonable investigation of claims involving its employees, payroll audits, or development of loss control recommendations.
- (3) The plan shall use actuarially sound rates. The plan shall also put in place rates and rating plans for new applicants that had previously been self-insured. The plan may offer rating, dividend plans, and other means to encourage employers to participate in loss prevention programs. Rates and rating plans shall be subject to approval by the commissioner using the standards set forth in part 4 of this article.

10-4-1306. Deficits - assessment - rebate of surplus. (1) Whenever a deficit exists, the board shall, within ninety days, provide the commissioner with a program to eliminate the deficit within a reasonable time.

(2) Any premiums or assessments collected by the plan in excess of the amount necessary to fund projected ultimate incurred losses and expenses of the plan and not paid to insureds in conjunction with dividend programs shall be retained by the plan for future use as necessary to ensure the continued operational viability of the plan.

(3) If the plan incurs a deficit or surplus from operations in excess of the amount required under subsection (2) of this section, as determined by the commissioner, the amount of the deficit or surplus shall be assessed or rebated to the participating insurers. Each such insurer shall pay a portion of the total assessment or receive a portion of the total rebate based on its proportion of the total voluntary Colorado workers' compensation insurance written during the calendar year in which the deficit or surplus occurs.

10-4-1307. Annual statements. The association shall file in the office of the commissioner annually, on or before June 1, a statement which shall contain information with respect to its transactions, condition, operations, and affairs during the preceding year. Such statement shall contain an independent actuarial certification of the results of the operation of the plan and such other matters and information as are prescribed. The commissioner may prescribe the form of such statement and may, at any time, require the association to furnish additional information with respect to its transactions, condition, or any matter connected therewith considered to be material and of assistance in evaluating the scope, operation, and experience of the association.

10-4-1309. Legislative declaration - authority of commissioner - emergency rules - judicial review. (1) The general assembly finds, determines, and declares that the matters addressed in this part 13 are of the utmost urgency. Accordingly, the commissioner is authorized to, and shall, adopt emergency rules implementing this part 13 immediately. In addition, the commissioner is empowered to issue all necessary orders to implement this part 13 as soon as is practicable.

(2) To cover the commissioner's startup costs, the commissioner may assess insurers participating in the association based on each insurer's proportion of the total voluntary Colorado workers' compensation insurance written during calendar year 1994.

(3) All orders of the commissioner made pursuant to this part 13 shall be subject to judicial review by the court of appeals as provided in section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S.; except that, notwithstanding any other provision of law, proceedings for review shall act as a stay of the enforcement of any order or decision of the insurance commissioner disapproving or ordering the withdrawal, adjustment, or termination of the effectiveness of any rate filing made by or on behalf of the association on the ground that the rates or premiums for the business of the association are unreasonable or excessive, and the association may continue to charge rates pursuant to such filing pending final order of the court.

EXEMPTION FROM RATE AND APPROVAL REQUIREMENTS FOR INSURERS PROVIDING COVERAGE TO EXEMPT COMMERCIAL POLICYHOLDERS

10-4-1401. Legislative declaration. The general assembly declares that the health, welfare, and safety of the people of the state of Colorado may not be enhanced by the regulation of insurance between sophisticated commercial entities and insurers. The general assembly finds that there are commercial entities that utilize personnel trained in risk management, insurance coverage issues, and insurance industry knowledge who are capable of negotiating and entering into insurance coverage agreements without the need for state regulation in this area. Therefore, the purpose of this part 14 is to exempt insurers negotiating with and insuring sophisticated commercial entities from rate filing and form certification requirements. This exemption will allow competitive underwriting and rating of policies.

10-4-1402. Rules. (1) (a) The commissioner shall promulgate rules necessary for the implementation and administration of this article. Such rules shall include, without limitation, the definition of what organizations and entities qualify as exempt commercial policyholders. Such definition shall require such organizations to be those purchasing type II kinds of insurance as specified in section 10-4-401 (3) (b), except the commissioner shall not include purchasers of title insurance within the definition of an exempt commercial policyholder. For purposes of promulgating such rules, the commissioner shall consider recommendations from risk management professionals, insurer representatives, producers, buyers, qualified insurance consultants, consumers of insurance products, and any other persons as necessary.

(b) (I) For the purposes of promulgating the definition of an exempt commercial policyholder, the commissioner shall mandate that an exempt commercial policyholder procure its insurance through use of a risk manager employed or retained by the exempt commercial policyholder. The qualifications of the risk manager shall be defined by the division of insurance pursuant to this section.

(II) The commissioner shall define all other criteria of an exempt commercial policyholder which criteria shall include but are not limited to the following, and each exempt commercial policyholder shall meet at least one of such criteria:

(A) The minimum amount for aggregate insurance premium sales for the exempt commercial policyholder;

(B) The minimum net worth of the exempt commercial policyholder;

(C) The minimum dollar amount for annual net revenues or sales for the exempt commercial policyholder;

(D) The minimum number of employees of the exempt commercial policyholder per individual insured, or, if the exempt commercial policyholder is a member of an affiliated group, the minimum number of employees in the employing group;

(E) A not-for-profit or public entity's minimum annual budget or assets; or

(2) The definition of an exempt commercial policyholder shall be reviewed periodically by the commissioner with the recommendations from risk management professionals, insurer representatives, producers, buyers, qualified insurance consultants, consumers of insurance products, and any other person as the commissioner deems necessary.

(3) The commissioner shall promulgate rules that define the disclosure requirements for insurance policies issued to exempt commercial policyholders. Each insurance policy issued to an exempt commercial policyholder shall contain a conspicuous disclaimer printed in at least ten-point, bold-faced type that states that the policy is exempt from the rate filing and approval and the form filing and certification requirements of the division of insurance.

(4) The division shall determine by rule the type of data, documents, reports, rate and form information, and any other information the commissioner determines necessary, to be collected from an insurer providing coverage to an exempt commercial policyholder when the division has received a complaint that an insurer is anticompetitive or not adequately servicing the needs of the exempt commercial policyholder.

(5) Rules promulgated under this section shall be promulgated in accordance with article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., and initially completed by January 15, 2000.

Source: L. 99: Entire part added, p. 384, § 1, effective January 15, 2000.

10-4-1403. Exemption from rate filing, approval, and form certification requirements. (1) The requirements of sections 10-4-107, 10-4-108, 10-4-109, 10-4-109.5, 10-4-109.7, 10-4-110, 10-4-113, 10-4-403, 10-4-404, 10-4-404.5, 10-4-414, 10-4-419, and 10-4-421 shall not apply to insurers of exempt commercial policyholders.

(2) If the commissioner determines, after providing an opportunity for comment and a public hearing, that a line of insurance is anticompetitive, as described in section 10-4-415, or is not being adequately serviced by insurers, the commissioner may require that the rate for that particular line of insurance be filed pursuant to section 10-4-401 and enforced under section 10-4-418.

(3) The commissioner shall review annually any line of insurance found previously to be anticompetitive, as described in section 10-4-415, to determine whether rate filing and approval requirements may again be eliminated because the line has subsequently become competitive. Such review shall include the opportunity for comment and a public hearing.

10-4-1404. Multistate insurance risks - choice of law. Where the exempt commercial policyholder operates in more than one state, the policy may include provisions within the insurance contract that determine disputes arising from claims handling and procedures, cancellation of the policy, or nonrenewal of the policy, which disputes shall be governed by the state with the largest percentage of premiums charged under the policy.

Source: L. 2012: Entire part added, (HB 12-1071), ch. 25, p. 67, § 1, effective January 1, 2013.

10-4-1502. Licensure of vendors. (1) A vendor shall hold a limited lines producer license issued by the division in accordance with part 4 of article 2 of this title in order to sell or offer coverage under a policy of portable electronics insurance.

(2) A limited lines producer license issued for the purposes of this part 15 authorizes an employee or authorized representative of the vendor to sell or offer coverage under a policy of portable electronics insurance to a customer at each location at which the vendor engages in portable electronics transactions.

(3) The supervising entity shall maintain a registry of vendor locations that are authorized to sell or solicit portable electronics insurance coverage in this state. Upon request by the commissioner and with ten days' notice to the supervising entity, the supervising entity shall make the registry open to inspection and examination by the commissioner during regular business hours of the supervising entity.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a license issued pursuant to this part 15 authorizes the licensee and its employees or authorized representatives to engage in those activities that are permitted in this part 15.

Editor's note: This section is effective January 1, 2013.

Source: L. 2012: Entire part added, (HB 12-1071), ch. 25, p. 69, § 1, effective January 1, 2013.

10-4-1503. Requirements for sale of portable electronics insurance. (1) At every location where portable electronics insurance is offered to customers, the vendor shall make brochures or other written materials available to a prospective customer that:

(a) Disclose that portable electronics insurance may provide a duplication of coverage already provided by a customer's homeowner's insurance policy, renter's insurance policy, or other source of coverage;

(b) State that the enrollment by the customer in a portable electronics insurance program is not required in order to purchase or lease portable electronics or services;

(c) Summarize the material terms of the insurance coverage, including:

(I) The identity of the insurer;

(II) The identity of the supervising entity;

(III) The amount of any applicable deductible and how it is to be paid;

(IV) Benefits of the coverage; and

(V) Key terms and conditions of coverage, such as whether portable electronics may be repaired or replaced with similar make and model reconditioned or nonoriginal manufacturer parts or equipment;

(d) Summarize the process for filing a claim, including a description of how to return portable electronics and the maximum fee applicable if the customer fails to comply with any equipment return requirements; and

(e) State that an enrolled customer may cancel enrollment for coverage under a portable electronics insurance policy at any time, and that the person paying the premium will receive a refund of any applicable unearned premium.

(2) An insurer may offer portable electronics insurance on a month-to-month or other periodic basis as a group or master commercial inland marine policy issued to a vendor of portable electronics for its enrolled customers.

(3) A policy of insurance provides primary coverage in the event of a covered loss under more than one policy.

(4) Each insurer shall establish eligibility and underwriting standards for customers electing to enroll in coverage for each portable electronics insurance program.

Editor's note: This section is effective January 1, 2013.

Source: L. 2012: Entire part added, (HB 12-1071), ch. 25, p. 69, § 1, effective January 1, 2013.

10-4-1504. Authority of vendors of portable electronics. (1) The employees and authorized representatives of vendors may sell or offer portable electronics insurance to customers and are not subject to licensure as an insurance producer under this title if:

(a) The vendor obtains a limited lines producer license to authorize its employees or authorized representatives to sell or offer portable electronics insurance pursuant to this section;

(b) The insurer issuing the portable electronics insurance either directly supervises, authorizes, or appoints a supervising entity to supervise the administration of the program, including development of a training program for employees and authorized representatives of the vendors. The supervising entity shall include the following in the training program, which must include employees and authorized representatives of vendors who are directly engaged in the activity of selling or offering portable electronics insurance:

(I) A supplemental education program regarding the portable electronics insurance product that is conducted and overseen by licensed employees of the supervising entity if the training program is provided in electronic format; and

(II) Instruction to each employee or authorized representative about the portable electronics insurance offered to customers and the disclosures required under section 10-4-1503; and

(c) The employee or authorized representative of a vendor does not advertise, represent, or otherwise hold himself or herself out as a nonlimited lines licensed insurance producer.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a vendor shall not compensate employees or authorized representatives of a vendor based primarily on the number of customers enrolled for portable electronics insurance coverage, but the vendor may compensate employees or authorized representatives for activities under the limited lines license as long as the compensation is incidental to the employee's or authorized representative's overall compensation.

(3) A vendor may bill and collect charges for portable electronics insurance coverage. A vendor shall separately itemize any charge to the enrolled customer for coverage that is not included in the cost associated with the purchase or lease of portable electronics and any related services. If the portable electronics insurance coverage is included with the purchase or lease of portable electronics or related services, the vendor shall clearly and conspicuously disclose to the enrolled customer that the portable electronics insurance coverage is included with the portable electronics or related services. Vendors billing and collecting the charges are not required to maintain the charges in a segregated account if the vendor is authorized by the insurer to hold the charges in an alternative manner and remits the charges to the supervising entity within sixty days after receipt. All charges received by a vendor from an enrolled customer for the sale of portable electronics insurance are held in trust by the vendor in a fiduciary capacity for the benefit of the insurer. Vendors may receive compensation for billing and collection services.

10-4-1505. Suspension or revocation of license. (1) If a vendor of portable electronics or its employee or authorized representative violates this part 15, the commissioner may take disciplinary action against the vendor in accordance with part 8 of article 2 of this title. A fine imposed as disciplinary action shall not exceed five thousand dollars in the aggregate for multiple violations arising from the same or similar conduct.

(2) In addition to other penalties authorized by part 8 of article 2 of this title, the commissioner may:

(a) Suspend the privilege of transacting portable electronics insurance pursuant to this part 15 at specific business locations where violations have occurred; and

(b) Suspend or revoke the ability of individual employees or authorized representatives to act under the license.

Editor's note: This section is effective January 1, 2013.

Source: L. 2012: Entire part added, (HB 12-1071), ch. 25, p. 71, § 1, effective January 1, 2013.

10-4-1506. Termination of portable electronics insurance. (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law:

(a) (I) Except as specified in subparagraphs (II) and (III) of this paragraph (a), an insurer may terminate or otherwise change the terms and conditions of a policy of portable electronics insurance only upon providing the vendor and enrolled customers with at least thirty days' notice.

(II) An insurer may terminate an enrolled customer's enrollment under a portable electronics insurance policy upon fifteen days' notice for nonpayment of premium or for discovery of fraud or material misrepresentation in obtaining coverage or in the presentation of a claim under the policy.

(III) An insurer may immediately terminate an enrolled customer's enrollment under a portable electronics insurance policy:

(A) If the enrolled customer ceases to have an active service with the vendor of portable electronics; or

(B) If an enrolled customer exhausts the aggregate limit of liability, if any, under the terms of the portable electronics insurance policy and the insurer sends notice of termination to the enrolled customer within thirty calendar days after exhaustion of the limit. If notice is not timely sent, enrollment continues notwithstanding the aggregate limit of liability until the insurer sends notice of termination to the enrolled customer.

(b) If the insurer changes the terms and conditions, then the insurer shall provide the vendor with a revised policy or endorsement and shall provide each enrolled customer with a revised certificate, endorsement, updated brochure, or other evidence indicating that a change in the terms and conditions has occurred and a summary of the material changes;

(c) When a vendor terminates a portable electronics insurance policy, the vendor shall mail or deliver written notice to each enrolled customer advising the enrolled customer of the termination of the policy and the effective date of termination. The insurer shall mail or deliver written notice to the enrolled customer at least thirty days before the termination.

(d) (I) Whenever notice or correspondence with respect to a policy of portable electronics insurance is required pursuant to this part 15 or is otherwise required by law, the insurer, vendor, or other person shall send it in writing within the notice period, if any, specified within the statute or rule requiring the notice or correspondence. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an insurer, vendor, or other person may send notices and correspondence by either mail or electronic means.

(II) If the notice or correspondence is mailed, the insurer shall send it to the vendor at the vendor's mailing address specified for such purpose and to its affected enrolled customers' last-known mailing addresses on file with the insurer. The insurer or vendor shall maintain proof of mailing in a form authorized or accepted by the United States postal service or other commercial mail delivery service.

(III) If the notice or correspondence is sent by electronic means, the insurer shall send it to the vendor at the vendor's electronic mail address specified for such purpose and to its affected enrolled customers' last-known electronic mail addresses as provided by each enrolled customer to the insurer or vendor. The insurer or vendor shall maintain proof that the notice or correspondence was sent.

(IV) For purposes of this paragraph (d), an enrolled customer's provision of an electronic mail address to the insurer or vendor is consent to receive notices and correspondence by electronic means.

(e) The supervising entity appointed by the insurer may send notice or correspondence required by this section or otherwise required by law on behalf of an insurer or vendor.

10-4-1507. Application for license - fees. (1) An applicant for a license under this part 15 shall apply for a license in accordance with section 10-2-404; except that, in lieu of providing information for all officers, partners, and directors as required by section 10-2-404 (2), the required information to be submitted for a license pursuant to this part 15 is limited to the information pertaining to an employee or officer of the vendor that is designated by the applicant as the person responsible for the vendor's compliance with this part 15. If the vendor derives more than fifty percent of its revenue from the sale of portable electronics insurance, the vendor shall provide the location of the home office, name, residence address, and other information required by the commissioner for all officers, directors, and shareholders of record having beneficial ownership of ten percent or more of any class of securities registered under the federal securities laws.

(2) For purposes of complying with section 10-2-404 (2) (d), the licensed producer designated by an applicant is not required to be an officer, partner, employee, or director of the applicant.

(3) An applicant for a license pursuant to this part 15 is exempt from the requirements of sections 10-2-404 (2) (f) and 10-2-406.

(4) Any vendor engaging in portable electronics insurance transactions on or before January 1, 2013, shall apply for licensure within ninety days after January 1, 2013. Any applicant commencing operations after January 1, 2013, shall obtain a license before offering portable electronics insurance.

10-5-101.1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly finds and declares that property and casualty insurance transactions with nonadmitted insurers are so affected with a public interest as to require regulation, taxation, supervision, and control of such transactions and matters relating thereto, as provided in this article, in order to:

(a) Protect the insureds and claimants of this state in transactions involving the purchase of insurance from insurers not authorized to transact business in this state;

(b) Provide for the public, except for transactions related to the diligent effort requirements of this article for exempt commercial policyholders, as defined pursuant to section 10-4-1402 and rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to that section, to the extent that insurance is not procurable from admitted insurers, orderly, reasonable, and regulated access to such insurance from eligible nonadmitted insurers through qualified, licensed, and supervised surplus line agents and brokers;

(c) Protect the revenues of this state;

(d) Protect regulated, admitted insurers from unregulated and unfair competition by nonadmitted insurers;

(e) Regulate and supervise the effectuation of surplus lines insurance in accordance with the laws of this state and federal law, including the federal “McCarran-Ferguson Act”; and

(f) Maintain reliable insurance markets.

10-5-101.2. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) “Affiliate” means, with respect to an insured, any entity that controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with the insured.

(2) “Affiliated group” means any group of entities that are all affiliated.

(3) “Broker” means a surplus lines producer duly licensed to export insurance under this article.

(4) “Control” means that an entity has control over another entity if the controlling entity:

(a) Directly or indirectly or acting through one or more other persons owns, controls, or has the power to vote twenty-five percent or more of any class of voting securities of the controlled entity; or

(b) Controls in any manner the election of a majority of the directors or trustees of the controlled entity.

(5) “Export” means to place with an insurer under this article insurance covering an insured whose home state is Colorado.

(6) “Federal act” means the “Nonadmitted and Reinsurance Reform Act of 2010”, 15 U.S.C. sec. 8201 et seq., as amended.

(7) (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (7), “home state” means, with respect to an insured:

(I) The state in which the insured maintains its principal place of business or, in the case of an individual, the individual’s principal residence; or

(II) If one hundred percent of the insured risk is located out of the state referred to in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (a), the state to which the greatest percentage of the insured’s taxable premium for that insurance contract is allocated.

(b) With respect to affiliated groups, if more than one insured from an affiliated group are named insureds on a single surplus lines insurance contract, “home state” means the home state, as determined pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (7), of the member of the affiliated group that has the largest percentage of premium attributed to it under the insurance contract.

(8) “Independently procured insurance” means insurance procured directly by a person from a nonadmitted insurer.

(9) “Multistate risk” means a risk covered by a nonadmitted insurer with insured exposures in more than one state.

(10) “Nonadmitted insurance” means any property or casualty insurance permitted in a state to be placed directly or through a broker with a nonadmitted insurer eligible to accept such insurance. “Nonadmitted insurance” includes independently procured insurance and surplus lines insurance.

(11) “Nonadmitted insurers” means insurers not having a certificate of authority to transact business in this state.

(12) “Person” has the same meaning as set forth in section 2-4-401, C.R.S.

(13) “Surplus lines insurance” means coverage placed with an eligible nonadmitted insurer as provided by section 10-5-108.

10-5-101.5. Exemptions. (1) The provisions of this article controlling the placing of insurance with nonadmitted insurers shall not apply to reinsurance or, except as to subsection (2) of this section, to the following types of insurance when placed by licensed agents or brokers of this state:

(a) Insurance on vessels or crafts or their hulls or cargoes or on marine builders’ risks or marine protection and indemnity or other risks, including strikes and war risks commonly insured under ocean or wet marine forms of policy;

(b) Insurance on subjects located, resident, or to be performed wholly outside of this state or on vehicles or aircraft owned and principally garaged outside this state;

(c) Insurance on the operations of railroads engaged in transportation in interstate commerce and their property used in such operations;

(d) Insurance on aircraft owned or operated by manufacturers of aircraft or on aircraft operated in commercial scheduled interstate flight or the cargo of such aircraft or against liability, other than workers’ compensation and employers’ liability, arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of such aircraft;

(e) Insurance on satellites or other devices intended for launch beyond the earth's atmosphere.

(2) Brokers placing any insurance referred to in subsection (1) of this section shall keep a full and true record of each such coverage in detail as required of surplus line insurance under this article. The record shall be preserved for not less than three years after the effective date of the insurance; shall be kept in the broker's office and open to the commissioner's examination and on forms designated and furnished by the commissioner; and shall contain a report of all such coverages so placed in a designated calendar year.

10-5-102. Validity of certain contracts. A contract of insurance effectuated by a nonadmitted insurer in violation of the provisions of this article shall be voidable except at the instance of the insurer.

Source: L. 49: p. 467, § 1. CSA: C. 87, § 318. CRS 53: § 72-14-1. C.R.S. 1963: § 72-13-1. L. 95: Entire section amended, p. 492, § 9, effective May 16.

10-5-103. Conditions for export. (1) If certain insurance coverages cannot be procured from admitted insurers, such coverages, designated in this article as "surplus lines", may be procured from nonadmitted insurers, subject to the following conditions:

(a) The insurance must be procured through a licensed broker.

(b) The full amount of insurance required shall not be procurable, after diligent effort has been made to do so, from among admitted insurers authorized to transact and actually transacting that kind of insurance in this state; and placing the insurance with a nonadmitted insurer shall not be for the purpose of securing a lower premium rate than that which would be accepted by an admitted insurer unless the premium rate quoted by the admitted insurer is more than ten percent higher than that quoted by the nonadmitted insurer.

(c) At the time of the procuring of any such insurance, an affidavit setting forth facts referred to in paragraph (b) of this subsection (1) must be executed by the broker. Such affidavit shall be filed with the commissioner within thirty days after the insurance is procured. In lieu thereof, the commissioner may provide for simplified monthly reporting of coverages procured pursuant to this article.

(2) The diligent effort requirements of this section shall not apply to transactions with exempt commercial policyholders, as defined pursuant to section 10-4-1402 and rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to that section.

10-5-103.5. Producing broker's affidavit. Any broker exporting insurance under this article, at the request of any other licensed agent or broker, may accept an affidavit executed by such other agent or broker, in such form as may be prescribed or accepted by the commissioner, as evidence that such insurance was eligible for export under section 10-5-103. Except as the commissioner may otherwise provide, the broker shall file or cause to be filed such affidavit with the commissioner within thirty days after the insurance was so procured.

10-5-104. Endorsement of contract. Every insurance contract procured and delivered as a surplus line coverage pursuant to this article shall be initialed by or bear the name of the surplus line broker who procured it and shall have stamped upon it the following: "This contract is delivered as a surplus line coverage under the 'Nonadmitted Insurance Act'. The insurer issuing this contract is not licensed in Colorado but is an eligible nonadmitted insurer. There is no protection under the provisions of the 'Colorado Insurance Guaranty Association Act'."

10-5-106. When export declared eligible. The commissioner may, by rule, declare eligible for export generally, notwithstanding the provisions of section 10-5-103 (1) (b) and (1) (c), any class of insurance coverage or risk for which the commissioner finds that there is no reasonable or adequate market among insurers licensed in this state. For the purposes of this section, the diligent effort requirements of this article shall not apply to transactions with exempt commercial policyholders, as defined pursuant to section 10-4-1402 and rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to that section.

10-5-108. Placement of surplus lines insurance. (1) A broker shall not place any coverage with a nonadmitted insurer unless, at the time of placement, the nonadmitted insurer meets all applicable eligibility requirements contained in the federal act or is an insurance exchange, Lloyds plan, or group of incorporated insurers under common administration that has been approved by the commissioner and is included on the list of eligible nonadmitted insurers prepared by the commissioner at least annually. To be placed on the eligible list, the nonadmitted insurer shall:

(a) Submit a current year's application, fees as prescribed by sections 10-3-207 and 24-31-104.5, C.R.S., and other information required by the commissioner. In the case of an insurance exchange, the nonadmitted insurer shall submit an aggregate combined annual statement of all underwriting syndicates operating during the period reported, in addition to individual annual statements for each syndicate.

(b) (I) In the case of a foreign insurer, meet all applicable eligibility requirements contained in the federal act. The commissioner may approve an insurer with less than the required minimum requirements upon an affirmative finding of acceptability by the commissioner. The finding must be based upon such factors as quality of management, capital and surplus of any parent company, company underwriting profit and investment income trends, market availability, and company record and reputation within the industry. The commissioner shall not make an affirmative finding of acceptability when the insurer's capital and surplus is less than four million five hundred thousand dollars.

(II) In the case of an "insurance exchange" created by the laws of a state other than this state, the syndicates of the exchange shall have and maintain, under terms acceptable to the commissioner, capital and surplus of not less than seventy-five million dollars in the aggregate. The insurance exchange shall maintain, under terms acceptable to the commissioner, not less than fifty percent of the policyholder surplus of each syndicate in a custodial account accessible to the exchange or its domiciliary commissioner in the event of insolvency or impairment of the individual syndicate. In addition, each individual syndicate to be eligible to accept surplus lines insurance placements from this state shall meet either of the following requirements:

(A) For insurance exchanges that maintain funds in an amount of not less than fifteen million dollars for the protection of all exchange policyholders, the syndicate shall have and maintain, under terms acceptable to the commissioner, minimum capital and surplus of not less than five million dollars; or

(B) For insurance exchanges that do not maintain funds in an amount of not less than fifteen million dollars for the protection of all exchange policyholders, the syndicate shall maintain, under terms acceptable to the commissioner, minimum capital and surplus of not less than the minimum capital and surplus requirements under the laws of its domiciliary jurisdiction or fifteen million dollars, whichever is greater.

(c) (I) In the case of an alien insurer, as defined in section 10-3-301 (1), maintain status on the current national association of insurance commissioners' international insurers department listing;

(II) In the case of a Lloyd's plan or other similar unincorporated group of individual insurers, or a combination of both unincorporated and incorporated insurers, such alien insurer shall have and maintain a trust fund in the United States, in an amount of not less than one hundred million dollars, which trust fund shall be available for the benefit of United States surplus lines policyholders of any member of the group. The group shall, in addition, maintain in the United States a trust fund or trust funds in an amount satisfactory to the commissioner that is not less than the amount required by the law of the state where the trust fund or trust funds are located. The incorporated members of the group shall not be engaged in any business other than underwriting as a member of the group and shall be subject to the same level of solvency regulation and control by the group's domiciliary regulator as are the unincorporated members. The trust funds shall be maintained in an irrevocable trust account in the United States in a qualified financial institution and shall consist of cash, securities, letters of credit, or investments of substantially the same character and quality as those that are eligible investments for the capital and statutory reserves of admitted insurers to write like kinds of insurance in this state, and the trust instrument representing the surplus portion of the trust deposit shall satisfy the requirements of the standard trust agreement required for listing with the national association of insurance commissioners' international insurers department.

(III) In the case of a group of incorporated insurers under common administration that has continuously transacted an insurance business outside the United States for at least three years immediately before May 16, 1995, and that submits to this state's authority to examine its books and records and bears the expense of the examination, have and maintain an aggregate policyholders' surplus of ten billion dollars and have and maintain in trust a surplus in the amount of one hundred million dollars, all of which surplus funds shall be available for the benefit of United States surplus lines policyholders of any member of the group. Each insurer shall individually maintain capital and surplus of not less than twenty-five million dollars per company. The trust funds shall satisfy the requirements of the standard trust agreement requirement for listing with the national association of insurance commissioners' international insurers department, shall be maintained in an irrevocable trust account in the United States in a qualified financial institution, and shall consist of cash, securities, letters of credit, or investments of substantially the same character and quality as those that are eligible investments for the capital and statutory reserves of admitted insurers to write like kinds of insurance in this state. Additionally, each member of the group shall make available to the commissioner an annual certification of the member's solvency by the member's domiciliary regulator and its independent public accountant.

(d) (Deleted by amendment, L. 95, p. 493, § 13, effective May 16, 1995.)

(2) A surplus line broker who places insurance with a nonadmitted insurance company that does not comply with this article is subject to a penalty of up to ten thousand dollars as determined by the commissioner and the surplus line broker's license may be revoked.

Editor's note: Amendments to subsection (1)(a) by House Bill 12-1215 and Senate Bill 12-110 were harmonized.

10-5-109. Records of surplus line broker. Each licensed surplus line broker shall keep in the broker's office a full and true record of each surplus line contract procured by the broker, including a copy of the daily report, if any, showing such of the following items as may be applicable: Amount of the insurance; gross premiums charged; return premium paid, if any; rate of premium charged upon the several items of property; effective date of the contract and the terms thereof; name and address of the insurer; name and address of the insured; brief general description of property insured and where located; other information as may be required by the commissioner. The record shall at all times be open to examination by the commissioner.

10-5-110. Statement - rules. (1) Each surplus line broker and every person that enters into an independent procurement for nonadmitted insurance shall file with the commissioner a verified statement of all insurance transacted by the broker or other person during the preceding reporting period. The commissioner shall, by rule, determine the reporting period.

(2) The statement must be on forms as prescribed and furnished by the commissioner, and must show: Gross amount of each kind of insurance transacted, aggregate gross premiums charged, aggregate of returned premiums paid to insureds, aggregate of net premiums, and additional information as required by the commissioner.

Source: L. 49: p. 469, § 9. CSA: C. 87, § 326. CRS 53: § 72-14-9. C.R.S. 1963: § 72-13-9. L. 2012: Entire section amended, (HB 12-1215), ch. 104, p. 353, § 3, effective August 8.

10-5-111. Tax on premiums. (1) Each surplus line broker and every person that enters into an independent procurement for nonadmitted insurance shall remit to the division of insurance a tax on the net premiums, exclusive of sums collected to cover federal and other state taxes and examination fees, on nonadmitted insurance subject to tax under this article during the preceding reporting period as shown by the statement filed with the commissioner. The net premiums must be taxed at the rates described in section 10-5-111.5.

(2) If a surplus line policy or independently procured policy covers an insured whose home state is Colorado, and that policy covers risks or exposures located outside of Colorado, the tax payable is computed using the allocation method contained in section 10-5-111.5.

Cross references: For additional taxes required by this article, see § 10-3-209.

10-5-111.5. Allocation of premium tax. (1) In determining the amount of tax payable to Colorado, the entire amount of tax payable at a rate of three percent on the net premiums is presumed to be owed to Colorado; except that, for those multistate risks involving states that have entered into either a compact or a tax-sharing agreement with Colorado to share the tax, the premium tax rate and the amounts allocated to the other states are subject to determination according to the terms of the compact or agreement.

(2) The commissioner may participate in tax-sharing agreements to collect and disburse funds in accordance with subsection (1) of this section, if the purposes of the tax-sharing agreement are limited to:

(a) Facilitating the payment and allocation of premium taxes on nonadmitted insurance for multistate risks among states participating in the agreement;

(b) Adopting uniform requirements, forms, and procedures that facilitate the reporting, payment, collection, and allocation of premium taxes for nonadmitted insurance for multistate risks;

(c) Coordinating the reporting of premium taxes and transaction data of multistate risks among the states participating in the agreement; and

(d) Establishing a mechanism to facilitate the receipt and distribution of premium taxes and transaction data related to nonadmitted insurance of multistate risks.

10-5-112. Penalty for failure to comply. If any surplus line broker fails to file the annual statement, or fails to remit the tax provided by section 10-5-111, prior to the first day of April after the tax is due, the broker shall be liable for a fine of twenty-five dollars for each day of delinquency commencing with the first day of April. The tax may be collected by distraint, or the tax and fine may be recovered by an action instituted by the commissioner in any court of competent jurisdiction.

10-5-113. Revocation of broker's license. (1) The commissioner may revoke any surplus line broker's license:

(a) If the broker fails to file the annual statement or to remit the tax as required by this article; or

(b) If the broker fails to keep the records, or to allow the commissioner to examine the broker's records as required by this article; or

(c) For any of the causes for which a general broker's license may be revoked.

(2) The commissioner may suspend or revoke any such license whenever the commissioner deems suspension or revocation to be for the best interest of the people of this state.

(3) The procedures provided by law for the suspension or revocation of general brokers' licenses shall be applicable to suspension or revocation of a surplus line broker's license.

(4) No broker whose license has been so revoked or suspended shall again be so licensed within one year thereafter or until any fines or delinquent taxes owing by the broker have been paid.

10-5-114. Actions against insurer - service. (1) A nonadmitted insurer may be sued, upon any cause of action arising in this state under any contract issued by it as a surplus line contract, pursuant to this article, in the district court of the county in which the cause of action arose.

(2) Service of legal process against the insurer may be made in any such action by service upon the commissioner. The commissioner shall forthwith mail the documents of process served, or a true copy thereof, to the person designated by the insurer pursuant to rule of the commissioner for the purpose by prepaid certified mail with return receipt requested. The insurer shall have forty days from the date of service upon the commissioner within which to plead, answer, or otherwise defend the action. Upon service of process upon the commissioner in accordance with this provision, the court shall be deemed to have jurisdiction in personam of the insurer.

(3) A nonadmitted insurer issuing such policy shall be deemed thereby to have authorized service of process against it, in the manner and to the effect as provided in this section, and to have appointed the commissioner as its agent for service of process issuing upon any cause of action arising in this state under any such policy. Any such policy shall contain a provision stating the substance of this section and designating the person to whom the commissioner shall mail process as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

10-5-115. Authority of commissioner - assistance of brokers' association. (1) The commissioner shall maintain such facilities as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this article.

(2) The commissioner may rely upon the advice and assistance of a duly constituted association of brokers in carrying out the purposes of this article, if the association files with the commissioner:

(a) A copy of the association's constitution and articles of agreement or association or the association's certificate of incorporation and bylaws and any rules or regulations governing the association's activities;

(b) Deleted by amendment, L. 95, p. 496, § 16, effective May 16, 1995.)

(c) A list of the association's members;

(d) The name and address of a resident of this state upon whom notices or orders of the commissioner or process issued by the commissioner may be served.

(2.5) The commissioner may examine the association's records concerning the functions or duties performed on behalf of the commissioner by the association.

(3) The association shall provide a means for the examination of all surplus line coverages written in this state to determine whether such coverages comply with the law and such rules or regulations as may be issued by the commissioner.

(4) The commissioner may refuse to accept, or may suspend or revoke the acceptance of, an association for any of the following reasons:

(a) It reasonably appears that the association will not be able to carry out the purpose of this article;

(b) The association does not maintain and enforce rules or regulations which will assure that members of the association and persons associated with those members will comply with this article, other applicable articles of this title, and rules or regulations promulgated under either;

(c) The rules or regulations of the association do not assure a fair representation of its members in the selection of directors and in the administration of its affairs;

(d) The rules or regulations of the association do not provide for an equitable allocation of reasonable dues, fees, and other charges among members;

(e) The rules or regulations of the association impose an undue burden on competition;

(f) The association fails to meet other applicable requirements prescribed in this article.

(5) An association shall deny membership to any person who is not a licensee.

(6) A broker shall cooperate with the association and the commissioner of insurance in fulfilling the broker's statutory responsibilities under this article.

(7) There shall not be liability on the part of, nor shall a cause of action of any nature arise against, the association or its agents, employees, or directors or authorized representatives of the commissioner for actions taken or omitted by them in the performance of their powers and duties under this section.

(8) (a) Upon request from the association, the commissioner may approve the levy of an examination fee of not more than one percent of premiums charged pursuant to this article for the operation of the association to the extent that such operation relieves the commissioner of duties otherwise required of the commissioner under this article.

(b) The association may revoke the membership and the commissioner may revoke the license in this state of any licensee who fails to pay the examination fee when due, if the examination fee has been approved by the commissioner.

10-6-101. Short title. This article shall be known and may be cited as the "Colorado Captive Insurance Company Act".

10-6-102. Legislative declaration. It is the policy of the general assembly and the intent and purpose of this article to simplify the procedures for organizing and regulating the operations of captive insurance companies within the state of Colorado, to encourage the formation of such companies while retaining the integrity, financial solvency, and stability of insurance operations, and thereby promoting economic development and the general welfare of the people of the state of Colorado.

Source: L. 72: p. 428, § 1. C.R.S. 1963: § 72-36-2. L. 89: Entire section amended, p. 462, § 1, effective April 15. L. 94: Entire section amended, p. 541, § 1, effective April 6.

10-6-103. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Affiliated company" means any company that directly or indirectly owns or controls a pure captive insurance company and any company owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by a parent or subsidiary.

(2) "Captive insurance company" means a pure captive insurance company or a group captive insurance company.

(3) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of insurance.

(4) "Group" means any association of individual professional practitioners, corporations, partnerships, limited liability companies, or associations with substantially similar or related risks, the members of which collectively own, control, or hold with power to vote all of the outstanding voting securities or other ownership interest of a group captive insurance company.

(5) "Group captive insurance company" means any domestic insurance company licensed under the provisions of this article for the purpose of making insurance and reinsurance, including any company organized under the federal "Liability Risk Retention Act of 1986", as amended, 15 U.S.C. secs. 3901 to 3905. Such insurance and reinsurance shall be limited to the risks, hazards, and liabilities of its group members and employee benefits coverages.

(6) "Impairment" means that a captive insurance company's permissible assets are less than its liabilities, including as a liability the aggregate amount of any outstanding capital stock, or that its capital and surplus are less than the capital and surplus established pursuant to section 10-6-116.

(7) "Insolvency" means that a captive insurance company's permissible assets are less than all of its liabilities, excluding from such liabilities the aggregate amount of any outstanding capital stock.

(8) "Parent" means a corporation, partnership, or individual who directly or indirectly owns, controls, or holds with power to vote more than fifty percent of the outstanding voting securities or other ownership interest of a pure captive insurance company.

(9) "Pure captive insurance company" means any domestic insurance company licensed under the provisions of this article for the purpose of making insurance and reinsurance. Such insurance and reinsurance shall be limited to the risks, hazards, and liabilities of its parent and affiliated entities along with employee benefits coverages.

10-6-106. Names of companies. No captive insurance company shall adopt the name of any existing company nor any name which may be misleading to the public.

Source: L. 72: p. 430, § 1. C.R.S. 1963: § 72-36-6. L. 94: Entire section amended, p. 543, § 4, effective April 6.

10-6-107. Formation and operation of captive insurance companies. (1) No person shall engage in the business of insurance as a captive insurance company without first applying for and obtaining a certificate of authority from the commissioner stating that such person complies with the laws of this state. Applicants shall submit articles of incorporation or other documents of organization for examination. If accepted and approved by the commissioner and the attorney general, said articles or other documents of organization shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state. A copy of said articles or other documents of organization, certified by the secretary of state, shall be filed with the commissioner. Amendments to organizational documents shall be filed with the commissioner and in the office of the secretary of state.

(2) (Deleted by amendment, L. 94, p. 543, § 5, effective April 6, 1994.)

(3) Applicants for a captive insurance company certificate of authority shall file a detailed plan of operation, which shall include a feasibility study and any other information deemed relevant by the commissioner in ascertaining whether the proposed captive insurance company will be able to meet its policy obligations. The commissioner is authorized to refuse to issue a certificate of authority until the commissioner is reasonably satisfied that the plan of operation contains sufficient indication of a successful insurance operation.

(4) (a) Each captive insurance company shall pay to the division of insurance a nonrefundable application fee of five hundred dollars in addition to any reasonable expenses to be paid pursuant to section 10-6-120. Each captive insurance company shall pay an annual license fee of five hundred dollars.

(b) Notwithstanding the amount specified for any fee in paragraph (a) of this subsection (4), the commissioner by rule or as otherwise provided by law may reduce the amount of one or more of the fees if necessary pursuant to section 24-75-402 (3), C.R.S., to reduce the uncommitted reserves of the fund to which all or any portion of one or more of the fees is credited. After the uncommitted reserves of the fund are sufficiently reduced, the commissioner by rule or as otherwise provided by law may increase the amount of one or more of the fees as provided in section 24-75-402 (4), C.R.S.

(5) The principal and home office of every captive insurance company incorporated under this article shall be in the state of Colorado. Every captive insurance company shall maintain such books and records in this state as will enable the financial examination of the company by the commissioner.

(6) Group captive insurance companies shall limit their exposure to loss on any one risk or hazard to an amount not to exceed ten percent of capital and surplus, unless such risk or hazard is reinsured through an insurance company which is licensed or accredited in this state, or unless other safeguards to its financial solvency and stability are in place and are acceptable to the commissioner.

10-6-113. Authority to do business. (1) The certificate of authority issued to a captive insurance company shall expire on June 30 each year and shall be renewed annually, upon payment of all required fees and filing of all lawfully required reports, if the company has continued to comply with the laws of this state.

(2) Within thirty business days from the day the division of insurance receives a complete filing, the division shall render a decision on the application.

10-6-114. Reports and statements. (1) Every captive insurance company doing business in this state shall render to the commissioner a report, signed and sworn to by its chief officers, of its condition as of the end of each fiscal year, which shall be in a form prescribed by the commissioner and contain such information as the commissioner deems necessary. Such report shall be filed within sixty days following the company's fiscal year end. The fiscal year shall be the calendar year for all group captive insurance companies. The commissioner may require that the annual report include the information set forth in the then-current convention blank of the national association of insurance commissioners, including any instructions, procedures, and guidelines consistent with this article.

(2) The commissioner may prescribe the format and frequency of other reports to be filed, which may include, but shall not be limited to, summary loss reports, quarterly financial statements, audited annual financial statements, and other professional reports.

10-6-115. Grounds and procedure for suspension or revocation of certificate - review by commissioner. (1) The certificate of authority of a captive insurance company to do business in this state may be revoked or suspended by the commissioner for any violation of this article, including without limitation the following:

- (a) Insolvency or impairment;
- (b) Failure to meet the requirements of section 10-6-116;
- (c) Refusal or failure to submit an annual report, as required by section 10-6-114, or any other report required by law or by lawful order of the commissioner;
- (d) Failure to comply with the provisions of its own charter, other organizational documents, bylaws, or approved plan of operation, if such failure renders its operation hazardous to the public or to its policyholders;
- (e) Failure to submit to examination;
- (f) Refusal or failure to pay the cost of examination, required premium taxes, or other penalty or fee assessed as authorized by law;
- (g) Use of methods which, although not otherwise specifically proscribed by law, render its operation hazardous or its condition unsound;
- (h) Refusal or failure otherwise to comply with this article or any other laws of this state.

(2) If the commissioner finds upon examination, hearing, or other evidence that any captive insurance company has committed any of the acts specified in subsection (1) of this section, the commissioner may, after notice and hearing in accordance with article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., suspend or revoke such certificate of authority. The commissioner may issue an order appointing a supervisor to monitor the operations of the company if the commissioner deems it in the best interest of the public or of the policyholders of the company. The commissioner may commence a delinquency action pursuant to part 4 of article 3 of this title or a liquidation or rehabilitation action pursuant to part 5 of article 3 of this title.

(3) Any final decision of the commissioner on any matter pursuant to this section shall be subject to judicial review by the court of appeals pursuant to section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S.

10-6-116. Capital and surplus requirements. (1) No captive insurance company issued a certificate of authority shall be permitted to do any business in this state unless it maintains total capital and surplus of not less than five hundred thousand dollars.

(1.5) Upon a written finding by the commissioner that the approved plan of operation or the operational results of the captive insurance company require either additional capital or a larger surplus than required by this section, the commissioner may require that additional capital or surplus, or both, be obtained. Additional capital or surplus may be tendered in the form of an irrevocable letter of credit as set forth in subsection (2) of this section.

(2) Securities acceptable to the commissioner in the amount of three hundred thousand dollars, or such greater amount as determined by the commissioner, shall be held by the commissioner or under the joint control of the commissioner and the captive insurance company. The commissioner shall accept an irrevocable letter of credit, in a form acceptable to the commissioner, issued or confirmed by a qualified United States financial institution as defined in section 10-1-102 (17) on behalf of a captive insurance company in lieu of securities. All securities or letters of credit jointly held shall be the sole property of such captive insurance company and shall be free and clear of any claim or encumbrance.

(3) Jointly held securities or letters of credit, wherever located, shall be deemed to be held for the benefit of all captive insurance company policyholders.

(4) The commissioner shall release funds held under joint control upon a showing satisfactory to the commissioner that all debts, obligations, and liabilities of the captive insurance company have been paid and discharged, or adequate provisions for payment and discharge have been made therefor, and the captive insurance company's original certificate of authority has been returned to the commissioner.

10-6-120. Examinations and investigations. (1) The commissioner or any person so authorized has the authority to examine the financial condition, affairs, and management of any applicant or captive insurance company operating under the laws of this state. For such purpose the commissioner shall have free access to all the books, papers, and documents relating to the business of the company, and the commissioner may summon witnesses and administer oaths and affirmations in the examination of the directors, trustees, officers, agents, or employees of such company and any other person in relation to its affairs, transactions, and conditions. The reasonable cost of examinations of captive insurance companies shall be paid by the company examined and shall include the expenses of the commissioner and the commissioner's assistants.

(2) The commissioner may use other independent professionals, such as qualified actuaries, risk managers, certified public accountants, or examiners of insurance companies. The commissioner may also accept, as a part of the examination, reports or portions thereof made by the persons specified in this subsection (2). All reasonable expenses and charges of such persons so retained shall be paid directly by the captive insurance company being examined.

10-6-121. Legal investments. (1) Group captive insurance companies shall comply with the investment requirements and limitations applicable to other insurance companies under the laws of this state as described in sections 10-1-102 (2) and (16), 10-3-213 to 10-3-242, and 10-3-802.

(2) (a) Pure captive insurance companies shall not be subject to any restrictions on investments whatsoever; except that the commissioner may prohibit or limit any investment that threatens the solvency or liquidity of any such company or if such investments are not made in accordance with the approved plan of operation.

(b) A pure captive insurance company may make loans to its parent company if approved within its plan of operations.

(3) In lieu of a fidelity bond, the officers, directors, or managers of a captive insurance company shall demonstrate sufficient safeguards to protect the funds of the captive insurance company.

10-6-127. Guaranty fund coverage - not required. (1) Any provision of the law to the contrary notwithstanding, no captive insurance company shall be compelled to join or contribute financially to any plan, pool, association, or guaranty or insolvency fund in this state; nor shall any captive insurance company or its insured receive any benefit from such plan, pool, association, or guaranty or insolvency fund for claims arising out of operations of such captive insurance company.

(2) All policy forms or other evidence of coverage shall clearly disclose that guaranty fund coverage is not available.

10-6-128. Tax on premiums collected - exemptions - penalties. (1) All captive insurance companies doing business in this state shall pay to the division of insurance an annual tax on the gross amount of all premiums collected, less premiums or premium credits returned to policyholders, on policies or contracts of insurance covering property or risks in this state and on risks and property situated in any other state in which the insurer has not paid premium tax.

(2) The tax imposed by subsection (1) of this section shall be the greater of:

(a) Five thousand dollars; or

(b) (I) One-half of one percent of the first twenty-five million dollars, plus one-quarter of one percent of the next fifty million dollars, plus one-tenth of one percent of each dollar thereafter of direct premiums collected, of the captive insurance company, plus:

(II) One-quarter of one percent of the first twenty million dollars, plus one-tenth of one percent of each dollar thereafter of assumed reinsurance premiums.

(c) and (d) (Deleted by amendment, L. 94, p. 550, § 16, effective April 6, 1994.)

(e) Premium tax shall not be payable in connection with the receipt of assets in exchange for the assumption of existing loss reserves and other liabilities.

(2.5) The minimum tax provided for in paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of this section shall be due and payable on the first day of March of each fiscal year, accompanied by such forms as may be prescribed by the commissioner. The balance of the tax when payable for each fiscal year shall be paid on forms prescribed by the commissioner together with the report required under section 10-6-114 (1). The commissioner may by rule require partial payments, to be made in quarterly installments, of the balance of the tax payable.

(3) The taxes provided for in this section shall constitute all taxes collectible under the laws of this state against any such captive insurance companies, and no other occupation tax or other taxes shall be levied or collected from any captive insurance company by the state or any county, city, or town within this state, except ad valorem taxes on real and personal property used in the production of income.

10-6-128.5. Penalties. (1) The commissioner may charge a late fee of up to one hundred dollars per day for any required or reasonably requested report which is received after the filing deadline.

(2) Any company failing to pay taxes as specified in this article shall be liable to pay a penalty of up to one hundred dollars for each day of delinquency. If the tax paid is less than the full amount prescribed by this article, interest at the rate of one percent per month or fraction thereof on the unpaid amount shall be charged from the date payment was due until the date full payment is received, and a penalty of up to twenty-five percent of the unpaid amount may be assessed. The amount of taxes and the penalties collected shall be transmitted to the state treasurer and credited to the general fund.

(3) The assessment of any fee or penalty against a captive insurance company shall be subject to the company's right to request a hearing and to judicial review by the court of appeals pursuant to section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S.

(4) Any director, trustee, officer, agent, or employee of a captive insurance company or any other person who knowingly or willfully makes any materially false certificate, entry, or memorandum upon any of the books or papers of any captive insurance company or upon any statement filed or offered to be filed in the division of insurance or used in the course of any examination, inquiry, or investigation with the intent to deceive the commissioner or any person appointed by the commissioner to make such examination commits a class 2 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S.

GENERAL

10-7-101. Valuation of life policies. (1) As soon as practicable after the filing of the annual statement, the reserves for all outstanding policies of all life insurance companies making such statements shall be ascertained as provided in this section.

(2) (a) The commissioner shall ascertain the reserve for every policy in force on the books of domestic companies on the thirty-first day of December immediately preceding, in accordance with the following minimum standards:

(I) With respect to policies issued prior to March 28, 1945, the American experience table of mortality and four percent interest or the actuaries' combined experience table of mortality and four percent interest, as adopted by the company, with the privilege of one year preliminary term in either case; but, if any such company has any such policies outstanding issued on the basis of a higher reserve standard than the above, such higher standard shall be the minimum standard for such policies;

(II) With respect to policies issued after March 28, 1945, the American experience table of mortality and three and one-half percent interest, or the commissioner's 1941 standard ordinary mortality table and three and one-half percent interest, or, for industrial policies, the 1941 standard industrial mortality table and three and one-half percent interest, as adopted by the company, with the privilege of one year preliminary term in any case. For policies issued on a substandard basis, such other table of mortality as may be specified by the company and approved by the commissioner may be used. The mortality table and rate of interest prescribed in any of such policies as the basis for calculating nonforfeiture benefits thereunder, with the privilege of one year preliminary term, shall be used as the minimum standard for the valuation of such policies in case that standard produces greater aggregate reserves for all such policies than the standards above specified in this subparagraph (II).

(III) With respect to policies issued on or after the operative date of the "Standard Nonforfeiture and Valuation Act", in accordance with the provisions of sections 10-7-309 to 10-7-313.

(b) The commissioner may accept the valuation made by the company, upon satisfactory proof of its correctness.

(3) The reserve for all policies in force in any such domestic company being ascertained, as provided in this section, within sixty days thereafter, the company, at its option, may deposit with the commissioner for security and benefit of its policyholders the amount of the ascertained valuation in admitted assets which under section 10-3-235 (2) are securities eligible for optional reserve deposits. All companies depositing sufficient reserves as provided in this section may print on their policies a certificate reading as follows: "The full reserve on this policy is deposited with the insurance commissioner in approved securities in accordance with the optional reserve deposit law of the state of Colorado".

(4) In valuing policies issued by foreign companies, the respective standard adopted by each company for such policies shall be used as the basis of such valuation, but in no case shall such standard be lower than the standard prescribed by subsection (2) of this section for domestic companies. The commissioner may accept the valuation of such policies as certified to him by the commissioner of the home states of such foreign companies respectively.

(5) Reserves for all policies may be calculated, at the option of the company, according to any standards which produce greater aggregate reserves than the minimum reserves required by this section.

(6) Valuation in the case of an alien company shall be limited to its United States business.

10-7-102. Life insurance policies - requirements. (1) It is unlawful for any foreign or domestic life insurance company to issue or deliver in this state any life insurance policy unless the same contains the following provisions:

(a) A provision that all premiums shall be payable in advance, either at the home office of the company or to an agent of the company, upon delivery of a receipt signed by one or more of the duly authorized officers, unless the first payment is set forth in the policy, in which case the policy itself shall be a receipt;

(b) A provision that the policy shall constitute the entire contract between the parties and shall be incontestable after it has been in force during the lifetime of the insured for two years from its date, except for nonpayment of premiums and except for violation of the conditions of the policy relating to naval and military service in time of war or other prohibited risks, and, at the option of the company, provisions relative to benefits in the event of total and permanent disability and provisions which grant additional insurance specifically against death by accident may also be excepted;

(c) A provision that no statement made by the insured shall avoid the policy unless it is contained in a written application and a copy of such application is endorsed upon or attached to the policy when issued;

(d) A provision that, if the age of the insured is misstated, the amount payable under the policy shall be such as the premium would have purchased at the correct age;

(e) A provision which fulfills the requirements of section 10-3-205. This provision shall not be required in nonparticipating policies.

(f) As to any policy issued prior to the operative date of the “Standard Nonforfeiture and Valuation Act”, a provision fulfilling the requirements of section 10-7-107; except that such provision is not required in term insurance of twenty years or less; as to any policy issued on or after the operative date of the “Standard Nonforfeiture and Valuation Act”, provisions which fulfill the provisions of sections 10-7-302 to 10-7-307;

(g) A table showing in figures the loan values, if any, and the options available under the policies each year upon default in premium payments, during at least the first twenty years of the policy or during the life of the policy, if less than twenty years, beginning with the year in which such values and options become available;

(h) A table showing the amounts of installments in which the policy provides its proceeds are payable;

(i) A provision for a grace of one month, not less than thirty days, for the payment of every premium after the first year which is subject to an interest charge, during which month the insurance shall continue in force; but if the insured dies within the month of grace, the unpaid premium for the current policy year may be deducted in any settlement under the policy;

(j) If a policy is advertised or marketed as a means of payment of final expenses for funeral, interment, entombment, or cremation merchandise or services other than according to the provisions of article 15 of this title, the policy shall state in predominate type:

THIS POLICY DOES NOT GUARANTEE THAT ITS PROCEEDS WILL BE SUFFICIENT TO PAY FOR ANY PARTICULAR SERVICES OR

MERCHANDISE AT TIME OF NEED OR THAT SERVICES OR MERCHANDISE SHALL BE PROVIDED BY ANY PARTICULAR PROVIDER.

(2) Any of the provisions of subsection (1) of this section or portions thereof relating to premiums not applicable to single premium policies shall to that extent not be incorporated therein.

ANNOTATION

- I. Required Provisions.
  - A. In General.
  - B. Incontestable Clause.
  - C. False Statements.
  - D. Correct Age.
  - E. Grace Period.
- II. Nonapplicability.

I. REQUIRED PROVISIONS.

A. In General.

This section is a limitation on the general right of contract and such statutes are strictly construed. In case of doubt they are resolved in favor of the contract right. Mutual Life Ins. Co. v. Daniels, 125 Colo. 451, 244 P.2d 1064, (1952).

In case of an ambiguity, the matter is to be construed most strongly against the insurer. Coxen v. Western Empire Life Ins. Co., 168 Colo. 444, 452 P.2d 16 (1969).

Supplemental or modifying contracts are not prohibited. It will be noted that the terms of this section do not prohibit the company and insured from entering into supplementary or modifying contracts not contemplated when the policy was issued. Sethman Elec. & Mfg. Co. v. Mountain States Life Ins. Co., 93 Colo. 64, 23 P.2d 952 (1933).

Supplemental or modified contracts are admissible in evidence. In an action on a life insurance policy, evidence in the form of a note and supplemental contract for the extension of time of payment of an overdue premium was held properly admitted over the objection that they tended to vary the terms of the original policy. Sethman Elec. & Mfg. Co. v. Mountain States Life Ins. Co., 93 Colo. 64, 23 P.2d 952 (1933).

B. Incontestable Clause.

The incontestable clause is intended not to enlarge the scope of the insurer's promise so as to include liability for death due to causes which are excluded either by express terms of the policy or by implication of law, but to make certain the enforceability of the promise as set out in the policy. Properly interpreted, therefore, the incontestable clause does not exclude a defense based on a suicide clause. Such a defense does not contest the validity of the policy, as does a defense of fraud in procuring the policy; it supports the policy, but asserts that by its terms the insurer is not bound to pay where death is caused by suicide. Mutual Life Ins. Co. v. Daniels, 125 Colo. 451, 244 P.2d 1064 (1952).

It means only this, that within the limits of the coverage the policy shall stand, unaffected by any defense that it was invalid in its inception or thereafter became invalid by reason of a condition broken. Mutual Life Ins. Co. v. Daniels, 125 Colo. 451, 244 P.2d 1064 (1952).

Incontestable clause should not be used to interpret ambiguous provisions of contract. It is apparent that the incontestability clause was placed in the policy by reason of the requirement of the statute. This being so, it is improper to draw from the clause an implication of contestability by reason of death during the first two years caused by disease originating prior to issuance of the policy. A provision necessitated by statute should not be used to determine the intent of the parties as to the meaning of an ambiguous clause in another portion of the document. Coxen v. Western Empire Life Ins. Co., 168 Colo. 444, 452 P.2d 16 (1969).

The regulation of insurance companies and their policy provisions is within the police power of the state which through its general assembly may, within reasonable limits, prescribe the terms of such contracts. Union Mut. Life Co. v. Bailey, 99 Colo. 570, 64 P.2d 1267 (1937); Mutual Life Ins. Co. v. Daniels, 125 Colo. 451, 244 P.2d 1064 (1952).

Two-year period is a time for insurer to discover fraud. The two-year period is a time within which, by the exercise of proper diligence, the insurer may discover any fraud perpetrated in the procurement of the policy, and within which it may protect itself against any such fraud. Union Mut. Life Co. v. Bailey, 99 Colo. 570, 64 P.2d 1267 (1937).

Contestability period runs from date permanent policy is issued not from date conditional receipt providing temporary coverage was issued. Permanent life insurance policy was not "issued" until insured complied with certain insurer requirements, so insurer was still within two-year contestability period when it challenged policy based on fact that deceased had lied about drug history on application. Pappageorge v. Federal Kemper Life Assurance Co., 878 P.2d 56 (Colo. App. 1994).

Time limits on incontestability clause run anew as to matters affecting validity of reinstatement. In action to recover proceeds from term life insurance policy, incontestability clause in policy which lapsed for non-payment of premiums did not apply to bar insurer's assertion of defense that misrepresentations were made in reinstatement application. Spencer v. Kemper Investors Life Ins., 764 P.2d 408 (Colo. App. 1988).

C. False Statements.

No statement of the insured may avoid the policy unless contained in written application. Since this section provides that no statement made by the insured shall avoid the policy unless it is contained in a written application, any alleged representations or misrepresentations which the deceased made are not available to avoid or cancel the policy. Universal Life & Accident Ins. Co. v. Bopp, 141 Colo. 324, 347 P.2d 783 (1959).

Contents of this section contained in the policy. Under the provisions of this section, a life insurance policy must contain clauses reciting that it constitutes the entire contract, and that no statement of the assured shall avoid the policy unless contained in the written application, a copy of which is attached to the policy. New York Life Ins. Co. v. Fukushima, 74 Colo. 236, 220 P. 994 (1923).

In order to avoid a policy, it was incumbent upon the insurer to prove not only that the answers in the application were false and material, but in addition that the applicant intended to deceive the insurer. Gomogda v. Prudential Ins. Co. of Am., 31 Colo. App. 154, 501 P.2d 756 (1972).

Test must be one of fraud and deceit. In Colorado an insurance policy cannot be avoided on the basis of false statements or declarations of an applicant, unless such statements or declarations are material to the risk or form the basis on which the policy is issued and they are made with knowledge on the part of the applicant of matters which make them false or misleading. Thus, the test is one of fraud or deceit. Gomogda v. Prudential Ins. Co. of Am., 31 Colo. App. 154, 501 P.2d 756 (1972).

Fraud and deceit test expanded to include required showing that insurer was ignorant of false statement of fact or concealment of fact and is chargeable with knowledge and that the insurer relied, to its detriment, on representation in issuing policy. Hollinger v. Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co., 560 P.2d 824 (1977).

Test applied in Spencer v. Kemper Investors Life Insurance, 764 P.2d 408 (Colo. App. 1988).

D. Correct Age.

When true age makes insured ineligible. Material misrepresentation of the age of insured whereby he obtained membership in a fraternal benefit society to which his true age made him ineligible held to bar a recovery on the certificate. Wiltshire v. Modern Woodmen of Am., 76 Colo. 460, 232 P. 925 (1925).

E. Grace Period.

This section and § 10-7-107 do not require an insurance company to reinstate a policy which has lapsed. Colo. Life Ins. Co. v. Winegarner, 95 Colo. 261, 35 P.2d 860 (1934).

Nor do they provide for any benefits for a lapsed policy. This section and § 10-7-107 do not provide for any benefit to the insured after the lapse of the grace period, when this occurs before the payment of three full years' premiums. Colo. Life Ins. Co. v. Winegarner, 95 Colo. 261, 35 P.2d 860 (1934).

II. NONAPPLICABILITY.

Section does not apply to fraternal benefit societies. Where the decedent obtained membership in a fraternal benefit society to which his true age made him ineligible and which society is specifically excepted by § 10-7-104, from the operation of this section, it was held that an action by the beneficiary was not maintainable. Wiltshire v. Modern Woodmen of Am., 76 Colo. 460, 232 P. 925 (1925).

10-7-103. Life insurance policies - prohibition. (1) It is unlawful for any foreign or domestic life insurance company to issue or deliver in this state any life insurance policy if it contains any of the following provisions:

(a) A provision for forfeiture of the policy for failure to repay any loan on the policy, or to pay interest on such loan while the total indebtedness on the policy is less than the loan value thereof; or any provision for forfeiture for failure to repay any such loan or to pay interest thereon, unless such provision contains a stipulation that no such forfeiture shall occur until at least one month after notice has been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and of the assignee, if any;

(b) A provision limiting the time within which any action may be commenced to less than five years after the cause of action accrues;

(c) A provision by which the policy purports to be issued or to take effect more than one year before the original application for the insurance was made, if thereby the assured would rate at an age not more than one year younger than his age at date when application was made, according to his age at nearest birthday.

(2) A life insurance company doing business in Colorado may not refuse to insure, refuse to continue to insure, limit the amount or extent or kind of coverage available to an individual, or charge an individual a different rate for the same coverage solely for reasons associated with an applicant's or insured's past or future lawful foreign travel. Nothing in this subsection (2) shall prohibit a life insurer from excluding or limiting coverage of specific lawful travel, or charging a differential rate for such coverage, when bona fide differences in risk or exposure have been substantiated by the use of relevant data from at least one independent reliable source, including statistical or other mathematical analysis of available data that establishes a material variation in actual or reasonably anticipated experience that correlates to the risk of specific lawful travel. Travel advisories issued by the United States department of state shall not qualify as the sole source of data for purposes of this subsection (2). Each insurer shall maintain the data and documents that support any such differences and shall make the data and documents available upon request by the commissioner.

10-7-104. Exceptions. The provisions of sections 10-7-102 and 10-7-103 shall not apply to annuities, industrial policies, or corporations or associations operating on the assessment or fraternal plan; except that the commissioner may review variable annuities to ensure that such products are offered, marketed, or sold to a market suitable for such product.

ANNOTATION

Provisions of § 10-7-102 not applicable to fraternal societies. Where the decedent obtained membership in a fraternal benefit society to which his true age made him ineligible and which society is specifically excepted by this section, from the operation of § 10-7-102, it was held that an action by the beneficiary was not maintainable. Wiltshire v. Modern Woodmen of Am., 76 Colo. 460, 232 P. 925 (1925).

10-7-105. Violation. The certificate of authority of any foreign or domestic life insurance company violating any of the provisions of sections 10-7-102 and 10-7-103 shall be suspended by the commissioner and shall not be renewed until such company fully and completely conforms to the same. Such action by the commissioner is subject to review by any court of competent jurisdiction.

10-7-106. Exclusive right of insured in proceeds. Whenever, under the terms of any annuity or policy of life insurance, or under any written agreement supplemental thereto, issued by any insurance company, domestic or foreign, lawfully doing business in this state, the proceeds are retained by such company at maturity or otherwise, no person, other than the insured, entitled to any part of such proceeds or any installment of interest due or to become due thereon shall be permitted to commute, anticipate, encumber, alienate, or assign the same, or any part thereof, if such permission is expressly withheld by the terms of such policy or supplemental agreement; and, if such policy or supplemental agreement so provides, no payments of interest or of principal shall be in any way subject to such person's debts, contracts, or engagements nor to any judicial processes to levy upon or attach the same for payment thereof.

ANNOTATION

This section does not exempt annuity contracts from a debtor's bankruptcy estate. The "exemption-like" language in this statute goes to insulating annuity proceeds, not from creditors of the owner of the annuity, but only from creditors of others who may have an economic stake in the annuity, and then, only if the annuity contract so provides. If it does not, then even creditors of an annuity payee or creditors of a death beneficiary can go after annuity proceeds by way of attachment or execution. This statute does not even address limiting the rights of creditors of the debtor annuity owner in this case. It is designed not to protect those with an economic interest in an annuity from their own creditors. Instead, it is designed to uphold limitations on whose creditors an insurer/issuer of an annuity contract must deal with when the annuity contract so provides. In re Besser, 356 B.R. 531 (Bankr. D. Colo. 2007).

This section does not provide an exemption for a bankrupt insured but it does provide an exemption for an annuity payment due a bankrupt beneficiary provided that the proceeds of the annuity are retained and the annuity's express terms withhold the right of the beneficiary to assign or encumber those payments. In re Brown, 387 B.R. 611 (D. Colo. 2008).

10-7-107. Nonforfeiture benefits - applicability. (1) In the event of default in the payment of any premium due on any policy issued after March 28, 1945, except term or convertible term policies, if not less than three full years' premiums have been paid thereon, there shall be secured to the insured, without action on his part, as specified in the policy, either paid-up insurance or extended insurance. The net value applied to such paid-up insurance or extended insurance shall be at least equal to the amount which would constitute the then reserve on the policy, including dividend additions, if any, calculated, with the privilege of one year preliminary term, upon the mortality table and rate of interest used in the policy as a basis for the calculation of such nonforfeiture benefits under the policy, less two and one-half percent of the amount insured by the policy and dividend additions, if any, or one-fifth of such reserve, and less any outstanding indebtedness to the company on the policy at time of default; but the mortality table and rate of interest used as a basis for the calculation of such nonforfeiture benefits shall be designated in the policy and shall be a mortality table and an interest rate acceptable for the valuation of such policy pursuant to section 10-7-101 (2).

(2) If the mortality table so designated in any such policy is other than the American experience table of mortality, a rate of mortality not more than one hundred thirty percent of the rate of mortality according to the table designated may be assumed in calculating any extended insurance, with accompanying pure endowment, if any, offered as a nonforfeiture benefit.

(3) There shall be secured to the insured the right to surrender the policy to the company at its home office within one month after date of default for the cash value otherwise available for paid-up insurance or extended insurance, but the right to cash dividends or to cash surrender value, provided by this section and section 10-3-205, may be specifically waived in the policy.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the company from including in its policies a provision for automatic premium loans to prevent premium default.

(5) No agreement between the company and the policyholder or applicant for insurance shall be held to waive any of the provisions of this section and section 10-3-205, except as provided in this section.

(6) Subsections (1) to (5) of this section shall not apply to any policy issued on or after the operative date of the "Standard Nonforfeiture and Valuation Act". As to any such policy the provisions of sections 10-7-302 to 10-7-308 shall be applicable.

Cross references: For operative date of the "Standard Nonforfeiture and Valuation Act", see § 10-7-315.

10-7-108. Regulating vouchers for disbursements. No domestic life insurance company shall make any disbursement unless the same is evidenced by a voucher correctly describing the consideration for the payment. If the expenditure is for both services and disbursements, the voucher shall set forth the services rendered and an itemized statement of the disbursements made. If the expenditure is in connection with any matter pending before any legislative or public body, or before any department or officer of any state or government, the voucher shall correctly describe, in addition, the nature of the matter and of the interest of such company therein. When such voucher cannot be obtained, the expenditure shall be evidenced by an affidavit describing the character and object of the expenditure and stating the reason for not obtaining such voucher.

10-7-109. Suicide no defense for nonpayment. The suicide of a policyholder after the first policy year of any life insurance policy issued by any life insurance company doing business in this state shall not be a defense against the payment of a life insurance policy, whether said suicide was voluntary or involuntary, and whether said policyholder was sane or insane. Nothing in this section is intended or shall be construed to apply to any accident insurance policy insuring against accidental death or death by accidental means or to those parts or provisions of any life insurance policy insuring specifically against accidental death or death by accidental means.

ANNOTATION

I. General Consideration.

II. Suicide as a Defense.

A. To Suit on Life Policy.

B. To Suit on Accident Policy.

C. Conflict of Laws.

I. GENERAL CONSIDERATION.

Law reviews. For note, "Is an Accident Policy a Life Insurance Policy?", see 1 Rocky Mt.

L. Rev. 49 (1928). For article, "Suicide, Sane or Insane", see 12 Dicta 32 (1934). For note, "Suicide While Insane as a Defense to Life and Accident Policies", see 8 Rocky Mt. L. Rev. 216 (1936). For article, "Life Insurance and Suicide History and the Colorado Statute", see 41 Den. L. Ctr. J. 51 (1964).

Purpose of this section is to protect an insurance company against fraud on the part of the insured. Ownbey v. General United Life Ins.

Co., 34 Colo. App. 33, 524 P.2d 636 (1974).

Assumption made by general assembly in enacting section. The general assembly in enacting this section assumed that after one whole year had elapsed from the time the insured made application for the policy it should be conclusively presumed that he did not contemplate suicide when he made the application, and consequently that he did not contemplate defrauding the company by taking his own life. Ownbey v. General United Life Ins. Co., 34 Colo. App. 33, 524 P.2d 636 (1974).

This section expresses a public policy which cannot be nullified by any scheme or device. New York Life Ins. Co. v. West, 102 Colo. 591, 82 P.2d 754 (1938).

This section is constitutional. This section, which provides that the suicide of a policyholder after the first policy year shall not be a defense against payment of the policy, is not in conflict with the constitution, and any provision in an accident or life insurance policy attempting to relieve the insurer from liability in case of suicide is a nullity. Massachusetts Protective Ass'n v. Daugherty, 87 Colo. 469, 288 P. 888 (1930).

Furthermore, it is not merely procedural; it is substantive. McCowan v. Equitable Life Assurance Soc'y, 116 Colo. 78, 179 P.2d 275 (1947).

When one-year period in phrase "first policy year of any life insurance policy" begins. By the terms of this section, the one-year period in the phrase "first policy year of any life insurance policy" begins as of the date of the initial coverage of the instrument of indebtedness and not as of the date of extension or renewal of such indebtedness. Ownbey v. General United Life Ins. Co., 34 Colo. App. 33, 524 P.2d 636 (1974).

Effect of reinstatement of policy. Where the policyholder is reinstated by the payment of an overdue premium it does not create a new contract but in effect restores the old, therefore not giving the insurance company the defense of suicide within the first policy year. Business Men's Assurance Co. of Am. v. Scott, 17 F.2d 4 (8th Cir. 1927).

Section does not apply to fraternal benefit societies. This section so far as life insurance is concerned, directs its provisions to the policies of "any life insurance company". However, neither the "suicide" provision, nor any sections of this title, designate its application to fraternal benefit societies. Neighbors of Woodcraft v. Westover, 99 Colo. 231, 61 P.2d 585 (1936).

II. SUICIDE AS A DEFENSE.

A. To Suit on Life Policy.

Annotator's note. A case relevant to § 10-7-109 decided prior to its earliest source, L. 13, p. 358, § 59, has been included in the annotations to this section.

This section eliminates from consideration any defense upon the ground of suicide, which otherwise might have been asserted. It is constitutional and insurance companies doing business in this state are subject to its provisions. Weber v. Head Camp, Pac. Jurisdiction, Woodmen of the World, 60 Colo. 529, 154 P. 728 (1916).

This section applies to an action on a life policy. It is directed against suicide as a defense to an action on a life policy in all cases, without regard to the character or class of the insurer. Head Camp Woodmen of the World v. Sloss, 49 Colo. 177, 112 P. 49 (1910).

Whether issued by a life or accident company. This section applies to life insurance policies, whether issued by a life insurance company or by an accident insurance company. Massachusetts Protective Ass'n v. Daugherty, 87 Colo. 469, 288 P. 888 (1930).

An accident insurance company which writes policies providing for death benefits is a life insurance company as that term is used in this section. Officer v. London Guarantee & Accident Co., 74 Colo. 217, 220 P. 499 (1923), distinguishing Midland Cas. Co. v. Frame, 67 Colo. 179, 185 P. 656 (1919); Union Health & Accident Co. v. Welch, 71 Colo. 374, 206 P. 790 (1922).

There is no exception for any kind of company. The statute is clear and specific, and is capable of but one rational construction, namely, that it was the intent and purpose of the general assembly to prevent all companies, of whatsoever kind or character, issuing life insurance contracts, from escaping payment thereon in the event of death, simply on the ground that the insured committed suicide. There is no exception in behalf of any particular kind of company, either expressed or implied, and manifestly none was intended. Head Camp Woodmen of the World v. Sloss, 49 Colo. 177, 112 P. 49 (1910).

This section becomes a constituent part of the contract, and, after the prescribed lapse of time, the defense of suicide is denied. Aetna Life Ins. Co. v. Braukman, 70 F.2d 647 (10th Cir 1934).

This section cannot be waived or abrogated or set aside by agreement of the parties. Under the provisions of this section, suicide of the insured is no defense against the payment of a life policy, and the statute can neither be waived nor abrogated by any plan or device whatsoever; neither can it be set aside by private agreement of the parties. Officer v. London Guarantee & Accident Co., 74 Colo. 217, 220 P. 499 (1923); London Guarantee & Accident Co. v. Officer, 78 441, 242 P. 989 (1925); Capitol Life Ins. Co. v. Di Iulio, 98 Colo. 116, 53 P.2d 1183 (1935).

B. To Suit on Accident Policy.

In suit on accident insurance, insured must still show death is an accident. While this section makes absolutely void all stipulations exempting liability on account of suicide and all defenses bottomed on the fact of suicide, yet it nowhere relieves the plaintiff in an action upon a policy of accident insurance from making proof that the death of the assured was caused by an accident. Capitol Life Ins. Co. v. Di Iullo, 98 Colo. 116, 53 P.2d 1183 (1935).

Where a person commits suicide while insane, the death is an accident. Massachusetts Protective Ass'n v. Daugherty, 87 Colo. 469, 288 P. 888 (1930); Mutual Benefit Health & Accident Ass'n v. Baldrige, 70 F.2d 236 (10th Cir. 1934); Capitol Life Ins. Co. v. Di Iullo, 98 Colo. 116, 53 P.2d 1183 (1935).

The mental derangement which, in the case of one charged with crime, supports the defense of insanity, if found to exist in the insured in an accident policy covering death, will, when the insured has taken his own life while so deranged, make the suicide an accident under this section and decisions. London Guarantee & Accident Co. v. Officer, 78 Colo. 441, 242 P. 989 (1925).

Suicide by the insured while sane is not an accident. Capitol Life Ins. Co. v. Di Iullo, 98 Colo. 116, 53 P.2d 1183 (1935).

In such case this section does not apply. It is held that this section does not apply where a policy provides for the payment of money upon the accidental death of the insured and the insured commits suicide while sane. Occidental Life Ins. Co. v. United States Nat'l Bank, 98 Colo. 126, 53 P.2d 1180 (1935).

General assembly cannot prevent insurance companies from limiting accident risks. The general assembly has no power to, and courts cannot, compel an insurance company to write a policy or prevent it from limiting a policy to any specific accident or class of accidents. It may cover or exclude death by any means. New York Life Ins. Co. v. West, 102 Colo. 591, 82 P.2d 754 (1938); Vann v. Union Cent. Life Ins. Co., 140 F.2d 611 (10th Cir. 1944).

The 1935 amendment, exempting from the application of this section policies insuring against accidental death, is not retroactive. The section as it formerly stood having become a part of policies issued while it was in force, if the general assembly in passing the 1935 act intended it to apply to policies already issued, the act would violate both the state and the federal constitutions, which prohibit legislation impairing the obligation of contracts. McCowan v. Equitable Life Assurance Soc'y, 116 Colo. 78, 179 P.2d 275 (1947).

Beneficiary must prove accident when suicide is alleged by insurer. When death by accident is challenged and suicide is alleged, the beneficiary has the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the death was the result of accident rather than suicide. Lockwood v. Travelers Ins. Co., 179 Colo. 103, 498 P.2d 947 (1972).

Burden of proof. Where the insurance company is not defending on the basis of a policy exclusion but on the basis that there was no accidental death so that there can be no double recovery, it is not enough for plaintiff to prove death; she must prove accidental death to the exclusion of suicide by a preponderance of the evidence. Capitol Life Ins. Co. v. Roth, 191 Colo. 289, 553 P.2d 390 (1976).

Resolution of issue is for jury if suicide not conclusively established. When the evidence, taken as a whole and fairly construed, does not conclusively establish suicide, the resolution of the issue is properly for the jury. Lockwood v. Travelers Ins. Co., 179 Colo. 103, 498 P.2d 947 (1972).

C. Conflict of Laws.

The validity of insurance policies are based on the place of making. Michael v. John Hancock Mut. Life Ins. Co., 138 Colo. 450, 334 P.2d 1090 (1959).

Unless intent of parties to have it performed elsewhere existed at creation. Where an accident contract containing an exemption clause as to suicide was entered into in Wyoming, where such clause was valid, in the event of suicide by the insured while insane, the beneficiary in Colorado cannot bar the defense of suicide by the insurer under this section unless the intent of the parties to the contract to have it performed in Colorado existed at the time the contract was made. Mutual Benefit Health & Accident Ass'n v. Baldrige, 70 F.2d 236 (10th Cir. 1934).

10-7-111. Minor's capacity to give acquittances for insurance or annuity payments. (Repealed)

Source: L. 65: p. 757, § 2. C.R.S. 1963: § 72-1-56. L. 77: Entire section repealed, p. 519, § 1, effective March 26.

10-7-112. Interest payable on benefits or proceeds. (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, each insurer admitted to transact the business of life insurance in this state shall pay interest on the death benefits using an interest rate that is not less than the rate of interest for proceeds left on deposit with the insurer and subject to withdrawal on demand for the period beginning at the date of death through thirty days following the date of receipt by the insurer of a complete request for payout including due proof of death. From that date until the date of settlement of the claim, the annual rate of interest shall be two percentage points above the federal discount rate, which rate shall be the rate of interest a commercial bank pays to the federal reserve bank of Kansas City using a government bond or other eligible paper as security and shall be rounded to the nearest full percent. If the claim is denied and a judgment is rendered against the insurer, the annual rate of interest from the date the action was filed until payment of the claim shall be four percentage points above the federal discount rate, except to the extent such proceeds were deposited with the court in an interpleader action. Any other life insurance policy or contract benefits shall accrue interest at a rate of at least two percentage points above the federal discount rate when any such benefits are not paid more than thirty days after the date of receipt by an insurer of a complete request for payment from an insured. The rates referred to in this subsection (1) shall be determined using a weighted average of the rates in effect during the applicable period based upon the number of days the rate was in effect.

(2) This section shall not require the payment of interest in any case in which the beneficiary elects in writing, delivered to the insurer, to receive the proceeds of the policy by any means other than a lump sum payment thereof.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed to allow any insurer admitted to transact the business of life insurance in this state to withhold payment of benefits under a life insurance policy to any beneficiary for a period longer than reasonably necessary to make such payment.

(4) For the purposes of this section, the term "life insurance" shall include:

(a) All individual and group life insurance policies issued in accordance with the provisions of this article;

(b) Life insurance plans issued in connection with part 6 of article 50 of title 24, C.R.S.;

(c) Life insurance policies issued in accordance with the provisions of article 9 of this title;

(d) Life insurance policies or certificates issued in accordance with the provisions of article 10 of this title;

(e) Life insurance benefits payable under accident only type policies; and

(f) Life insurance policies or certificates issued by fraternal benefit societies licensed to do business in this state under article 14 of this title.

10-7-113. Acceleration of benefits. (1) Any policy of life or endowment insurance or annuity contract or contract supplemental thereto may contain benefits providing for the acceleration of life or endowment or annuity benefits in advance of the time they would otherwise be payable for an insured:

(a) Who is diagnosed with a terminal case of AIDS, as defined in section 10-3-1104.5 (2) (a), or with any other terminal illness, for health care expenses or for long-term care which is certified or ordered by a physician; or

(b) Upon the occurrence of a qualifying event, as defined by the policy or contract.

(2) For the purposes of this section, "long-term care" shall include but need not be limited to hospice care, adult day care, professional nursing care, medical care expenses, custodial nursing care, and nonnursing custodial care provided in a nursing home or at a residence of the insured.

(3) The commissioner may request filing, for information purposes, the premium rates or discount rates applied to an acceleration of life insurance or endowment or annuity benefits in advance of the time they would otherwise be payable for an insured.

10-7-114. Actuarial opinion of reserves. (1) (a) Every life insurance company doing business in this state shall annually submit the opinion of a qualified actuary as to whether the reserves and related actuarial items held in support of the policies and contracts are computed appropriately, are based on assumptions which satisfy contractual provisions, are consistent with prior reported amounts and comply with applicable laws of this state. The commissioner by regulation shall define the specifics of the opinion required by this section and add any other items deemed to be necessary to its scope.

(b) The opinion shall apply to all business in force including individual and group health insurance plans, in form and substance acceptable to the commissioner as specified by regulation.

(c) The opinion shall be based on standards adopted from time to time by the actuarial standards board and on such additional standards as the commissioner may by regulation prescribe.

(d) In the case of an opinion required to be submitted by a foreign or alien company, the commissioner may accept the opinion filed by that company with the insurance supervisory official of another state if the commissioner determines that the opinion reasonably meets the requirements applicable to a company domiciled in this state.

(e) For purposes of this section, "qualified actuary" means a person who:

(I) Is a member in good standing of the American academy of actuaries, or is experienced, skilled, competent to perform actuarial duties, and meets the requirements set forth by regulation of the commissioner; and

(II) Is qualified to sign statements of actuarial opinion for life and health insurance company annual statements in accordance with the American academy of actuaries qualification standards for actuaries signing such statements; and

(III) Is familiar with the valuation requirements applicable to life and health insurance companies; and

(IV) Has not been found by the commissioner, upon appropriate notice and hearing, or, if so found, has been reinstated as a qualified actuary, to have:

(A) Violated any provision of, or any obligation imposed by, the insurance law or other law in the course of his or her dealings as a qualified actuary; or

(B) Been found guilty of fraudulent or dishonest practices; or

(C) Demonstrated incompetency, lack of cooperation, or untrustworthiness to act as a qualified actuary; or

(D) Submitted to the commissioner, during the past five years, an actuarial opinion or memorandum that the commissioner rejected because it did not meet the provisions of this statute including standards set by the actuarial standards board; or

(E) Resigned or been removed as an actuary within the past five years as a result of acts or omissions indicated in any adverse report on examination or as a result of failure to adhere to generally acceptable actuarial standards; and

(V) Has not failed to notify the commissioner of any action taken by any commissioner of any other state similar to that under subparagraph (IV) of this paragraph (e).

(f) Except in cases of fraud or willful misconduct, the qualified actuary shall not be liable for damages to any person other than the insurance company and the commissioner for any act, error, omission, decision, or conduct with respect to the actuary's opinion.

(g) Any memorandum in support of the opinion, and any other material provided by the company to the commissioner in connection therewith, shall be kept confidential by the commissioner and shall not be made public and shall not be subject to subpoena, other than for the purpose of defending an action seeking damages from any person by reason of any action required by this section or by regulations promulgated pursuant to this section; except that the memorandum or other material may otherwise be released by the commissioner with the written consent of the company or, upon request stating that the memorandum or other material is required for the purpose of professional disciplinary proceedings, to the American academy of actuaries. The commissioner shall require that any such request from the American academy of actuaries set forth procedures satisfactory to the commissioner for preserving the confidentiality of the memorandum or other material. Once any portion of a confidential memorandum prepared for purposes of this section is cited by an insurer in its marketing or is cited before any governmental agency other than a state insurance regulatory authority or is released by the insurer to any news media, the confidentiality of all such portions of any such confidential memorandum shall be deemed to be waived.

(2) Every life insurance company, except as exempted by or pursuant to regulation, shall also annually include in the opinion required by subsection (1) of this section, an opinion of the same qualified actuary as to whether the reserves and related actuarial items held in support of the policies and contracts specified by the commissioner by regulation, when considered in light of the assets held by the company with respect to the reserves and related actuarial items, including but not limited to the investment earnings on the assets and the considerations anticipated to be received and retained under the policies and contracts, make adequate provision for the company's obligations under the policies and contracts, including but not limited to the benefits under and expenses associated with the policies and contracts. The commissioner may provide by regulation for a transition period for establishing any higher reserves which the qualified actuary may deem necessary in order to render the opinion required by this section.

(3) Each opinion required by subsection (2) of this section shall be subject to the following requirements:

(a) A memorandum, in form and substance acceptable to the commissioner as specified by regulation, shall be prepared to support each actuarial opinion for each year on or after December 31, 1992.

(b) If the insurance company fails to provide a supporting memorandum at the request of the commissioner within a period specified by regulation or the commissioner determines that the supporting memorandum provided by the insurance company fails to meet the standards prescribed by the regulation or is otherwise unacceptable to the commissioner, the commissioner may engage a qualified actuary at the expense of the company to review the opinion and the basis for the opinion and prepare such supporting memorandum as is required by the commissioner.

10-7-115. Insurable interest - 170 (c) organizations. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any organization that meets the requirements of section 170 (c) of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", as amended, may own or purchase life insurance on an insured who gives written consent to the ownership or purchase of that insurance. The provisions of this section do not limit or abridge any insurable interest or right to insure now existing at common law or by statute, shall be construed liberally to sustain the existence of an insurable interest, and shall stand as a declaration of existing law applicable to all life insurance policies whenever issued, in existence on or after March 20, 1992.

10-7-116. Military sales - rules. The commissioner shall promulgate rules, consistent with federal law, to define dishonest, unfair, and deceptive marketing and sales practices to military personnel and their families. The rules shall not affect federal insurance programs under 38 U.S.C. sec. 1965 et seq.

PART 2

GROUP LIFE INSURANCE

10-7-201. Group life insurance. (1) No policy of group life insurance shall be delivered in this state unless:

(a) The policyholder was formed for purposes other than obtaining insurance, or is a trust established by one or more employers or by one or more labor unions, or by one or more employers and one or more labor unions; and

(b) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2010, (HB 10-1203), ch. 47, p. 177, § 1, effective March 29, 2010.)

(c) An individual eligible for coverage is subject to such uniformly applied standards of insurability as may be imposed by the insurer.

(2) Insurance under any group life insurance policy may be extended to insure dependents.

Editor's note: Subsection (1)(f) was amended in House Bill 77-1232. Those amendments were superseded by the repeal and reenactment of the section in House Bill 77-1445.

10-7-202. Policy provisions. (1) No policy of group life insurance shall be delivered in this state unless it contains in substance the following provisions, or provisions which in the opinion of the commissioner are more favorable to the certificate owners, or at least as favorable to the certificate owners and more favorable to the policyholder; except that paragraphs (f) to (j) of this subsection (1) shall not apply to policies issued to a creditor to insure debtors of such creditor; that the standard provisions required for individual life insurance policies shall not apply to group life insurance policies; and that, if the group life insurance policy is on a plan of insurance other than the term plan, it shall contain a nonforfeiture provision which in the opinion of the commissioner is equitable to the certificate owners and to the policyholder, but nothing in this section shall be construed to require that group life insurance policies contain the same nonforfeiture provisions as are required for individual life insurance policies:

(a) A provision that the policyholder is entitled to a grace period of thirty-one days for the payment of any premium due except the first, during which grace period the death benefit coverage shall continue in force unless the policyholder has given the insurer written notice of discontinuance in advance of the date of discontinuance and in accordance with the terms of the policy. The policy may provide that the policyholder shall be liable to the insurer for the payment of a pro rata premium for the time the policy was in force during such grace period.

(b) A provision that the validity of the policy shall not be contested, except for nonpayment of premiums, after it has been in force for two years from its date of issue; and that no statement made by any person insured under the policy relating to his insurability shall be used in contesting the validity of the insurance with respect to which such statement was made after such insurance has been in force prior to the contest for a period of two years during such person's lifetime nor unless it is contained in a written instrument signed by him;

(c) A provision that a copy of the application, if any, of the policyholder shall be attached to the policy when issued, that all statements made by the policyholder or by the persons insured shall be deemed representations and not warranties, and that no statement made by any person insured shall be used in any contest unless a copy of the instrument containing the statement is or has been furnished to the certificate owner, to his assignee, or to his beneficiary;

(d) A provision setting forth the conditions, if any, under which the insurer reserves the right to require a person eligible for insurance to furnish evidence of individual insurability satisfactory to the insurer as a condition to part or all of his coverage;

(e) A provision specifying an equitable adjustment of premiums or of benefits or of both to be made in the event the age of a person insured is misstated, such provision to contain a clear statement of the method of adjustment to be used;

(f) A provision that any sum becoming due by reason of the death of the person insured shall be payable to the beneficiary designated by the certificate owner, subject to the provisions of the policy and in the event there is no designated beneficiary as to all or any part of such sum living at the death of the person insured, and subject to any right reserved by the insurer in the policy and set forth in the certificate to pay at its option a part of such sum not exceeding five thousand dollars to any person appearing to the insurer to be equitably entitled thereto by reason of having incurred verifiable funeral expenses or other verifiable expenses when such expenses are incident to the last illness or death of the person insured;

(g) A provision that the insurer will issue to the policyholder for delivery to the certificate owner an individual certificate setting forth a statement as to the insurance protection provided, to whom the insurance benefits are payable, and the rights and conditions set forth in paragraphs (h), (i), and (j) of this subsection (1);

(h) A provision that, if the insurance, or any portion of it, on a person covered under the policy ceases because of termination of employment or of membership in the class eligible for coverage under the policy, the certificate owner shall be entitled to have issued to him by the insurer, without evidence of insurability, an individual policy of life insurance without disability or other supplementary benefits; except that application for the individual policy shall be made, and the first premium paid to the insurer, within thirty-one days after such termination, and except that:

(I) The individual policy, at the option of the certificate owner, shall be on any one of the forms, except term insurance, then customarily issued by the insurer at the age and for the amount applied for;

(II) The individual policy shall be in an amount not in excess of the amount of life insurance which ceases because of such termination; except that any amount of insurance which has matured as an endowment, whether in one sum or in installments or in the form of an annuity, shall not, for the purposes of this provision, be included in the amount which is considered to cease because of such termination; and

(III) The premium on the individual policy shall be at the insurer's then customary rate applicable to the form and amount of the individual policy, to the class of risk to which the insured person then belongs, and to his age attained on the effective date of the individual policy;

(i) A provision that, if the group policy terminates or is amended so as to terminate the insurance of any class of insured persons, the owner of each certificate with respect to a person insured thereunder whose insurance terminates and who has been so insured for at least five years prior to such termination date shall be entitled to have issued to him by the insurer an individual policy of life insurance, subject to the same conditions and limitations as are provided by paragraph (h) of this subsection (1); except that the group policy may provide that the amount of such individual policy shall not exceed the smaller of the amount of the person's life insurance protection ceasing because of the termination or amendment of the group policy, less the amount of any life insurance for which he is or becomes eligible under any group policy issued or reinstated by the same or another insurer within thirty-one days after such termination, and two thousand dollars;

(j) A provision that, if a person insured under the group policy dies during the period within which the certificate owner would have been entitled to have an individual policy issued to him in accordance with paragraph (h) or (i) of this subsection (1) and before such an individual policy has become effective, the amount of life insurance which the certificate owner would have been entitled to have issued to him under such individual policy shall be payable as a claim under the group policy, whether or not application for the individual policy or the payment of the first premium therefor has been made.

(2) The provisions of paragraphs (h) to (j) of subsection (1) of this section shall apply to any insurance issued pursuant to section 10-7-201 on the life of a spouse of an employee or member.

ANNOTATION

Where the final group policy is not issued at the time of an employee's death, but is ultimately issued subsequent thereto, the rights of the parties are governed by the terms of the orally agreed temporary insurance, if such insurance was in existence at the time of the employee's death. Wells v. Connecticut Gen. Life Ins. Co., 469 F.2d 1231 (10th Cir. 1972).

If terms of group and individual policy are similar, then they are continuing contract. If the terms of an individual life insurance policy are the same as those of a group life insurance policy or if the terms of the individual policy are in accord with the provisions of the conversion clause in the group policy, then the individual policy and the group policy would be deemed a single, continuing, contract to the end that the individual policy would commence to run as the date of issuance of the group policy; however, if the terms of the individual policy differ from the terms of the group policy and are not in accord with the provisions of the conversion clause in the group policy, then the individual policy is separate and distinct from the group policy to the end that the individual policy would commence to run from the date of issuance of the individual policy. Binkley v. Manufacturers Life Ins. Co., 471 F.2d 889 (10th Cir. 1973).

10-7-203. Employer defined. The term "employer" as used in sections 10-7-201 and 10-7-202 includes counties, cities, cities and counties, incorporated towns, school districts, and other political subdivisions of this state; and such subdivisions, in order to promote the better efficiency of its employees, may insure its employees, or any class thereof, under a policy of group insurance covering life, health, or accident insurance for such employees and may pay, or authorize to be paid, out of the corporate revenue of such political subdivisions the premiums required from time to time to maintain such group insurance in force; and, if such employees are required to contribute to the cost of their insurance, deductions for this purpose may be made from their salaries.

10-7-204. Reciprocal provisions. Policies of group insurance, when issued in this state by any company not organized under the laws of this state, may contain any provision required by the law of the state or territory or district of the United States under which the company is organized. Any group policy may be issued or delivered in this state which in the opinion of the commissioner contains provisions on any one or more of the several foregoing requirements more favorable to the employer or to the employee than required prior to April 4, 1919. Policies issued in other states or countries by companies organized in this state may contain any provision required by the laws of the state, territory, district, or country in which the same are issued, anything in this part 2 to the contrary notwithstanding.

10-7-205. Exemption from execution. No policy of group insurance, nor the proceeds thereof, when paid to any employee thereunder, shall be liable to attachment, garnishment, or other process, or be seized, taken, appropriated, or applied by any legal or equitable process or operation of law, to pay any debt or liability of such employee, or his beneficiary, or any other person who may have a right thereunder, either before or after payment, nor shall the proceeds thereof, where not made payable to a named beneficiary, constitute a part of the estate of the employee for the payment of his debts.

ANNOTATION

A named beneficiary of a group life insurance policy is entitled to exempt the policy proceeds under this section. This section provides an exemption pursuant to which a named beneficiary may claim an exemption in the proceeds of a policy of group life insurance, as against the debts of the insured or of the beneficiary himself or herself. In re Fahey, 352 B.R. 288 (Bankr. D. Colo. 2006).

10-7-206. Issuance and valuation of policies - annual statement. (1) Any life insurance company may issue life or endowment insurance, with or without annuities, upon the group plan, as defined in section 10-7-201, with special rates of premiums less than the usual rates of premiums for such policies. Group policies issued prior to the operative date of the "Standard Nonforfeiture and Valuation Act" may be valued on any accepted table of mortality and interest assumption adopted by the company for that purpose, but in no case shall the standard for any such policy be lower than the medico-actuarial table of mortality, or such other table of mortality as may be approved by the commissioner, with interest assumption at three and one-half percent. Group policies issued on or after the operative date of the "Standard Nonforfeiture and Valuation Act" shall be valued in accordance with the provisions of sections 10-7-309 to 10-7-313.

(2) All policies of group insurance shall be segregated by the company into separate classes, the mortality experience kept separate, and the number of policies, amount of insurance, reserves, premiums, and payments to the policyholders thereunder, together with the mortality table and interest assumption adopted by the company, shall be reported separately in the company's annual financial statement.

10-7-207. Assignment. Nothing in this title or in any other law shall be construed to prohibit any person insured under a group life insurance policy from making an assignment of all or any part of his incidents of ownership under such policy, including, but not limited to, the privilege to have issued to him an individual policy of life insurance pursuant and subject to the provisions of section 10-7-202 and the right to name a beneficiary. Subject to the terms of the policy or agreement between the insured, the group policyholder, and the insurer, relating to assignment of incidents of ownership thereunder, such an assignment by an insured is valid for the purpose of vesting in the assignee, in accordance with any provisions included therein as to the time at which it is to be effective, all of such incidents of ownership so assigned, but without prejudice to the insurer on account of any payment it may make or individual policy it may issue prior to receipt of notice of the assignment.

PART 3

STANDARD NONFORFEITURE AND VALUATION ACT

10-7-301. Short title. This part 3 shall be known and may be cited as the "Standard Nonforfeiture and Valuation Act".

10-7-302. Compulsory policy provisions. (1) On and after the operative date of this part 3, no policy of life insurance, except as stated in section 10-7-307, shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this state by any foreign or domestic life insurance company unless it contains in substance the following provisions or corresponding provisions which, upon findings of fact by the commissioner, are at least as favorable to the defaulting or surrendering policyholder as are the minimum requirements specified in this section, and are essentially in compliance with section 10-7-306.1:

(a) That, in the event of default in any premium payment after premiums have been paid for at least one full year, the company will grant, upon proper election and notice thereof to the company not later than sixty days after the due date of the premium in default, a paid-up nonforfeiture benefit on a plan stipulated in the policy, effective as of such due date, of such amount as may be specified in this part 3. In lieu of such stipulated paid-up nonforfeiture benefit, the company may substitute, upon proper request not later than sixty days after the due date of the premium in default, an actuarially equivalent alternative paid-up nonforfeiture benefit which provides a greater amount or longer period of death benefits or, if applicable, a greater amount or earlier payment of endowment benefits.

(b) That, upon surrender of the policy within sixty days after the due date of any premium payment in default after premiums have been paid for at least three full years in the case of ordinary insurance or five full years in the case of industrial insurance, the company will pay, in lieu of any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit, a cash surrender value of such amount as may be specified in this part 3;

(c) That a specified paid-up nonforfeiture benefit shall become effective as specified in the policy unless the person entitled to make such election elects another available option not later than sixty days after the due date of the premium in default;

(d) That, if the policy becomes paid-up by completion of all premium payments or if it is continued under any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit which became effective on or after the third policy anniversary in the case of ordinary insurance or the fifth policy anniversary in the case of industrial insurance, the company will pay, upon surrender of the policy within thirty days after any policy anniversary, a cash surrender value of such amount as may be specified in this part 3;

(e) In the case of policies which cause on a basis guaranteed in the policy unscheduled changes in benefits or premiums, or which provide an option for changes in benefits or premiums other than a change to a new policy, a statement of the mortality table, interest rate, and method used in calculating cash surrender values and the paid-up nonforfeiture benefits available under the policy. In the case of all other policies, a statement of the mortality table and interest rate used in calculating the cash surrender values and the paid-up nonforfeiture benefits available under the policy, together with a table showing the cash surrender value, if any, and paid-up nonforfeiture benefits, if any, available under the policy on each policy anniversary either during the first twenty policy years or during the term of the policy, whichever is shorter, such values and benefits to be calculated upon the assumption that there are no dividends or paid-up additions credited to the policy and that there is no indebtedness to the company on the policy.

(f) A statement that the cash surrender values and the paid-up nonforfeiture benefits available under the policy are not less than the minimum values and benefits required by or pursuant to the insurance laws of the state in which the policy is delivered; an explanation of the manner in which the cash surrender values and the paid-up nonforfeiture benefits are altered by the existence of any paid-up additions credited to the policy or any indebtedness to the company on the policy; if a detailed statement of the method of computation of the values and benefits shown in the policy is not stated therein, a statement that such method of computation has been filed with the insurance supervisory official of the state in which the policy is delivered; and a statement of the method to be used in calculating the cash surrender value and paid-up nonforfeiture benefit available under the policy on any policy anniversary beyond the last anniversary for which such values and benefits are consecutively shown in the policy;

(g) A notice prominently printed on the first page of the policy or attached thereto stating in substance that the policyholder shall have the right to return the policy within fifteen days of its delivery and to have any premium refunded if, after examination of the policy, the policyholder is not satisfied for any reason and, in the case of a variable life insurance policy, the amount refunded shall be the account value calculated as of the date the policy is returned plus any policy fee or charge deducted from the policy. Any refund made pursuant to this paragraph (g) shall be paid directly to the policyholder by the insurer in a timely manner.

(2) Any of the foregoing provisions or portions of this section not applicable by reason of the plan of insurance, to the extent inapplicable, may be omitted from the policy.

(3) The company shall reserve the right to defer the payment of any cash surrender value for a period of six months after demand therefor with surrender of the policy.

10-7-303. Computation of cash surrender value. (1) (a) Except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this subsection (1), any cash surrender value available under the policy in the event of default in a premium payment due on any policy anniversary, whether or not required by section 10-7-302, shall be an amount not less than the excess, if any, of the present value, on such anniversary, of the future guaranteed benefits which would have been provided for by the policy, including any existing paid-up additions, if there had been no default, over the sum of:

(I) The then present value of the adjusted premiums, as defined in sections 10-7-305 and 10-7-305.1, corresponding to premiums which would have fallen due on and after such anniversary; and

(II) The amount of any indebtedness to the company on the policy.

(b) For any policy issued on or after the operative date of section 10-7-305.1 which provides supplemental life insurance or annuity benefits at the option of the insured and for an identifiable additional premium by rider or supplemental policy provision, the cash surrender value referred to in paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) shall be an amount not less than the sum of the cash surrender value as defined in said paragraph (a) for an otherwise similar policy issued at the same age without such rider or supplemental policy provision and the cash surrender value as defined in said paragraph (a) for a policy which provides only the benefits otherwise provided by such rider or supplemental policy provision.

(c) For any family policy issued on or after the operative date of section 10-7-305.1 which defines a primary insured and provides term insurance on the life of the spouse of the primary insured expiring before the spouse reaches age seventy-one, the cash surrender value referred to in paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) shall be an amount not less than the sum of the cash surrender value as defined in said paragraph (a) for an otherwise similar policy issued at the same age without such term insurance on the life of the spouse and the cash surrender value as defined in said paragraph (a) for a policy which provides only the benefits otherwise provided by such term insurance on the life of the spouse.

(2) Any cash surrender value available within thirty days after any policy anniversary under any policy paid up by completion of all premium payments or any policy continued under any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit, whether or not required by section 10-7-302, shall be an amount not less than the present value, on such anniversary, of the future guaranteed benefits provided for by the policy, including any existing paid-up additions, decreased by any indebtedness to the company on the policy.

10-7-304. Computation of nonforfeiture benefit. Any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit available under the policy in the event of default in a premium payment due on any policy anniversary shall be such that its present value as of such anniversary shall be at least equal to the cash surrender value then provided for by the policy or, if none is provided for, that cash surrender value which would have been required by this part 3 in the absence of the condition that premiums shall be paid for at least a specified period.

10-7-305. Adjusted premiums. (1) This section shall not apply to policies issued on or after the operative date of section 10-7-305.1. Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, the adjusted premiums for any policy shall be calculated on an annual basis and shall be such uniform percentage of the respective premiums specified in the policy for each policy year, excluding extra premiums charged because of impairments or special hazards, that the present value, at the date of issue of the policy, of all such adjusted premiums shall be equal to the sum of:

- (a) The then present value of the future guaranteed benefits provided for by the policy;
- (b) Two percent of the amount of insurance, if the insurance is uniform in amount, or of the equivalent uniform amount, as defined in subsection (2) of this section, if the amount of insurance varies with duration of the policy;
- (c) Forty percent of the adjusted premium for the first policy year;
- (d) Twenty-five percent of either the adjusted premium for the first policy year or the adjusted premium for a whole life policy of the same uniform or equivalent uniform amount with uniform premiums for the whole of life issued at the same age for the same amount of insurance, whichever is less. In applying the percentages specified in paragraph (c) of this subsection (1) and this paragraph (d), no adjusted premium shall be deemed to exceed four percent of the amount of insurance or uniform amount equivalent thereto. The date of issue of a policy for the purpose of this section shall be the date as of which the rated age of the insured is determined.

(2) In the case of a policy providing an amount of insurance varying with the duration of the policy, the equivalent uniform amount thereof for the purpose of this section shall be deemed to be the uniform amount of insurance provided by an otherwise similar policy, containing the same endowment benefit or benefits, if any, issued at the same age and for the same term, the amount of which does not vary with duration and the benefits under which have the same present value at the date of issue as the benefits under the policy; except that, in the case of a policy providing a varying amount of insurance issued on the life of a child under age ten, the equivalent uniform amount may be computed as though the amount of insurance provided by the policy prior to the attainment of age ten were the amount provided by such policy at age ten.

(3) The adjusted premiums for any policy providing term insurance benefits by rider or supplemental policy provision, unless such term insurance benefits are disregarded under section 10-7-306, shall be equal to: The adjusted premiums for an otherwise similar policy issued at the same age without such term insurance benefits, increased, during the period for which premiums for such term insurance benefits are payable, by the adjusted premiums for such term insurance, the two latter premiums being calculated separately and as specified in subsections (1) and (2) of this section.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (5) of this section, all adjusted premiums and present values referred to in this part 3 shall be calculated on the basis of the commissioners 1958 standard ordinary mortality table for ordinary insurance and the 1941 standard industrial mortality table for industrial insurance; except that:

(a) For any category of ordinary insurance issued on female risks, adjusted premiums and present values may be calculated according to an age not more than six years younger than the actual age of the insured;

(b) In calculating the present value of any paid-up term insurance with accompanying pure endowment, if any, offered as a nonforfeiture benefit, in the case of ordinary insurance, the rates of mortality assumed may be not more than those shown in the commissioners 1958 extended term insurance table, and, in the case of industrial insurance, the rates of mortality assumed may be not more than one hundred thirty percent of the rates of mortality according to the 1941 standard industrial mortality table;

(c) For insurance issued on a substandard basis, the calculation of any such adjusted premiums and present values may be based on such other table of mortality as may be specified by the company and approved by the commissioner;

(d) All calculations shall be made on the basis of the rate of interest specified in the policy for calculating cash surrender values and paid-up nonforfeiture benefits. Such specified rate of interest shall not exceed three and one-half percent per annum; except that a rate of interest not exceeding five and one-half percent per annum may be used for policies issued on or after July 1, 1977, and except that for any single-premium whole life or endowment insurance policy a rate of interest not exceeding six and one-half percent per annum may be used.

(5) (a) In the case of industrial policies issued on or after the operative date of this subsection (5), as defined in paragraph (b) of this subsection (5), all adjusted premiums and present values referred to in this part 3 shall be calculated on the basis of the commissioners 1961 standard industrial mortality table and the rate of interest specified in the policy for calculating cash surrender values and paid-up nonforfeiture benefits. Such specified rate of interest shall not exceed three and one-half percent per annum; except that a rate of interest not exceeding five and one-half percent per annum may be used for policies issued on or after July 1, 1977, and except that for any single-premium whole life or endowment insurance policy a rate of interest not exceeding six and one-half percent per annum may be used. However, in calculating the present value of any paid-up term insurance with accompanying pure endowment, if any, offered as a nonforfeiture benefit, the rates of mortality assumed may be not more than those shown in the commissioners 1961 industrial extended term insurance table and except that, for insurance issued on a substandard basis, the calculation of any such adjusted premiums and present values may be based on such other table of mortality as may be specified by the company and approved by the commissioner.

(b) After April 9, 1965, any company may file with the commissioner a written notice of its election to comply with the provisions of this subsection (5) after a specified date but before January 1, 1968. After the filing of such notice, then, upon such specified date (which shall be the operative date of this subsection (5) for such company), this subsection (5) shall become operative with respect to the industrial policies thereafter issued by such company. If a company makes no such election, the operative date of this subsection (5) for such company shall be January 1, 1968.

10-7-305.1. Adjusted premiums for new policies. (1) (a) This section shall apply to all policies issued on or after the operative date of this section. Except as provided in subsection (7) of this section, the adjusted premiums for any policy shall be calculated on an annual basis and shall be such uniform percentage of the respective premiums specified in the policy for each policy year, excluding amounts payable as extra premiums to cover impairments or special hazards, and also excluding any uniform annual contract charge or policy fee specified in the policy in a statement of the method to be used in calculating the cash surrender values and paid-up nonforfeiture benefits, that the present value, at the date of issue of the policy, of all adjusted premiums shall be equal to the sum of:

(I) The then present value of the future guaranteed benefits provided for by the policy;

(II) One percent of either the amount of insurance, if the insurance be uniform in amount, or the average amount of insurance at the beginning of each of the first ten policy years; and

(III) One hundred twenty-five percent of the nonforfeiture net level premium as specified in subsection (2) of this section.

(b) In applying the percentage specified in subparagraph (III) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (1), no nonforfeiture net level premium shall be deemed to exceed four percent of either the amount of insurance, if the insurance is uniform in amount, or the average amount of insurance at the beginning of each of the first ten policy years. The date of issue of a policy for the purpose of this section shall be the date as of which the rated age of the insured is determined.

(2) The nonforfeiture net level premium shall be equal to the present value, at the date of issue of the policy, of the guaranteed benefits provided for by the policy divided by the present value, at the date of issue of the policy, of an annuity of one per annum payable on the date of issue of the policy and on each anniversary of such policy on which a premium falls due.

(3) In the case of policies which cause on a basis guaranteed in the policy unscheduled changes in benefits or premiums, or which provide an option for changes in benefits or premiums other than a change to a new policy, the adjusted premiums and present values shall initially be calculated on the assumption that future benefits and premiums do not change from those stipulated at the date of issue of the policy. At the time of any such change in the benefits or premiums, the future adjusted premiums, nonforfeiture net level premiums, and present values shall be recalculated on the assumption that future benefits and premiums do not change from those stipulated by the policy immediately after the change.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (7) of this section, the recalculated future adjusted premiums for any such policy shall be such uniform percentage of the respective future premiums specified in the policy for each policy year, excluding amounts payable as extra premiums to cover impairments and special hazards, and also excluding any uniform annual contract charge or policy fee specified in the policy in a statement of the method to be used in calculating the cash surrender values and paid-up nonforfeiture benefits, that the present value, at the time of change to the newly defined benefits or premiums, of all such future adjusted premiums shall be equal to the excess of:

(a) The sum of the then present value of the then future guaranteed benefits provided for by the policy, and the additional expense allowance, if any; over

(b) The then cash surrender value, if any, or present value of any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit under the policy.

(5) The additional expense allowance, at the time of the change to the newly defined benefits or premiums, shall be the sum of:

(a) One percent of the excess, if positive, of the average amount of insurance at the beginning of each of the first ten policy years subsequent to the change over the average amount of insurance prior to the change at the beginning of each of the first ten policy years subsequent to the time of the most recent previous change, or, if there has been no previous change, the date of issue of the policy; and

(b) One hundred twenty-five percent of the increase, if positive, in the nonforfeiture net level premium.

(6) The recalculated nonforfeiture net level premium shall be equal to the result obtained by dividing the amount specified in paragraph (a) by the amount specified in paragraph (b) of this subsection (6) where:

(a) This paragraph (a) equals the sum of:

(I) The nonforfeiture net level premium applicable prior to the change times the present value of an annuity of one per annum payable on each anniversary of the policy on or subsequent to the date of the change on which a premium would have fallen due had the change not occurred; and

(II) The present value of the increase in future guaranteed benefits provided for by the policy; and where

(b) This paragraph (b) equals the present value of an annuity of one per annum payable on each anniversary of the policy on or subsequent to the date of change on which a premium falls due.

(7) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section to the contrary, in the case of a policy issued on a substandard basis which provides reduced graded amounts of insurance so that, in each policy year, such policy has the same tabular mortality cost as an otherwise similar policy issued on the standard basis which provides higher uniform amounts of insurance, adjusted premiums and present values for such substandard policy may be calculated as if it were issued to provide such higher uniform amounts of insurance on the standard basis.

(8) All adjusted premiums and present values referred to in this part 3 for all policies of ordinary insurance issued on or after the operative date of this section shall be calculated on the basis of the commissioners 1980 standard ordinary mortality table or, at the election of the company for any one or more specified plans of life insurance, on the basis of the commissioners 1980 standard ordinary mortality table with ten-year select mortality factors; for all policies of industrial insurance issued on or after the operative date of this section shall be calculated on the basis of the commissioners 1961 standard industrial mortality table; and for all policies issued in a particular calendar year on or after such operative date shall be calculated on the basis of a rate of interest not exceeding the nonforfeiture interest rate as defined in this section for policies issued in that calendar year, subject to the following:

(a) At the option of the company, calculations for all policies issued in a particular calendar year may be made on the basis of a rate of interest not exceeding the nonforfeiture interest rate, as defined in this section, for policies issued in the immediately preceding calendar year.

(b) Under any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit, including any paid-up dividend additions, any cash surrender value available, whether or not required by section 10-7-302, shall be calculated on the basis of the mortality table and rate of interest used in determining the amount of such paid-up nonforfeiture benefit and paid-up dividend additions, if any.

(c) A company may calculate the amount of any guaranteed paid-up nonforfeiture benefit, including any paid-up additions under the policy, on the basis of an interest rate no lower than that specified in the policy for calculating cash surrender values.

(d) In calculating the present value of any paid-up term insurance with accompanying pure endowment, if any, offered as a nonforfeiture benefit, the rates of mortality assumed may be not more than those shown in the commissioners 1980 extended term insurance table for policies of ordinary insurance and not more than the commissioners 1961 industrial extended term insurance table for policies of industrial insurance.

(e) For insurance issued on a substandard basis, the calculation of any such adjusted premiums and present values may be based on appropriate modifications of the tables specified in this subsection (8).

(f) Any ordinary mortality tables, adopted after 1980 by the national association of insurance commissioners, that are approved by regulation promulgated by the commissioner for use in determining the minimum nonforfeiture standard may be substituted for the commissioners 1980 standard ordinary mortality table with or without ten-year select mortality factors or for the commissioners 1980 extended term insurance table.

(g) Any industrial mortality tables, adopted after 1980 by the national association of insurance commissioners, that are approved by regulation promulgated by the commissioner for use in determining the minimum nonforfeiture standard may be substituted for the commissioners 1961 standard industrial mortality table or the commissioners 1961 industrial extended term insurance table.

(9) The nonforfeiture interest rate per annum for any policy issued in a particular calendar year shall be equal to one hundred twenty-five percent of the calendar year statutory valuation interest rate for such policy as defined in this part 3, rounded to the nearer one-quarter of one percent.

(10) Notwithstanding any other provision in this article to the contrary, any refiling of nonforfeiture values or their methods of computation for any previously approved policy form which involves only a change in the interest rate or mortality table used to compute nonforfeiture values shall not require refiling of any other provisions of that policy form.

(11) On or after July 1, 1981, any company may file with the commissioner a written notice of its election to comply with the provisions of this section after a specified date before January 1, 1989, which specified date shall be the operative date of this section for such company. If a company makes no such election, the operative date of this section for such company shall be January 1, 1989.

10-7-305.2. Future premium determination - standards. (1) In the case of any plan of life insurance which provides for future premium determination, the amounts of which are to be determined by the insurance company based on the then present estimates of future experience, or in the case of any plan of life insurance which is of such a nature that minimum values cannot be determined by the methods described in sections 10-7-302, 10-7-303, 10-7-304, 10-7-305, or 10-7-305.1, then:

(a) The commissioner must be satisfied that the benefits provided under the plan are substantially as favorable to policyholders and insureds as the minimum benefits otherwise required by sections 10-7-302, 10-7-303, 10-7-304, 10-7-305, or 10-7-305.1;

(b) The commissioner must be satisfied that the benefits and the pattern of premiums of that plan are not such as to mislead prospective policyholders or insureds;

(c) The cash surrender values and paid-up nonforfeiture benefits provided by such plan must not be less than the minimum values and benefits required for the plan computed by a method consistent with the principles of this part 3, as determined by regulations promulgated by the commissioner.

10-7-306. Calculation of values - supplemental rules. (1) Any cash surrender value and any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit, available under the policy in the event of default in a premium payment due at any time other than on the policy anniversary, shall be calculated with allowance for the lapse of time and the payment of fractional premiums beyond the last preceding policy anniversary. All values referred to in sections 10-7-303 to 10-7-305.1 may be calculated upon the assumption that any death benefit is payable at the end of the policy year of death. The net value of any paid-up additions, other than paid-up term additions, shall not be less than the amounts used to provide such additions.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 10-7-303, additional benefits shall be disregarded in ascertaining cash surrender values and nonforfeiture benefits required by this part 3, and no such additional benefits shall be required to be included in any paid-up nonforfeiture benefits in the following events or circumstances:

(a) In the event of death or dismemberment by accident or accidental means;

(b) In the event of total and permanent disability;

(c) As reversionary annuity or deferred reversionary annuity benefits;

(d) As term insurance benefits provided by a rider or supplemental policy provision to which, if issued as a separate policy, this part 3 would not apply;

(e) As term insurance on the life of a child or on the lives of children provided in a policy on the life of a parent of the child, if such term insurance expires before the child's age is twenty-six, is uniform in amount after the child's age is one, and has not become paid up by reason of the death of a parent of the child;

(f) As other policy benefits additional to life insurance and endowment benefits, and premiums for all such additional benefits.

10-7-306.1. Calculation of values - new policies. (1) (a) This section, in addition to all other applicable sections of this part 3, shall apply to all policies issued on or after January 1, 1985. Any cash surrender value available under a policy in the event of default in a premium payment due on any policy anniversary shall be in an amount which does not differ, by more than two-tenths of one percent of either the amount of insurance, if the insurance be uniform in amount, or the average amount of insurance at the beginning of each of the first ten policy years, from the sum of:

(I) The greater of zero and the basic cash value specified in this section; and

(II) The present value of any existing paid-up additions less the amount of any indebtedness to the company under the policy.

(b) The basic cash value shall be equal to the present value, on such anniversary, of the future guaranteed benefits which would have been provided for by the policy, excluding any existing paid-up additions and before deduction of any indebtedness to the company, if there had been no default, less the then present value of the nonforfeiture factors, corresponding to premiums which would have fallen due on and after such anniversary. However, the effects on the basic cash value of supplemental life insurance or annuity benefits or of family coverage, as described in section 10-7-303 or 10-7-305, whichever is applicable, shall be the same as are the effects specified in section 10-7-303 or 10-7-305, whichever is applicable, on the cash surrender values defined in that section. The nonforfeiture factor for each policy year shall be an amount equal to a percentage of the adjusted premium for the policy year, as defined in section 10-7-305 or 10-7-305.1, whichever is applicable.

(c) Except as is required by subsection (2) of this section, such percentage:

(I) Must be the same percentage for each policy year between the second policy anniversary and the later of:

(A) The fifth policy anniversary; and

(B) The first policy anniversary at which there is available under the policy a cash surrender value in an amount, before including any paid-up additions and before deducting any indebtedness, of at least two-tenths of one percent of either the amount of insurance, if the insurance is uniform in amount, or the average amount of insurance at the beginning of each of the first ten policy years; and

(II) Must be such that no percentage after the later of the two policy anniversaries specified in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (c) may apply to fewer than five consecutive policy years.

(2) No basic cash value may be less than the value which would be obtained if the adjusted premiums for the policy, as defined in section 10-7-305 or 10-7-305.1, whichever is applicable, were substituted for the nonforfeiture factors in the calculation of the basic cash value. All adjusted premiums and present values referred to in this section shall for a particular policy be calculated on the same mortality and interest bases as are used in demonstrating the policy's compliance with the other provisions of this part 3. The cash surrender values referred to in this section shall include any endowment benefits provided for by the policy.

(3) Any cash surrender value available other than in the event of default in a premium payment due on a policy anniversary, and the amount of any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit available under the policy in the event of default in a premium payment shall be determined in manners consistent with the manners specified for determining the analogous minimum amounts in sections 10-7-302, 10-7-303, 10-7-304, 10-7-305.1, and 10-7-306. The amounts of any cash surrender values and of any paid-up nonforfeiture benefits granted in connection with additional benefits such as those listed in section 10-7-306 shall conform with the principles of this section.

10-7-307. Exemptions. (1) Sections 10-7-302 to 10-7-306.1 shall not apply to any of the following:

(a) Reinsurance;

(b) Group insurance;

(c) A pure endowment;

(d) An annuity or reversionary annuity contract;

(e) Any term policy of uniform amount, which provides no guaranteed nonforfeiture or endowment benefits, or renewal thereof, of twenty years or less expiring before age seventy-one, for which uniform premiums are payable during the entire term of the policy;

(f) Any term policy of decreasing amount, which provides no guaranteed nonforfeiture or endowment benefits, on which each adjusted premium, calculated as specified in sections 10-7-305 and 10-7-305.1, is less than the adjusted premium so calculated, on a term policy of uniform amount, or renewal thereof, which provides no guaranteed nonforfeiture or endowment benefits, issued at the same age and for the same initial amount of insurance and for a term of twenty years or less expiring before age seventy-one, for which uniform premiums are payable during the entire term of the policy;

(g) Any policy which provides no guaranteed nonforfeiture or endowment benefits, for which no cash surrender value, if any, or present value of any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit, at the beginning of any policy year, calculated as specified in sections 10-7-303, 10-7-304, 10-7-305, and 10-7-305.1, exceeds two and one-half percent of the amount of insurance at the beginning of the same policy year; nor

(h) Any policy which shall be delivered outside this state through an agent or other representative of the company issuing the policy.

(2) For purposes of determining the applicability of sections 10-7-302 to 10-7-306.1, the age at expiry for a joint term life insurance policy shall be the age of expiry of the oldest life.

10-7-309. Minimum standard of valuation. (1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section and in section 10-7-309.5, the minimum standard for the valuation of all policies issued by any domestic or foreign life insurance company, on or after the operative date provided in paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of this section, shall be the commissioners reserve valuation methods defined in sections 10-7-310, 10-7-310.5, and 10-7-313, five percent interest for group annuity and pure endowment contracts and three and one-half percent interest for all other such policies and contracts, or in the case of policies and contracts, other than annuity and pure endowment contracts, issued on or after July 1, 1977, five and one-half percent interest for single-premium life insurance policies and four and one-half percent interest for all other such policies, and the following tables:

(a) For all ordinary policies of life insurance issued on the standard basis, excluding any disability or accidental death benefits in such policies: The commissioners 1958 standard ordinary mortality table, but, for any category of such policies issued on female risks, all modified net premiums and present values referred to in this part 3 may be calculated, at the option of the company, according to an age not more than six years younger than the actual age of the insured; and for such policies issued on or after the operative date of section 10-7-305.1:

(I) The commissioners 1980 standard ordinary mortality table; or

(II) At the election of the company for any one or more specified plans of life insurance, the commissioners 1980 standard ordinary mortality table with ten-year select mortality factors; or

(III) Any ordinary mortality table, adopted after 1980 by the national association of insurance commissioners, that is approved by regulation promulgated by the commissioner for use in determining the minimum standard of valuation for such policies;

(b) For all industrial life insurance policies issued on the standard basis, excluding any disability and accidental death benefits in such policies: The 1941 standard industrial mortality table for such policies issued prior to the operative date of section 10-7-305 (5), and for such policies issued on or after such operative date the commissioners 1961 standard industrial mortality table or any industrial mortality table, adopted after 1980 by the national association of insurance commissioners, that is approved by regulation promulgated by the commissioner for use in determining the minimum standard of valuation for such policies;

(c) For individual annuity and pure endowment policies, excluding any disability and accidental death benefits in such policies: The 1937 standard annuity mortality table or, at the option of the company, the annuity mortality table for 1949, ultimate, or any modification of either of these tables approved by the commissioner;

(d) For group annuity and pure endowment policies, excluding any disability and accidental death benefits in such policies: The group annuity mortality table for 1951, any modification of such table approved by the commissioner, or, at the option of the company, any of the tables or modifications of tables specified for individual annuity and pure endowment policies;

(e) For total and permanent disability benefits in or supplementary to ordinary policies: The tables of period 2 disablement rates and the 1930 to 1950 termination rates of the 1952 disability study of the society of actuaries, with due regard to the type of benefit, or any tables of disablement rates and termination rates, adopted after 1980 by the national association of insurance commissioners, that are approved by regulation promulgated by the commissioner for use in determining the minimum standard of valuation for such policies. Any such table shall, for active lives, be combined with a mortality table permitted for calculating the reserves for life insurance policies.

(f) For accidental death benefits in or supplementary to policies: The 1959 accidental death benefits table or any accidental death benefits table, adopted after 1980 by the national association of insurance commissioners, that is approved by regulation promulgated by the commissioner for use in determining the minimum standard of valuation for such policies. Either table shall be combined with a mortality table permitted for calculating the reserves for life insurance policies.

(g) For group life insurance, life insurance issued on the substandard basis and other special benefits: Such tables as may be approved by the commissioner.

(2) (a) Except as provided in section 10-7-309.5, the minimum standard for the valuation of all individual annuity and pure endowment contracts issued on or after the operative date of this subsection (2), as defined in paragraph (b) of this subsection (2), and for all annuities and pure endowments purchased on or after said operative date under group annuity and pure endowment contracts, shall be the commissioners reserve valuation methods defined in sections 10-7-310 and 10-7-310.5 and the following tables and interest rates:

(I) For individual single-premium immediate annuity contracts, excluding any disability and accidental death benefits in such contracts: The 1971 individual annuity mortality table, or any individual annuity mortality table, adopted after 1980 by the national association of insurance commissioners, that is approved by regulation promulgated by the commissioner for use in determining the minimum standard of valuation for such contracts, or any modification of these tables approved by the commissioner, and seven and one-half percent interest;

(II) For individual annuity and pure endowment contracts, other than single-premium immediate annuity contracts, excluding any disability and accidental death benefits in such contracts: The 1971 individual annuity mortality table, or any individual annuity mortality table, adopted after 1980 by the national association of insurance commissioners, that is approved by regulation promulgated by the commissioner for use in determining the minimum standard of valuation for such contracts, or any modification of these tables approved by the commissioner, and five and one-half percent interest for single-premium deferred annuity and pure endowment contracts and four and one-half percent interest for all other such individual annuity and pure endowment contracts;

(III) For all annuities and pure endowments purchased under group annuity and pure endowment contracts, excluding any disability and accidental death benefits purchased under such contracts: The 1971 group annuity mortality table, or any group annuity mortality table, adopted after 1980 by the national association of insurance commissioners, that is approved by regulation promulgated by the commissioner for use in determining the minimum standard of valuation for such annuities and pure endowments, or any modification of these tables approved by the commissioner, and seven and one-half percent interest.

(b) On or after July 1, 1977, any company may file with the commissioner a written notice of its election to comply with the provisions of this subsection (2) after a specified date but before January 1, 1979, which shall be the operative date of this subsection (2) for such company, but a company may elect a different operative date for individual annuity and pure endowment contracts from that elected for group annuity and pure endowment contracts. If a company makes no such election, the operative date of this subsection (2) for such company shall be January 1, 1979.

10-7-309.5. Minimum standards of valuation for new policies. (1) The calendar year statutory valuation interest rates, as defined in this section, shall be the interest rates used in determining the minimum standard for the valuation of:

(a) All life insurance policies issued in a particular calendar year, on or after the operative date of section 10-7-305.1;

(b) All individual annuity and pure endowment contracts issued in a particular calendar year on or after January 1, 1982;

(c) All annuities and pure endowments purchased in a particular calendar year on or after January 1, 1982, under group annuity and pure endowment contracts; and

(d) The net increase, if any, in a particular calendar year after January 1, 1982, in amounts held under guaranteed interest contracts.

(2) The calendar year statutory valuation interest rates ("I") shall be determined as follows, and the results rounded to the nearer one-quarter of one percent:

(a) For life insurance:

$$I = .03 + W (R1 - .03) + W/2 (R2 - .09).$$

(b) (I) For single-premium immediate annuities and for annuity benefits involving life contingencies arising from other annuities with cash settlement options and from guaranteed interest contracts with cash settlement options:

$$I = .03 + W (R - .03).$$

(II) In the formulas used in paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) and this paragraph (b), "R1" is the lesser of R and .09, "R2" is the greater of R and .09, "R" is the reference interest rate defined in this section, and "W" is the weighting factor defined in this section.

(c) For other annuities with cash settlement options and guaranteed interest contracts with cash settlement options, valued on an issue year basis, except as stated in paragraph (b) of this subsection (2), the formula for life insurance stated in paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) shall apply to annuities and guaranteed interest contracts with guarantee durations in excess of ten years and the formula for single-premium immediate annuities stated in said paragraph (b) shall apply to annuities and guaranteed interest contracts with guarantee durations of ten years or less.

(d) For other annuities with no cash settlement options and for guaranteed interest contracts with no cash settlement options, the formula for single-premium immediate annuities stated in paragraph (b) of this subsection (2) shall apply.

(e) For other annuities with cash settlement options and guaranteed interest contracts with cash settlement options, valued on a change in fund basis, the formula for single-premium immediate annuities stated in paragraph (b) of this subsection (2) shall apply.

(3) (a) If the calendar year statutory valuation interest rate for any life insurance policies issued in any calendar year determined without reference to this paragraph (a) differs from the corresponding actual rate for similar policies issued in the immediately preceding calendar year by less than one-half of one percent, the calendar year statutory valuation interest rate for such life insurance policies shall be equal to the corresponding actual rate for the immediately preceding calendar year.

(b) For purposes of applying the provision of paragraph (a) of this subsection (3), the calendar year statutory valuation interest rate for life insurance policies issued in a calendar year shall be determined for 1980 (using the reference interest rate defined for 1979) and shall be determined for each subsequent calendar year regardless of when section 10-7-305.1 becomes operative.

(4) The weighting factors referred to in the formulas stated in subsection (2) of this section are given in the following tables:

(a) (I) The weighting factors for life insurance:

GUARANTEE DURATION (YEARS)	WEIGHTING FACTORS
10 or less	.50
More than 10 but not more than 20	.45
More than 20	.35

(II) For life insurance, the guarantee duration is the maximum number of years the life insurance can remain in force on a basis guaranteed in the policy or under options to convert to plans of life insurance with premium rates or nonforfeiture values or both which are guaranteed in the original policy.

(b) The weighting factor for single-premium immediate annuities and for annuity benefits involving life contingencies arising from other annuities with cash settlement options and from guaranteed interest contracts with cash settlement options:

(c) The weighting factors for other annuities and for guaranteed interest contracts, except as stated in paragraph (b) of this subsection (4), shall be as specified in the following tables (subparagraphs (I), (II), and (III)) and according to the following rules and definitions (subparagraphs (IV), (V), and (VI)):

(I) For annuities and guaranteed interest contracts valued on an issue year basis:

GUARANTEE DURATION (YEARS)	WEIGHTING FACTORS FOR PLAN TYPE
	A	B	C
5 or less	.80	.60	.50
More than 5 but not more than 10	.75	.60	.50
More than 10 but not more than 20	.65	.50	.45
More than 20	.45	.35	.35

(II) For annuities and guaranteed interest contracts valued on a change in fund basis, the factors shown in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (c) increased by:

PLAN TYPE
.15	.25	.05

(III) For annuities and guaranteed interest contracts valued on an issue year basis (other than those with no cash settlement options) which do not guarantee interest on considerations received more than one year after issue or purchase and for annuities and guaranteed interest contracts valued on a change in fund basis which do not guarantee interest rates on considerations received more than twelve months beyond the valuation date, the factors shown in subparagraph (I) or derived in subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (c) increased by:

PLAN TYPE
.05	.05	.05

(IV) For other annuities with cash settlement options and guaranteed interest contracts with cash settlement options, the guarantee duration is the number of years for which the contract guarantees interest rates in excess of the calendar year statutory valuation interest rate for life insurance policies with guarantee duration in excess of twenty years. For other annuities with no cash settlement options and for guaranteed interest contracts with no cash settlement options, the guarantee duration is the number of years from the date of issue or date of purchase to the date annuity benefits are scheduled to commence.

(V) "Plan type", as used in the tables in subparagraphs (I), (II), and (III) of this paragraph (c), is defined as follows:

(A) Plan type A: At any time policyholder may withdraw funds only: (i) with an adjustment to reflect changes in interest rates or asset values since receipt of the funds by the insurance company; or (ii) without such adjustment but in installments over five years or more; or (iii) as an immediate life annuity; or (iv) no withdrawal permitted.

(B) Plan type B: Before expiration of the interest rate guarantee, policyholder may withdraw funds only: (i) with adjustment to reflect changes in interest rates or asset values since receipt of the funds by the insurance company; or (ii) without such adjustment but in installments over five years or more; or (iii) no withdrawal permitted. At the end of interest rate guarantee, funds may be withdrawn without such adjustment in a single sum or installments over less than five years.

(C) Plan type C: Policyholder may withdraw funds before expiration of interest rate guarantee in a single sum or installments over less than five years either: (i) without adjustment to reflect changes in interest rates or asset values since receipt of the funds by the insurance company; or (ii) subject only to a fixed surrender charge stipulated in the contract as a percentage of the fund.

(VI) A company may elect to value guaranteed interest contracts with cash settlement options and annuities with cash settlement options on either an issue year basis or on a change in fund basis. Guaranteed interest contracts with no cash settlement options and other annuities with no cash settlement options must be valued on an issue year basis. As used in this section, "issue year basis of valuation" refers to a valuation basis under which the interest rate used to determine the minimum valuation standard for the entire duration of the annuity or guaranteed interest contract is the calendar year valuation interest rate for the year of issue or year of purchase of the annuity or guaranteed interest contract, and "change in fund basis of valuation" refers to a valuation basis under which the interest rate used to determine the minimum valuation standard applicable to each change in the fund held under the annuity or guaranteed interest contract is the calendar year valuation interest rate for the year of the change in the fund.

(5) The "reference interest rate" referred to in subsection (2) of this section shall be defined as follows:

(a) For all life insurance, the lesser of the average over a period of thirty-six months and the average over a period of twelve months, ending on June 30 of the calendar year next preceding the year of issue, of Moody's corporate bond yield average - monthly average corporates, as published by Moody's Investors Service, Inc.;

(b) For single-premium immediate annuities and for annuity benefits involving life contingencies arising from other annuities with cash settlement options and guaranteed interest contracts with cash settlement options, the average over a period of twelve months, ending on June 30 of the calendar year of issue or year of purchase, of Moody's corporate bond yield average - monthly average corporates, as published by Moody's Investors Service, Inc.;

(c) For other annuities with cash settlement options and guaranteed interest contracts with cash settlement options, valued on a year of issue basis, except as stated in paragraph (b) of this subsection (5), with guarantee duration in excess of ten years, the lesser of the average over a period of thirty-six months and the average over a period of twelve months, ending on June 30 of the calendar year of issue or purchase, of Moody's corporate bond yield average - monthly average corporates, as published by Moody's Investors Service, Inc.;

(d) For other annuities with cash settlement options and guaranteed interest contracts with cash settlement options, valued on a year of issue basis, except as stated in paragraph (b) of this subsection (5), with guarantee duration of ten years or less, the average over a period of twelve months, ending on June 30 of the calendar year of issue or purchase, of Moody's corporate bond yield average - monthly average corporates, as published by Moody's Investors Service, Inc.;

(e) For other annuities with no cash settlement options and for guaranteed interest contracts with no cash settlement options, the average over a period of twelve months, ending on June 30 of the calendar year of issue or purchase, of Moody's corporate bond yield average - monthly average corporates, as published by Moody's Investors Service, Inc.;

(f) For other annuities with cash settlement options and guaranteed interest contracts with cash settlement options, valued on a change in fund basis, except as stated in paragraph (b) of this subsection (5), the average over a period of twelve months, ending on June 30 of the calendar year of the change in the fund, of Moody's corporate bond yield average - monthly average corporates, as published by Moody's Investors Service, Inc.

(6) In the event that Moody's corporate bond yield average - monthly average corporates is no longer published by Moody's Investors Service, Inc., or in the event that the national association of insurance commissioners determines that Moody's corporate bond yield average - monthly average corporates, as published by Moody's Investors Service, Inc., is no longer appropriate for the determination of the reference interest rate, then an alternative method for determination of the reference interest rate, which is adopted by the national association of insurance commissioners and approved by regulation promulgated by the commissioner, may be substituted.

10-7-310. Life and endowment reserves. (1) Except as otherwise provided in sections 10-7-310.5 and 10-7-313, reserves, according to the commissioners reserve valuation method for the life insurance and endowment benefits of policies providing for a uniform amount of insurance and requiring the payment of uniform premiums, shall be the excess, if any, of the present value, at the date of valuation, of such future guaranteed benefits provided for by such policies over the then present value of any future modified net premiums therefor. The modified net premiums for any such policy shall be such uniform percentage of the respective contract premiums for such benefits that the present value, at the date of issue of the policy, of all such modified net premiums shall be equal to the sum of the then present value of such benefits provided for by the policy and the excess of paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) over paragraph (b) of this subsection (1), as follows:

(a) A net level annual premium equal to the present value, at the date of issue, of such benefits provided for after the first policy year, divided by the present value, at the date of issue, of an annuity of one per annum payable on the first and each subsequent anniversary of such policy on which a premium falls due; except that such net level annual premium shall not exceed the net level annual premium on the nineteen-year premium whole life plan for insurance of the same amount at an age one year higher than the age at issue of such policy;

(b) A net one-year term premium for such benefits provided for in the first policy year.

(1.5) For any life insurance policy issued on or after January 1, 1985, for which the contract premium in the first policy year exceeds that of the second year and for which no comparable additional benefit is provided in the first year for such excess and which provides an endowment benefit, a cash surrender value, or a combination thereof in an amount greater than such excess premium, the reserve according to the commissioners reserve valuation method as of any policy anniversary occurring on or before the assumed ending date, which for the purposes of this subsection (1.5), means the first policy anniversary on which the sum of any endowment benefit and any cash surrender value then available is greater than such excess premium, shall, except as otherwise provided in section 10-7-313, be the greater of the reserve as of such policy anniversary calculated as described in the introductory portion to and paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1) of this section and the reserve as of such policy anniversary calculated as described in said portion and paragraphs of said subsection (1), but with:

(a) The value defined in said paragraph (a) being reduced by fifteen percent of the amount of such excess first year premium;

(b) All present values of benefits and premiums being determined without reference to premiums or benefits provided for by the policy after the assumed ending date;

(c) The policy being assumed to mature on such date as an endowment; and

(d) The cash surrender value provided on such date being considered as an endowment benefit. In making the comparison the mortality and interest bases stated in sections 10-7-309 and 10-7-309.5 shall be used.

(2) Reserves according to the commissioners reserve valuation method for life insurance policies providing for a varying amount of insurance or requiring the payment of varying premiums, group annuity and pure endowment policies purchased under a retirement plan or plan of deferred compensation, established or maintained by an employer (including a partnership or sole proprietorship) or by an employee organization, or by both, other than a plan providing individual retirement accounts or individual retirement annuities under section 408 of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", as now or hereafter amended, disability and accidental death benefits in all policies and contracts, and all other benefits, except life insurance and endowment benefits in life insurance policies and benefits provided by all other annuity and pure endowment contracts, shall be calculated by a method consistent with the principles of subsection (1) of this section; except that any extra premiums charged because of impairments or special hazards shall be disregarded in the determination of modified net premiums.

10-7-310.5. Individual annuity and pure endowment reserves. (1) The provisions of this section shall apply to all annuity and pure endowment contracts other than group annuity and pure endowment contracts purchased under a retirement plan or plan of deferred compensation, established or maintained by an employer (including a partnership or sole proprietorship) or by an employee organization, or by both, other than a plan providing individual retirement accounts or individual retirement annuities under section 408 of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", as now or hereafter amended.

(2) Reserves according to the commissioners annuity reserve method for benefits under annuity or pure endowment contracts, excluding any disability and accidental death benefits in such contracts, shall be the greatest of the respective excesses of the present values, at the date of valuation, of the future guaranteed benefits, including guaranteed nonforfeiture benefits, provided for by such contracts at the end of each respective contract year, over the present value, at the date of valuation, of any future valuation considerations derived from future gross considerations, required by the terms of such contracts, that become payable prior to the end of such respective contract year. The future guaranteed benefits shall be determined by using the mortality table, if any, and the interest rate, or rates, specified in such contracts for determining guaranteed benefits. The valuation considerations are the portions of the respective gross considerations applied under the terms of such contracts to determine nonforfeiture values.

10-7-311. Minimum aggregate reserves. (1) In no event shall a company's aggregate reserves for all life insurance policies, excluding disability and accidental death benefits, issued on or after July 1, 1992, be less than the aggregate reserves calculated in accordance with the methods set forth in sections 10-7-310, 10-7-310.5, 10-7-313, and 10-7-313.5 and the mortality table or tables and rate or rates of interest used in calculating nonforfeiture benefits for such policies.

(2) In no event shall the aggregate reserves for all policies, contracts, and benefits be less than the aggregate reserves determined by the qualified actuary to be necessary to render the opinion required by section 10-7-114.

10-7-312. Optional standards. (1) Reserves for any category of policies or benefits as established by the commissioner may be calculated, at the option of the company, according to any standards which produce greater aggregate reserves for such category than those calculated according to the minimum standard provided in this part 3, but the rate or rates of interest used for policies and contracts, other than annuity and pure endowment contracts, shall not be higher than the corresponding rate or rates of interest used in calculating any nonforfeiture benefits provided for therein.

(2) Any such company which at any time has adopted any standard of valuation producing greater aggregate reserves than those calculated according to the minimum standard provided in this section may, with the approval of the commissioner, adopt any lower standard of valuation, but not lower than the minimum provided in this section; except that, for the purposes of this section, the holding of additional reserves previously determined by a qualified actuary to be necessary to render the opinion required by section 10-7-114 shall not be deemed to be the adoption of a higher standard of valuation.

10-7-313. Minimum reserves. (1) If in any contract year the gross premium charged by any life insurance company on any policy is less than the valuation net premium for the policy calculated by the method used in calculating the reserve thereon but using the minimum standards of mortality and rate of interest, the minimum reserve required for such policy shall be the greater of either the reserve calculated according to the mortality table, rate of interest, and method actually used for such policy or the reserve calculated by the method actually used for such policy but using the minimum standards of mortality and rate of interest and replacing the valuation net premium by the actual gross premium in each contract year for which the valuation net premium exceeds the actual gross premium.

(2) The minimum valuation standards of mortality and rate of interest referred to in this section are those standards stated in sections 10-7-309 and 10-7-309.5; except that for any life insurance policy issued on or after January 1, 1985, for which the gross premium in the first policy year exceeds that of the second year and for which no comparable additional benefit is provided in the first year for such excess and which provides an endowment benefit, a cash surrender value, or a combination thereof in an amount greater than such excess premium, the foregoing provisions of this section shall be applied as if the method actually used in calculating the reserve for such policy were the method described in section 10-7-310, ignoring subsection (1.5) thereof. The minimum reserve at each policy anniversary of such a policy shall be the greater of the minimum reserve calculated in accordance with section 10-7-310, including subsection (1.5) thereof, and the minimum reserve calculated in accordance with this section.

10-7-313.5. Minimum reserves - exceptions. (1) In the case of any plan of life insurance which provides for future premium determination, the amounts of which are to be determined by the insurance company based on then present estimates of future experience, or in the case of any plan of life insurance or annuity which is of such a nature that the minimum reserves cannot be determined by the methods described in sections 10-7-310, 10-7-310.5, and 10-7-313, the reserves which are held under any such plan must:

(a) Be appropriate in relation to the benefits and the pattern of premiums for that plan; and

(b) Be computed by a method which is consistent with the principles of this part 3, as such appropriateness and method shall be determined by regulations promulgated by the commissioner.

Operative date. At any time after April 11, 1961, and before January 1, 1966, any company may file with the commissioner a written notice of its election to comply with the provisions of this part 3 after a specified date before January 1, 1966. After the filing of such notice, then upon such specified date (which shall be the operative date of this part 3 for such company) this part 3 shall become operative with respect to policies thereafter issued by such company. If a company makes no such election, the operative date of this part 3 for such company shall be January 1, 1966.

PART 4

VARIABLE CONTRACTS

10-7-401. Sales not prohibited. The provisions of section 10-3-1104 shall not prohibit the sale and issuance by life insurance companies of contracts providing for payments which vary directly according to investment experience in connection with the sale and issuance by such life insurance companies of other forms of life insurance and annuities as are provided for in this title.

Source: L. 61: p. 447, § 5. CRS 53: § 72-2-18. C.R.S. 1963: § 72-2-16.

10-7-402. Investment contract funds - separate accounts. (1) A domestic life insurance company may establish one or more separate accounts and may allocate thereto amounts, including without limitation proceeds applied under optional modes of settlement or under dividend options, to provide for life insurance or annuities and benefits incidental thereto, payable in fixed or variable amounts or both and may accumulate or hold funds paid pursuant to funding agreements or guaranteed investment contracts, subject to the following:

(a) The income, gains, and losses, realized or unrealized, from assets allocated to a separate account shall be credited to or charged against the account, without regard to other income, gains, or losses of the company.

(b) Except as may be provided with respect to reserves for guaranteed benefits and funds referred to in paragraph (c) of this subsection (1), amounts allocated to any separate account and accumulations thereon may be invested and reinvested without regard to any requirements or limitations prescribed by the laws of this state governing the investments of life insurance companies, and the investments in such separate account shall not be taken into account in applying the investment limitations otherwise applicable to the investments of the company.

(c) Except with the approval of the commissioner and under such conditions as to investments and other matters as he may prescribe, which shall recognize the guaranteed nature of the benefits provided, reserves for benefits guaranteed as to dollar amount and duration and for funds guaranteed as to principal amount or stated rate of interest shall not be maintained in a separate account.

(d) Unless otherwise approved by the commissioner, assets allocated to a separate account shall be valued at their market value on the date of valuation or, if there is no readily available market, as provided under the terms of the contract or the rules or other written agreement applicable to such separate account; except that, unless otherwise approved by the commissioner, that portion, if any, of the assets of such separate account equal to the company's reserve liability as provided in paragraph (c) of this subsection (1) shall be valued in accordance with the rules otherwise applicable to the company's assets.

(e) Amounts allocated to a separate account in the exercise of the power granted by this section shall be owned by the company, and the company shall not be, nor hold itself out to be, a trustee with respect to such amounts. To the extent provided under the applicable contracts, that portion of the assets of any such separate account which is equal to the reserves and other contract liabilities with respect to such account shall not be chargeable with liabilities arising out of any other business the company may conduct.

(f) No sale, exchange, or other transfer of assets may be made by a company between any of its separate accounts or between any other investment account and one or more of its separate accounts unless, in case of a transfer into a separate account, such transfer is made solely to establish the account or to support the operation of the contracts with respect to the separate account to which the transfer is made, and unless such transfer, whether into or from a separate account, is made by a transfer of cash or by a transfer of securities having a readily determinable market value, if such transfer of securities is approved by the commissioner. The commissioner may approve other transfers among such accounts if, in his opinion, such transfers would not be inequitable.

(g) To the extent such company deems it necessary to comply with any applicable federal or state laws, such company, with respect to any separate account, including without limitation any separate account which is a management investment company or a unit investment trust, may provide for persons having an interest therein appropriate voting and other rights and special procedures for the conduct of the business of such account, including without limitation special rights and procedures relating to investment policy, investment advisory services, selection of independent public accountants, and the selection of a committee, the members of which need not be otherwise affiliated with such company, to manage the business of such account.

10-7-403. Where benefits are payable in variable amounts. Any contract providing benefits payable in variable amounts, delivered or issued for delivery in this state, shall contain a statement of the essential features of the procedures to be followed by the insurance company in determining the dollar amount of such variable benefits. Any such contract under which the benefits vary to reflect investment experience, including a group contract and any certificate in evidence of variable benefits issued thereunder, shall state that such dollar amount will so vary and shall contain on its first page a statement to the effect that the benefits thereunder are on a variable basis.

10-7-404. Authority to issue variable contracts. (1) No company shall deliver or issue for delivery within this state variable contracts unless it is licensed to do a life insurance or annuity business in this state and the commissioner is satisfied that its condition or method of operation in connection with the issuance of such contracts will not render its operation hazardous to the public or its policyholders in this state. In this connection, the commissioner shall consider among other things:

- (a) The history and financial condition of the company;
- (b) The character, responsibility, and fitness of the officers and directors of the company; and
- (c) The law and regulations under which the company is authorized in the state of domicile to issue variable contracts.

(2) If the company is a subsidiary of an admitted life insurance company or affiliated with such company through common management or ownership, it may be deemed by the commissioner to have complied with the provisions of this section if either it or the parent or the affiliated company meets the requirements of this section.

Source: L. 71: p. 713, § 1. C.R.S. 1963: § 72-2-47.

10-7-405. Construction. (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the commissioner has sole authority to regulate the issuance and sale of variable contracts and to issue such reasonable rules and regulations as may be appropriate to carry out the purposes and provisions of sections 10-7-402 to 10-7-405.

(2) Except for sections 10-3-204, 10-7-102 (1) (g) to (1) (i), 10-7-202 (1) (a), 10-7-302 to 10-7-306, and 10-7-501 to 10-7-510, and, except as otherwise provided in sections 10-7-402 to 10-7-405, all pertinent provisions of this title shall apply to separate accounts and contracts relating thereto. Any individual variable life insurance or annuity contract, delivered or issued for delivery in this state, shall contain grace, reinstatement, and nonforfeiture provisions appropriate to such a contract. The reserve liability for variable contracts shall be established in accordance with actuarial procedures that recognize the variable nature of the benefits provided and any mortality guarantees.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the term "company" as used in sections 10-7-402 to 10-7-404 includes fraternal benefit societies licensed to do business in this state under article 14 of this title.

PART 5

STANDARD NONFORFEITURE LAW FOR INDIVIDUAL DEFERRED ANNUITIES

10-7-501. Short title. This part 5 shall be known and may be cited as the "Standard Nonforfeiture Law for Individual Deferred Annuities".

10-7-502. Exemptions. This part 5 shall not apply to any reinsurance, group annuity purchased under a retirement plan or plan of deferred compensation established or maintained by an employer (including a partnership or sole proprietorship) or by an employee organization, or by both, other than a plan providing individual retirement accounts or individual retirement annuities under section 408 of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", as now or hereafter amended. Nor shall this part 5 apply to any premium deposit fund, variable annuity, investment annuity, immediate annuity, deferred annuity contract after annuity payments have commenced, or reversionary annuity, or to any contract delivered outside this state through an agent or other representative of the company issuing the contract.

10-7-503. Compulsory contract provisions. (1) No contract of annuity, except as stated in section 10-7-502, shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this state unless it contains in substance the following provisions, or corresponding provisions which, in the opinion of the commissioner, are at least as favorable to the contract holder, upon cessation of payment of considerations under the contract:

(a) That, upon cessation of payment of considerations under a contract or upon written request of the contract owner, the company shall grant a paid-up annuity benefit on a plan stipulated in the contract of such value as is specified in sections 10-7-505 to 10-7-508 and 10-7-509 (1);

(b) If a contract provides for a lump-sum settlement, that, upon surrender of the contract at or prior to the commencement of any annuity payments, the company shall pay in lieu of any paid-up annuity benefit a cash surrender benefit of such amount as is specified in sections 10-7-505, 10-7-506, 10-7-508, and 10-7-509 (1). The company may reserve the right to defer the payment of such cash surrender benefit for a period not to exceed six months after demand with surrender of the contract after requesting in writing and receiving approval in writing from the commissioner. The request shall address the necessity and equitability of the deferral to all policy holders.

(c) A statement of the mortality table, if any, and interest rates used in calculating any minimum paid-up annuity, cash surrender, or death benefits that are guaranteed under the contract, together with sufficient information to determine the amounts of such benefits;

(d) A statement that any paid-up annuity, cash surrender, or death benefits that may be available under the contract shall not be less than the minimum benefits required by any statute of the state in which the contract is delivered and an explanation of the manner in which such benefits are altered by the existence of any additional amounts credited by the company to the contract, any indebtedness to the company on the contract, or any prior withdrawals from or partial surrenders of the contract.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, a deferred annuity contract may provide that, if no considerations have been received under a contract for a period of two full years and the portion of the paid-up annuity benefit at maturity on the plan stipulated in the contract arising from considerations paid prior to such period would be less than twenty dollars monthly, the company may terminate such contract by payment in cash of the then present value of such portion of the paid-up annuity benefit, calculated on the basis of the mortality table and interest rate specified in the contract for determining the paid-up annuity benefit, and by such payment shall be relieved of any further obligation under such contract. A contract that does not provide cash surrender or death benefits at least equal to the minimum nonforfeiture amount prior to the commencement of an annuity payment shall include a statement in a prominent place in the contract that such benefits are not provided.

Source: L. 77: Entire part added, p. 528, § 11, effective July 1. L. 2004: (1)(a), (1)(b), and (1)(d) amended and (2) added, p. 817, § 1, effective July 1.

10-7-504. Minimum nonforfeiture amounts - rules. (1) The minimum values specified in sections 10-7-505 to 10-7-508 and 10-7-509 (1) of any paid-up annuity, cash surrender, or death benefits available under an annuity contract shall be based upon the following minimum nonforfeiture amounts:

(a) (I) The minimum nonforfeiture amount at any time at or prior to the commencement of any annuity payments shall be equal to an accumulation up to such time at a rate of interest authorized by subsection (3) of this section of the net considerations, as defined in subsection (2) of this section, paid prior to such time, decreased by the following:

(A) The sum of any prior withdrawals from or partial surrenders of the contract accumulated at a rate of interest authorized by subsection (3) of this section;

(B) An annual contract charge of fifty dollars, accumulated at rates of interest authorized by subsection (3) of this section;

(C) The amount of any indebtedness to the company on the contract, including interest due and accrued.

(II) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2004, p. 818, § 2, effective July 1, 2004.)

(b) and (c) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2004, p. 818, § 2, effective July 1, 2004.)

(2) The net considerations for a given contract year used to define the minimum nonforfeiture amount shall be equal to eighty-seven and one-half percent of the gross considerations credited to the contract during such contract year.

(3) (a) The interest rate used to determine minimum nonforfeiture amounts shall be the lesser of the following:

(I) Three percent per annum; or

(II) If specified in the contract that the interest rate will reset, the five-year constant maturity treasury rate reported by the federal reserve as of a specified date or averaged over a period reduced by one hundred twenty-five basis points so long as:

(A) The rate is rounded to the nearest one-twentieth of one percent;

(B) The reset is specified in the contract to be no longer than fifteen months before the contract issue or redetermination date under sub-subparagraph (E) of this subparagraph (II);

(C) The resulting interest is not less than one percent;

(D) The interest rate applies for an initial period and may be redetermined for additional periods;

(E) Any redetermination date, basis, and period is stated in the contract; and

(F) The basis is the date or average over a specified period that produces the value of the five-year constant maturity treasury rate used at each redetermination date.

(b) During the period or term that a contract provides substantive participation in an equity indexed benefit, the contract may increase the reduction authorized in subparagraph (II) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (3) by an additional rate not to exceed one hundred basis points to reflect the value of the equity indexed benefit. The present value of the additional reduction at the contract issue date and at each redetermination date shall not exceed the market value of the benefit. The commissioner may disallow or limit the additional reduction.

(c) The commissioner may adopt rules to implement paragraph (b) of this subsection (3) and to provide further adjustments to the minimum forfeiture amounts for contracts that provide substantive participation in an equity indexed benefit and for other contracts for which the commissioner determines adjustments are justified.

10-7-505. Computation of annuity benefit. Any paid-up annuity benefit available under a contract shall be such that its present value on the date annuity payments are to commence is at least equal to the minimum nonforfeiture amount on that date. Such present value shall be computed using the mortality table, if any, and the interest rate specified in the contract for determining the minimum paid-up annuity benefits guaranteed in the contract.

10-7-506. Computation of cash surrender benefit. For contracts which provide cash surrender benefits, such cash surrender benefits available prior to maturity shall not be less than the present value as of the date of surrender of that portion of the maturity value of the paid-up annuity benefit which would be provided under the contract at maturity arising from considerations paid prior to the time of cash surrender reduced by the amount appropriate to reflect any prior withdrawals from or partial surrenders of the contract, such present value being calculated on the basis of an interest rate not more than one percent higher than the interest rate specified in the contract for accumulating the net considerations to determine such maturity value, decreased by the amount of any indebtedness to the company on the contract, including interest due and accrued, and increased by any existing additional amounts credited by the company to the contract. In no event shall any cash surrender benefit be less than the minimum nonforfeiture amount at the time of surrender. The death benefit under such contracts shall be at least equal to the cash surrender benefit.

10-7-507. Computation of paid-up annuity nonforfeiture benefit. (1) For contracts which do not provide cash surrender benefits, the present value of any paid-up annuity benefit available as a nonforfeiture option at any time prior to maturity shall not be less than the present value of that portion of the maturity value of the paid-up annuity benefit provided under the contract arising from considerations paid prior to the time the contract is surrendered in exchange for, or changed to, a deferred paid-up annuity, such present value being calculated for the period prior to the maturity date on the basis of the interest rate specified in the contract for accumulating the net considerations to determine such maturity value, and increased by any existing additional amounts credited by the company to the contract.

(2) For contracts which do not provide any death benefits prior to the commencement of any annuity payments, such present values shall be calculated on the basis of such interest rate and the mortality table specified in the contract for determining the maturity value of the paid-up annuity benefit. However, in no event shall the present value of a paid-up annuity benefit be less than the minimum nonforfeiture amount at the time of the insured's death.

10-7-508. Determination of maturity date. For the purpose of determining the benefits calculated under sections 10-7-506 and 10-7-507, in the case of annuity contracts under which an election may be made to have annuity payments commence at optional maturity dates, the maturity date shall be deemed to be the latest date for which election shall be permitted by the contract but shall not be deemed to be later than the anniversary of the contract next following the annuitant's seventieth birthday or the tenth anniversary of the contract, whichever is later.

10-7-509. Calculations of values - supplemental rules. (1) Any paid-up annuity, cash surrender, or death benefits available at any time, other than on the contract anniversary under any contract with fixed scheduled considerations, shall be calculated with allowance for the lapse of time and the payment of any scheduled considerations beyond the beginning of the contract year in which cessation of payment of considerations under the contract occurs.

(2) For any contract which provides, within the same contract by rider or supplemental contract provision, both annuity benefits and life insurance benefits that are in excess of the greater of cash surrender benefits or a return of the gross considerations with interest, the minimum nonforfeiture benefits shall be equal to the sum of the minimum nonforfeiture benefits for the annuity portion and the minimum nonforfeiture benefits, if any, for the life insurance portion computed as if each portion were a separate contract. Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 10-7-505 to 10-7-508 and subsection (1) of this section, additional benefits payable in the event of total and permanent disability, as reversionary annuity or deferred reversionary annuity benefits, or as other policy benefits additional to life insurance, endowment, and annuity benefits, and considerations for all such additional benefits, shall be disregarded in ascertaining the minimum nonforfeiture amounts and paid-up annuity, cash surrender, and death benefits that may be required by this part 5. The inclusion of such additional benefits shall not be required in any paid-up benefits, unless additional benefits separately would require minimum nonforfeiture amounts and paid-up annuity, cash surrender, and death benefits.

10-7-510. Effective date - applicability of part. On or after July 1, 2004, a company may elect to apply this part 5 to annuity contracts on a contract form-by-contract form basis. Otherwise, this part 5 shall apply to all annuity contracts created on or after July 1, 2005, and between July 1, 2004, and July 1, 2005, this part 5 as it existed on June 30, 2004, shall apply to all other annuity contracts.

PART 6

VIATICAL SETTLEMENTS

10-7-601. Short title. This part 6 shall be known and may be cited as the “Viatical Settlements Act”.

Source: L. 2005: Entire part added, p. 1293, § 1, effective January 1, 2006.

10-7-602. Definitions. As used in this part 6, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) “Advertising” means any written, electronic, or printed communication or any communication by means of recorded telephone messages or transmitted on radio, television, the internet, or similar communications media, including film strips, motion pictures, and videos, published, disseminated, circulated, or placed directly before the public in this state for the purpose of creating an interest in or inducing a person to sell, assign, devise, bequest, or transfer the death benefit or ownership of a policy pursuant to a viatical settlement contract.

(2) “Business of viatical settlements” means an activity that involves, but is not necessarily limited to, the offering, solicitation, negotiation, procurement, effectuation, purchasing, investing, financing, monitoring, tracking, underwriting, selling, transferring, assigning, pledging, or hypothecating of viatical settlement contracts.

(3) “Chronically ill”, with reference to an individual, means that the individual:

(a) Suffers from a disease or disability that prevents the individual from independently performing two or more routine but necessary activities of daily living, which activities include, without limitation, eating, toileting, transferring, bathing, dressing, or continence;

(b) Requires substantial supervision to protect the individual from threats to health and safety due to severe cognitive impairment; or

(c) Has a level of disability similar to that described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (3), as determined by the federal department of health and human services.

(4) (a) "Financing entity" means an underwriter, placement agent, lender, purchaser of securities, purchaser of a policy or certificate from a viatical settlement provider, credit enhancer, or entity that has a direct ownership in a policy that is the subject of a viatical settlement contract, and:

(I) Whose principal activity related to the transaction is providing funds to effect the viatical settlement or purchase of one or more viaticated policies; and

(II) Who has an agreement in writing with one or more licensed viatical settlement providers to finance the acquisition of viatical settlement contracts or to provide stop-loss insurance.

(b) "Financing entity" does not include a nonaccredited investor.

(5) "Fraudulent viatical settlement act" includes:

(a) An act or omission by a person who, knowingly or with intent to defraud, for the purpose of depriving another of property or for pecuniary gain, commits or engages in, or permits its employees or agents to commit or engage in, acts including:

(I) Presenting, causing to be presented, or preparing with knowledge or belief that it will be presented to or by a viatical settlement provider, financing entity, insurer, insurance producer, or other person, false material information, or concealing material information, as part of, in support of, or concerning a fact material to one or more of the following:

(A) An application for the issuance of a viatical settlement contract or policy;

(B) The underwriting of a viatical settlement contract or policy;

(C) A claim for payment or benefit pursuant to a viatical settlement contract or policy;

(D) Premiums paid on a policy;

(E) Payments and changes in ownership or beneficiary made in accordance with the terms of a viatical settlement contract or policy;

(F) The reinstatement or conversion of a policy;

(G) The solicitation, offer, effectuation, or sale of a viatical settlement contract or policy;

(H) The issuance of written evidence of a viatical settlement contract or policy; or

(I) A financing transaction;

(II) Employing any device, scheme, or artifice to defraud related to viaticated policies;

(b) In the furtherance of a fraud or to prevent the detection of a fraud a person commits or permits its employees or agents to:

(I) Remove, conceal, alter, destroy, or sequester from the commissioner the assets or records of a licensee or other person engaged in the business of viatical settlements;

(II) Misrepresent or conceal the financial condition of a licensee, financing entity, insurer, or other person;

(III) Transact the business of viatical settlements in violation of laws requiring a license, certificate of authority, or other legal authority for the transaction of the business of viatical settlements; or

(IV) File with the commissioner or the chief insurance regulatory official of another jurisdiction a document containing false information or otherwise conceal information about a material fact from the commissioner;

(c) Embezzlement, theft, misappropriation, or conversion of moneys, funds, premiums, credits, or other property of a viatical settlement provider, life insurance producer, insurer, insured, viator, policyowner, or other person engaged in the business of viatical settlements or insurance;

(d) Recklessly entering into, negotiating, or otherwise dealing in a viatical settlement contract, the subject of which is a policy that was obtained by presenting false information concerning a fact material to the policy, or by concealing, for the purpose of misleading another, information concerning a fact material to the policy, where the viator or the viator's agent intended to defraud the insurance company that issued the policy. "Recklessly" means engaging in the conduct in conscious and clearly unjustifiable disregard of a substantial likelihood of the existence of the relevant facts or risks, when such disregard involves a gross deviation from acceptable standards of conduct.

(e) Attempting to commit, assist, aid or abet in the commission of, or conspiracy to commit, the acts or omissions specified in this subsection (5).

(6) "Life insurance producer" means a person licensed as a resident or nonresident insurance producer pursuant to article 2 of this title who has received qualification for life insurance coverage or a life line of coverage pursuant to section 10-2-407 (1) (a).

(7) "NAIC" means the national association of insurance commissioners or any analogous successor organization.

(8) "Person" means a natural person or a legal entity including, but not limited to, an individual, partnership, limited liability company, association, trust, or corporation.

(9) "Policy" means an individual or group policy, group certificate, contract, or arrangement of life insurance affecting the rights of a resident of this state or bearing a reasonable relation to this state, regardless of whether delivered or issued for delivery in this state.

(10) "Related provider trust" means a titling trust or other trust established by a licensed viatical settlement provider or a financing entity for the sole purpose of holding the ownership or beneficial interest in viaticated policies in connection with a financing transaction. The trust shall have a written agreement with the licensed viatical settlement provider under which the licensed viatical settlement provider is responsible for ensuring compliance with all statutory and regulatory requirements and under which the trust agrees to make all records and files related to viatical settlement transactions available to the commissioner as if those records and files were maintained directly by the licensed viatical settlement provider.

(11) "Special purpose entity" means a corporation, partnership, trust, limited liability company, or other similar entity formed only to provide, either directly or indirectly, access to institutional capital markets for a financing entity or licensed viatical settlement provider.

(12) "Terminally ill" means having an illness or sickness that is reasonably expected to result in death in twenty-four months or less.

(13) "Viatical settlement contract" means a written agreement establishing the terms under which compensation or anything of value is paid, which compensation or value is less than the expected death benefit of the policy, in return for the viator's assignment, transfer, sale, devise, or bequest of the death benefit or ownership of any portion of the policy. "Viatical settlement contract" includes a contract for a loan or other financing transaction with a viator secured primarily by an individual or group life insurance policy, other than a loan by a life insurance company pursuant to the terms of the policy, or a loan secured by the cash value of a policy. "Viatical settlement contract" also includes an agreement with a viator to transfer ownership or change the beneficiary designation at a later date regardless of the date that compensation is paid to the viator. "Viatical settlement contract" does not mean a written agreement entered into between a viator and a person having an insurable interest in the insured's life.

(14) "Viatical settlement provider" means a person, other than a viator, who enters into or effectuates a viatical settlement contract. "Viatical settlement provider" does not include:

(a) A bank, savings bank, savings and loan association, credit union, or other licensed lending institution that takes an assignment of a policy as collateral for a loan;

(b) The issuer of a policy providing accelerated benefits pursuant to the policy;

(c) An authorized or eligible insurer that provides stop-loss coverage to a viatical settlement provider, financing entity, special purpose entity, or related provider trust;

(d) A natural person who enters into or effectuates no more than one agreement in a calendar year for the transfer of policies for any value less than the expected death benefit;

(e) A financing entity;

(f) A special purpose entity;

(g) A related provider trust; or

(h) An accredited investor or qualified institutional buyer as defined, respectively, in regulation D, rule 501, or rule 144A of the federal "Securities Act of 1933", as amended, who purchases a viaticated policy from a viatical settlement provider.

(15) "Viaticated policy" means a policy that has been acquired by a viatical settlement provider pursuant to a viatical settlement contract.

(16) “Viator” means the owner of a policy who is a resident of this state and who enters or seeks to enter into a viatical settlement contract. For the purposes of this part 6, a viator is not limited to an owner of a policy insuring the life of an individual with a terminal or chronic illness or condition except where specifically addressed. If there is more than one owner on a single policy and the owners are residents of different states, the transaction shall be governed by the law of the state in which the owner having the largest percentage ownership resides or, if the owners hold equal ownership, the state of residence of one owner agreed upon in writing by all owners. “Viator” does not include:

- (a) A licensee as provided by this part 6, including a life insurance producer;
- (b) An accredited investor or qualified institutional buyer as defined, respectively, in regulation D, rule 501, or rule 144A of the federal “Securities Act of 1933”, as amended;
- (c) A financing entity;
- (d) A special purpose entity; or
- (e) A related provider trust.

Source: L. 2005: Entire part added, p. 1293, § 1, effective January 1, 2006.

10-7-603. Licensing. (1) (a) No person shall act on behalf of a viator or otherwise negotiate, as defined in section 10-2-103 (7.9), viatical settlement contracts between a viator and one or more viatical settlement providers unless such person is a life insurance producer and has been licensed as a resident producer with a life line of authority in his or her home state for at least one year.

(b) Not later than thirty days after the first day of negotiating a viatical settlement on behalf of a viator, the life insurance producer shall notify the commissioner of the activity on a form prescribed by the commissioner, and shall pay an applicable fee to be determined by the commissioner by rule. Notification shall include an acknowledgment by the life insurance producer that he or she will operate in accordance with this part 6.

(c) Irrespective of the manner in which the life insurance producer is compensated, a life insurance producer is deemed to represent only the viator, and the insurer that issued the policy being viaticated shall not be responsible for any act or omission of a life insurance producer or viatical settlement provider arising out of or in connection with the viatical settlement transaction, unless the insurer receives compensation from the viatical settlement provider or life insurance producer for the viatical settlement contract.

(d) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subsection (1), a person licensed as an attorney, certified public accountant, or financial planner accredited by a nationally recognized accreditation agency, who is retained to represent the viator and whose compensation is not paid directly or indirectly by the viatical settlement provider may negotiate viatical settlement contracts without having to obtain a license as a life insurance producer.

(2) (a) No person may operate as a viatical settlement provider without first obtaining a viatical settlement provider license from the commissioner.

(b) Application for a viatical settlement provider license shall be made to the commissioner on a form prescribed by the commissioner, and an application shall be accompanied by a fee to be determined by the commissioner by rule.

(c) A license may be renewed from year to year, on the anniversary date of initial issuance, upon payment of an annual renewal fee as determined by the commissioner by rule. Failure to pay the fee by the renewal date shall result in expiration of the license.

(d) The applicant for a viatical settlement provider license shall provide information on forms prescribed by the commissioner. The commissioner may, at any time, require the applicant to fully disclose the identity of all stockholders, partners, officers, members, and employees, except stockholders owning fewer than five percent of the shares of an applicant whose shares are publicly traded, and the commissioner may refuse to issue a license in the name of a legal entity if not satisfied that any officer, employee, stockholder, partner, or member of the entity who may materially influence the entity’s conduct meets the standards of this article.

(e) A license issued to a legal entity authorizes all partners, officers, members, and designated employees to act as viatical settlement providers, as applicable, under the license, if all of those persons are named in the application and any supplements to the application.

(f) Upon the filing of an application and the payment of the license fee, the commissioner shall make an investigation of each applicant and issue a license if the commissioner finds that the applicant:

(I) Has provided a detailed plan of operation;

(II) Is competent and trustworthy and intends to act in good faith in the capacity involved by the license for which an application was submitted;

(III) Has a good business reputation and has had experience, training, or education so as to be qualified in the business for the license for which an application was submitted;

(IV) If a legal entity, provides a certificate of good standing from the state of its domicile; and

(V) Has provided an anti-fraud plan that meets the requirements of this part 6.

(g) The commissioner may not issue a license to a nonresident applicant unless a written designation of an agent for service of process is filed and maintained with the commissioner or unless the applicant has filed with the commissioner the applicant's written, irrevocable consent that any action against the applicant may be commenced against the applicant by service of process on the commissioner.

(h) A viatical settlement provider shall provide to the commissioner new or revised information about officers, stockholders who own ten percent or more of the provider's stock, and all partners, directors, members, and designated employees within thirty days after the change.

Source: L. 2005: Entire part added, p. 1298, § 1, effective January 1, 2006.

10-7-604. Licensure - refusal to issue - suspension - revocation - refusal to renew.

(1) The commissioner shall refuse to issue, suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew the license of a viatical settlement provider if the commissioner finds after compliance with subsection (3) of this section that:

(a) There was any material misrepresentation in the application for the license;

(b) The licensee or any of its officers, partners, members, or key management personnel has been convicted of fraudulent or dishonest practices, is subject to a final administrative action, or is otherwise shown to be untrustworthy or incompetent;

(c) The licensee demonstrates a pattern of unreasonable payments to viators;

(d) The licensee or any of its officers, partners, members, or key management personnel has been found guilty of, or has pleaded guilty or nolo contendere to, any felony, or to a misdemeanor involving fraud or moral turpitude, regardless of whether a judgment or conviction has been entered by the court;

(e) The licensee has entered into any viatical settlement contract that has not been approved pursuant to this part 6;

(f) The licensee has failed to honor contractual obligations set out in a viatical settlement contract;

(g) The licensee no longer meets the requirements for initial licensure;

(h) The licensee has assigned, transferred, or pledged a viaticated policy to a person other than a viatical settlement provider licensed in this state; an accredited investor or qualified institutional buyer as defined, respectively, in regulation D, rule 501, or rule 144A of the federal "Securities Act of 1933", as amended; a financing entity; a special purpose entity; or a related provider trust; or

(i) The applicant or licensee or any of its officers, partners, members, or key management personnel, or any life insurance producer acting on behalf of the applicant or licensee, has violated this part 6.

(2) The commissioner may suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew the license of a life insurance producer if the commissioner finds that such life insurance producer has violated this part 6.

(3) If the commissioner denies a license application or suspends, revokes, or refuses to renew the license of a viatical settlement provider, or suspends, revokes, or refuses to renew the license of a life insurance producer, the commissioner shall conduct a hearing in accordance with the "State Administrative Procedure Act", article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., and may use a hearing officer pursuant to section 10-1-127.

10-7-605. Forms approval. A person may not use a viatical settlement contract or provide to a viator a disclosure statement form in this state unless such contract or form is first filed with and approved by the commissioner. Any settlement contract form or disclosure form filed with the commissioner shall be deemed approved if it has not been disapproved within sixty days after the filing. The commissioner shall disapprove a viatical settlement contract form or disclosure statement form if, in the commissioner's opinion, the contract or provisions contained in it are unreasonable, contrary to the interests of the public, or misleading or unfair to the viator.

10-7-606. Annual reports. (1) Each viatical settlement provider shall file with the commissioner by March 1 of each year an annual statement containing such information as the commissioner prescribes by rule. This information is limited to only those transactions in which the viator is a resident of this state and does not include individual transaction data regarding the business of viatical settlements or data that compromises the privacy of personal, financial, or health information of the viator or insured.

(2) Except as otherwise allowed or required by law, a viatical settlement provider, life insurance producer, information bureau, rating agency or company, or other person with actual knowledge of a viator or insured's identity may not disclose that identity as a viator or insured or the viator's or insured's financial or medical information to another person unless the disclosure is:

(a) (I) Necessary to effect a viatical settlement contract between the viator and a viatical settlement provider; and

(II) The viator or insured or both, as may be required, have provided prior written consent to the disclosure;

(b) Provided in response to an investigation or examination by the commissioner or another governmental officer or agency or pursuant to this article;

(c) A term of or condition to the transfer of a policy by one viatical settlement provider to another viatical settlement provider;

(d) Necessary to permit a financing entity, related provider trust, or special purpose entity to finance the purchase of policies by a viatical settlement provider and the viator and insured have provided prior written consent to the disclosure;

(e) Necessary to allow the viatical settlement provider or its authorized representative to make contacts for the purpose of determining health status; or

(f) Required to purchase stop-loss coverage.

10-7-607. Examinations. (1) Authority, scope, and scheduling of examinations. (a) The commissioner may conduct an examination under this part 6 of a licensee as often as the commissioner in his or her sole discretion deems appropriate.

(b) For purposes of completing an examination of a licensee under this part 6, the commissioner may examine or investigate any person, or the business of any person, in so far as the examination or investigation is, in the sole discretion of the commissioner, necessary or material to the examination of the licensee.

(c) In lieu of an examination under this part 6 of any foreign or alien licensee licensed in this state, the commissioner may, at the commissioner's discretion, accept an examination report on the licensee as prepared by the commissioner for the licensee's state of domicile or port-of-entry state.

(2) Record retention requirements. (a) A person required to be licensed under this part 6 shall for five years retain copies of all:

(I) Proposed, offered, or executed contracts, underwriting documents, policy forms, and applications from the date of the proposal, offer, or execution of the contract, whichever is later;

(II) Checks, drafts, or other evidence and documentation related to the payment, transfer, deposit, or release of moneys from the date of the transaction; and

(III) Other records and documents related to the requirements of this part 6.

(b) This section does not relieve a person of the obligation to produce the documents listed in paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) to the commissioner after the retention period has expired if the person has retained the documents.

(c) Records required to be retained by this subsection (2) shall be legible and complete and may be retained in paper, photograph, microprocess, magnetic, mechanical, or electronic media, or by any process that accurately reproduces or forms a durable medium for the reproduction of a record.

(3) Conduct of examinations. (a) Upon determining that an examination should be conducted, the commissioner shall issue an examination warrant appointing one or more examiners to perform the examination and instructing the examiner as to the scope of the examination. In conducting the examination, the examiner shall observe those guidelines and procedures set forth in the examiner's handbook adopted by the NAIC. The commissioner may also employ such other guidelines or procedures as the commissioner may deem appropriate.

(b) Every licensee or person from whom information is sought, and its officers, directors, and agents, shall provide to the examiners timely, convenient, and free access at all reasonable hours at its offices to all books, records, accounts, papers, documents, assets, and computer or other recordings relating to the property, assets, business, and affairs of the licensee being examined. The officers, directors, employees, and agents of the licensee or person shall facilitate the examination and aid in the examination so far as it is in their power to do so. The refusal of a licensee, by its officers, directors, employees, or agents, to submit to examination or to comply with any reasonable written request of the commissioner shall be grounds for suspension, refusal, or nonrenewal of any license or authority held by the licensee to engage in the viatical settlement business or other business subject to the commissioner's jurisdiction. Any proceedings for suspension, revocation, or refusal of any license or authority shall be conducted pursuant to the "State Administrative Procedure Act", article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

(c) The commissioner shall have the power to issue subpoenas, to administer oaths, and to examine under oath any person as to any matter pertinent to the examination. Upon the failure or refusal of a person to obey a subpoena, the commissioner may petition a court of competent jurisdiction and, upon proper showing, the court may enter an order compelling the witness to appear and testify or produce documentary evidence. Failure to obey the court order shall be punishable as contempt of court.

(d) When making an examination under this part 6, the commissioner may retain attorneys, appraisers, independent actuaries, independent certified public accountants, or other professionals and specialists as examiners. The reasonable cost of such examiners' services shall be borne by the licensee that is the subject of the examination.

(e) Nothing contained in this part 6 shall be construed to limit the commissioner's authority to terminate or suspend an examination in order to pursue other legal or regulatory action pursuant to the insurance laws of this state. Findings of fact and conclusions made pursuant to any examination shall be prima facie evidence in any legal or regulatory action.

(f) Nothing contained in this part 6 shall be construed to limit the commissioner's authority to use and, if appropriate, to make public any final or preliminary examination report, any examiner or licensee workpapers or other documents, or any other information discovered or developed during the course of any examination in the furtherance of any legal or regulatory action that the commissioner may, in his or her sole discretion, deem appropriate.

(g) The licensee shall pay the charges incurred in the examination, including the expenses of the commissioner or the commissioner's designee and the expenses and compensation of the commissioner's examiners and assistants. If a licensee believes that the fees assessed are unreasonable in relation to the examination performed, the licensee may appeal the assessments to and seek judicial review by the district court in and for the city and county of Denver pursuant to the "State Administrative Procedure Act", article 4 of title 24, C.R.S. If no hearing is requested or, if after a hearing and appeal process, the licensee refuses or fails to pay, the commissioner or his designee shall promptly institute a civil action against the licensee to recover the expenses of examination.

(4) Examination reports. (a) Examination reports shall consist only of facts appearing upon the books, records, or other documents of the licensee, its agents, or other persons examined, or as ascertained from the testimony of its officers or agents or other persons examined concerning its affairs, and such conclusions and recommendations as the examiners find reasonably warranted from the facts.

(b) No later than sixty days following completion of the examination, the examiner in charge shall file with the commissioner a verified written report of examination under oath. Upon receipt of the verified report, the commissioner shall transmit the report to the licensee examined, together with a notice that shall afford the licensee examined a reasonable opportunity of not more than thirty days to make a written submission or rebuttal with respect to any matters contained in the examination report.

(c) Within thirty days after the end of the period allowed for the receipt of written submissions or rebuttals, the commissioner shall fully consider and review the report, together with any written submissions or rebuttals and any relevant portions of the examiner's workpapers, and enter an order:

(I) Adopting the examination report as filed or with modification or corrections. If the examination report reveals that the licensee is operating in violation of any law, rule, or prior order of the commissioner, the commissioner may order the licensee to take any action the commissioner considers necessary and appropriate to cure the violation.

(II) Rejecting the examination report with directions to the examiners to reopen the examination for purposes of obtaining additional data, documentation, or information and refiling; or

(III) Calling for an investigatory hearing with no less than twenty days' notice to the licensee for purposes of obtaining additional documentation, data, information, and testimony.

(d) All orders entered pursuant to this subsection (4) shall be accompanied by findings and conclusions resulting from the commissioner's consideration and review of the examination report, the relevant examiner workpapers, and any written submissions or rebuttals. Any examination warrant issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection (3) of this section shall be considered a final administrative decision, review of which may be sought in the district court in and for the city and county of Denver pursuant to the "State Administrative Procedure Act", article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., and shall be served upon the licensee by certified mail together with a copy of the adopted examination report. Within thirty days after the issuance of the adopted report, the licensee shall file affidavits executed by each of its directors stating under oath that they have received a copy of the adopted report and related orders.

(e) Hearings conducted pursuant to this section shall be subject to the following requirements:

(I) Any hearing conducted pursuant to this section by the commissioner or the commissioner's authorized representative shall be conducted as a nonadversarial, confidential investigatory proceeding as necessary for the resolution of any inconsistencies, discrepancies, or disputed issues apparent upon the face of the filed examination report or raised by or as a result of the commissioner's review of relevant workpapers or by the written submission or rebuttal of the licensee. Within twenty days after the conclusion of any hearing, the commissioner shall enter an order pursuant to subparagraph (I) of paragraph (c) of this subsection (4).

(II) The commissioner shall not appoint an examiner as an authorized representative to conduct the hearing. The hearing shall proceed expeditiously, with discovery by the licensee limited to the examiner's workpapers that tend to substantiate any assertions set forth in any written submission or rebuttal. The commissioner or the commissioner's representative may issue subpoenas for the attendance of any witnesses or the production of any documents considered relevant to the investigation, whether under the control of the commissioner, the company, or other persons. The documents produced shall be included in the record, and testimony taken by the commissioner or the commissioner's representative shall be under oath and preserved for the record. Nothing contained in this section shall require the commissioner to disclose any information or records that would indicate or show the existence or content of any investigation or activity of a criminal justice agency.

(III) The hearing shall proceed with the commissioner or the commissioner's representative posing questions to the persons subpoenaed. Thereafter, the licensee and the division may present testimony relevant to the investigation. Cross-examination may be conducted only by the commissioner or the commissioner's representative. The licensee and the commissioner shall be permitted to make closing statements and may be represented by counsel of their choice.

(f) If the commissioner determines that regulatory action is appropriate as a result of an examination, the commissioner may initiate any proceedings or actions provided by law.

(g) No provision of this part 6 shall prevent or be construed as prohibiting the commissioner from disclosing the content of an examination report, a preliminary examination report or its results, or any related matter to the insurance division of this or any other state or country, to law enforcement officials of this or any other state, or to any agency of the federal government at any time, subject to the written agreement of the recipient to hold such information confidential and to treat it in a manner consistent with this part 6.

(5) Confidentiality of examination information. (a) Names and individual identification data for all viators shall be considered private and confidential information and shall not be disclosed by the commissioner unless required by law.

(b) (I) Except as otherwise provided in this part 6, all examination reports, working papers, recorded information, and documents, and copies thereof, produced by, obtained by, or disclosed to the commissioner or any other person in the course of an examination made under this part 6, or in the course of analysis or investigation by the commissioner of the financial condition or market conduct of a licensee, are:

(A) Confidential by law and privileged;

(B) Not subject to article 72 of title 24, C.R.S.;

(C) Not subject to subpoena; and

(D) Not subject to discovery or admissible in evidence in any private civil action.

(II) The commissioner is authorized to use the documents, materials, or other information described in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (b) in the furtherance of any regulatory or legal action brought as part of the commissioner's official duties.

(III) For the purposes of this paragraph (b), "this part 6" includes the law of another state or jurisdiction that is substantially similar to this part 6.

(c) Documents, materials, or other information, including, but not limited to, all working papers and copies thereof in the possession or control of the NAIC and its affiliates and subsidiaries are:

(I) Confidential by law and privileged;

(II) Not subject to subpoena; and

(III) Not subject to discovery or admissible in evidence in any private civil action if they are:

(A) Created, produced, or obtained by or disclosed to the NAIC and its affiliates and subsidiaries in the course of assisting an examination made under this part 6, or assisting the commissioner in the analysis or investigation of the financial condition or market conduct of a licensee; or

(B) Disclosed to the NAIC or its affiliates and subsidiaries under paragraph (d) of this subsection (5) by the commissioner.

(d) The commissioner or any person that received the documents, material, or other information while acting under the authority of the commissioner, including the NAIC and its affiliates and subsidiaries, is permitted to testify in any private civil action concerning any confidential documents, materials, or information subject to paragraph (a) of this subsection (5).

(e) In order to assist in the performance of the commissioner's duties, the commissioner:

(I) May share documents, materials, or other information, including the confidential and privileged documents, materials, or information subject to paragraph (a) of this subsection (5), with other state, federal, and international regulatory agencies, with the NAIC and its affiliates and subsidiaries, and with state, federal, and international law enforcement authorities if the recipient agrees to maintain the confidentiality and privileged status of the document, material, communication, or other information;

(II) May receive documents, materials, communications, or information, including otherwise confidential and privileged documents, materials, or information, from the NAIC and its affiliates and subsidiaries, and from regulatory and law enforcement officials of other foreign or domestic jurisdictions, and shall maintain as confidential or privileged any document, material, or information received with notice or the understanding that it is confidential or privileged under the laws of the jurisdiction that is the source of the document, material, or information; and

(III) May enter into agreements governing the sharing and use of information consistent with this subsection (5).

(f) No waiver of any applicable privilege or claim of confidentiality in the documents, materials, or information shall occur as a result of disclosure to the commissioner under this section or as a result of sharing as authorized in paragraph (e) of this subsection (5).

(g) A privilege established under the law of any state or jurisdiction that is substantially similar to the privilege established under this subsection (5) shall be available and enforced in any proceeding in, and in any court of, this state.

(h) Nothing contained in this part 6 shall prevent or be construed as prohibiting the commissioner from disclosing the content of an examination report, a preliminary examination report or its results, or any related matter to the commissioner of any other state or country, to law enforcement officials of this or any other state or agency of the federal government at any time, or to the NAIC, if the person receiving the report or matters relating thereto agrees in writing to hold it confidential and in a manner consistent with this part 6.

(i) Nothing in this part 6 shall immunize a party who discloses information to the commissioner from disclosing that information pursuant to an independent inquiry or restrict the admissibility of such independently obtained information.

(6) Conflict of interest. (a) An examiner may not be appointed by the commissioner if the examiner, either directly or indirectly, has a conflict of interest or is affiliated with the management of, or owns a pecuniary interest in, any person subject to examination under this part 6. This section shall not be construed to automatically preclude an examiner from being:

(I) A viator;

(II) An insured in a viaticated policy; or

(III) A beneficiary in an insurance policy that is proposed to be the subject of a viatical settlement contract.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of paragraph (a) of this subsection (6) to the contrary, the commissioner may retain from time to time, on an individual basis, qualified actuaries, certified public accountants, or other similar individuals who are independently practicing their professions, even though these persons may from time to time be similarly employed or retained by persons subject to examination under provisions of this part 6.

(7) Cost of examinations. The expenses incurred in conducting any examination shall be paid by the licensee or applicant.

(8) Immunity from liability. (a) No cause of action shall arise nor shall any liability be imposed against the commissioner, the commissioner's authorized representatives, or any examiner appointed by the commissioner for any statements made or conduct performed in good faith while carrying out the provisions of this part 6.

(b) No cause of action shall arise from, nor shall any liability be imposed against any person for, the act of communicating or delivering information or data to the commissioner, the commissioner's authorized representative, or an examiner pursuant to an examination made under this part 6, if the act of communication or delivery was performed in good faith and without fraudulent intent or the intent to deceive. This paragraph (b) does not abrogate or modify in any way any common law or statutory privilege or immunity enjoyed by any person identified in paragraph (a) of this subsection (8).

(c) A person identified in paragraph (a) or (b) of this subsection (8) shall be entitled to an award of attorney fees and costs if he or she is the prevailing party in a civil cause of action for libel, slander, or any other relevant tort arising out of activities in carrying out the provisions of this part 6, and the party bringing the action was not substantially justified in doing so. For purposes of this paragraph (c), a proceeding is substantially justified if it had a reasonable basis in law or fact at the time that it was initiated.

(9) Investigative authority of the commissioner. The commissioner may investigate suspected fraudulent viatical settlement acts and persons engaged in the business of viatical settlements.

10-7-608. Disclosures. (1) With each application for a viatical settlement contract, a viatical settlement provider or life insurance producer shall provide the viator with at least the following information, in a separate document signed by the viator and the viatical settlement provider or life insurance producer, no later than the time the application for the viatical settlement contract is signed by all parties:

(a) That there exist possible alternatives to a viatical settlement contract, including any accelerated death benefits or policy loans offered under the viator's life insurance policy;

(b) That some or all of the proceeds of the viatical settlement contract may be taxable under federal income tax and state franchise and income taxes, and assistance may be sought from a professional tax advisor;

(c) That proceeds of the viatical settlement contract may be subject to the claims of creditors;

(d) That receipt of the proceeds of a viatical settlement contract may adversely affect the viator's eligibility for medicaid or other government benefits or entitlements, and advice may be obtained from the appropriate government agencies;

(e) That the viator has the right to rescind a viatical settlement contract before the earlier of thirty calendar days after the date upon which the viatical settlement contract is executed by all parties or fifteen calendar days after the receipt of the viatical settlement proceeds by the viator. Rescission, if exercised by the viator, is effective only if both notice of the rescission is given and repayment of all proceeds and any premiums, loans, and loan interest to the viatical settlement provider is made within forty-five days after the end of the rescission period. If the insured dies during the rescission period, the viatical settlement contract is deemed to have been rescinded, subject to repayment of all viatical settlement proceeds and any premiums, loans, and loan interest being made to the viatical settlement provider within the rescission period.

(f) That funds must be sent to the viator within three business days after the viatical settlement provider has received the insurer's or group administrator's acknowledgment that ownership of the viaticated policy has been transferred and the beneficiary has been designated;

(g) That entering into a viatical settlement contract may cause other rights or benefits, including conversion rights and waiver of premium benefits that may exist under the policy, to be forfeited by the viator, and that the viator may seek assistance from an independent financial adviser;

(h) The following statement: "All medical, financial, or personal information solicited or obtained by a viatical settlement provider or a life insurance producer about an insured, including the insured's identity or the identity of family members, a spouse, or a significant other, may be disclosed as necessary to effect the viatical settlement contract between the viator and the viatical settlement provider. If you are asked to provide this information, you will be asked to consent to the disclosure. The information may be provided to someone who buys the policy or provides funds for the purchase. You may be asked to renew your permission to share information every two years."

(i) That the insured may be contacted by either the viatical settlement provider or its authorized representative for the purpose of determining the insured's health status. This contact is limited to once every three months if the insured has a life expectancy of more than one year, and no more than once each month if the insured has a life expectancy of one year or less.

(2) In addition to the information described in subsection (1) of this section, the disclosure to a viator shall include distribution of a brochure, approved by the commissioner, describing the process of viatical settlements.

(3) No later than the date the viatical settlement contract is signed by all parties, the viatical settlement provider shall provide the viator with at least the following information, displayed conspicuously in the viatical settlement contract or in a separate document signed by the viator and the viatical settlement provider:

(a) The affiliation, if any, between the viatical settlement provider and the issuer of the insurance policy to be acquired pursuant to the viatical settlement contract;

(b) The name, address, and telephone number of the viatical settlement provider;

(c) If a policy to be acquired pursuant to a viatical settlement contract has been issued as a joint policy or involves family riders or any coverage of a life other than the insured under the policy to be acquired pursuant to a viatical settlement contract, the viator shall be informed of the possible loss of coverage on the other lives under the policy and advised to consult with his or her insurance producer or the insurer issuing the policy for advice on the proposed viatical settlement contract;

(d) The dollar amount of the current death benefit payable to the viatical settlement provider under the policy. If known, the viatical settlement provider shall also disclose the availability of additional guaranteed insurance benefits, the dollar amount of accidental death and dismemberment benefits under the policy or certificate, and the viatical settlement provider's interest in those benefits.

(e) The name, business address, and telephone number of the independent third-party escrow agent, and the fact that the viator may inspect or receive copies of the relevant escrow or trust agreements or documents.

(4) If the viatical settlement provider transfers ownership or changes the beneficiary of the policy, the viatical settlement provider shall communicate the change in ownership or beneficiary to the insured within twenty days after the change.

Source: L. 2005: Entire part added, p. 1309, § 1, effective January 1, 2006.

10-7-609. General requirements. (1) (a) A viatical settlement provider entering into a viatical settlement contract shall first obtain:

(I) If the viator is the insured, a written statement from a licensed attending physician that the viator is of sound mind and under no constraint or undue influence to enter into a viatical settlement contract; and

(II) A document in which the insured consents to the release of his or her medical records to a viatical settlement provider or insurance producer and, if the policy was issued less than two years after the date of application for a viatical settlement contract, to the insurance company that issued the policy.

(b) The insurer shall respond to a request for verification of coverage submitted by a viatical settlement provider or life insurance producer not later than thirty calendar days after the date the request is postmarked. The request for verification of coverage shall be made on a form approved by the commissioner. The insurer shall complete and issue the verification of coverage or indicate in which respects it is unable to respond.

(c) Before or at the time of execution of the viatical settlement contract, the viatical settlement provider shall obtain a witnessed document in which the viator consents to the viatical settlement contract, represents that the viator has a full and complete understanding of the viatical settlement contract, acknowledges that the viator has a full and complete understanding of the benefits of the policy, acknowledges that the viator is entering into the viatical settlement contract freely and voluntarily, and, for persons with a terminal or chronic illness or condition, acknowledges that the insured has a terminal or chronic illness and that the terminal or chronic illness or condition was diagnosed after the policy was issued.

(d) If a life insurance producer performs any of the activities required of the viatical settlement provider by this subsection (1), the viatical settlement provider is deemed to have fulfilled the requirements of this section.

(2) Medical information solicited or obtained by a licensee is subject to the applicable provisions of state law relating to confidentiality of medical or protected health information.

(3) A viatical settlement contract entered into in this state shall provide the viator with an unconditional right to rescind the contract before the earlier of thirty calendar days after the date when the viatical settlement contract is executed by all parties or fifteen calendar days after the receipt of the viatical settlement proceeds by the viator. Rescission, if exercised by the viator, is effective only if both notice of the rescission is given and repayment of all proceeds and any premiums, loans, and loan interest to the viatical settlement provider is made within the rescission period. If the insured dies during the rescission period, the viatical settlement contract shall be deemed to have been rescinded if repayment of all viatical settlement proceeds and any premiums, loans, and loan interest to the viatical settlement provider is made within forty-five days after the end of the rescission period.

(4) The viatical settlement provider shall instruct the viator to send the executed documents required to effect the change in ownership, assignment, or beneficiary directly to an independent escrow agent. If the viator erroneously provides the documents directly to the viatical settlement provider, the viatical settlement provider shall immediately notify the escrow agent and shall pay or transfer the proceeds of the viatical settlement contract into an escrow or trust account maintained in a state or federally chartered financial institution whose deposits are insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation within three business days after the date the escrow agent receives the documents, or after the date the viatical settlement provider receives the documents. Upon payment of the viatical settlement proceeds into the escrow account, the escrow agent shall deliver the original change in ownership, assignment, or beneficiary forms to the viatical settlement provider or related provider trust. Upon the escrow agent's receipt of the acknowledgment of the properly completed transfer of ownership, assignment, or designation of beneficiary from the insurance company, the escrow agent shall pay the viatical settlement proceeds to the viator.

(5) Failure to tender consideration to the viator for the viatical settlement contract within the time required renders the viatical settlement contract voidable by the viator for lack of consideration until consideration is tendered to and accepted by the viator.

(6) A contact with the insured, for the purpose of determining the health status of the insured by the viatical settlement provider after the viatical settlement contract has been executed, may be made only by the licensed viatical settlement provider or its authorized representatives and is limited to once every three months for insureds with a life expectancy of more than one year, and not more than once each month for insureds with a life expectancy of one year or less. The viatical settlement provider shall explain the procedure for these contacts at the time of entry into the viatical settlement contract. The limitations provided for in this subsection (6) do not apply to a contact with an insured for reasons other than determining the insured's health status. A viatical settlement provider is responsible for the actions of his or her authorized representatives.

10-7-610. Limited purchase in incontestability period. (1) It is a violation of this part 6 for a person to enter into a viatical settlement contract within a two-year period commencing with the date of issuance of the policy unless the viator certifies to the viatical settlement provider that one or more of the following conditions has been met within the two-year period:

(a) The policy was issued upon the viator's exercise of conversion rights arising out of a group or individual policy, if the total of the time covered under the conversion policy plus the time covered under the prior policy is at least twenty-four months. The time covered under a group policy shall be calculated without regard to a change in insurance carriers if the coverage has been continuous and under the same group sponsorship.

(b) The viator submits independent evidence to the viatical settlement provider that one or more of the following conditions has been met within the two-year period:

(I) The viator or insured is terminally or chronically ill; or

(II) The viator or insured disposes of his or her ownership interests in a closely held corporation pursuant to the terms of a buyout or other similar agreement in effect at the time the insurance policy was initially issued.

(2) Copies of the independent evidence described in paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section and documents required must be submitted to the insurer when the viatical settlement provider submits a request to the insurer for verification of coverage. The copies shall be accompanied by a letter of attestation from the viatical settlement provider that the copies are true and correct copies of the documents received by the viatical settlement provider.

(3) If the viatical settlement provider submits to the insurer a copy of independent evidence provided for in paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section when the viatical settlement provider submits a request to the insurer to effect the transfer of the policy to the viatical settlement provider, the copy is deemed to conclusively establish that the viatical settlement contract satisfies the requirements of this section and the insurer shall respond timely to the request.

10-7-611. Advertising - legislative intent. (1) It is the intent of the general assembly that the purpose of this section is to provide a prospective viator with clear and unambiguous statements in the advertisement of a viatical settlement contract and to assure the clear, truthful, and adequate disclosure of the benefits, risks, limitations, and exclusions of a viatical settlement contract. This purpose is to be accomplished by the establishment of guidelines and standards of permissible and impermissible conduct in the advertising of a viatical settlement contract to assure that a product description is presented in a manner that prevents unfair, deceptive, or misleading advertising and is conducive to accurate presentation and description of a viatical settlement contract through the advertising media and material used by a licensee.

(2) This section applies to an advertising of a viatical settlement contract or a related product or service intended for dissemination in this state, including internet advertising viewed by a person located in this state. Where disclosure requirements are established pursuant to federal regulation, this section shall be interpreted so as to minimize or eliminate conflict with federal regulation wherever possible.

(3) Each viatical settlement licensee shall establish and at all times maintain a system of control over the content, form, and method of dissemination of an advertisement of its contracts, products, and services. An advertisement, regardless of by whom written, created, designed, or presented, is the responsibility of the licensee, as well as of the individual who created or presented the advertisement. A system of control by the licensee shall include regular notification, at least once a year, to agents and others authorized to disseminate advertisements, of the requirements and procedures for approval before the use of an advertisement not furnished by the licensee.

(4) An advertisement shall be truthful and not misleading in fact or by implication. The form and content of an advertisement of a viatical settlement contract shall be sufficiently complete and clear so as to avoid deception. It may not have the capacity or tendency to mislead or deceive. Whether an advertisement has the capacity or tendency to mislead or deceive shall be determined by the commissioner from the overall impression that the advertisement may be reasonably expected to create upon a person of average education or intelligence within the segment of the public to which it is directed.

(5) (a) The information required to be disclosed pursuant to the provisions of this section may not be minimized, rendered obscure, or presented in an ambiguous fashion or intermingled with the text of the advertisement so as to be confusing or misleading.

(b) An advertisement may not omit material information or use words, phrases, statements, references, or illustrations if the omission or use has the capacity, tendency, or effect of misleading or deceiving the public as to the nature or extent of any benefit, loss covered, or state or federal tax consequence. The fact that the viatical settlement contract offered is made available for inspection before consummation of the sale, or that an offer is made to refund the payment if the viator is not satisfied, or that the viatical settlement contract includes a "free look" period that satisfies or exceeds legal requirements, does not remedy misleading statements.

(c) An advertisement may not use the name or title of a life insurance company or a life insurance policy unless the advertisement has been approved in writing by the insurer.

(d) An advertisement may not state or imply that interest charged on an accelerated death benefit or a policy loan is unfair, inequitable, or in any manner an incorrect or improper practice.

(e) The words "free", "no cost", "without cost", "no additional cost", or "at no extra cost", or words of similar import may not be used with respect to a benefit or service unless true. An advertisement may specify the charge for a benefit or service or may state that a charge is included in the payment or use other appropriate language.

(f) (I) Any testimonial, appraisal, or analysis used in an advertisement shall:

(A) Be genuine;

(B) Represent the current opinion of the author;

(C) Be applicable to the viatical settlement contract, product, or service advertised, if any; and

(D) Be accurately reproduced with sufficient completeness to avoid misleading or deceiving prospective viators as to the nature or scope of any testimonial, appraisal, analysis, or endorsement.

(II) In using any testimonial, appraisal, or analysis, the viatical settlement licensee makes as its own all the statements contained in them, and the statements are subject to all the provisions of this section.

(III) If the individual making a testimonial, appraisal, analysis, or endorsement has a financial interest in the viatical settlement provider or related entity as a stockholder, director, officer, employee, or otherwise, or receives a benefit, directly or indirectly, other than required union scale wages, that fact must be disclosed prominently in the advertisement.

(IV) An advertisement may not state or imply that a viatical settlement contract, benefit, or service has been approved or endorsed by a group of individuals, society, association, or other organization unless that is the fact and unless any relationship between an organization and the licensee is disclosed. If the entity making the endorsement or testimonial is owned, controlled, or managed by the licensee or receives payment or other consideration from the licensee for making an endorsement or testimonial, that fact must be disclosed in the advertisement.

(V) If an endorsement refers to benefits received under a viatical settlement contract, all pertinent information shall be retained for a period of five years after its use.

(VI) An advertisement may not contain statistical information unless it accurately reflects recent and relevant facts. The source of all statistics used in an advertisement shall be identified.

(VII) An advertisement may not disparage insurers, viatical settlement providers, insurance producers, policies, services, or methods of marketing.

(VIII) The name of the viatical settlement licensee shall be identified clearly in all advertisements about the licensee or its viatical settlement contract, products, or services, and if any specific viatical settlement contract is advertised, the viatical settlement contract must be identified either by form number or some other appropriate description. If an application is part of the advertisement, the name of the viatical settlement provider shall be shown on the application.

(IX) An advertisement may not use a trade name, group designation, name of the parent company of a licensee, name of a particular division of the licensee, service mark, slogan, symbol, or other device or reference without disclosing the name of the licensee if the advertisement has the capacity or tendency to mislead or deceive as to the true identity of the licensee or to create the impression that a company other than the licensee has any responsibility for the financial obligation under a viatical settlement contract.

(X) An advertisement may not use any combination of words, symbols, or physical materials that by their content, phraseology, shape, color, or other characteristics are so similar to a combination of words, symbols, or physical materials used by a government program or agency or otherwise appear to be of such a nature that they tend to mislead prospective viators into believing that the solicitation is in some manner connected with a government program or agency.

(XI) An advertisement may state that a licensee is licensed in the state where the advertisement appears if it does not exaggerate that fact or suggest or imply that a competing licensee may not be so licensed. The advertisement may ask the audience to consult the licensee's web site or contact that state's division of insurance to find out if that state requires licensing and, if so, whether the licensee or any other company is licensed.

(XII) An advertisement may not create the impression that the viatical settlement provider or its financial condition or status; the payment of its claims; or the merits, desirability, or advisability of its viatical settlement contracts are recommended or endorsed by any government entity.

(XIII) The name of the actual licensee shall be stated in all of its advertisements. An advertisement may not use a trade name, group designation, name of any affiliate or controlling entity of the licensee, service mark, slogan, symbol, or other device in a manner that has the capacity or tendency to mislead or deceive as to the true identity of the actual licensee or create the false impression that an affiliate or controlling entity has any responsibility for the financial obligation of the licensee.

(XIV) An advertisement may not, directly or indirectly, create the impression that any division or agency of the state or of the United States government endorses, approves, or favors:

- (A) A licensee or its business practices or methods of operation;
- (B) The merits, desirability, or advisability of a viatical settlement contract;
- (C) Any viatical settlement contract; or
- (D) Any policy or life insurance company.

(XV) If the advertiser emphasizes the speed with which the viatical settlement contract occurs, the advertising must disclose the average time frame, from completed application to the date of offer and from acceptance of the offer to receipt of the funds by the viator.

(XVI) If the advertising emphasizes the dollar amounts available to viators, the advertising shall disclose the average purchase price as a percent of face value obtained by viators contracting with the licensee during the past six months.

10-7-612. Fraudulent acts. (1) (a) A person shall not commit a fraudulent viatical settlement act.

(b) A person shall not knowingly or intentionally interfere with the enforcement of the provisions of this part 6 or investigations of suspected or actual violations of this part 6.

(c) A person in the business of viatical settlements shall not knowingly or intentionally permit a person convicted of a felony involving dishonesty or breach of trust to participate in the business of viatical settlements.

(2) (a) A viatical settlement contract and an application for a viatical settlement contract, regardless of the form of transmission, shall contain the following statement or a substantially similar statement: "Any person who knowingly presents false information in an application for insurance or viatical settlement contract is guilty of a crime and, upon conviction, may be subject to fines or confinement in prison, or both."

(b) The lack of a statement as provided for in paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) does not constitute a defense in any prosecution for a fraudulent viatical settlement act.

(3) (a) A person engaged in the business of viatical settlements having knowledge or a reasonable belief that a fraudulent viatical settlement act is being, will be, or has been committed shall provide to the commissioner the information required by, and in a manner prescribed by, the commissioner.

(b) Another person having knowledge or a reasonable belief that a fraudulent viatical settlement act is being, will be, or has been committed may provide to the commissioner the information required by, and in a manner prescribed by, the commissioner.

(4) (a) No civil liability shall be imposed upon, and no cause of action shall arise from the otherwise lawful conduct of, a person who furnishes information concerning suspected, anticipated, or completed fraudulent viatical settlement acts, or suspected or completed fraudulent insurance acts, if the information is provided to or received from:

(I) The commissioner or the commissioner's employees, agents, or representatives;

(II) Federal, state, or local law enforcement or regulatory officials or their employees, agents, or representatives;

(III) A person involved in the prevention and detection of fraudulent viatical settlement acts or that person's agents, employees, or representatives;

(IV) The NAIC, the national association of securities dealers, or the North American securities administrators association, or their employees, agents, or representatives, or another regulatory body overseeing life insurance or viatical settlement contracts; or

(V) The insurer that issued the policy covering the life of the insured.

(b) Paragraph (a) of this subsection (4) does not apply to a statement made with actual malice. In an action brought against a person for filing a report or furnishing other information concerning a fraudulent viatical settlement act or a fraudulent insurance act, the party bringing the action shall plead specifically any allegation that paragraph (a) of this subsection (4) does not apply because the person filing the report or furnishing the information did so with actual malice.

(c) A person identified in paragraph (a) of this subsection (4) is entitled to an award of attorney fees and costs if the person is the prevailing party in a civil cause of action for libel, slander, or another relevant tort arising out of activities in carrying out the provisions of this part 6 and the party bringing the action was not substantially justified in doing so. For purposes of this section, a proceeding is substantially justified if it had a reasonable basis in law or fact at the time that it was initiated.

(d) This section does not abrogate or modify common law or statutory privileges or immunities enjoyed by a person described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (4).

(e) Paragraph (a) of this subsection (4) does not apply to a person's furnishing information concerning the person's own suspected, anticipated, or completed fraudulent viatical settlement acts or suspected, anticipated, or completed fraudulent insurance acts.

(5) (a) The documents and evidence provided pursuant to subsection (4) of this section or obtained by the commissioner in an investigation of suspected or actual fraudulent viatical settlement acts are privileged and confidential, are not a public record, and are not subject to discovery or subpoena in a civil or criminal action.

(b) Paragraph (a) of this subsection (5) does not prohibit release by the commissioner of documents and evidence obtained in an investigation of suspected or actual fraudulent viatical settlement acts:

(I) In administrative or judicial proceedings to enforce laws administered by the commissioner;

(II) To federal, state, or local law enforcement or regulatory agencies, to an organization established for the purpose of detecting and preventing fraudulent viatical settlement acts, or to the NAIC; or

(III) At the discretion of the commissioner, to a person in the business of viatical settlements that is aggrieved by a fraudulent viatical settlement act.

(c) Release of documents and evidence pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (5) does not abrogate or modify the privilege granted in paragraph (a) of this subsection (5).

(6) This part 6 does not:

(a) Preempt the authority or relieve the duty of other law enforcement or regulatory agencies to investigate, examine, and prosecute suspected violations of law;

(b) Prevent or prohibit a person from voluntarily disclosing information concerning fraudulent viatical settlement acts to a law enforcement or regulatory agency other than the division; or

(c) Limit the powers granted elsewhere by the laws of this state to the commissioner or to an insurance fraud unit to investigate and examine possible violations of law and to take appropriate action against wrongdoers.

(7) (a) A viatical settlement provider shall adopt anti-fraud initiatives reasonably calculated to detect, assist in the prosecution of, and prevent fraudulent viatical settlement acts. The commissioner may order or, if a licensee requests, may grant modifications of the following initiatives as necessary to ensure an effective anti-fraud program. The modifications may be more or less restrictive than the initiatives if the modifications may reasonably be expected to accomplish the purpose of this section. Anti-fraud initiatives include:

(I) Fraud investigators, who may be viatical settlement providers or employees or independent contractors of those viatical settlement providers; and

(II) An anti-fraud plan that is submitted to the commissioner. The anti-fraud plan shall include, but not be limited to:

(A) A chart outlining the organizational arrangement of the anti-fraud personnel who are responsible for the investigation and reporting of possible fraudulent viatical settlement acts and investigating unresolved material inconsistencies between medical records and insurance applications; and

(B) A description of the procedures for detecting and investigating possible fraudulent viatical settlement acts and procedures for resolving material inconsistencies between medical records and insurance applications, a description of the procedures for reporting possible fraudulent viatical settlement acts to the commissioner, and a description of the plan for anti-fraud education and training of underwriters and other personnel.

(b) Anti-fraud plans submitted to the commissioner are privileged and confidential, are not public records pursuant to article 72 of title 24, C.R.S., and are not subject to discovery or subpoena in a civil or criminal action.

10-7-613. Penalties. (1) In addition to the penalties and other enforcement provisions of this part 6, if a person violates the provisions of this part 6 or any rule implementing this part 6, the commissioner may seek an injunction in a court of competent jurisdiction and may apply for temporary and permanent orders as the commissioner determines are necessary to restrain the person from committing the violation.

(2) A person damaged by the acts of a person in violation of this part 6 may bring a civil action against the person committing the violation in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(3) The commissioner may issue a cease-and-desist order to a person who violates any provision of this part 6 or of any rule or order promulgated by, or written agreement entered into with, the commissioner pursuant to this part 6.

(4) When the commissioner finds that an activity in violation of this part 6 presents an immediate danger to the public that requires an immediate final order, the commissioner may issue an emergency cease-and-desist order reciting with particularity the facts underlying the findings. The emergency cease-and-desist order is effective immediately upon service of a copy of the order on the respondent and remains effective for ninety days. If the commissioner begins nonemergency cease-and-desist proceedings, the emergency cease-and-desist order remains effective absent an order by a court of competent jurisdiction pursuant to the "State Administrative Procedure Act", article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

(5) In addition to the penalties and other enforcement provisions of this part 6, a person who violates this part 6 is subject to civil penalties of up to ten thousand dollars for each violation pursuant to an order of the commissioner. The commissioner's order may require a person found to be in violation of this part 6 to make restitution to a person aggrieved by violations of this part 6.

(6) (a) A person who violates a provision of this part 6 after the commissioner has issued a cease-and-desist order to the person commits a class 2 misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall pay restitution to a person aggrieved by the violation. Restitution shall be ordered in addition to a fine or imprisonment, but not instead of a fine or imprisonment.

(b) A person who violates paragraph (a) of this subsection (6), upon conviction, shall be sentenced based on the greater of the value of property, services, or other benefits wrongfully obtained or attempted to be obtained, or the aggregate economic loss suffered by any person as a result of the violation. A person shall be fined not more than:

(I) One hundred thousand dollars or imprisoned for not more than twelve months, or both, if the value of the viatical settlement contract is more than thirty-five thousand dollars;

(II) Twenty thousand dollars or imprisoned for not more than nine months, or both, if the value of the viatical settlement contract is more than two thousand five hundred dollars but not more than thirty-five thousand dollars;

(III) Ten thousand dollars or imprisoned for not more than six months, or both, if the value of the viatical settlement contract is more than five hundred dollars but not more than two thousand five hundred dollars; or

(IV) Three thousand dollars or imprisoned for not more than three months, or both, if the value of the viatical settlement contract is five hundred dollars or less.

(c) In a prosecution under paragraph (a) of this subsection (6), the value of a viatical settlement contract within a six-month period may be aggregated and the defendant charged accordingly in applying the provisions of this section. If two or more offenses are committed by the same person in two or more counties, the accused may be prosecuted in a county in which one of the offenses was committed for all of the offenses aggregated as provided by this section. The statutory limitation period does not begin to run until the insurance company or law enforcement agency is aware of the fraud, but the prosecution may not be commenced later than seven years after the act has occurred.

10-7-614. Unfair trade practices. A violation of this part 6 shall constitute an unfair trade practice pursuant to part 11 of article 3 of this title and be subject to the penalties contained in such part 11.

Source: L. 2005: Entire part added, p. 1322, § 1, effective January 1, 2006.

10-7-615. Rules. (1) The commissioner may:

(a) Promulgate rules implementing this part 6;

(b) Establish standards for evaluating the reasonableness of payments under a viatical settlement contract for a person who is terminally or chronically ill. This authority includes, but is not limited to, regulation of discount rates used to determine the amount paid in exchange for assignment, transfer, sale, devise, or bequest of a benefit under a policy. If the insured is not terminally or chronically ill, a viatical settlement provider shall pay an amount greater than the cash surrender value or accelerated death benefit then available.

(c) Establish appropriate licensing requirements, fees, and standards for continued licensure for a viatical settlement provider and a fee for life insurance producers;

(d) Require a bond or other mechanism for financial accountability for a viatical settlement provider; and

(e) Adopt rules governing the relationship and responsibilities of an insurer and a viatical settlement provider, a life insurance producer, and others in the business of viatical settlements during the period of consideration or effectuation of a viatical settlement contract.

10-7-616. No preemption - Colorado Securities Act - authority of division of securities. Nothing in this part 6 preempts or otherwise limits the provisions of the "Colorado Securities Act", article 51 of title 11, C.R.S., or any rules, orders, policy statements, notices, bulletins, or other interpretations issued by or through the commissioner of securities or the commissioner of securities' designee acting pursuant to the "Colorado Securities Act". Compliance with this part 6 does not constitute compliance with any applicable provision of the "Colorado Securities Act" or any rules, orders, policy statements, notices, bulletins, or other interpretations issued by or through the commissioner of securities or the commissioner of securities' designee acting pursuant to the "Colorado Securities Act".

10-7-617. Application. A viatical settlement provider lawfully transacting business in this state may continue to do so pending approval or disapproval of the person's application for a license as long as the application is filed with the commissioner not later than thirty days after publication by the commissioner of an application form for licensure of viatical settlement providers. If the publication of the application form is prior to January 1, 2006, the filing of the application shall not be later than thirty days after January 1, 2006.

10-7-618. Continuation of business. Notwithstanding any provision of this part 6 to the contrary, a person who has lawfully negotiated viatical settlement contracts between a viator and one or more viatical settlement providers for at least one year immediately prior to January 1, 2006, may continue to negotiate viatical settlements in this state for a period of one year from January 1, 2006, if such person registers with the commissioner on a form prescribed by the commissioner. Such registration form shall be published by the commissioner not later than thirty days after January 1, 2006, and shall require a person registering to evidence that he or she has lawfully negotiated viatical settlement contracts. The form shall also include an acknowledgment by such person that he or she will operate in accordance with and comply with this part 6.

10-7-619. Viatical settlements cash fund - created. All direct and indirect expenditures of the commissioner and the division in administering this part 6 shall be paid from the viatical settlements cash fund, which fund is hereby created in the state treasury. All fees collected pursuant to this part 6 shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit them to the viatical settlements cash fund. All moneys credited to the viatical settlements cash fund shall be used as provided in this section, shall not be deposited in or transferred to the general fund of this state or to any other fund, and shall be subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly for the purpose of defraying the expenses of the commissioner and the division in administering this part 6. All interest derived from the deposit and investment of moneys in the viatical settlements cash fund shall be credited to the viatical settlements cash fund.

INSURABLE INTEREST ACT

10-7-701. Short title. This part 7 shall be known and may be cited as the "Insurable Interest Act".

Source: L. 2011: Entire part added, (SB 11-182), ch. 227, p. 972, § 1, effective May 27.

10-7-702. Definitions. As used in this part 7, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Business entity" means a legal entity, including a joint venture, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, or business trust.

(2) "Person" means any natural person, business entity, association, or trust.

(3) "Policy" means an individual or group policy, group certificate, contract, or arrangement of life insurance affecting the rights of a resident of this state or bearing a reasonable relation to this state, regardless of whether delivered or issued for delivery in this state.

(4) "Settlor" means a person who executes a trust instrument, including a person for whom a fiduciary or agent is acting.

(5) "Stranger originated life insurance" means an act, practice, or arrangement to initiate a life insurance policy for the benefit of a third-party investor who, at the time of policy origination, has no insurable interest in the insured. Stranger originated life insurance practices include cases in which life insurance is purchased with resources or guarantees from or through a person or entity who, at the time of inception, could not lawfully initiate the policy themselves and where, at the time of inception, there is an arrangement or agreement, whether verbal or written, to directly or indirectly transfer the ownership of the policy or the policy benefits to a third party. Trusts that are created to give the appearance of insurable interest and are used to initiate policies for investors violate insurable interest laws and the prohibition on wagering on life. "Stranger originated life insurance" does not include lawful viatical settlement contracts as permitted by part 6 of this article, provided that such contracts are not for the purpose of evading regulation under this article.

Source: L. 2011: Entire part added, (SB 11-182), ch. 227, p. 972, § 1, effective May 27.

10-7-703. Insurance on the life of another. A person shall not procure or cause to be procured or effected a policy upon the life of another individual unless the benefits under the policy are payable to the insured, to the personal representative of the insured's estate, or to a person having, at the time the policy is issued, an insurable interest in the individual insured.

Source: L. 2011: Entire part added, (SB 11-182), ch. 227, p. 973, § 1, effective May 27.

10-7-704. Insurable interest. (1) An insurable interest, with reference to insurance on the life of another, exists only as follows:

(a) An individual has an insurable interest in the life of another person in whom the individual has a substantial interest engendered by love and affection in the continuation of the life of the insured and who are:

(I) Related within the fifth degree or closer, as measured by the civil law system of determining degrees of relation, either by blood or marriage to the insured;

(II) Stepchildren of the insured or their descendants; or

(III) Individuals who are designated as beneficiaries of insurance policies for life insurance coverage on the life of the insured under a designated beneficiary agreement executed pursuant to article 22 of title 15, C.R.S.;

(b) An individual has an insurable interest in the life of another person if such individual has a lawful and substantial interest in the continued life of the insured, as distinguished from an interest that would arise only from, or would be enhanced in value by, the death of the individual insured;

(c) An individual party to a contract for the purchase or sale of an interest in a business entity has an insurable interest in the life of each other individual party to the contract, but only for the purpose of carrying out the intent and purpose of the contract;

(d) A trustee of a trust has an insurable interest in the life of an insured under a life insurance policy as provided in section 15-16-501, C.R.S.;

(e) A guardian, trustee, or other fiduciary, acting in a fiduciary capacity, has an insurable interest in the life of any person for whose benefit the fiduciary holds property and in the life of any other individual in whose life the person has an insurable interest so long as the life insurance proceeds are used primarily for the benefit of persons having an insurable interest in the life of the insured;

(f) An organization described in section 170 (c) of the federal “Internal Revenue Code of 1986”, as amended, has an insurable interest in the life of any person who consents in writing to the organization’s ownership or purchase of that insurance pursuant to section 10-7-115;

(g) A trustee, sponsor, or custodian of assets held in any plan governed by the “Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974”, 29 U.S.C. sec. 1001 et seq., or in any other retirement or employee benefit plan, has an insurable interest in the life of any participant in the plan, but only if consent is obtained in writing from the participant before the insurance is purchased. An employer, trustee, sponsor, or custodian may not retaliate or take adverse action against a participant who does not consent to the issuance of insurance on the participant’s life.

(h) A business entity has an insurable interest in the life of any of the owners, directors, officers, partners, or managers of the business entity or any affiliate or subsidiary of the business entity, or key employees or key persons of the business entity, affiliate, or subsidiary, but only if consent is obtained in writing from the key employees or key persons before the insurance is purchased. The business entity, affiliate, or subsidiary may not retaliate or take adverse action against any key employee or key person who does not consent to the issuance of insurance on the key employee or key person’s life. For purposes of this paragraph (h), “key employee” or “key person” means an individual whose position or compensation is described in section 101 (j) (2) (A) (ii) of the federal “Internal Revenue Code of 1986”, as amended.

(i) A financial institution or other person to whom a debt is owed, whether for the purposes of premium financing or otherwise, has an insurable interest in the life of the borrower or any of the owners, directors, officers, partners, or managers of the borrower; key employees, guarantors, or key persons of the borrower; or any of the foregoing of an affiliate or a guarantor of the borrower, but only if consent is obtained in writing from such persons before the insurance is purchased; except that such insurable interest is limited to the amount of the debt owed plus reasonable interest and service charges. The proceeds payable upon the death of an insured in excess of the total outstanding debt owed shall be paid to the estate of the individual insured.

10-7-705. Insured’s own life. An individual has an insurable interest in the individual’s own life, and an individual of competent legal capacity who procures or effects a policy on the individual’s own life may designate any person as the beneficiary and, unless the individual elects an irrevocable beneficiary designation, change the beneficiary at any time thereafter.

Source: L. 2011: Entire part added, (SB 11-182), ch. 227, p. 975, § 1, effective May 27.

10-7-706. Reliance on statements. An insurer is entitled to rely upon all reasonable statements, declarations, and representations made by an applicant for life insurance relative to the existence of an insurable interest. No insurer incurs legal liability, except as set forth in the policy, by virtue of untrue statements, declarations, or representations relied upon in good faith by the insurer.

Source: L. 2011: Entire part added, (SB 11-182), ch. 227, p. 975, § 1, effective May 27.

10-7-707. Consent of insured. (1) A policy upon the life of an individual, other than a policy of noncontributory group life insurance, shall not be effected unless, at or before the time the policy is effectuated, the individual insured, having legal capacity to contract, applies for or consents in writing to the policy and its terms. Consent may be given by another person in the following cases:

- (a) A spouse may consent to insurance on the other spouse;
- (b) A parent or a person having legal custody of a minor may consent to the issuance of a policy on a dependent child;
- (c) A court-appointed guardian of a person may consent to the issuance of a policy on the person under guardianship;
- (d) A court-appointed conservator of a person's estate may consent to the issuance of a policy on the person whose estate is under conservatorship;
- (e) An attorney-in-fact may consent to the issuance of a policy on the person that appointed the attorney-in-fact for the limited purpose of replacing one or more policies with one or more new policies if, as the result of the replacement, the aggregate amount of life insurance on the person remains the same or decreases;
- (f) A trustee of a revocable trust may consent to the issuance of a policy on the life of a settlor of the trust; and
- (g) A court of general jurisdiction may give consent to the issuance of a policy upon a showing of facts that the court considers sufficient to justify the issuance of the policy.

10-7-708. Prohibited practices. (1) It is unlawful for any person to procure, or cause to be procured or effected, a policy in violation of section 10-7-703. Such conduct is an unfair or deceptive act or practice pursuant to section 10-3-1104.

(2) It is unlawful for any person to engage in stranger originated life insurance or otherwise wager on life. Such conduct is an unfair or deceptive practice pursuant to section 10-3-1104.

Source: L. 2011: Entire part added, (SB 11-182), ch. 227, p. 976, § 1, effective May 27.

10-7-709. Actions to recover death benefits. If the beneficiary, assignee, or other payee received the death benefits under a life insurance policy procured or effected in violation of this article, the personal representative of the insured's estate or other lawfully acting agent may maintain an action to recover the death benefits from the person receiving them.

Source: L. 2011: Entire part added, (SB 11-182), ch. 227, p. 976, § 1, effective May 27.

10-7-710. Legitimate insurance transactions. (1) Except where a life insurance policy is procured or effected in violation of section 10-7-708, nothing in this article prevents:

- (a) An owner of a policy, whether or not the owner of the policy is also the subject of the insurance, from entering into a viatical settlement contract;
- (b) Any person from soliciting a person to enter into a viatical settlement contract; or
- (c) An owner or beneficiary from enforcing the payment of all benefits and proceeds of the policy obtained under a viatical settlement contract.

PART 5

COVERCOLORADO

10-8-501. Short title. This part 5 shall be known and may be cited as the "Colorado High Risk Health Insurance Act". The name of the program created by this part 5 shall be "CoverColorado".

Source: L. 90: Entire part added, p. 628, § 1, effective July 1. L. 2001: Entire section amended, p. 1034, § 1, effective July 1.

10-8-502. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby declares that the purpose of this part 5 is to provide access to health insurance for those Colorado residents who are now termed "high risk" because they are unable to obtain health insurance or unable to obtain health insurance except at prohibitive rates or with restrictive exclusions, including those who are federally eligible individuals under the federal "Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996", Pub.L. 104-191.

(2) Further, the general assembly recognizes that the creation of an assessment mechanism in 2001 provided for more financial stability for CoverColorado, but it should not be considered the exclusive remedy for the growing financial needs of the program. Additional funding sources should be explored so that the growing financial demands of CoverColorado are not passed on to insured lives in this state.

10-8-503. Definitions. As used in this part 5, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Administering carrier" means the carrier or third-party administrator designated in this part 5.

(2) Repealed.

(3) "Board" means the board of directors of the CoverColorado program.

(3.5) "Carrier" has the same meaning as set forth in section 10-16-102 (8).

(4) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of insurance or his designee.

(5) "Eligible individual" means one of the following:

(a) A resident of this state who meets the eligibility requirements set forth in section 10-8-513; or

(b) An individual who meets the eligibility requirements set forth in section 10-8-513.5.

(6) (Deleted by amendment, L. 97, p. 613, § 1, effective July 1, 1997.)

(6.8) "Group health plan" shall have the same meaning as "group health plan" as set forth in section 10-16-105.5 (1) (a).

(7) "Health care facility" means any entity providing health care services.

(7.5) "Health benefit plan" has the same meaning as set forth in section 10-16-102 (21).

(8) "Health care services" has the same meaning as set forth in section 10-16-102 (22).

(9) (Deleted by amendment, L. 97, p. 613, § 1, effective July 1, 1997.)

(10.5) "Insurer" means any entity that provides group or individual health benefit plans, as defined in section 10-16-102 (21), subject to state insurance regulation in this state, as well as any entity that directly or indirectly provides stop-loss or excess loss insurance to a self-insured group health plan including a property and casualty insurance company.

(11) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2001, p. 1034, § 3, effective July 1, 2001.)

(12) (Deleted by amendment, L. 97, p. 613, § 1, effective July 1, 1997.)

(13) "Medicaid" means federal insurance or assistance as provided by Title XIX of the federal "Social Security Act", as amended.

(14) "Medicare" means federal insurance or assistance as provided by Title XVIII of the federal "Social Security Act", as amended.

(15) (Deleted by amendment, L. 97, p. 613, § 1, effective July 1, 1997.)

(16.5) "Participant" means an eligible individual or eligible dependent who has been accepted into the program and who is receiving health coverage under the program.

(17) "Plan of operation" means the plan to create and operate the program, including bylaws and operating rules that are adopted by the board pursuant to this part 5.

(17.3) "Program" or "CoverColorado" means CoverColorado and its administration and implementation of the health benefit plans permitted under this part 5.

(17.5) "Qualifying previous coverage" has the same meaning as "creditable coverage" as set forth in section 10-16-102 (13.7).

(18) "Resident" means an individual whose principal or primary place of abode or residence, as defined in section 1-2-102, C.R.S., is in the state of Colorado and who has been such a resident for six months or longer.

L. 2003: (2) and (10) repealed, p. 1842, § 1, effective May 21; (6.8) amended, p. 1987, § 19, effective May 22.

10-8-504. Program - operation. There is hereby created a nonprofit unincorporated public entity known as CoverColorado. The operation of the program shall be governed by the board of directors of CoverColorado created pursuant to section 10-8-505. CoverColorado is an instrumentality of the state; except that the debts and liabilities of the program shall not constitute debts and liabilities of the state, and neither the program nor the board shall be an agency of state government.

Source: L. 90: Entire part added, p. 630, § 1, effective July 1. L. 92: Entire section amended, p. 1503, § 2, effective April 16. L. 2001: Entire section amended, p. 1035, § 4, effective July 1.

10-8-505. CoverColorado board of directors. (1) There is hereby created the board of directors of CoverColorado, consisting of seven members.

(2) (a) Seven board members shall be appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate. These members shall serve for terms of four years; except that, of those members initially appointed, two shall serve for terms of two years, two shall serve for terms of three years, and two shall serve for terms of four years. The governor shall appoint a qualified person to fill any vacancy on the board for the remainder of any unexpired term. These board members shall be appointed as follows: Four shall be representatives of carriers, one of which shall be a representative of a health maintenance organization, one of which shall be a representative of a sickness and accident insurance carrier, and one of which shall be a representative of a stop-loss or excess loss insurance carrier; one shall be a member who is a medical professional who specializes in chronic disease; and two shall be members from among individuals who currently are insured or who have been insured under the program as defined in this part 5 and who are not associated with the medical profession, any hospital, or any carrier.

(b) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2001, p. 1036, § 5, effective July 1, 2001.)

(3) The commissioner or his or her designee, the state treasurer or his or her designee, and a member of the general assembly shall serve as ex officio nonvoting members of the board. The initial appointee of the general assembly shall be a member of the senate appointed by the president of the senate, the next appointee shall be a member of the house of representatives appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives, and thereafter such appointment shall rotate in like manner between the senate and the house of representatives. The term of the commission member appointed by the speaker or the president who is serving on March 22, 2007, shall be extended to and expire on or shall terminate on the convening date of the first regular session of the sixty-seventh general assembly, and the speaker or the president, whoever is entitled to the next appointment in the rotation, shall appoint or reappoint a member as soon as practicable after such convening date. Thereafter, the terms of members appointed by the speaker or the president shall expire on the convening date of the first regular session of each general assembly, and all subsequent appointments or reappointments shall be made as soon as practicable after the convening date of the first regular session of each general assembly. The person making the original appointment or reappointment shall fill any vacancy by appointment for the remainder of an unexpired term. Members appointed or reappointed by the speaker or the president shall serve at the pleasure of the appointing authority and shall continue in office until the member's successor is appointed.

(4) The board shall elect one of its members to serve as chairman.

(5) Any four members of the board shall constitute a quorum for the purpose of transacting business and carrying out the provisions of this part 5.

(6) Any member of the board may be removed by the appointing authority for misconduct, incompetency, or neglect of duty.

(7) Any member of the board serving a four-year term shall not serve for more than two consecutive four-year terms, and any member of the board serving a two-year term shall not serve for more than four consecutive two-year terms.

(8) Members of the board shall serve without compensation; except that they shall be reimbursed for any actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties under this part 5, with mileage rates not to exceed those authorized for the executive department.

L. 2001: (1), (2), and (3) amended, p. 1036, § 5, effective July 1. L. 2007: (3) amended, p. 175, § 3, effective March 22; (3) amended, p. 607, § 1, effective April 20.

Editor's note: Amendments to subsection (3) by Senate Bill 07-076 and Senate Bill 07-184 were harmonized.

10-8-506. Board - powers and duties. (1) The board shall be the governing body of the program and shall have all powers necessary to implement the provisions of this part 5. In addition, the board shall have the specific authority to:

(a) Enter into such contracts as are necessary or proper to carry out the provisions and purposes of this part 5 including contracts with appropriate administrative staff, consultants, and legal counsel. In addition, the board shall have the authority, with the approval of the commissioner, to enter into contracts with other states with similar plans for the joint performance of common administrative functions or with persons or other organizations for the performance of administrative functions. No contract entered into pursuant to this paragraph (a) shall be subject to the provisions of article 103 of title 24, C.R.S.

(b) Sue or be sued, including taking any legal actions as necessary or proper on behalf of the program;

(c) Take such legal action as necessary to avoid the payment of improper claims against the program or to defend the coverage provided by or through the program;

(d) Establish appropriate rates, rate schedules, rate adjustments, expense allowances, agent referral fees, claim reserve formulas, stop-loss ratios, means tests, and any other actuarial functions appropriate to the operation of the program. Rates and rate schedules may be adjusted by the board for appropriate risk factors such as age and area variation in claim costs, and the board shall take into consideration appropriate risk factors in accordance with established actuarial underwriting practices. Claim reserves shall be based upon accepted actuarial practices.

(e) Establish one or more appropriate health benefit plan designs with cost-containment controls, which may include but not be limited to preadmission review, case management, utilization reviews, exclusions or limitations with respect to treatment and services including capitated managed care for certain participants, and participant deductibles. The presence, the nature, or the conduct of any such cost containment controls may not be the basis for any civil liability in any legal action whether alleging personal injury or otherwise, unless injury results from willful and wanton misconduct.

(e.3) Establish one or more coordination of benefits plan designs;

(e.5) Establish such procedures and standards for the subsidization of premiums, deductibles, and other policy expenses of qualified participants as may be appropriate to accomplish the purposes of this part 5. For the purposes of this subsidization program, the board may request the submittal of such documentation by eligible individuals as it deems necessary.

(f) Oversee the issuance of policies of insurance and certificates or evidences of coverage in accordance with the requirements of this part 5;

(g) Appoint appropriate legal, actuarial, and other committees as necessary to provide technical assistance in the operation of the program, policy development, and other contract design and in any other function within the authority of the program;

(g.5) Develop a list of medical or health conditions the existence or history of which presumptively makes an individual eligible for participation in the program without first requiring application to a carrier for health coverage;

(h) (Deleted by amendment, L. 92, p. 1504, § 4, effective April 16, 1992.)

(i) Borrow money to effect the purposes of this part 5. Any notes or other evidence of indebtedness of the program not in default shall be legal investments for carriers and may be carried as admitted assets.

(j) Establish conditions and procedures for reinsuring risks under this part 5;

(k) (Deleted by amendment, L. 97, p. 615, § 3, effective July 1, 1997.)

(l) Assess special fees against insurers for the continuous operation of the program, as provided in section 10-8-530 (1.5);

(m) Establish procedures for the reasonable advance notice to interested parties of the agenda for meetings of the board;

(n) Accept and expend gifts, grants, and donations for operation of the program, including, without limitation, contributions received pursuant to the premium tax credit allocation provisions of section 10-8-534;

(o) Establish one or more fee schedules, in accordance with section 10-8-512.5, setting the amount that all medical, surgical, hospital, and other health care service providers will be compensated by the program for providing services covered by the program to a CoverColorado participant; and

(p) (I) Maintain enrollment consistent with and within the available financial resources of the program, in accordance with criteria and procedures established by the board and subject to applicable federal law and subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (p).

(II) Prior to implementing a limitation on new enrollment in the program pursuant to subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (p), the board shall notify the joint budget committee:

(A) In conjunction with its annual report submitted pursuant to section 10-8-530 (4) (c), of the need to limit new enrollment in the program based on projections of program enrollment and available financial resources for the program. The board shall not implement a limitation on new enrollment prior to the end of the next regular session of the general assembly following the notice submitted to the joint budget committee pursuant to this sub-subparagraph (A), unless the joint budget committee notifies the board, prior to the end of the next regular session, that additional funding for the program is unavailable; or

(B) In the case of a financial emergency or threat of insolvency that arises at any time during the fiscal year, of the immediate need to limit new enrollment in the program. The board shall not implement a limitation on new enrollment sooner than sixty days after providing notice to the joint budget committee pursuant to this sub-subparagraph (B), during which time the joint budget committee shall determine whether additional funding will be made available to the program. The joint budget committee shall notify the board within said sixty days whether additional funding is available, and if the joint budget committee notifies the board that no additional funding is available, the board may implement the proposed limitation on new enrollment.

(2) For any act performed within the course and scope of authority under this part 5, the board, the individual members of the board, and the employees and agents of the board shall be entitled to the immunity granted pursuant to section 24-10-106, C.R.S., unless such act or omission constitutes willful and wanton misconduct.

10-8-507. Plan of operation - purpose - approval. (1) (a) The board shall submit a proposed plan of operation to the commissioner, which plan shall describe the operation of CoverColorado, including provisions for bylaws and operating procedures for the board.

(b) Such plan of operation shall be developed after the board has given notice to the public that it will accept written comments concerning the contents of the plan from any interested party. The board shall consider such comments when it develops the plan. Copies of any such written comments received by the board shall be transmitted to the commissioner along with the plan of operation.

(c) At the time that it submits the proposed plan of operation to the commissioner, the board shall provide a copy of the proposed plan of operation to any party who has requested a copy of such plan, together with a notice that written comments on the proposed plan may be submitted to the commissioner within thirty days.

(2) As part of his review of the proposed plan, the commissioner shall give due consideration to the written comments specified in paragraphs (b) and (c) of subsection (1) of this section. Within sixty days after his receipt of the proposed plan, the commissioner shall approve such plan of operation if he determines it will accomplish the purposes of this part 5, including operating the plan in a fair, reasonable, and equitable manner. Upon written approval by the commissioner, the plan shall become effective.

(3) (a) If the plan is not approved by the commissioner, the commissioner shall return the plan to the board with comments outlining the reasons for its rejection. The board shall have forty-five days from the date of its return to reorganize and resubmit the plan to the commissioner.

(b) If the board fails to submit a plan of operation within one hundred twenty days after the effective date of the designation of the membership of the board or if the board fails to resubmit a plan rejected by the commissioner, the commissioner shall promulgate rules and regulations necessary to implement the purposes of this part 5 after notice and public hearing as provided in section 24-4-105, C.R.S. If, however, prior to the commencement of such public hearing, the board submits a plan of operation that is approved by the commissioner using the standards specified in subsection (2) of this section, such public hearing and rule-making process shall be canceled.

(4) (a) If, at any time after approval of the initial plan of operation, the board determines that it is necessary to amend the plan of operation in order to implement the purposes of this part 5, the board may amend and modify the plan of operation utilizing the procedures specified in subsection (1) of this section.

(b) If, at any time after approval of the initial plan of operation, the commissioner determines that it is necessary to amend the plan of operation in order to implement the purposes of this part 5 and the board fails to enact such amendment or amendments within a reasonable time after notice from the commissioner that such amendment or amendments are necessary, the commissioner shall promulgate rules and regulations necessary to amend the plan so that it implements the purposes of this part 5 after notice and public hearing as provided in section 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(5) Any rules and regulations promulgated by the commissioner pursuant to subsections (3) and (4) of this section shall continue in full force and effect until modified by the commissioner after notice and public hearing or until superseded by a plan of operation or amendment submitted by the board and approved by the commissioner pursuant to the provisions of this section.

10-8-508. Plan of operation - contents. (1) The plan of operation described in section 10-8-507 shall, at a minimum, contain the following elements:

(a) Procedures for handling and accounting for the assets and moneys of the program, including records of all financial transactions and an annual fiscal report to the commissioner;

(b) Procedures for selection of an administering carrier as provided in section 10-8-509;

(c) Procedures to establish and maintain public awareness of the program, including its eligibility requirements and enrollment procedures;

(d) Procedures to ensure compliance with the notification requirement concerning availability of the program pursuant to section 10-8-521;

(e) Regular times and places for meetings of the board;

(f) Procedures under which applicants and participants can report grievances to the board, which grievances shall be fairly and impartially considered, and administrative remedies for such grievances;

(g) Any other provisions necessary to implement the purposes of this part 5.

(2) All applicants and participants reporting any grievance pursuant to paragraph (f) of subsection (1) of this section shall exhaust all administrative remedies as set forth by the board before any such grievance may be the basis for legal action. The venue for any legal action involving the program shall be the city and county of Denver. Nothing in this subsection (2) shall prohibit the board from requiring binding arbitration for the final adjudication of any grievance.

10-8-509. Administering carrier. (1) The administering carrier shall perform all administrative, eligibility, and claims payment functions relating to the program, including:

(a) Establishing a billing procedure for collection of premiums from participants. Billings shall be made on a periodic basis as determined by the board, which shall not be more frequent than a monthly billing.

(b) Assuring timely payment of benefits to participants, including:

(I) Making available information relating to the proper manner of submitting a claim for benefits to the program and providing forms upon which submissions shall be made;

(II) Evaluating the eligibility of each claim for payment under the applicable health benefit plan and administering each claim consistent with the standards of the industry and pursuant to guidelines established by the board;

(III) Notifying each claimant within thirty days after receiving a properly completed and executed proof of claim whether the claim is accepted, rejected, or compromised;

(IV) Ensuring that each accepted or compromised claim is paid within forty-five days of its acceptance or compromise.

(c) Submitting regular reports to the board regarding the operation of the program. The frequency, content, and form of the reports shall be as determined by the board.

(d) Paying claims expenses from the premium payments received from or on behalf of participants. If the payments for claims expenses exceed the portion of premiums allocated by the board for payment of claims expenses, the board shall provide for additional funds for payment of claims expenses.

(e) Determining net written and earned premiums, the expense of administration, and the paid and incurred losses for each year and reporting such information to the board and the commissioner in a form and manner prescribed by the commissioner.

(g) Repealed.

(2) The board shall establish its own competitive bidding process to select a carrier or third party administrator to serve as the administering carrier and to select one or more vendors to provide services that may be necessary to administer the program. The board shall evaluate bids submitted based on the criteria it establishes and shall not be subject to the provisions of article 103 of title 24, C.R.S., in making such selections.

(3) The administering carrier shall serve for a period determined by the board, subject to removal for cause. Prior to the expiration of the period of service, the board shall invite all interested parties, including the current administering carrier, to submit bids to serve as the administering carrier for the succeeding period.

(4) The administering carrier shall be paid as provided in the plan of operation.

10-8-512. Premiums - standard risk rate. (1) Premiums charged for the health benefit plans and coordination of benefits plans offered by the program shall be based on the standard risk rate calculated pursuant to subsection (2) of this section and shall not be unreasonable in relation to the benefits provided, the risk experience, and the reasonable actual expenses of providing the benefits. Rates and schedules may be adjusted by the board for appropriate risk factors in accordance with established actuarial underwriting practices.

(2) (a) The standard risk rate plans offered by the program shall be calculated using the average rate charged by the five largest carriers in the state who offer plans comparable to the plans issued by the program.

(b) If there are fewer than five carriers offering such plans, the standard risk rate shall be established by considering the rates charged by such number of carriers as there are in the state and by using reasonable actuarial techniques, which shall reflect anticipated claims experience and expenses for such plans.

(3) (a) Average premium rates for coverage under the program shall be no less than the standard risk rate established pursuant to subsection (2) of this section and shall not exceed one hundred fifty percent of the standard risk rate established pursuant to subsection (2) of this section. Premium rates established pursuant to this paragraph (a) shall not apply to an individual who is approved by the board for participation in the premium subsidy program established by the board.

(b) and (c) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2006, p. 207, § 1, effective March 31, 2006.)

10-8-512.5. Fee schedule - compensation of health care providers. (1) (a) The board may establish one or more fee schedules setting the amount that the program will compensate all medical, surgical, hospital, and other health care service providers who provide services covered by the program to a CoverColorado participant. A fee schedule established pursuant to this section may be based on various reimbursement methodologies commonly used in the health insurance industry, including discounted billed charges, case rates, the fee schedule established pursuant to section 8-42-101 (3) (a), C.R.S., for services provided by physicians to injured workers under the "Workers' Compensation Act of Colorado", and multiples of medicare reimbursement, but shall be set at amounts that exceed the reimbursement generally paid to any category of provider by medicare. Additionally, in developing a fee schedule pursuant to this section, the board shall consider at least the following factors:

(I) The cost savings to the program;

(II) The equity of the fee schedule for providers;

(III) The impact a fee schedule may have on the cost shift to other payers; and

(IV) The impact a fee schedule may have on access to providers.

(b) (I) Prior to establishing a fee schedule pursuant to this section, the board shall create one or more mechanisms, such as an advisory reimbursement committee, to assist and make recommendations to the board in establishing the fee schedule. The board shall take such recommendations and other input from providers into consideration when establishing a fee schedule.

(II) If the board establishes a fee schedule, the board shall review the fee schedule annually to determine whether any modifications are needed. Prior to determining whether to modify or actually modifying the fee schedule, the board shall consult with and consider the recommendations of any advisory reimbursement committee or other mechanism created pursuant to subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (b) and shall consider any other input from providers.

(III) Any mechanisms for input created by the board pursuant to this paragraph (b), including an advisory reimbursement committee, shall be public and open to participation by health care providers, hospital representatives, consumers, and other stakeholders who possess information that will contribute to and assist in the establishment or modification of a fee schedule as authorized by this section.

(c) Any fee schedule established pursuant to this section shall take effect no sooner than January 1, 2011, or on such later date as determined by the board.

(d) If the established fee schedule results in savings to the program, the board shall use the savings to reduce the amounts needed from participants, insurers, and the unclaimed property trust fund pursuant to section 10-8-530 (1) for the total funding for the program, as defined in section 10-8-530 (1) (e) (I).

(2) (a) A health care provider, health care facility, emergency service provider, or other person or entity providing health care services to a participant shall not contract with or otherwise demand payment from a participant or the program for amounts for services covered by the program that are in excess of the applicable fee on a fee schedule established pursuant to this section. Any demand for payment of charges that exceeds the applicable fee on the fee schedule shall be unlawful, void, and unenforceable as a debt.

(b) Nothing in this subsection (2) precludes a health care provider, health care facility, emergency service provider, or other person or entity providing health care services to a participant from billing or charging a participant for applicable coinsurance, deductible, or copayment amounts or for services not covered by the program.

10-8-513. Eligibility for coverage under program. (1) Except for those individuals who meet the criteria set forth in subsection (2) of this section and except as provided in section 10-8-513.5, any individual who is a resident of this state, unless exempted by subsection (4) of this section, and who has been residing in the United States under the color of law for at least six months, including children who have been placed for adoption, as defined in section 10-16-104 (6.5) or are under the legal guardianship of a resident of Colorado, shall be eligible for coverage under the program, if such individual is able to provide evidence satisfactory to the administering carrier that such individual meets one of the following conditions:

(a) Such individual has applied to a carrier for a health benefit plan and:

(I) Such application has been rejected or refused because of the health or medical condition of the applicant; or

(II) Such application has been accepted, but at a premium rate exceeding the rate available through the program; or

(III) Such application was accepted with a reduction or exclusion of coverage for a preexisting medical or health condition for a period exceeding six months.

(b) Such individual has a history of any medical or health condition that is on the presumptive conditions list adopted by the board pursuant to section 10-8-506 (1) (g.5).

(c) Such individual has had a health benefit plan involuntarily terminated by a carrier in this state for any reason other than nonpayment of a premium or premiums.

(d) For purposes of a coordination of benefits plan offered by the program, the individual is:

(I) Under age sixty-five;

(II) Eligible for medicare by reason of disability;

(III) Enrolled in parts A and B of medicare; and

(IV) Not applying to the program during the open enrollment period for a medicare supplement policy.

(1.5) For the purposes of paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of this section, a rejection, excessive rate, or exclusion by a carrier offering only stop-loss or excess loss insurance to a self-insured group health plan shall not be satisfactory evidence of eligibility.

(2) The following individuals shall not be eligible for coverage under the program:

(a) Those who are eligible for health care services under the "Colorado Medical Assistance Act", articles 4, 5, and 6 of title 25.5, C.R.S.;

(a.5) Those who fail to pay any program premium when due;

(b) Those whose coverage under the program has been terminated less than twelve months prior to the date of the current application;

(c) Those who have received one million dollars in benefits from the program;

(d) Those who are inmates or residents of public institutions;

(e) Those who are eligible for any other health benefit plan, including any public program, that provides coverage for health care services, regardless of whether such other health benefit plan covers all health care services or categories of services that such individuals may from time to time need, except as provided in subparagraphs (II) and (III) of paragraph (a) or paragraph (d) of subsection (1) of this section; and

(f) Those for whom the program premiums are paid or reimbursed, directly or indirectly, under any public program; by any federal, state, or local government agency or political subdivision; or by any private entity or person, including a health care professional, health care facility, other health care provider, or pharmaceutical company, if any such payer could financially benefit from the coverage of an individual under the program. Notwithstanding any other provision in this paragraph (f), the board, on its own discretion, may implement one or more model programs involving such funding of program premiums if such model program is fiscally responsible in the use of program funds and consistent with section 10-8-502.

(3) Dependents of participants may be covered under the program; except that the program need not offer the same health benefit plan or the same premium to such dependent as is offered to eligible individuals.

(4) The residency requirement shall be waived for any individual who has been a participant in a program similar to CoverColorado in another state and who, within thirty days of relocating to this state, applies for coverage under the program.

(5) Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the contrary, an individual shall not lose eligibility for the program solely because a member of the individual's family pays, in whole or in part, the premiums for the program.

10-8-513.5. Federally eligible individuals. (1) (a) For the purposes of this part 5, "federally eligible individual" means any one of the following, to the extent federally eligible individuals are designated by the governor:

(I) Any individual who meets the definition of "federally eligible individual" pursuant to section 10-16-105.5 (1);

(II) Any individual who is eligible for a tax credit against the amounts the individual must pay for qualifying health insurance pursuant to the federal "Trade Act of 2002", as amended; or

(III) Any other individual who is designated by federal law as eligible for coverage by a qualified state high-risk pool.

(b) Federally eligible individuals shall be eligible for coverage under the program and shall not be subject to the eligibility requirements of section 10-8-513.

(2) A dependent of a federally eligible individual may be covered under the program if the dependent satisfies the definition of "dependent" set forth in section 10-16-102 (14); except that the program need not offer the same health benefit plan or the same premium to such dependent as is offered to eligible individuals.

(3) The requirements of this part 5 regarding benefits, premiums, and lifetime or annual benefit limits, and the preexisting condition limitation periods allowed by section 10-8-516, apply to federally eligible individuals who participate in the program, unless otherwise provided in the federal law establishing the eligibility for the individuals.

10-8-514. Deductibles - coinsurance. (1) Any participant may select coverage from a choice of deductibles offered by the board. Such choice shall include deductibles of not less than three hundred dollars.

(2) The board shall establish such coinsurance requirements and out-of-pocket expense maximums for each of the health benefit plans as it shall deem comparable to those offered in the group health coverage market in Colorado.

(3) For any policy year in which a participant's out-of-pocket maximum is reached, the program shall pay one hundred percent of all additional covered costs incurred by the participant.

10-8-516. Preexisting conditions. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, coverage under the program shall exclude charges or expenses incurred during the first six months following the effective date of coverage as to any preexisting condition that is not defined more restrictively than an injury, sickness, or pregnancy for which a person incurred charges, received medical treatment, consulted a health care professional, or took prescription drugs within the six-month period immediately preceding the effective date of coverage.

(2) The program shall give credit for the period of time an eligible individual had qualifying previous coverage for the preexisting condition that was continuous to a date not more than ninety days prior to the effective date of enrollment in the program. In the case of an individual eligible for the program pursuant to section 10-8-513.5 (1) (a) (II), the program shall not impose an exclusion on coverage of a preexisting condition of any such individual if the individual had qualifying previous coverage for at least a three-month period continuous to a date not more than ninety days prior to enrollment in the program.

10-8-525. Benefits - availability - maximum coverage. (1) Every eligible individual, as determined pursuant to section 10-8-513 (1) (a), (1) (b), or (1) (c), may purchase from the program a health benefit plan that extends coverage for major medical expenses or, in the case of a federally eligible individual, as defined in section 10-8-513.5, that extends comprehensive coverage. Any such health benefit plan shall pay for the health care services that are covered under this part 5, subject to the deductible and coinsurance payments and other cost containment controls authorized under this part 5 and subject to a lifetime limit of one million dollars per insured individual.

(2) Every individual eligible pursuant to section 10-8-513 (1) (d) may purchase a coordination of benefits plan that coordinates with medicare coverage, as determined by the board. A coordination of benefits plan offered under this part 5 may extend coverage for health care services or expenses not covered by medicare. Coverage under a coordination of benefits plan shall not duplicate coverage under medicare and shall be subject to a lifetime limit of one million dollars per participant.

10-8-526. Expenses covered. Health benefit plans issued pursuant to this part 5 shall cover expenses incurred for health care services or articles or items related to such services or articles that are medically necessary, subject to the cost containment controls authorized by this part 5; except that such coverage shall not extend to costs for such services or articles over and above any schedule of fees established pursuant to section 10-8-512.5 and shall not extend to services or articles that are not prescribed by a physician who is licensed to practice in the state or jurisdiction where such services or articles are provided. Such services shall include but not be limited to care for acute illnesses and ongoing care for the treatment of the insured's uninsurable condition. Coverage under a health benefit plan shall be at least comparable to that issued on a group basis in the market.

10-8-527. Expenses excluded. (1) Health benefit plans issued pursuant to this part 5 shall clearly disclose those services, items, or supplies that are not covered expenses, including, but not limited to, expenses incurred for:

- (a) Illness or injury due to an act of war;
- (b) Services rendered prior to the effective date of coverage under the applicable health benefit plan for the person on whose behalf the expense is incurred;
- (c) Services for which no charge would be made in the absence of insurance or for which the insured bears no legal obligation to pay;
- (d) (I) Services or charges incurred by the participant that are otherwise covered by:
  - (A) Medicare, medicaid, or the "Colorado Medical Assistance Act";
  - (B) Medical services provided for members of the United States armed forces and their dependents or for employees of said armed forces;
  - (C) Military service-connected disability benefits;
  - (D) Other benefit or entitlement programs provided for by the laws of the United States;

(E) Workers' compensation or similar programs addressing injuries, diseases, or conditions incurred in the course of employment covered by such programs;

(F) Benefits payable without regard to fault pursuant to any motor vehicle or other liability insurance policy or equivalent self-insurance.

(II) This exclusion shall not apply to services or charges which exceed the benefits payable under the applicable program listed in sub-subparagraphs (A) to (F) of subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (d) and which are otherwise eligible for payment under this part 5.

(e) Services the provision of which is not within the scope of the license or certificate of the institution or individual rendering such service;

(f) That part of any charge for services or articles rendered or prescribed by a health care provider which exceeds the prevailing charge for such services or articles in the locality wherein they are provided;

(g) Services or articles not medically necessary;

(h) Care which is primarily custodial or domiciliary in nature;

(i) Cosmetic surgery unless provided as the result of an injury or medically necessary surgical procedure;

(j) Eye surgery if corrective lenses would alleviate the problem;

(k) Experimental services or supplies;

(l) Service of a blood donor and any fee for failure of the participant to replace the first three pints of blood provided in each calendar year;

(m) Personal supplies or services provided by a health care facility or any other nonmedical or nonprescribed supply or service.

10-8-530. Funding of program - rules - repeal. (1) (a) The program shall be funded from the following sources, and on and after January 1, 2009, those funding sources shall constitute, as nearly as possible, the percentages of total funding for the program as specified in paragraph (b) of this subsection (1):

(I) Moneys transmitted pursuant to section 38-13-116.5 (2.7), C.R.S.;

(II) Premiums charged pursuant to section 10-8-512;

(III) Moneys remaining in the CoverColorado cash fund, created pursuant to this section, as it existed prior to July 1, 1997;

(IV) Special fees assessed against insurers as provided in subsection (1.5) of this section;

(V) Any moneys accepted through gifts, grants, or donations received by the board for operation of the program, including contributions received pursuant to the premium tax credit allocation provisions of section 10-8-534.

(b) (I) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (d) of this subsection (1), moneys transmitted to the program pursuant to subparagraph (I) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) shall constitute, as nearly as possible, twenty-five percent of the total funding for the program for a given calendar year.

(II) Moneys charged, accepted, or available for the program pursuant to subparagraph (II), (III), or (V) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) shall constitute, as nearly as possible, fifty percent of the total funding for the program for a given calendar year.

(III) Moneys collected from special fees assessed against insurers pursuant to subparagraph (IV) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) shall constitute, as nearly as possible, twenty-five percent of the total funding for the program for a given calendar year, and in no case shall the special fees constitute more than twenty-five percent of the total funding for the program in any given calendar year. The special fees may constitute less than twenty-five percent of the total funding for the program in a calendar year if the program experiences unexpected growth.

(b.5) Nothing in paragraph (b) of this subsection (1) limits the ability of the program to apply for, accept, or expend federal funds, grants, or donations provided to the program for the implementation and administration of a temporary high risk health insurance pool program as required by section 1101 of the federal "Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act", H.R. 3590, Pub.L. 111-148, or for the payment of claim expenses of the federally eligible individuals who participate in the program under a temporary high risk health insurance pool program pursuant to said federal act. Any federal funds, grants, or donations provided to the program for the purposes specified in this paragraph (b.5) shall not be commingled with moneys described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) and shall not be included as a source of funding or as part of the funding formula for the program as set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (1).

(c) (I) On and after January 1, 2009, the board shall submit an annual report to the state treasurer specifying the following information:

(A) Incurred claims and administrative expenses of the program in the immediately preceding calendar year;

(B) The expected annual program enrollment growth, claims expenses, and other actuarial considerations of the program; and

(C) The amount needed from the unclaimed property trust fund to provide twenty-five percent of the total funding for the program for the current calendar year, based on the projected operating revenues of the program and the projected cash balance of all program accounts.

(II) After receipt of the report required by this paragraph (c), the state treasurer shall transmit the amount specified in sub-subparagraph (C) of subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (c) to the program in twelve equal monthly installments. The moneys transmitted by the state treasurer shall be used to pay claims and administrative expenses of the program and to maintain reserves for claims incurred but not reported and a surplus equal to five percent of projected annual claims. No part of the moneys transmitted by the state treasurer shall be used to pay for the administrative expenses or losses of any dependents who have chosen coverage under the program.

(d) If the program experiences unexpected growth, and if the losses for the program for claims and administrative expenses exceed the projected losses for the program in that calendar year, the board shall calculate the excess losses and report the amount of excess losses to the state treasurer within ninety days after the end of the calendar year in which the excess losses are incurred. Upon receipt of the board's report on the program's excess losses, the state treasurer shall make a supplemental transmittal of moneys from the unclaimed property trust fund to the program to cover the excess losses.

(e) As used in this section:

(I) "Total funding for the program" means the amount needed in a given calendar year to fund projected claims, administrative expenses, reserves for claims incurred but not reported, and a surplus equal to five percent of the projected annual claims of the program.

(II) "Unexpected growth" means an increase in program enrollment or claims expenses in a calendar year of more than one hundred fifteen percent of the amount of the projected growth in program enrollment or claims expenses for that calendar year.

(a.5) (I) On and after January 1, 2009, the program shall assess special fees against insurers in an amount necessary to provide the percentage of total funding for the program specified in paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section. The amount of the special fees shall be determined by the board based on the incurred claims and administrative expenses of the program in the immediately preceding calendar year, the expected annual program growth, and other actuarial considerations of the program.

(II) Special fees assessed pursuant to this subsection (1.5) shall be used to pay the administrative expenses and losses related to eligible individuals in the program. No part of the special fees shall be used to pay for the administrative expenses or losses of any dependents who have chosen coverage under the program.

(III) If an insurer fails to pay a special fee to the program in accordance with the time periods established by rule, the commissioner may use all powers conferred by the insurance laws of this state to enforce payment of the special fees.

(b) (I) The commissioner shall promulgate rules to implement this subsection (1.5), including, but not limited to:

(A) The reasonable time periods for the billing and collection of the special fees;

(B) The process for determining the allocation of the assessment among insurers, including the process for obtaining accurate information about the number of lives insured by any insurer within the six months prior to an assessment;

(C) Any procedures for the approval of deferral or abatement of special fees, in whole or in part, including, but not limited to, the creation of a credit against the amount of an assessment owed by an insurer for such insurer who issues a substantial number of health benefit plans to persons who are eligible for the program; and

(D) The equity of the assessment.

(II) In promulgating such rules for an equitable assessment, the commissioner shall give consideration to:

(A) The volume of premium dollars received by a stop-loss insurer relative to the number of covered lives insured by that insurer and any other factors; and

(B) The budget and rate setting deadlines of the insurers.

(III) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2008. p. 1254, § 2, effective July 1, 2008.)

(d) Repealed. / (Deleted by amendment, L. 2008. p. 1254, § 2, effective July 1, 2008.)

(e) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2008. p. 1254, § 2, effective July 1, 2008.)

(g) For purposes of this subsection (1.5), "lives insured" shall be determined by rule of the commissioner; except that in no event shall "lives insured" include persons who receive health benefits through medicaid, medicare, the children's basic health plan pursuant to article 8 of title 25.5, C.R.S., or the federal employees health benefit program. "Lives insured" may exclude dependent lives, at the discretion of the commissioner.

(g.5) Repealed.

(h) Repealed. / (Deleted by amendment, L. 2008. p. 1254, § 2, effective July 1, 2008.)

(i) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2004. p. 1150, § 3, effective August 4, 2004.)

(3) Premiums shall be collected by the administering carrier in accordance with section 10-8-509 (1), with all premiums collected used to pay the administrative expenses and the losses of the program. Any funds that are not immediately needed to pay administrative expenses shall be invested as determined by the board.

(4) (a) Any special fees assessed shall be collected by and deposited into the accounts of the program, for use as provided in subsection (1.5) of this section. Any moneys that are not immediately needed to pay expenses and losses shall be invested as determined by the board in accordance with investment guidelines set forth in its plan of operation.

(b) Any moneys received from the treasurer pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of this section shall be collected by and deposited into the accounts of the program for the uses provided in subparagraph (II) of paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of this section. Any moneys that are not immediately needed to pay expenses and losses shall be invested as determined by the board in accordance with the investment guidelines set forth in its plan of operation.

(c) (I) The executive director of the program shall report annually to the joint budget committee concerning the receipt and expenditure of moneys in the accounts of the program.

(II) The reporting requirement pursuant to this paragraph (c) shall be exempt from the third-year review by the general assembly pursuant to section 24-1-136, C.R.S.

(d) Any moneys in the CoverColorado cash fund as of August 4, 2004, shall be collected by and deposited into the accounts of the program to be used for the administration of the program.

(5) (a) Paragraphs (b) to (e) of subsection (1) of this section and paragraph (a.5) of subsection (1.5) of this section are repealed, effective July 1, 2017.

(b) Prior to the repeal of the paragraphs specified in this subsection (5), the state auditor shall conduct or cause to be conducted a review and evaluation of the efficacy of the funding structure of the program as specified in those paragraphs. The state auditor shall submit a report to the general assembly by January 1, 2017, detailing its review and evaluation of the funding structure of the program and making a recommendation regarding whether the funding structure, as specified in paragraphs (b) to (e) of subsection (1) of this section and paragraph (a.5) of subsection (1.5) of this section, should be continued, modified, or repealed.

10-8-534. Tax credit for contributions to CoverColorado - allocation notice - rules.

(1) (a) For tax years 2005 through 2014 there shall be allowed a credit against the tax imposed by sections 10-3-209 and 10-6-128 to any insurance company that becomes a qualified taxpayer by making a contribution to CoverColorado pursuant to this section.

(b) A qualified taxpayer claiming a credit against premium tax liability under this section shall not be required to pay any additional retaliatory tax as a result of claiming such credit.

(2) The commissioner may promulgate rules necessary for the administration of the tax credit allowed by subsection (1) of this section in accordance with article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

(3) (a) Subject to paragraph (c) of subsection (4) of this section, an insurance company shall become a qualified taxpayer if all of the following conditions are met:

(I) The insurance company declares with its quarterly tax payment due on or about July 31 in the manner prescribed by the commissioner its intent to contribute to CoverColorado on or before October 31 an amount of money equal to the premium taxes paid by the company pursuant to the July 31 tax payment or a lesser amount as specified by the commissioner if required pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection (4) of this section;

(II) The amount of the tax credits granted by the commissioner does not exceed the annual maximum aggregate amount set forth in subsection (4) of this section; and

(III) The insurance company receives an allocation notice from the commissioner and the insurance company makes the contribution to CoverColorado as specified in the allocation notice on or before October 31.

(b) Subject to paragraph (c) of subsection (4) of this section, an insurance company that has become a qualified taxpayer may claim the tax credit on one or more subsequent quarterly or annual tax payments beginning on or about October 31.

(c) The board shall promptly notify the commissioner when it receives a contribution pursuant to this section of the amount and date of the contribution and the name of the contributor.

(4) (a) Subject to paragraph (c) of this subsection (4), the commissioner shall by September 30:

(I) Send an allocation notice to each insurance company whose declaration of intent to contribute to CoverColorado has been accepted pursuant to this subsection (4). The allocation notice shall specify the amount of tax credits allocated to the insurance company and the amount of cash the insurance company must contribute to CoverColorado by October 31, which amounts shall be identical and not exceed the amount of premium taxes paid by the insurance company in its quarterly tax payment due on or about July 31; and

(II) Post on the division's web site whether the full amount of tax credits authorized to be allocated each year has been allocated.

(b) Subject to paragraph (c) of this subsection (4), the commissioner shall allocate no more than five million dollars of premium tax credits per year or, if Senate Bill 04-106 is declared to be unconstitutional by a final judgment that invalidates the tax credits enacted by such bill, no more than ten million dollars of premium tax credits per year. The commissioner shall allocate to an insurance company that has declared its intent to contribute to CoverColorado pursuant to this section tax credits in an amount equal to the amount of premium taxes paid by the insurance company in its quarterly tax payment due on or about July 31 in the order in which the division receives such quarterly tax payments until the full amount of credits available pursuant to this section has been allocated; except that, if such amount of taxes or the sum of all such taxes filed by all such insurance companies on any one day would exceed, singly or in the aggregate, the annual maximum aggregate amount of tax credits available under this section, the commissioner shall reduce the contribution of the insurance company whose contribution first exceeds the annual maximum aggregate to the amount needed to satisfy the annual maximum aggregate. If the commissioner is unable to determine the order of receipt of tax payments on that day, the commissioner shall allocate the tax credits to the company or among the companies on a pro rata basis based on the ratio such company's quarterly tax payment bears to the total amount of all such companies' quarterly tax payments until the full amount of credits available pursuant to this section has been allocated.

(c) (I) The commissioner shall allow insurance companies to declare their intent to contribute to CoverColorado pursuant to this section on the insurance companies' quarterly tax payments due on or about October 31 and shall send such companies allocation notices by February 1 if:

(A) The full amount of tax credits available in any one year have not been fully allocated by the commissioner pursuant to statements of intent filed with insurance companies' quarterly tax payments due on or about July 31; or

(B) Such full amount has been claimed but one or more insurance companies failed to timely make a contribution to CoverColorado.

(II) An insurance company that declares its intent to contribute to CoverColorado pursuant to this paragraph (c) shall make the contribution to CoverColorado as specified in the allocation notice on or before March 1 and may claim the tax credit on one or more subsequent quarterly or annual tax payments due on or about March 1.

(5) Moneys contributed to the board pursuant to this section and interest derived from the deposit and investment of such moneys shall be used for only those purposes specified in section 10-8-530 (1.5) and only when an assessment would otherwise be necessary in the absence of such moneys and interest.

(6) Offers to contribute to CoverColorado that were made pursuant to this section prior to April 22, 2005, shall be deemed to be of no effect.

10-10-102. Legislative declaration. The purpose of this article is to promote the public welfare by regulating credit insurance. Nothing in this article is intended to prohibit or discourage reasonable competition. The provisions of this article shall be liberally construed.

10-10-103. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

- (1) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of insurance of Colorado.
- (2) "Credit insurance" means insurance on a debtor to provide indemnity for payments or loan balance, or any combination thereof, becoming due on a specific loan or other credit transaction upon the occurrence of a contingency for which insurance is obtained.
- (3) (Deleted by amendment, L. 92, p. 1569, § 83, effective May 20, 1992.)
- (4) "Creditor" means the lender of money or vendor or lessor of goods, services, property, rights, or privileges for which payment is arranged through a credit transaction, or any successor to the right, title, or interest of any such lender, vendor, or lessor, and an affiliate, associate, or subsidiary of any of them, or any director, officer, or employee of any of them, or any other person in any way associated with any of them.
- (5) "Debtor" means a borrower of money or a purchaser or lessee of goods, services, property, rights, or privileges for which payment is arranged through a credit transaction.
- (6) "Indebtedness" means the total amount payable by a debtor to a creditor in connection with a loan or other credit transaction.
- (7) "Truncated coverage" means credit insurance that provides a term of insurance coverage for a period that is shorter than the full term of the indebtedness remaining at the time the insurance coverage is elected. The term does not include credit insurance coverage that terminates on attainment of a specific age.

10-10-106. Amount of credit insurance. (1) The initial amount of credit insurance shall not exceed the total amount repayable under the contract of indebtedness and, where an indebtedness is repayable in substantially equal installments, the amount of insurance shall at no time exceed the scheduled or actual amount of unpaid indebtedness, whichever is greater.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, insurance on agricultural credit transaction commitments, not exceeding one year in duration, may be written up to the amount of the loan commitment on a nondecreasing or level term plan.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, insurance on educational credit transaction commitments may be written for the amount of the portion of such commitment that has not been advanced by the creditor.

(4) The total amount of periodic indemnity payable by credit accident and health insurance in the event of disability, as defined in the policy, shall not exceed the aggregate of the periodic scheduled unpaid installments of the indebtedness; and the amount of each periodic indemnity payment shall not exceed the original indebtedness divided by the number of periodic installments.

10-10-107. Term of credit insurance. The term of any credit insurance shall, subject to acceptance by the insurer, commence on the date when the debtor becomes obligated to the creditor; except that, where a group policy provides coverage with respect to existing obligations, the insurance on a debtor with respect to such indebtedness shall commence on the effective date of the policy. Where evidence of insurability is required and such evidence is furnished more than thirty days after the date when the debtor becomes obligated to the creditor, the term of the insurance may commence on the date on which the insurance company determines the evidence to be satisfactory, and in such event there shall be an appropriate refund or adjustment of any charge to the debtor for insurance. The term of such insurance shall not extend more than thirty days beyond the scheduled maturity date of the indebtedness except when extended without additional cost to the debtor, unless the debtor has agreed in writing. If the indebtedness is discharged due to renewal or refinancing prior to the scheduled maturity date, the insurance in force shall be terminated before any new insurance is issued in connection with the renewed or refinanced indebtedness. In all cases of termination prior to scheduled maturity, a refund shall be paid or credited as provided in section 10-10-110.

10-10-108. Provisions of policies and certificates of insurance - disclosure to debtors. (1) All credit insurance shall be evidenced by an individual policy or, in the case of group insurance, by a certificate of insurance, which individual policy or group certificate of insurance shall be delivered to the debtor.

(2) Each individual policy or group certificate of credit insurance shall, in addition to other requirements of law, set forth:

(a) The name and home office address of the insurer;

(b) The name of the debtor or, in the case of a certificate under a group policy, the identity by name, or otherwise, of the debtor;

(c) The premium or amount of payment, if any, by the debtor separately for credit insurance;

(d) A description of the coverage, including the amount and term thereof, and any exceptions, limitations, and restrictions, and it shall state that the benefits shall be paid to the creditor to reduce or extinguish the unpaid indebtedness and, wherever the amount of insurance exceeds the unpaid indebtedness, that any such excess shall be payable to a beneficiary, other than the creditor, named by the debtor or to his estate.

(3) Said individual policy or group certificate of insurance shall be delivered to the insured debtor at the time the indebtedness is incurred, except as provided in subsection (4) of this section.

(4) (a) If said individual policy or group certificate of insurance is not delivered to the debtor at the time the indebtedness is incurred, a copy of the application for such policy or a notice of proposed insurance, signed by the debtor, shall be delivered to the debtor at the time such indebtedness is incurred, setting forth:

(I) The name and home office address of the insurer;

(II) The name of the debtor;

(III) The premium or amount of payment by the debtor, if any, separately for credit insurance;

(IV) The amount, term, and a brief description of the coverage provided.

(b) The copy of the application for, or notice of, proposed insurance shall also refer exclusively to insurance coverage and shall be separate and apart from the loan, sale, or other credit statement of account, instrument, or agreement unless the information required by this subsection (4) is prominently set forth therein. Upon acceptance of the insurance by the insurer and within thirty days of the date upon which the indebtedness is incurred, the insurer shall cause the individual policy or group certificate of insurance to be delivered to the debtor. Said application or notice of proposed insurance shall state that upon acceptance by the insurer, the insurance shall become effective as provided in section 10-10-107.

(c) If the named insurer does not accept the risk, the debtor shall receive a policy or certificate of insurance setting forth the name and home office address of the substituted insurer and the amount of the premium to be charged, and, if the amount of premium is less than that set forth in the notice of proposed insurance, an appropriate refund shall be made.

10-10-109. Filing form certification - filing of rating data - withdrawal of forms.

(1) All policies, certificates of insurance, notices of proposed insurance, applications for insurance, endorsements, and riders delivered or issued for delivery in this state shall be certified, and the schedules of premium rates pertaining thereto shall be filed with the commissioner pursuant to subsections (3), (3.5), and (4) of this section.

(2.5) (a) For credit insurance directly written by a state or national bank, an insurer may, by form number, elect to be subject to and have its premium rate or schedule of premium rates determined pursuant to paragraph (b) or paragraph (c) of this subsection (2.5). For credit insurance not directly written by a state or national bank, an insurer shall have its premium rate or schedule of premium rates determined by paragraph (c) of this subsection (2.5).

(b) A premium rate or schedule of premium rates shall be deemed reasonable for all purposes under this article if the rate or schedule produces, or reasonably may be expected to produce, a ratio of incurred claims to earned premium of not less than forty percent.

(c) (I) Except for credit insurance directly written by a state or national bank where the insurer has elected to be subject to paragraph (b) of this subsection (2.5), an insurer's premium rate or schedule of premium rates shall be reasonable in relation to the benefits provided and shall not be excessive, inadequate, nor unfairly discriminatory. The commissioner may establish rates that may be used by any insurer without filing. In establishing such rates, the commissioner shall consider and provide for the following component rating elements:

(A) Actual and expected loss experience;

(B) General and administrative expenses;

(C) Loss settlement and adjustment expenses;

(D) Reasonable creditor compensation;

(E) Investment income;

(F) The manner in which premiums are charged;

(G) Other acquisition costs;

(H) Reserves;

(I) Taxes;

(J) Regulatory license fees and fund assessments;

(K) Reasonable insurer profit; and

(II) The commissioner has the authority to promulgate rules to assure that the premium rates are reasonable in relation to the benefits provided, including the authority to regulate the compensation component of the premium rates and to limit the type and kind of benefits to which the rates shall apply. The commissioner shall work with the regulated community in the development of the component rating elements. Each credit insurer that receives combined direct credit insurance premiums in this state in the amount of one hundred thousand dollars or more shall be subject to an administrative assessment of not more than one thousand five hundred dollars per insurer annually to provide the division of insurance with funds to perform duties required by this paragraph (c).

(3) All insurers providing credit insurance that are authorized by the commissioner to conduct business in Colorado shall submit to the commissioner:

(a) An annual report listing any policy forms, certificates of insurance, notices of proposed insurance, applications for insurance, endorsements, and riders issued or delivered in this state. Such listing shall be submitted on or before July 15, 2000, and on or before July 1 of each subsequent year. Each annual report shall include a certification by an officer of the organization that, to the best of the officer's knowledge, each policy form, certificate of insurance, notice of proposed insurance, application for insurance, endorsement, or rider in use complies with Colorado law.

(b) A list of new policy forms, certificates of insurance, notices of proposed insurance, applications for insurance, endorsements, and riders. Such list shall also include a certification by an officer of the organization that, to the best of the officer's knowledge, each policy form, certificate of insurance, notice of proposed insurance, application for insurance, endorsement, or rider in use complies with Colorado law.

(3.5) If an insurer elects to file pursuant to paragraph (c) of subsection (2.5) of this section, commencing July 1, 2002, the insurer shall offer only component rating for credit insurance premiums pursuant to subsection (2.5) of this section for all new policies, certificates of insurance, notices of proposed insurance, applications for insurance, endorsements, and riders delivered or issued for delivery and phase in all existing creditor accounts to component rating accounts by no later than July 1, 2003.

(4) The commissioner shall have the power to examine and investigate insurers authorized to conduct business within Colorado to determine whether credit insurance policy forms, certificates of insurance, notices of proposed insurance, applications for insurance, endorsements, and riders comply with the certification made by the insurer's officer and with Colorado law. The commissioner may promulgate rules regarding the elements necessary in an insurer's certification of compliance with Colorado law.

(5) and (6) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2000, p. 467, § 7, effective August 2, 2000.)

(7) Any order or final determination of the commissioner under the provisions of this section shall be subject to judicial review.

(8) (a) If, after an examination or investigation of an insurer, the commissioner has cause to believe that such insurer or any rate, rating schedule, rating plan, or rating system made or used by the insurer does not comply with applicable requirements, the commissioner shall give notice in writing to such insurer, stating in the notice in what manner and to what extent such noncompliance is alleged to exist and specifying a reasonable time, not less than ten days after the date of receipt of such notice, by which such noncompliance shall be corrected.

(b) If the commissioner has good cause to believe that an insurer's noncompliance is willful or, if within the period prescribed by the commissioner in the notice issued in accordance with paragraph (a) of this subsection (8), the insurer does not either make such changes as may be necessary to correct the noncompliance specified by the commissioner or establish to the satisfaction of the commissioner that such specified noncompliance does not exist, the commissioner may hold a public hearing in accordance with section 24-4-105, C.R.S., on the subject of the noncompliance.

(c) (I) If, after a public hearing, the commissioner finds that any rate violates the applicable provisions of this title, the commissioner may issue an order to the insurer specifying in what respects such violation exists and stating when, within a reasonable period of time, the further use of such rate or rating system by such insurer or rating organization in contracts of insurance made after such time shall be prohibited. In such order, the commissioner may require a refund to the policyholder in an amount equal to the excess premium plus a maximum of eighteen percent interest. The amount of the refund, plus interest, shall be computed from the effective date of the rate used on the individual policyholder contract to the commencement date of the hearing on the rate. Interest shall be computed as simple interest per annum.

(II) In addition to any other remedies or penalties provided by law, the commissioner may suspend or revoke, in whole or in part, the certificate of authority of any insurer that fails to comply with an order of the commissioner within the time specified in such order. The commissioner shall not suspend or revoke the license or certificate of authority for failure to comply with an order until the time prescribed for an appeal of the order has expired, or, if an appeal has been taken, until such order has been affirmed. The commissioner may determine when a suspension or revocation of a certificate of authority shall become effective. An order of suspension shall remain in effect for the period fixed by the commissioner unless the commissioner modifies or rescinds such suspension or until the order upon which such suspension is based is modified, rescinded, or reversed. No license shall be suspended or revoked except pursuant to a written order of the commissioner, stating the commissioner's findings, made after a hearing held upon not less than ten days' written notice to such insurer specifying the alleged violation.

(d) (I) If, after a public hearing, the commissioner finds that the violation of any of the applicable provisions of this title was willful, the commissioner may suspend or revoke, in whole or in part, the certificate of authority of such insurer.

(II) If a failure to comply with an order of the commissioner within the time specified in such order is willful, the insurer shall be liable to the state in an amount not to exceed five thousand dollars for such failure. The commissioner shall collect such amount and may bring a civil action in the name of the people of the state of Colorado to enforce collection. Such penalty may be in addition to the remedy provided in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (d). All moneys collected by the commissioner shall be paid into the general fund.

(e) Any finding, determination, rule, ruling, or order made by the commissioner pursuant to this subsection (8) is subject to judicial review by the court of appeals. Such review shall be performed in accordance with the provisions of section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S.

10-10-110. Premiums and refunds. (1) (a) If an insurer has elected to file pursuant to section 10-10-109 (2.5) (b), the insurer may revise its schedules of premium rates from time to time and shall file such revised schedules with the commissioner. No insurer shall issue any credit insurance policy for which the premium rate exceeds that determined by the schedules of such insurer as then on file with the commissioner.

(b) If an insurer has elected to file pursuant to section 10-10-109 (2.5) (c), the insurer may file with the commissioner and use any premium rate or schedule of premium rates that is less than or equal to the premium rate established by the commissioner. Insurers shall not use premium rates higher than the premium rates established by the commissioner.

(2) (a) Upon prepayment in full of the indebtedness, all credit insurance issued on such indebtedness shall terminate.

(b) An insurer, upon receiving notice pursuant to section 5-4-108 (2), C.R.S., that a refund or credit of unearned premiums on insurance issued under this article is required by section 5-4-108 (1), C.R.S., shall make the appropriate refund or credit to the person entitled thereto within thirty days of receipt of such notice. The formula to be used in computing the refund or credit shall be filed with and approved by the commissioner. No refund of less than one dollar need be made.

(3) If a creditor requires a debtor to make any payment for credit insurance and an individual policy or group certificate of insurance is not issued, the creditor shall immediately give written notice to such debtor and shall promptly make an appropriate credit to the account.

(4) The amount charged to a debtor for any credit insurance shall not exceed the premiums charged by the insurer, as computed at the time the charge to the debtor is determined.

(5) Nothing in this article shall be construed to authorize any payments for insurance now prohibited under any statute, or rule thereunder, governing credit transactions.

10-10-111. Issuance of policies. All policies of credit insurance shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this state only by an insurer authorized to do an insurance business therein and shall be issued only through holders of licenses or authorizations issued by the commissioner.

10-10-112. Claims. (1) All claims shall be promptly reported to the insurer or its designated claim representative, and the insurer shall maintain adequate claim files. All claims shall be settled as soon as possible and in accordance with the terms of the insurance contract.

(2) All claims shall be paid either by draft drawn upon the insurer or by check of the insurer to the order of the claimant to whom payment of the claim is due pursuant to the policy provisions or upon direction of such claimant to one specified.

(3) No plan or arrangement shall be used whereby any person, firm, or corporation, other than the insurer or its designated claim representative, is authorized to settle or adjust claims. The creditor shall not be designated as claim representative for the insurer in adjusting claims, but a group policyholder may, by arrangement with the group insurer, draw drafts or checks in payment of claims due to the group policyholder subject to audit and review by the insurer.

10-10-114. Enforcement. The commissioner may, after notice and hearing, issue such rules and regulations as he deems appropriate for the supervision of this article. If the commissioner finds that there has been a violation of this article or any rules or regulations issued pursuant thereto, and after written notice thereof and hearing given to the insurer or other person authorized or licensed by the commissioner, he shall set forth the details of his findings, together with an order for compliance by a specified date. Such order is binding on the insurer or other person authorized or licensed by the commissioner on the date specified, unless sooner withdrawn by the commissioner or a stay thereof has been ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

10-10-115. Judicial review. Any party to the proceeding affected by an order of the commissioner shall be entitled to judicial review by the court of appeals by following the procedure set forth in section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S.

10-10-116. Penalties. In addition to any other penalty provided by law, any person, firm, or corporation which violates an order of the commissioner after it has become final, and while such order is in effect, shall, upon proof thereof to the satisfaction of the court, forfeit and pay to the division of insurance a sum not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars which may be recovered in a civil action; except that, if such violation is found to be willful, the amount of such penalty shall be a sum not to exceed one thousand dollars. The commissioner, in his discretion, may revoke or suspend the insurance license or certificate of authority of the person, firm, or corporation guilty of such violation. Such order for suspension or revocation shall be upon notice and hearing and shall be subject to judicial review as provided in section 10-10-115.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For article, "Covering the Gap and Other Arcane Title Insurance Tips", see 12 Colo. Law. 1785 (1983).

10-11-102. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Affiliated business arrangement" means an arrangement in which:

(a) (I) A settlement producer or an associate of such producer has either an affiliate relationship with, or a direct beneficial ownership interest of more than one percent in, a title insurance company or title insurance agent; or

(II) A title insurance company or a title insurance agent who has either an affiliate relationship with, or a direct beneficial ownership interest of more than one percent in a settlement producer; and

(b) (I) Either the settlement producer or the agent of the settlement producer directly or indirectly refers settlement service business to that title insurance company or title insurance agent or affirmatively influences the selection of that title insurance company or title insurance agent; or

(II) Either the title insurance company or the title insurance agent directly or indirectly refers settlement services business to a settlement producer or associate or affirmatively influences the selection of the settlement producer or associate.

(1.5) "Alien title insurance company" means a title insurance company incorporated or organized under the laws of a foreign nation, or of any province or territory thereof, not included under the definition of a foreign title insurance company.

(2) "Applicants for insurance" includes all those, whether or not a prospective insured, who from time to time apply to a title insurance company, or to its agent, for title insurance and who at the time of such application are not agents for a title insurance company.

(2.5) "Associate" means a person who has one or more of the following relationships with a person in a position to refer settlement service business:

- (a) A spouse, parent, or child of such person;
- (b) A corporation or business entity that controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with such person;
- (c) An employer, officer, director, partner, franchiser, or franchisee of such person; or
- (d) Anyone who has an agreement, arrangement, or understanding with such person, the purpose or substantial effect of which is to enable the person in a position to refer settlement service business to benefit financially from referrals of such business.

(3) The "business of title insurance" means the making or proposing to make, as insurer, guarantor, or surety, of any contract or policy of title insurance; or the transacting or proposing to transact, as insurer, guarantor, or surety, any phase of title insurance, including solicitation, negotiation preliminary to execution, execution of a contract of title insurance, and transacting matters subsequent to the execution of the contract and arising out of it, including reinsurance, and the performance of closing and settlement services by a title insurance company or title insurance agent in conjunction with the issuance of any contract or policy of title insurance.

(3.5) "Closing and settlement services" means providing services for the benefit of all necessary parties in connection with the sale, leasing, encumbering, mortgaging, creating a secured interest in and to real property, and the receipt and disbursement of money in connection with any sale, lease, encumbrance, mortgage, or deed of trust.

(3.7) "Gap coverage" means insuring, guaranteeing, or indemnifying owners of real property, or others interested therein, against loss or damage suffered by reason of matters appearing of record in the office of the clerk and recorder subsequent to the date of issuance of a title insurance commitment and prior to the recording of closing documents for the real property concerned.

(4) "Net retained liability" means the total liability retained by a title insurance company under any policy or contract of insurance, or under a single insurance risk as defined in or computed in accordance with subsection (7) of this section, after the purchase of reinsurance.

(5) "Premium" for title insurance is the amount charged by a title insurance company, agent for a title insurance company, or either of them to an insured or an applicant for insurance for the assumption by the title insurance company of the risk created by the issuance of the title insurance policy, including the cost of doing business and a reasonable profit, but excluding service charge, if any.

(6) "Service charge" is the amount charged by a title insurance company, agent for a title insurance company, or either of them to an insured or an applicant for insurance to cover the cost of procuring and examining evidence of title.

(6.5) (a) "Settlement producer" means a person who is in a position to refer business that is incident to or a part of a settlement service. "Settlement producer" includes, but is not limited to, a person who:

- (I) Buys or sells an interest in real property;
  - (II) Lends or borrows moneys with an interest in real property as security;
  - (III) Acts as an agent, representative, attorney, or employee of a person who:
    - (A) Buys or sells an interest in real property; or
    - (B) Lends or borrows moneys with an interest in real estate as security;
  - (IV) Is an associate of a person described in this subsection (6.5).
- (b) Nothing in this subsection (6.5) shall be construed to include a title insurance company or a title insurance agent.

(6.7) "Settlement service" means any service provided in connection with a real estate settlement. "Settlement services" include, but are not limited to, the following:

- (a) Title searches;

- (b) Title examinations;
  - (c) The provision of title certificates;
  - (d) Title insurance;
  - (e) Services rendered by an attorney;
  - (f) The preparation of title documents;
  - (g) Property surveys;
  - (h) The rendering of credit reports or appraisals;
  - (i) Pest and fungus inspections;
  - (j) Services rendered by a real estate broker;
  - (k) Services rendered by a real estate appraiser;
  - (l) Home inspection services;
  - (m) The origination of a loan;
  - (n) The taking of a loan application;
  - (o) Processing of a loan;
  - (p) Underwriting and funding of a loan;
  - (q) Escrow handling services;
  - (r) The handling of the processing; and
  - (s) Closing of settlement.
- (7) "Single insurance risk" means the insured amount of any policy or contract of title insurance issued by a title insurance company unless two or more policies or contracts are simultaneously issued on different estates in identical real property, in which event, it means the sum of the insured amounts of all such policies or contracts. Any such policy or contract that insures a mortgage interest that is excepted in a fee or leasehold policy or contract, and which does not exceed the insured amount of such fee or leasehold policy or contract, shall be excluded in computing the amount of a single insurance risk.

(8) "Title insurance" means insuring, guaranteeing, or indemnifying owners of real property or others interested therein against loss or damage suffered by reason of liens or encumbrances upon, defects in, or the unmarketability of the title to said property.

(9) "Title insurance agent" means a person authorized by a title insurance company to solicit insurance or to collect premiums or to issue or countersign policies in its behalf.

(10) "Title insurance company" means any domestic company organized under the provisions of this article for the purpose of insuring titles to real property; any title insurance company organized under the laws of another state or foreign nation and licensed to insure titles to real estate within this state; and any domestic, foreign, or alien company having the power and authorized to insure titles to real estate within this state on or before July 1, 1969, and which meets the requirements of this article.

ANNOTATION

This article provides a rather comprehensive set of regulations for title insurance companies and specifically provides that title insurance rates shall be regulated in the manner provided for regulation of casualty and surety insurance. Commander Leasing Co. v. Transamerica Title Ins. Co., 477 F.2d 77 (10th Cir. 1973).

Plaintiff's contention which characterized Colorado's purported regulation of the title insurance business as a "mere sham and a pretense" and not affording "effective" and "meaningful" regulation does not stand up when the Colorado regulatory statutes are examined. Commander Leasing Co. v. Transamerica Title Ins. Co., 477 F.2d 77 (10th Cir. 1973).

Both domestic and foreign title insurance companies subject to regulation. Both domestic and foreign title insurance companies are and have been subject to the general regulatory powers vested in the state insurance commissioner. Commander Leasing Co. v. Transamerica Title Ins. Co., 477 F.2d 77 (10th Cir. 1973).

State's unfair practices act and an illegal restraint of trade act are applicable to the business of title insurance. Commander Leasing Co. v. Transamerica Title Ins. Co., 477 F.2d 77 (10th Cir. 1973).

Effect of regulation on private antitrust action. The business of title insurance is the "business of insurance", and the state of Colorado regulates the title insurance business to the end that under the McCarran act, a federal statute exempting the insurance business from the federal antitrust laws if it is regulated by the state, a private antitrust action would not lie against certain title insurance companies doing business in Colorado. Commander Leasing Co. v. Transamerica Title Ins. Co., 477 F.2d 77 (10th Cir. 1973).

10-11-104. Corporate form required. Any domestic title insurance company formed after July 1, 1969, shall be organized as a stock corporation as provided in section 10-3-101.

10-11-105. Financial requirements prior to this article. (1) Every domestic title insurance company which on July 1, 1969, has the capital required by law and whose reserve fund required by law has been approved by the state bank commissioner shall have until July 1 in the tenth year after July 1, 1969, to comply with the financial requirements of this article, but the capital and reserve fund of each such title insurance company shall at no time be less than that required by law immediately prior to July 1, 1969.

(2) The reserve fund required by law immediately prior to July 1, 1969, for each domestic title insurance company engaged in the business of title insurance shall be supervised by the commissioner on and after July 1, 1969. As soon as practicable, the state bank commissioner shall furnish to the commissioner a list of all such title insurance companies and an inventory of securities and deposits approved by said bank commissioner for the reserve fund of each such company, and shall deliver to the commissioner all such securities and deposits then on deposit with the state bank commissioner and all safe deposit box keys, deposit receipts, certificates of deposit, and other evidences or means of control thereof to the commissioner. Every bank, savings and loan association, or other escrow or depository agent is authorized to accept the substitution of the commissioner for the state bank commissioner on any certificate of deposit or deposit receipt or any authority to enter a safe deposit box with reference to any reserve fund of a title insurance company. Every such bank, savings and loan association, or other escrow or depository agent and the state bank commissioner shall be held harmless from any liability as a result of such substitution and shall take such action as may be necessary or advisable to effect such substitution.

10-11-106. Determination of insurability required. (1) No policy or contract of title insurance shall be written unless and until the title insurance company has caused to be conducted a reasonable examination of the title and has caused to be made a determination of insurability of title in accordance with sound underwriting practices for title insurance companies. Evidence thereof shall be preserved and retained in the files of the title insurance company or its agent for a period of not less than seven years after the policy or contract of title insurance has been issued. In lieu of retaining the original copy, the title insurance company, or the agent of the title insurance company, may, in the regular course of business, establish a system whereby all or part of these writings are recorded, copied, or reproduced by any photographic, photostatic, microfilm, microcard, miniature photographic, or other process which accurately reproduces or forms a durable medium for reproducing the original. This section shall not apply to either a company assuming no primary liability in a contract of reinsurance or a company acting as a coinsurer if one of the other coinsuring companies has complied with this section.

(2) A title insurance company shall not be obligated to make a written disclosure to its prospective insureds prior to the issuance of a title insurance policy of the following documents if a reasonable examination of title referred to in subsection (1) of this section reveals a recorded document that:

- (a) Is a spurious lien or spurious document as defined in section 38-35-201, C.R.S.;
- (b) Is not, according to sound underwriting practices for title insurance companies, an impairment of record concerning the property to be insured; or
- (c) Although it may purport to do so, does not encumber the property to be insured.

10-11-107. Powers. (1) Every title insurance company has the following powers:

- (a) To do the business defined in section 10-11-102 (3) and (8);
- (b) To own, manage, and maintain sets of abstract books and to make, compile, and sell abstracts of title to real estate;
- (c) To acquire by purchase or otherwise, and to hold, sell, mortgage, or otherwise dispose of, real estate and personal property, or any interest therein, either within or without the state of Colorado and to loan or borrow money upon such real estate or personal property.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For article, “‘Good Funds’ Law and New Title Insurance Regulations”, see 18 Colo. Law. 233 (1989).

10-11-108. Prohibitions. (1) A title insurance company or title insurance agent shall not:

- (a) Engage in the business of guaranteeing the payment of the principal or the interest of bonds, notes, or other obligations;
- (b) Transact, underwrite, or issue any kind of insurance other than title insurance;
- (c) Give or receive or attempt to give or receive remuneration in any form pursuant to any agreement or understanding, oral or otherwise, for the referral of title insurance business;
- (d) Give or receive or attempt to give or receive any portion or percentage of any charge made or received in connection with the business of title insurance if such charge is not for services actually rendered. For purposes of this article, “services actually rendered” shall include but not be limited to a reasonable examination of a title, including instruments of record, and a determination of insurability of such title in accordance with sound underwriting practices; “services actually rendered” shall not include the mere referral of title insurance business.

(2) Nothing in this article, or in any other provision of law governing the insurance industry, shall be construed to prohibit:

- (a) Compensation by a title insurance company of an attorney who is licensed to practice in Colorado for services actually rendered in connection with a real estate transaction, regardless of whether such attorney represents a client in such real estate transaction. Compensation of the attorney for services actually rendered shall not include the payment of an hourly fee paid by the client combined with a payment from the title insurance company for the same service; except that prior to issuing any title insurance commitment, such attorney shall disclose to any party represented by such attorney in the transaction for which the commitment shall be issued that such attorney may be compensated for the issuance of such title insurance commitment.

(b) Payment to any person of a bona fide salary or compensation for payment of goods and facilities actually furnished or for services actually rendered.

(3) Any party to a transaction which is subject to this section shall have a right of action for any actual loss or damage resulting from any violation of this section.

10-11-109. Unearned premium reserve. (1) In lieu of those reserves required for other insurance companies, every domestic title insurance company, and every foreign or alien title insurance company which under the state of domicile is not required to maintain a substantially equivalent unearned premium reserve, shall, in addition to other reserves, establish and maintain a reserve to be known as the "unearned premium reserve" for title insurance, which shall, at all times and for all purposes, constitute the unearned portions of premiums due or received and shall be charged as a reserve liability of such title insurance company in determining its financial condition.

(2) The unearned premium reserve shall be retained and held by such title insurance company for the protection of the policyholders' interest in policies which have not expired. Except upon liquidation, dissolution, or insolvency, assets equal to the amount of such reserve shall not be subject to distribution among depositors or other creditors or stockholders of such title insurance company until all claims of policyholders or holders of other title insurance contracts or agreements of such title insurance company have been paid in full and all liability on the policies or other title insurance contracts or agreements, whether contingent or actual, has been discharged or lawfully reinsured. Income from the investment of the amount of such reserve shall be the unrestricted property of the title insurance company.

10-11-110. Amount of unearned premium reserve - release. (1) The unearned premium reserve of every title insurance company required to maintain such reserves in this state shall consist of:

(a) The amount of the unearned premium reserve held as of July 1, 1969, pursuant to law; and

(b) The amount of all additions required to be made to such reserve by this section, less the withdrawals therefrom as permitted by this section.

(2) On and after July 1, 1969, every title insurance company shall add to its unearned premium reserve, in respect to each title insurance policy, leasehold policy, contract, or reinsurance agreement issued by it, a sum equal to one dollar for each such policy, contract, or agreement, plus fifteen cents for each one thousand dollars face amount of net retained liability on each such policy, contract, or reinsurance agreement, as defined in section

10-11-102 (4), or the amount reinsured by it, and shall separately record the aggregate amounts so set aside and reserved in respect to such policies, contracts, or agreements written in each calendar year.

(3) The amounts set aside as additions to the unearned premium reserve shall be deducted from income in determining net profits of any title insurance company.

(4) For the purposes of determining the amounts of the unearned premium reserve that may be withdrawn pursuant to subsection (5) of this section, all policies, contracts of title insurance, or reinsurance agreements of title insurance shall be considered as dated July 1 in the year of issue.

(5) On and before December 31, 2000, the aggregate of the amounts set aside in unearned premium reserve in any calendar year pursuant to subsection (2) of this section shall be released from said reserve and restored to income pursuant to the following formula: One-tenth of said aggregate sum on July 1 of each of the five years next succeeding the year of addition to the reserve and one-thirtieth of said aggregate sum on July 1 of each succeeding year thereafter until the entire sum has been so released and restored to income. On and after January 1, 2001, the aggregate of the amounts set aside in unearned premium reserve in any calendar year pursuant to subsection (2) of this section shall be released from said reserve and restored to income in accordance with the formula prescribed by nationally recognized insurance statutory accounting principles.

(6) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2001, p. 286, § 11, effective March 30, 2001.)

(7) If substantially the entire outstanding liability under all policies, contracts of title insurance, and reinsurance agreements of any such title insurance company shall be reinsured, the value of the consideration received by a reinsuring title insurance company authorized to transact the business of title insurance in this state shall constitute, in its entirety, unearned portions of original premiums and shall be added to its unearned premium reserve, and shall be deemed, for recovery purposes, to have been provided for liabilities assumed during the year of such reinsurance. The amount of such addition to the unearned premium reserve of such assuming title insurance company shall be not less than two-thirds of the amount of the unearned premium reserve required to be maintained by the ceding title insurance company at the time of such reinsurance.

10-11-111. Reserve for unpaid losses and loss expense. (1) Each title insurance company, in addition to other reserves, shall at all times establish and maintain reserves against unpaid losses, and against loss expense, and shall calculate such reserves by making a careful estimate in each case of the loss and loss expense likely to be incurred by reason of every claim presented, pursuant to notice from or on behalf of the policyholder, of a title defect in or lien or adverse claim against the title insured that may result in a loss or cause expense to be incurred for the proper disposition of the claim. The sums of the items so estimated shall be the total amounts of the reserves against unpaid losses and loss expenses of such title insurance company.

(2) The amounts so estimated may be revised from time to time as circumstances warrant but shall be redetermined at least once each year.

(3) The amounts set aside in such reserves in any year shall be deducted in determining the net profits for such year of any title insurance company.

10-11-112. Net retained liability. The net retained liability of any title insurance company under any single insurance risk, as defined in section 10-11-102 (4) and (7), shall not exceed fifty percent of the net amount remaining after deducting from the sum of its capital, surplus, unearned premium reserve, and voluntary reserves the value, if any, assigned in such summation to its title plant, all as shown in its most recent report on file with the commissioner. The same limitation shall apply to any secondary risk assumed by means of reinsurance or to any policy of excess coinsurance; except that, whenever the primary retained liability of a ceding company equals or exceeds ten percent of the single insurance risk liability, the net retained or assumed liability limit of this section may be increased by an additional two hundred fifty thousand dollars, but in no event above one hundred percent of the net amount remaining after deducting from the sum of its capital and surplus the value, if any, assigned in such summation to its title plant, all as shown by its most recent report on file with the commissioner. Nothing in this section is intended to limit the amount of a single insurance risk, as defined in section 10-11-102 (7), that may be written by a title insurance company; but it shall cede to one or more other title reinsurers, on or before the effective date of such writing, such portion of the said risk as shall be sufficient to bring its net retained liability thereunder within the limits prescribed in this section; and each such cession of risk shall be within the limits of this section as applied to the sum of the capital, surplus, unearned premium reserve, and voluntary reserves, less the value, if any, assigned in such summation to the title plants of the reinsuring company, as shown by its most recent report on file with the supervisory agency in the state of its domicile.

10-11-113. Power to reinsure. Any title insurance company may cede reinsurance of all or any part of its liability under one or more of its policies, contracts, or reinsurance agreements of title insurance to any reinsurer which meets or exceeds the financial requirements of a title insurance company to do business in this state and is authorized to engage in the business of reinsurance of title insurance in this or any other state; but no larger amount of reinsurance shall be ceded to any reinsurer on a single policy or contract of title insurance, or on any single insurance risk, as defined in section 10-11-102 (7), than such reinsurer would be permitted to retain if authorized to engage in the business of title insurance in this state. Any title insurance company may also reinsure policies of title insurance issued by other insurance companies on risks located in this state or elsewhere. Any domestic title insurance company or any foreign or alien title insurance company authorized to do business in this state shall pay to this state taxes required on all business taxable within this state and reinsured, as provided in this section, with any foreign or alien company not authorized to do business within this state. Issuance of contracts of reinsurance by a reinsurer not authorized to engage in the business of title insurance in this state but authorized to engage in the business of title insurance or in the business of reinsurance of title insurance in any of the United States, which contracts reinsure policies of title insurance issued by a title insurance company authorized to engage in the business of title insurance in this state on real property located in this state, shall not of itself constitute the doing of business in this state by such reinsurer.

10-11-114. Legal investments and admitted assets. (1) Title insurance companies shall comply with the investment requirements for other insurance companies under the laws of this state but, in addition, may invest in a title plant. Such title plant shall be considered an admitted asset as provided by nationally recognized insurance statutory accounting principles. The real estate in which the title plant is housed shall be considered an investment under section 10-3-218. Subject to the limitations of this section and with the approval of the commissioner, a title insurance company may enter into agreements with one or more other title insurance companies authorized to do business in this state whereby such companies shall participate in the ownership, management, and control of a title plant to serve the needs of all such companies, or such companies may hold stock of a corporation owning and operating a title plant for such purposes.

(2) A title insurance company shall include as an admitted asset accounts receivable relating to gross premiums, less agent retention, in the course of collection. Accounts receivable that are more than ninety days past due from the date of notification of the issuance of the policy shall not be included as an admitted asset.

10-11-115. Prior investments. Any investment of a title insurance company lawfully acquired before July 1, 1969, and which but for this section would be considered ineligible as an investment on such date shall be disposed of within five years from such date. The commissioner, upon application and proof that forced sale of any such investment would be contrary to the best interests of the title insurance company and its policyholders, may extend the period for sale or disposal of such investment for a further reasonable time, in no event to exceed three years.

10-11-116. Title insurance agents licensed. (1) (a) Title insurance agents shall be licensed in the manner provided for insurance producers in part 4 of article 2 of this title, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(b) Full-time employees of a corporate contractual agent of a title insurance company authorized by such company or such contractual agent to issue or countersign binders or policies in behalf of such title insurance company shall be so licensed.

(c) A license shall be issued to an attorney-at-law licensed to practice in this state if a title insurance company notifies the commissioner in writing of the name and address of each such attorney it desires to appoint as its agent and upon payment of the fees required by sections 10-3-207 and 24-31-104.5, C.R.S.

(2) No individual, partnership, corporation, or other legal entity contractually authorized by a title insurance company as its agent to issue or countersign binders or policies on its behalf, other than an attorney otherwise qualified under subsection (1) (c) of this section, shall be licensed unless, in addition to all other requirements of this article and of articles 1 to 3 of this title, the agent possesses actual paid-in cash capital, or, if an individual, has a net worth, of at least ten thousand dollars.

(3) Title insurance agents possessing a title plant, as described in section 10-11-114, may satisfy the requirements of subsection (2) of this section by submitting to the commissioner of insurance, in a form acceptable to the commissioner, the written affidavit of a certified public accountant stating that the agent's actual investment in the title plant equals or exceeds the applicable amount set forth in subsection (2) of this section, or, alternatively, that the aggregate of the agent's paid-in cash capital or net worth, as applicable, and the agent's actual investment in the title plant equals or exceeds the applicable amount set forth in subsection (2) of this section.

(4) A licensed contractual agent of a title insurance company shall preserve and retain its closing and settlement services and escrow files for a period of not less than seven years after the closing, or completion, of said files. In lieu of retaining the original files, a licensed contractual agent of a title insurance company may, in its regular course of business, establish a system whereby the files are recorded, copied, or reproduced by any photographic, microfilm, or other process which accurately reproduces or forms a durable medium for reproduction of the original files. Upon cessation of business by a contractual agent of a title insurance company the files shall be deposited with the division of insurance or with a title insurance company or licensed contractual agent of a title insurance company authorized by the division of insurance.

10-11-117. Title insurance agents - certain names prohibited. On and after July 1, 1969, no agent for a title insurance company shall adopt a firm name containing the words "title insurance", "title guaranty", or "title guarantee", unless such words are followed by the words "agent" or "agency". The words "agent" or "agency" must be in the same size and type as the words preceding them. This section shall not apply to any title insurance company acting as agent for another title insurance company.

10-11-118. Title insurance - rules. (1) Title insurance rates and fees shall be regulated in the manner provided in part 4 of article 4 of this title.

(2) Prior to the effective date of any new or amended rate or fee, every title insurance company and title insurance agent shall file with the commissioner the new or amended rate or fee, with justification for the new or amended rate or fee. Each filing shall set forth its effective date, which shall be no earlier than thirty days after its receipt by the commissioner. The commissioner may promulgate rules to implement this subsection (2).

(3) No title insurance company or title insurance agent shall use any rate or fee in the business of title insurance prior to its effective date, and no rate or fee increase or decrease shall apply to title policies or services that have been contracted for prior to such effective date. All rates or fees shall be readily available to the public in each office of the title insurance company or title insurance agent in the county to which said rates or fees apply.

10-11-122. Title commitments. (1) Every title insurance agent or title insurance company shall provide, along with each title commitment issued for the sale of residential real property as defined in section 39-1-102 (14.5), C.R.S., a statement disclosing the following information:

- (a) That the subject real property may be located in a special taxing district;
- (b) That a certificate of taxes due listing each taxing jurisdiction shall be obtained from the county treasurer or the county treasurer's authorized agent;
- (c) That information regarding special districts and the boundaries of such districts may be obtained from the board of county commissioners, the county clerk and recorder, or the county assessor.

(2) Failure of a title insurance agent or a title insurance company to provide the statement required by subsection (1) of this section shall subject such agent or company to the penalty provisions of section 10-3-111 but shall not affect or invalidate any provisions of the commitment for title insurance.

(3) Before issuing any title insurance policy, unless the proposed insured provides written instructions to the contrary, a title insurance agent or title insurance company shall obtain a certificate of taxes due or other equivalent documentation from the county treasurer or the county treasurer's authorized agent.

10-11-123. Notification of severed mineral estates. (1) For purposes of this section:

- (a) "Mineral estate" means a mineral interest in real property.
- (b) "Severed" means that the surface owner does not own all or any part of the mineral estate.

(c) "Surface estate" means an interest in real property that does not include the full mineral estate as shown by recorded documents that impart constructive notice in the office of the clerk and recorder of the county in which the real property is situated.

(d) "Surface owner" means the owner of the surface estate and any purchaser with rights under a contract to purchase all or part of the surface estate.

(2) A title insurance agent or title insurance company shall provide, as part of each title commitment for the issuance of an owner's title insurance policy, the following written statement when it is determined that a mineral estate has been severed from the surface estate:

- (a) That there is recorded evidence that a mineral estate has been severed, leased, or otherwise conveyed from the surface estate and that there is a substantial likelihood that a third party holds some or all interest in oil, gas, other minerals, or geothermal energy in the property; and

- (b) That such mineral estate may include the right to enter and use the property without the surface owner's permission.

(3) In determining compliance with this section, a title insurance agent or title insurance company may rely on recorded documents that impart constructive notice in the office of the clerk and recorder of the county in which the real property is situated and shall not be liable for any errors or omissions in such records.

(4) A title insurance company or title insurance agent may rely on any document purporting to sever mineral interests to act as notice of such severance when such document is recorded in the office of the county clerk and recorder in the county in which the real property is situated.

(5) A title insurance agent or title insurance company shall be deemed to be in compliance with this section when it relies on any document purporting to sever mineral interests or to act as notice of such severance when such document is recorded in the office of the county clerk and recorder of the county in which the real property is situated. No title insurance agent or title insurance company shall be liable for obligations above, or for an amount in excess of, those stated in the owner's policy of title insurance issued pursuant to the commitment for failure to comply with the provision of subsection (2) of this section.

10-11-124. Affiliated business arrangements - rules - investigative information shared with division of real estate. (1) (a) An affiliated business arrangement is permitted where the person referring business to the affiliated business arrangement receives payment only in the form of a return on an investment and where it does not violate the provisions of section 10-11-108 (1).

(b) A title insurance company or a title insurance agent making a referral as part of an affiliated business arrangement shall disclose the affiliation in accordance with the federal "Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act of 1974", as amended, 12 U.S.C. sec. 2601 et seq.

(c) Neither a title insurance company nor a title insurance agent shall require the use of an affiliated business arrangement or a particular settlement producer as a condition of obtaining title insurance services from the company or agent. For the purposes of this paragraph (c), "require the use" shall have the same meaning as "required use" in 24 CFR 3500.2 (b).

(2) The commissioner may promulgate rules concerning the creation and conduct of an affiliated business arrangement, including, but not limited to, rules defining what constitutes a sham affiliated business arrangement. Nothing in this subsection (2) shall be construed to increase a fee or create a licensure program for affiliated business arrangements. The commissioner shall adopt the rules, policies, or guidelines issued by the United States department of housing and urban development concerning the federal "Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act of 1974", as amended, 12 U.S.C. sec. 2601 et seq. Rules adopted by the commissioner shall be at least as stringent as the federal rules and shall ensure that consumers are adequately informed about affiliated business arrangements. The commissioner shall consult with the real estate commission pursuant to section 12-61-113.2 (5), C.R.S., concerning rules the real estate commission may promulgate concerning affiliated business arrangements. Neither the rules promulgated by the commissioner nor the real estate commission may create a conflicting regulatory burden on an affiliated business arrangement.

(3) The division may share information gathered during an investigation of an affiliated business arrangement with the division of real estate.

10-11-125. Fees, salaries, compensation, or other payments. (1) Nothing in section 10-11-124 or 10-11-126 shall be construed to prohibit payment of a fee to:

(a) An attorney for services actually rendered;

(b) A title insurance company to its duly appointed agent for services actually performed in the issuance of a policy of title insurance; or

(c) A lender to its duly appointed agent for services actually performed in the making of a loan.

(2) Nothing in section 10-11-124 or 10-11-126 shall be construed to prohibit payment to any person of:

(a) A bona fide salary or compensation or other payment for goods or facilities actually furnished or for services actually performed; or

(b) A fee pursuant to cooperative brokerage and referral arrangements or agreements between real estate brokers.

(3) It shall not be a violation of section 10-11-124:

(a) For an affiliated business arrangement to require a buyer, borrower, or seller to pay for the services of any attorney, credit reporting agency, or real estate appraiser chosen by the lender to represent the lender's interest in a real estate transaction; or

(b) For an affiliated business arrangement where an attorney or law firm represents a client in a real estate transaction and issues or arranges for the issuance of a policy of title insurance in the transaction directly as agent or through a separate corporate title insurance agency that may be established by that attorney or law firm and operated as an adjunct to his or her law practice.

PART 1

MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANIES AND MUTUAL PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATIONS

10-12-101. Mutual protective associations. (1) One hundred or more persons, desiring to form and be members of a mutual protective association, are authorized to and may insure each other against loss or damage by any peril or perils resulting in physical loss or damage to property, including theft of personal property, situated in this state in which said persons have an insurable interest if said persons first subscribe their names and addresses to articles of association which provide and set forth:

(a) The name of said association, which shall contain the words “protective association”;

(b) The city or town where the principal office of the association is located and where the books and records are maintained;

(c) The names and addresses of directors who shall serve for the first year of existence of the association, which number of directors shall not be less than three nor more than seven and which directors must be members;

(d) That members shall be entitled to one vote each and shall elect directors at each annual meeting for a term not to exceed three years, after the first year of existence. The members of said association shall consist of the one hundred or more persons subscribing the articles of association who shall also be policyholders bona fide applicants for insurance at the time their names are subscribed to the articles and, in addition, all other persons becoming policyholders thereafter for the period during the year in which their policies are in full force and effect. The policies of the members shall be effective concurrently with, or within one year from, the granting of a certificate of authority to said association. If the period of insurance coverage is less than a year, each member will be a full-fledged member for a complete year.

(e) The specific risks which said association purposes to insure, which shall be one or more of the risks specified in this section;

(f) The manner in which premiums will be charged or assessments levied against the members for the purpose of paying losses and expenses of management of said association; except that each association organized on or after April 20, 1949, and authorized to insure against any insurable risks specified in the articles of association and all said associations which charge an advance premium instead of operating on the pure assessment basis shall at all times maintain on deposit with the commissioner a sum equal to twenty-five thousand dollars in cash or convertible securities as a guaranty fund to guarantee faithful performance of the contract. Upon dissolution, such guaranty fund shall become the property of the person who deposits it, subject to all claims provided for in sections 10-12-101 to 10-12-104.

(2) County mutual protective associations now operating in Colorado upon a pure assessment plan and such associations which do not write insurance upon growing crops but operate upon an assessment plan with the stated liability of each member set forth in its policies need not maintain any deposit with the commissioner nor maintain any reserves as provided in this section.

(3) Each association operating on an advance premium system and authorized to insure against any insurable risks specified in this section shall allocate and set aside at least sixty-five percent of all annual gross premiums received under all policies as a loss reserve to be used only for the payment of losses. In the event said loss reserve is insufficient to meet all adjusted loss claims for the year, an amount not exceeding five percent of the net premiums received shall be taken from the guaranty fund and added to the loss reserve to make up any deficit. The amount of said loss reserve then shall be distributed ratably among all policyholders suffering loss.
